LETTERS FROM FRANCE

Bugler Perley Knights writes to Friends Here

The first authentic news that some of the Kennebunk boys were some where in France was received last Friday when Mr. Eugene Knight, Mrs. Myrtle Cousins, Miss Ruth Cousins, Miss Lucy Knight, Mrs. W. E. Currier, Miss Mabel Hicks were among local people who received letters.

France, Oct. 26th 1917.
Dear Myrtle:—
Received your letter dated Sept. 20th, and was kind of surprised to get it as we haven't received our overseas mail yet but expect to about tomorrow.

Everything is going O. K. here and I am feeling fine. Do you send the papers regularly? I'll know in a day or so anyway, I hope so as I would like to know just how things are going at home.

I'm going to ask you if you know how to make one of those cakes that they make around Christmas time that the longer you keep them the softer they get. Well! do you know that's about the kind of a cake I'd like to receive from home. I don't want the "Receipt" I would rather have the cake. What do you think about it?

We are getting good eats here, but you know if I had a little cake it would go kind of good between meals.

As there is an entertainment here (Y. M. C. A.) I will have to cut this kind of short, but I'll write later so you can look for another letter pretty soon.

The Y. M. C. A. are furnishing fine recreation for the soldiers and I guess they appreciate it very much. I know I do.

I almost had to laugh when you spoke about a farmer expressing his opinion of the new fire truck in the paper. It seems as though I heard a little about that and yet I don't know whether I did or not.

I guess I'll have to close now as the entertainment is going on so hoping this reaches you O. K. and you use your own judgment regarding the cake I will close for this time. Love to all. Perley.

Bugler Knight in another letter writes:—"Fudge would go pretty good here, now. Can you take a hint?"

France, Oct. 26, 1917.

Dear Pa:—
At last I have found time to write you a few lines, and want to say I could have written a couple of days ago, but outside of that I didn't get the chance.

Last night I wrote you a letter but didn't mail it as it was almost to short. At the time there was an entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. and when I was through writing I had an awful mixed up mess of things so decided to wait until tonight and write another.

I arrived in France lately and we came O. K.

As I understand it now, I think all soldier's mail goes free of postage, from here, providing it is directed right, of which I think mine is correct, so you can see if we are short of postage stamps we can write just the same, so you will hear from me pretty often.

How are you? and the things around town? Also how is the boys? Tell them I'll write them when I get a chance.

This morning I got a letter from Mrs. C. that was written about Sept. 20th. This was the first mail I've received since I left the States, outside of the two letters I received on the boat, when about a half a day out. But I understand that there is quite a lot of mail for us that was due a day or two ago, but owing to some difficulty we couldn't seem to get a hold of it, but we expect it to-morrow (Saturday). I hope I have enough letters to read that it will take a day or two to read them. I expect quite a few anyway.

The Y. M. C. A.'s where we have been so far, are certainly doing fine work, every one always has some kind of entertainment for the fellows, and the fellows all appreciate it too.

I am getting along fine and so are the other K—fellows. I take pretty good care of myself and so you see that helps out. We are getting fine food better than I ever expected. The weather doesn't seem to be very cold, or else I don't mind it very much.

I guess I'll close for this time as I have a few other letters to write. Hoping this reaches you O. K. I'll write later.

Love to all Perley.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

The meeting on Nov. 16 was devoted mainly to the testing of scouts in second and first class tests. All of the first class tests were passed by Nelson Hall and Sterling Dow at the meeting before this and by John Rogers at this meeting. Several more have the tests nearly completed.

This meeting is the first troop anniversary. Nelson and Milton Hall have been present at every meeting during the year. Norman Sweet, Alton Webber, Carleton Miner, Gordon Phillips, Sterling Dow and Arthur Lank have not been absent in the last six months. These scouts will receive appropriate badges.

Sterling Dow,
Scout Scribe.

LAST HONORS ARE PAID

The funeral of William H. Littlefield, who was killed in an auto accident last Wednesday, took place at the Congregational Church last Saturday afternoon. Rev. Robert T. Doremus, chaplain of the Masonic Lodge, and minister of the Unitarian Church, officiating. York Lodge of Masons was in charge.

Delegations were present representing the Eastern Star, Odd Fellows, Encampment, Olive Rebekah Lodge, Myrtle Lodge of the Uniform Rank, Allan Dramatic Club, Kennebunk Fire Society, Board of Trade, Lafayette Club, also town officials and hundreds of friends. All business was suspended for two hours during the services. Burial was at Hope Cemetery.

The floral tributes were so profuse that the altar of the church was literally buried under them.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Lenora Butland was given a surprise last Thursday the occasion being a birthday anniversary. Mrs. Butland had been persuaded to attend the movies but before she was ready to start a company of about 20 relatives and friends had assembled at her home to enjoy the evening with her. Refreshments were served and Mrs. Butland was presented with a substantial sum of money to use for what ever purpose she saw fit.

We have several letters from our boys in France which will be published next week.

The many friends of Leslie Titcomb will be glad to know that his parents this week have received two letters the first they have received since going across. He says he is well and they are in Winter quarters in France.

NEAR $1.000 FOR Y. M. C. A. WORK

Notwithstanding the fact that many people were away at the time the appointed committees called and that some were not even solicited, the receipt from the recent campaign shows $754.15 received in cash and $187.25 in pledges, a total of $941.40 Kennebunk's contribution to the Y. M. C. A. work. The allotment was $400.00 and as usual the citizens of Kennebunk have done themselves proud. When one realizes the subscription to both Liberty Loans, the large amount of work done for the Red Cross as well as the numerous other calls that Kennebunk people answer, the citizens of our village may feel proud of the showing they have made since last April.

WEBHANNET ENTERTAINS
CLUB WOMEN

More than a hundred ladies from all the clubs in York county gathered at the Unitarian church in this village Monday afternoon to enjoy the hospitality of the Web-hannet club, the largest delegation, 30 in number, representing the Olympian club of Kennebunkport.
Mrs. Mabel E. Greenleaf, president of the club, graciously welcomed the guests and introduced Dr. Burrage, state historian, as the speaker of the afternoon. His topic was "The Map of 1610," that rare document originally made on the order of King James by an engineer expressly sent to Jamestown to record all existing knowledge of the coast. This map was lost in England, but was found in Spain many centuries later and was published in 1892 in Brown's Genesis of the United States. On this map was written Cape Porpus, discovered by Pring, in addition to many other features of interest, Martha's Vineyard, Cape Cod, St. George's river and Island, now Monhegan, as well as the Bay of Fundy and the St.
Lawrence river.

Cape Porpus was the name applied for a hundred years to the whole section lying up from Cape Porpoise to York. Major Burrage wove into a most fascinating story
the accounts of the early voyages, which preceded this map, the only map which gave correctly the American coast. Long Island does not appear on it, as far south as Jamestown. In conclusion, he quoted the pathetic words of Consul General St. Croix, at the Tercentenary of 1904: "It has been the lot of France to scatter many fruitful seeds, the benefit of which others have reaped."

Miss Miriam Burke sang several delightful songs in a charming fashion. Responses from various clubs were given to special topics.
Mrs. Hanson, president of the Olympian club, reported on the subject of the open meetings, for which the Olympian club is famous, having entertained some of the well known people of the country during its summer season. Mrs. Emerson of the Educational and Industrial Union gave an infallible receipt for efficient committee work and organization.

For the Thursday club, Mrs. Annie Cole emphasized the playground work of the club, which paid for four instructors last summer. Mrs. Doley of the Old Orchard club recounted the tale of the entertainment of the Boys Conference and read the fine list of speakers. Two clubs reported definite war work, the Kittery club having organized and conducted a most successful Red Cross organization. Mrs. Belle Leavitt president of the Searchlight club of Sanford, reported that this club had already raised almost $800 for Christmas boxes for the Sanford soldiers and had already prepared over 200 such boxes. The club is to devote its fees to Red Cross work and its meetings to making surgical shirts for the Red Cross.

The Webhannet club reported through its president that they had taken charge of the district nursing and had bought a Liberty bond.
After the reports a social hour was spent and refreshments, including sugar for the coffee, were served by the programme committee, assisted by some of the high school girls.

During the meeting, Mrs. Harry H. Burnham of Kennebunk, the York county member of the war relief committee of the federation, spoke in the interest of the God-mothers of Maine. The members of the clubs are asked to serve as godmothers to the boys having no mother or sister or anyone to remember them. The godmother will be asked to write a letter once a week, to send a magazine or paper, or a bit of sweet once in a while and a knitted article when needed by her soldier. Information will gladly be sent to any woman interested either by Mrs.
Burnham or by Mrs. Nellie Jack of Portland chairman of the war relief committee of the federation.

being carried on in 10 out of 14
moving picture towns in York county. F. Roger Miller has accepted the chairmanship of South Berwick and L. R. Williams in Ogunquit.

The programme for York county as sent out by the Committee on Public Safety at Augusta is as follows:

T. B. Walker, chairman in Biddeford; A. A. Richardson, Kennebunk; Andrew M. Rollins, Kennebunkport; T. B. Walker, Saco, with E. M. Deering and E. R. Woodbury; George C. Emery, Sanford and Springvale; Joseph W. Simpson, York Beach and York Village.

Plans are under way to complete organization in the theater towns of York county. Knox and Sagadahoc have speakers in their theaters in every town; Cumberland in 7 out of 8 theater towns; Oxford in 6 out of 7, and Penobscot in 12 out of 15.

Four Minute men are now campaigning in 90 towns and cities all over the state.

Nathan Clifford, chairman of the speakers' bureau in the state in the recent Liberty loan campaign, expresses his deep appreciation of aid given by the 90 Four Minute men chairmen in every county and by their hundreds of speakers including practically all Maine's best orators.

APPEALED TO PRESIDENT

The district exemption board members in session at the state house, received notice Monday that President Wilson had affirmed the decision of the York county exemption board No. 2 with headquarters at Kennebunk town hall, in holding for service Harry Littlefield of Sanford. The young man is a spinner in the Sanford mills and claimed exemption because of the fact that he was making saddles

for the government.

The exemption board also acted on the claims of Herbert Gowen of Wells, who claimed exemption because of a dependent mother, and Raymond W. Hooper of Shapleigh, who claims physical disability. It was decided to send Hooper to camp for examination before a regular army surgeon. Gowen's claim was disallowed.

If it is true, as officers at Camp
Devens are reported to have declared, that lawyers have been charging as high as $200 for filling out exemption claims for soldiers, those lawyers should, on conviction be compelled to face a firing squad at sunrise. And the squad should be composed of the best marksmen available.—Biddeford Journal.

Dr. Edgar S. Hawkes of this town has been named as one of the executors of the will of Henry D. Brackett filed in the Cumberland county probate court. The estate is estimated at $9,000.

A number of people in town who have boys fighting for Uncle Sam are wearing service pins which are white centered bordered with red and stars on the white ground showing by the stars how many sons are in the service.

The rumor that Mr. Joy is to close his bakery on account of the scarcity of sugar is entirely without foundation. Mr. Barrett who has been with Mr. Joy has given up his position but Mr. Joy is to have some one else to fill the vacancy.

A similar letter could be sent from Kennebunk.

A most useful and practical gift for the soldier is a Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen sold and guaranteed by Fiske the druggist.

Not a pound of sugar is to be had at any store in this village, but Edwin C. Webber, the postmaster at West Kennebunk has solved the need for use in drinkables at least. Mr. Webber has supplied his home with stick of candy, using a celery dish for a sugar bowl. The user takes a stick, soaks it in his coffee until enough is absorbed, and then passes it along.

The Weavever Hot water bottle, is moulded in one piece, no seams to leak, no bindings to come off and is guaranteed by Fiske the druggist.

METHODIST CHURCH

Quite an increase was noticed in the attendance at the Sunday morning service, and the evening service was another surprise, the auditorium being well filled with attentive and appreciative listeners.

There were many words of appreciation for the picture sermon, and illustrated songs. It was the old familiar story of "Daniel in the Lion's Den, and His Three Companions in the Fiery Furnace."

The large clear pictures, and the vivid word description, received the closest attention of young and old.

The solo, "The Great Physician," sung by Miss Gladys Blumenstock, and illustrated with stereopticon view, was very much enjoyed.

The W. H. M. S. had its meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen A. Lord, on Brown St., on Tuesday afternoon, and the members received much profit from the report of the recent convention, held in the High St. church, Auburn.

The Kappa Delta Sunday-school class, of which Mrs. Maude Merrieth is teacher, had a most enjoyable time on Tuesday evening, at the parsonage, being entertained by Mrs. R. A. Rich. There was a large representation of the class, and with reading, games, music, and refreshments, the time for saying good night, came altogether too quickly, both for guests and hostesses.

There is to be a committee meeting of representatives of the Epworth League, from Biddeford, Cape Porpoise, Kennebunkport, Sanford, and Kennebunk, at the parsonage this Thursday evening, to make arrangements for the coming institute, to be held with this church in the near future.

The sermon for next Sunday morning will be by the pastor, and in the evening, at 7 o'clock, The Rev. J. M. Frost, D. D., will be the speaker. His subject will be "North Africa," and will be well illustrated with stereopticon pictures. You will desire to see, and to hear, so come along, unless you attend some other church.

On Friday evening, the class-meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alice Goodwin, on Winter St.

The Junior League will meet with Miss Edith Young, at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon, on Summer St.

Union Thanksgiving at five o'clock Thursday at the Methodist Episcopal church. Let all who possibly can attend this service as our people as a whole have much cause for thankfulness.

LOCAL BOYS RECEIVE APPEAL

Clarence Webber, a lawyer with his office in Biddeford, but residing in this village, is enthusiastic over the possibility of raising a company of volunteers, to be offered, when sufficiently trained, to the United States government, in the same way as the Milliken regiment was recruited, drilled and tendered to the government.

Mr. Webber, as all who know him will agree, is energetic in the extreme. He is patriotic through and through. He will put the necessary "pep" into this undertaking if anybody can. He believes there are more than enough young men among those already included in the draft, but not yet called, to make up a company of full war strength, and this without going outside of district No. 2 for recruits. In fact he feels strongly on this subject, so strongly that he believes it is possible to raise a company of volunteers in both districts of this county. The following appeal issued by Mr. Webber is being sent broadcast over the Second district and the results

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.

Fellow Citizen:

The civil authority of our nation by a perfectly legitimate act declared us at war—that means that every citizen of America, bowing to that sense of obligation which he assumes as a citizen, must do his fullest conscientious duty toward his country and for her defense.

The draft law was enacted by congress for the purpose of raising a large army for the defense of our honor and country. The intent of this law was to call only those citizens to the national colors, who are best able, and with as little hardship as possible, to serve their country; but this law does not distinguish between those of you who are patriots, and those who would never volunteer to fight as a soldier of America, except for this same draft law.

BE A VOLUNTEER. You have an opportunity at this time to be a member of a volunteer company being organized, and by so doing, you may fight for your country with your fellowmen, officered by your friends.

Get in touch with me personally if possible, at my home in Kennebunk, or at my office in Biddeford, within the next few days.

There is much to explain if you are interested, and I know you are that would take too long to write in this short appeal.

As soon as your response, either by mail or in person is received, your name will be put on a list of those who have at least interest enough in the welfare of their country to reply.

Most sincerely yours, Clarence Webber.

A most desirable tonic and body builder is our Hypophosphites Compound. Fiske the druggist on the corner.

ELIZABETH M. DEAN BECOMES A BRIDE

Edward H. Gonneville the Groom

A quiet wedding of interest to many local people took place in Biddeford Wednesday noon, when Miss Elizabeth Margaret Dean, oldest daughter of Mrs. Susan J. Dean of South street, became the wife of Edward Henry Gonneville, a young business man of this village.

The ceremony was performed at the Congregational parsonage on Crescent street, the Rev. Harry Trust uniting the couple, using the impressive and beautiful service of the Episcopal church.

The only guests present were William J. Dean, a brother, and Mrs. Lillian Dean Chadbourne of Saco, a sister of the bride. The bride wore her travelling costume of chiffon broadcloth in a taupe shade, with hat and furs to match.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gonneville left on a wedding trip through various cities of Massachusetts and upon their return took their residence here, where a home has been prettily furnished for their occupancy. The groom is manager of the Lahar Market.

Mrs. Gonneville is a Biddeford young woman, a graduate of the High school, also of the Saco Commercial school. For several years she acted as substitute teacher in the public schools and has also held several positions of trust as book-keeper for several business houses. Her last position was in the wholesale fruit and produce market of D. F. Littlefield of Saco where she was assistant book-keeper for two years and head book-keeper for four years, resigning her position recently on account of her approaching marriage.

The many friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Gonneville extend best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

KENNEBUNKPORT

A large audience gathered in Assembly hall last Friday evening to listen to an address by a recently returned ambulance driver, Everett Neally of Bangor, who spent a number of months "somewhere in France," and whose duties took him on occasions into the region of hot firing by the enemy. He held the attention of the people very closely and, at the conclusion of his more formal remarks, gave opportunity for the asking of pertinent questions, many of which were promptly propounded and as readily answered. He also exhibited many war-front photographs, most of them having to do with various phases of hospital work. Mr. Neally resides in Bangor and was relieved from service when America took over the sections where he had been employed. A male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Pierce, Luques, Crouse and Lane, rendered several appropriate selections. The proceeds of the evening were turned over by the Y. W. C. A., under whose auspices the entertainment was arranged, to the Y. M. C. A. War fund.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Congregational church next Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, commencing at 7 o'clock. The service of last year, which was held on Wednesday evening, resulted in the gathering of more people than usually assembled on Thursday morning, the evening hour being especially favorable for the housekeepers. At this union service an offering will be received for the relief of the distressed Armenians and Syrians. This is a most worthy and pressing appeal, for these helpless people, driven from their homes and robbed of all their earthly possessions and the props of the families slain, are almost entirely dependent upon the charity of the people of this country. It would seem to be a most fitting expression of gratitude to the Almighty for his favors toward us as a nation if we should contribute very largely toward their relief. They are perishing daily by the hundreds, if not by thousands, and if the most generous assistance does not come promptly there will be left only a very few of a once happy and prosperous people. It is expected that offering envelopes will be distributed at the various churches on Sunday for presentation at the Thanksgiving service.

At next Sunday morning's service the pastor of the Methodist church will speak on the topic, "The Greatest Need in Time of War." There will be special singing by the choir of young people. The evening service will be one of praise and prayer.

Lewis A. Baker has been transferred from Class 4 of the Naval Reserve to Class 3 and has applied for assignment to active service. He has qualified as warrant boatswain and has been granted a commission as such.

The first snow of the season comes about a week later than last year, but full early enough to satisfy every one, and in particular those whose coal bins are empty or nearly so. Some of our citizens are shouldering axes and making for the woods, a course that has not been pursued by not a few of them for a long term of years.

At the Baptist church next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subject, "What shall we be Thankful for, in the Midst of the World War?" In the evening he will continue the special series of addresses now being given. Topic "Two Ways to Pay Bills." These addresses are straight gospel talks with present day applications. The song service is a feature of the meetings.

D. W. Marston of Kennebunkport has bought through the W. M. Davis real estate agency of Biddeford, what is known as the John H. Dennett farm on the Goodwin Mills road. Following repairs and alterations the place will be occupied by its new owner. This farm was until recent years one of the best in the county but has been allowed to run out somewhat of late. Mr. Marston plans to bring it up to its old state of productivity.

Mrs. Perry, mother of Pharaoh Perry of this village, died Sunday night at the age of 76 years. Mrs. Perry was well-known and held in high esteem by all.

WANTS TOWN OF KENNEBUNKPORT TO PAY $300.00 FOR SILVER FOX

Attorney John G. Smith, acting for Harry Berry, pretaker of the fox farm of Morris Stevens of Dover, Me., at Beachwood, has filed a claim with the selectmen of Kennebunkport, to reimburse Mr. Stevens for the loss of a female grey fox of the value of $300 which was killed by a dog owned by B. Jariz, Alfred road, November 7. The collar worn by the dog is now in possession of Attorney Smith. Mr. Jariz acknowledged the ownership of the dog, but claimed he was in no conditions financially to pay the damages.

The fox which was killed was kept in a yard surrounded by a wire fence 20 feet high. The Jariz dog went up over this fence in order to get at the fox which it did not kill outright but injured so badly that it died shortly afterwards. The fox was a handsome animal. The breed is unusually scarce in these parts and their skins bring big money in the markets.

At first it was thought that the fox farm was in Biddeford. The town of Kennebunkport if compelled to pay the claim of $300 for the silver fox would turn to the state for reimbursement, under the law governing domestic animals killed by dogs.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

The property located on the Old Saco Road in Kennebunkport now known as the State Highway, formerly owned by Mr. W. C. Hazeltine, and built by him four years ago, has been sold through the office of Felix T. Sheltz Real Estate agent of Biddeford to Mr. John W. Thompson of Portland who will retire in the Spring and live there. The property consists of 35 acres farm land, and a story and a half house.

WILDES DISTRICT

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monroe and daughter, Alma, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Perry Sunday.

Miss Isabella Russell, who has been teaching school in Palermo, Me., is at home, enjoying a vacation.

Several attended the lecture in the High school hall, on Friday evening, and enjoyed the interesting facts brought to us by an ambulance driver from France.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of Ralph Cluff in England. His many friends were glad to hear that he had a pleasant voyage.

The Willing Worker's Sewing Circle was entertained last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irvin Corson. Several were present and enjoyed the dainty refreshments served by Miss Barbara Corson. This Wednesday, Mrs. Thomas Swain will entertain.

The grammar school will hold an entertainment in Willing Worker's Building Saturday evening, Nov. 24th. An interesting program is promised, and it is hoped to be well attended.

Capt. and Mrs. James Wildes were Biddeford visitors one day last week.

We understand Mr. Anthony McKenney's house is to be occupied in the near future.

CAFE PORPOISE

The Sunday services in charge of the pastor, Rev. Norman W. Lindsay, were well attended. The subject for the morning's sermon was "Fog" the text being Gen. 1:11. "Where art thou?" In the Sunday-school immediately following the service, there were ninety-five present. A Record Board was presented the Sunday-school by the C. L. Class, Miss Daisy L. Nunan teacher, Miss Elizabeth W. Nunan being chosen to present the gift to the school.

While she had been in failing health for some time, she had been able to be about the house until a few weeks ago. She leaves three sons, Eugene Perry of Boston Mass., and Pharaoh and William of this place. Her age was nearly seventy-nine years.

Mrs. Betsey Wildes and Miss Ada Wildes who have been ill the past two weeks are very much improved.

Mrs. William Kraus of Somerville, Mass., spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Wagner.

TOWN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Marston are moving to Goodwin Mills where they purchased a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Marston came here from Vermont about six years ago and have made many friends who regret their departure. We hope our loss will prove their gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Mitchell of Saco were guests of Mrs. Lorenzo Tarbox on Sunday last.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Kennebunkport was held at the home of the president, on Monday Nov. 12, with a large attendance. The Union voted to have an all day meeting at the same place on Wednesday Nov. 21st, for the purpose of making the many tailed bandage which is so much needed. All members please bring 30 inches, or as many multiples of 30 as convenient of unbleached muslin.

Quite a number from Kennebunkport will go to Sanford on Friday to help organize a Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Lorenzo Tarbox, who has been quite ill is able to set up most of the day. All hope she'll continue to improve.

SACO ROAD AND VICINITY

Don't forget the Christmas Club Meeting at the Burnham school house Saturday evening Dec. 1st.

Our local horsemen are preparing for a horse trot at Goodell's Beach, Thanksgiving day and would like to see some from Kennebunk, Biddeford, and other places present. There will be two classes one for pacers and one for trotters.

Those who are expected to take part are Binina, owned by Dr. Merrill, Doctor Ware, owned by George Jenney, Teddy R. owned by D. W. Hadlock, George R. Scott, Jordan and A. J. Smith of Beachwood, Thompson Norton, Kennebunkport, Elroy Davis, Biddeford, Freeman Seavey, Kennebunkport, own good horses and have promised to be there. This trot is just for fun and no money put up. The trot will be called at about 3.30 p. m.

Thanksgiving day and horsemen are hoping to see some good sport. There are others who have good horses, Lloyd Clough and Howard Fairfield are among them but have not promised to take part; perhaps they will think better of it and be among the flyers. Everyone is invited to look on.

D. W. Marston has bought a farm in North Kennebunkport. We don't blame him they don't have to pay such big taxes and its a good place to live.

John Peabody, who recently returned from a hunting trip, brought two deer and a black bear. There were four in the party and each shot two deer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hadlock were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Ross, of Biddeford Sunday. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Currier of No. Kennebunkport last Thursday.

The Social and supper at the Congregational Church Wednesday evening was a success.

Why don't one of our churches fly a service flag? Each church is represented by soldiers, and why don't each home have a soldier show one of these flags? Our boys should be honored, and so should their parents. We should be proud to let every one know that we owned a soldier boy.

WELLS

Mrs. Clinton Morrison of this village was a recent North Berwick visitor.

When in Kennebunk make your headquarters at Fiske's drug store on the corner.

Mrs. Emma Matthews, wife of J. F. Matthews, died at her home in Wells Friday, November 9, after a week's illness with pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and eight children, four sons and four daughters, and several grand children; also by her mother, five brothers and three sisters. She will also be greatly missed and sincerely mourned by her husband's mother, Mrs. Mary McKay who is 86 years old and who has received a daughter's faithful care from Mrs. Matthews for a long time. The funeral occurred Sunday and the many beautiful flowers attested the love and esteem of both family and friends. Much sympathy is expressed for the family in their sudden bereavement of so faithful a wife and mother. Burial was in Ocean View cemetery.

The answer to the conundrum given in last week's Enterprise by its originator:—

The difference is by misplaced confidence—One tends to the destruction of property and the other of life.

"Man, why did you give your wife a pearl necklace for a birthday present? Do you know that pearls mean tears?"

"Don't I just! She cried till she got 'em."

FIRE INSURANCE RATES RAISED TEN PER CENT

Announcement was made that beginning with Monday of this week insurance rates will be advanced 10 per cent by the companies. In the circulars sent agents announcing the fact, it is stated that the increase is made necessary by war condition and it is hoped it will be temporary. The increase becomes effective at once but does not effect contracts already made according to the understanding of agents.

The paragraph in which the New England Insurance Exchange announces the change reads as follows: "On and after Nov. 19, all rates, both specific and minimum, in all tariff and minimum rate books, including minimum rate books for dwelling property, are subject to 10 per cent advance, with the exception of those rates applying to risks rated by the improved risks department or the factory improvement committee."
