

THE DAILY EVENING COURIER

Is published every afternoon, at No. 5 Lime street. Two editions are issued every day. The one o'clock edition is published in season for all the trains leaving the city in the afternoon, and contains all the telegrams received up to 12, o'clock, M. The five o'clock edition contains all that is received up to the moment of going to press. The Daily Courier has a large and rapidly increasing circulation, and affords an excellent medium for advertisers. TERMS, $5.00 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

The Portland Weekly Courier is published every Friday, at the unprecedentedly low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE. It contains no advertisements, and furnishes 24 columns of reading matter every week.

Address FELCH & HALL, Proprietors.

Courier Office,

Portland, Aug. 23^d 1864

G. L. Hodder

Adj. Genl. State of Maine

Sir:

If there are any papers pertaining to the accounts of 2^d Lieut. Sydney Hutchings, Co. 4th Me. Vols. in your Office, will you please forward them to me at this Office, as Lieut. H. has given me charge of his accounts.

Very Respectfully
Your Obedt. Servt.

Frank S. Patterson

(Formerly Lieut. Co. 5th Me. Vols.)