WHEELWRIGHT, THEA
b. Jacksonville, Florida 1907
Dear Mrs. Jacob:

Under separate copy I am sending you an inscribed copy of our Farmer's Almanac.

Consider, too, along the maine coast, was published by Barre, South St., Barre, Mass., and I have no copies of it. I'll be glad to secure one if you get a copy from them.

Best good wishes.

Thos. Wheelwright.

Dear Mrs. Wheelwright:

Recently we realized that we do not have a copy of your FARMER'S ALMANAC COOKBOOK in the Maine Author Collection, nor your ALONG THE MAINE COAST. Sad omissions, indeed, for a permanent exhibit of Maine books.

Can we interest you in inscribing and presenting these for inclusion in the collection? They are noted in the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association, of course, and have found their way promptly on to order lists.

Continuing good wishes to both, and know that we will be most appreciative if we can count you among the Maine writers in the exhibit.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mrs. Wheelwright:

Thank you very much for the inscribed copy of THE FARMERS' ALMANAC COOK BOOK for the Maine Author Collection. We are delighted to have it.

We appreciate your offer to inscribe a copy of ALONG THE MAINE COAST, and if we can get a copy, we'll remember.

Some time, at your convenience, will you let us know, please, whether we claim you as a Maine-born writer, or an adopted one? We like to have biographical information about our Maine authors, but sometimes we have to rely on the patience and good nature of the authors themselves to provide a sketch.

Again our thanks to you.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Jacob:

I was born in Jacksonville, Florida in 1907; grew up in New York City and Yonkers, New York during the First World War and through 1929; then back to New York City, where I learned publishing by working at the old Street & Smith Publishing House first, then freelancing as an editor for various publishers.

Mr. Wheelwright and I started our publishing Company in New York in 1949, shortly after our marriage, and moved it and our family to Maine in 1953—a move we have always been thankful for.

All good wishes,
