

Miss Ida Kar has been visiting friends in Berlin for a few days.

Miss Carrie Hubbard of Lowell is with her sister, Mrs. George F. Eastman.

The annual meeting of the Citizens' Association is to be held Monday evening at the assessors' office.

There will be a special meeting for Bible study at the Norway Baptist Church, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A new diamond was put in Saturday, at the crossing of the Grand Trunk and Norway and Portland Street Railway on Pleasant Street by the station.

The Lord's Supper was observed at the Sunday morning service at the Universalist church, and one member was received into the church by baptism.

The committee who entertain the Pan-Tan Club Wednesday evening of the week take this opportunity to notify the club members that the supper hour is to be 6:30 sharp.

There is a possibility that the degree tendered to Mrs. Pleasant Rebekah Lodge may do the work at the regular meeting Friday of this week and it is asked that all the members of the team be present.

Professor Parker of Burlington, Vt., has been in town to make preliminary arrangements for a class in banjo, mandolin and guitar. He will soon give a concert at the Congregational church.

The Seneca Club will be entertained Saturday evening of this week by Mrs. Stanley and Miss Stearns at Mrs. Stanley's. Madrid will be the city studied. The girls will please note the change of date.

At the morning service of the Congregational church a baptism was held and two young ladies united with the church. After the sermon, which was upon the subject, "Walk in God," the Lord's Supper was celebrated.

A. W. Walker & Son have hired the C. E. Bennett ice house on Oxford Street, and will fill it with ice, in addition to their own house—if they get any ice. The ice crop has been making somewhat ill. One physician reports fifteen new cases on Sunday.

Wm. K. Kimball Post, G. A. R., will hold a campfire next Saturday, to which Harry East Post and Corps of Norway and T. A. Roberts Post and Corps of Oxford have been invited. Dinner will be served, and an all-day session held.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Whitman started Monday morning for Pasadena, Calif., where she will spend the next few months with her son, L. L. Whitman. She will be accompanied on the trip by Miss Mary H. Taylor, who will join her at Montreal.

The Delta Alphas met with Mrs. Ordway Saturday afternoon, the meeting being a special in honor of Miss Margaret Clifford, who is returning to Bates College. Refreshments and sociability made the afternoon's programme.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held with Mrs. Tolman Thursday afternoon at half past two. A large attendance is desired as there is business of importance to come before the meeting.

There will be special meetings at the Methodist church on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30. All persons are cordially invited to attend. Rev. A. K. Baldwin will conduct a young people's rally Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lizzie Millett has presented to the Methodist church an individual communion service with one hundred and twenty glasses, and two silver collection plates. The gift is in loving remembrance of her mother and is gratefully appreciated by the church.

The announcement of the Eastern Argus appears in the advertising columns, and has since been in the accident insurance business, was the winner of a watch in December given by the company to the agent writing the most successful policy for the month. Mr. Hilton expects to come here for a short time before long.

Mrs. Archie Cole is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time. Mr. Cole, who is a well known farmer here, is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time. Mr. Cole, who is a well known farmer here, is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time.

Mrs. W. A. Porter and the Misses Burdett entertained the Pan-Tan Club at supper in the club room last Wednesday evening. A fine supper of oysters, angel cake, fruit and other good things was set out, and the tables were arranged with special attractiveness. The supper hour was 7 o'clock, and the rest of the evening was delightfully spent in a social way, and the members were present.

Charles G. Andrews was showing a peculiar freak in the form of an apple the other day. It was an apple which was mostly blue pear-shaped, but in one more than an eighth of the whole apple, which was black Oxford. The skin of both varieties was plainly marked and unmistakable. The appearance of this apple started a series of stories of apples which were half sweet and half bitter, and it was shown by the testimony of several witnesses that such apples were actually grown.

The entertainment following the supper of the Good Cheer Society last Friday evening was first the farce, "Aunt Susan," which was very funny and highly entertaining. Mrs. Roxanne McLeod, in the title role, was unanimously pronounced all right. The rest of the program was two drills by the young people, the "Shaking Quakers," and the "Pastime of the Moon and Stars," both of which were beautifully executed, and showed thorough training, and were heartily applauded by the audience. A good number were out for both supper and entertainment.

The officers of Mount Main Lodge, I. O. O. F., for the coming year, were installed Thursday evening by District Deputy E. H. Allen of Norway. The list of assistants also from that town. The list of officers is as follows:

N. G.—Carl Mason.

V. G.—George W. Haskell.

Sec. Sec.—Sanford Brown.

Fin. Sec.—Charles H. Howard.

Treasurer—E. Deane.

W. H.—Harold T. Thayer.

Robert F. Crockett.

G. G.—J. J. Merrill.

G. G.—F. G. H. H.

R. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

L. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

OXFORD'S DELEGATION.

From the Kennebec Journal's biographical sketches of the members of the legislature, we appropriate the sketches of the Oxford County members. By the courtesy of the Journal we are enabled to present the accompanying portraits.

SENATOR.

Hastings, Henry H., Bethel. Republican, Congregationalist, lawyer, single; age 32. Born in Bethel, Me. Lives on the ancestral acres, which he has kept at a high point of cultivation. It is frequently spoken of as one of the best upland farms in town. Has served the town six years as selectman, and is a charter member of the grange, which he has served as Master ten years. Mr. Hastings enjoys to a marked degree the esteem and confidence of his fellow-townsmen. Member of last House.

Stearns, Albert J., Norway. Republican, Congregationalist, lawyer, married; age 32. Born in Lovell; educated in the common schools, and at Bridgton Academy; studied law with Hon. S. Stearns of Norway, and admitted to the bar in Oxford County in 1897, practicing his profession at Norway since. Chairman of Board of Selectmen of Norway three years 1903-5; chairman of local corporation assessors for Norway Village Corporation during the same time. Served in Spanish-American war, holding commission as Second Lieutenant. Department Commander of Department of Maine United Spanish War Veterans for year just past. Always a Republican.

DRYER, Frederick R., Backfield. Republican, no religious preferences, at present unemployed.

Emerson, Almon, Stow. Republican, Orthodox, farmer and lumberman, married; age 61. Born in Stow and attended school there. Has held the various town offices several terms, as chairman of the board of selectmen.

Gleason, Edwin H., Mexico. Republican, Congregationalist, lawyer, married; age 36. Born in Mexico; went West when a boy; attended common schools of Maine, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Colorado. Prepared for college at Oxford Springs, entered Yale in 1890, working his way. Was awarded Scott-Hunt Scholarship for greatest general improvement at end of sophomore year. Studied branches leading to law. Graduated from Yale in 1895. Went to New York to enter Law School, but was unable to do so on account of illness. The gift is in loving remembrance of her mother and is gratefully appreciated by the church.

There will be special meetings at the Methodist church on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30. All persons are cordially invited to attend. Rev. A. K. Baldwin will conduct a young people's rally Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lizzie Millett has presented to the Methodist church an individual communion service with one hundred and twenty glasses, and two silver collection plates. The gift is in loving remembrance of her mother and is gratefully appreciated by the church.

The announcement of the Eastern Argus appears in the advertising columns, and has since been in the accident insurance business, was the winner of a watch in December given by the company to the agent writing the most successful policy for the month. Mr. Hilton expects to come here for a short time before long.

Mrs. Archie Cole is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time. Mr. Cole, who is a well known farmer here, is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time. Mr. Cole, who is a well known farmer here, is at Wallace Rye-son's for a short time.

Mrs. W. A. Porter and the Misses Burdett entertained the Pan-Tan Club at supper in the club room last Wednesday evening. A fine supper of oysters, angel cake, fruit and other good things was set out, and the tables were arranged with special attractiveness. The supper hour was 7 o'clock, and the rest of the evening was delightfully spent in a social way, and the members were present.

Charles G. Andrews was showing a peculiar freak in the form of an apple the other day. It was an apple which was mostly blue pear-shaped, but in one more than an eighth of the whole apple, which was black Oxford. The skin of both varieties was plainly marked and unmistakable. The appearance of this apple started a series of stories of apples which were half sweet and half bitter, and it was shown by the testimony of several witnesses that such apples were actually grown.

The entertainment following the supper of the Good Cheer Society last Friday evening was first the farce, "Aunt Susan," which was very funny and highly entertaining. Mrs. Roxanne McLeod, in the title role, was unanimously pronounced all right. The rest of the program was two drills by the young people, the "Shaking Quakers," and the "Pastime of the Moon and Stars," both of which were beautifully executed, and showed thorough training, and were heartily applauded by the audience. A good number were out for both supper and entertainment.

The officers of Mount Main Lodge, I. O. O. F., for the coming year, were installed Thursday evening by District Deputy E. H. Allen of Norway. The list of assistants also from that town. The list of officers is as follows:

N. G.—Carl Mason.

V. G.—George W. Haskell.

Sec. Sec.—Sanford Brown.

Fin. Sec.—Charles H. Howard.

Treasurer—E. Deane.

W. H.—Harold T. Thayer.

Robert F. Crockett.

G. G.—J. J. Merrill.

G. G.—F. G. H. H.

R. S. G.—C. A. Marston.

