SMITH, Walter B.
Dear Mr. Danack:

I have your favor of the 3rd and am mailing copies of the James Fox Shell-Proof bulletin today. Of course there will be no charge. I had sent copies to you sometime the last of August from San Francisco, but there has been a slip-up somewhere evidently.

Don't waste valuable time in the reading, as it was intended only as a sort of memo, of what we found in one shell-proof, and is not a learned treatise.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Smith;

Thank you for sending us your very interesting monograph on the Jones Cove Shell-heap. We have found your University of Maine Bulletin on the Archaeological remains of the Penobscot Valley very useful as a reference source, and doubtless the new pamphlet will be equally valuable.

We wish to make a brief mention of your work in the next issue of our Library Bulletin. Will you, when convenient, send us some biographical data about yourself, for the Bulletin and for our Maine Author files?

Very truly yours,
