

PILGRIM COMMANDERY

No. 19 of Farmington Visited
Rumford Falls,

Where They Were Invited to Confer Orders.

The bustling yet peaceful town of Rumford Falls was invaded by a company of armed Sir Knights of the Templar Order from Farmington, Me., Friday afternoon, Dec. 12, but their entry was fraternal rather than martial, and they were received and entertained with that open-handed hospitality which has become an established custom with Stratiglass commandery since it received its dispensatory authority from the grand commandery of Maine. The visiting fraters are connected with Pilgrim Commandery, No. 19, Farmington, Me., and they had been invited to confer the orders of the "Temple and Malta" upon six candidates of Stratiglass commandery. They arrived on the 4.10 train from Lewiston and were met at the depot by the local committee comprising Fred O. Walker, eminent commander; Waldo Pettengill, generalissimo; Elmer D. Lovejoy, captain general and Sir Knight Oliver Pettengill, who escorted the Pilgrims to the Hotel Rumford, not over the burning sands, but over the ice covered sidewalks, via Hartford and Congress streets. Rooms had been engaged by the committee, and after the registry with Manager Harry Jordan, there was a season of fraternization.

Em. Sirs, A. D. Parsons, East Wilton; Archie Lee Talbot, Lewiston; Past Eminent commanders: Em. Sir, Harry B. Austin, E. C., Phillips; E. C. Merrill, generalissimo; E. V. Varney, C. G.; John M. S. Hunter, S. W.; Arthur T. Moor, P. C.—J. W.; George C. Purington, P. C.—Prelate; Benjamin M. Hardy, treasurer; George B. Cragin, recorder, Farmington; Burton A. Davenport, Warder; William A. D. Cragin, St. Bearer, Phillips; Aubrey C. Greenleaf, Sw. Bearer, Farmington; Ernest F. Butler, sentinel; William H. Hollery, 3d guard; Farmington; Joel H. Byron, 2d guard, Phillips; F. O. Lyford, 1st guard, Farmington. Sir Knights: J. A. Record, Livermore Falls; Edwin Riley, Chisholm; A. S. Thompson, Livermore Falls; W. B. Dresser, Canton; A. J. Gerry, S. O. Tarbox, Jr., Farmington; W. A. Stuart, Livermore Falls; Geo. F. Towle, Auburn; H. S. DeShon, Canton; Archie D. Felt, Bryants Pond; W. H. Lowell, Gardiner.

About 8 o'clock the Sir Knights of the two commanderies proceeded to the castle hall on Congress street where the conferring of the orders of the "Temple and Malta" was observed with the impressive ceremonies of the order upon six candidates, Sir Knights Walter O. Rayner, Ralph M. Woodsum, Walter G. Morse, Henry O. Burditt, Charles E. Walker and Frank R. Reed.

The officers of Pilgrim commandery conducted the ritualistic services with solemn and effective dignity and striking familiarity with the detail of the work. Then came the banquet, which was served in admirable style and substantial abundance by L. A. and E. E. Downs of the Cheney Opera House restaurant. The menu consisted of the following courses: Chicken and potato salad, ham, lamb and corned beef, mashed potatoes, assorted cakes, tea, coffee and cigars. It was high 12 o'clock when the company was seated and about 60 plates were served.

Then came a season of fraternal oratory, Generalissimo, Hon. Waldo Pettengill officiating as master of ceremonies. Those who participated in the "feast of reason and flow of soul" were the following Sir Knights of Pilgrim commandery: Geo. C. Purington, grand captain general of the grand commandery of Maine; Archie Lee Talbot and Arthur T. Moor, past commanders; Harry B. Austin, eminent commander; John M. S. Hunter, senior warden and editor of the Farmington Chronicle; and Sir Knight Wm. A. Stuart.

For Stratiglass commandery, the vocal representatives were Fred G. Walker, eminent commander; Hon. Waldo Pettengill, generalissimo; Elmer D. Lovejoy, captain general; and Sir Knight Hollis C. Dunton. In the early morning hours formality was dispensed with and song, jest and story illuminated the proceedings.

TRIFLING WITH YOUR HEALTH

Is like Playing with a loaded
Gun. If you have Kidney Trouble attend to it at once.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle of glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored, rosy or stringy, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night, and puts an end to the scalding pain when passing urine.

The Rev. Henry P. Miller, pastor Baptist Church, Spartenburg, S. C., writes: "For years I suffered with Kidney, Liver and heart troubles swimming in the head, dull headache and numbness of the limbs. Physicians prescribed for me and I took different medicines, but none of them did me any good. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me in about two weeks."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular 1.00 size. It is less than a cent a dose. Sample bottles enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, Rondout, N. Y.

The visiting Fraters were escorted to the hotel to snatch some sleep preparatory to their departure for Farmington and way stations at 9.10 o'clock. Some of the Pilgrims were driven about town in quest of points of interest, and the big paper and bag mills were inspected under escort of the officials of the corporations.

As the hour drew nigh for the close of the pilgrimage, the Fraters started for the depot accompanied by the Stratiglass hosts, and the waiting room was a lively and interesting spot to visit. Vice President Pettengill, Superintendent Lovejoy and Assistant Train Dispatcher Savage united in facilitating the details of the departure, and as the train started there was a resounding interchange of "goodbyes," "come agains" and "you did yourselves proud" from the car and depot platforms until the passenger coaches rounded the curve. The full roster of the officers and Sir Knights of Stratiglass commandery, who participated in the reception and entertainment of their Pilgrim Fraters, was as follows:

Watch Out For Santa.

Santa Claus travels by automobile this year.

No one need go out of town for Christmas presents. A large variety and excellent stock to select from can be found at the stores of our local merchants.

Some of the young people have already harvested the Christmas tree.

The Christmas Festival.

The Christmas festival will be held under the auspices of the Methodist church on Thursday evening, Dec. 19, at Lambert hall. All are cordially invited.

LONDON'S GREAT CLOCKS.

The Immensity of Big Ben and the Law Courts' Timepiece.

How many of those who look up at the figure of Nelson will believe that the statue of "our greatest sailor" is three times as tall as a living man? Nothing in the world is so deceptive as distance, as a run round London with a footrule would show. Nobody, so far as one knows, has ever yet been found to believe that Big Ben is over seven yards across the dial, that the hands are together twenty-five feet long, that the minute hand jumps seven inches every time it moves, that the five minute spaces measure nearly two yards and that each of the dials weighs four tons. You may spend a day staring hard at St. Paul's before you will believe that the ball over the dome will hold twelve men and that the cross above it is ten yards high, ten yards above the dome and weighs a ton and a half. Yet a footrule and the dean's permission are all that you need to be convinced that these things are not what they seem.

Every one knows how impossible it is to fix the distance of a ship at sea or a fire on a dark night, when the contrast of the light with the surrounding darkness brings the vision near though the fire may be miles away. Who of all the thousands passing along the Strand today will believe that a party of workmen breakfasted in the law courts' clock before it was fixed in its place to tell London the wrong time?—St. James Gazette.

Status of the Country Publisher.

Here is a little old straight-from-the-shoulder talk about matters lying near to our heart. There seems to be a feeling among business men that a newspaper has no business to make money. Why not? It is the most exacting business in the world, the most trying in every way. It means long hours and the greatest care in its conduct. The newspaper has the entire public to deal with. It is criticised on all occasions. It has to deal with all the cranks in the community, and to do this successfully requires judgment and patience.

It has power, and that power, to the credit of journalism, is nearly always wielded for the public good. No question of vital concern to the home people fails to find a strong support from the home newspaper, and this, too, without remuneration. The publisher spends his money to further these projects, and the community never gives a thought to the matter of cost to him. It is not paid out of the public pocket. —Newspaperdom.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Relieve a bad back and cure it—cure every kidney and bladder disorder, from backache to diabetes.

Mrs. C. F. Godnow, living at 143 Washington street, New Britain, Conn., says: "I gave a testimonial in December, 1890, touching the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and in the statement said that I had been bothered with my back and kidneys for over thirteen years, not constantly, but when I caught cold it generally settled in my back, making it lame and sore. Often the pain through the small of my back was so severe as to make me cry out. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured some from E. W. Thompson & Co.'s drug store, on Main street. They helped my back immediately, and in a short time relieved me of the trouble. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills at intervals during the last five years, when I felt an attack of backache coming on, and they always brought instant relief. I am never without them in the house."

BIRTHPLACE OF COB PIPE.

Mr. Huntoon Claims One More Friendly Whack at Mr. Bailey.

In So Doing Recites Good Qualities of Kansas Citizens.

RANGELEY, Dec. 17, 1902.

To the Editor of Maine Woodsman:

In concluding the little pleasantry I have had with our esteemed friend, Mr. Bailey, about the corn producing qualities of the two states, Illinois and Kansas, I still claim one more friendly whack at him.

Kansas is the originator of the corn cob pipe so universally used and is the only state growing cobs sufficiently large, while cobs grown in Illinois are only large enough for cob pipe cigar holders.

Forty-two years ago, the time our friend alludes to, Kansas was suffering from drouth and that terrible scourge, grasshoppers, and still in her swaddling clothes, thinly settled and with only one-tenth of her settlers land under cultivation and sod corn at that. It is possible the corn did look rather small to him compared with that grown in an older state and on older ground.

Kansas of today is not like Kansas of forty-two years ago, and from our State Secretary Coburn's recent report, Kansas comes forward in this year of 1902 with about 8,000,000 bushels more of corn, wheat and oats than any other state in the Union, Illinois not excepted. I well remember the generous and liberal contributions of the good people of Illinois at the time referred to. I was living in Mendota and contributed one bag of wheat and three bags of corn, besides helping to load the car, never dreaming that I would ever be one of her citizens.

The people of Kansas are not forgetful of past favors and come forth with a Spanish concentration at Mantanzas, Cuba, sending them ship loads of corn, provisions and clothing, besides giving generous aid and support in sending ship loads of corn and flour to the starving people of Russia in her distress of a few years ago.

Galveston, Texas, remembers with gratitude the outstretched hand of Kansas at the time of her tidal wave calamity, forwarding money, provisions, etc.

Kansas also furnished some fine young men as soldiers for our late war with Spain, responding at once and getting her men ready in haste, not stopping or waiting for proper clothing.

It is no wonder the citizens of San Francisco misjudged them; but in due time after enduring hardships and sickness, and showing such gallantry on the battle field, swimming rivers, climbing the walls of Peking, etc., the people of the east and west began to wonder where those brave fellows came from; and not until after Funston and his gallant 20th regiment did such good work in the field, did the people of San Francisco realize that they were the very boys that passed through their city a year and a half before; but on returning home their discourtesy was partly rectified by giving them a grand reception.

In conclusion I will say that Kansas, after suffering drouth, grasshoppers and Populism, can show as good a record of productiveness, vegetable or human, as any of her sister states and has the material to show for it.

'Twas two weeks before Christmas, and all through the street,
There were jingling of bells and tramping of feet;
In Seaman's store the stockings were hung in hopes that Saint Nicholas soon would come;
And Seaman was nestled quite snug in his bed,
While visions of dollars danced through his head,
When down in the store there arose such a clatter,
He quickly went down to see what was the matter.
There, sure enough, was old Santa himself filling each stocking, show case and shelf.
There were books, pictures and games, and dolls that could talk,
Perfumes and candles and fowls that could walk,
Toilet cases, shaving sets and boxes Japanese,
Horns, music boxes and toys, the children to please,
So many wonderful things did Santa leave that night,
Poor Seaman was dazed and bewildered quite;
But now he is anxious, so I've been told,
To exchange these treasures for silver and gold.
