Buy Dependable Clothes

- 1. The "quality" should be a matter for careful consideration. Good "looking" clothes are not really so difficult to find. But when you buy a good looking garment, containing cheap, indifferent workmanship, you must not forget that the good looks won't remain.
- 2. The inexperienced person has little conception as to how much depends upon "workmanship." The most costly fabric, poorly tailored, lined and interlined with common materials, will go to pieces in an incredibly short space of time.
- 3. No matter how much style is put into such clothes, the style will not remain—the coat will break, lose its shape and all its former good appearance.
- 4. To secure real satisfaction, you must be sure of the tailoring—you must see to it that you buy clothing that is not only good to look at, but dependable for wear.
- 5. You should not allow price alone to tempt you. You should keep in mind that quality is worth paying for; that a good, honestly made suit or overcoat is worth in wear, looks and satisfaction four of the cheap, uncertain kind. That you'll get your money's worth in the former, but far from it if you ignore quality, for price alone.
- 6. The road to safety in buying clothes is to buy of a house whose success and reputation has been with Quality.
- 7. Every man cannot be an expert in the art of judging woollens and tailoring. The great majority must rely upon the integrity of the store. This being so, could you display better judgment than to trust yourself to a house known as favorably and widely as this one?
- 8. You'll be safe, and you'll think our advice worth taking after you've had a little experience with our clothes.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

Will be held in the AUDITORIUM, BANGOR

Tuesday, June 30, 1908 at 2 O'clock P. M.

For the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and State Auditor to be supported at the September election, and transacting any other business that may properly come before it.

The basis of representation will be as follows: Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to one delegate; and for each 25 votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1906 an additional delegate; and for a fraction of 10 votes in excess of 25, another delegate.

Vacancies in the delegation of any city, town or plantation filled by residents of the county in which the vacancy exists.

The State Committee will be in session in the afternoon of the Auditorium at one o'clock of the day of the Convention for the purpose of receiving credentials of delegates. In order to be eligible to participate in the Convention, delegates must be elected subsequent to date of the call for this Convention.

Their political affiliations may have been, who believe in the party and desire its success at the polls in the coming election in this State, are cordially invited to unite under this call in electing delegates to the Convention.

For order, Republican State Committee, SETH M. CARTER, Chairman.

BYRON BOYD, Secretary.

The Socialists have again nominated Eugene V. Debs of Indiana as their candidate for the Presidency.

Benjamin Hanford of New York is the candidate for vice president.

Taft and Fairbanks will be the ticket nominated at Chicago.

The candidate for the Governorship of the State is Theodore Roosevelt.

Asher C. Hinds of Portland, clerk at the speaker's table in Congress, has accepted an invitation to preside at the Republican state convention to nominate candidates for governor and state auditor at Bangor, June 30.

Friends of ex-Mayor John M. Fitzgerald announce that he will be in the race next fall for the governorship.

This follows the announcement of John B. Moran that he would not try for the nomination.

George Fred Williams, it is said, is ready to take Fitzgerald in preference to any conservative man.

It is estimated that the appropriations of the present Congress will reach the grand total of $1,025,000,000.

Among the items are the following: Army, $95,282,000; navy, $122,662,000; postoffice, $221,765,000; pensions, $153,000,000.

This is a billion-dollar Congress, to be sure, but, as the late Thomas B. Reed once remarked, "this is a billion-dollar country."

Another year will probably see a new light-house tender in commission.

The first and second districts as Congress has appropriated $200,000 for the construction of such a steamer to take the place of the tenders Geranium and Myrtle which are now doing the work in this district and the second which includes the Maine coast and also the coast of Massachusetts.

That Senator La Follette will endeavor to stampede the Republican convention in favor of Theodore Roosevelt for President, thinking thus to aid his own prospects for the campaign of 1912, is the opinion of several men who were formerly La Follette leaders in Wisconsin.

It is said that Senator La Follette will get a seat in the convention through a proxy and that at the proper time he will make a long speech for Roosevelt, demanding that the delegates listen to the voice of the people.

He hopes thus, it is said, to sway the gathering away from Taft.

Secretary Taft is back from the isthmus, very enthusiastic over the big ditch Uncle Sam is building there.

When asked as to the possibilities of concluding the work, Mr. Taft said: "If it was only the matter of digging the ditch, I should suppose three years were enough time at the present excellent rate of progress."

The way in which the steam shovels are cutting in to the land is almost wonderful, but there are other things that we cannot estimate at this time.

The work on the locks has not begun, except of course in the beginning of the Gatun dam. But everything seems encouraging and it is such a great undertaking that one will not be thinking of hurry or worry it is going ahead satisfactorily and that is gratifying.

If the Maine dailies wish to be of real service to their readers they will publish the causes returned more accurately and impartially than they did in the Cobb-Fernald-Prescott contest four years ago, or in the recent Congressional contest.

The fact that a newspaper favors Fernald or Haines or Boothby is no excuse for crediting them with delegates which are not theirs.

A caucus either instructs its delegation or does not do so, and there is no reason why the dailies newspapers with all the resources at their command should not tell the truth.

The Courier-Gazette's choice is Haines, but our readers may rest assured that all Knox county causes instructing for Fernald will be reported as faithfully as those which declare for Haines.

A tabulation of caucus returns is no good unless correct.

TENANT'S HARBOR DAYS.

How They Used to Celebrate May Day Forty Years Ago.

XI.

In my boyhood days, May Day, i. e. the first day of May, was a great day with young folks.

There was no school on that day and we always had a May party at the home of one of the girls.

We had a table set out of doors, and the girls brought cake and the boys candy.

The girls wore thin white dresses and I often wonder if it was their youth or the fact that pneumonia had not then been discovered, that prevented them from having it.

Of course some of them had the sniffles and trucked "drough der dose" for a day or so, but they were all able to be up and take nourishment.

It wouldn't do for us to try a picnic like that on May Day now. It would mean the doctor or the undertaker sure.

In the afternoon, as all went hunting for Mayflowers—just plain old fashioned mayflowers—"trailling arbutus" came along with algebra, geometry and the higher studies in the schools.

Then all during the month we hung May baskets. The girls made nice ones of paper and hung them on the doors of their best fellows.

The boys made theirs of any old thing that came handy and hung them on everybody's doors.

I wonder if John Smalley can tell who hung that rock that weighed about 300 pounds on John Brown's door.

John lived down stairs where the post office is now located, and there was only one door to his house.

He came out through the window next morning because he couldn't drag that rock into the house.

I wouldn't have done any thing like that, because I couldn't have moved a stone quarry like John Smalley did.

Did we "have a good time" in those days? I would like to hang May baskets now, only I am a little stout to run real fast.

One night "the gang" were out hanging May baskets, some ten or fifteen of them.

Frank Bickmore, Role Jackson, Went Seavey, Will Henderson, Percy Bickmore and Ed Shindler being among the number—and some one suggested that we hang one on the door of the yellow tenement at the creek, where we knew that Sam was courting.

We adjourned to the woodpile and while finding a proper cord wood stick for our purpose we were talking it over. It so happened that the woman who lived in the other half of the tenement was out getting kindlings and had heard the plot, and she peached on "the gang."

We placed the cord wood carefully against the door and knocked. Sam must have been waiting, for he opened the door quick and the stick fell in and struck him in the stomach. It must have knocked the wind out of him for a moment, at any rate it gave us a chance for a flying start.

I liked it for the wharf and hung over by one arm and one leg, expecting every moment to fall overboard, and it was high tide too.

The others pursued a due east course for the school house woods and we all managed to escape Sam's wrath, but it was a close call.

I am thankful for many things in this world, and I am especially thankful that I was born and brought up in good old Tenant's Harbor—no policemen to bother us, and if dad didn't happen to hear of our deviltry and whale us good and hard, we got along first rate.

Come, dear old comrade, you and I will steal an hour from days gone by. The shining days when life was new, and all was bright with morning dew, the lusty days of long ago.

When you were Bill and I was Joe."

Boze.

Notices of 22 contests have been received by the National Republican committee in advance of the meeting of the sub-committee on nominations.

The contestants have until May 27 to file their papers and they are expected to number 200 when they are all in.

All but one of the 22 contests came from the sixth district of Ohio where an anti-Taft delegation is seeking seats in the convention.

Two of the contests are over delegates to the large town of Belmont, Alabama and Missouri. The others are from Congressional districts.

In these contests 48 delegates are involved, it being a case of Taft against the field in all of them.

PILOTED THE FLAG SHIP

Capt. John Wallace, Well Known in Thomaston Brought Admiral Evans Through Golden Gate.

From the San Francisco Examiner.

Capt. John Wallace, son of George Wallace, formerly of Thomaston, had the proud distinction of piloting Admiral Evans' flagship through the Golden Gate.

Newspapers announcing the youthful pilot's achievement have been received in Thomaston, bringing much gratification to his relatives and many friends there.

We quote the following from the San Francisco Examiner:

Capt. John Wallace of the pilot boat, Grace S, and the youngest man of his profession on the bay, won the honor after an exciting race, of piloting Admiral Evans' flagship, the Connecticut, through the Golden Gate, thus leading the naval parade.

When the vessels of the fleet pulled up anchor there were four pilot boats crisscrossing the Heads. They were the Lady Mine, Pathfinder, Grace S and the America.

When within a half mile of the Connecticut, each boat cut off a yawl, and there followed an exciting race for the coveted honor of piloting the big flagship across the bar and through the bay to its anchorage.

Men on the Connecticut saw the race and crowded the hull to see its finish.

When Captain Wallace passed Captain Scott of the Pathfinder in the last one hundred yards, the interest on board the flagship became intense, and when the Grace S reached the battleship a few boat lengths in advance of the Pathfinder there were swarms of cats and cheering among the bluejackets.

Captain Wallace is a prominent Native Son.

Elsewhere in its news report the Examiner said:

"And here, when the tributes are being scattered, it is to Capt. John Wallace, a native son and the youngest pilot in the bay. It was his yawl that threw the first pilot call up to the deck of the Connecticut and to him for his zeal Admiral Evans awarded the coveted honor.

For the proudest three hours of his life young Captain Wallace stood on the bridge of the floating fort, at the elbow of the idol of the navy and led the flagship to its haven.

"And of the other pilots who in the gray mist of the morning flung their dancing yawls about the Connecticut clamoring for a ship four more were chosen, Captain Fred Jordan for the Alabama, George Von Helms for the Georgia and George Scott for the Minnesota."

Invitations to the University of Maine commencement, June 7-10, have been received in this city.

The president's reception takes place on the evening of the 8th, the annual meeting of the Alumni Association on the evening of the 9th, and the commencement exercises on the forenoon of the 10th.

The exercises of laying the corner stone of the new agricultural building will be held June 10 at 9:30 a. m.

MAINE FESTIVAL ARTISTS.

Ellen Beach Yaw Heads the List of Singers to Be Heard in Bangor and Portland

The announcement made a month ago of the engagement of Madame Ellen Beach Yaw as the prima donna of the Maine festival is now followed by the full list of soloists who will appear at the festivals to be given in Bangor, Oct. 8, 9, and 10 and in Portland, Oct. 12, 13, and 14 one week later than usual.

After careful consideration and negotiation the officers of the Maine Musical festival through Director Chapman present the following list of artists with a brief sketch of their musical attainment and career. In addition to Yaw the great coloratura singer will be heard Mme. Jomelli the wonderful dramatic soprano soloist of the Manhattan Opera company the past season, who attained phenomenal success.

Mme. Caroline Mühr-Hardy, the best church and concert singer in New York, receiving the highest salary, and always in demand for concert work.

Mme. Isabelle Bouton, late of the Metropolitan opera house, who is remembered by all festival patrons as one of the best contraltos ever heard at the festival.

Daniel Beddoe, the Welsh tenor who sang last season in the role of Samson, and who is considered the best American concert tenor.

Cecil Fanning the young American baritone who made such a favorable impression last season.

Herbert L. Waterous, the great basso from the Metropolitan opera house and Earl W. Marshall the baritone, who has won special favor in Boston the last season.

Mr. Chapman will bring his New York orchestra which has been an attractive feature of the last two festivals, and which will be better than ever as it will be increased by extra players for the production of "Aida." Mr. Chapman intends to present the greatest possible cast for the production of this great opera "Aida," artists who have sung in grand opera with success, and they will include, Mmes. Jomelli and Bouton, Messrs. Beddoe, Fanning, Waterous and Marshall.

Mme. Yaw is one of the most incomparable singers before the public today, ranking next to Tetzlaff in merit, and excelling her in some points. Her marvelous trills, and singing of the highest note in the world, make her one of the greatest attractions on the concert stage.

Mme. Jomelli was a member of the Manhattan opera company the past season. She is a find of Oscar Hammerstein, and has scored immense success not only there, but in the concert world. Tetzlaff, Jomelli and Mary Garden have made the sensations of the operatic season this year at the Manhattan opera house. With a charming personality and magnetism, she at once attracts her audience. Her voice is dramatic, intense, beautiful in quality and of great power. She suggests Nordica, and in fact the musical world calls her a second Nordica. She is a young woman with a great future, and she will be a feature of the festival.

Mme. Mühr-Hardy, another great soprano with a voice of much beauty and feeling is one of the most satisfactory singers before the public. Like Madame Hilder-Kelsey she has suddenly come into concert prominence with commendation from all who have heard her. Her voice is pure soprano quality, high and true, and she sings with much artistic ability and excellent taste.

In these three great sopranos Mr. Chapman will present the most versatile and competent soloists that can be found in this country. All are new to Maine audiences, but all will be favorites ere they leave.

Mme. Bouton needs no introduction. Her beautiful voice is well remembered. She has greatly improved since her visit here three years ago, and her return will be a delight to her friends in Maine.

Daniel Beddoe possesses the best tenor voice in the concert field today. He has no equal in festival work, and the part of Rhadames in "Aida" is well suited to his dramatic quality of voice.

Cecil Fanning has improved wonderfully the past year. He has met with great success both in this country and abroad, where he is at present making a concert tour under most favorable auspices. The musical critics of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, have been loud in their praises of this young dramatic baritone. He will sing the role of Amnassero.

Herbert L. Waterous has a most glorious bass voice of great power. He is a member of the Metropolitan opera company and has taken the roles of De Reszke and Placcon the past season and is rapidly winning great distinction. He will sing the role of Raoul.

Earl W. Marshall from Boston, will sing the role of the king. Mr. Marshall has a voice of exceptional beauty and is already a favorite in the concert world.

The chorus for the festival will be better than ever. The music has been carefully studied under the faithful local conductors, and the choral numbers on the programs will be as usual, the principal attraction of the festival. They are specially pleasing this season.

The arrangement of the programs, the dates of the appearances of the great artists, also the names of the local singers who will appear in incidental solos will be announced later.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

To Lucasta, on Going to the Wars

Tell me not, Sweet, I am unkind

That from the midnight hour

Of thy chaste breast and quiet mind

To war and arms I fly.

True, a new mistress now I chase,

The first foe in the field.

And with a stronger faith embrace

A sword, a horse, a shield.

Yet this inconstancy is such

As you too shall adore.

I could not love thee, dear, so much,

Loved I not Honor more.

Colonel Lovelace.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
Personally appeared Harold G. Cole, who on each declares: That he is president in the office of the Rockland Publishing Co., and that of the issue of The Courier-Gazette of May 23, 1908, there was printed a total of 4,200 copies. Before me:
J. W. CROCKER
Notary Public

The annual "fixing up" season is upon us and Rockland is doing her best to brush herself up and put on her air of summer prettiness. We approve of this, have always done so and our readers will not need to be reminded that this paper has been unceasing in its advocacy of improvements. We wish these efforts—ours and others—in rounding public spirit had been visited with an even greater degree of recognition, but yet something has been achieved. Rockland boasts a much greater public spirit today than characterized the city twenty-five years ago, but there is much room yet for improvement. Streets are better, sidewalks also, but there remains a good deal to do before the town has been brought forward in point of beauty to the place that it ought to enjoy. We would like to see a permanent city official chosen to direct this spirit of decoration, a man educated in the thing, both practical and refining in city construction. Rockland in its early days got a poor start—the men of those times were severely ordered upon the practical side and had apparently no ideas of civic beauty—but it is possible to overcome those mistakes of the beginning. There are communities that have achieved wonderful things through the efforts of a town improvement society. Perhaps that is the best thing Rockland could have. We remember advocating such a movement many years ago and we still incline toward it.

The city government is undertaking a street sprinkling experiment in which householders shall apply for the visitation of the watering-cart and pay therefor. It remains to be seen how it works out in practice. If one man is willing to pay and calls for the sprinkler, but his neighbors decline to pay and so are not sprinkled, it would appear that his relief will be small. It is at best—or at least so it looks from a distance—only a temporizing with the situation. Rockland will never be fully rid of those two nuisances—fey walks in winter and dusty streets in summer—until the thing is made a regular fixed charge and the money raised by direct taxation. The town of Thomaston does this—has done it for years, thoroughly and satisfactorily—and in this respect, to quote the inebriated but graphic expression, has Rockland "skun a mile."

A practical word agent a modern nuisance is thus uttered by Zion's Advocate:

"The 'prayer chain letter' nuisance seems to have broken loose again, and nervous and timid people are being made uncomfortable by its vague threatening as to what may be the dire consequences of failing to write and forward the required number of letters to other victims. Well, we are sorry that anybody should feel annoyed or alarmed by the matter; but our sympathy isn't very deep. Anybody who doesn't know enough by this time to throw the document into the wastebasket without a second thought, has only himself to blame for his ignorance. The 'fake' has been so thoroughly and so generally exploited that everybody ought to know that it is a fake. A wastebasket makes a good ending place for any kind of a chain letter scheme."

Artistic explorer Peary lacks but $50,000 to complete the fund needed to equip his expedition to start July 1 for the north pole. His ship, the Roosevelt, lies now at New York. Captain Peary says he is absolutely confident of reaching the pole on this trip. He will go by the same route as he did before, when in April, 1906, he got within two hundred miles of the pole. He hopes to have the President use his influence in getting contributions to aid the fund and perhaps to induce someone to raise the needed $50,000. The Courier-Gazette will give one dollar toward the sum provided 49,000 persons can be found who will each pledge an equal amount. In a nation of eighty-five millions this oughtn't to be a difficult task.

We perceive the announcement from Bath that indicates a purpose on the part of some of her politicians to withdraw from Mr. Haines' support previously promised and divert it to Mr. Fernald. This, if we are correctly informed, is brought about by the belief in the shipping city that somebody must be punished because Rockland voted for Sawney and not for Bath's candidate for the Congressional nomination. Rockland being understood to favor Haines, then Bath will oppose him!

Congratulations to Camden on that $10,000 appropriation to buy a site for a new postoffice building. Our neighbor will in no long time have a government building that will be a credit to her growing beauty and importance. She deserves it.

What Thaw wants to know is whether he is insane or insane.

POLITICAL POINTS

The Hancock county convention was held in Ellsworth Tuesday. John A. Peters, Jr., of Ellsworth, was chairman. The following nominations were made: Senators, William A. Walker of Camden, and Leure B. Deane of Bar Harbor; sheriff, Forrest O. Silsby of Ellsworth; county commissioner, M. L. Allen of Mt. Desert; register of probate, T. F. Mahoney, Ellsworth; county attorney, William C. Conary, Sullivan; treasurer, Robert B. Holmes, Ellsworth. The following resolutions were adopted: "We believe in prohibition and demand the faithful and impartial enforcement of the prohibitory law because the business interests of the state and the material and moral welfare of the people are thereby promoted; we hold that submission to the law is the highest duty of the citizen and that good citizenship seeks the enforcement of law at all times—unflinchingly never; we regard the movement for resubmission as an assault upon constitutional prohibition and we pledge our united efforts to bring about its defeat and condemnation."

At a meeting of the Maine Republican delegation to the National convention at Chicago in June, held in Ellsworth, Monday evening, Hon. Seth M. Carter of Lewiston was chosen chairman of the delegation, and Hon. Charles J. Dunn of Orono treasurer. Hon. John P. F. of Augusta was unanimously elected National committeeman for the next four years. The Maine delegation will leave Boston at 1:45 p. m., Saturday, June 13, in a private car for Chicago, and the headquarters and rooms of the delegation during the convention will be at the Auditorium Hotel.

On Wednesday Gov. Johnson's managers figured that Bryan had 461 delegates, Johnson 383, and doubtful 152. Gov. Johnson takes a cheerful view of his defeat in Alabama.

A movement in which many leading Republicans are joining has been started in Indiana to induce Vice-President Fairbanks to abandon his Presidential aspirations and consent to be a candidate for the second place on the ticket. Friends of Mr. Fairbanks have abandoned all hope of his nomination at Chicago, but are anxious to have him on the ticket because of his help to state and local candidates.

M. L. Kimball, Franklin county member of the Democratic Second District committee, tells the Argus that the Democratic nominee Obadiah Gardner of Rockland for Governor, and J. H. Montgomery of Camden for Congressman. The former prophecy was a cinch weeks ago, but if the district intend to let Mr. Montgomery have the representative nomination it is because they know that he stands no possible show of election.

Very few state convention caucuses have been reported since our last issue. At last accounts Fernald had approximately 100 delegates and Haines 40. The Portland caucus will be held this Friday evening and will probably elect Boothby delegates, although the Fernald men are making a strong fight in two wards. The only cities which have yet chosen delegates are Lewiston and Auburn in Fernald's territory. The Fernald forces are now claiming that they will have six of the 22 delegates from Bangor.

Of Wonderful Value and Free.
Tired bodies, pale and sunken cheeks, haggard eyes, sleepless nights and week weeks, are ruining our lives and killing our people. No wonder those poor sufferers bless Dr. Greene for his great free offer. He is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He has established a system of letter correspondence at his office, 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., by which all can write him about their complaints, and by mentioning the symptoms they suffer from and telling him how they feel, they will receive an answer from him. Free of charge, giving a complete description of their case and telling just what ails them. He gives most careful attention to every letter, tells just what to do to be cured perfectly and permanently, and makes all understand exactly what their complaint is. And all this costs nothing. No journey to the city, no doctor's fee, the best medical advice and consultation in the world, and nothing to pay. The Doctor makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and it is successful. Write him at once, reader, and you will almost certainly be made strong and well.

LANE-LIBBY FISHERIES.

New Corporation is a Combination of Three—Representing a Very Large Industry

The Lane-Libby Fisheries company, recently incorporated at Vinalhaven, has purchased all the property and good will of Lane & Libby, Vinalhaven Fish and Vinalhaven Glue Co., including all the accounts and debts due to those corporations.

This new corporation will continue, and it is hoped on a larger scale, to carry on the same lines of business heretofore conducted by these companies. This business was established in 1871 by Edwin Lane and Thomas G. Libby, forming the partnership of Lane & Libby and first conducting a general retail store. Shortly after they took on the fish business. This business was conducted under the firm name of Lane & Libby until 1898, when the Vinalhaven Fish Co. was incorporated. This company did only a wholesale fish business. Lane & Libby continued under a partnership, doing a general retail business, fitting out vessels and boats, and supplying mostly their own trade. Lane & Libby was incorporated in 1900. In 1903 the Vinalhaven Glue Co. was incorporated and the glue factory built, joining the Vinalhaven Fish Co's property, the factory taking care of all the by-products of the Vinalhaven Fish Co.

Although the three companies come in under one and one management, each section of the business will be conducted along about the same lines as the three companies have been doing, and it is hoped on a larger scale as the business has had a continual and successful growth for 36 years.

The American Glue Company is selling agent for all of the by-products and interested in the business

DEPUTY SHERIFF DEAD.

Daniel J. Bowley of Hope, who had been one of Sheriff Tolman's deputies since 1903, died Wednesday night. His health had been failing for several months, but he had been able to attend to business until within a few weeks, since which time he failed rapidly and was unconscious for several days at the last. Deceased had served his town in the capacity of selectman, treasurer and collector and in all those offices discharged his duties in a faithful and conscientious manner. His record as a deputy sheriff is equally praiseworthy. Mr. Bowley was a prominent Granger, having been master of Knox Pomona Grange as well as of his home Grange. He was about 57 years of age, and is survived by a wife, (formerly Laura Haskell of Warren); and son, Maynard; and two daughters, Evelyn and Nina. All of the children reside at home. The funeral will be held from his late home on Saturday, May 23, at 1 p. m. The officers of the county and of many of the Granges will attend, and the burial will be under the auspices of one of the fraternities of which he was a member.

Rev. Robert Sutcliffe Delivered Address Before Men's League—Summer Outing In Prospect.

The Men's League of the First Baptist church held its last regular meeting of the season, Wednesday evening, and incidentally partook of the finest supper that has yet been set before the hungry members. Afterwards the men listened very appreciatively to an entertaining lecture by Rev. Robert Sutcliffe of the Methodist church.

The supper courses consisted of escalloped fish, cold meats, lobster salad, pickles, coffee, hot rolls, cake, strawberries and cream. The members feel very much indebted to the committee in charge, which comprised Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tiche, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hea, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bird, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Bicknell. The waiters were, as usual, unceasing in their attentions and skillful in their labors.

At the request of President Bicknell, W. O. Fuller, Jr. acted as chairman of the business meeting. Secretary Parker announced the addition of four new members, A. B. Packard, Otho L. Hatch, E. W. Gross and J. E. Stevens. The total membership is now 108. The report of the treasurer, J. N. Southard, showed that the total expenditures had amounted to $208 and that there still remained in the treasury $29. The receipts included $424 from the MacArthur lecture.

The privilege of inviting young men between the ages of 15 to 21 to the lectures was accorded by an unanimous vote of the League. W. O. Fuller, Jr. was invited to deliver the address before the regular September meeting, and the entertainment committee was instructed to correspond immediately with Rev. Dr. MacArthur for an address probably in October.

Meantime it is proposed to have a grand midsummer outing at Crescent Beach to which the wives or sweethearts of the members and those ladies who have assisted at the banquets will be invited. There will be athletic sports in the afternoon and supper in the evening. The committee appointed to have charge of this outing comprises M. S. Birch, C. M. Harrington, C. F. Simmons and J. W. Thomas.

Mr. Sutcliffe's lecture was in part descriptive of "A Parson's Visit to Prince Edward Island in Winter." It was a narrative of his personal experience and those of his wife, who shared the trip with him, and abounded in humorous anecdotes not the least of which was his description of how he worked his message from Prince Edward Island to the mainland partly across a field of ice. Upon all convenient points the pastor hung a small sermon, thus treating his listeners to wisdom, and eloquence as well as wit. He decried the severe criticism often heaped upon immigrants, claiming that they represented, as a rule, the best of the old nations and not the worst. He likened the immigrant to the young men who go from our towns to the cities.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of Maine was held in Portland this week. From the report of Bishop Codman the following paragraph is quoted:

"The work of the Episcopal Church in Maine is particularly hard and discouraging. Everywhere we are misunderstood. Our respect for the apostolic succession in our ministry makes us appear to be narrow and bigoted, since we are obliged to distinguish between our ministry and the others. Our beautiful, dignified Prayer Book service which we so vastly prefer to most extempore performances appears to lack warmth and enthusiasm. The use of a Prayer Book is stupid to congregations who never like to read out loud and will hardly repeat the Lord's Prayer. And the teachings of the Prayer Book in regard to the succession of our bishops, the powers of our priesthood, and the meaning of the sacraments are strange and peculiar to the Protestant mind. In these respects we resemble the Roman Catholic Church, and people are really afraid of us. Other Christian bodies are copying our services and our ritual, but they never copy our Prayer Book teaching. It is too Catholic. Therefore, in order to convert we must teach. We can only win by instruction and patient explanation. No wonder the progress of the church is slow and discouraging."

The Bishop points out the other hand to signs of encouraging growth of the church in this state as shown by a 20 per cent increase since 1900 in the total number of communicants, the increase in number of confirmations, seven churches and eight new rectories built since 1900. Rockland is named as one of the four towns which need new rectories.

Aurora Lodge conferred the entered apprentice degree on Wendell H. Hodgins, Harold W. Haynes and Ralph Herriek Wednesday night.

Alexander Skinner recently moved from the Bicknell house on the New County road to the Donohue house on Broadway and Park street.

Former Sheriff J. W. Gray of Vinahaven has been at Knox hospital for treatment the past week. His condition is said to be greatly improved.

Geo. E. Torrey has so far recovered as to resume his business and is being warmly congratulated by his many friends upon his recent escape.

Penobscot View Grange gives a social dance in the Grange hall at Glen Cove next Tuesday evening. Music will be furnished by Alexander's orchestra of Camden.

The power launch which furnishes daily service between High Island and Crescent Beach, has lately been equipped with a 14 h. p. engine. The trip was made in 23 minutes one day recently.

The central telephone exchange building on School street is being painted. The last coat having at 9.50. The resumption of all-day, hourly service will be welcomed by the patrons, who, however, feel that they have been used extremely well by the R. T. & C.

Ben Littlefield, the South Thomaston stage-driver, has bought a horse from Thomas Barter.

Mrs. Irene Gregory and Stephen Cables have had their houses painted. Merry Widow shades.

Rockland Lodge, F. A. M., conferred the first degree upon Clarence L. Frost and Adelphus O. Butler, Tuesday night. Charles E. Bicknell is shipping a quantity of 1-1-2 inch spruce lumber to Vinahaven, where it is used for sidewalk building.

The city liquor agency is reported to be doing a thriving business. When the monthly report is rendered we shall have a chance to see just how sickly Rockland is.

The county commissioners transacted routine business at their regular session Tuesday. No decision has yet been announced concerning the jail stone-yard and workshop.

Otho Hatch, the gospel singer, assisted by the Hatch family and Dr. L. F. Bachelder, will have charge of the song service to be held at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miriam Rebekah Lodge conferred the degrees upon James A. French and Mrs. George Achorn Tuesday night. The housekeepers for the supper were Mrs. J. S. Jenkins and Mrs. Alva Staples.

County Commissioner E. E. Jameson went to Vinahaven Wednesday, where with Commissioner Lyons he inspected the site of a state road which the town is to build this season. The road will be an extension from the northern boundary of the state road built last season to the Thoroughfare.

The funeral of Miss Luella Shaw Kernston took place Wednesday afternoon, with a very large attendance and many floral offerings. Rev. Robert Sutcliffe officiated. The pall-bearers were Frank A. Magee, Charles Aylward, Joseph Chase and John Sullivan. The interment was at Achorn cemetery.

The reconverts of the Rockland, South Thomaston & Camden Street Railroad resume charge of the road Saturday morning and hourly car service begins on that date. The first car will leave Rockland at 6.20 a. m. and the last will leave at 9.30 p. m. Returning, the car will leave the Beach at 10 minutes of the hour, the last car leaving at 9.50. The resumption of all-day, hourly service will be welcomed by the patrons, who, however, feel that they have been used extremely well by the R. T. & C.

Tons of garden seed are being dropped into Knox county's fertile fields this week.

The Elks have their regular meeting next Monday night. The regular sessions for the next four months will be held on the fourth Monday, promptly at 8 o'clock.

Roland Rackliff, who has been painting Herbert Farnham's residence on Oliver street, has gone to Isles au Haut, where he is employed by C. E. Turner in building a piece of a private telephone.

Disputes over the title to a lot of land at Crescent Beach is said to have led to a heated argument in a South Thomaston house a few days ago. The man who calls Uncle Eli a liar must be prepared to back up the assertion or have stout friends handy.

"A Rank Deception" is the name of an amusing little comedy which will be presented by amateurs in the Universalist parlors on the evening of June 3. In the cast are Fath Granger, Lena Thordike, Lena Lawrence, Frank Thordike, Ned Veazie and Scott Kiltredge. Mrs. O. E. Davies is coaching the play.

Arthur S. Littlefield has a somewhat remarkable record in the trial of cases, not having lost a jury verdict since last September. Most of the cases were tried in other counties, and several were in U. S. court. The future member of the Maine supreme bench is not to be blamed if he takes considerable pride in his legal record.

The Oxford bear, which was on exhibition at the Thordike hotel last week, is now at W. E. Sheerer's drug store in Tenants' Harbor. The St. George delegation added the Swasey cause and exhibits the souvenir with much satisfaction. Word from Tenants' Harbor says that the bear has attracted lots of attention there.

The services of Memorial Sunday will be held in the Congregational church Sunday at 10.30 a. m., with sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Quint. Mr. Quint also delivers the Memorial address on the evening of Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30. The Grand Army of the Republic, relating to the day, appears elsewhere in this issue, and gives whatever information may be desired.

Strawberries were selling at 18 cents a box.

The Maine Department of Agriculture has issued a list of the fairs to be held in this state, with the dates and fair grounds assigned. Our readers are particularly interested in the following: Maine State, Lewiston, Sept. 7-10; Eastern Maine, Bangor, Aug. 25-28; Central Maine, Waterville, Aug. 31-Sept. 3; Hancock County, Bangor, Sept. 8-10; North Knox, Union, Sept. 22-24; Sagadahoc County, Topsham, Oct. 13-15; Waldo County, Sept. 8-10; Waldo and Penobscot, Monroe, Sept. 15-17.

Maggie, wife of Andrew P. Brown, died Wednesday morning at Knox hospital, where she went for a surgical operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Brown was 39 years of age. Her maiden name was Achorn. She leaves a husband, a son, a stepfather, T. H. Bucklin, a brother, Eugene Achorn of Belfast, and a sister, Eva Curtis. She was a loving companion, affectionate mother and a good neighbor and will be greatly missed by all. She was always ready to lend a helping hand to all in need. Funeral services will be held this Friday at Capt. E. M. Curtis' Union street.

The first quarterly conference of Pratt Memorial M. E. church was held Tuesday night, presiding Elder D. B. Phelan in the chair. Vacancies in the board of trustees and stewards were filled. By an unanimous vote of the conference the salary of the pastor was increased $100—this in recognition of his energetic and painstaking efforts in bringing the church to a standard of almost unexampled prosperity. The admirers of Mr. Sutcliffe are more than ever convinced that the church was fortunate in securing his services for the ensuing year.

The death of Prof. Leslie A. Lee of Bowdoin college, which took place at the Maine general hospital in Portland, Wednesday, was a shock to the numerous friends of the deceased in this city. Prof. Lee organized the Bowdoin Labrador expedition, which made important explorations in 1891. This expedition embarked in the Rockland schooner Julia A. Dexter. Among the geologists in the party were four from this city, Fred J. Simonton, Jr., Dr. Walter M. Spear, Mervyn Ap Rice, now of Montclair, N. J., and the late Jonathan P. Cilley, Jr. An elaborate account of the expedition was written by Mr. Cilley, and has since been published in book form by his father, Gen. J. P. Cilley as a memorial.

Limerock Council, Knights of Columbus, gave a complimentary dance Wednesday evening, having as guests the ladies of St. Bernard's church, who have so kindly assisted the Knights in their numerous entertainments. This embraced so large a list that it was manifestly impracticable to issue invitations. An orchestra of three pieces furnished music for the dancing, and refreshments of ice cream, cake and fruit punch were served. The punch bowl was presided over by Fred Cilley, who was marvelously arrayed in a Worth gown and who would have passed anywhere as a charming senorita. The occasion was a very merry one, and the large number of guests were full of regret when the hour came for dispersing.

The S. L. Club is holding a Rummage, Apron and Fair Goods Sale at 375 Main street this Friday and Saturday. Your hearty support is solicited as it is for a very worthy cause.

The Kallach Furniture Co. has sold a beautiful Cape piano to Mr. Herzog for his summer home across the bay.

The driving horse Dorothy, owned by H. F. Hix, dropped dead in front of the Narragansett hotel Wednesday.

The Cables house recently bought by A. C. Hahn has been renovated throughout and the premises are being newly graded.

J. E. Moore, A. S. Littlefield, C. M. Walker and Frank B. Miller represented the Knox county bar at the funeral of Judge Ozo D. Castner in Waldoboro Tuesday.

Parker Norcross killed a snake which measured 1 1/2 feet in length in a street at the Northend Tuesday. Parker brought the reptile to this office in proof of the achievement.

A cow weighing 1000 pounds was an unusual object shipped through the American Express office in this city Wednesday. It came from Waldoboro and was consigned to A. M. Webster of Vinahaven.

George W. Leadbetter, messenger to the Governor and Council, formerly of this city, was a member of the Maine party on the trip to Salisbury, N. C., to the dedication of the soldiers' monument.

The Knox Woolen Co., Camden, Me., who are large buyers of Maine wools, announce that they will not buy this year except at a discount if the fleeces are tied up with coarse hemp, jute or sisal twines.

Bath Times: C. S. Blackington of Rockland began duties Monday morning as clerk at the Anderson pharmacy. Mr. Blackington has many friends here who are giving him the glad hand. He was formerly in the drug business in Rockland.

Frank A. Beverage of Thomaston who has been employed as "on-hand" clerk at the American Express office, has been appointed agent at East Millisnoet, where he has already assumed his new duties. To secure his successor Agent Harrington made another draft upon Thomaston, where he engaged Albert F. P. Hyde.

An Associated Press dispatch in Monday's daily papers credited Congressman Littlefield in a Brooklyn speech as denouncing Congressmen as cowards. Rising to a question of privilege in the House Tuesday, Mr. Littlefield denied that he had made such an assertion on the reputation of members of Congress. He declared that he had been grossly misrepresented by the newspapers.

A special assembly of King Hiram Council, R. & S. M., will be held in Masonic hall, Camden, May 28, at 7.30 p. m., under dispensation. The degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates. Applications will be received and acted upon and degrees conferred on candidates elected at this assembly. Supper at 6.30 p. m. to all companions and candidates. There will be a special car from Masonic hall, Rockland, at 5.40 p. m., returning after assembly and running to Warren.

The First Baptist Choral Association has "an evening with the choir" Sunday evening, May 31. The choir will be assisted by Dr. E. E. Luce of this city and Mrs. J. Walter Strout of Thomaston.

Stage Driver Ben Littlefield brought us from South Thomaston Wednesday some rocks which have all the appearance of petrified potatoes, and the circumstances bear out that theory. The stones were found in the process of re-excavating the basement of the old Forrest house which burned some years ago. There were about a peck of them and how they came there, unless they are petrified potatoes, is something of a mystery.

The great jam at the opening sale of seats for the Elks' ball, yesterday morning, presages a wonderful triumph when that event takes place this Friday evening. The concert by the Salem Cadet Orchestra begins at 8 p. m., and the grand march will begin at 9 o'clock. As the public is already well informed as to the details we will simply content ourselves with the suggestion that those who miss this ball will miss an event which has never had its equal in this city.

Lionel C. Wilson goes this week to Portland, where he is to sing in the quartet choir of the State street Congregational church. Mr. Wilson, whose ability and character as a tenor singer has long been recognized, resigns a similar position in the Congregational choir of this city to accept the Portland engagement at a large advance in salary. He will also have a position as salesman in the shoe store of C. H. Lane, the two connections giving him a handsome income. Mr. Wilson will later take lessons under a vocal teacher with view to adopting singing as a profession, for which his natural abilities clearly design him.

A Rockland gentleman standing on one of the wharves in Lemond's Cove was treated to a most deplorable and crusty Wednesday forenoon. Three young men came onto Crockett's wharf leading two dogs, which they attempted to shoot with revolvers. Failing to kill the animals they next threw them overboard, but wounded as they were the dogs made a brave attempt to rescue the shore. The young men, if such they can be called, then threw rocks at the canines from whose bodies the blood could be seen to spur. One of the dogs sank, but the other managed to crawl under the edge of the wharf, where he remained until his persecutors had departed.

When the Rockland Public Library was organized, the first gift it received was eighteen volumes of Shakespearean literature from the Shakespeare Society of Rockland. This was but the beginning of that society's generous interest in the library. Other books having been donated at various times. A recent gift from this society, for which the library makes grateful acknowledgment, includes the following: "Shakespeare as a Dramatist," by G. P. Baker; "Shakespeare (English Men of Letters)" by W. Raleigh; "Life of William Shakespeare," by Sidney Lee; "When Shakespeare Set His Stage," by E. Lathrop; "Shakespeare and the Modern Stage," by Sidney Lee; "The Text of Shakespeare," by T. R. Lounsbury; "What is Shakespeare?" by L. A. Sherman; "Wives of Henry the Eighth," by M. Hume.

SMITHTON

George Hall, wife and two children of Washington visited at B. Bartlett's Saturday and Sunday.

Ralph Overlook met with a bad accident while at work in J. B. Sylvester's mill. He fell 14 feet, striking a pile of rubbish and across a large timber. Two ribs were cracked and the muscles of his left side were badly strained.

W. A. Overlook has purchased a three h. gasoline engine for his farm. He has a blacksmith shop. He has also ordered a cream separator.

F. A. Greeley saved the end from one of his fingers while at work in his mill. Mrs. Anna Thurston of Milford, N. H., who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, returned home Saturday.

James Sylvester, an aged resident of this place, is confined to his bed by sickness.

Mrs. Willard Pullen, who underwent a surgical operation for abscess, is reported to be doing finely, and although a lady considerably advanced in years there is a good prospect of her speedy recovery.

IT SAVED MY LIFE
WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT

Bed-ridden Sufferer Completely Cured by Use of D. D. D. External Wash.

One of the most remarkable Eczema cures applied to the skin brings to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago.

Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast over my whole body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning.

"I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 8th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life.

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would take care of me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast. Now my skin is clear and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap. Get a bottle today if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once.

For sale by all druggists.

JOHNNY'S CAREER.

The Same That Was Started by the Cornell Widow.

Sheer nonsense rhymes and jokes without apparent reason or object are frequently used to fill the pages of the Cornell Widow. If anything more foolish than the "Main of Glededorf" verse has ever been written, the Widow wishes to state that her bump of credulity was imported from Missouri and must be shown.

There was a man from Glededorf Who, to save his barber's fees, Would wet his hair and let it freeze, And when 'twas frozen break it off.

The Widow claims the credit of originating the nonsense rhymes which dealt with the cleverness and precocity of the bright little and who carelessly slaughtered his mother, father and immediate relatives. These poems, if so they may be called, appeared in the Widow in October and November, 1907. The same year they were collected and published in pamphlet form under the name of "The Johnny Book." Johnny started his career by "an tragedy" as follows:

Johnny hung his little sister, She was dead before they missed her. Johnny's allus up 't tricks, Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

Next we find "him"—

Johnny with his little ax, Dealt his brother awful wacks. He don't care if mamma kicks, Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

Later development of the little romp shows that—

John has come from bad to worse. Now his father's in a house, Smothered him with a load of bricks, Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

And so on until finally—

Johnny gave a buzzaw buzz, Dealt his brother awful wacks. He don't care if mamma kicks, Ain't he cute?—he's only six.

These verses terminated the Widow's connection with John, but papers all over the country took up his instructive and edifying career and pushed it to a finish. Still another verse which started in the Widow office and traveled all over this country and part of others was the bit of "Eb and Flo" doggerel. In this we discover that—

Flo was fond of Ebenezer— Eb, for short, was called her beau. Task of "ideas of love!" Great Czar! You should see 'em, Eb and Flo.

By itself this beautiful bit could hardly claim a place in a volume of American poetry, but when it traveled far and wide and received an extra verse at each resting place it became a pursuing nightmare. — From "Humorous College Journalism" in Bohemian Magazine.

Women the Greater Dreamers.

A Vienna doctor has published the following figures:

Thirteen men out of a hundred as against thirty-three women dream during their sleep. The number of men who dream frequently is 27 per cent; that of women is 45 per cent. As a general rule, it may be said that the weaker sex has twice as much tendency to dreaming as the opposite sex.

The cerebral phenomenon under consideration is absolutely unknown to 9 per cent, and 14 per cent dream only very rarely.

It seems idle to add that the same doctor noted, what is perfectly well known, that almost all our dreams are suggested more or less directly by the incidents of the material life of every day.—Boston Advertiser.

Thrifty Paganini.

When Paganini was asked many years ago to play at Vauxhall Gardens he inquired how many persons the place would hold.

"That is impossible to say," said the manager. "It is a large, open space."

After some reflection the great violinist inquired, "How many will the large, open space contain when quite full?"

"Perhaps 20,000."

"Ah, 20,000 people! And you ask how much?"

"Four shillings each! Twenty thousand at 4 shillings make 80,000; 80,000 shillings, 4,000. Well, I will play in one concert for 4,000, and you may have the other thousand."—St. Louis Republic.

It Reached the Spot.

Mr. E. Humphrey, who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as of the Home Telephone Co., of Pike County, O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery: "It saved my life once. At least I think it did. It seemed to reach the spot—the very seat of my cough—when everything else failed."

Dr. King's New Discovery not only reaches the cough spot, it heals the sore spots and the weak spots in throat, lungs and chest. Sold under guarantee to Wm. H. Kittredge's drug store and G. I. Robinson Drug Co., Thomaston. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mr. John Rihla, of Vilnius, La., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and I give better satisfaction than any pill I ever used." Sold by W. H. Kittredge.

THE FACE IN ILLNESS.

To the Trained Eye It Quickly Shows a Patient's Condition.

The face is a good index to the state of one's physical being, and from it symptoms of disease can be detected almost before the patient is aware that anything serious is the matter with him.

For instance, incomplete closure of the eyelids, rounding of the whites of the eyes visible during sleep, is a symptom in all acute and chronic diseases of a severe type. It is also to be observed when rest is unobtainable from pain wherever seated.

Twitching of the eyelids, associated with the contraction of the eyelids, or squinting, heralds the visit of convulsions.

Widening of the orifices of the nose, with movements of the nostrils to and fro, points to embarrassed breathing from disease of the lungs or their pleural investment.

Contraction of the brows indicates pain in the head, sharpness of the nostrils in the chest and a drawn upper lip pain in the abdomen.

To make a general rule, it may be stated that the upper third of the face is altered in expression in affections of the brain and the middle third in the diseases of the organs contained in the abdominal cavity.

HOUSE

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say:

"I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it."

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, period pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Sweet Cane From a Far Country.

It has been supposed that sugar cane was the "sweet cane from a far country," mentioned in Jeremiah vi. 20, and in Isaiah xliii. 24. According to Strabo, Nearchus, the admiral of Alex. under the Great, describes a kind of "holney" from an Indian "reed" which was probably sugar cane. Europe seems to be indebted for the plant to the Saracens, who introduced it into Rhodes, Cyprus, Sicily, Crete and Spain in the ninth century.

The crusaders of the twelfth century found it in Syria. The Spaniards and Portuguese carried it to Madeira and the Canaries in the fifteenth century, and on the discovery of America it was taken to the West Indies.—New York American.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address: F. J. CENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

NATIVE ESKIMO CLOTHES.

Light in Weight, Soft in Texture and Absolutely Cold Proof.

When winter set in and Eskimos began to visit the ship, it soon became apparent that they were much better clothed to meet the cold than were the white explorers, though the latter had everything that money could command in the way of "an approved arctic outfit." The Finnish boots, or "Finnskor," used by Nansen and other arctic explorers, were excellent both in lightness and warmth by the native boots. A single fur coat of deerskin made in Norway weighed as much as an entire Eskimo suit of outer and inner garments, with boots and mittens included, and was stiff as wet sailcloth, while the native garments were soft as a kid glove. A well made Eskimo suit—sleeve and boots, underwear, trousers and coat with hood—weighs ten or eleven pounds, about as much as your spring suit, and in it you could sit comfortably on a block of snow, with your back to the wind, fishing through a hole in the ice, with a temperature of 50 degrees F., as the writer has repeatedly done. Feeling not now, but on the face, the only part of the body that must be left uncovered. We found a deerskin shirt with the hair turned in warmer, lighter and more comfortable than a woolen, and a cap unnecessary when the hooded coat is worn. There was not an item of the arctic outfit that was not advantageously replaced by garments bought from the Eskimos. No one wore garments of European make if he was able to get his hands on the Eskimo equivalent.—V. Stefansson in Harper's Magazine.

Speaking Plainly.

The Judge's Request and the Counsel's Prompt Response.

A young and afterward distinguished attorney from an up-country district of New York state, was arguing his first appeal in the old general term of the supreme court. He had been in many legal scurrillages in justices' courts at home, but had never stood in the awesome presence of five sedate and learned judges of the supreme court in general term assembled. He was nervous, and his words so often that it was quite evident that he must soon be routed by his own confusion unless something occurred to break the spell. Finally, and just as he was floundering the deepest in a chaotic jumble of language and ideas, the presiding judge interrupted with the following remark:

"Mr. Smithers, I believe it will be a great relief to yourself and to the court if you will address us in the same free and informal way that you doubtless use in addressing your local justice of the peace."

"Well, then," replied Smithers, "I wish that while I am busy alleviating your honor's dense ignorance of the law you would keep your confounded mouth shut!" The court laughed heartily and waved for him to proceed. He grew eloquent and won his case in the midst of hearty applause.—Bohemian Magazine.

Some of the Trials of Writers.

Professor Lounsbury of Yale calls attention to some of the difficulties of English grammar with which writers have constantly to struggle in their desire to avoid obscurity and be correct at the same time. In Harper's Magazine Professor Lounsbury takes up the use of "whose" as a relative pronoun referring to inanimate objects and justifies its use since nothing better can be devised. He discusses the use of the singular pronoun with the word "everybody" as in "There everybody met his friend." This is manifestly inadequate, and "his or her friends" is clumsy. Jane Austen, writes the professor, avoided the difficulty by using the plural pronoun, as in her sentence, "

KNOX CLUB MAY PARTY.

The series of socials which have been held the past winter by the Knox County Club of Massachusetts was concluded Tuesday evening with a May party held in the hall, Boston.

In addition to the several moonlight waiters the special feature of the evening was the winding of the May Pole. To the strains of a slow waltz played by the Alpha Trio twelve ladies, costumed in white, wove a dozen ribbons of various hues around a gaily decorated May Pole placed in the center of the hall. The following ladies participated in this pretty scene originated by the Elks:

Mrs. George B. Woods, Mrs. R. D. Waldo, Miss Hurley, formerly of Thomaston; Mrs. Walter Wilson, formerly of Rockland; Miss Edith Wade, Miss Rena Wiley, Miss Ida Hart, formerly of St. George; Miss Pendleton of Union; Miss Eastman of Fryeburg; Mrs. Welch, Miss West, Miss Steinauer, of Boston.

A very pleasing order was danced until midnight interrupted the party, when all congratulated the house committee upon the successful party which has been managed by the club's year and expressed the wish that the same would be continued next fall.

Among the visitors from Knox county were noted: Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield, Camden; Miss Ethel Weeks, Miss Dora Rose, Emmet Healey, Miss Lou Thorneike, Rockland; Miss Effie Gilchrist, Miss Jennie Smith, Thomaston; Mr. Shepherd, Rockport; John Watt, St. George.

SACRED ANNIVERSARIES.

How Grand Army and Kindred Organizations Will Observe Memorial Sunday and Memorial Day.

Division Chaplain H. C. Chatto of this city, is issuing the following communication to members of the Sons of Veterans of this state to the proper observance of Memorial Day. Mr. Chatto urges an observance not by revelry but by solemnity that the true meaning of the day may be kept in mind. The communication follows:

"The unceasing march of time brings us who must march with it once more to the day of tender memories, of patriotic revival, of praise and honor. To the dead, now the larger part of the great army of the North that kept the Union intact, the tribute of flowers and music, to the living, who halt a little ere they, too, are mustered out, the tribute of respect and admiration. As we hear the drum beats from ocean to ocean in almost a continuous roll, let us stand unmoved and remember that these men fast bowing with the weight of years were once a part of the most magnificent army the world ever saw, and that because in their day they were brave and devoted, in ours we are a united and happy family.

"Brothers, it seems unnecessary for me to remind you of your duties with reference to this sacred day. Let us remember that it is a day of mourning, not for revelry. There has grown up within recent years a disposition to ignore the original purpose of Memorial Day. From being a day of sacred tribute to the soldier dead, it is rapidly becoming a day given up largely to personal pleasure. This is unfortunate. It may be due to the fact that the old army is gradually passing away, and the later generations have no personal interest in the issues for which these soldiers contended, and for which so many of them gave their lives as a holy sacrifice. But whatever the cause of this indifference to the claims of Memorial day may be, the instincts of reverence for the memory of these dead soldiers and of self-respect should compel a proper observance of the day.

"All soldiers and sailors of the Civil and Spanish American Wars are cordially invited to attend the customary annual divine services, Sunday, May 24, at the Congregationalist church. The memorial sermon will be by Rev. J. H. Quint, 10:30 a. m. by Rev. John Hastings Quint.

"The above-named veterans are also invited to participate in the exercises of Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30.

"We will assemble at G. A. R. hall at 1 p. m., the line being formed at 1:30 p. m. We will take cars for the cemetery, where the exercises will be held. The clergy of the city and the citizens in general are also invited to unite with us.

"Anderson Camp, S. of V., will act as escort, and the Rockland Military band will furnish music. At Achorn cemetery, the order of services will be as follows:

"Prayer; reading of Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, by Col. E. K. Gould; decoration of the graves, by the veterans; re-assembling at G. A. R. hall.

"In the evening, at 7:30, members of Edwin Libby post, G. A. R., Edwin Libby Relief Corps, and Anderson Camp, S. of V., will march to the Congregationalist church, to listen to a Memorial address by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Quint. The roll of honor will be read by the chaplain, and the hymn 'The Ladies of the City are requested to assist the Edwin Libby Relief Corps in making wreaths for the occasion at G. A. R. hall, Friday May 29th; also to furnish flowers for Memorial day decorations.

"WILLIAM P. HURLEY, Commander. CHARLES B. GREENHALGH, Adjutant.

MRS. JOHN H. BRAY.

OLLIVIA A., wife of John H. Bray, died at her home in Vinalhaven, May 15, aged nearly 48 years. Deceased was a devoted wife and mother and a kind and generous friend. She is survived by her husband, three children—William, Hazel and Lottie; three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Dyer of Vinalhaven, Mrs. Albert Jones of West Rockport, and Mrs. Harrison Curtis of South Thomaston; and three brothers—W. H. Miller, B. H. Miller and Carl C. Miller of Rockland. Funeral services were held Tuesday, Rev. H. H. Fringie of North Haven officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Many beautiful floral offerings were sent to the home of the deceased which were everywhere held. Mrs. Bray had been an invalid many years, but her final illness covered a period of only two years and the end was apparently peaceful and painless. Tuberculosis was the cause. With full knowledge that she must leave her loved ones at an early day she was patient and uncomplaining to the very last, her gentleness as a mother and devotion as a wife being dominant qualities as they had always been in the past. She was laid to rest in the Vinalhaven cemetery. Among the relatives from away, who were present at the funeral, were Mrs. Curtis of South Thomaston, Mrs. Parker Miller, Benjamin and Carl Miller of Rockland.

D. A. R.'S FINE WORK.

Has Spent Over $600 Mostly in Local Objects—The Essay Competition.

Lady Knox Chapter, D. A. R., held a special meeting with Miss Alay Coburn Broadway, last Monday. It was voted to award the prizes offered to high school pupils for the best papers on Revolutionary subjects, next Tuesday, May 26, in G. A. R. hall. The first prize offered was $10 and the decision was left to the principal of Simmons College, Boston, to whom the papers were sent. In her letter she stated that it was very difficult to determine the best of two papers, but finally favored the "young lady," Miss Eva Hatch, at the same time strongly recommending a second prize to Harry Keating, which recommendation has been approved by the Chapter. Both papers will be included in the program, Tuesday, which will be given at 8:45 p. m.

The Thomaston Chapter, Supt. Moulton and wife, the high and grammar school faculty, the contestants, winners and members of the Chapter has the privilege of inviting one. The Chapter intends to renew its offer to the high school for the year 1909.

Lady Knox Chapter was organized in 1900 by Mrs. Eva A. Butler, and at the special meeting it was a surprise to the members when a summary of the work it has done was read by the regent, as follows:

Public hospital, $283.48
Knox hospital, 107.27
D. A. R. building in Washington, 100.00
Old Home Week Association, 31.11
McLain building piano, 25.00
Y. M. C. A., 20.00
Soldiers' markers, 18.47
Tolman cemetery, 16.00
Prizes to high school, 15.00
Decorations of Independence and flag pins for Flag Day, 13.73

All the money has been spent in local work except the $100 sent to the Maine room in the D. A. R. building at the Capitol. The Chapter is planning a "City Improvement Society" for its next year's work, which it is felt, will meet the approval of every resident.

Rockland High and Camden High End Fine Game With Dispute.

An unfortunate dispute ended an otherwise first-class game of baseball on the Broadway ground, Thursday afternoon, and left the supporters of Rockland High and Camden High still in doubt as to which is the better team.

The trouble came at the beginning of the 9th inning, when the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Camden. Frohock, the Camden second baseman, came to the plate and was allowed to bat in spite of the protest of a Rockland scorer, who called attention to the fact that Frohock was the last man retired in the 8th inning. Umpire Weymouth naturally asked the official Rockland scorer who the proper batsman was, and that scorer answered, as he then believed, that Frohock was the man. This was the inception of an ill-starred performance that left everybody disgusted, and dealt the sport a bitter eye.

Frohock hit a liner toward Bicknell and that young worthy let it go by with small show of resistance. The baserunner then stole second and in the attempt to head him off Barker threw over his shoulder, Bicknell then paced toward third and thinking that he could reach home made a deliberate cut. Ross adopted equal tactics by jumping forward and tripping the Camden runner.

The baserunner reached home safe about the same time that Frohock did, and it is claimed that the runner knocked the ball from the catcher's hands.

Then came a long and wearisome dispute. Ike Barker, umpire on bases, claimed that Frohock was entitled to third base because the latter was blocked by Ross. Weymouth, umpire on the field, claimed that Barker was wrong and that the runner was out for interfering with the fielder. Under circumstances like this, with both teams manifestly in error, the game should have continued some compromise, but Camden, in spite of the calm advice of some of its supporters, preferred to leave the field.

Of the game while it lasted nothing but praise can be given. Both sides played like professionals. The errors were few but very costly. Cottrell, overworked, was put in the box for Rockland, and was batted hard in the early part of the game, steady down to the 4th inning. Camden produced a new star by the name of Fish, who pitched a remarkably swift ball, and who looks like a winner when better seasoned. Ross again distinguished himself at third outside of his fracas with Frohock and brilliant plays were made in the outfield by Blackington and Blood. At the beginning of the 6th inning the score was 4 to 0 in favor of Camden. Following is the batting order and summary:

Camden: Frohock 2b, Hart 3b, Gould ss, Fish p, Nash 1b, Arey c, Coombs if, Payson rf, Blood cf.

Rockland: Cates 2b, Bicknell ss, Spear 1b, Ross 3b, Cottrell p, Barker if, Barter C, Hall rf.

Camden 1 0 0 2 1 0 0 4
Rockland 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 3

Base hits, Camden 9, Rockland 6. Two base hits, Fish, Sprague, Bases on balls, off Cottrell 3. Struck out, by Cottrell 3, by Fish 10. Errors, Camden 5, Rockland 4. Umpires, Weymouth of Rockland and Barker of Camden. Scorer, Fuller.

The Young Men's Association baseball team of Belfast, has booked two games with the Rockport Y. M. C. A., the first to be played July 18 in Belfast and the second July 25, in Rockport.

Dave Sawyer fights Belfield Wolcott in Dover, N. H. next Monday evening. The Rockland boy is anxious to meet any man at 150 pounds, Sam Langford preferred. Frank Repetto will accompany Sawyer to Dover.

In the Maine college series Wednesday Bowdoin beat Maine 9 to 0, and Bates beat Colby 2 to 0. Dwyer made one of Colby's three hits. Richardson of Rockland caught part of the Maine-Bowdoin game and accepted all of his five chances.

The Rockland high school team plays in South Portland Saturday afternoon. The boys concede defeat, but are going to make the best possible showing.

Tommy Burns, the heavyweight pugilist, has sent a cablegram to Jack Curley at Chicago, accepting an offer to fight Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight, in Nevada, on Labor Day, for a purse of $35,000. Burns to have $20,000, win, lose or draw.

MORE LIGHTHOUSES.
House Passes Bill Appropriating $750,000—Strikes Out Provision for Keepers' Families.

The House has passed an omnibus bill to authorize additional aid to navigation in the lighthouse establishment. The bill appropriates $750,000 and provides various light stations, buoys, tenders, etc., in various parts of the country. The bill authorizes an allowance of one ration a day for each keeper, on the basis of 30 cents per ration, and the committee reporting the bill estimates that this will mean an additional outlay by the government of $175,000 annually.

The provision, granting to widows or children of lighthouse keepers and their assistants a sum equal to two years' pay in case such keepers or assistants should lose their lives, was stricken out by general consent.

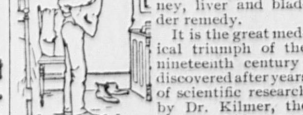

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?
Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to use it.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

No More Throat Trouble.
Mrs. D. C. Nolan, Gen. Kas., writes: "I have no more throat trouble, thanks to Peruna. It is the only medicine I care to have. I always feel safe when I have it in the house."

"I have used Peruna for nine years and I ought to know about it. Peruna has helped me a great many times, and I shall praise it to every one of my friends."

Ever since Peruna was introduced to the public thirty years ago, the housewife has been an ever faithful friend to Peruna. She is that has seen the practical benefits of the use of Peruna in the family.

When the baby has snuffles or cold she gives a few doses of Peruna, instead of filling the system with the doctor's drugs.

When the school children have coughs or colds she again resorts to Peruna.

When any member of the family is afflicted with catarrh, either in its acute form or chronic, Peruna is resorted to. In a large number of minor ailments she finds Peruna a never-failing remedy.

All this has won the confidence of the housewife in Peruna, which cannot be easily shaken by the statements of people who know nothing of Peruna, having never had any personal experience in its use.

Why We Sleep.
The well known explanation that the stiffness of the atmosphere in a church is the cause of sleepiness in members of the congregation is, according to the Revue Scientifique (Paris), "insufficient." If this hypothesis were tenable, argues our authority, it is manifest that the congregation, or those members of it who react readily to a soporific agent, would go to sleep before the sermon began. Now, it is notorious that the sleeping is done during the sermon. The true explanation is that the auditor unconsciously hypnotizes himself or herself by concentrating the gaze for a long period on a single object, whether the countenance of the preacher or the pulpit or what not. The more desperate the effort to heed the sermon the surer this effect of self-hypnotization. Those who sleep during the sermon are consequently the very members of a congregation who are entitled to the highest praise for their conscientious effort to follow the words of the preacher—Current Literature.

One System That Won.
"He who breaks the bank today will be broken by the bank tomorrow" was a favorite saying of M. Blanc, founder of the casino at Monte Carlo. There have been many systems that were called infallible invented for the purpose of breaking the bank from the D'Alembert to the Rosslyn and Lalou chere, but only one of them all has ever given the keepers of the bank a moment's real anxiety. This was the discovery of the keen-eyed old lady who observed that if the crupier spun with certain numbers opposite him certain numbers inevitably won. As a matter of fact, it was all very simple. The roulette wheel had become warped and was not quite round and thus invariably stuck at easily ascertainable figures. This little discovery put 300,000 francs into the pockets of the old lady and her accomplices before M. Blanc bought the secret for 70,000 francs.—Westminster Gazette.

Some German Composers.
In answer to a correspondent "Menestrel" gives a list showing the "creativity" of some German composers. Franz Abt, according to the figures published, created 2,010 compositions, of which 1,079 were choruses, 106 duets and 1,134 songs. Johann Sebastian Bach is credited with 1,102 compositions, of which 225 were for the organ and 611 were choruses. Beethoven's compositions are placed at 434; Brahms, 538; Handel, 397; Haydn, 575; Liszt, 955; Mozart, when he was thirty-five years old, had written 626 compositions; Raff, 610; Schubert, 550; Schumann, thirty-one years old, 791; Schumann, forty-six years old, 671. When we except Czerny and Diabelli, who wrote for pedagogical purposes, Mozart and Schubert rank highest for prolific work. The statistician did not consider in his list the compositions intended for the stage.

Pe-ru-na Tablets.

Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Mrs. T. J. Ballard, Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, writes: "I keep free from my old stomach trouble, feel no catarrhal symptoms at all. I am able to do my work, eat and drink what I want, and am rejoiced to know that I found a sure cure in your valuable medicines."

Dyspepsia and Constipation.
Mrs. John M. Stabler, Millersburg, Ind., writes: "I have been cured of a very bad case of catarrh of the stomach and constipation, and a complication of ailments that I have had for several years."

"I doctored with three doctors who did me not much good, so I quit doctoring. I bought a bottle of Peruna and commenced taking it. I found I was getting some better, but thought I was not doing as well as I might. So I wrote to Dr. Hartman to see what he thought about me. He gave me special directions and medical advice."

"To our astonishment I improved and am today a well woman and weigh as much as I ever did in my life."

"My old friends in Ohio, where we moved from about fifteen months ago, say when they see me, 'How well you look. I did not expect to see you ever look so well again.' I tell them I would not look so well if it had not been for Peruna."

"Peruna saved my life. I recommend Peruna wherever I am, and when any of our folks are sick I give them Peruna with success."

"I thank Dr. Hartman, and may he live many years more to go on with the good work. Tongue cannot express the gratitude that my husband, children and I owe to Dr. Hartman for the kindness he has shown toward me during my sickness."

"I want the public to know what Peruna and Dr. Hartman have done for me."

An astonishing number of families use Peruna continuously for the various petty ailments to which the family is liable.

Systemic Catarrh.
Mrs. Augusta Pauline Ochs, R. F. D. 2, North English, Iowa, writes: "I took Peruna over three years. I suffered from systemic catarrh and had pains in my right side so I could hardly do my housework."

"I am 66 years old, and am now doing all my housework. I am in the best of health, and cannot thank Dr. Hartman enough for his advice and medicine."
