TITUS, GEORGIA B.
West Garland, 1862-1938
Georgia B. Titus was born September 16, 1862 at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Blanchard, in West Garland, Maine. When about three years of age the family moved to Vermont but two years later Georgia was brought back to West Garland where she spent the remainder of her life. After finishing common school she attended Dexter High School but did not graduate because of frailness and frequent illness. Miss Titus began writing verse in early womanhood. Several were published with favorable comment. She also had natural talent for painting. On December 24, 1938, she passed on to 'The Greater Glory'.

From a biographical sketch by Carrie E. Titus in A ROSE JAR OF VERSE.

Dear Miss Titus:

The gift copy of A ROSE JAR OF VERSE, the collected poems of your sister, has been received. We are indeed grateful for the interest which prompts the gift, and the delightful verses will afford an unusually pleasant addition to the Maine Author Collection.

Please accept our appreciative thanks for your kindness.

Very truly yours
