Dear Mrs. Stubbs:

Dennis O'Brien suggested that I should give your name to my publishers. My book has notes on my early writing in Maine and the debt I owe to the late A.G. Staples of The Lewiston Journal. All my life I have had letters from people in Maine who were interested in my literary efforts. From its historical nature, I feel your library should have some copies of my book. Sincerely

Lowe W.W. [Signature]

Dear Mr. Wren:

It is indeed kind of you to make a gift of your book, A DOG'S HOWL, to this library. We appreciate your thought of us, and also your calling our attention to your Maine connection. We always list books by Maine writers, or those connected with the state through residence, for the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association; and we shall include A DOG'S HOWL in our next list.

We wish it and you continuing and satisfying success. Please accept our thanks for your generous gift and friendly note.

Sincerely yours

In Charge of
