Opposes Resubmission Now

A. L. Talbot of Lewiston Tells Why Resubmission
Republicans Should Support Mr. Fernald.

One of the staunchest supporters of resubmission who took part in the Republican state convention two years ago was A. L. Talbot, a prominent resident of Lewiston. He announces his intention of supporting Hon. Bert M. Fernald in the following letter:

Great effort is being made by the Democratic leaders to secure the vote of Republicans who have favored the resubmission of the prohibitory amendment of the constitution. As I was a resubmissionist, doing all in my power for resubmission, in a speech in the Republican state convention in Portland in 1906 and propose to vote with the Republican party in the coming September, I feel it my duty to publicly state the reason that impels me to this action. I cast my first vote forty years ago coming September and made much effort in 1853 and 1855. In 1851 was enacted the first prohibition law in the world and it is known the world over as "The Maine Law." This law was amended, and made more effective in 1853 and 1855. In the election of 1855 the Republican candidate for governor failed to receive a majority vote then required and was defeated. The legislature was Democratic, the prohibitory laws were repealed and a license law enacted. In 1856 Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, the first Republican governor of Maine, elected by the people, carried the State by a majority of nearly twenty thousand. The Democratic license laws were repealed and the Republican prohibitory laws re-enacted. "The Maine Law" thus re-enacted remains to this day. Statutory prohibition in Maine has been a glorious success. I declare this to the world without fear of successful contradiction. I was brought face to face with the practical working of "The Maine Law" in the city of Lewiston, being an Internal Revenue officer with headquarters in Lewiston for seven years, under the administration of Presidents Grant and Hayes, and I know whereof I speak.

We have a law against murder but it does not entirely stop murder and "The Maine Law" has never entirely stopped the illegal sale of liquor but considering the whole period since its enactment, "The Maine Law" has been a success. It has been a success in the state of Maine.

The success of statutory prohibition is historical. I quote from "A History of Maine." "At length after more than thirty years' experience of the benefits of the prohibitory policy to the morals and material interests of the state, a constitutional amendment embodying the principles of prohibition was, in September 1854, submitted to the people, and they chose to put it in the constitution beyond the reach of repeal or change, at any one election."

be, their permanent success in enforcement of any laws opposed by unprincipled avarice and base appetite, will largely depend on the strength and activity of the public sentiment which supports the object they have in view, in the several counties and municipalities. It is gratifying to know that this sentiment has become so predominant as to secure the very general suppression of known dramshops and the consequent marked mitigation of the evils of intemperance in four-fifths of the state. In the remainder of the state, comprising some of the large cities and villages, the results are not satisfactory, although even there the suppression of the dramshops is thirty years since, there has been an improvement. I am happy to bear witness to the fidelity and efficiency with which most of the sheriffs and county attorneys, for the latter officers are as important in this work as the former, have labored to enforce the law against dram shops, as well as other P. Morrill for governor in 1854, the first no fault or failure of statutory prohibition that can be depended upon to be true, and states the condition in Maine in the days of statutory prohibition before the prohibitory amendment was made to the constitution. It was the success of "The Maine Law" for thirty years that made it possible to put the prohibitory amendment known as the "Fifth Amendment" into the constitution.

The prohibitory laws had not been as well enforced since the prohibitory amendment was adopted in 1854, it is a return to the efficient enforcement of the temperance cause. Mr. Fernald is an able, worthy man and stands for sobriety and efficient enforcement of the laws. He will be a worthy successor to the Morrill, Hamlin, Perham, Dingley, Burleigh, Hill and Cobb, governors of Maine, who have been prominently identified with the enactment and enforcement of the prohibitory laws. Mr. Fernald should receive the vote of every Republican in Maine and most certainly the vote of every Republican in Androscoggin county.

While I was a resubmissionist in 1906, I do not want resubmission of the Fifth amendment now. The time for such action is when there is a need of it as I believe there was in 1906. The people now see that the constitution will not enforce itself. The prohibitory laws will not enforce themselves but need the action and earnest support of the people in the election and support of their officers. There are indications throughout the entire state that the people are awake and alive to the need of the law in the cause of prohibition. The prohibitory laws of Maine have all been enacted by the Republican party and with that party I prefer to trust the enforcement of these laws, rather than to trust other at the present time. Therefore, I purpose to vote the Republican ticket in September as well as the Republican national ticket in November, and I hope elect a candidate. Breaking the "Solid South" has a far deeper significance in their minds. They would interpret it as meaning the beginning of the dissolution of the Democratic party, and it is for this reason mainly that Southern leaders will attempt to inject some life into the present national campaign, although few of them believe that Bryan will be elected.

In speaking of the "Solid South" the states of Maryland, West Virginia and Kentucky must be eliminated. They are no longer considered as parts of the "Solid South." Not in recent years have Southern Democratic leaders felt that there was any real danger of any of the Democratic Southern states going Republican. There has, of course, in each campaign been more or less talk of Virginia or North Carolina or some other state being counted in the Republican column, but Southern Democrats simply read these reports and smiled, secure in the belief and knowledge that there was no possibility of such happening.

This year things are entirely different. The Democratic party renominated Bryan, who had twice before been defeated and who had aroused the bitterest antagonism from the start on the part of the conservative element of the Democratic party. The Republicans nominated Taft, a man in whom the men of the South, Democrats and Republicans alike, have confidence. The New York Tribune's correspondent has talked with Democrats from nearly all the Southern states and has yet to talk with one who will not admit that he believes Mr. Taft would make a good Chief Executive. And this is putting it mildly.

We are especially indebted to Hon. Bert M. Fernald, our esteemed Republican candidate for governor, for his earnest and active support of the prohibitory laws and through his esteem of townsmen, Hon. Edward P. Ricker and Hon. Hiram W. Ricker. The influence of these prominent Republicans is potent for temperance and sobriety in Maine, and should receive the commendation and support of all friends of the temperance cause. Mr. Fernald is an able, worthy man and stands for sobriety and efficient enforcement of the laws. He will be a worthy successor to the Morrill, Hamlin, Perham, Dingley, Burleigh, Hill and Cobb, governors of Maine, who have been prominently identified with the enactment and enforcement of the prohibitory laws. The Courier-Gazette

Twice a Week.
Circulation Affidavit
Rockland, September 4, 1908.
I, J. W. McKINLEY, do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct statement of the circulation of the above named publication for the week ending September 1, 1908, as indicated by the following statement:

Week after next Rockland extends its well-known hospitality to that notable body of women, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Maine. It is 15 years since the convention last tested this hospitality and pronounced it good. We have no doubt that the ladies will on this occasion equally enjoy welcome here. We will be glad to welcome those things that pertain to the advancement of society and the elevation of the individual. It will interest our readers to perceive the work of this intelligent and courageous organization more and more coming to be regarded by the thoughtful people of the country, as indicated by the following extract from an editorial lately printed in Harper's Bazar reviewing the recent prohibition victories:

Back of every effect lies its cause. No explanation has yet been given of this series of prohibition victories that does not bear out the French saying, "L'œuvre est la cause." The cause of the prohibition movement is the fact that the W. C. T. U. riding on its top and the seafaring feeling for its "little before it," represents the truth of the fact that the woman's crusade against liquor was begun in Ohio, in 1874, at Cleveland, the W. C. T. U. was organized. It commenced to work on the education of public sentiment, and it has never stopped since. Thirty years is the period of the passing of one generation. The children educated by these earnest women pioneers, mothers in the homes, teachers in the schools and Sunday schools, have grown up, and grown up rooted and grounded in the faith. The literature that the women have distributed for temperance has done its work. The weekly meetings, the state gatherings, the affiliation with the clergy and with prominent reformers, the ceaseless pressure on the schools through temperance text books, the moral fruit. The story of the prohibition victory in Georgia traces back step by step, to the door of its women, who taught, prayed, organized, worked and won. They began by a day of fasting and prayer that waked up the state. They had prayer meetings at six in the morning before the legislature began its sessions. Like all public sentiment, this new temperance impulse does not also recognize its own beginnings. It is not the W. C. T. U. as an organization or the prohibition party as a political entity that is in the mind of the voter nowadays. Railroads and great employers are not thinking about feminine ideas when they post notices that only total abstinence shall work for them. The great fraternal societies are not turning liquor sellers out of their membership to consciously please our women. Yet that these things are being done, that metropolitan newspapers are urging local options, that economic forces with morals in the industrial world, means, after all, that those whose business it is, in the home and community, to create public sentiment, have created it, and left it to work out in its own way. The editor of the Georgian who wrote to his mother, the day the prohibition bill passed, "Mother, it was you who won today!" went to the heart of the matter, through economics, politics, and all.

The great Republican victory in Vermont sends cheer all along the line. Democrats had hoped to cut down the normal plurality. Anything below 25-000, they declared, would be counted as a Democratic victory. How far they failed is shown in the 30,000 plurality by which Republicans carry the state. It doesn't look like a Bryan year. Vermont's splendid example ought to inspire Maine to do likewise. Let us not lag in this Republican year of Taft. We are voting for Fernald this month, it is true, but every vote that adds to Fernald's majority increases the certainty of a national victory in November. Let each of us help this forward in our own neighborhood. Let Knox county Republicans resolve to do everything in their power to add to the certain Republican triumph on Sept. 14.

Don't be fooled into voting for Mr. McGillicuddy upon state issues. Mr. McGillicuddy if elected would go to Congress where state issues would never be heard from. This is another reason that makes Maine's election this month as much of a national as a state event. We want to represent us in Congress a man like John P. Swasey, sound in Republican doctrine and safe to trust with the matter of tariff revision.

Governor Sheldon takes the lid off the latest paramount issue when he says that what Bryan means is not "Shall the people rule?" but "Shall the Democratic party rule?" According to Mr. Bryan, only those who call themselves Democrats come within his definition of the word "people."

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.
Elaborate Attractions Being Made for the Day at Oakland Park.

All roads will lead to Oakland Park, Labor Day, next Monday, where the labor celebration will be held this year. The program to be presented will exceed all Labor Day celebrations in the history of Knox county--in fact there will be something doing all day and until late in the evening. An elaborate program has been arranged. In the morning at 11 o'clock there will be a ball game between a Trolley League team and the All-Star aggregation for a purse of $10. At 1 o'clock there will be speaking from the bandstand. The principal speaker will be Guy E. Miller of Colorado, a man prominent in the labor movement and of national reputation. An innovation will be a grand display of daylight fireworks in the afternoon with a beautiful display in the evening. Band concerts will be given all day. The motion pictures afternoon and evening will be free. There will also be dancing afternoon and evening--gentlemen 35 cents and ladies free. Music for the dancing will be furnished by Farnham's orchestra. Admission to the Park will be free and the occasion should call out thousands of people. A present will be given to each boy and girl who arrives at the Park by 12 o'clock. The celebration will be in charge of competent persons who will see that the best of order is maintained and that everybody has a good time.

Among the Cabinet officers who will make speeches in the coming campaign are Secretary Strauss of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who has returned to Washington after a short vacation and an inspection tour of the Highhouse establishment, and Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture.

No Republican rallies are being held in Knox county this week, but next week the band will play and several talented speakers will be heard.

APPLETON.
Hon. Bert M. Fernald, Republican candidate for governor, and Congressman McKinley of California, will address a Republican rally in Pease's hall Wednesday at 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gushoe had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Gushoe, the son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richards of Lincolnville, and Mrs. Ralph Gushoe, son Corliss and daughter Claremont of New York. Miss Amanda Messer and Miss Ruth Palmer are visiting Mrs. G. C. Dutton and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burg. G. H. Page and Ben Ness attended the concert given in Seaboard Monday evening by Belfast talent.

LITTLEFIELD IN CHARGE.
Files His Bond As Receiver of Involved Wall Street Firm.
Charles E. Littlefield took charge Monday as receiver of the affairs of the A. O. Brown & Company, the New York brokerage firm which recently became involved in difficulties on the stock exchange, and filed a bond for $250,000. He gave out this statement: "As I understand it, it is my duty to realize as economically and speedily as possible upon the assets of the bankrupts for the benefit of their creditors. Every feature of their business that has any legitimate connection with or relation to that object is, I suppose, a proper subject for investigation. Just what features that will include or what special lines of investigation it will involve, in absence of adequate knowledge of their affairs, it is obviously impossible for me to state." Attorneys for A. O. Brown & Company said on behalf of the firm that the inventory of the assignee showed good assets of more than $4,000,000 against liabilities of less than $4,000,000, leaving more than $500,000 surplus.

Another dance will be in order at Oakland Park, Wednesday evening, and everything will be done to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the season. Music by Farnham's orchestra.

POLITICAL POINTS

Vermont Sets Pace for Splendid Republican Victory, With a Plurality of Nearly 30,000--Other Political Notes.

Complete returns from Tuesday's state election in Vermont on the vote for governor, show the following result: George H. Prouty, Republican, 45,281; James E. Burke, Democrat, 15,905; Quimby S. Backus, Independence League, 1282; Eugene M. Campbell, Prohibition, 236; J. H. Dunbar, Socialist, 479.

The total vote of all parties was 63,747 and Mr. Prouty's plurality over Mr. Burke was 29,376. Of the total vote, the Republicans polled 71 per cent, the Democrats, 25 per cent, the Independence League 2 per cent, Prohibitionists 1-3 per cent, and Socialists 2-3 of one per cent.

The total vote for governor in the last Presidential year, 1904, was 66,615, of which the Republican candidate received 48,115, the Democratic candidate 16,566, and the minor parties 194.

The plurality registered by the Republicans of Vermont shows up exceedingly well, when compared with the pluralities that have been secured in that state in various elections since 1900. These figures are as follows:

1900, Governor, 51,312
1900, President, 29,719
1902, Governor, 24,509
1902, President, 20,683
1904, Governor, 15,420

Hon. Warren C. Philbrook, now on the stump for the Republicans, has a mascot. It's his big fawn colored Peoria hat. "It's as soon think of starting out without that hat as without my money," said Mr. Philbrook. "I've worn it for four campaigns now. Every time it gets soiled or discolored I send it away and have it cleaned and it comes back good as new."

In two days' campaigning up to midnight Tuesday, Hon. Bert M. Fernald traveled 368 miles, and 112 of this was in the automobile. He made 225 miles Monday and 143 miles Tuesday, making almost half Tuesday's mileage by auto. In this time he made six speeches, at Newbury, Unity, Naples, Bridgton, Damariscott and Waldoboro successively.

Bryan Democrats in Nebraska received a shock Tuesday when the Sankey Free Lance, the most influential Populist newspaper in Nebraska, advised all Populists to ignore Watson and vote for Taft. The editor, John C. Sprecher, says the Populists have nothing to hope for from Bryan's election. His defection is a serious matter to the Democrats, as he will undoubtedly be followed by many Populists. At the last election the Populist cast 20,000 votes in that state.

Judge Reed Robinson of Camden, who is doing valiant service for the Republican ticket in this campaign, has assignments for the remainder of it as follows: East Sumner, Sept. 4; West Buxton, Sept. 8; Sanford, Sept. 9; South West Harbor, Sept. 10; East Corinth, Sept. 11; Waldoboro, Sept. 12.

Bishop J. S. Caldwell of the Philadelphia diocese of the African M. E. Zion church, comprising Illinois, Kentucky, California and parts of Alabama, has given out an interview regarding the attitude of the colored voters toward the Presidential nominee of the Republican and Democratic parties. The bishop said that the voters of his race are supporting the Republican nominee because of the belief that the salvation of his race and the country in general depended upon such action. He added that the colored race had nothing to hope for from the Democratic party.

Among the Cabinet officers who will make speeches in the coming campaign are Secretary Strauss of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who has returned to Washington after a short vacation and an inspection tour of the Highhouse establishment, and Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture.

Miss Bernice Burkett has been visiting in Rockland.

The Union Circulating Library Association met Sept. 2, 1908, in the W. C. T. U. hall. The meeting was called to order by the president, Lina Burkett, and it was voted to open the library on Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Read can join by paying 25 cents for three months' reading. All those who have books from the library are requested to leave them at the postoffice.

Henry G. Ames has been on the sick list.

INSANE PRISONERS GONE.
Attached to the Tuesday morning train when it left Thomaston was a special car containing 14 insane and feeble-minded prisoners en route for the insane hospital at Augusta. Ward Norton was accompanied by three assistants and Dr. Poss of this city. This is the first detachment ever sent from the Thomaston prison to Augusta for their benefit. At the present there are 234 prisoners at Thomaston, the largest number in the history of the prison. Some of the party were travelling without shackles. One young man said that he was going to Augusta to visit the Governor and was quite happy over the trip.

The Penobscot Bay Tragedy.

Seven Summer Visitors Drowned Near North Haven By Capsizing of a Yacht.

Seven summer people out of a party of 10 were drowned by the capsizing of a 35 foot sloop in Penobscot bay, Tuesday. The drowned were: Miss Alice Pairo, Washington, D. C.; Miss Eleanor Pairo, Washington, D. C.; Miss Lottie Kellogg, Baltimore; Miss Evelyn Kellogg, Baltimore; Mrs. Lucy S. Crawley, Philadelphia; Miss Elizabeth G. Evans of Mount Holyoke College, Mass.

Jason Hutchins of Bangor Theological Seminary.

The saved: Captain Haskell, Deer Isle; Prof. Edward Crawley, Philadelphia, husband of Mrs. Crawley; Henry B. Evans, Mount Holyoke, brother of Miss Elizabeth G. Evans.

The bodies of Lottie Kellogg and Miss Evans were recovered.

With Capt. Samuel Haskell the party of six summer people started out Tuesday morning for a sail in Penobscot bay. It was drawing near the close of the vacation season for some of them and they had planned this as their last outing together. The sloop was of the "open" variety, that is, it had no deck forward and no cabin.

The party had scarcely been gone an hour before the wind freshened up, sending the sloop well over and dashing the spray upon the occupants, much to their glee. There was no thought of danger until shortly after noon when Capt. Haskell decided that the sloop was over on her beam ends and the sea too choppy, so he brought the boat around and started a tack homeward.

All the party were perched high upon the bowsprit, as the sloop cut through the waves with the water all most coming over the gunwales on the lee side, when Captain Haskell gave a shout of warning that he was going to tack and then threw over the tiller. Just at this moment the boat rose high up on a wave exposing her to the full brunt of the wind. An unusually heavy gust struck her and in a twinkling the sloop was over on her beam ends and the party of 10 was in the water.

For one brief moment it was everyone for himself. Capt. Haskell, however, took in the situation in one quick glance. He had been clinging to the sheet and his tenacious hold had not been loosened by the sudden plunge into the ice cold waters of the Maine coast. He saw that the boat's tender was still right side up, and shouting to Prof. Crawley and Henry Evans, who were nearest to him, he directed them to make for the tender, doing so at the same time himself. Prof. Crawley, however, still clinging to the overturned sloop, looking for his wife, while Evans was trying vainly to locate his sister.

In the meantime Haskell gained the tender and had clambered aboard and cut her loose from the sloop. He shipped the oars and, bringing the boat up near Crawley and Evans, helped them aboard, persuading them that the only way they could help the women folks was from the rowboat, but even then the women were beyond help. Weighted down by their water soaked clothes and chilled through by the cold waters they had been unable to keep themselves afloat. Some of them had seized the person nearest them by the neck and in some instances they had gone down together, clasped in each others arms.

The three men in the tender found that they were almost as incapable of giving assistance in their boat as they had been in the water. The wind was too high and the sea too rough for them to handle the small boat. They were in grave danger themselves of being thrown once more into the water.

The upset, however, had been seen from Eagle Island, not far from the accident and as soon as possible a sloop was sent out to pick up the survivors. They reached the tender just in time, and pulled the three exhausted men aboard. Of the rest of the party but two were in sight and the boat picked them up. They were Lottie Kellogg and Miss Evans.

Although the rescuers worked vigorously over them all efforts to restore life failed.

The boat was well back on its way to the island before the fate of Hutchins was recalled. Then someone remembered that he had seen Hutchins swimming strongly for Harren Island. It was too late then to change the boat's course for by that time the young man had gone to the bottom. Hutchins was a student in the Bangor Theological Seminary and had been filling one of the pulpits of Deer Isle for the summer. Hutchins' sad fate aroused keen sympathy for his engagement to Miss Dorothy Beach, daughter of the president of the theological seminary had been but recently announced.

Miss Elizabeth G. Evans was during the last year, a teacher in the English department of Mount Holyoke college and was to have returned this year.

Misses Lottie and Evelyn Kellogg were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kellogg of Lutherville, Md. They had been away from home about a month and were expected to return shortly. They are connected with prominent families.

Mrs. Lucy S. Crawley was well known in Philadelphia, especially in educational circles. Her husband, Dr. Edwin S. Crawley, is professor of mathematics at the University of Pennsylvania. The Crawleys with their two daughters came to Maine in July and were expecting to go home in a few days.

Scores of boats visited the scene of the tragedy Wednesday and Thursday, but no more bodies had been recovered at last reports. A diver is now at work.

Have you made your election bet?
The Knox Telephone Co. is putting its Elm street wires underground.
The H. & C. Club met with the Misses Harkness, Camden street, Thursday evening.

The Monroe fair, which always draws a large number of Knox county people takes place week after next.

Rockland and vicinity was treated to a heavy thunderstorm Wednesday night. The rain was a great boon for the dusty roads.

The September meeting of the city council takes place next Monday. It is understood that there will be some oratorical fireworks and possibly a little hair-pulling.

The Morgan yacht Corsair, which was anchored in Rockland harbor a few weeks ago, was run into by the steamer New Hampshire in East River Tuesday, being damaged about $500.

C. C. McAllister the veteran inspector of Pullman car service paid Rockland a visit Tuesday. He has been in the business 31 years, and was once terribly injured in a railroad accident.

There will be plenty doing in Knox county politics next week. Both of the leading parties have a series of rallies covering every day. It is the closing week of a campaign which otherwise has been one of the mildest on record in this part of the state.

The electric light in front of D. M. Murphy's residence on Elm street is a great boon to pedestrians that dark and dangerous thoroughfare. Elm street is one of the most flagrant examples of the present Democratic maladministration. The half mile of mud walk on Limerock street presents another reason why the city will be turned over to a competent city government next spring.

Jacob Ludwig, who drives H. L. Higgins' delivery wagon, bears plenty of external evidence of the disaster which befell him a few days ago at the corner of White and Beech streets. In turning the corner the horse stumbled and fell. Mr. Ludwig, entirely unprepared for the accident, was thrown from the wagon. His head was badly cut in several places and he bled profusely. Dr. Spear was summoned and the wounds were bandaged, but it was some time before Mr. Ludwig recovered from the dazed condition into which the shock threw him. The muscles of his arms were badly strained and he suffers more from the effects of this than he does from injuries of his head.

Charles T. Spear raised an English cucumber this summer which measured 28 inches in length and six inches in circumference in the largest part. It weighed 4 3/4 pounds.

Miss Martha Hall will have charge of a kindergarten this fall and any parents desiring to send children can get further particulars of Miss Hall or Mrs. A. S. Black, Middle street.

Milford J. Snow has bought the auxiliary catboat Mayflower from Portland parties, and the craft will soon be delivered here. It is said to be one of the finest boats of its size and rig on the coast.

What came near being a fatal accident took place at the Lisle street railroad crossing Wednesday forenoon when the inbound passenger train struck the horse attached to the A. F. Crockett Co.'s delivery wagon, knocking the animal down, and cutting him quite severely. The driver was Clinton Kaler, who came out of the accident unscathed, but scared out of a year's growth.

Knox county people in attendance upon the fair at Waterville Wednesday were witnesses of the progress of the national game, and the progress of the men who cost the life of the aeronaut. While at a height of 200 feet the airship took fire from a spark from the gasoline engine and the aeronaut, Capt. Charles Oliver Jones, was precipitated with his blazing airship to the ground, receiving a broken collar bone and internal injuries from the effects of which he died. The terrible accident happened under the eyes of Capt. Jones' wife and 2-year-old child, who were in the grandstand.

The baseball season in the two big leagues is having one of the most spectacular finishes in the history of the national game, and the progress of the leaders is daily noted by hundreds of readers in Rockland and vicinity. In the American League only a few points separate half of the teams, the standing Thursday being as follows: Detroit, .585; Chicago, .567; St. Louis, .563; Cleveland, .554. The National League has three close competitors in the pennant race: New York, .512; Pittsburgh, .508; Chicago, .500.

Next Monday is Labor Day. The Socialists are to have a celebration at Oakland, with a program consisting of baseball, band concert, fireworks and a Socialist speaker. The Cigar Makers have a celebration at East Trotting park, with a program of sports, etc. The two candidates for governor and the two Second District candidates for Representative are advertised to speak, but erroneously so as far as the Republican candidates are concerned. However, the public will find plenty of diversion at either place, and if the day is a pleasant one the crowd of holiday pleasure-seekers will be the largest in the history of the county.

A baseball team misrepresenting the Rockland Y. M. C. A. played an "exhibition" game in Camden Wednesday afternoon, being trounced by Wilbur's Old Timers 19 to 8, or thereabouts. The Rockland players did so finely in practice that they entered the game with a "shame to take the money" feeling. That feeling was knocked out of them completely in the first inning, when Camden made eight runs on two hits. All of the innings were not so bad as that, but no "big league" talent was developed in any of them. The Camden Old Timers put up a very creditable game in spite of the sad accident which nearly deprived them of "Gramp" Wilbur's services in the very first inning. The batteries were Bean and Prescott for Camden; Winslow, Cottrell and McLain for Rockland. Camden made 12 base hits and seven errors. Rockland made 10 base hits and 18 errors. A return game is to be played at Oakland next week, with a rearrangement of positions.

Mrs. Jane Mank has moved from the Gay house, North Main street, into the Gray tenement, Chestnut street.

Kennebec Journal: George W. Leadbetter, messenger to the Governor and Council, who went to Boston Tuesday on an automobile trip, has returned to Augusta and was at the State House Tuesday.

U. S. district court is in session at Bath. Among the grand jurors who were in attendance were Leander E. Davis and Herbert L. Grinnell of Union and Wells A. Deering and Lendon Kelzer of Waldoboro.

The Universalist Mission Circle meets with Mrs. Martha Vogler in South Hope Wednesday, Sept. 9. If stormy the trip will be made next day. Buckboards will leave Berry Bros' stable at 8.30 and those wishing seats will leave their names there.

Dr. Ernest B. Young of Boston, who spends a considerable portion of the summer season at his wife's home in this city, has had a 23-foot sloop-yacht built at Friendship this summer and it is now ready for delivery. Friendship boats were much famed in New England yachting circles.

The Rising garage opposite the Courier-Gazette office has been closed the season being practically over as far as '08 machines are concerned. Harry T. Rising has entered the employ of E. J. Wardwell at Camden but the "old man" stays on deck here to whisper the merits of the '09 cars.

Two young girl wayfarers claiming to be Audrey Gladys Sawyer of Lowell and Beatrice Marion Sawyer of Bath, were detained by the Bath police Tuesday. They said they were to be joined by their uncle who was to take them to Rockland, but the police learned that they had given fictitious names, and really belonged in Augusta, whither they were sent.

"The only point in the state which does not seem to suffer from the death of the vacation season is Rockland," says the Portland Advertiser. "While a large number of people are leaving there the crowds continue to arrive at the station bound for that point. The pullmans passed through the station Wednesday from Boston bound for Rockland and every seat had been sold."

The double launching at Cobb, Butler & Co.'s yard will not be ready for Sept. 10, as the builders had hoped, and the date is now fixed for the last week of the month--somewhere between the 24th and 28th. Capt. P. H. Crockett of the firm of Crockett & Thurlow, for which the schooner Lewiston is being built, recently inspected the craft, and congratulated the builders on the fine progress they have made.

Preparations are being made for the seventh annual cattle show and fair of Pleasant Valley Grange and the outlook is favorable for one of the best exhibitions yet held. Although this fair is of recent birth it is already one of the best agricultural shows in this section, and with liberal patronage should grow to a size equal to any of our county fairs. Plan your exhibits and remember the date, Oct. 6, 7, 8. Complete details will be published in a few days.

Col. Henry A. Wing, the well known newspaper man of Lewiston was in the city Tuesday. He is in close touch about half of the Maine counties and says that indicating it is already one of the best agricultural shows in this section, and with liberal patronage should grow to a size equal to any of our county fairs. Plan your exhibits and remember the date, Oct. 6, 7, 8. Complete details will be published in a few days.

Reddy McDonald of New Haven is due in Knox county on his summer vacation Saturday and anybody in need of the fairest and most spectacular umpire in the baseball business will find him a "ready" volunteer. The game which the ex-Thomaston sport promoter umpired at Camden last summer is still the talk of all who saw, and the writer certainly hopes that Reddy may have another opportunity to exhibit his talents in that line. A telephone message at McDonald's drug store in Thomaston will reach him.

The party of male patients from the Augusta and Bangor hospitals, who visited the island last week, reports that the men are enjoying their stay very much and that the life by the sea is doing them a lot of good. There are 40 of the patients on the island, they being free to go and come as they wish, and the days are hardly long enough for them. Dr. Sanborn states that they go home feeling better both mentally and physically and that there is no doubt that the recreation which they receive at the island is of decided benefit to them.

The Sunshine sale to be held at Grand Army hall Saturday afternoon will have a rummage sale of millinery connected, where some good trades may be had. Some black aprons will be offered for sale on the apron table. The ladies hope to see a lot of people with plenty of cash.

L. W. Benner, chairman of the health board, reports that the city has been free of contagious diseases for several weeks.

The funeral of the late H. A. Marks took place at 7 Kelley's lane Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Longley of Owl's Head officiating. About 40 members of Knox Aerle of Eagles were present, and the pall-bearers--A. J. Titus, S. K. Hatch, Percy Condon, James J. Stuart and Dr. H. B. Eaton--were from that organization. The Eagles sent two beautiful floral pieces, one in the name of the Aerle and the other in the name of the members. Mr. Marks is the first resident member of Knox Aerle who has been lost by death.

The Monday Club held a special meeting this week in honor of a much beloved member, Mrs. Mary H. Hicks, the home of Mrs. Aaron Howes. This club is an organization of women who have passed their youth, and for years have held regular meetings in the interest of benevolence, study and social culture. Mrs. Hicks is not the only member who has ceased to be a citizen of Rockland, but all who are living were present, one, Mrs. M. F. Hanly, coming from a considerable distance to join in this expression of high regard and affection.

A Western newspaper publishes the following interesting item concerning Walter Frost, formerly of this city: "One of the most remarkable occurrences in the history of baseball took place at Munising, Mich., last week, when Frost of Munising and Goulette of Ishpeming each pitched a no-hit game. So far as known this is the first time that two hitless games ever have occurred. It makes its fight against the first game and won by a score of 12 to 0, Ishpeming failing to get a hit. In the second game Goulette shut out Munising without a hit, Ishpeming winning, 3 to 0."

Hon. P. A. Buser, D. D., of Ohio, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America and Hon. J. W. Hill, D. D. of New York, a friend of Taft, will speak on national issues in this city Wednesday, Sept. 9, in postoffice square. Music by Rockland Military Band. Dr. Baker is one of the most effective speakers in the Methodist church. He left his pastorate to take up the work of the Anti-Saloon League, and has proven a power for good in that work. The Anti-Saloon League is not a non-partisan organization in the ordinary acceptance of the term. It is rather omniscient. It makes its fight against the liquor traffic, and in favor of its suppression wherever that issue is raised. Resubmission and the repeal of the Maine Prohibitory Law naturally attract the attention of the league, and Dr. Baker can be depended upon to deal telling blows against the saloon proposition here, just as he did in Ohio at the time of the defeat of a Republican and the election of Governor Patterson in that state.

An important business change in local business circles was effected this week when the stock and fixtures of the Boston Clothing Store were purchased by Simon Cohen of Bangor. Mr. Cohen is now in Millinocket on business but will assume charge of the store Monday. At last accounts he had not decided whether to continue the business permanently or dispose of the stock at a sale. Austin C. Philbrick who has been connected with the store, first as clerk and then proprietor, for 30-odd years, is considering several business openings, but will for the time being devote himself to closing up his business affairs and a vacation which is well-earned in view of his close application to the routine of store work. The business was established by the late Charles F. Wood, after whose death in 1889 Mr. Philbrick became sole proprietor. The firm style, Boston Clothing Store, has never been changed. Mr. Philbrick's retirement looks like a relief to a reliable and well-liked merchant, who wished success in whatever new line of business he undertakes.

THE BREWSTER REUNION.

This Family Traces Its Ancestry Back to a Pilgrim Father.

Aug. 25 was a glorious day and to enjoy it, but also to preserve the memory, records, history of all facts relating to the early Pilgrim Fathers, and especially to Elder William Brewster, various representatives of the Brewster family assembled at Oakland for their annual outing. Knox county contains many families who can prove direct lineal descent from this famous Puritan.

When one calls to mind the fact that there are only 25 male passengers who came over in that wonderful voyage of the Mayflower from whom it is now possible to trace direct descent, the distinction is seen to be not common. These 25 are John Alden, Isaac Allerton, John Billington, William Bradford, William Brewster, Peter Brown, Josiah Chilton, Francis Eaton, Edward Fuller, Dr. Samuel Fuller, Stephen Hopkins, John Howland, Richard Moore, Degory Priest, Thomas Rogers, Henry Standish, George Soule, Miles Standish, Richard Warren, Edward Winslow. At least one person was present who can prove descent from six of these named.

After doing ample justice to a bountiful and appetizing picnic dinner served on tables in the beautiful grove, all adjourned to the sea shore, where a brief business meeting was held, followed by a program.

The president of the organization, Irvin A. Brewster, presided, assisted by A. L. Carlton, as active chairman, Irvin A. Brewster, who carries his 82 years so lightly that he bids fair to round out the century, was re-elected president; A. L. Carlton, vice president; Mrs. J. Frank Rich, secretary and treasurer. These officers with the addition of George and Luke Brewster, comprise the executive committee. The following ladies were appointed entertainment committee for next year: Mrs. Hannah Brewster, Mrs. George Brewster, Mrs. A. L. Carlton, Mrs. Cora Paulsen, Mrs. Daniel Doherty.

After the report for the previous meeting was read by Luke R. Brewster, former secretary, an interesting reading pertaining to the Mayflower flower company and particularly to Elder Brewster was read by Mrs. George Brewster, from which the following extract is taken:

"Elder William Brewster, probably born in 1561, in Scrooby, England, came in Mayflower, 1620, with his wife, two younger sons, and wife of eldest and her son William. He was partly educated at Cambridge University. After honorable service with Davidson, secretary to Queen Elizabeth, he abandoned political life, 1587, and devoted himself for many years to religion. He was the first prominent layman in the church of England. He was postmaster before April, 1594, at Scrooby, where he married Mary. About 1597 or 1598, with Bradford, and was afterward governor he passed into Holland, and was ruling elder of the church at Leyden, of which James Robinson was preacher as he had been probably at Scrooby."

Steele's Life of Brewster, says: "Elder Brewster was at Cambridge, England, long enough to take a degree. In the summer of 1596, he arrived in Amsterdam, Holland, and in 1598 to Leyden, where he was chosen ruling elder of the church. For some years he instructed the students of the university in the English language and published several works in 1617. Embarked the 5th of Aug., 1620, from Delfhaven and sailed for Southampton after two attempts; the Speedwell being found unsuitable, the Mayflower, the 6th of Sept., and on the 11th of Nov., after 65 days passage anchored in the harbor of Cape Cod. On the 11th of Nov. the solemn compact was signed by the Pilgrim band. He settled in Duxbury in 1622, and was the ruling elder of the church there."

The program concluded with a brief account, given by Mrs. J. Frank Rich, of the Maine Society of Mayflower Descendants, organized Nov. 21, 1901, in Augusta. The object of this society is thus set forth in the preamble of the by-laws:

"Our ancestors, passengers on the Mayflower, having landed in December, 1620, on Plymouth Rock, New England, and having come to settle in a new land and found a new home and government, for the benefit of themselves and their posterity, and after struggles and hardships, which in the first year after their landing carried off one-half of their number and necessitated years of continued bravery and fortitude, against innumerable trials of the severest kind, and their acts and example having been instrumental in the establishment of civil and religious liberty throughout this land, therefore the Society of Mayflower Descendants is founded by lineal descendants of that band of Pilgrims, to preserve their memory, their records, their history, and all facts relating to them, their ancestry and their posterity."

The Brewsters having thus attempted to pay due tribute to the worthy past, the company now proceeded to the pavilion to pay its respects next to the living present as exemplified in the excellent group of moving pictures.

THE HEWETT REUNION.

The Hewett Family Association held their 24th annual reunion at Oakland, Friday, Aug. 28. The day was made possible to trace direct descent, the distinction is seen to be not common. These 25 are John Alden, Isaac Allerton, John Billington, William Bradford, William Brewster, Peter Brown, Josiah Chilton, Francis Eaton, Edward Fuller, Dr. Samuel Fuller, Stephen Hopkins, John Howland, Richard Moore, Degory Priest, Thomas Rogers, Henry Standish, George Soule, Miles Standish, Richard Warren, Edward Winslow. At least one person was present who can prove descent from six of these named.

After the meeting of the company was entertained with a double declaration by little Earl and Jessie Conant, 5 and 4 years old, and a number of songs with band accompaniment by True Spear and Ross Patterson, who succeeded S. C. Hewett deceased, and Margaret Hewett Robbins for secretary and treasurer, succeeding F. S. Philbrick, resigned.

BUTLER FAMILY.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Butler family was held at Crescent Beach August 26. A picnic dinner was served in the covered pavilion, after which the business meeting was held, and the following officers elected for the ensuing year. Pres. Shephard Butler, South Thomaston; vice pres. Mrs. L. G. Coombs, Warren; sec. and treas., G. L. Tolman, Thomaston; executive committee, Miss Louise Butler, South Thomaston, Miss Susan Tolman, Thomaston, Mrs. Rose Newcomb, Warren; Gardner Tolman, Thomaston, Clara Bachelor, Rockland, Entertainment committee, Mrs. W. Smith, Rockland, Lena Bowers, Warren, Miss Julia Woodcock, Thomaston, Elizabeth Butler, Thomaston. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Oakland Park, the second Wednesday in August 1909. The following excellent program was rendered: Singing, choir; speech, W. H. Smith; singing, choir; recitation, Dudley Wolfe; piano solo, Victor Coombs; singing, choir.

VIOLA POWDERS.

THE WYLLIE REUNION.

In spite of the threatening weather, a small but representative party met at Fair Oaks, Wednesday, Aug. 26, for the Wyllie reunion. The motto for the day was: "None but the brave deserve the fair." The fare was there in great and satisfying abundance, so the brave ones not only deserved the fare but got it as well to their utmost repletion. The officers for 1908 were chosen to hold over till the next reunion, which will be held the last Wednesday in August 1909, at Charles Wyllie's cottage, Crescent Beach. The committee of arrangements comprises Willis Jordan and wife and Charles Woodcock and wife.

POST AND AMES REUNION.

The Post and Ames reunion was held Friday, Aug. 28th, at the residence of Miss Susie M. Post, Head of the Bay. Owing to unavoidable business elsewhere many of the officers were not there and no officers were chosen for next year, so it is supposed that the same ones will serve. There was a good attendance, good cheer and lots to eat. Time and place for the next reunion to be decided later.

MET IN THOMASTON.

Forty Three Survivors of Twentieth Maine Held Annual Reunion There.

The survivors of the Twentieth Maine Volunteers held their annual reunion at R. H. Courne engine hall, Thomaston, Thursday of last week. P. Henry Tillson, W. S. R. C. furnished a sumptuous dinner at 12 o'clock, following which Gen. J. H. Spear, Washington, D. C., president, called the association to order for the business meeting.

The secretary-treasurer made his report, which was accepted. The following committee was appointed by the chair to manage a board of officers: H. C. Merriam, O. P. Martin, G. W. Reynolds. The president, Gen. Spear, the regrets of General Chamberlain at being called away immediately after dinner. The committee to nominate officers reported as follows: For president, Gen. Thomas Westbrook; vice president, L. P. Heald, Barrett; secretary-treasurer, S. L. Miller, Waldoboro.

An invitation was received from Company B Association to hold the next reunion at Foxcroft after some discussion it was accepted. Letters were read from the following, regretting their inability to be present: Charles H. Mero, Minneapolis; Lieut. E. Polson, Fargo, N. D.; H. E. Hall, De Ridder, La.; Miss Helen M. Fogler, Boston; Arad Thompson, Vinton, Iowa; Capt. Wm. Griffin, Santa Rosa, Cal.; Theodore Gerish, Chambersburg, Pa.; Joseph Land, New York; Gen. Adolph Ames, Lowell, Mass.; Governor Cobb, Rockland.

Remarks followed from President-elect Thomas, Gen. P. Cliley, Gen. Henry C. Merriam, U. S. A., retired, Capt. Lyman Hill, Capt. C. Strout, George W. Reynolds, J. F. Clifford, C. A. Copeland.

A vote of thanks was extended to the M. C. R. and B. A. L. R. and P. H. Tillson Relief Corps and P. Henry Tillson Post.

Forty-three survivors of the regiment were present, some accompanied by ladies. Members of the local Post and other comrades were also present, making the number at the tables 65. It was one of the most pleasant reunions in the history of the association.

THIRTY-SEVENTH REUNION, FIRST MAINE CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

Waterville, Wednesday, Sept. 10th, 1908.

PROGRAM.

The Business Meeting will be held in the G. A. R. Hall, Common St., at 10 a. m. Dinner in Elks' Hall at 12:30. Automobile Ride about the city after dinner. Smoke Talk in the evening. The Ladies of the Auxiliary will be entertained at the K. P. Hall. Reduced rates on the Railroads and at the Hotels. Waterville is a railroad center, and the comrades in that vicinity will give a hearty welcome to all. Let all, as far as practical, be present. Comrades are urged to notify the Corresponding Secretary of all deaths and changes of location of members, and to write each other from time to time as may tend to keep warm our regimental memories.

F. B. Lowe, Waterville, President. N. S. Emery, Waterville, Rec. Sec. and Treasurer. J. P. Cliley, Rockland, [Corresponding Sec.]

WORTH KNOWING.

To remove Pimples, Blackheads, Blisters and all forms of skin eruptions, is, according to a well known Physician, a very easy matter; he says that many are afflicted with some one of the above ailments, and are subject to a great deal of embarrassment on account of the unsightly appearance which they present, and recommends the following simple harmless and inexpensive treatment. Go to your Druggist and get this prescription filled: Clearol, one-half ounce, Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces, mix, shake well and apply to the parts affected night and morning, allowing it to remain for at least ten minutes, then wipe off the powder from the skin. Use soft cloth or sponge in applying the mixture and in ten days to two weeks your face will be smooth and clear as a marriage bell. Get the Pure Clearol, which is only put up in one-half ounce packages. Ask to see it.

APPLETON.

George T. Sumner, who left Appleton about forty years ago, died very suddenly on a train near Julesburg, Col. The remains were cremated and brought here and buried in the family lot in Pine Grove Cemetery, beside those of his father and other members of the family. Services were held Sunday, August 23, at the residence of Sumner, Mrs. Charles Sumner and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Muzz of Schuyler, Nebraska. The following from the Belfast Journal will be of interest to many of our people who know him: "George T. Sumner died August 14th on a train near Julesburg, Colorado. He was born in Appleton, January 30, 1844. He entered Bowdoin College in 1862 but enlisted the same fall and was brought home the next year broken down in health. He graduated with his class in 1866. He was a lawyer later graduated from the Albany Law School. Since that time his life has been spent in the West practicing law in Wisconsin and Colorado. He was at one time District Judge of Southern Colorado. He was a widow and two children. He was the guest in Belfast last year of his sister Mrs. George W. Stoddard. George H. Page returned Saturday from a visit of two weeks with friends in Blue Hill. Mrs. Frances Rogers of West Upton, Mass., is visiting friends in this vicinity.

NORTH WARREN.

George Libby is working for Mr. Benner of Waldoboro. Miss Lucy Fuller of Rockland is visiting Miss Laura Fuller. Miss Bernice and Merle Morey visited Mrs. Margaret Sawyer Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Merry and family were in Union Sunday. E. S. Crawford, who attended the Bangor fair, has returned home. Harry Fuller of Appleton was in this place Sunday. Fred Fuller and wife of Massachusetts are visiting Misses Mabel and Laura Fuller. Sherman Cummings attended the reunion in Thomaston Thursday of last week. Austin Kirk and wife and Mrs. Jackson and son were in this place Sunday.

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2385 Lawrence St., Denver, Col., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was practically an invalid for six years, on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to perfect health, such as I have not enjoyed in many years. Any woman suffering as I did with backache, bearing-down pains, and periodic pains, should not fail to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. Thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snow and sons, Carl and Clarence, and Mrs. Samuel Pierce attended the Kallouh reunion at Grange hall, Glen Cove.

Mrs. Harriet Snow has returned to Rockland after a visit with relatives for a few days.

ROCKVILLE

Percy Fiske and Fred Keene attended the fair and returned to Camden yesterday.

Mrs. Helen Andrews spent Sunday in Camden visiting friends.

S. I. Howard and Miss Inez Clough have returned to their home in Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. A. L. Smith and sister, Mrs. Rose Barrows, who have been spending the summer here, have returned to their home in Somerville, Mass.

Mrs. M. J. Holmes of Rockland was a recent guest at her daughter's, Mrs. Bert Ames.

There is to be a social and dance at Ladies' Union hall Monday evening, Sept. 7. All are invited.

Quite a number from here attended the reunion of the Tolman family at Pleasant Beach.

Many of the summer people have gone to their homes which is leaving some of the young men very sad, but we often hear the remark that the Massachusetts girls are very fond of Maine boys, so that should encourage them.

Miss Bessie Monary has returned to her home in South Boston, Mass.

Miss Olive Tolman has gone to Worcester, Mass., to spend the winter.

Miss Iona Fitzgerald is spending a few weeks in Rockland.

Fred Sylvester and father spent Sunday at Castine.

John Emery, who has been working in Rockport, has returned home.

Walter Barrows of Worcester, Mass., spent Sunday here.

Shoes to Last a Lifetime. Say, Mr. Shoemaker, would you rather have your customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water and taking a shine; or was their heads and say "nothing?"

We'd rather have ours, at long intervals, say: "We want more paint, and we want Devco." We know it isn't human nature to paint very often; don't expect them to come very often; don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint, whenever they paint it; the longer the shoe, the surer they are to come-back. There's business enough in the world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time.

If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes to last half a lifetime, and shoe the whole town.

Passed Examination Successfully. James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Sold by all druggists.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. Sold by all druggists.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurt.

WARREN

Mrs. Farrow and daughter and Mrs. Rhodes of East Boston are guests of Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, Montgomery House.

Mrs. Chas. Henderson of South Thomaston and Miss Clemmie Keene of Boston were at A. K. McFarland's Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Haskell has returned home from Swampscott, where she spent the summer.

C. A. Jones and daughter Angeline returned Friday from Bangor, where they attended the State fair.

Arnold Adams and brother of Bridgewater, Mass., who have been visiting at Fred Mathews', Pleasantville, returned home Friday.

Miss Ruth Bachelder has gone to Farmington to teach in a department of the Normal School, from which she recently graduated.

Mrs. Stella Hussey nee Oliver has been in town visiting relatives and friends.

Capt. Whitmore, late of Fryeburg is negotiating for the A. M. Wetherbee house.

Rev. H. S. Kilborn has returned from his vacation and occupied his pulpit last Sunday.

Victor Whittier of Boston has come to Warren to spend his vacation. He went to Martin's Point for two or three days as a guest of Lee Walker, at Galashield's cottage. While in town he will be entertained at C. A. Jones', Riverside.

Mrs. Clara Robinson and son Harold have returned from New Hampshire, where they spent several weeks with friends.

Eleanor Bartlett of Belfast and sister, Mrs. Edith Berry, called on friends here Saturday. They went to Highland for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Amanda Oliver of Methuen, Mass., was here Saturday calling on friends. She was a guest of Mrs. Wright on Saturday night.

Mrs. George Gonia and family return the first of the week to Rockbury, Mass., after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McFarland.

WILEY'S CORNER.

Russell, a young son of Capt. and Mrs. Ardie Thomas, got hold of a bottle of iodine recently and drank some. Remedies were promptly administered. Dr. Crockett made an examination and found that the liquid had done no further than the child's mouth which was quite badly burned.

Lida Hocking has returned from Rockland and began her school at Wheeler's Bay Monday.

The Clibborn family held their reunion at the Grange hall last week. The day was chilly and the ground too damp to go to Caddy's Point as was intended. Quite a number were present and a good time was enjoyed.

Mr. Vincent of New York, Winfield Gilchrist of Thomaston and Charles Gilchrist of Rockland were the only men present of the Gilchrist name, which seems to be slowly but surely dying out in St. George.

The new Grange hall is up and boarded. The view from the second story windows is grand.

Report says that several large house lots have been sold on Otis' Point to Philadelphia parties who will build cottages there next year, the river side of the peninsula seems to be more attractive than the ocean side at present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Snow are in Boston for a few weeks.

A buckboard load from Rockland went to Treasure Point farm on a picnic one day last week.

Miss Cora Murdoch is visiting in Searsport.

Miss Caroline Robinson came from Boston Saturday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Julia A. Smalley.

Eloisa Kinney is spending a week in Thomaston the guest of her brother, Capt. Wm. Harrington.

Some one helped themselves to De-silver Hathorn's squashes last Friday night. That's about as mean a thing as one can do.

DECREASING PENSION ROLL.

List of Government's Beneficiaries Now Considerably Less Than a Million.

There are fewer persons on the United States pension roll today than at any time for the past fifteen years. The army of beneficiaries from the government's bounty at last seems to be on the downward grade in point of numbers. There are now only 951,687 left, and at the rate at which death is cutting into the ranks the total will have shrunk to 900,000 before another year.

The high-water mark in pensions was reached in 1894, when for a brief period there were more than 1,000,000 persons on the roll. The spectacle of this enormous number of persons drawing monthly checks from the government frightened the Republican leaders for a while. So long as the army was kept within six figures it was found comparatively easy to defend the liberal pension policy. No mention will be found in the report of the commission, or of pensions of the fact that at one time more than 1,000,000 pensioners were on the roll. The figures are given for fiscal years only and the high-water mark was touched in August. Before June 30 came again the figures had gone back into the hundreds of thousands, so that so far as the official reports go, the highest point reached was 999,446.

The pension roll, prior to the present year, had been growing larger and larger with a regularity that attested the eagerness for business of the pension attorney. It assumed visible size after the Civil War, for in 1865 it numbered 128,000. From that time on its expansion was as steady and regular as J. Pierpont Morgan's income. In 1880 there were 250,000 pensioners; in 1890 there were 350,000; in 1900 there were 925,000.

Since 1866 $3,600,000,000 has been paid out for pensions. This is nearly four times the amount of the interest-bearing public debt. In recent years the annual disbursement for pensions has been in the neighborhood of $140,000,000. This is more than the annual cost of the navy and is enough to buy a fleet of fifteen Dreadnought battleships.

A Paying Investment

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Wm. H. Kittredge's, Rockland; G. I. Robinson Drug Co., Portland; G. G. Wiley's drug store, Vinalhaven. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

UNION

Mrs. E. F. Packard of Rockland, who has been spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. M. Shaw, has returned home.

S. Fuller, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. E. M. Shaw have been having shingling done on their houses.

Mrs. F. M. Lucas has five boarders that are employed in the canning factory. The corn harvest is in slowly the past week. It will be more plenty now.

The public schools and the high school opened Monday. The usual excitement reigned before the formal beginning. F. T. Leveaux, Jr., of Phillips, a Bates '06 graduate, is the high school principal.

Mrs. Gaw of Cambridge, Mass., who has been here on a vacation, went home this week.

Many of the citizens of this town went last Sunday to the Washington Campground for a general spiritual tuning up.

Rev. Mr. Lidstone, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor spent last week for the Northport Campground, being in charge of the singing.

Mrs. Wilbur Thurston is reported to be better.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawes and son of Worcester, Mass., have been in town for a short visit.

Rev. E. S. Ufford will preach September 6 and 13 in the Congregational pulpit while the pastor, Rev. Chas. H. B. Seliger is on a vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Hanly of Thomaston is the teacher for the 5-6 grades in the common school building. This is a long felt necessity which former superintendents wanted to introduce. So far we have had only the primary up to the fifth grades. The other four grades, which prepare the scholar for high school were wanting. The writer thinks it is high time that this good old town of Union will have the best school system in order to attract new settlers and keep the old ones. Under the old arrangement we will lose the old and fall in our effort to attract new ones.

East Union played the Hope call team at East Union Saturday. The game was one-sided, Rankin, the Hope pitcher, giving 10 bases on balls and hitting two men. The features of the game were the four round work of Rankin, who struck out 14 men, and the coaching of Ames. The score:

WITH THE THEATRES

COUNTY SHERIFF.
The County Sheriff will make a visit to the Farwell opera house on Sept. 23. Every one will want to see this attraction, as this year it is said to be funnier than ever.

OPERA HOUSE PICTURES.
The excellent line of motion pictures to be shown at the Farwell opera house this Friday and Saturday is sure to bring out large houses at each performance, as the pictures to be shown are surely among the best ever seen in this city. Mr. Wallace has caught on in great style and his fine tenor voice is worth the small admission asked and the songs are all new and late New York hits. Remember all new program of pictures and songs at Tuesday's performance. Every afternoon from 2 to 5, every evening from 7 to 10. All seats are free. Go often, bring the little ones and stay as long as you like.

PECK'S BAD BOY.
That jolly tumbler farce comedy Peck's Bad Boy will be the Labor Day attraction at the Farwell opera house, matinee and night. All who want to have two one-half hours of solid laughter should not fail to see this attraction. Seats go on sale this Saturday morning; box office open at 9 o'clock.

KING'S EAST LYNN.
Joseph King's new version of East Lynne will be the attraction at the Farwell opera house on Wednesday, Sept. 15, for one night only.

FORECLOSURE NOTICE
Whereas Timothy A. Robshaw, of Thomaston, in the County of Knox and State of Maine, by his mortgage deed, dated the twelfth day of August, 1907, and recorded in the County Registry of Deeds, book 146, page 215, conveyed to said Timothy A. Robshaw, a certain lot of land situated in Cushing, in said County, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the westerly side of the highway leading from Cushing to Thomaston at land of Thomas G. Libby; thence westerly by said Libby's land thirty-six rods to stake and stones at corner of said Libby's field; thence northerly parallel with said highway about twenty rods to land formerly of late Edwin Veer; thence easterly by said Veer's land thirty-six rods to said highway; thence southerly by said highway to the place of beginning, being the same line that was conveyed to said Robshaw by the underwritten deed, and the condition of said mortgage has not been complied with, therefore, by reason of the breach of the condition thereof, I claim a foreclosure of said mortgage.

August 15, 1908. CLIFFORD A. CLARK, 67 69-71

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Maine, in bankruptcy. In the matter of Silas B. Carroll, bankrupt. To the creditors of Silas B. LITTLEFIELD GETS ANOTHER.

Appointed Receiver in Bankruptcy for Suspend Wall Street Firm.

Hon. Charles E. Littlefield, scarcely settled in his new office in New York city, has already taken a front seat in the legal circles of the great metropolis. Saturday's despatches conveyed the welcome and important information that he had been appointed receiver in bankruptcy of the big Wall Street firm of A. O. Brown & Co. by Judge Holt of the U. S. Court of the southern district of New York. Mr. Littlefield gives a bond of $250,000.

The receiver was appointed upon the application of William C. Rosenberg of counsel for the suspended firm. The New York Sunday Tribune had the following to say concerning the appointment and appointee:

Edward Lauterbach, counsel for A. O. Brown & Co., and Moses H. Grossman, of House, Grosman & Vorhaus, attorneys for the petitioning creditors, both announced that they were well pleased with the selection made by Judge Holt.

Mr. Littlefield, when seen at his office, said that he would file his bond and qualify as receiver early Monday morning. He will then take charge of the assets of the firm. He was not prepared to say what company would furnish the bond or who would be his counsel, as he had just returned from Boston, where he argued a case on Friday. Mr. Littlefield said that he naturally knew nothing about the affairs of the firm.

As federal receiver, he will, of course, supersede John W. Rhoades, the assignee, to whom the firm made an assignment last Tuesday. Judge Holt's order appointing a receiver contains a clause requiring the assignee to turn over the assets of the firm at once to the receiver, as soon as he shall qualify, and no opposition is looked for from Mr. Rhoades or his attorney, Dix W. Noel.

Mr. Grossman, in commenting on the appointment of Mr. Littlefield, said he did not believe Judge Holt could have found a better man. Speaking of the opposition of Mr. Lauterbach to the appointment of a receiver, he said that this was largely formal. When the members of the firm made an assignment they committed an act of bankruptcy, according to the bankruptcy law, and laid themselves open to bankruptcy proceedings. They provided three more creditors saw fit to take such action.

When Edward F. Buchanan, of the firm of A. O. Brown & Co., was asked about the appointment of the receiver, he said:

"I have left that matter entirely to our attorneys, but I wish to say that I am pleased that a gentleman of such high standing and ability as Mr. Littlefield was appointed. He will undoubtedly be fair and impartial, and, unless I am greatly mistaken, will find the affairs of the firm in splendid shape."

This is the first appearance of Mr. Littlefield in a case prominently before the public since he resigned from Congress some months ago. He was one of the foremost orators in the House of Representatives and a central figure in most of the great debates. As a member of the House Committee on Judiciary, he took strong ground against the legislation urged by Mr. Gompers on the subject of injunctions. Mr. Gompers and other labor leaders canvassed the Littlefield district in Maine, seeking to defeat him on the injunction issue, but he held his place. On resigning from Congress he returned to the practice of law.

DO YOU GET UP

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the greatest medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder, and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. U. S. DISPENSARY

Describes the Principal Ingredients Contained in Peru-na.

Are we claiming too much for Peru-na when we claim it to be an effective remedy for chronic catarrh? Have we abundant proof that Peru-na is in reality such a catarrh remedy? Let us see what the United States Dispensary says of the principal ingredients of Peru-na.

Take, for instance, the ingredient hydrastis canadensis, or golden seal. The United States Dispensary says of this herbal remedy, that it is largely employed in the treatment of depraved mucous membranes, chronic rhinitis (nasal catarrh), atonic dyspepsia (catarrh of the stomach), chronic intestinal catarrh, catarrhal jaundice (catarrh of the liver), and in diseased mucous membranes of the pelvic organs. It is also recommended for the treatment of various forms of diseases peculiar to women.

Another ingredient of Peru-na, corydalis formosa, is classed in the United States Dispensary as a tonic. So also is cubebs classed as a stomachic and as a tonic for the mucous membranes.

Cedron seeds is another ingredient of Peru-na, an excellent drug that has been very largely overlooked by the medical profession for the past fifty years. The seeds are to be found in very few drug stores. The United States Dispensary says of the action of cedron that it is used as a bitter tonic and in the treatment of dysentery, and in intermittent diseases as a substitute for quinine.

Oil of copaiba, another ingredient of Peru-na, is classed by the United States Dispensary as a mild stimulant and intestinal tract. It acts as a stimulant on the genito-urinary membranes. Useful in chronic cystitis, chronic dysentery and diarrhea, and some chronic diseases of the liver and kidneys.

Send us for a free book of testimonials of what the people think of Peru-na as a catarrh remedy. The best evidence is the testimony of those who have tried it.

SOUTH WARREN

Mrs. Harriet Vinal, who has been sewing for Mrs. E. A. Spear the past week, returned to her home in Thomaston Saturday.

Miss Alice Davis returned to Massachussetts last week with her brother and family, who have been here visiting his mother, Mrs. Laura Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Hunt went to South Waldoboro Saturday to stay over Sunday with friends.

The barn of Maple Ridge farm has received a coat of paint.

Mrs. A. G. Bucklin and children are making a week's visit with her relatives in South Thomaston.

The dance at the Grange hall Friday night was a fine success. Music was furnished by Copeland's orchestra of Warren village.

Mrs. J. E. Comer returned to her home in East Friendship Sunday after staying a week with her daughter, Mrs. I. E. Spear.

Llewellyn Harriman is walking on crutches, the result of a bad sprained leg which he received by a fall while painting a building. The stage rope gave away letting the stage fall.

Mrs. Evia Overlook and children, Elmer and Annie, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Grace Hunt.

There was preaching in the Grange hall Sunday by Rev. Mr. Kilborn of the village.

Henry Jones is through working on Monhegan and has employment on the new hall at Wiley's Corner.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, our great Commander has called our sister, Sarah Shirley, and Whereas, our sister was prominent among us in the practice of those virtues exemplified by our order, Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty; therefore, be it resolved, that in the death of our sister, Lafayette Carver Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., mourns the loss of our oldest member whose noble life should be an incentive to us all.

Resolved, that we extend to her children our love and sympathy in their loss of a good and faithful mother.

"Tis something great to be a queen And bend a kingdom to a woman's will; To be a mother, loyal and true, I would, If something better and more noble still."

Resolved, that "May the love and peace of God which passeth all understanding" be with her children.

Resolved, that as a tribute to her memory our charter be draped in mourning thirty days.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our sister, and one to The Courier-Gazette for publication, and one placed on the records of our Circle.

Mrs. T. G. Libby, Mrs. Lucy Elwell, Miss Cora Abbott, Committee.

THE SALOONS.

A Lover of Boys Calls Attention to Some Vital Truths.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette: The saloons can no more be run without using up our boys, than a flour mill without wheat or a saw mill without logs. The only question is, Whose boys? Your boys, or mine? Our boys or our neighbor's boys?

Shall we stand for prohibition or shall we have a rumshop tucked in at every corner and in every little village. Let all who love their boys and their homes stand for prohibition. Don't be like the ostrich who when the hunter is after him pokes his head in the sand and lets the enemy come and shoot him. Don't cry for the prohibitory law when it is too late, but be wide awake on the 14th of September. Cast your vote for the man that stands for solid temperance principles—Hon. Bert M. Fernald? He has long been a Grange member and a friend of the farmer, and to all who love temperance.

What are the people of Maine working for—Resubmission? Because they wish a change to the license law? The John D. Long, ex-secretary of the navy and a son of Maine, says: "It is well to bear in mind when you hear arguments for resubmission, who the parties are that are asking for the repeal of the law. It is not the temperance organization; not the churches; not the school teachers; not the women; not the solid, industrious class; not the citizens of the state at large who feel that their rights are endangered by the prohibitory law so that they must ask for its repeal."

It is the rum distiller, the rumrunner, the rum drinker and those that have been deceived by them that want resubmission. Not those that love truth and honor.

A BELATED TESTIMONIAL.

Arriving in Portland one dark, rainy night long after the hour when the train was due, and so missing the train to Rockland, the Pilgrim was waiting in the Union station for a train which left at 1:20, when she was accosted by a woman whose face and appearance inspired confidence, and asked if she would like to go to the house of the Y. W. C. A. and rest till time to take her train.

This woman was Miss Ella F. Morrison, Assistant Secretary of the Travelers' Aid Society, of Portland. Having traveled from California by several railroads to Michigan, with great ease and comfort, and from Michigan to Portland by the Grand Trunk with almost every conceivable discomfort, disappointment and delay, the Pilgrim was a very weary one and gladly accepted this invitation, getting a good rest and sleep at the society's house very near the Union Station, receiving here the utmost courtesy and kindness. The Pilgrim is not naturally gifted with too much credulity, and had she not read of this "Travelers' Aid," would never have given a second thought to the invitation of this stranger.

It is for this reason that the Pilgrim asks space to tell this story, hoping thereby to inform any who would be benefited, concerning this beneficent work. Mothers in country places, whose daughters are obliged to go to the great cities, may sleep better at night for knowing that good women are at the railway stations to meet and extend the "Travelers' Aid" to all who need it, and that clean, comfortable, hospitable homes are waiting with open doors to give them shelter. These homes are maintained by the Young Women's Christian Association of Portland at 247 B. Street, and 111 Middle Street, where transient or permanent board and lodging may be obtained at reasonable prices.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

"Shall the constitution be amended as proposed by a resolution of the legislature providing for the establishment of a people's veto through the optional referendum and a direct initiative by petition and at general or special elections?" the same being the question prescribed in Section 22 of Chapter 121 of the Resolves of the Legislature of the State of Maine approved March 20, 1907.

Those in favor of this amendment will vote "Yes," those opposed will vote "No," upon their ballots.

YES

NO

Shall Section Two in Article Ten of the Constitution, as amended by the resolve of the fifty-eighth legislature passed March fourth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, and adopted September eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, be further amended by striking out the words: "in the manner prescribed by law, at their next biennial meetings in the month of September," and inserting in place thereof the words: "to meet in the manner prescribed by law for calling and holding biennial meetings of said inhabitants for the election of senators and representatives on the second Monday in September following the passage of said resolve;" so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

"SECTION 2. The legislature, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, may propose amendments to this constitution; and when any amendment shall be so agreed upon, a resolution shall be passed and sent to the selectmen of the several towns, and the assessors of the several plantations, empowering and directing them to notify the inhabitants of their respective towns and plantations, to meet in the manner prescribed by law for calling and holding biennial meetings of said inhabitants for the election of senators and representatives, on the second Monday in September following the passage of said resolve, to give in their votes on the question, whether such amendments shall be made; and if it shall appear that a majority of the inhabitants voting on the question are in favor of such amendment, it shall become a part of this constitution," the same being the question to be submitted for the action of the legal voters under the provisions of Chapter 238 of the Resolves of the Legislature of the State of Maine approved March 25, 1907.

Those in favor of this amendment will vote "Yes," those opposed will vote "No," upon their ballots.
