NEW PORTLAND FAIR.

1000 People Visited the Fair Saturday, Oct. 14.

Every thoroughfare led to East New Portland Saturday, for on that day the prosperous farmers of New Portland held their annual cattle show and fair.

The day was a propitious one for the success of an entertainment of this kind, for after the rain of Friday the air was cool, clear and bracing, the roads dustless and all nature seemed to smile.

Of course New Portland is well known as a place where much successful farming is conducted. And thus it comes that once in every 865 days the good farmers of this town and others join hands for a general jollification. In other words it's a kind of big family picnic with all the extras thrown in.

Thus it happened that from early Saturday morning until after the noon hour the crowd kept coming in all sorts of ways; of course mostly in single teams, although two or three automobiles were noted in the crowd.

One party drove on to the grounds in an ox-cart, pulled by six oxen. It was a merry party and as they came on to the grounds, seated on the floor of the cart, which was lined with hay for the occasion, they naturally attracted much attention. The people on arrival hitched their horses and oxen to trees on the edge of the show grounds, but so great was the crowd that by noon every available tree was taken and it was difficult to find a place to hitch. Estimates of the size of the crowd at the noon hour or a little after vary from 805 to 1000 people.

Mr. Wm. Parsons of East New Portland had a handsome Durham bull calf on exhibition in the Cattle Department that called forth much praise. Mr. Parsons told the Woodsman reporter that he bought a grade bull, as the registered stock was expensive and he believed that the grade animals were as good for all practical purposes.

Mr. O. F. Butts of West New Portland and one of the prominent farmers of the town was present with a pair of seven foot oxen that were good lookers. They girt 7 feet.

Another pair of nice cattle of about the same size as Mr. Butts were exhibited by Mr. Al Jackson. These cattle were only 3 years old but they were sleek and fat and are good workers. Both Mr. Butts and Mr. Jackson have exhibited cattle here for years past, but a new exhibit of this year is Mr. S. N. Burbank of West New Portland, with a pair of red Durham cattle, girting 7 feet.

Mr. James Gould showed a good pair of Durham steers.

Washburn Luse of New Vineyard was present with two bucks and two ewes that took blue ribbon premiums at the Farmington Fair. The bucks were of the DeLane breed, while the sheep were Oxford clowns. This was a good exhibit.

Among the articles displayed in the "hall" were the following, all worthy of special mention: Sofa pillow and fancy work, Mabel Moulton; Preserves, Mrs. A. Jackson; Pumpkins, Mrs. Willard Wilbur.

There were other exhibits of yellow corn, potatoes etc., also a cucumber 15½ inches long which its owner claimed was the longest and biggest cucumber he ever saw.

The Woodsman noted several good horses on the grounds. This was not a surprise as New Portland has always borne the reputation of being a great town for good horseflesh. Some fast steppers are owned in town and others are coming along all the time.

Wm. Parsons showed a Monitor Wilkes mare that attracted much favorable comment. She is only 4 years old, yet she weighs 1130 pounds and is built on correct lines. She is jet black.

The well known North Anson horseman, H. E. Skidmore, was present with a six year old St. Croix that seemed to please the crowd.

Probably the best horse on the ground, though, was a 3 year old colt by Prescott, Jr., owned by A. R. Stevens of New Portland.

This colt weighs 1300 pounds, stands 16 hands high, is a handsome bay in color and has a beautiful mare and tail. When on exhibition at the Madison fair this fall he showed a forty gait. He has lots of action and unlimited style. His dam is IXL and he by Nelson. Many people in looking this promising colt over note his similarity to his ancestor, Nelson, the king of Maine horses. All indications point to a great future for this colt, one of the most promising we have seen for sometime.

Mr. D. W. Enery of North New Portland was another exhibitor in this line. He showed a yearling colt, black in color, by Porter, owned by Warren Clark of North New Portland. This colt is a good locker, though of course it is yet early to predict on his chances only in a general manner.

The like was up to date this year, inasmuch as the man with the striking machine was present, likewise the Burns brothers with their "Ferris" wheel. This was the central attraction and it was a happy sight to see young and old ascend into the air on the wheel and then come down with the look on their faces of those who have taken their first trip in an elevator. It was very noticeable that some of the young ladies, riding with their gentlemen friends, required considerable holding in, but it is presumed that this was entirely necessary.

Of course "Peanut" Moody was present as he has been for years past. His business in peanuts—his special line and pink lemonade was rushing all day long. Then there were various and sundry booths where baked beans, frankfurts, etc., could be purchased for reasonable sums for the refreshment of the inner man.

"Furbish Bros., so called," said Mr. Blaisdell, a member of the firm, were present with their usual complete line of bargains in dry goods.

In the afternoon a ball game was played between the boys of the Kingfield High school and the North Free man nine. The score resulted 10 to 12 in favor of the North Freeman boys.

Following is the score:

The festivities of the day wound up with a ball in Music hall, North New Portland. Music was furnished by violin, piano and cornet. Nearly 5 couples tripped the light fantastic and good, enjoyable dance was the vote of all present. During the evening an oyster supper was served in the banquet hall connected with the dance hall.

Notes on the Fair.

Good order was kept on the fair grounds by Deputy Sheriff Edward Atwood of New Portland.

Mrs. C. B. Walker of East New Portland had charge of the hall exhibits; Mr. Fred Walton of the same place had the cattle in charge and Mrs. A. W. Starbuck was assistant secretary.

MAINE WOODSMAN and the Lewiston Journal were represented at the fair. "We are all coming next year," shout the fair goers as they start for home.

The only accident of the day occurred in the afternoon, when a horse hitched by the side of the woods was gored badly by a long horned steer. The horse will recover.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Blue Mountain Lodge, No. 67, F. & A. M., Install Officers.

Last Wednesday evening the new officers of Blue Mountain Lodge, No. 67, F. & A. M., were gracefully installed by Past Master D. F. Field, assisted by Mr. A. W. McLeary as grand marshal. The installation was particularly impressive.

Following are the new officers: W. M., Fred B. Davenport; J. W., Fred N. Beal; J. W., Elmer W. Voter; Treas., Cheney E. Parker, Sec., N. P. Noble; S. D., Carl E. Cragin; J. D., Cony M. Hoyt; S. S., Colby B. Whittemore; J. S., Carl B. Bueby; Chap., J. L. Matthews; organist, Chas. F. Chandler; marshal, James Morrison; Tyler, M. Sewall Kelley.

Following are the committees appointed: Finance committee, F. B. Davenport, A. W. McLeary, Joel Byron; committee on charity, W. A. D. Cragin; B. A. Davenport.

Ancient Foot Race.

The oldest annual footrace in the country, that for the "red hose" at Carnwath, Scotland, was run recently. It was established in 1491, and its maintenance is one of the provisions of the charter under which the Somervilles held the barony of Carnwath.

Externally Good.

"What do you think of my new book of poems?"

"Fine. Who were the blinders?"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

on of not only a "strike" but a fish and you got your money's worth. The reports came in such numbers that the pond had to be newly stocked with fish three times during the day.

Another interesting feature was the baby show in which seven were entered, namely: Francis Earle Hamlin, age 7 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Hamlin; Herbert Ranger, age 3 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ranger; George Albert Jenkins, age 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jenkins; Wilma Hodgkins age 9 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hodgkins; Hazel Welch, age 3 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welch; byllis Ranger, age 6 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartland Ranger; Baby Hodgkins age 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hodgkins. Herbert Ranger wore off the blue ribbon, Phyllis Ranger the red and Baby Hodgkins the yellow.

In the afternoon was the cattle pulling. In the big class, Silman Kenison wore off the blue ribbon. In the middle class George Roberts got first and Bert Mitchell second and in the small class Carl Sprague got first. Runners was furnished in Horne's Hall by the Grange.

The day coming to a close all felt as it had been a big success and it was made to seem more fair like by the jokes of the jolly Furbish Brothers.

AVON.

A large number from this town attended the cattle show and fair at Farmington.

Miss Ada Vining, who has been working for Dr. C. W. Bell of Strong this summer, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Hawes of Canton Junction, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Waldron of Lewiston, Maine, were at A. B. Norton's one day last week.

Lewis Hardy will soon move into the house formerly owned by Nathan Sulphen and will be employed in the mill.

Several enjoyed a trip to Mt. Blue last Sunday.

Among the guests at Fred Morton's last week were Mr. and Mrs. F. Waldron of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Hawes of Canton Junction, Mass., Dr. J. Hutchins of Boston; Miss Fanny Lynch of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Auburn and daughter Grace of Waldron; H. M. Sewall of Bath and his family.

Edgar Sampson and Gus Vining attended the cattle show at Temple last week. They report a nice time, plenty of cattle and a large crowd.

Samuel Johnson and little daughter, Gladys, of Kittery are visiting at T. A. Vining's.

Mrs. Hannah Kennedy called on Mrs. F. A. Vining, also Mrs. E. M. Sampson, one day last week, walking the distance —1½ miles and riding home with her son. Pretty smart for a lady 80 years of age.

The little child of Alphonso Marson was buried last week, Wednesday.

Mrs. Abram Morton visited Mrs. E. M. Sampson one day last week.

The Pease cemetery has received a much needed fence. We wish more of this kind of work might be done. The country cemeteries as a rule are a sadly neglected lot.

Mr. Sewall begins work on his trout pond this week. We are glad to see new buildings go up and no prettier place can be found for a summer residence than Old Blue and vicinity.

F. A. Vining sold his nice oxen to parties in Roxbury lately.

Mrs. Margie Childs is visiting her brother, Joseph Haley.

W. A. Arnold is collecting cream for a few weeks as Alfred Morton wanted a short vacation.

Louis Hardy is soon to move into the house formerly owned by Nathan Sulphen, who is repairing the Marson house preparatory to occupying it.

Mrs. E. M. Sampson visited at William Dow's one day recently, making the trip on foot across lots and enjoying the gorgeous hues of the autumn leaves.

Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Sylvester of Farmington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Savage.

Gene Collins is picking apples for E. B. Tibbets.

Forty-one attended the pie supper Saturday evening at Staples schoolhouse and spent a very pleasant evening playing games. A short programme consisting of songs, readings and music was carried out. The pies sold exceptionally well amounting to $4.93.

Mr. Joseph Hackett of New Vineyard spent a few days last week with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rauger. Upon rising early and going out one morning Mr. Hackett thought he heard something run a short distance from his house and going to investigate the matter found the tracks of two moose where they had crossed the road. One was a very large track so he says.

THE FRESHET OF '69

B. T. Parker of Phillips Tells of Things Remembered.

People Went to the Upper Story and Carried Doughnuts.

B. T. Barker of Boston, who has been in Phillips of late on his annual vacation, called on MAINE WOODSMAN as usual to pay his subscription. In the course of the conversation Mr. Parker referred to the fact that the great flood, the freshet of 1869, occurred just 36 years ago on Oct. 4th.

Mr. Parker says there were many pathetic incidents connected with the great calamity although only one life was lost so far as he can remember, that of Louis Hewey, who was in a boat with the late Ephraim Hinkley. They were crossing the river to reach some cattle.

One of the funny things remembered by Mr. Parker was the experience of the late Jos. Church, who was living on his farm on the hill but happened to be in the village when the water got too high for anybody to walk through the streets.

Mr. Church went into the "Sherb Hinkley home" at the upper village which was then occupied by the late William Soule, brother of Ruel Soule of Augusta. They went to the upper story of the house and took some doughnuts with them. The house was low posted and the water got into the upper story. Then, as the story went, everybody got onto the bed, took the doughnuts with them and began to pray.

The freshet carried away all of the bridges in Phillips and in fact all between Phillips and Farmington. The news was not given to the outside world for several days because there were no railroads, telegraphs or telephones in North Franklin then and no news could be given out until some bridges were built and somebody drove to Farmington. It was all done by word of mouth as far as Farmington. From there it was wired.

Mr. Parker was a very small boy but he remembers that he was in the upper part of his house with his family and that Julius Blanchard, who was caught at the village, was up there with them. The late N. U. Hinkley, with a companion, made a raft and pulled up to their back window and tried to induce Mrs. Parker and her children and Mr. Blanchard to go with them to land but they didn't dare try it and they proved to be wise in their decision as the raft went to pieces and Mr. Hinkley and his companion had to hustle for shore.

The jewelry store of the late B. T. Parker was carried down stream and lodged upside down on the river bank back of the late J. W. Butterfield's house. The clocks and jewelry tools were in a deplorable condition and the big clock, the old "regulator," was very much washed, but everything was taken out and repaired as well as possible and put into use.

There was so much mud in Elmwood hollow for several days that nobody could drive through it. The cemeteries of the town were damaged seriously and they have probably not fully recovered to this day. Several bodies were washed out and some of them were never found.

The water began to come up into the buildings before dark and remained at its height for several hours. About 11 o'clock at night on looking out of the window, Mr. Parker saw a star in the west. He says it was "the most beautiful star I ever saw." They noticed that the water immediately began to subside and it dropped gradually until the river reached its normal height.

The house cat owned by the Parkers at that time was left in the lower story and although the water went up to within an inch or two of the ceiling, the cat lived through the night and came out "smiling" in the morning. When the family got downstairs in the morning they found a foot of black mud on the floor. They hadn't time to take furniture upstairs and that was in a bad condition. Mr. Parker, the elder, was in Boston at that time but his watches were kept upstairs.

Note—Mr. Parker suggests that he, and probably others, would be very glad to hear from others who were in Phillips during the great '69 freshet—Ed.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

At the Union church the sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Freese had for its text, Psalm xlviii, 12 and 13, "Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generations following."

I desire in this sermon to call your attention to the beauty, the strength and the utility of the church. Many people go through the world seeing but a small portion of the beauty that is spread around them to be seen. We notice in a general way perhaps that the world is beautiful, that the plants, the trees and the blossoms are full of loveliness, but many exquisite details that would give us joy did we but note them are unobserved. We have seen the brilliant coloring of the trees in their robes of changing tints. We are glad and rejoice in the sight. If I should pick a leaf of each from trees of twenty different kinds, how many could name them, think you? The curve and shape, the arrangement of the veins, the texture of the leaves are matters that we have not noticed and we fail to receive the pleasure from the trees that would have been ours had we been more of servant.

The flowers are beautiful to us but until some study of botany has made us quick to note the different parts of a flower, to see the variations in form and coloring and to know something of the infinite variety of God's handiwork, do we really see the beauty of the flowers.

There are many other things given or established by God whose beauty we have failed to see because we have not considered them as we might. We are taught sometimes by means of object lessons to see them. The picture in the 48th psalm is an object lesson. We are shown Jerusalem, beautiful for situation, surrounded by mountains, the joy of the whole earth. And this city is to picture to us the church, the Zion where God's people are to gather.

"Beautiful for situation." It looked out upon the encircling mountains. From it was seen the fertile plains, the slopes clothed with vine and fruit tree. Above all, to those who sang of it, it held the temple, with its decorations of gold and jewels, its hallowed place which meant that God was present with them. Throughout the land no other city could be found whose fortifications were so well nigh impregnable, no other such place of refuge. For beauty, for strength, for usefulness or help it was unequalled.

And this city, this Jerusalem, beloved by all the nations may teach us about the church of God. Consider the church "Walk about Zion. Mark ye well her bulwarks." You believe in the church. You are glad that it is here. Have you considered all that it means? Do you remember that through all the centuries, through persecutions and martyrdoms it has kept alive love of holiness and purity. It has taught man to know God? Do you know that it is the church that brings you the message of the love of God? Nothing else that we might receive is of such worth as God's love. Nothing else will give the beauty and gladness to life that may come from this knowledge. The church brings, too, the message of salvation. There is safety for you when in spirit and in truth you enter it. The massive walls around Jerusalem made it a stronghold and a place of safety. Such a safe place is the church, the true church of God, established by him, protected by him.

In some ways the church does not have the standing for helplessness that it had years ago that it had even in the years when I first came into it. Why is it? Into the church has been admitted more of the spirit of worldliness. We are too fearful of being a peculiar of being a separate people. We take with us things that separate us from the work of God. People outside the church wonder if those within it are looking for their greatest pleasure in just the same things as before. They see church members in the theater, in the dance room at the card table. Does the church and the church vows mean anything?

You ask me if there is harm in a pleasing entertainment. You ask me if there is harm in stepping to music. You ask me if there is harm in simple pieces of card board. I tell you that in the things themselves there is not. Then why do I forbid you the pleasure of them? Friends I do not forbid you. This I want to ask you, though harm less themselves do they not lead to a expenditure of time, of strength and money that is not in harmony with our avowed purpose to seeking first the glory of God and the salvation of souls? Ask yourselves if you honor God and do what he wishes you to do in attending the theater, in passing the hours in the dance room, or at the whist party. Ask yourselves if these things be for the glory of God, and if your answer be "yes" then do I say "go on." Let nothing stand between you and your duty toward God. Let nothing tempt you to bring dishonor upon the church.

And to those outside the church let me say that God has given it a message of love a message of salvation, a message of help for you. Think not too lightly of it.

T. A. JOSSELYN.

Death of Well Known Man. Native of Phillips.

After an illness of several months and which he bore with great fortitude Theodore A. Josselyn, one of the most beloved citizens of Portland, died at his apartments at the Columbia hotel at 12.10, Tuesday, October 3.

Mr. Josselyn has been in impaired health for some time and had been gradually failing ever since the adjournment of the Legislature in which he was one of the representatives from this city and where with that tireless activity ever so characteristic of him he had worked so earnestly and loyally. Indeed there is little doubt that the career of his official position in the Legislature combined with those of his extensive business life weighed so heavily on him as to seriously affect his health. But he made a strong fight and at the adjournment of the Legislature resumed the personal direction of his business. Early in the summer, however, he was obliged reluctantly to lay aside his business cares. He then went to the Bay of Naples Inn where he spent nearly the whole of the remainder of the summer, returning home a few days before the closing of the season. While at Naples he kept in close touch with his business and twice made trips to the city.

But for the past month Mr. Josselyn had been a very sick man and for the last week his condition daily became more critical. His illness was due to a general breaking up of the physical system, although his mind had been clear almost to the very end.

Theodore Josselyn, was one of Portland's sterling business men and none was more esteemed, respected and trusted than he, by his business associates and by the people of Portland.

Although a man who never sought public office, he has been repeatedly called by his fellow citizens to positions of trust and honor which he filled with strict devotion to what was honorable and right and displaying a clear sightedness and accuracy of judgement which made him a most valuable public servant.

As a member of both branches of the city council, at one time being the only Republican member thereof, his counsels were listened to and generally heeded for his unselfishness, his uprightness and his usually unerring judgement were recognized by all.

When he was elected to the state legislature these same qualities, unusual as they are valuable, easily obtained recognition and during his service there he became one of the most influential and efficient members. On more than one occasion, by saying the word, he might have become his party's candidate for mayor of the city, which in the case of a man so popular and universally trusted as Mr. Josselyn would have been equivalent to an election, and it was the hope of his many friends and admirers, that he might sometime see his way clear to serve his city as its chief executive.

Mr. Josselyn while not an ostentatious giver, was one of the most charitable men in Portland and gave freely of his means to assist those less fortunate than himself. And as in everything else which he did he was an intelligent giver and made a study of intelligent charity work. He was a most valuable member of many of Portland's charitable organizations. Quiet and unassuming in manner, never pushing himself forward, not a public speech maker, Mr. Josselyn by his conspicuous public services, his unflinching geniality and kindness became one of the most widely known men in the city and not one of his thousands of acquaintances in Portland but regarded him as a friend.

Carroll True of Keed's and Dexter True of Farmington were in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Whitney of Madrid village called on Mrs. Orren McKeen one day last week.

George E. Scott of New Portland spent Sunday at Mrs. Wheeler's.

"Please Smile AND Look Pleasant."

When a woman says "I am racked with pain," the word "racked" recalls the days when they stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with rope and pulley until the very joints cracked.

Fancy an attendant saying to the tormented woman, "Please smile and look pleasant." And yet the woman "racked with pain," is expected to smile through her agony and to make home happy. She can't do it. It is against Nature. Generally speaking, the racking pains of ill-health such as headache, backache and "bearing-down pains" are related to derangements or disorders of the organs distinctly feminine. When this condition is removed the general health is restored and with health comes back the smile of happiness.

Any woman may regain her health at home without offensive questionings or examinations by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Sick women may consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. Such letters are treated as sacredly confidential.

"It affords me pleasure to relate the wonderful cures of your great medicines, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. J. Wesley Rhine, of Woodbury, N. Jersey, Box 232. "My wife has been using it for some time past, having suffered severely with bearing-down pains, aching in back, and many other complaints peculiar to women. She was very weak, could not do any heavy work or washing but can do all kinds of work now. She is soon to become a mother but we do not fear the result (as heretofore), all due to your wonder-worker, 'Favorite Prescription.'"

"Your 'Pleasant Pellets' are also worth many times their price. I have used them for biliousness and stomach trouble, and have found them to be all that you claim. They are my constant companions—once used, always kept."

Doctor Brigham Says

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructer ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Interesting Talk by Hon. W. L. Daggett.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 1, at the Methodist church in Strong, Washington Daggett gave a very instructive talk founded upon the Sunday school lesson of the morning.

He stated in his introductory remarks that he only intended to lay a foundation for others to build upon and first gave direction for reaching the ancient Bible lands. We should take an ocean steamer from Boston or New York and cross the Atlantic, pass through the strait of Gibraltar and traverse the entire length of the Mediterranean sea, landing on its eastern shore, perhaps at the ancient Joppa. Thirty miles or more of overland travel would bring us to Jerusalem. A further journey of 550 miles directly eastward across the great Arabian desert, or nearly 1,000 miles northward around it, would lead us to Babylon located on both sides of the Euphrates river. It is now within the Turkish dominions.

Mr. Daggett gave a brief description of that ancient city, based mainly on the authority of Herodotus, who personally visited it, but corroborated by other standard writers. It was, approximately, 15 miles square and enclosed by a strong brick wall approaching 350 feet in height and 35 feet thick. Twenty

SANOZOL LOTION AND SOAP Positive Cure For All Skin Diseases.

The wonderful discovery of the famous specialist in skin diseases, A. J. Fulton, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Sanozol treatment is external only. During the hot weather those afflicted with skin eruptions and scalp skin diseases, suffer intensely. You can avoid this suffering and effect a cure by use of Sanozol.

Sufferers from eczema, lupus, herpes, ringworm, prurigo, seborrhea, skin cancer, pediculosis, psoriasis, ecthyma, lichen, syphilis and all other forms of ulcerative, scaly and parasitic skin diseases find immediate relief and permanent cure by the use of Sanozol. It removes pimples and blackheads and cures sweaty or itching feet.

Some of the now famous cures by Sanozol treatment were fully described in the New York World of March 9, and the Brooklyn Daily Eagle of March 29.

The Brooklyn Times of March 30, says: "Dr. Fulton is a practicing physician and a skin disease specialist. The Sanozol treatment is the latest cure and medical men are of the opinion that America has triumphed over Europe."

August Newman of Enfield street near Graves Place, Brooklyn, writes that he had been a sufferer from a skin eruption for eight years, called various names by different physicians. Finally he was induced, in sheer desperation, to try Sanozol. He enjoyed his first unbroken sleep after the first bottle of Sanozol. His reward for a conscientious treatment of this remedy for two months was complete cure.

Write for testimonial and full particulars of Sanozol. Treatment requires combined use of lotion and soap. Sent on receipt of price or at druggist.

Lotion full one-half pint, $1.00; soap, 25c per cake or jar.

Address Sanozol Laboratory, Dept. B, 4, 10-102 Eton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

five streets ran through the city on parallel lines each way and terminating with a brazen gate, thus furnishing egress through 100 gates in the wall on its four sides. Brazen gates were also at the ends of the streets at the river's bank on each side.

The old palace of the kings on the east and the new palace on the west were described, the former being 3½ miles in circuit and having the heathen tower of Belus connected with it, more than 600 feet in height. The new palace where Belshazzar was slain was 7½ miles in circuit and embraced the Hanging Gardens built by Nebuchadnezzar. These were also described and were 400 feet square at the base and arose in terraces to the height of the surrounding walls. These were one of the "Seven Wonders of the World."

A condensed history of the Babylonian or Chaldean empire was then given. The province had long been ruled by the Assyrian kings and Nabopolassar, father of Nebuchadnezzar, had been appointed its satrap in 625 B. C. He rebelled and achieved its independence, thus establishing the Babylonian empire which, however, only reached the climax of its glory and power in the reign of his son and successor, Nebuchadnezzar.

The speaker referred to the several invasions made by the great Nebuchadnezzar to the Jewish land. The first in 606 B. C. when Daniel, then a youth, and the three worthies with many others were carried captives into Babylon. This was the beginning of the Babylonian captivity which lasted 70 years.

The second invasion was about 598 B. C., and the third in 588 when Jerusalem was fully captured, the temple of Solomon destroyed and its sacred vessels of gold and silver carried to Babylon and deposited in the heathen temples.

Brief reference was made to the different sovereigns until Belshazzar's reign was reached and his feast to the thousand princes, wives and concubines was described when Daniel was called in and read the band writing on the wall and pronounced the King's doom.

At this critical moment the besieging armies of the Medes and Persians, under command of Cyrus and Darius were entering the city in the midst of Chaldean revelry and the sacred vessels were profaned by bearing wine to the lips of a heathen king and his nobility.

Cyrus had been shrewdly changing the river's course to conduct its waters in another direction leaving a weak embankment until this opportune moment, when, in the darkness of night, it should be broken down.

The waters having subsided through the city, the soldiers marched under its walls in the channel of the rivers and entered the king's palace.

"In that night was Belshazzar, the king of the Chaldeans slain, and Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about three score and two years old."

This event occurred in 538 B. C., and Cyrus came to the throne two years later when he issued his proclamation of freedom to the Jews which ended the Babylonian captivity 536 B. C.

This lecture was followed by a few remarks from the pastor who drew some valuable lessons for present day needs.

FEVER BROUGHT POSTCARDS

Young Woman Prostrated by Typhoid Receives Them from All Over the World.

There is a certain young woman in New York who can thank typhoid fever for giving her a remarkably fine collection of souvenir postcards. Since her illness began, and she was taken to a hospital, her family and friends have entertained and cheered her up by mail, whenever visiting was not considered judicious. She is not strong enough to read letters, but she delights in looking at pictures, and her friends literally ransack the shops looking for novel and pretty picture postcards.

The result is, states the New York Press, that she has a full set of New York views, including street scenes, the parks, the principal churches, monuments, the water front and nearby beaches. All friends or acquaintances going away are requested to send her something, so her collection includes mountain scenery, lakes, seashore views and places of interest in other towns. The seeker for these postcards will find all sorts of views as well, from the Scottish crags and lakes, to the Alps, from Margate and Brighton to Trouville, Paris, London, Japan, Rome and Naples. Then there are the illustrated songs and the English jokes, the new Yiddish cards, and a great variety of beautiful cards with floral designs.

Many of the best and most popular works of art are now reproduced on postal cards in all the original colors. In fact, there is hardly anything that can't be found on a postal card these days, and the sale is steadily increasing. For the sick nothing could be more appropriate, for they interest at a glance, they please the eye without taxing the intellect, and they beguile many a moment for the invalid.

The Maine Woodsman.

Because fabulous sums are spent in advertising, some merchants think that it costs a fortune to keep any business before the public. They do not stop to think that advertising space can be bought like cloth or yard or soap—in any desired quantity, as one's business may demand. The man who is selling cigars from a small stand on the corner doesn't need as much space as a department store. But the proper space is just as essential to the best results in his business as is the big store's big ad. It doesn't cost much to buy a small space in the MAINE WOODSMAN—a space that is suitable for an unpretentious business. And, after all, it's not the size of the space, but what you put in it that counts. Start off with a little space and use it well and you'll need a big one by and by.

NATURE'S ESSENCE

Extracted from the Roots of Native, Forest Plants. Go Straight Back to Nature for Your Health. There is Your Strength.

We do not live on what we eat but on what we digest, assimilate, and take up in the blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves, the heart, and the whole system, and all goes well with us if the blood be kept pure and rich. If not, then the liver, which is the human filter within us, gets clogged up and poisons accumulate in the body from over-eating, over-drinking, or hurriedly doing both. The smash-up occurs when the blood is poisoned by the stomach and liver being unable to take care of the over-load! The red flag of danger is thrown out in the shape of eruptions on the skin, or in nervousness and sleeplessness, the sufferer becoming blue, despondent and irritable, because the nerves lack nourishment and are starved.

Nature's laws are perfect if only we obey them, but disease follows disobedience. Go straight to Nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries there, some of which we can fathom for you. Take the bark of the Wild-cherry tree, with Mandrake root, Stone root, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Golden Seal root, make a scientific, glyceric extract of them, with just the right proportions, and you have Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists and pharmacists, many months of hard work experimenting to perfect this vegetable alterative and tonic extract of the greatest efficiency. To make rich, red blood, to properly nourish the nerves and the whole body, and cure that lassitude and feeling of weakness and nerve exhaustion, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It bears the BADGE OF HONESTY upon every bottle in the full list of its ingredients, printed in plain English, and it has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the invigorating tonic which gives life to it and the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated in the system.

The "Discovery" cures all skin affections, blotches, pimples, eruptions and boils; heals old sores, or ulcers, "white swellings," scrofulous affections and kindred ailments.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, pneumonia or a long siege of fever or other prostrating disease. No matter how strong the constitution, our stomach and liver are apt to be "out of kilter" occasionally. In consequence our blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful drugs, and the only one, every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of.

The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has the BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggv. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers;

Miss Bessie Tash is visiting at Michael Kershner's.

J. H. Ramsdell of Lewiston is visiting at W. K. Howes's. His wife and son, Earle, who have been here for some time, will return home with him this week.

A large and jolly crowd assembled at M. Kershner's, Friday night of last week and husked about 175 baskets of corn, after which a social time was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours of the morning. Mr. Kershner had 1 1/2 acres in his cornfield. The yield was most satisfactory.

We have been unable to learn the acreage or number of bushels of corn raised by Herbert Parlin but understand that he had an excellent crop.

O. S. Voter had a half acre of corn which failed to make a heavy stand of stalks, but the beauty of the long, thoroughly ripened ears as they hang in traces from the attic beams, would delight the heart of any farmer. Mr. Voter has selected his seed for next year before cutting the corn, choosing for earliness as well as other qualities and is taking especial care of it.

Benzine Buggies in Germany.

In Germany a motorist can be punished for allowing his car to give off a strong smell of benzine. A German automobilist was fined for this offense recently, and appealed to a higher court. It has now been decided that punishment for such an offense can only be meted out "when the smell of the benzine is so great as to force passers-by to take another road."
