April 12. On the eighth day of April 1818, before me, the subscriber, Chief Justice of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas for the first Eastern District, in said Commonwealth, personally appears Robert Tripp, resident in Sandwich in said County of Yarmouth and State aforesaid, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the late Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States, in the revolutionary war," That he, the said Robert Tripp, being fifty-two years of age, in the month of April 1778, enlisted as a private soldier in the Army of the United States for the term of three years under Capt. Smith of the ninth Massachusetts Regiment commanded by Capt. Henry Jackson. Joined the Company at West Point that after the consolidation took place, he was transferred to the twelfth Regiment, commanded by Capt. Colburn, and to the Company commanded by Capt. Hastings. That said Company remained near West Point until, he was honorably discharged from the American Service, when the Army was disbanded. That the discharge which he then received is now lost. And that he is reduced in his circumstances and stands in need of assistance from his Country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services.

Sworn to and declared before me the day and year aforesaid.

[Signature]

Benj. Greene

I, Benjamin Greene, Chief Justice of the Circuit Court of Common Pleas for the first Eastern District, in the Commonwealth aforesaid, do certify that it appears to my satisfaction, that the said Robert Tripp did serve in the revolutionary War, as stated in the preceding declaration, against the common enemy, and I do, now transmit the proceedings and evidence taken and had before me to the Secretary for the Department of War, pursuant to the directions of the aforesaid act.
act of Congress, and that she is reduced in his circumstances and stands in need of assistance from his Country for support.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court at Westford this last day of April in the year of our Lord 1819.
(Signed) Daniel Hewell

Additional Evidence, I John Houston, this being fifty four years of age, do solemnly, publicly, and sincerely affirm, that I am now at the said Tripp having enlisted into the Army in the Spring of 1781 in the town of three years, that he belonged to the regiment commanded by Col. Henry Jackson, and that I saw him at various times at the Camp between the year 1781 and the time of disbanding the Army, in the Autumn of 1783; but I do not now recollect the name of the officer who commanded the Company to which he belonged, but at the time the Army was disbanded and the Tripp was discharged, I came home part of the Army in company with him, and have no doubt he had a favorable discharge. I further testify that I always understood Col. Henry Jackson to be one of the Massachusetts regiments and when the Continental established him int.
