DREAMLAND'S AMATEUR NIGHT

The Weston Sisters, singers, dancers, vaudeville acts, are leading the vaudeville bill at Dreamland for the remainder of the week. They are proving a fine attraction and the novelty of their act has drawn an overflowing attendance at each evening performance. They have several German selections which are rendered in a pleasing manner and their performance also includes enough comic dialogue to please patrons who enjoy that feature of vaudeville. "Amateur Night" will be inaugurated at Dreamland this Friday evening with several attractions of particular local interest. Hon. Louis Dyer heads the program and will endeavor to render the popular ballad "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree." He will be followed by other musicians, comedians, etc., and the management hopes to fully convince the audience that Rockland has plenty of theatrical talent. Little Mae Dumble concludes her engagement with the Saturday evening performance. She has made many friends while in the city and they will no doubt be present to enjoy her final selection "Oh What I Know About You." Beginning Monday and until further notice, Mr. Morgan of Boston, an experienced minstrel singer, possessing a rich tenor voice, will appear at Dreamland in connection with the illustrated songs, Tuesday and Wednesday, Fred and Edna Duran in a new comedy sketch entitled "The Substitute."

The Congregational pulpit will be occupied Sunday, the speaker being Rev. Frank L. Garfield of Castleton, Vt.

The Elks have their regular meeting next Monday evening. There will be no work but a social session.

Thursday's cold wave was an emphatic reminder that it is time to prepare for winter. Have you put on the storm doors and windows?

Rev. Russell Woodman, pastor of St. Peter's church, expects to return from his vacation Saturday and to occupy his pulpit Sunday morning and evening.

The building on Limerock street, occupied by the Limerock Steam Laundry, is being converted into a place to keep pace with the increasing business.

Detective W. H. Kalloch captured an army deserter at Providence this week, returning the man to Fort McKinley. The deserter had been missing about eight months.

Rev. Mr. Porter, pastor of the Free Baptist church, will address the meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tibbets will sing.

Galilee Temple, Ocean and Water streets. Sermon by the pastor at 10.45 with blackboard illustrations. Solos by Miss Georgie Brewer. At 3 gospel meeting with rousing songs from hymn book used by Otto Hatch in his revival work. At 7 popular service with sermon.

Clifton & Karl have recently painted three houses on Oak and Orient streets for N. B. Cobb. The firm now has painters at work on the store and two houses owned by Abel Fuller, the residence of Mrs. C. S. Emery on Camden street, and the C. A. Tibbets tenement on Oak street.

Leslie Hamilton writes from Glen Ridge, N. J. to deny the statement that he had moved to Harrison, N. J., with another position in view. Mr. Hamilton evidently has some friend (?) in Glen Ridge who is trying to misrepresent him, as our original item came from that source.

The Crockett building on Sea street is being torn down without waiting for the action of the city government, which named it as among three buildings that are supposed to come within the meaning of the new statute relative to the disposing of burned, dilapidated or dangerous buildings.

The Bath Times made the rather startling statement Tuesday that a firm in that city had the contract for tearing down Rockland opera house. The item should have read that the Bath parties had the contract for tearing down the Bicknell stable building on the site of which the Dreamland Theatre people are to erect a new moving picture theatre.

The coal sheds which occupy the site of the proposed sardine factory on Tillson wharf are being torn down. One large shed which has been used for storage purposes, will be converted into a carpenter shop, where, during the winter, the forms for the concrete work will be made. The present operations are under the charge of the company's superintendent. The survey for the spur track is to be completed.

The building at Glen Cove, which was formerly the home of Penobscot View Grange, has been leased for a year by the Rockland gentlemen who have been conducting for several seasons what are known as the syndicate dances. The building is being put in first class repair, will be suitably furnished, and eventually will wear the imposing title of Syndicate Hall. The dances will be resumed when the hall is in readiness.

A sad message received in this city Wednesday night was that announcing the death of Albert Gould, a popular young man who was well known in this city and vicinity for the fact that he had made frequent visits here, and for a number of seasons had been a member of the summer colony at Pleasant Beach. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner A. Gould, who owned a cottage there. His demise followed six weeks of suffering from typhoid and complications. As a final resort the surgeons operated upon him last Sunday but his remaining vitality was not sufficient for him to survive the ordeal. Mr. Gould was 33 years of age, and had a fine position in the New York office of a leading piano manufacturing concern. Nature had favored him with a keen business capacity and the sunny temperament which made instantaneous friends for him everywhere—a combination which gave promise of brilliant success in the mercantile world had he been spared the years to pursue his vocation. He is survived by his parents, and a wife and child, the latter about six years of age. Funeral services were held in Montclair, N. J. this Friday.

There will be a special service at First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Central street, Thanksgiving evening, instead of morning as heretofore, beginning at 7.30.

E. J. Southard has leased the Tapley tenement on Clarendon street, which he will soon occupy. The deal for the McAllister house, previously mentioned, did not materialize.

The attendance at the rehearsal of the Wight Philharmonic Club last evening to say the least, Fresh eggs, for years, some 65 being present and much pleasure was felt in presence of several of our city's most prominent musicians who promise to renew their affiliation with the club and whose valuable assistance will promote its interest and efficiency to a remarkable degree. Mrs. I. J. Putnam, Miss Jennie Putnam of South Thomaston and Miss Vivian Ross and Miss Kathleen Ingraham of Rockland were admitted to membership and several others were proposed. The solo work is a very pleasing feature, which it is hoped will add much to the enjoyment of the music and establish the connecting links between the artist and chorus numbers. It is the custom of the club to have a rehearsal in the revival of Thanksgiving, hence let each member make the effort to be present next Thursday evening.

A visit to the local markets yesterday revealed some conditions that were interesting to say the least. Fresh eggs, for instance, have advanced in price until they are worth exactly half a dollar a dozen, providing you could find such an article at all. The dealer told The Courier-Gazette that he would gladly pay 45 cents a dozen for eggs that were strictly fresh. He owns 150 hens, himself, and on the day in question got 45 cents from them. Hens are shedding now, and the good housewife who wants to make a nice cake for Thanksgiving is left the alternative of saying things that are not at all complimentary to the local fowls. The turkey outlook for Thanksgiving is about on a par with the egg situation. Maine-bred turkeys will probably retail at 35 cents a pound, while the Vermont or western product will sell at 28 or 30 cents. The same dealer who is willing to pay 45 cents a dozen for fresh eggs, also authorizes us to say that he will cheerfully pay 30 cents a pound for Maine-raised turkeys. Thanksgiving geese and ducks are expected to retail at 25 cents a pound, and chickens at 20 and 22 cents. Today's market quotations are as follows: Boston celery, 20 cents; native celery, 15 cents; turnips, 2 cents a pound; squashes, 3 cents a pound; pumpkins, 10 to 15 cents a quart; Cape Cod cranberries, 10 cents a quart; beef lungs and roasts, 25 cents a pound; rump and tenderloin steak, 30 cents a pound; veal steak, 25 cents; veal roast, 20 cents; veal forequarters, 12 cents; lamb hind-quarters, 20 cents; lamb forequarters, 12 cents; pork steak, 25 cents; sausage, 15 cents; homecured tripe, 10 cents; Swift's Premium bacon, 25 cents; frankfurters, 13 cents; Bologna sausage, 15 cents; cooked ham, 25 cents; cheese, 25 cents a pound; onions, four cents a pound, and 10 pounds for 25 cents.

Things look brighter for Appleton. A very recent visit of State Missionary Hunt revealed this. On Sunday, Nov. 14th, the ordinance of baptism was administered and the Lord's Supper commemorated. Four candidates were baptized. Brother Alexander Douglas has been with this church since June and has proved himself "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." Congregations have greatly increased. FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—With the elections over and the return of President Taft and Cabinet officers and the daily incoming of Senators and Representatives, interest is centered in the work of the first regular session of the 61st Congress. The President's message will be awaited eagerly, as it is expected that now the tariff question is settled for this administration. Mr. Taft will make many other recommendations for Congressional action in his first message. Among them will probably be suggestions for increasing the scope and power of the Interstate Commerce Commission, including a court to expedite litigation. Mr. Taft said in one of his speeches:

"The administration was elected on a platform that we propose to carry out the policies of Theodore Roosevelt, and we propose to keep that promise."

He has made it clear, however, that no legitimate corporation has anything to fear and this applies to railroads as well as industrial concerns.

In the same conservative way the President will deal with the labor interests. He will recommend legislation relative to the issuing of injunctions, but there will be no suggestions favoring labor unions. Every man and every organization will be equal before the law, and there will be no special legislation for or against any one.

The conservation policy will attract much attention, and an attempt will be made to prevent all control of natural resources by monopolies. No definite policy for inland waterways will be announced until its feasibility is determined by capable engineers and its cost fully determined. The Government's irrigation policy will, however, be continued and extended.

It is hardly likely that there will be any monetary legislation during the coming session. The commission will not have its report ready and the President will not ask for action till the report is complete. The question of Postal Savings Banks which the President favors may be debated, but it is thought that final action will be in conjunction with the new currency law.

A Ship Subsidy bill will be recommended and it will be passed. For years the rehabilitation of our Merchant Marine has been unsuccessfully attempted, but it can confidently be predicted that a bill of some sort will reach the President and be approved during the coming session.

The onward march of industrial progress under the operation of the new tariff law is undiminished. New records are being made every week and a volume of business has already been reached never before attained.

Nowhere are business conditions so emphasized as in the automobile industry. On August 4th, the day before the passage of the tariff law, there was a surplus of 267,173. On November 4th, just three months after the law went into operation there was actually a shortage of cars amounting to some 6,000. This means that not only the entire transportation resources of the country are employed, but orders for thousands of new cars must be at once placed to meet future conditions.

It is a very significant fact that the so-called monopolies are still grumbling because they were not able to make the tariff law themselves have nothing to say about its operation. So far, there does not seem to be on record a single expression of anyone complaining of the results of the operation of the new law. This, of course, is the greatest vindication possible of the judgment and wisdom of the framers of the tariff law. The President who approved it. The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and the proof of the value of the tariff now in operation is the results recorded day by day of unprecedented business.

Of course it was expected that the framers of the law would only say the very best thing possible about it, but we are hearing from the most prominent of them that it is not what they expected. It is the greatest disappointment of the day, says Wm. E. Curtis, who is perhaps the most famous newspaper correspondent of the day, says: "It is undoubtedly the most important and scientific tariff law that has ever been enacted. It contains no oddities or eccentricities, and thus far no serious errors have been found. Usually the enacting of a law leaves out commas or inserted semicolons which have provoked controversies and caused litigation and perverted the intention of Congress and several years ago the accidental insertion of a comma nullified an entire section, and by a similar mistake in another law the importation of a certain article was absolutely prohibited, when the Congressional Committee intended that it should come in free. But there are no 'tricks' in this law, and as I have said, the general tendency is to lower duties."

TAFT ON THE TARIFF.
"Now, the promise of the Republican platform was not to revise everything downward, but to reduce rates where they should be reduced. Rates have been taken as interpreting that platform which I made in the campaign. I did not promise that everything should go downward. What I promised was that I should let many decreases and that in some few things increases would be found to be necessary; but that on the whole I conceived that the change of conditions would make the revision necessarily downward—and that I contend, under the showing which I have made, has been the result of the Payne bill. I did not agree, nor did the Republican party agree, that we should reduce rates such a point as to reduce prices by the introduction of foreign competition. That is what the free traders desire. That is what the revenue tariff reformers desire, but that is not what the Republican platform promised, and it is not what the Republican party wished to bring about. To repeat again the statement which I opened this speech—the proposition of the Republican party was to reduce rates so as to maintain a difference between the cost of production abroad and the cost of production here, and to enable the manufacturer to make a reasonable profit to the manufacturer on all articles produced in this country and the proposition to reduce rates and to prevent their being excessive was to avoid the opportunity for monopoly and suppression of competition so that the excessive rates could be taken advantage of to force prices up."

EXPORTS OF MANUFACTURES.
The growth in our exports of the products of the factory has been especially striking. Manufactures (including in this term both those for further use in manufacturing and those ready for consumption) in 1899 formed but 17.21 per cent. of the total exports of domestic products from the United States.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.
Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Blueington, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va.—"I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. EMMA WHEATON, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case, write confidentially to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

States; in 1876, 20.42 per cent; in 1900, 35.50 per cent; in 1909, 40.98 per cent, and for the nine months' ending with September, 1909, 46 per cent, and at this rate of growth may thus be expected within the comparatively near future to form fully one-half of our exports.

ACTUAL WORK BEGINS

And Skepticism as to the Construction of the Cape Cod Canal is Vanishing

In view of the fact that much stone from the Penobscot Bay region is being shipped to Plymouth, Mass., for the Cape Cod canal, the following dispatch from the town will be read with much local interest:

Although there has been more or less skepticism felt along the line of the Cape Cod canal since the operations were begun by the present company, the fact is that the canal is being excavated in a channel for the Plymouth Cordage company, and was towed around the cape to Buzzard's Bay, where a powerful tugboat, the "Horsehoe," with lighters and scows at the mouth of Monument River, at Buzzard's Bay station the railroad tracks branch, and while the main line kept to the north, the other ran southerly to Woods Hole. As the canal would cross both branches of the Y, the track is to be changed to accommodate the channel.

Last week the dredge Bothfield, belonging to the Eastern Dredging Company of Boston, was taken off its work in Plymouth Harbor, where it had been busy for months in excavating a channel for the Plymouth Cordage company, and was towed around the cape to Buzzard's Bay, where a powerful tugboat, the "Horsehoe," with lighters and scows at the mouth of Monument River, at Buzzard's Bay station the railroad tracks branch, and while the main line kept to the north, the other ran southerly to Woods Hole. As the canal would cross both branches of the Y, the track is to be changed to accommodate the channel.

The Woods Hole branch crosses the river on a wooden piling bridge near its mouth, and a little distance further up stream is a fine steel bridge built by the company some years ago. The main line of the railroad is to cross the canal, which here follows the course of the river, following the Woods Hole track a little way from the station, where a powerful tugboat, the "Horsehoe," with lighters and scows at the mouth of Monument River, at Buzzard's Bay station the railroad tracks branch, and while the main line kept to the north, the other ran southerly to Woods Hole. As the canal would cross both branches of the Y, the track is to be changed to accommodate the channel.

Shanties for the workmen have been built near the Woods Hole track, and more are to go up at once. A spur track has been laid from the main line to the river's edge, and last Saturday a railroad of donkey engines, concrete mixers, wood blocks and other material backed down there and began unloading. The excavator was set to work on the spot selected for the foundation of the bridge, and the dredge was being made ready to work on the channel for the canal, for the water is shoal and the big dredge Kennedy would have to float in under present conditions, which is to be a hinged-lift structure, will be located not quite half way between the existing bridges. It will have a span of 160 feet, and its foundations will be placed on the rocky shore of the canal, not far from the center of the river, and they will be set forty feet below the surface and will be of concrete.

The excavator is working in coarse gravel and stones and handles it rapidly as the material is not carried away but is dumped just south of the spot where the forty-foot hole is being dug. There will be one or more bridges over the canal to accommodate highway traffic, but the location and dimensions of these are things yet to be determined.

The lighters engaged on the breakwater have been hampered by rough water of late. This outfit makes its mouth, towing the fourteen miles to the anchorage off the Gurnet. The breakwater has grown in the last few months and shows above water in a number of spots, and as it is added to will furnish harbor for the craft engaged, and the work will progress faster. It looks as if the canal was coming along.

"THE SPANISH SWINDLE"

It Has Been Tried on Rockland People—Government Issues Interesting Circular Regarding the Matter

Many Knox county people have received letters from Spain telling of "languishing prisoners" and "beautiful daughters." These have been attempts to raise money fraudulently. Those who have received letters and those who have read of the cases will be interested in the announcement of investigations just made by the United States State Department. The circular telling of these investigations has just been sent out and a copy of it is received by The Courier-Gazette, says:

The Department of State, at Washington, has received a report from the American Consul-General at Barcelona, Spain, in regard to the band of swindlers operating in various towns and cities in Spain, who make a practice of writing to persons in the United States respecting the imprisonment of a relative and the guardianship of a child.

The Consul-General states that the alleged prisoner generally describes himself as a political prisoner from Cuba; he is at the point of death and has but one friend—the prisoner priest, through whose good offices he is enabled to smuggle an occasional letter out of the prison fort.

The prisoner is rich. He has a fortune in cash on deposit in the United States, but the certificate of deposit is concealed in a secret receptacle of his; the value itself has been taken possession of by the court at Barcelona, which tried and condemned him, and will be held until the prisoner or his representative has satisfied the costs of the trial. The prisoner has an only daughter; dying in his prison, his sole thought is of this beloved offspring. He has no friend or relative in Spain to whose care he can commit her. In this emergency his thoughts turn to the distant relative in the United States whom he has never seen and of whom he knows only through hearsay or the family tree. Will the distant relative assume the guardianship of the dying daughter, and the father's daughter's fortune of about $30,000? If the distant relative accepts the trust one-fourth of the prisoner's entire fortune will be the material reward. The good priest will go at once to the United States and take the daughter with him. There is but one condition: the ready money which the prisoner brought with him to Spain has been consumed; the distant relative is therefore requested to send enough to liberate the value contained in the secret receptacle and the certificate of deposit. This money is to be sent to the prisoner into execution and, having received it, the good priest will at once secure the value and start for America, the land of the free and the home of the brave. THOMASTON

Misses Margaret and Jennie Ryder entertained 16 young lady friends aboard the schooner Lucinda Sutton Thursday evening. A very tempting supper was served at 6.30, and the rest of the evening was pleasantly devoted to cards and music. First prize, a gold hat-pin was won by Miss Mary McPhail and the second prize, a pack of cards, by Miss Edna Watts. The consolation prize went to Mrs. John Andrews.

Leslie Feyer of Thomaston met with quite a serious accident in the Ulmer quarry Tuesday forenoon. He was operating a steam drill on what is known as a "head" when a piece of rock, falling presumably from the bank struck him on the head and dazed him so that he fell into the bottom of the quarry, a distance of perhaps 18 or 20 feet. He was taken at once to Knox hospital, where he was examined by Drs. Spear, Weidman and Foss. The surgeons found no bones broken, and nothing to indicate any probability of fatal results. There are two cuts on the quarryman's head, and some injury to the spine may have resulted.

An interrupted funeral caused a flurry of excitement here Thursday. Fremont C. Newbert, who has been ailing for several years, died last Monday, at the age of 53. The funeral services were set for Thursday at 2 p. m., but meantime there had been some gossip to the effect that the death was not due to natural causes, and a postponement of the services took place until Coroner Judkins could investigate. That official found that a curious state of affairs existed, but could find no tangible evidence that would seem to necessitate the expense of an autopsy and inquest, and the postponed funeral took place this Friday forenoon at 10 o'clock.

Nervous dyspeptics, be sensible; try Mi-o-na; it relieves at once. It cures nervousness in a few weeks. G. I. Robinson Drug Co., Thomaston, guarantees it. Large box 50 cents.

CAPT. FLAGG'S DEATH

Native of Newcastle Commanding Chinese Ships Dies of Cholera

A Shanghai paper of recent date contains the following account of the sudden death of a sea captain who was born in Lincoln county and is known to many persons in this part of Maine. It is with deep and sincere regret that we have to publish this morning the sad news of the death of Captain Asa E. Flagg, the well-known and popular Captain of the Indo China S. N. Co.'s S. S. Kutwo, which occurred at urday. He left here in command of his ship on the 23rd ult., in the best of health and spirits and all went well with him until Friday, the 1st inst., when he became ill at Kinkiang and speedily developed symptoms indicating cholera. The British gunboat Bramble, which happened to be in port, was communicated with, and her doctor was promptly on board the Kutwo attending the suffering man. The Kutwo was then clearing for Wuhu on the return voyage and it was decided that the best course would be to take the patient on to that port and put him into the hospital there. This was done, and at one time it seemed as if the treatment were about to be successful, for on Saturday night a telegram was received by Captain Flagg's family in Shanghai stating that he was slightly better. The improvement, however, was not to be maintained and at 10 o'clock on Saturday night the unfortunate man passed away, and twelve hours later he was buried, the funeral taking place in the Wuhu cemetery at 9 a. m. yesterday. Needless to say the deepest sympathy is felt for Mrs. Flagg and the deceased's son and two daughters, who are all well known and esteemed here. Indeed the family is one of the oldest and most prominent in the settlement and the heartiest sympathy of the entire community will be with them today in their terrible affliction. It was only three weeks ago that Captain Flagg had a remarkably narrow escape from drowning at Hankow, and this was by no means the first time that his life had been in imminent jeopardy during the course of his long and adventurous career. Perhaps the "closest call" he ever experienced was at Fungchow on the Yangtze on April 24, 1905, when his ship, the old Yuenwo, was burned to the water's edge, and Captain Flagg, the last man to leave her, was obliged to scramble down the anchor chains into the waiting boat. Captain Flagg was an American, having been born in Newcastle, in the State of Maine between 68 and 69 years ago. It is 45 years since he first came to China, which he did in a sailing vessel, and 28 since he entered the service of the Indo China S. N. Co., his employment under that flag commencing in February, 1881, when he joined the old Kungwo. Since that date he has commanded many vessels of the Indo China Co. and at the time of his lamented death he was Commodore of their fleet. The flags of most of the merchant ships in harbour and of the M. M. O. A. were half-masted yesterday as a mark of respect and sorrow.

The Damariscotta Herald says: "The death of Captain Flagg in China grieves many people in this place. It has been many years since he was here, but Mrs. Flagg, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gould Bailey, has made long visits here with her daughters, Daisy and Ruby and her son, Gould."

A PERCEPTIBLE SLUMP

Noted in the Granite Trade the Past Month—Not Much Change in This Section, Though

The condition of the granite trade has taken quite a perceptible slump, says the Quarry Workers' Journal. In the past few weeks, a large number of men have been discharged at Woodbury, Vt., and it is understood that the Woodbury Granite Co. is operating but three derricks at the present time. In Graniteville, Vt., derricks are being shut down every week, throwing a large number of men out of employment. The Rochester, N. H., job that is giving employment to quite a number of men will be closed down within the next month. Reports from other localities in New England are not very encouraging. The Journal says: "We would advise members to write to the different localities before starting to them, as it might save car fare. However, we expect that trade will improve after the holidays, and that the usual number of men will be employed during the winter months."

The reports from granite quarries in this section, as given to the Journal by the corresponding secretaries of the cutters' unions are as follows: Stonington: Business remains about the same as at last report; if anything a little to the good.—C. K. Pierson. Vinalhaven: There has been no change here, as work is about the same, with all members working.—G. B. Smith. Waldoboro: Work is still plenty such as it is, but breaking grout is a very hard way to earn a biscuit; still biscuits we must have, and if we cannot get them easy, we must get them the best we can. The Branch is in the best condition it has been for some time.—W. F. B. Feyler.

Hurricane: We held our regular meeting the 15th with very poor attendance. We have a branch here of over fifty members, but we cannot get over ten or fifteen to attend a meeting, and instead of coming to the meeting to do their kicking, they do it in the engine house and blacksmith shop after the meetings are over. If anyone has any kicks to make, we would like to hear from him at the next meeting. Business is good here at this writing. Brother Miller, who is at the Knox hospital with rheumatic fever is improving slowly.—C. M. Thompson.

ST. GEORGE

There will be a shooting match here on Thanksgiving day. Supper will be served at the Grange hall.

John F. Wiley has returned from Somerville, Mass., where he has been for the past two months with his daughter.

Miss Emma Coltart of Clark's Island is visiting Miss Sara Kinney. Capt. Albion Gilchrist and wife have closed their house and will spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Thomas.

Miss Lena Staples of Rockland is visiting her parents at Treasure Point Farm.

Mrs. Stone, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geneva Hall, has returned to her home at Port Clyde.

About 20 members of Puritan Rebekeh Lodge visited Camden Wednesday evening of last week. A most enjoyable evening was passed. A delicious supper was served by the Camden sisters and Miriam degree staff of Rockland conferred the degrees in a very pleasing manner.

Mrs. C. M. Lucas of Union visited Estelle Brown last week. Capt. Cyrus Hill has moved his family back to Wiley's Corner from Rockland.

A social dance was held at the Grange hall Saturday evening. The first and second degrees were conferred on three candidates at the Grange Friday evening. This Friday the third and fourth degrees will be worked and a harvest supper will be served.

The Rebekeh lodge will hold a fair in the old sail-loft on the afternoon and evening of Dec. 2. Useful and fancy articles, aprons, candy and other things will be on sale. Vegetable soup, doughnuts and coffee will be served for supper. A large attendance is desired.

A special meeting of Puritan Rebekeh Lodge was held Thursday evening for the purpose of conferring the degrees on one candidate.

COMFORT COMES BY TAKING BALLARD'S GOLDEN OIL

It gives quick relief and a cure soon follows, no opiates or alcohol, pleasant to take, guaranteed and sold by all dealers in medicine, in 25c and 50c bottles. Gentlemen—I have a word of praise for your Oil. For three months I had a very hard cough. I tried several different remedies without getting any relief. I called on Dr. Briggs of Whitefield, N. H., and he said I was going into consumption. I also took his medicine and got no relief. I was advised by H. G. Wheeler to try Ballard's Golden Oil. The first dose gave me relief and I continued taking it as I found I was gaining, until I had taken three 50 cent bottles, and my cough stopped. It has been over a year now and I have good strong lungs. I recommend it to all.
