Deering Memorial Church Dedicated. BEAUTIFUL NEW STRUCTURE IS FORMALLY CONSECRATED.

The past week was a happy one for the Methodist Episcopal Church of South Paris, and all interested in its welfare. Their new church home, Deering Memorial Church, was dedicated according to the arranged program, with a series of meetings and services over three days. A number of the former pastors of the church and other visitors were present to attend the several services.

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 the dedicatory service was held, when the auditorium of the church was filled. The singing for the service of Wednesday was by a double quartette, made up of Mrs. Wilson and Miss Leach, soprano; Mrs. Smiley and Mrs. W. F. Morton, alto; Mr. Seaton and Hubert Davis, tenors; J. Colby Harvey of Lewiston and A. E. Dean, bass. Mr. Harvey sang a solo at the evening service. Mrs. Burham was at the organ.

Rev. F. C. Rogers of Woodford gave the sermon of Wednesday afternoon, speaking from the text, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God," showing that the consciousness of a divinity is a characteristic of every tribe of men and that this is the salvation of the world.

Rev. T. N. Kingle, pastor of the church, was in charge of the services, and the regular ritual service of the church was held in the ceremony of dedication.

Rev. A. W. Pottle of Rumford took charge of the offering of the day, and secured between $300 and $400 in pledges to apply on the small debt remaining on the building.

Those who assisted in the service were Rev. I. A. Bean of Lewiston and Rev. H. L. Nichols of Hallowell, former pastors of the church, and Mr. Seaton, who pronounced the benediction.

At the service of Thursday evening, the dedicatory address was given by Rev. A. Letch of Auburn, on "The Majesty and Mission of Methodism." The blowing out of a fuse in the lighting system of the church, caused a momentary darkness, but fortunately it came before the opening of the service, and the program went on after a delay of three-quarters of an hour.

Thursday afternoon there was a preaching service, with sermon by Rev. G. D. Holmes of Lewiston, from the text, "One unto me, all ye have been made," and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly of heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls; for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." The Lord's Supper was observed at the close of the service.

Thursday evening was given to the organ recital, the artists in which were, Miss Blanche Haskell, soprano; Miss Margaret Wilson, violin; Mr. Claude E. Saulier, organist. The program was:

1. From Opus 28 in C Minor Mendelssohn (a) Grave (b) Adagio

2. Violin Miss Wilson Selected

3. With Violoncello Mrs. Kingleff Haydn Selected

4. (a) Andante (b) Allegretto (c) Second Nocturne Chopin Selected

5. Violin Miss Wilson Selected

6. Still Wie Die Nacht Schubert Selected

7. Marche Funebre in C Sharp Minor Gounod Selected

8. Violin Miss Wilson Selected

9. Berceuse (with Violoncello) Gounod Selected

A large audience heard the recital, which being set to increase the seating capacity of the auditorium. The tone of the new organ is very pleasing, and the recital was well received.

Mrs. Kingleff's singing gave great pleasure, and the violin selections of Miss Wilson were a delightful feature of the program. It was throughout an artistic and enjoyable evening.

Rev. B. C. Wentworth of Norway gave a powerful sermon at the meeting of Friday afternoon. The singing was by the juvenile choir.

Friday evening was assigned to the program for a reception to former pastors. As such it was something like a banquet with Hamlet left out, as all the former pastors, of which number had been present at the earlier sessions, had gone home. Still the reception was a pleasant social affair. There was music by the Sunday School choir, a solo by Mrs. Wilson with violin obbligato by Hubert Davis, and a solo by Miss Leach. Ice cream and cake were served, and the evening was spent in informal sociability.

Reunion of Veterans. The annual reunion of Co. F, 9th Maine, and Co. C, 8th Maine, was held at the hotel in South Paris on Wednesday, the 30th of August. This association and that of the Summer Veterans united, and it made the evening most pleasant and enjoyable.

Comrade Frank J. Brown presided as president of both associations. At the meeting of the two companies, C and F, the following officers were elected:

President—Daniel A. Rowe. Vice-President—J. A. Noyes and Frank J. Brown. Sec. and Treas.—F. J. Wyman.

It was voted to meet next year at West Sumner, under the management of Comrade D. A. Rowe, the new president of the association.

After the business meetings of the two associations had been held a bountiful dinner was spread in the vestry of the church, and the evening was spent in the most pleasant manner.

Skull Fractured, Eye Put Out. Quarrel Ends in Serious Injuries to William C. Cummings.

As the outcome of an affray in a camp about three miles from South Paris Thursday night, William C. Cummings is now in the hospital at Lewiston seriously wounded and his brother, Morris Cummings, is in jail awaiting the result.

These brothers are sons of the late Joseph Cummings, who formerly lived on a farm in Greenwood. William C. Cummings is 37 years of age, and Morris is 35. He gave his age as 37, but he is not quite 34; it is possible that he is mistaken.

William C. Cummings came to South Paris in 1910, and went to work for W. B. Russell, who was cutting lumber on the S. M. King farm, which Mr. Russell had bought and was now being run by Mr. Cummings. Mr. Cummings drove team through the sledding season, and through the summer has been cutting lumber, living alone in a small house on the farm.

Thursday afternoon Morris Cummings came to South Paris on the 3:30 train, having come from his home in Iron Works. Here he made inquiries about his brother, whom he said he had not seen for twenty years. He was at the house of a friend, Mr. Henry Cummings, who lives on the farm, and who had been told by the neighbors that he was in the neighborhood of the farm.

At a quarter before 2 o'clock Friday morning Morris Cummings was at the house of a friend, Mr. Henry Cummings, who lives on the farm, and who had been told by the neighbors that he was in the neighborhood of the farm.
