From Weak and Lame
To Well and Strong

Try them. Foley Kidney Pills will cure for other men and women—quickly—what they have done for you. Last year, I got almost down with a backache. I was told to try Foley's Kidney Pills, and when I started taking them, my back began to feel better. I was stronger in my back than I have been for several years, and since getting well, I stayed well and had no return of the trouble.

Now I am so well that I can do my work as usual. I feel like a new man. I am stronger in my back than I have been for several years, and since getting well, I stayed well and had no return of the trouble.

Buying Poultry Feed.
HOW JUDICIOUSLY BUYING MAY REDUCE COSTS.

The old saying, "No loss without some gain," applies to the poultry feed situation. High prices of feeds have made poultry keepers consider the value of feed as never before, and they are rapidly learning how to buy more economically.

While farmers have, as a rule, fed their poultry the grain that was cheapest on the farm, many specialists and small poultry keepers have been accustomed to use their favorite poultry feeds without considering either the quality or the price of the feed.

It is not surprising, therefore, that the poultry feed situation has become a matter of considerable importance to poultry keepers everywhere.

Feeds with reference to quality and price as compared with the cheapest grain on the market, the price of the grain and the price of the feed for poultry feed.

CORRESPONDING PRICES OF GRAINS.
Under normal conditions, corn is nearly all parts of the United States the cheapest poultry feed. At the present time, however, it is not so.

When corn goes down to $1.50 a bushel, it should be 75 cents and barley $1.20 a bushel, and the price of the feed for poultry feed.

The relative commercial feeding values of the grains are most readily computed by using the prices per bushel and the prices of the feed for poultry feed.

Calculations for this purpose, but a calculation which assumes that, except for indigestible matter and deterioration, the common value of feed is the same for all grains.

The light of the fire which burned the buildings of Willard Brett of Oldfield Ford was noted from here Tuesday evening. The fire started from a gas stove in the kitchen, and spread to the main floor, where it was extinguished by the fire department.

The girls of the high school, who were in the village, in the gala which was what had night it was a home. The buildings burned were on the Loren Brett farm, and were a fine set, the loss being reckoned at $5000, with about half insurance. The stock were saved, but none of the farm machinery, and part of the household goods.

The Enterprise Club has its March meeting this Monday afternoon with Mrs. Burdham, the hostesses being Mrs. Burdham and Mrs. Wilson. The program is a miscellaneous one, as follows:

The Democratic Club is entertained this Monday evening by Harold Gray's "Over the Top," the book which has had the largest sale of any of the war literature. This is an intimate story of the war, vividly related, with a touch of humor which lightens the gruesome scenes of some parts of it. Without doubt some of the best of the war literature, but doubtless also many have not read it, reveals as few things have the daily life of the soldier under all kinds of conditions. Publication of it will begin a few weeks after the completion of "The War of the Wards," the latter is now in the hands of the printer. The book is now in the hands of the printer. The book is now in the hands of the printer.

A dinner supper will be served from six to seven o'clock at the Social Circle. Popular prices, 25 cents, and children 15 cents. The menu will comprise baked beans, home-made meat loaf, baked apples, whipped cream, pie, pickles, coffee and coffee, well cooked and all you want.

The body of Hannah Johnson, an aged recluse who lived in the basement of a house in Belfast, was found Tuesday morning. It is thought she had been dead some time. She had not been called on for some time. She had been called on for some time. She had been called on for some time.

West Paris House This Time.

Requires the Principal Large Item of Unusual Expenditure.

Business Transacted Rapidly and With Little Friction at Town Meeting.

At the forenoon session Monday, the Paris town meeting, as its principal matter of business outside of routine matters, raised the sum of $4000 to pay outstanding bills for repairs on the West Paris school house, and complete the toilet and heating systems according to plans approved by the state departments of education and health. There was some opposition, but the vote was more than two to one.

Other large appropriations were made, especially for snow bills, where the record sum of $5000 was raised, and in the opinion of many this will not be enough.

Only about forty minutes was occupied by the afternoon session, and no business of unusual importance was transacted.

A clear, crisp morning for the annual town meeting brought out a good representation of the voters of Paris morning. While the roads of the town were not in the best of condition, certainly were not slumpy, and every one who desired could get here.

Before business proceeded, Miss Margaret A. Ripley, who was accepted as a delegate to the meeting, presented a report from the New England Liberty Loan Committee to be read in town meetings.

For town clerk, William J. Wheeler called the meeting to order just after ten o'clock, and read the essential parts of the warrant, omitting most of the long list of names.

Thirty voters were cast for moderator, all for Walter L. Gray.

The reports of the town officers, as printed and distributed, were accepted, and E. H. Pike asked for explanation of some things in the report which he did not understand. Explanation was made by the selectmen. Some fifteen minutes were taken up with this.

Report of the Crocker and Bray funds was made by Town Treasurer Charles H. Howard, and was accepted.

For town clerk, William J. Wheeler received 60 votes, E. H. Pike 2.

For first selectman, Henry D. Hammond had 243 votes out of 260 cast.

For second selectman, Charles V. Bowker had 118 votes out of 121 votes cast.

Reception to Rev. Mr. Rogers.

A large number of people forming a social and friendly company of the people of the town gathered Thursday evening at the Congregational vestry for the reception given for Rev. C. P. Rogers, the new pastor of the church, and his family.

The hostesses were represented by a large portion of the church, and there were also present invited guests the pastors and officials of all the other Protestant churches of the place.

Decorations of flags and greenery added to the pleasant appearance of the room. After all had been presented to Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, and the seating arrangements had been enlarged to accommodate all, the assembly was called to order and the people were welcomed by Deacon Charles H. Howard, who presided during the exercises which followed.

Musical numbers which were given included a piano duet by Miss Jackson and Mrs. Morton, vocal solos by Mrs. Morton, and a solo by Mrs. F. E. North, with Mrs. Cora S. Briggs at the piano.

A new schedule went into effect on the Grand Trunk Sunday. The only change at South Paris is in the afternoon express, east-bound, which has been on the card as leaving South Paris at 5:30. It is now scheduled at 5:50, half an hour later.

There is now a further curtailment of the service here.

William F. King is still at work in the woods of Crystal, N. H.

Mrs. Nettie Barrett and son Wendell were recent guests of Mr. Thibodeau's.

Mrs. E. V. Canwell saw a crow Feb. 27th. Guess he will be sorry he came so soon.

Mrs. B. F. Cummings and daughter Mary and three sons have had the measles, but are out again.

Gilbert E. Shaw and family of the Tubbs District are sick with measles. Mr. Shaw's mother is with them.

Mrs. Nellie Thibodeau received two letters last week from Mr. William Thibodeau, who is now on the western front in France. At the time of writing he was well and all right.

We have been feeding four blue jays and four chickadees for some time from our back yard. They would come on the window sill and pick up the crumbs we put out. We fed them on wheat bread, but as we have to substitute for it, we fed them on corn meal and they refused to eat it. What shall we do about it? Ask Hoover?

Basket Ball.

NORWAY 31; PARIS 28.

Norway High School trimmed Paris High School in a very close game at South Paris Friday night. The game was characterized by fast, clean playing on both sides. The game was a close one, but Norway could forestall the result until the second period ended. McGinley played well for Paris, scoring 4 baskets from the floor and 6 fouls during the first half.

Paris has found a valuable forward in Maynard Curtis. This was his second game, and he showed up very well. He was called in by the referee for fouling, but he was not called in for fouling.
