Profitable Rose.

Roses, though generally admired as the most beautiful flower, are not universally recognized as the profitable article of commerce that they really are.

Trade roses are grown in variety on parts of Europe, but chiefly in France, in France and Kananlik, in Bulgaria, where great stretches of rose gardens provide the chief supply of roses for the markets of the world.

The highly cultivated roses are used for commercial purposes, and both at home and abroad, the cabbage rose that is chiefly grown—the "rose of a hundred petals,"

Nothing Can Keep Fresh After It Is Cut Up

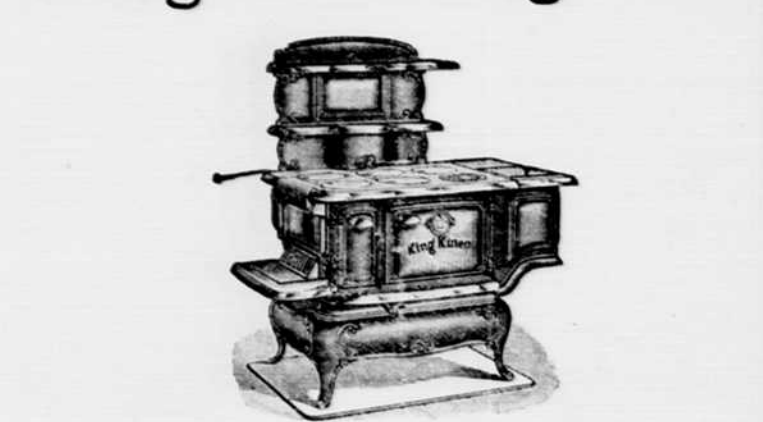

You can't expect the chopped-up tobacco that comes in packages to be fresh, because it has been chopped up too long a time. Most of the natural moisture and flavor escapes from the small particles of tobacco before they are put in the package. By the time you smoke them, they are so dry that they burn fast and bite your tongue.

All the flavor and fragrance of the tobacco is pressed into the Sickle Plug and held there by nature's own covering—the natural leaf wrapper. When you whittle a pipeful off the plug you get fresh tobacco—slow-burning, cool-smoking, rich and sweet.

You don't pay for a package—don't waste any tobacco—and get more tobacco for your money. Buy some Sickle to your dealer's today. You'll find the Sickle way is the only way to get a satisfying smoke.

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE.
 In the matter of ADOLPH F. TALBOT, Debtor.
 To the Hon. CLARENCE HALL, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of Maine.

ADOLPH F. TALBOT of Rumford in the County of Oxford, and State of Maine, do hereby certify that on the 13th day of April, last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the Acts of Congress relating to Bankruptcy, that he duly surrendered all the property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts, and of the orders of Court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be discharged from the Court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate, under said Bankruptcy Acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 21st day of Aug. A. D. 1913.
 ADOLPH F. TALBOT, Debtor.
 District of Maine, ss.
 On this 21st day of Aug. A. D. 1913, on reading the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 13th day of October A. D. 1913, before said Court at Portland, in said District, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in the Oxford Democrat, a newspaper printed in said District, and that all known creditors, and other persons to whom any claim may be asserted, and who may have any claim against the estate of the debtor, do appear at said hearing, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Witness the Hon. CLARENCE HALL, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof, at Portland, in said District, on the 30th day of Aug. A. D. 1913.

Only Fair For Father.
 In a train the other day, says a Glasgow News correspondent, I overheard two schoolteachers in conversation with a certain woman on the pranks of a boy whom they called Jimmie. I could gather that this lad was full of sweet simplicity and a deep rooted objection to education. Despite his distaste, however, he was a genuine favorite. One of the dames in whose class Jimmie now idles his time remarked that on a recent morning the boy had handed in an exercise in arithmetic which, by its neatness and freedom from error, simply bowed "Father" and Jimmie was in the excitement to see what mark he would get.

London's Ugly Man.
 Frank Duff in his reminiscences tells a story of an exceptionally ugly man, well known in London society, whose name he suppresses. He had it from Lord Lytton, who had it from Lord Beaconsfield.

THE QUESTION OF HEALTH.
 "I suppose you take excellent care of your health?"
 "No," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "I tried every kind of medicine I could get hold of for awhile. Then I gave up and forgot about my health, and I've felt better ever since."—Washington Star.

Are You on the Fence?
 Let me help you to decide. Remember, the biggest pumpkins at the fair are not always the best ones; neither are the biggest stores always the best to trade in. It is not size so much as quality that counts, but when, as in this store good quality is kept on a parity with the large store, the nearest approach to the perfect business establishment is reached.

I am going ahead—telling you the truth about my groceries and the prices and saying only this: If you can do better elsewhere I don't expect your trade. All I ask is comparison. I know that no other does grocer or can give better values. I have only the choicest grades of Tea and Coffee. The former start at 25c and run up to 60c a pound. The leading brands of Coffee as low as any store in town. Come in and see me. You don't have to buy, if you don't want to. We deliver goods daily.

Hide your money in our Bank: it will be safe there.

The best place to hide money is where they have vaults for safely protecting it, every week we see newspaper accounts of people having been robbed. Sugar bowls, rag bags, under the carpet, behind pictures, and all of those other places where people conceal their money, well known to burglars. Hide it in OUR BANK, then you know that it when you want it.
