THE SPINAL COLUMN

Did you ever stop to consider any one of the many wonderful parts which comprise your body? The spinal column, the keystone of the entire anatomical structure, is one. So compactly built, yet permitting a range of movements limited only by our own negligence or abuse. So strong that the muscles attached thereto are capable of tremendous contraction. So pliant that the weight of our bodies comes in constant contact with hard street surfaces without the least jar or strain. Truly wonderful, and the most wonderful of all is that the central portion of this column forms a channel, wherein the spinal cord, or elongation of the brain, is protected from injury, and also provided with a series of distributing centers from which the vital nerve force is dispatched to all parts of the body.

The spinal column consists of thirty-three bones, of which twenty-six remain movable in normal adult life. From between each of these bones cerebro-spinal nerves, one on either side, are given off, and it will be clearly apparent that if the space between any two of these bones is lessened from any cause, the nerves issuing therefrom must be interfered with. Such is the basis of Chiropractic philosophy and the reason why Chiropractors are meeting such marvelous results in the restoration of health.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY

The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established, and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1855, and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1897.

The best education in the world is that got by struggling to get a living—Wendell Phillips.

While in Bangor Wednesday Mayor Thorndike dropped into the meeting of the Agricultural and Industrial League of Maine. This organization and the Maine State Board of Trade are to be merged into one organization known as the State Chamber of Commerce and Agricultural League. The election of officers will take place sometime between Jan. 1 and 20, and will be conducted by 16 representatives of each of the merging organizations, one representative from each county for each respective body. L. N. Littlehale, president of the Rockland Chamber of Commerce, is the Knox county representative chosen on the part of the State Board of Trade.

David Talbot, Hon. Elmer S. Bird and Mayor Thorndike attended the annual meeting of the Maine Automobile Association in Bangor Wednesday. It was voted to incorporate under the same name, and Mr. Talbot was one of the 37 directors elected. A recommendation was made that the color banding of the principal routes of highway travel be continued the coming year and one of the suggestions of the acting secretary, D. W. Hoeg, Jr., is that one of the routes be known as the Knox Highway running through Rockland, Thomaston, Waldoboro, Jefferson, North Whitefield, Randolph and Gardiner.

BOOMING THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Local Street Railway Lends Support To the New Work Undertaken By the Churches of the County.

The Knox County Electric Co. recently petitioned the Public Utilities Commission for permission to furnish transportation at one-half fare to Sunday school pupils living in the outskirts of Rockland, with a view of co-operating with the various churches in their endeavor to secure a larger attendance in Sunday schools.

The commission says: "It appearing that the petitioner's request is within the meaning of Chapter 290, Public Laws of 1917, it is ordered: That the Knox County Electric Co. be and hereby is permitted to establish transportation fare of one-half the regular fare, to be used by Sunday school pupils desiring to attend the Sunday schools in the city of Rockland. Permission is also granted allowing petitioner the authority to establish such reduced fare on one day's notice to the commission and the public."

Interviewed by The Courier-Gazette, Rev. Willard L. Pratt said: "The work on religious education in our city is receiving the most loyal support by all parties interested. Superintendent Bird of the Street Railway has just informed us that half fare tickets may be used on Sundays while going to or from Sunday school. These tickets should be purchased by the superintendents or pastors of the several schools and distributed as needed."

"This is a fine bit of co-operation on the part of the street railway, and all citizens of Rockland and other car-line towns should feel grateful to that corporation for its help in giving good moral instruction such a lift."

"It has been the policy of churches to conduct these schools in the outlying districts at Benner Hill, Ingraham Hill, Blackington's Corner and Glenview schoolhouses. Now it will be possible for all boys and girls who would like to have a good moral and religious training to get into the larger and better-fitted Sunday schools of the city, at a very low rate. It is the intention of those in charge, if a boy or girl cannot afford to pay this rate, that tickets will be provided without cost by the churches conducting the schools."

"All parents on the car lines should notice this opportunity of helping their children, and encourage them to attend the school of their choice at once. This reduced rate also refers to the other towns of this section, Camden, Rockport, Thomaston and Warren. All pastors and Sunday school workers should take advantage of this to aid their work in the several fields."

"The churches of this city are very grateful to Supt. Bird for the prompt and cordial manner in which he has co-operated in this matter, which we believe is fraught with so much good to the community."

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

Whatever your occupation may be and how ever crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.
 —Charles Elliot Norton.

COME, REST IN THIS BOSOM
 Come, rest in this bosom, my own stricken deer,
 Though the herd have fled from thee, thy home is still here.
 Here still is the smile that no cloud can overcast,
 And a heart and a hand all thy own to the last.
 Oh, what was love made for, if 'tis not the same
 Through joy and through torment, through glory and shame?
 I know not, I ask not, if guilt is in that heart,
 I but know that I love thee, whatever thou art.
 Thou has called me thy angel in moments of bliss
 And thy angel I'll be 'mid the horrors of this
 Through the furnace, unshrinking, thy steps I pursue,
 And shield thee, and save thee—or perish there too!
 —Thomas Moore.

PORTERHOUSE COD

Here is a practical suggestion that The Courier-Gazette makes for Christmas-time. Let every Rockland reader of this paragraph who has friends or relatives outside the city, near or remote, send to them by mail for Christmas gift, a box of Porterhouse Cod. Like Shakespeare's mercy, it will twice bless—it will bless him who gives and him who receives. It will bless the one by whom the appetizing package is received, for who is there that doesn't love the appealing dishes that the skillful housewife conceals of delicious salt fish? In your mind's eye behold such persons, perhaps far distant from these ocean environments, to which memory fondly returns, recalling in fancy the joys of many long-ago breakfasts. Memory calls up those maternal occasions of creamed fish, and mealy baked potatoes, and the mind is overflowed with rapture as in fancy the delicious fragrance of salt fish and pork scraps assails the discriminating nostrils.

It will bless him who gives because it will afford him opportunity in a particularly happy and practical manner to help advertise the new industrial life that is having its beginnings in Rockland. In no fashion could the story be more appositely told. This neat box of salt fish, appetizingly prepared and bearing a name that in itself strikes a note of felicity, will bring to these friends at holiday time, in a manner that nothing else could approach, the story of what is going on here in the old town on the coast of Maine.

Porterhouse Cod can be had of all the local dealers. Let our people join in this handsome and thoroughly practical piece of Christmas publicity.

Congressman Wallace H. White, Jr., has been engaged as speaker at the next meeting of the Baptist Men's League, which will be held Dec. 17. He has not fully decided upon his subject, but the lecture will be upon some timely matter, entirely apart from politics. Mr. H. Harrison has been in correspondence with Mr. White some weeks, but the Congressman has been an even busier man than Charles, and simply couldn't come at an earlier date. The League counts itself very fortunate to get him at all in these days when our national statesmen are working overtime.

Major-General Leonard Wood was induced for President of the United States by the South Dakota Republican State convention, after a spirited struggle in which Gov. Lowden of Illinois came out second best. The Democratic State convention endorsed President Wilson for a third term by a unanimous vote.

The Boston boat will make her last trip of the season when she leaves this port next Monday night. The line has been maintained at a loss for several weeks, and the cancellation of the service was not unexpected.

A. W. Gregory and William D. Talbot are in Waterville in attendance on the annual convention of the State Y. M. C. A., delegates from the Rockland Association.

THOSE CHRISTMAS SEALS

Rockland's Sale To Be Carried On By the Public Schools—Other Knox County Towns Organized For Thorough Work—Everybody Should Buy.

Will Knox county do her part in the Modern Health Crusade?
You bet your sweet life she will!

That is a slang phrase, employed merely to catch the eye of anybody who might pass by the more polished phrase that usually distinguishes The Courier-Gazette's diction.

The story has been told here at length and the public is informed of what the Red Cross Christmas Seals stand for. In every Maine county there is to be installed a public health nurse, in every Maine school is to be a course of instruction in the rudiments of good health that shall make stronger generations of children and in the progress of time eradicate tuberculosis and other preventable diseases.

Knox county is expected to provide a quota of $3400 toward the total State campaign to provide $85,000, the allotment made as follows:

Appleton	$800
Camden	350
Cushing	325
Friendship	60
Hope	60
Isle au Haut	19
Matineus	21
North Haven	60
Rockland	980
Brookport	215
South Thomaston	172
St. George	221
Thomaston	253
Union	147
Vinalhaven	250
Warren	221
Washington	95
Total for County	$3443

Chairman Pliny A. Allen, Jr., has completed his county organizations with the following town chairmen:

Appleton—B. H. Keller.
Camden—Dr. W. F. Hart.
Cushing—Miss Grace L. Maloney.
Friendship—Mr. Jameson.
Hope—Mrs. L. P. True.
North Haven—Herman Crockett.
Rockland—P. A. Allen, Jr.
Brookport—John M. Richardson.
South Thomaston—Cleveland L. Sleeper.
St. George—Rev. H. W. Rhoades.
Thomaston—Miss Elizabeth Washburn.

Union—Mrs. W. E. Haskell.
Vinalhaven—Rev. C. H. B. Seliger.
Warren—Miss M. Grace Walker.
Matineus and Isle au Haut have furnished no chairman and it is hoped that volunteers in those communities will write to Mr. Allen for a supply of the seals to be sold.

Rockland has organized its work through the zeal and efficiency of Supl. of Schools Hull who at once placed the organization of which he is the head at the service of the public in a matter of such universal importance. He called together the grade teachers, who constituted themselves a committee of the whole, each teacher taking charge of organizing the school under her charge. The High School is organized by classes.

Beginning Friday at 3 p. m. the pupils entered upon the canvass, which will be continued until next Thursday night and the announcement of the result made Friday afternoon.

"Nothing could surpass the enthusiasm with which the pupils of all ages have gone at this work," said Supl. Hull to The Courier-Gazette. "It is splendid. The work is so laid out that every home in the city will be reached."

Let the citizens respond to the ardor of the young canvassers by purchasing the Christmas Seals—not in small measure, but in a way to make the work easy.

In Brookport under Supl. Hull's direction the campaign has been organized in the schools in the same manner and the sale will begin Saturday forenoon.

Reply to the Red Cross Christmas Seals! Down with tuberculosis!

Using the Seals
Put them on your mail, use them on your Christmas packages. The post-office department has announced that from Dec. 1 to Jan. 1 the rate will be suspended that complete postmasters to hold up letters having Christmas seals on the address side. It is requested that the seals be put on the back of the envelopes, but should they be put on the face of it no harm will result.

EAST COAST BRIEVITIES

The steam trawler Fish Hawk arrived yesterday with 15,000 pounds of fresh fish, the trip having been interrupted by rough weather, in which the craft lost a portion of its gear.

Sixty fish-splitters from Nova Scotia arrived Tuesday night, and will be employed in the cutting department where that delicious Porterhouse Cod is manufactured. Considerable difficulty was experienced in finding accommodations for the new arrivals, but the local hotels swung into the breach and are providing for most of them temporarily.

The steam trawler Albatross, which has been at Portland, put to sea Thursday night.

MRS. HARRISON EMERY
Mary Adelaide (Dunbar), widow of the late Harrison Emery died Nov. 28 in a Bangor hospital. Funeral services were held last Monday at her late home in Owl's Head, Rev. W. L. Pratt of the First Baptist Church in Rockland officiating.

Mrs. Emery was born in Thomaston Jan. 12, 1846. Her married life was spent at Owl's Head, where she was an active and devoted member for many years of the Baptist church, earnest and faithful in all its branches of service. She had been a prominent factor in the affairs of Owl's Head village for a long period of years and her life was such as to inspire none but tender memories and reverence. The aged parents who made their home with her for many years were given the most loving and devoted care. Surviving Mrs. Emery are one daughter, Mrs. Parker S. Merriam, four grandchildren, Donald, Paul, Virginia and Dorothy; a brother, Adelbert Moody of Lynn, Mass., and a sister, Mrs. Medora A. Gifford, also of Lynn.

"THE BIG DEAL"

Thus Far There's Nothing To the Story About the Great Northern Paper Co.
Bumors of another big deal, bigger than the new fish industry, have been rife the past few days. They have been circulated in various forms, but the substance of the story was that the Great Northern Paper Co. had come into possession of the New England Portland Cement Co.'s properties, including the waterfront privilege at the Southend, and was to build here an enormous plant.
The Courier-Gazette traced the story to its source—the chance remark of a Rockland business man that he had just come from a place where some big figuring was being done—and his guess that it might have something to do with the Great Northern Paper Co.'s plans.
Another Rockland man, who is closer to anybody else in this section to the Great Northern Paper Co., was interviewed this morning.
"Yes," said he, "I have heard the rumor; in fact I heard it two months ago. So far as I know there is not a word of truth in it."
Much speculation has been indulged in ever since the Great Northern Paper Co. came into possession of the Georges Valley Railroad. Considerable money is being spent on the improvement of this line, and an extension is being made in Union, but for the present, at least, that's the story.
Everybody hopes there will be a sequel.

Commencing Thursday, Dec. 11, the steamer for Vinhaven will make only one trip a day.
W. H. Gulliver, attorney for the Pennsylvania Insurance Co., has filed exceptions to the recent decree of Associate Justice Dunn, which supported the contention of Harry B. Bradbury, plaintiff in the case.
King Solomon Temple Chapter conferred the Royal Arch degree Thursday night on Harry B. Bradbury, Arthur W. Brewster, Ralph C. Reed and Harry Carr. Visitors were present from Vinhaven, Camden and Thomaston. Next Thursday night there will be a special meeting for work on the Mark Master degree.

A group of girls organized as the Cambridge Camp, recently, under the guardianship of Mrs. Horatio D. Crie. The object is the highest attainments of womanhood and good citizenship. Dr. A. A. Fogg of Freeport has been in the city this week, and contemplates locating here in the practice of medicine very shortly. Dr. Fogg is a graduate of Harvard and served as house officer at the Massachusetts General Hospital. He was in the Overseas service nine months, and also made two voyages with Dr. Grenfell, the explorer.

Orel E. Davies, who has just returned from a business trip to Boston, reports conditions very discouraging in the wholesale markets, clocks and wrist watches being especially scarce articles. In fact Mr. Davies found that his own store as better stocked than one wholesale house he visited. The trouble seems to be that one watch manufacturing concern is still avoiding much of its effort to munitions. Mr. Davies was also told that some of the wholesale clothing stores have many bare shelves.

Thomas Chisholm, who conducts a candy store at The Brook, dropped in to neighbor Elwell's barber shop the other day, still wearing his white store coat. Tom is a patient waiter, and a man needs to be—in any barber shop. Eventually his turn came, when he surprised a stranger housed himself carefully into the chair. "It's this man's turn," said the barber, indicating the dismayed Tom. "Oh," apologized the stranger, "I thought he was the other barber," and now they say Mr. Chisholm is going to start a shop, using a big striped stick of candy as a barber pole.

Winslow-Holbrook Post's first meeting in the new club rooms was held last night, and those who attended were lost in admiration of the cosy and commodious quarters. An invitation was extended to Ralph Ulmer Camp of Spanish War Veterans to participate in the privileges on the same basis as the Post members. An invitation was extended by Anderson Camp, to be the Sons of Veterans' guests at a reception and banquet to be tendered in the Post's honor Dec. 16. Col. W. E. Southard, division commander of the Sons of Veterans, and commander of James Williams Post of Bangor, will be a special guest. The banquet will be followed by a dance in Odd Fellows' hall.

The dramatic presentation at the First Baptist church Wednesday of "Before and After" was enjoyed by a large and greatly interested audience. The play was a presentation of the appeal and growth of the missionary work of the Christian church. Miss Eda Knowlton took the part of the "World Work Secretary, Mrs. W. C. Grant. "Hostess of the Home" and other parts were taken by Joseph Robinson, Miss Marjory Sawyer, Miss Ruby Simpson, Miss Gladys Grant, Miss Mildred Packard, Everett Rising, Hiram Crie and Ernest Crie. The Choral Association assisted with singing, with Miss Elsa Hayden at the piano. The entertainment was prepared under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Pratt. Miss Carolyn Erskine, Miss Alice Erskine, Mrs. McCloskey and Mrs. Ralph Chaples.

Brigadier Cowan, national prison secretary of the Salvation Army; and Adjutant Perrett, New England Provincial Secretary, arrived in the city on the afternoon train, and will find that a generous slice of work has been cut out for them. Tonight they will conduct services in the Salvation Army barracks at The Brook. Sunday morning they go to Thomaston, where they will conduct a service in the State Prison at 9 o'clock, speaking later in Thomaston pulpits. The chief event in connection with their visit, however, will be the union service in Pratt Memorial M. E. Church commencing at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Mayor Thorndike will welcome and introduce the two speakers. Local pastors will participate. Rev. Howard A. Welch reading from the Scripture; Rev. J. S. Crossland offering prayer and Rev. Pliny A. Allen, Jr., pronouncing the benediction. There will also be an interesting song service. Sunday evening Brigidine Cowan and Adjutant Perrett will again address a meeting in the barracks.

The only hope of America and the world is that the whole Christian church shall re-enlist under the leadership of Christ and give evidence of that enlistment by a life of love, brotherhood, justice and service." In Social Circles Lady Astor, recently elected to the British House of Commons, is well remembered at Dark Harbor where she was a frequent visitor before her marriage to William Waldorf Astor, now Viscount Astor of the British peerage. She was then Miss Nannie Langhorne, one of the famous Langhorne beauties of Virginia and came to the island of Acre to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson at her summer home there. Miss Nannie is well remembered on the island for her beauty and charm and after their London wedding the Astors came to the Gibson cottage for a part of their honeymoon.

Mrs. Edwin Otis was the hostess of the Shakespeare Society at the last meeting, Dec. 4. The last act of "Othello" was read, finishing the work on this play. Mrs. E. D. Spear gave a criticism on "Famous Actors in This Play," in the form of a letter, from a friend in New York. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Beverage Dec. 15.

The December meeting of Lady Knox Chapter D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Blackington. After the business session, Mrs. L. F. Chase was the leader of the "Night Before Christmas," when it was decorated by the young children. Miss Annabelle Hurd was a guest of the chapter and her piano solos gave much pleasure. The dining table was decorated with a miniature Christmas tree, and the guests sat around it, for a cheerful cup of tea and the accompanying dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gillette of Lexington, Mass., are stopping at the Thorndike Hotel.

Card playing and story telling were the features of a pleasant social gathering on Grove street Thursday evening, the hostesses being the Misses Penner. Twelve young ladies and one young man were present, the male guest soon disappeared, either out of bashfulness or because of superstition. The members of the Wavenook Club had a delightful time at the home of Asad Warden Wednesday evening as guests of its matron, Mrs. Levin Bonner, who is president of the club. It was a picnic supper and the visitors brought such large supplies that they left at the hour of departure a larger amount of goodies than they had eaten at table. Great folks, those Southend women.

George, Mrs. Ralph Wiggin, Miss Kathleen Smith, Mrs. J. Snow, C. H. Duff, C. M. Keough, W. W. Spencer, Clifford Wolfe, G. A. Lawrence and Dr. A. W. Foss.

PARK THEATRE

Sauce For the Goose was exceedingly well liked yesterday, and the usual big Saturday crowds are sure to be in evidence today. Gustave Talmadge sure "em." "Scarlet Days," a D. W. Griffith melodrama dealing with the Forty-Miners is on next week's opening bill. Rosy Nell is a dance-hall girl and secretly supports her daughter in the East. But the girl's unwelcome return of her mother's calling and plans a surprise visit. A chivalrous dashing knight and two miners, one from Virginia, met the girl as she stepped off the stage in the Western mining town and plan to keep her in ignorance of her mother's life in the dance hall nearby. Just then the mother was being robbed of her savings and in fighting to prevent the robbery her assailant drops dead of heart failure and the mother is accused of the murder. The proprietor of the dance hall agrees to permit the mother to visit her daughter in the miner's cabin and spend three days with her, and these are the three happiest days of the mother's hard life. Then the proprietor covets the daughter for himself and tells her the true facts about her mother. And the attack of this villain and his horde against the miner's cabin is said to afford great thrills, and the young handmaid sends one of the miners off to the sheriff offering to give himself up for his past deeds if he will only come with a posse and rescue some women from the attacks of the dance hall crowd. Two charming romances are born of this chaos, and truth and right finally conquers in this tale of the golden west.—adv.

EMPIRE THEATRE

There are few stronger figures on the movie screen than Monroe Salisbury, who is appearing today in "The Blindman's Trail." The hero is boss of a big lumber camp. He marries a social butterfly, who deserts him in the hour of his crisis—when blindness comes and there's another woman who plays an important part in the drama.

The serial today is "Elmo the Mighty," interesting in it is steady on the increase. The bill for Monday and Tuesday is headed by "The Girl Who Came Back"—a famous play picturized. The story: Lois Hartner is the daughter of a thief and herself a "salvander" aiding her father in his burglaries. She is saved from death by George Baynard, and when later she robs the safe in the Baynard home he persuades to reform. In spite of temptations and attempted force she goes West and perseveres in her resolve. There Baynard finds her. Episode 10 of "The Midnight Man" is exceptionally thrilling.—adv.

DROWNING OF FRANK DYER

One-Armed Fisherman Who Had Survived Two Bad Accidents, Lost On the Trial Course.

Frank Dyer, a well known Rockland fisherman, was drowned on the Naval Trial Course Thursday forenoon under circumstances which will probably never be known. His companion Curtis Hinds, inclines to the opinion that it was a case of suicide, but accidental drowning is not at all improbable, as any seaman could scarcely have been heard above the noise made by the numerous power boats which were in that vicinity at the time.

Mr. Dyer operated the smack Linnie Belle, owned by A. C. Meloon. Accompanied by Curtis Hinds he left this port Thursday morning. When the fishing grounds were reached Mr. Hinds dropped off in the dory to haul trawls. Absorbed in this task for the next hour or two he did not observe that the smack was drifting rapidly away from him, and would not have attached any importance to the fact, he says, as Mr. Dyer's brother Charles was also on the fishing grounds and he would have concluded that Frank was merely going to see him.

He is survived by two children, one sister—Mrs. Jennie Peterson; and two brothers, Charles and Chester.

VINALHAVEN FISHERMEN'S PERIL

Charles Rogers Saved By a Timely Searchlight—Thomas Dyer, Jr., Cast Ashore At Metinic.

The Vinalhaven correspondent of The Courier-Gazette writes:

What was nearly a tragedy happened during Tuesday night's storm. Charles Rogers, a fisherman, while setting trawls near Seal Island was caught in the snowstorm with the wind blowing a gale and was carried out to sea. When discovered by tug Wanderer, which was throwing her searchlight trying to make the buoys, Rogers was unconscious in the bottom of his gory, with two middle ones lashed to his sides, nearly frozen and 12 miles southeast of Seal Island. He was taken on board the tug and recovered consciousness about four o'clock next morning. At 9:30 he was taken to the hospital and spent Wednesday night at the home of Samuel Bridges. Thursday morning the mail boat took him to Stonington, where he boarded Steamer Vinalhaven for North Haven. Mr. Rogers arrived home to his wife and three children late in the afternoon, walking from North Haven to Vinalhaven, a distance of nine miles.

Thomas Dyer, Jr., suffered from a similar experience in last week's gale. While pulling lobster traps out back of Hurricane Island, his gasoline engine refused service and he drifted near Metinic Island. He made three attempts to reach the shore through the surf and was washed off each time. The fourth time he made the beach, which he walked until daylight to keep from freezing. When daylight came he discovered a camp in which a family lived. He was given assistance and brought to Vinalhaven.

RESTORES VITALITY

Gives Strength to the Nervously Weak and Run-Down.

Pepiton is both medicine and food for the blood and nerves. It is in full accord with advanced science as to the proper treatment of anemia and neurasthenic conditions, in which the need of more and better nourishment is so apparent. It combines iron and manganese with nux, celery, pepsin and other tonics and digestives. It supplies the deficiency of red blood corpuscles in anemia, repairs the waste of nerve tissue in nervousness, gives color and stamina, and restores vitality.
