

For the Oxford Democrat.

Jottings from the Capitol.
Wednesday, Feb. 16, Mr. S. P. Brown, member elect from Oxford, and who since his election has been in Texas, arrived in town and took his seat in the House to-day.

The House passed a bill obliging attorneys at law, to pay over all moneys received by them on bills placed in their hands for collection, within ten days after the same is collected; and for neglecting to do so, the party to whom such collections are due can cite such delinquent attorney before the court, and if the charge is sustained, the attorney shall be held to pay the amount with cost, and have his name stricken from the list of attorneys.

A large number of petitions for and against the new county of Knox, were presented and referred.

The committee on division of towns, on petition of the citizens of Frankfort for a division of their town, after a long hearing of nearly three days, reported that the petitioners have leave to withdraw.

After the same committee had reported in favor of setting off the village in Danville and annexing it to Auburn, the demonstrators presented a petition in favor of annexing the whole town of Danville to Auburn, and an amendment being made to that effect, it was carried by a strong vote. A compromise was finally made, and the bill passed to be enacted. The compromise submitted the question of annexation of the whole town to a vote of both towns, and in case the towns vote not to annex, a commission is to be appointed by the court on application of either party, to decide upon what terms the village of Danville only shall be annexed.

Knox county got "knocked" in the committee by one majority against its formation. A minority report will be made, and a lengthy discussion in the House may yet be expected on the subject.

The committee has unanimously reported a bill in favor of the Amoscook railroad. It provides that the road shall be built by private enterprise as far as Mattawaukeet Point, and then the company shall receive state aid in the sum of five or six thousand dollars per mile for its completion.

Rev. John S. C. Abbott delivered a lecture on Friday evening. Subject: "The future of Turkey." The speaker took the ground that eventually she must be annexed to Russia.

A resolve is pending in the Senate in favor of the Maine Wesleyan Seminary, and one in the House in favor of the Seminary at Westbrook.

The weather is fine, the air soft and spring like, and appearances indicate that the heart of the winter is broken. INDEX.

Augusta, Feb. 19, 1859.

The Republican State and Congressional conventions were held in Providence, on Tuesday last week. The State Convention nominated for Governor, Thomas G. Turner, the present Lieut. Governor. Gov. Dyer, after being nominated, declined to serve. Most of the present incumbents of the other State offices were re-nominated. The Western Congressional District nominated the present incumbent, William L. Brayton, and the Eastern District nominated Thomas Davis, who four years ago was a Democratic Representative in Congress.

A late arrival from Havre announces the downfall of the Haytian Empire, which has been in existence for about ten years. The Republican army having marched into Port au Prince, on the 14th ult. The Emperor immediately abdicated, and took refuge on board an English vessel of war, and Gen. Guffard, who initiated the revolution, was proclaimed President. Souleque had reached Kingston, Jamaica. A clerk in a store in Haver street, Boston, attempted to run away with a married lady last Wednesday, but the husband was on hand in season to prevent it, met them at the cars, gave the young man a severe kicking, and took his wife home. How the couple settled the matter is not known, but the young man feels himself effectually settled so far as attempting to run off with another man's wife.

DEATH OF A GREAT MAN. Asher A. Skillings, a man of immense weight, died in New York, on Saturday, of disease of the liver. Mr. Skillings had been very corpulent for the last seven years, but latterly his obesity increased to such an extent that it was with difficulty he could walk. Two years ago he weighed 460 pounds. Since that time he continued to increase in size, until at length his weight reached the almost incredible figure of 678 pounds. This was his weight when he died. Deceased was a native of Portland, Me., thirty-nine years of age, and had kept a fish and oyster market in New York, the last fourteen years. The physicians who made the post mortem, weighed some of the internal organs—the liver weighed 16 1/2 pounds, and the heart 2 pounds 7 ounces. The fat on his abdomen was 16 inches in depth, and on the chest 7 inches.

The Virtues of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer.

Are not confined to the human race. It is used with equal success for Horses, either internally or externally. For Cuts, Scalds or Sprains, nothing is better, and for colic it is considered, by those who have had much experience, the only sure remedy. It never fails—so say all who have used it. Read the following:

RIPLEY, BROWN & Co., Ohio, 3 Dec. 9th, 1858.

Gentlemen:—This is to certify that I have given the Pain Killer to Horses for Colic, and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It gives them ease quicker than any other remedy I ever used. I give for a dose half of a twenty-five cent bottle, put it into a pint bottle of warm water, and drink them with it. I have always cured the worst cases without delay.

Yours truly, JOHN PORTER, Proprietor of Ripley Hotel, EAST LIVERPOOL, COLUMBIANA CO., O. February 12, 1858.

Gentlemen:—I feel it a duty that I owe to the public, to inform them of a successful experiment that I lately made with your Pain Killer, by applying it in a way for which I had never heard it recommended. I had a very valuable horse that was violently attacked with colic and appeared to be in great agony. I made use of every remedy I had ever heard of, but all to no purpose. I gave him up to die, and in fact he was so far gone, that he lay and could not raise his head, or hold it up when lifted. A thought struck me that I would give him a dose of Pain Killer. I poured four or five spoonfuls in a pint of milk, and gave it to him, and in twenty minutes he was much more, and in half an hour he was on his feet, and in another half hour was perfectly restored and put in the harness. Respectfully yours, N. JACKMAN.

We would advise the Pain Killer to be given to Horses, for Colic, with milk or warm molasses and water, say a pint of either to a small twenty cent bottle of Pain Killer. If the horse has colic, it is best to give the Pain Killer.

We here repeat every one who shall be so unfortunate as to have a horse with colic, to test our remedy—we never knew it to fail. One, two, and sometimes three doses may be required—but not after more than one to cure.

Sold by all dealers in medicine.

Scrofula Cured in Twenty Days.

William Miles, aged 37, had been afflicted with Scrofula for 11 years. On the 1st of August, by the advice of Dr. Wm. Root, of Marietta, Ga., he commenced the use of Railway's Renovating Resolvent. In 6 hours he felt a change for the better; in 12 hours small pustules were seen erupting the whole surface of the body; in 24 hours he was covered with discharging sores. He still took the Resolvent freely, but finding his bowels very constipated, he took six of Railway's Regulators. They operated powerfully and pleasantly. He afterward took one Regulator at night. The sores ceased some irritation, which he allayed by bathing them with the Resolvent. The fourth day the sores all healed up. He continued the Resolvent and Regulators for 20 days. Since the last day, which was on the night of the 20th day, he has not experienced any returning symptoms or eruptions. His blood is pure, skin clear, and bowels regular. R. M. R.
