WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC?
(Ki-ro-prak-tik)
It Is Not Medicine; Not Surgery; Not Osteopathy
It is a scientific method of adjusting the cause of disease without drugs or instruments, based on a correct knowledge of anatomy, and especially the nervous system. The Chiropractic idea is that the cause of disease is in the person afflicted, and the adjustment in correcting the wrong that is producing it. The function of every organ in the body is controlled by mental impulses from the brain, which it transmits through the nerves. Any impingement of these nerves interfering with the transmission of mental impulses results in an abnormal function called disease. This interference is produced by subluxated vertebrae pressing upon nerves as they pass out from the spinal cord. The trained Adjuster is able to locate the point of obstruction or interference, and by means of adjusting the subluxated vertebrae corrects the cause, and normal conditions, or health, is the result.
Investigation costs nothing, and means health and happiness.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY
The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established, and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1885, and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1894.

TALBOT AVENUE
Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
Let us not be found lagging in our duty. May we promptly place that most appropriate name of Talbot avenue on what is now called Camden street. Because of its beautiful view of the bay, Camden street is the boulevard of a greater Rockland in the making. And that we forget, our spring repair work should be well done each year on this long stretch of highway, to cement our good will and honor toward the memory of that public-spirited man, David Talbot. Lodges or other organizations desiring to make a Christmas present to the Salvation Army are asked to make the checks payable to the Salvation Army incorporated.

Special Vestry Meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m., at 299 Broadway, to elect a clerk and a treasurer for the coming year.
Tuesday, St. Thomas' Day, Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m.; in the chapel.
Saturday, Dec. 25th, CHRISTMAS DAY, the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord, is a very great feast, when every Christian should be present at a service, and every confirmed person, as far as possible, should receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m.; Holy Communion with shortened Morning Prayer and music, but no sermon, at 10:30.
Sunday, Dec. 26th, St. Stephen's Day, Christmas Communion continued. Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m.; Holy Communion with music and sermon at 10:30; the Church School with the Christmas Pageant at 3; no services at 12:15 or at 4.
The Christmas Offering is included in the parish year which ends Dec. 31st, and all are asked to have their envelopes in by that date; we have a reasonable hope of meeting the new year with all this year's expenses met. Those who have weekly envelope pledges can help secure this result by seeing that all their envelopes are in by Dec. 26th.
The relief of the three and a half million starving children of Europe, of which Mr. Herbert Hoover is in charge, is still before us and the rest of the American people; see parish notes of Dec. 4th. ## KNOX COUNTY'S QUOTA $6000

What We Must Do To Help the Starving and Afflicted Across the Seas.

The country is now engaged in another great humanitarian project, the raising of $33,000,000 for Herbert Hoover's European Relief Council. Merged into this great undertaking are eight powerful organizations the American Relief Administration, American Red Cross, American Friends Service Committee, (Quakers); Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Knox county's quota is $6,000, and the local machinery for obtaining that fund was set in motion Thursday, following a visit by Edward F. Moody, who came here as the personal representative of State Chairman Herbert J. Brown of Portland.

Arthur L. Orne, who handled war loan drives so successfully for Knox county, has been appointed county director for this campaign and the following chairmen have been named for the larger towns: Camden, George E. Allen; Rockport, Charles S. Gardner; Vinalhaven, Rev. Charles Seliger; Thomaston, Joseph W. Emery.

A public appeal will be made from the local pulpits Sunday night, and the campaign will begin Monday, occupying about 10 days. In this case there will be no house to house canvass but there will be personal interviews with a few hundred citizens in each town. The City Club has guaranteed its cordial support and behind the movement will also be industrial leaders, bankers, and other men of prominence.

Waterville has already exceeded its quota.

During the winter 3,500,000 children in Eastern and Central Europe will starve unless assistance is forthcoming from friends in America, Mr. Hoover says.

More than 3,000 food kitchens, supported by the American Relief Administration, European Children's Fund, for the past year and a half, will cease operations Jan. 1, if the appeal issued to the people of New England goes unanswered. One meal a day consisting of soup and cocoa was furnished to 6,000,000 children at these kitchens during 1919. It is believed here that the harvest of 1921 will find the stricken countries able to meet their obligations to the children kept alive since the war by American food.

Conditions have been greatly alleviated by relief operations since the armistice. Nearly a million pairs of shoes, stockings and overcoats were distributed in Europe by the American Relief Administration.

Poland, ravaged and made destitute by the war, and the subsequent advance of the Bolsheviks on Warsaw, is perhaps in a worse plight than any of the other countries.

American Relief representatives say that the coming winter, with an unprecedented shortage of food and fuel, will mean an almost complete famine for the cities. Many of the refugees in the eastern districts and practically all the people in that part of the country swept by the Bolshevik troops crowded into the cities and are in great destitution.

In order to meet this situation the American Relief Administration has inaugurated a system of Food Drafts whereby friends or relatives in this country can purchase a Food Draft made payable to a stated person in Europe. Such drafts are "cashed" at

HOW YOU CAN AID

A List of Opportunities For Exercising Christmas Spirit Among Deserving Families.

Opportunities for aiding the less fortunate ones are always in evidence, but particularly at the Christmas season do want and privation impress us. The Courier-Gazette today through the instrumentality of Miss Corbett presents a list of opportunities, whereby the citizens of Rockland can spread sunshine in a number of Rockland homes, and brighten a holiday season which would be dark and dreary, if not marked by actual suffering. Do not turn a deaf ear to an appeal. You did your bit right nobly during the war; do it now.

All contributions should be sent to Miss Helen Corbett, Spring street, Rockland, Me.

Opportunity No. 1.—Family of seven, father, mother and five children. The father sick. Shoes, stockings and underwear needed for the whole family. The children are all under eight years.

Opportunity No. 2.—A very old woman with a broken hip absolutely dependent upon friends. Needs fuel and groceries.

Opportunity No. 3.—Family of eight, six children, 3 to 13 years. All need underclothes but one. A dress for a girl of 9 is needed; also coat for a boy of 13, and outside clothes for some of the other children.

Opportunity No. 4.—A mother with five children, 2 to 11 years. The children all need shoes and stockings. The mother is willing to make over clothes.

Opportunity No. 5.—A family of five, mother and four children, 6 to 13 years. Need shoes for two of the children; also stockings, petticoats and dresses, for the others. The mother is willing to make dresses if she can have the material.

Opportunity No. 6.—A mother with six children. All have shoes, but are in great need of stockings and underclothes. The children range from 3 to 12.

Opportunity No. 7.—Father has deserted family. The mother wants outside coat for girls 2 and 8; also shoes and rubbers for three children.

Opportunity No. 8.—A family of nine. All of the children need underclothes and stockings. Boy of 8 years needs an overcoat.

Opportunity No. 9.—A family with five children needs stockings, shoes and mittens 6 to 12 years. Pants wanted for boys 8, 10 and 12.

Opportunity No. 10.—Father out of work. Does odd jobs when he can get them. Children 1½, 3, 10 and 12 have stockings and underwear but need shoes. Two little girls, the youngest and the one 3 years old, need dresses.

Capt. George E. Horton arrived at his home in this city Tuesday after an absence of nine months, in which time he has been to the United Kingdom, France, Spain, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Russia and other European countries. He was at Uleaborg, Finland, June 24, and witnessed the annual celebration of "Midsummer Night" when the sun does not set. The trip from Glasgow, Scotland, to Baltimore, on steamship Monmouth, occupied 27 days, owing to continuous storms of wind, rain, snow and sleet, with thunder and lightning thrown in for good measure. The ship is now at Baltimore undergoing extensive repairs due to the western gales.

Few persons realize the great task which Foreman Young and his crew of linemen had during the last storm in maintaining light and power service from Camden to Warren. Seven poles were snapped, and the lines were continually entangled, requiring the most strenuous effort on the part of the 10 men who were on the job for a period of 40 hours. The track covered a total distance of 80 miles. Rockland was shut out for a period of only 20 minutes, and that a period which was the least inconvenient. Good job boys, and you fully deserve the public's praise.

Rex Peacock, who has been connected with the Central Maine Power Co. as security salesman since last March, has tendered his resignation. Mr. Peacock made his headquarters in Rockland most of the time and incidentally coached the High School football team. Leaves lots of friends here.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

Whatever your occupation may be and how ever crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.

THIRTY-FIVE
Of in danger yet alive,
We come to thirty-five;
Long may better years arrive,
But years that thirty-five
Could philosophers contrive
Life to stop at thirty-five.
Time his hours should never drive
Over the bounds of thirty-five.
High to soar and deep to dive
Nature gives at thirty-five.
Ladies, stock and tend your hive,
Trifle not at thirty-five.
For, however we build and strive,
Life declines from thirty-five;
He that ever hopes to thrive
Must begin by thirty-five.
And all who wisely wish to live
Should not delay at thirty-five.

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Rockland, Maine, December 18, 1920.
Personally appeared Nell S. Perry, who on oath declares that she is pressman in the office of the Rockland Publishing Co., and that of the issue of The Courier-Gazette of Dec. 16, 1920, there was printed a total of 5,988 copies. Before me, FRANK B. MILLER, Notary Public.

In another column are published the balance sheets of the East Coast Fisheries Company and East Coast Fisheries Products Company, as printed in the current issue of the Fishing Gazette. The Gazette is probably the leading paper devoted exclusively to the fishing industry, in this country, but it has made no pretence of concealing its hostility to I. M. Taylor, late president of the above named companies, and in recent issues has given caustic and unparaphrasing treatment of Mr. Taylor personally and the industry as he managed it. This is the Fishing Gazette's quarrel, purely and simply. The Courier-Gazette desires no part in it, and reproduces the financial statement only because it is legitimate and public property, and the information contained therein is highly interesting.

THE OWL'S HEAD SIDE*A Taxpayer Answers Statements Credited To Selectman Sleeper—Wants Town To Progress.

The Courier-Gazette office was visited yesterday by two prominent citizens of Owl's Head, who were desirous of refuting the statements made in another newspaper by W. P. Sleeper, chairman of the board of selectmen.

"We expected opposition," said the spokesman, "but we never started anything at Owl's Head that was not opposed by somebody at The Keak. In fact the oldest inhabitant of Owl's Head cannot remember when it received justice from the leaders over in South Thomaston.

"Mr. Sleeper says that if the proposed division took place Owl's Head would have but 13 miles of road 'practically all of it modern, improved road.' Mr. Sleeper's statement as to there being 13 miles of road in the proposed town is correct, but if the measurements I have made are correct there are not much more than 40 miles of road in the whole town, which would certainly not leave 40 miles for South Thomaston to take care of. The Keak section of the town has about 19 miles of highway, five of which are State-built, and there are also two miles of State road in our part of the town which the Keak people travel over. All of this State road we have helped build.

"As to the 'modern improved roads' in our part of the town we had not supposed that such high sounding words were bestowed on cow-paths. They say that they expended $1500 on that back road in 1918. But the county commissioners forced them to do it, and they did what we call a mighty poor job. We want to build something fit to ride over, and believe that we can do it, if we are a town by ourselves.

"Mr. Sleeper says that if the town is divided it would take away $304,704, leaving South Thomaston, but $190,776. If that is the case our section is very much over-assessed. At the meeting Tuesday night it was hinted that some of the Owl's Head people did not pay their taxes. If they will scan the 1919 report they will see that one of the most prominent leaders of the opposition has not much to say in that direction.

"We have been conducting two schools in the village of Owl's Head, one at each end of the town, and it was our purpose to discontinue both and build midway between them, a new one which would be a decent place for our children to attend. We tried to get this done at the last town meeting, but the article was passed over, even though it was recommended by the State superintendent of schools and the town superintendent—though not by the school board. This is why Mr. Bain refused to accept a position on the school board.

"We want to have a new town so we can improve our roads and build up the summer business. In other words if we see fit to make progress we want to be in a position to do so."

Herbert R. Day and L. Reuben Chandler, former shining lights in the express office, have enlisted in the Army.

STATE OF MAINE

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled:
The undersigned citizens of South Thomaston in County of Knox, respectfully request that said town may be divided and a new town incorporated under the name of Owl's Head, the boundaries of which shall be substantially as follows: Beginning at a point in Rockland Harbor and on the southerly line of the City of Rockland, thence southerly along said line to Marsh Brook; then southerly, in a straight line, to the head of Ballymore Cove; thence southerly by a line through the centre of said cove to the thread of Westaway River; thence southerly, by the thread of said river to the town line of South Thomaston; thence following said town line to the place of beginning.

Your petitioners hereby express their willingness to assume one-half of the debt of said Town of South Thomaston, and are in duty bound will ever pray.

Notice is hereby given that the Legislature at its next session will be asked to act in accordance with the foregoing petition.

ANNUAL MEETING
THE ROCKLAND NATIONAL BANK
Rockland, Me. Dec. 8, 1920
To the Stockholders: Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Rockland National Bank will be held at its banking rooms on Tuesday, January 11, 1921, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

NEW SHERIFF'S APPOINTMENTS*W. Lester Rokes To Be Turnkey and C. E. Heckbert First Deputy—Miss Corbett First Woman Appointed.

The announcement of deputy sheriff appointments, which the people of Knox county have been awaiting with much interest, was made yesterday by Sheriff-elect Raymond E. Thurston of Union with the exception of the Vinal-haven, Rockport and Isle au Haut deputies, who have not yet been selected. The new sheriff had much excellent material to select from and in the case where there was more than one candidate for the position, he has placed the matter entirely in the hands of the town committee, feeling that in this manner the fairest expression of his constituents could be obtained.

SEIZED A SCHOONER*Several File Claims Against the George W. Collins, Whose Owner Is Fugitive From Justice.

The little two-masted schooner George W. Collins, now lying at the Fred R. Spear wharf, was seized yesterday by U. S. Deputy Marshal Harmon on a libel issued by the U. S. District Court in Portland. Motion has already been filed for the immediate sale of the craft, on the ground that it is being kept at great expense.

Action was taken to satisfy the claim of E. C. Patterson, a Southend grocer who furnished the vessel with supplies, and was immediately followed by three intervening libels, one of which was filed by George A. Hendricks, who has been in charge of the vessel since its owner and commander, Capt. C. L. Hurd, was incarcerated in Knox County Jail on the charge of criminal assault upon a young girl whom he had adopted.

The grand jury of the January term of Knox County Supreme Court was to have acted upon Capt. Hurd's case, but the prisoner forestalled it by escaping two weeks ago, and is still a fugitive. Not a trace of him has been gained since he left the county jail. He may never have left the city, but the chances are considered good that he made a bee line for the Canadian border.

The various libellants in the case are represented by Charles T. Smalley.

MRS. JAMES FISKE

Emeretta (Thorndike), wife of James D. Fiske, died early Thursday morning at her home, 64 Mechanic street, after an illness of about two months. The funeral services will be held there Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. S. Croswell officiating.

The deceased was in her 75th year, a daughter of the late Capt. Eben Thorndike and Barbara (Linnekin) Thorndike. Her father was lost off the coast of Ireland when she was six years of age. Her marriage to Mr. Fiske took place 52 years ago last March and her domestic career of more than half a century was filled with kindly and affectionate deeds which will have for their heritage the affectionate memory of a worshipping family and the large circle of friends who had found so much in her life to love and revere. Mrs. Fiske's death was due to an incurable disease—its nature unsuspected, and its action swift once it had manifested itself.

The deceased united with the First Baptist church under the pastorate of Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk and was also a member of the W. C. T. U. She is survived by her husband, three daughters—Mrs. Frances Burrows of Thomaston, Mrs. Ada Dazell of Rockland and Mrs. Karl B. Sturgis of Howard.

Mr. Fiske was born in Attleboro, Mass.; a half-sister, Mrs. Lucinda Kaler of Glen Cove; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. One of her grandchildren, Charles Oliver Fiske, died in France during the war.

MRS. L. A. TOLMAN

Mrs. Lillious Adelia Tolman, widow of the late James Tolman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willis Snow, Lake avenue, Wednesday morning at the age of 81 years.

Mrs. Tolman was born in Rockland, daughter of Orris R. and Mary (Ingraham) Butler. She was married to James T. Tolman Aug. 25, 1860. Six children were born to her—Ernest L. and Gardner L., who reside at the old homestead, West Meadow road, Thomaston; Charles A. of Portsmouth, N. H.; and Susan, wife of Willis Snow of Lake avenue, this city, with whom she lived the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolman resided at the Tolman farm during their entire married life, which was 53 years. Mr. Tolman dying Dec. 20, 1913. They celebrated their 50th anniversary Aug. 25, 1910.

Mrs. Tolman will be missed greatly by the daughter with whom she has had such close companionship for so many years. Their life has been almost inseparable. She was a home loving woman, thoughtful of the well being of her husband and children, and of all others near of kin. She was a kind neighbor and friend and a lifelong member of the First Baptist church.

Besides her four children Mrs. Tolman leaves one brother and two sisters, Mortimer L. Butler, Warren; Mrs. Susan Butler, South Thomaston; and Mrs. Ella Lente, Hartford, Conn.

SMITHS REGAIN LEAD
The well-known Smiths have gained their numerical prestige in nomenclature it is revealed by New York City's new directory issued Monday. Last year they were several columns behind the combined list of Cohans, Cohens and Cohns, but the Smiths—exclusive of Schmidts and Schmits, have leaped into the lead again by more than four columns or about 500 names.

The Victrola Means a Merrier Christmas

There is something really Christmassy about the Victrola; it brings with it happiness for all the year. Like the old-fashioned fireplace, it becomes a rallying point for the whole family. And as for true Christmas spirit—nothing is more welcome than Victor Records, when they are chosen with the particular taste of the recipient in mind. We can help you choose just the Victrola that will delight the folks. Drop in today and hear some of the world's greatest artists, perfectly reproduced by Victor Records.

XMAS MONEY re-invested in a Victrola pays large interest to the whole family the year round.

Virginia, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, fell from a chamber window in their Southend home, a distance of 14 feet, Wednesday afternoon, but outside of a bad shaking up was uninjured.

Rev. B. P. Browne, pastor of the Essex Street Baptist Church in Bangor, who was recently called to the First Baptist Church in this city, has not yet decided as to whether he will accept. The Bangor News says: "Mr. Browne is one of Bangor's prominent ministers and was well known even the State four years ago as the Boy Minister because of his youth. He has made a great success of the work at the Essex street church and is loved and respected by the members and especially the young people. He is teacher of a live class of young men."

Few stock companies have ever made a more favorable impression in Rockland than the Joseph W. Payton Co., which closes its local engagement today. Those who did not see "Fog of My Heart," Tuesday, on account of the storm, will have a chance this afternoon for it is being repeated, by request. Tonight, "What Happened at 9.45." Don't miss either.

Rocco G. Luciano of Boston, who was formerly attached to the Naval Training Station in this city, is substituting at the Western Union telegraph office during the temporary absence of Frank Clark, and renewing the many acquaintances he made during his stay in Rockland.

Bansford W. Shaw of Houlton, a candidate for attorney-general, has been canvassing the Knox county members of Legislature this week.

George N. Carpenter of Castine has received recognition from his class at Harvard College by being nominated for the photographic committee of the senior class. The elections will be held soon. The photographic committee is in charge of the publication of the Senior Album, which is one of the features of the graduating classes at Harvard.

Schoner Wavenock is at the South Railway for repairs.—The Show Marine Co has sold the steam lighter Cornelia to Boston parties, and it is now in commission there.—Schooner Jane Palmer, Capt. M. J. Marston, sailed from Norfolk Dec. 13, with coal for Buenos Aires.

The Salvation Army is planning two big mass meetings for Sunday. The first will be held in the Camden Y. M. C. A. rooms at 3 p. m. and the second will be held in Park Theatre at 8.30 p. m. Major Thomas Hughes of Boston, who is the Army's prison secretary for New England, and Brigadier John Sprague of Portland will conduct the service also tonight's meeting at 7.30 in the Army hall. Both have been in the service more than 25 years.

Joseph Mealey is visiting in Rockland after an absence of four years, accompanied by Mrs. Mealey. They will remain until after the holidays, when Mr. Mealey's new business as one of the proprietors of Blackwell & Mealey's United Shows, will call him to New Orleans where the Carnival opens for the season. The enterprise is one of considerable proportions, consisting of eight flat cars, three stateroom cars and four box cars. The Carnival exhibited in the Middle West and Pennsylvania last season, and is now in winter quarters at Greensboro, N. C. It will return to the New England States next summer. During the latter part of Major Curley's administration Mr. Mealey was a schoolhouse inspector in Boston. The world has been using him very favorably since he left Rockland, and he looks the part of a prosperous showman.

If the Knox county basketball teams are looking for any snags with Lincoln Academy this winter they may have occasion to revise their estimate, for the Newcastle students have thus far been licking everything in sight. Their latest victim was Freeport High which was defeated 27 to 10. Roy appears to be the Lincoln Academy star, but the Lincoln County News also makes complimentary mention of Schroeder and Gay.

Last night's meeting of King Hiram Council was the first under the new administration of Thrice Illustrious Master John L. Tewksbury, and was also one of the largest in the history of the Council. The supper was served by the Eastern Star, being the 18th and last served under the direction of Mrs. R. V. Stevenson, the retiring matron of Golden Rod Chapter, who is to be congratulated on her success. The Royal and Select Masters' and Super Excellent Masters' degrees were conferred upon the following large class: R. L. Rose, C. R. Felton, G. H. Glantz, K. L. Norton, E. L. Bracy, G. L. ## OFFICER CONDON'S STORY

Which Indicates That the John Busha Highwayman Yarn Was Made of Flimsy Material.

Reports current throughout the city to the effect that John Busha had been beaten up and robbed early Thursday morning have their anti-climax in the statement of Percy Condon, patrolman for that district. According to his story the highwayman named J. Barleycorn, who was supposed to be rusticated in Canada or Cuba but with whom Mr. Busha seems to still have an intimate acquaintance.

Here is Patrolman Condon's story, as told to The Courier-Gazette reporter yesterday:

"At 2.40 Thursday morning I saw Busha go into Park place, apparently sober. He was gone only a few minutes, but when he came back he was reeling and there was blood on his face. He went by the hotel into the alleyway back of his shop, and sat down. Followed him there, and helped him into his place. He asked me not to arrest him but made no mention of having lost money. He did say, however, that he had licked five or six men. I went back to Park place, but failed to find any traces of the gaudy battle that Mr. Busha described. I did find a fat roll in an envelope marked 'John Busha,' lying in the mud. I called Edward Studley from the hotel and together we counted the money. The envelope contained $304."

"I reported the matter to Deputy Marshal Fernald at 4.30 and the money was returned to Mrs. Busha. I would not give it to John in the condition he was at that time."

"I know that I am being knocked by certain men who ought to be doing their duty instead, but I have played the game fairly and honestly since I have been on the force, and I am perfectly willing for the public to judge whether I am on the job and doing my duty. I feel that I have had a raw deal in this John Busha matter, and I want him to understand that I am all done acting as a nurse to drunks."

The steamship Riverside Bridge, which was disabled 500 miles east of Boston a week ago, is being towed into New York by the steamship Bellhaven, and may arrive there today, according to radio messages, which are being received through the East Coast station in this city by Mrs. Harold J. Philbrook, wife of the commander of the Riverside Bridge. Capt. Philbrook was completing his second voyage in the new steamship having carried grain from Roumania to England, after discharging a miscellaneous cargo in Constantinople.

Less than five weeks to the 6th annual Commercial Travelers' banquet at Hotel Rockland, the precise date being Jan. 20. Bob Green is morally certain to handle the reins again.

The Chapin Class will meet in the vestry of the Universalist church Monday evening of next week. A good attendance is earnestly hoped for, as there is important work to be completed for Miss Corbett before Christmas.

The second game in the Inter-City bowling series took place at Colcord's alleys last night, when Colcord's team knocked down 221 pins, and Kennedy's team toppled 2130. Summary next issue.

Night Clerk A. C. Ingraham of the Thorndike Hotel is having a week's vacation, and the midnight habitués confess to being decidedly lonesome.

Who dares call this winter, Charles S. Maxey hands us a dandelion which he found on the premises of S. J. Candage, Camden street Thursday night. His little lantern, and Grover Knight of Thomaston added a pansy which he picked yesterday. Latest: A whole bouquet of pansies, picked yesterday by Mrs. Walter J. Fernald.

In the midst of her activities in behalf of the Community Christmas Tree and her larger duties as city matron, Miss Helen Corbett paused long enough yesterday to express indignation at the landlord, who is said to have warned a family out of one of his rents at the Northend with only one day's notice, and owing only one month's rent. There are five children and it has cost $11 a week to support the family. The father has been earning $2.50 a day, but is at present out of employment. Miss Corbett immediately saw to it that the family will not lose its shelter.

Tomorrow will be observed as Christmas Sunday by the Congregational church. Mr. Rounds will preach on the theme, "The Word Made Flesh." The musical program will include a solo by Harold Greene, "Holy Night," by Adam, with a violin obligato by Miss Augusta Talbot; a solo by Mrs. Joyce, the "Ave Maria," by Gounod; and two numbers by the quartet, "Sing, O Heavens," by Tours, and "Hail the King," by Bartlett. Miss Talbot will play "The Adoration" by Borowski a violin solo. The decorations of the church will be in keeping with the day. The church school will convene at the noon hour. The public is cordially invited to these services.

The officers of Claremont Commandery, K. T. were installed Wednesday night by A. H. Newbert, with E. K. Gould assisting as grand marshal, and Rev. Charles Seliger as grand prelate. A list of the elective officers was published at the time of the annual meeting. Eminent Commander George T. Stewart's appointments were: Guards, Capt. Israel Snow, Ernest A. Gamage and Charles L. Robinson; color-bearer, Henry C. Chatto. Music by Marsh's Orchestra and vocal solos by Miss Gladys S. Jones added most pleasingly to the impressive exercises. Dancing followed, the floor being in charge of H. E. Robinson, Leo E. Howard and E. J. Philbrook. Camden Commandery sent down a good sized delegation, the members of which congratulated themselves when they finally arrived safely in the hall. They had scarcely left home before the motor burned out in the car which was bringing them. They were transferred to another car which got along first rate until it had nearly reached Masonic Temple, when it figured in a head-on collision. Nobody was hurt, but the six knights were badly shaken up.

Winslow-Holbrook Post American Legion, incorporated last night with these officers: William S. Mealey, president; Joseph Robinson, treasurer; William G. Williams, secretary; Walter H. Butler, E. C. Moran, Jr. and Adriel U. Bird, trustees.

Christmas offerings will be taken at this service for the Deaconess Hospital in Boston.

MR. ALLEN'S CHALLENGE

To the Editor of The Courier-Gazette: Will you kindly state through your paper that I intend to defend my title of champion of Maine against all comers this season and consider this a challenge to any one who has reason to dispute my claim to the championship. Considering the fine work done by Fred Mealey in the races thus far it seems that he ought to have the first chance of getting the championship if he so wishes. Therefore if Mealey really wants a crack at the title he can have it at the rink next Thursday night, Dec. 23. What say, Jeff?

(Signed) Frank B. Allen.

P. S.—My challenge still stands to any two skaters in Rockland to skate me in relays.

The regular meeting of Miriam Rebekah Lodge will be held Tuesday night. Circle supper at 6 o'clock. A meeting of the circle will be held immediately following the supper.

Bread heads the list of foods that assure fitness. If your child isn't well nourished, he isn't properly equipped to climb the ladder of life. The physical defects and lack of endurance that result from malnutrition are a terrible handicap.

Whenever you see a kiddie who has the Bread-and-milk habit, you see one who is hardy, well-developed, strong to resist the diseases of childhood. The more Bread-and-milk eaten, the more abounding the health enjoyed.

FOGG'S RECOLLECTIONS

About the Early Days At Clark's Island—Why His Father's Sheep Never Increased.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

In some of the late issues of your paper I notice letters from Boze, G. E. Reed and M. M. Brown. The last one inquires for Ross Mitchell. I knew him well. After he left Clark's Island he kept a hotel in Belfast for several years and the last I knew of him was in August.

I worked on Clark's Island from my early boyhood days and think I know something about it. When a boy of 14 we had a patch of potatoes just below where the Ashworth house later stood. My father, my younger brother and myself were digging the potatoes. One of the old settlers, who was new to the island, asked me if I could have what potatoes he could find by digging over the same ground we had dug. He got permission to dig after we went home at night. When we commenced work the next morning he came where we were and said to father, "After you went home last night I dug this ground over where you had dug and I got six bushels of potatoes." After he had gone father said to us boys, "I know how the old cuss did it. When we were up to the house yesterday he stole a lot of potatoes and hid them in the bushes and after we went home last night he came and carried them home. I have dug potatoes enough to know when they are dug clean."

G. E. Reed writes about father's sheep. There may have been 50 in the flock, but never 100. The same man who got the potatoes when he felt hungry for a rabbit would go on Clark's Island and shoot one or two of father's sheep and the next day would be in "Tommy's" harbor selling mutton. It was always a mystery to father why his flock of sheep never increased. Some years after he died the mystery was solved. I know of three men who went in a boat from what is known as the Wheeler District to Clark's Island and each one brought home a sheep he had shot. One of their neighbors found it out and they gave him a portion of one of the sheep to keep his tongue still—which he did for several years, and then "blowed" on them. There were others who kept the flock from increasing.

I wonder if M. M. Brown was on the island when Conary's house was burned and if he ever knew how many live bed-bugs were lost in that fire. Those "chaps" always had a great liking for me. In my boyhood days all of that part of the island had just written of was covered with a growth of scrub spruce trees, and used only for a sheep pasture.

About 1867 my brother Alvin set a fire to burn some rubbish. It got away from him into that growth of trees and everything being very dry, it burnt not only the trees but the soil, leaving nothing but the ledges where the Clark's Island Granite Co. later quarried tens of thousands of tons of granite. There is a hole there now, perhaps 30 feet deep, and maybe 300 feet across. Previous to that no one knew there was any granite under that soil.

L. E. Fogg.
South Thomaston, Dec. 15.

SUMMONS FOR "SCUFFLETOWN"

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

And now comes Charlie Godfrey, Ye Ed, and various others, and say to the best of their knowledge and belief that "There ain't no such place as Scuffletown." Wherefore we do pray that the party who claimed that the above named place existed be required to produce evidence to that effect or forever after hold his peace.

Before me this 15th day of December, 1920, in Boston, Mass.

Albion B. Crocker,

Justice of the Peace, Commission signed by Calvin Coolidge, Nov. 3, 1920.

EAST UNION

Mrs. Lucy A. Dornan.

Mrs. Lucy A. Dornan, widow of the late James Dornan, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Payson, Dec. 11 had been in feeble health for a number of years, yet was able to be about the house and to assist in the work until a few days previous to her death when she sustained a paralytic shock and being in a weakened condition was unable to rally. She retained consciousness until the last and showed the same remarkable patience and courage which had characterized her entire life, yet she realized the end was near and with that blessed assurance that "All is Well," her quiet gentle spirit entered into eternal rest. Her last hours were greatly comforted and made happy by the presence of all her children at her bedside. Her daughter, Mrs. Winston, came from Mechanicsburg, Pa., to be with her mother. The sudden death of this estimable woman has cast a gloom over the entire community where she had been a resident for more than 30 years. By her gentle and sympathetic manner she had endeared herself to all for none knew her well but to know her worth. As a mother and grandmother she was loved for the untiring devotion to her family, her own great pleasure was to be helpful for the welfare and comfort of those around her. She was especially fond of children, always doing some kind act to please and make them happy and her memory will long live in the hearts of the little ones whom she loved.

Mrs. Dornan was born in Bluehill, Nov. 16, 1853, daughter of Warren and Mahalia (Herrick) Bunker. In 1871 she was married to Mr. Dornan, and six children were born to them, five of whom are now living, W. E. Dornan and Mrs. A. W. Payson of this place, Mrs. T. R. Winston of Mechanicsburg, Pa., Mrs. Leon Howard of Rockland and Mrs. Maynard Bowley of South Hope.

Besides she is survived by seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild, also one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Heath of Bucksport. Funeral services were held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Payson with a large attendance, Rev. C. F. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church, Union, officiating. She was surrounded by many beautiful floral offerings placed beside her in loving remembrance. It was the request of the deceased that her grandsons should be her bearers.

ROCKPORT

Mrs. Eliza Jones has returned from Roxbury where she was the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Marshall E. Reed.

Brainerd Paul is substituting in the Post Office, during the illness of Miss Florence Corbitt.

Earl Grant and family are moving into Mrs. Nettie Shepherd's house, recently vacated by Frank Kennedy.

The regular meeting of Harbor Light Chapter, O. E. S., will be held next Tuesday evening. A picnic supper will be served at 6 o'clock. It is expected that there will be work on several candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wentworth and daughter, Florence are visiting Mrs. Wentworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Madden, in Augusta.

The pupils of the 8th and 9th grades, Miss Harriet Wentworth teacher, have sold over $50 worth of Christmas seals for the benefit of the Maine Public Health Association. The pupils have manifested much interest in the sale and under the efficient leadership of their teacher organized two teams, the Red and the Blue, with Milford Payson and Helen Clancy as captains. The contest has been very close and at this writing it is not known which will be the winning team.

Capt. Frank Peterson is circulating a petition for Postmaster, and already has secured the names of many of the citizens of town.

The town schools closed Friday for the Christmas vacation of one week. The rooms of the lower grades were very attractive with the Christmas decorations. The teachers of the different grades including Miss Harriet Wentworth, Mrs. Elizabeth Libby, Miss Marie Lunden, Miss Bertha Davis on the East Side, Mrs. Augusta Butler, and Miss Hortense Bohndell on the West side, had trees for their pupils and the last half hour of Friday's session was devoted to the Christmas exercises, which were enjoyed by both teachers and pupils.

Eben C. Crockett picked a spray of buttercups Thursday. They were as bright and perfect as in their season. Services at the Baptist church Sunday as follows: preaching at 10.30 a. m. by the pastor, subject, "The Pilgrim Ambassadors of God;" Sunday school at noon; Junior Endeavor at 3 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; Gospel service at 7 p. m.; Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 p. m. You are cordially invited to these services.

A meeting of the Red Cross is called for Monday evening at 7.30 in R. W. Carleton's office, when officers will be elected. The members will see what can be done in the way of Home Service work, to provide comfortable clothing for the children of the town, and to give help wherever needed. Anyone having toys or clothing to donate is urged to do so; also to report to Mrs. H. L. Withee, secretary, of any worthy cases where help would be acceptable. It is hoped that all members will be interested and that much good may be accomplished.

RAZORVILLE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Overlock was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony evening when Maurice Powell and Miss Addie Farrar were united in marriage by Mr. Overlock. Mr. Powell is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin C. Powell and is one of our most successful farmers. The daughter is the daughter of Herbert E. Farrar. This popular young couple has the best wishes of a host of friends for their happy union.

John L. Howard of Union has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Overlock for a few days. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Overlock from his childhood up to the time he entered the service.

Sidney Humes has bought a very valuable tract of lumber near his mill from Sidney and Suzanne. Mr. Humes is one of our most popular business men and has one of the best mills of the kind in the State. This lumber lot was a good investment for him.

Sebra Crocker purchased last week of Herbert E. Farrar and son what has been known for nearly a century as the Farrar mill. It has always been owned by some member of the Farrar family and this is the first time it has ever gone out of the family. This is one of the best mill privileges in New England, it being situated on the main highway road and in the center of a lot of valuable lumber lots with level land to and from the mill on all sides. This mill manufactures long and short lumber and is about the only one in this section that does custom work. Mr. Crocker is one of our most popular young business men and will give the public good service. Mr. Farrar is in very poor health, being confined to the house all the time and for this reason he was obliged to dispose of the valuable property.

The funeral services of the late Emma, wife of Robert C. Moores, was held at the People's Methodist church, Dec. 1, Missionary W. E. Overlock officiating. Her son, Harvey B. Moores of Augusta and her daughter, Mrs. Lottie Mears, of Castine and her four daughters with the husband compose the immediate relatives. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends. She was a member of First Baptist Church, O. E. S.

Umer Hannan of East Palermo has been visiting at Mrs. Clara Hibbert's for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Tillson of Belgrade Lakes visited her mother, Mrs. Ada Jones, last week.

Crows are on the job looking for a chance to help the farmer in the spring. The heavy rain Tuesday partially broke up Medomak Lake.

THORNDIKEVILLE

Frank Day is cutting wood for C. C. Childs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Young of East Union were guests Sunday of their daughter, Winnie Pushaw.

Mrs. Jessie Higgins Hills of Bath is visiting her sister and mother at Stephen Gillette's.

Horace Bucklin of Rockland is cutting wood for Lester Merrill.

The telephones are out of order, owing to the snow storm last Friday night.

Lester Chandler and mother were Sunday guests at Harry Gordon's and Lester Merrill's.

Mrs. M. A. Packard was in Rockland Monday.

Harry Gordon is having an artesian well drilled. Parties from Thomaston are doing the work.

Every issue of The Courier-Gazette carries the home news of Knox county to every State in the Union and to many foreign lands.

THREE IN FAMILY

ARE BENEFITED

Manchester Woman, Husband and Daughter Strong In Their Praise of Tanlac.

"Well, we have a regular Tanlac neighborhood out our way," said Mrs. John Brousseau, 350 Bartlett St., Manchester, N. H.

"After I had improved so much by taking Tanlac, my husband concluded it would do him good, and then daughter joined in, so we're all taking it and being benefited, and now all our neighbors are taking Tanlac and report splendid results. I've never before found a medicine in the same class with it."

"I began taking Tanlac hoping it would relieve my stomach trouble, nervousness and all over-run down condition, and it hasn't disappointed me. I had all the troubles that go with a bad stomach—loss of appetite, palpitation, choking sensations, dizziness, rheumatism, constipation and was so nervous that I was bordering on a complete breakdown. I just can't tell you all the miseries I endured, but they were more than enough."

"Now my nerves have quieted down, my appetite is splendid and I really enjoy eating. I rest well, the constipation is gone and I am wonderfully improved in every way. However, I'm going to take Tanlac some time yet to make sure of the benefits I've already received. I certainly am thankful for the change Tanlac has made in me, and my husband and daughter join me in recommending it."

Tanlac is sold in Rockland by Corner Drug Store; in Washington by F. L. Ludwig; in North Haven by W. S. Hopkins, and by the leading druggists in every town.—adv.

SOUTH THOMASTON

Mrs. Nellie Calderwood

Mrs. Nellie (Waterman) wife of Elisha C. Calderwood, died at her home in South Thomaston Thursday, Dec. 9, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Calderwood had been a resident of this town since 1888, during which time she made many friends. She was born in North Haven Sept. 29, 1841 and was a teacher previous to her marriage. On Jan. 1, 1866, she married E. C. Calderwood and they made their home in North Haven till 1888. Three children were born of this union, Ulysses G., who resides at home, Mrs. Theresa M. Stahl, Camden and Willie E., deceased. Mrs. Calderwood was one of the last surviving members of the old Baptist church of South Thomaston. For the closing nine years of her life it was her misfortune to walk this earth in blindness. In a very literal sense she could say with Paul, "We walk by faith, not by sight." For Christ to her was a great reality. He was the source of her consolation, her hope, and her patience, for she bore her lot very patiently and cheerfully. Seeing by faith, she could say with the blind poet, "Still guides the blind man's vision." In her closing conscious moments she was heard to say, "Glory be to God." Well may we say, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." She was a faithful wife, mother and Christian, and by these rights she belongs in heaven. Her departure makes earth a lonely place for her aged husband. The funeral services were conducted at her late home Saturday, Dec. 11, by Rev. A. E. Whittemore.

PARDON WAS DENIED

Presque Isle Minister One of Those Who Appeared In Dr. Dudley's Bed.

The governor and council Wednesday gave the petitioners leave to withdraw in the pardon case of Dr. Dudley, formerly of Presque Isle, who is serving a sentence of not less than 10 nor more than 20 years in the state prison for manslaughter in causing the death of Mildred Sullivan by means of a criminal operation. An indictment for murder was returned against Dr. Dudley, but he pleaded insanity to manslaughter. William G. Eaton of Portland, attorney for the petitioners, argued that Dudley, who has been in state's prison for five years has received sufficient punishment and that he is suffering from tuberculosis. William R. Boie of Presque Isle, county attorney of Aroostook County, opposed the pardon.

"The particular reason for pardon, we would urge, is the physical condition of the man," said Attorney Eaton. "He went there a rugged healthy man. Not a taint or touch of disease. And actually in his service there he contracted and is today suffering with a severe case of tuberculosis."

"I have a letter from Dr. Heald saying that Dudley contracted it while doing volunteer work with the tubercular prisoners. All reports say he has been a model prisoner and has done everything to assist the inmates with his professional ability and skill."

"Six years in those stone walls. No one can say truthfully that he needs any more punishment. I say that never before has such punishment been imposed in this state for such an offense and that further confinement means the taking of a human life."

Dr. G. L. Crockett who examined the prisoner, is sick in Boston and could not appear. Dr. Heald, prison physician, sent a statement telling of Dudley's valuable service in the prison as a physician.

Col. Eaton presented petitions carrying over 100 names and letters asking for pardon.

Rev. James C. Gregory, pastor of the Congregational church of Presque Isle, knew Dr. Dudley well and spoke of his great pride in doing things and doing them well. He took great interest and pride in his profession. He had the spirit of adventure and audacity, he wanted to go ahead. Hence he rushed into the situation he did.

"I feel the doctor has sufficiently suffered for his crime," said the pastor. "I believe in justice and also in mercy. Two years ago, hearing of the tempt at prison, I didn't like it and felt relieved when it was dropped. But now, in his pitiable condition, I feel that mercy should be extended. I feel that he should not be held so firmly responsible for that crime."

PARK THEATRE

The Joseph W. Payton Stock Co. closes its week's engagement today, presenting this afternoon, by special request, "Peg O' My Heart," which was presented under such difficulties in Tuesday night's big storm.

The play is "What a Night!" at 9:45 p. m. Owen Davis, one of the most successful play authors in "At 9:45" achieved his widest distinction as a dramatist and knows how to make all the essential elements of theatrical purposes blend with pronounced nicety.

This is demonstrated by the way he managed to incorporate in the unfolding of a tale which while having mystery as the background is infused with the comedy incidents to relieve the general excitement aimed at. It is a mystery play that keeps speculation on the skip, hop and jump, and leaves the audience wondering why it failed to guess correctly.

Pictures will be resumed next week with "Neglected Wives" for Monday and Tuesday. It is a fascinating and absorbing story of intrigue, love, life and adventure. As Dorothy Penherton, the neglected wife of a Wall Street magnate who is so busy making money and helping his friends nominate him for the Governor's chair that he has not the time to treat his wife and little girl humanely, Anne Luther is charming indeed.

That "Claire Whitney as the wily villainess, and Charles Gerard her partner in crime, both imported direct from Paris by the political boss in order to lead the neglected and love-famished wife from the path of righteousness, do some of the most notable work of their careers. While E. J. Radcliffe, the indifferent husband whose particular fault is his attitude toward women, J. W. Johnston and Baby Irvy Ward complete the capable cast.

On the first day of October under the direction of their teacher, Hattie E. Tolman, the pupils of the Washington Grammar grades seven and eight organized a School Improvement League, its purpose being to make the local school the center of local community interest, to improve physical conditions and to help provide pictures, apparatus, equipment and playground.

There will be services at the church Sunday morning at 10:30, as usual. All are welcome.

chosen: President, Dorothy Lyford; Vice President, Annie Gregory; Secretary, Ruth Ross; Treasurer, Evelyn Davis; Executive Committee, Phyllis Black, Blanchard Mills and Dorothy Lyford. The pupils have earned money by selling Christmas seals and various other things to make up the fund of $15 and accepted the offer made them that they be given by the town any sum of money equal to that they might earn up to $15. They have bought an oil stove so that pupils having to carry their lunch may have hot things to eat at the noon hour. The school yard has been kept free from rubbish, flowers kept in the school room, and they are now planning to have a Christmas tree, with a Santa Claus, refreshments and short entertainment. Each member of the school will draw a name and purchase a small gift for the person whose name he or she might draw.

Moses Webster Lodge, P. and A. M. held a private installation Tuesday evening with Past Master M. P. Smith acting installing officer and Past Master Oscar C. Lane as marshal. The officers are: W. M. George, Strachan; S. W. Ambrose, Peterson; J. W. Edward A. Smalley; Treasurer, Walter F. Lyford; Secretary, Freeman L. Roberts; M. D. H. Glidden; Chaplain, Charles S. Libby; S. D. Frank W. Miller; J. ## CAMDEN

The schooner William C. Pendleton is at the head of the harbor on the beach, and Capt. Gray is making extensive repairs, including new rails, top timbers and covering boards. Capt. Freethy Hutchings, who bought the hull of the schooner Jennie B., which was burned a few years ago by the moving picture people, has hauled as near the Pendleton as possible, as Capt. Gray has plenty of tools, some of which he borrowed of Bob Studley.

Schools closed Friday and will open again Jan. 3.

At the Methodist church tomorrow will be observed as Christmas Sunday. There will be special music by Miss Doris Sylvester and Nathan Handy.

Local shops are in holiday attire with the usual fine assortment of goods for Christmas and New Year gifts.

Louis M. Chandler has been appointed by the Governor to serve on the State Pharmacy Commission. The appointment was unopposed and is very pleasing to Mr. Chandler's friends.

LAST NIGHT'S BASKETBALL

Rockland and Rockport High Schools divided honors at Rockport last night. The game between the first teams resulted in a victory for Rockport 24 to 16, and the contest between the second teams went Rockland's way, 20 to 15. The Rockport girls went to Camden and won 15 to 4. Billy foresees where his girls will have to go some if they are to beat Rockport.

In Social Circles

In addition to personal notes recording departures and arrivals, this department especially desires information of social happenings, parties, musicals, etc. Notes sent by mail or telephone will be gladly received.

Mrs. C. A. Crockett has closed her house on North Main street, and gone to Portland to spend the balance of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pillsbury.

Mrs. Alfred Murray and nephew, William Bishop, have returned from New York, where they have been making an extended stay.

Rev. Ralph W. George is spending the holidays in this city, a guest at Thomas Hawken's, Camden street.

Miss Lottie McLaughlin, who is a guest at the Ten Eyck Hotel, Albany, N. Y., has been engaged for the Sunday evening concert series following a successful week at the Albany Strand Theatre.

Henry A. Howard leaves shortly for Florida, where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. John Bernet is spending a few days in Portland, with her husband.

The cut which appears at the head of the Fuller-Cobb-Davis Christmas advertisement this season is from a dainty and artistic sketch made for the firm by Mrs. William S. Healey. It sets off the advertisement in fine style, and many will be interested to know who the designer was.

Miss Rhondana Armstrong arrived yesterday from University of Maine, and will spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong.

Mrs. Fenton Parsons of Island Falls, Vt., is at her Rockland home for an indefinite visit.

Miss Edna MacAllister is attending the Kappa Sigma house party at Bowdoin.

Mrs. C. A. Leighton, who has been in Philadelphia, arrived yesterday, and will spend the winter at the Thorndike Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Fiske of Attleboro, Mass., are in the city, called by the death of Mr. Fiske's mother, Mrs. James D. Fiske.

Dec. 9 the Chickawaukie Camp Fire Girls met with Miss Helen Leach, working for honors in home craft, studying the manual, practicing motion songs, and several numbers for a ceremonial program. Dec. 16 they met with Mrs. Olive Wilson devoting the time to craft work in sewing and weaving on bead looms. There will be no meeting next week on account of the Christmas vacation, but on Dec. 20 there will be a ceremonial meeting with the Guardian Mrs. H. D. Crie, and the officers for the ensuing year will be nominated.

Glenn A. Lawrence is home from Chicago, where he has been for several weeks on business.

The Wight Philharmonic Society held its regular rehearsal Thursday evening in Odd Fellows hall, and sang some of the attractive pieces which will make up a part of the program of next season's Maine Festival. After the singing a special entertainment was provided in connection with the going to New York of Mr. and Mrs. James Wight—the "Aunt Emma" and "Uncle Jimmie" of the musical "Rockland and Maine"—who propose to spend the winter in that city. Dr. T. E. Tibbets (by request) favored the company with two of his favorite old songs, "The Bandit" and "The Old Brown Owl." Raymond K. Greene sang the "Invictus" with fervor, and Miss Marianne Crockett and Mrs. J. O. Stevens, also rendered several effective songs. A table was set in the rear of the hall, bountifully loaded with sandwiches, cake of different kinds, fruit and confections, and coffee was served, as all sat at table or gathered about in groups, bohemian style. The affair was a great success and afforded the members of the club an occasion to say cordial words and warm farewells to Mr. and Mrs. James Wight former conductor and pianist of the society. They are leaving Rockland next week.

Among the Rockland boys and girls, who have already arrived home for the holidays are: Cecil Garland, Brown; Charles Wotton, Abbott Academy; Eugene Rich, Hebron Academy; Rhondana Armstrong, Maine; Madeline Bird, Maine; Charles Berry, Abbott Academy; Joseph Damon, Syracuse University.

Frank Fowles arrived last night from Framingham, Mass., and will spend a fortnight's vacation in this city and vicinity.

Lawrence MacAllister has received, with King Edward's signature, a commission which creates him honorary lieutenant in the Royal Air Force of Great Britain. The appointment was made at New Year's, and gazetted March 22, but the commission has just arrived and, young MacAllister was ignorant of the honor—he will be, in fact, until it arrives in Akron, Ohio, where he is employed in the accounting department of the East Ohio Gas Co. Lieut. MacAllister is a son of Edward B. MacAllister and was in the Canadian branch of the Royal Force during the war. His new commission makes him an officer in the Royal Air Force of Great Britain, a distinction which possibly he alone enjoys in this State. The souvenir is one that he will doubtless prize highly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ulmer of Burnham, Penn., attended a performance of "Pollyanna" in that town Saturday. It was presented by the Cutter Stock Co. "Imagine my surprise," writes Harold, "when the curtain arose for the second act and I saw M. A. Brewer, formerly of Rockland and the Empire Theatre playing the role of 'King Grouch.' He made a great hit and is playing with an excellent company. It was the best show that I have witnessed for some time."

WARREN

The Malcolm's Corner Primary School held an entertainment and Christmas tree Friday, Dec. 10. In spite of the storm a large number of parents and friends listened to the readings, drills, folk dances, and music. Each child received two presents, besides a bag of candy and nuts and a fancy calendar. Marguerite Haskell and Gerald Brown were not absent during the term.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

Our Christmas Gift of Music to the Public during the week will be as follows:

Monday Evening
High School Orchestra

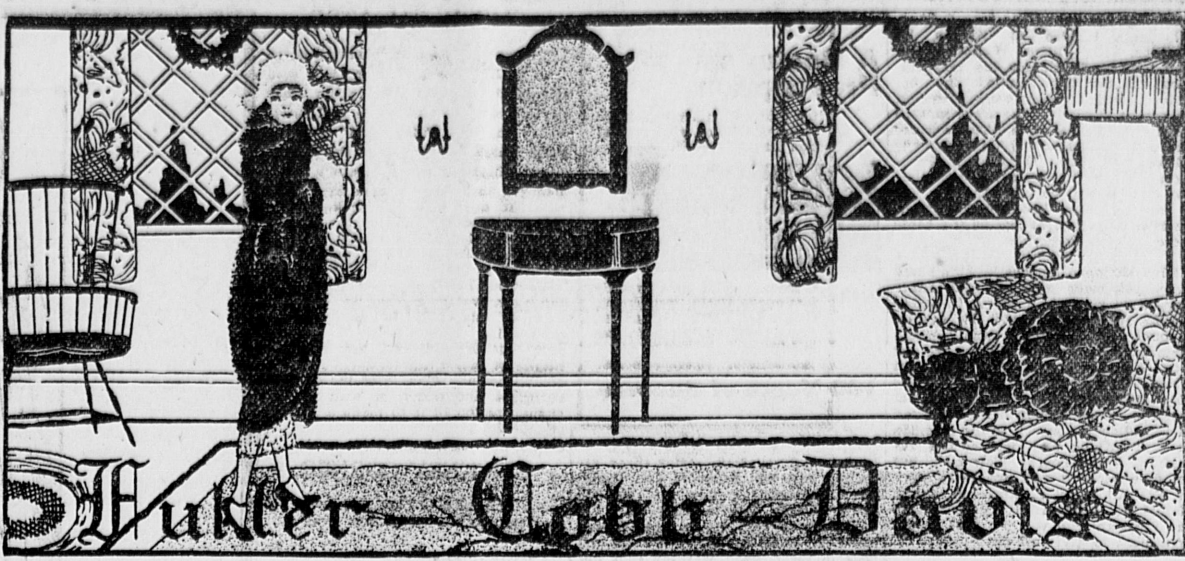

Tuesday Evening
Marston's Orchestra

Wednesday Forenoon
Wednesday Evening
Marston's Orchestra

Thursday Evening
Marston's Orchestra

Friday Evening
Marsh's Orchestra

The public is cordially invited to attend these concerts, and we extend a special invitation to the children to come to Wednesday morning's concert.

YOUR Gift is the home of your Christmas spirit. Thrust it within the gloomy walls of an inappropriate gift, and you have imprisoned it in a cell against whose walls it will beat its wings in vain through dreary days. Induct it into a gift your friend desires, select it with loving thought, and mayhap with sacrifice, and it will smilingly peep from ivy covered windows wafting smiles and messages of good cheer to its happy possessor, and bringing a reflex of gratitude, and love to you, which is the greatest gift of all the Christmas gift giver himself can receive.

BLOUSES AND WAISTS

Holiday Gifts of 20% Discount on every Waist in our stock from this day to the first of the New Year.

Our stock is complete as usual for the Holiday business. We would suggest morning shopping.

20% Discount

What choicer Christmas Gift than a fine Fur Garment, a gift which is always loved and appreciated. Our stocks are complete and our prices have been readjusted to give every one an opportunity to make their selections early, and we will hold any piece until wanted.

We have Coats in—

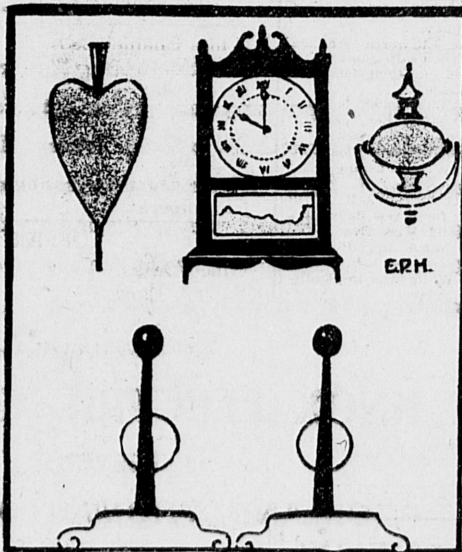

Australian Opossum	Raccoon	Nutria

Remember our Sheplined Coats with Australian Opossum or Raccoon Collar, a fine winter garment, at $55.00 up. Made in different shades of suede and army cloth.

Fur Scarfs and Muffs in all the wanted furs, from $25.00 up.

Children's Furs from $3.50 and up.

Remember, every article is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction.

IF YOU ARE NOT FORTUNATE ENOUGH TO OWN A GRANDMOTHER'S GATE LEG TABLE OR A GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK OR SOME OTHER BIT OF MAHOGANY, WHY DON'T YOU VISIT OUR "ANTIQUE DEPARTMENT" AND ATTACH YOURSELF TO SOMEBODY ELSE'S GRANDMOTHER'S. WE REFINISH THEM, AND ANTIQUES ARE QUITE THE THING, YOU KNOW.

CELLULOID TOILET ARTICLES

This is the season to finish the set started last season, a little less in price than last year—it is possible to purchase the lacking bit it was not possible to obtain last Christmas season.

Combs, Brushes, Mirrors, Pin Cushions.

The only splendid thing the Queen of Sheba is not recorded to have worn is a bead bag with a powder puff and a card case enclosed. She may have had a gold mesh or a panne velvet—we are not certain—so we make no statement, but the bead ones, any of which her woman's heart would have desired, are to be found in our Jewelry Department.

Bead price $9.75, $10.30, $19.65

Gold Mesh, $8.40 and $13.11

It has been said that many crimes have been committed for Perfumes, certain some of them seem like that, but Frankincense and Myrrh have been wished into the feminine garden so long, what is kinder than to include among HER Christmas Gifts a bottle of the wonderful scents of our friendly foreign makers.

HANDKERCHIEFS

Alas! why does one "resort" to a gift of handkerchiefs? Why not this season exploit the beauty of texture and grace of the embroidered designs shown in our First Floor Department. It is impossible to describe their charm, never lovelier. They can be found from the loveliest plain cotton to cobwebby lins that might have been embroidered by fairies.

For the fastidious woman the sheer bits of silk and cotton undergarments make a very strong appeal.

Hand-made and embroidered Camisoles, Nighties and Bloomers.

Gowns, $4.50, $4.75 and $6.50.

Pink crepe and satin or georgette garments, tailored and lace trimmed, from $3.30 to $11.00.

CANDY DEPARTMENT

We have told our candy story so many times it must sound as old as that of Mother Hubbard's china closet, or Red Ridinghood's relatives, or Cinderella's pump, and still when one tells it again and gets back to the original story it is just as fascinating as these other old ones, for time cannot wither nor custom stale our oft repeated story of our candy, or our stunning black and white box, and it matters no more what we say, whether we call Ridinghood's grandmother a relative, or Cinderella's slipper a pump, they are all the same, they speak for themselves in that same alluring way.

$1.00 a pound

The selection to be left to miladi's taste.

When the sweet meats meet those dainty glass sweetmeat jars in the Crockery Department, or those fascinating painted tin boxes with impossible pictures of impossible ladies on the cover, there will be something doing in the gift line. Artistically designed to have and to hold; what lovelier for a Merry Christmas than a box of our delicious sugar candies.

Jars, $1.00, $2.00, $3.50, and $5.00

Boxes, 55c, 60c, 65c, 70c, 75c, 80c, $1.20, $1.40, $1.50

If the H. C. of L. forces you to tighten your belt it might as well be a pretty one as any other, and those new Suede Belts with the design done in colored beads are startlingly new and stunning for sweater or serge dress.

50c, 75c, $1.00, and $3.00

BUSY LIME WORKERS

Items From Bulletin 41 Dealing With Progress and Employes of Our Leading Industry.

Night operation in Mill No. 1 was resumed Monday night.

The Berwick arrived Friday from Rockport with cargo of "selected" for the Point shed.

Barge Ampere is due from Searsport and will load lime for New York.

The erecting engineer to supervise the erection of the gas producing kilns, was expected to arrive Wednesday.

A. T. Thurston's crew is assisting Richards and Finders, installing motors at the new crushing plant.

Steamer Coburn, with Dominion slack coal, finished discharging Saturday forenoon. Steamer Stratford from New York with steam coal, began discharging same day.

Point:—All records in kiln production were beaten last week at the Point shed, the four kilns there producing 4602 barrels lime, an average of 1150 1/2 barrels for each kiln. Can any four kilns on the line beat it? We should say not.

The loading track on the wharf is being repaired by Messrs. French and Dock of Fullerton's crew. The barrel factory was discovered to be on fire last Friday evening about 10 o'clock.

his volunteer crew of fire fighters, who were, besides Mr. Adams, Ed Phillips, John Phelps, Walter Dudley and Charles Smith, for the very efficient manner they handled the fire before the department came. As near as can be ascertained the fire originated from the electric wires. The western end of the building was badly damaged and will have to be rebuilt. Foreman Ulmer of the factory lost a number of valuable tools. J. Lindsey lost a pair of rubber boots, which might be said to be a great loss as the boots were of quite large size.

Five Kilns:—The trestle stairs and the trestle walk at No. 1 coal shute have been made to conform to safety requirements—Joe Vasco is out on account of illness in his family—John Nystrom and Joseph Shaw are out sick—Shipments of bulk lime last week amounted to 2780 barrels—Spicer Thibault jammed his finger last week handling lime in drums. Instead of reporting the injury to the foreman he said nothing, and worked the remaining seven hours. Now he is out on account of it and unable to work at all—All injuries, however slight, should be immediately reported to the foreman who will see that proper treatment is given at once.

New Kilns:—Edwin Feyer jammed his hand quite badly while unloading plate iron from a car—Two cars of rigging gear arrived in Saturday—T. Ted has built a retreat cabin covering the pumping engine. It is heated, with both a front and rear entrance, and air spaces between the boards on the sides and ends. It isn't much to look at but the tight roof makes it answer for the purpose it was built for—A man with a "divining" rod, hunting for water indications on his farm so he can dig himself a well, after hours of weary tramping comes to a spring. To see how the rod acted when held directly over water he places a board over the spring to stand on while he holds the rod. The board breaks, and man, rod, and the pieces all go into the spring. The high grass editor of this little sheet refrains from calling any name, but most anyone around the premises can tell you who it was and give you further particulars.

L. R. R.:—Engine No. 4 is in the machine shop, to be thoroughly overhauled and repaired—After three attempts and two failures Lou Curtis has constructed a new foot for his artificial limb, from cedar tie, using only a small part of the tie. It was some job to fix all the cord holes and sockets for a good working foot but Lou did it. What L. C. can't do (or say) has never been listed—"Watch and Wait" is F. Leavitt's motto. He has the watch and has waited quite a long time for someone to swap with him; come up.

Barrel Factory, No. 1:—Production for five days, 3517 barrels—Henry Schwartz had an ill-turn Friday and was taken home. Allice Newhall has moved from Rockport into the Philbrook tenement on Trinity street—Foreman Philbrook wishes to thank all those who contributed and assisted in obtaining a good-sized relief fund for a former employee of the factory. It was a real expression of sympathy and a worthy cause.

Mill:—Installation of electric lights in Mill No. 2 has been completed—Bob Bennett has moved to Rockland street, Bill Sanborn to Cottage and Main streets, Lou Petrie from Rockport to Rockland. The many friends of the Judge will not be surprised to learn that Len recently operated in the oyster market—not buying and selling, but just selling 'em.

Gregory:—Sub-foreman Davis is out on account of sickness. Ralph Gross is substituting for him—No. 5 is out and rock has stopped off Nov. 1, 7, and 11—Bulk shipments for the week amounted to 5,860 barrels, exclusive of 719 barrels for the mill—Work on the new chimney is progressing rapidly—Harry Rogers is back again in the trimming crew.

Quarries:—The work on the new man with Jimmie Higgins at the old crusher.

ELECTRICITY REPLACES GAS

Plant Built 62 Years Ago In Belfast Goes Out of Commission.

After operation for 62 years, the Belfast gas plant has gone out of commission. Electricity has replaced it for heating and in the houses where it was used for illuminating.

The gas plant was built in 1858 by Hiram O. Alden and others who formed a company known as the Belfast Gas Light Co. The first gas was turned on Nov. 23 of the same year.

It was manufactured from resin and sold for $7 a thousand. Four years later illuminating gas sold for $2.50 a thousand, one of the highest rates in the country.

During the Civil War the company was unable to get resin and the plant was rebuilt to make gas from coal which has been done up to the present time. The company has changed hands many times, changing its name as well. N. Curtis Fletcher of Boston at one time owned it, selling some years ago to the Penobscot Bay Electric Co., which was recently taken over by the Central Maine Power Co.

The original mains, placed in the city over 60 years ago, were still in use when the plant was finally closed.

EMPIRE THEATRE

"Never mind what the picture is, so long as Enid Bennett is in it," said one of the regular patrons the other day. And he is sure to be well satisfied with "The False Road," a crook play, which is enacted on the screen. Lloyd Hughes plays opposite to Miss Bennett, and has the role of a man who had the courage to shake off his old associates, even when the woman he loved called him a coward. "Daredevil Jack" is the serial and "Play Hookey" is the comedy.

Hoodlum holds the world's record for under-water endurance, and because of this fact the under-water scenes in "Terror Island" Monday and Tuesday mark the supreme height of melodramatic thrill and accomplishment. The plot is full of surprises, and there is said to be enough action in it to make a 20-part serial.—Adv.

STICKNEY CORNER

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Creamer are moving into the tenement over the store.

Peter Doucette was a business caller at South Hope recently.

Roy Cunningham and sister, Mrs. Grace Gleason were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sargent Saturday.

Dr. S. C. Pierpont, after a long illness, is able to resume his practice and he wishes to extend thanks to all his friends who sent post cards. He received 92 cards, they helped to pass his lonely hours.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rollins who was in Lewiston last week has returned who was in Lewiston last week has returned.

Miss Reta Butler of Union who taught the fall term of school has returned for the winter term and is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Grinnell.

Mrs. Hattie Counce remains in very poor health.

Blynn Sidelinger is visiting relatives in Boston and Charlestown.

Mrs. Annie Folsom received letters from her sister, Mrs. Nellie Laidlow, who with her husband and son are spending the winter in Florida. They made the trip from Massachusetts by auto after a few days of delightful sightseeing they pitched tent on their own land and are now erecting a log cabin. The only thing that bothers Mrs. Laidlow is the rattlers, but she enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner under the trees.

For Hill of Dorchester and Earle Marson called on friends here recently.

Mrs. Elvin Creamer remains about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cramer were in Rockland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ward and daughter Dot and Martha Osgood were guests Sunday of Mrs. Annie Folsom.

Those small ads in The Courier-Gazette are read by every body. That is why they are so popular and effective.
