my dividend for 1840 Joseph X Louis

Mr Gleason Sir

Joseph Levey did not receive his dividend last fall. I think there would be no impropriety in paying him 2.80 as there was a small balance undistributed

John Gleason Esq

Dear Sir. I recieved a note from you by Selmo Francis stating the necessity of an order from me for his annuity and also his bounty it appears by the return of Mr Lightton that Selmo Francis is entitled to bounty on 50 bushel potatoes ^{$250} also the annuity for him self and son 10 in number at $140 per head 1400

also 2 bushels wheat

$16.50
10

I am of the opinion that the above amount should be paid

Jacob Kimball

the amount paid by me before my settlement with the state was $477.87 leaves a balance of that fund unexpended $22.13 yours with Respect

Jacob Kimball
