

Oxford Democrat.

"ON THE HILL."

DIRECTORY.

First Church, Rev. George H. ...
Second Church, Rev. George H. ...
Third Church, Rev. George H. ...

Other than Greenleaf?

Don't forget the concert this (Tuesday) evening.

Mr. O'Brien of Buckfield, was in the Hill Saturday.

George H. Brigham, Esq., Town Collector of Buckfield, was in Paris last Saturday.

F. E. Shorey and wife, of Gorham, N. H., are visiting Mrs. Shorey's father, H. E. Shorey, Esq.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bailey, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. E. A. Chase's are in Paris last week.

Mr. J. Stanley lost a cow last week, the calf came under a stone in the pasture and broke her leg.

Short D. Park, Esq., Principal of Dixfield Academy and Editor of the Dixfield News, was in town last Saturday.

Seven Noddy is taking a two weeks' vacation, and has been camping at the Pond most of the past week.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

Prof. J. Hammond returned from the State House last week, and on Thursday morning for New York, where he will remain in medical studies.

D. E. Babcock, Esq., of Camden, was in Paris last week, on his way to Hartford to see his mother, Mrs. Babcock, who is ill.

Mr. Brown Cummings returned Friday last to his sister, Mrs. William Cummings, of Andover, Mass., who is ill.

THE BEAR BRIGADE.

Summer.

Wednesday, September 25th, how it rained.

Mrs. Clendenen returned to her daughter's, Mrs. Ann Thompson, who has been visiting in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Melville U. Barker is teaching in Dist. No. 3, Hartford, since this fall.

B. Frank Glover has purchased a fine Bridgport organ of George F. Towle, of Camden.

The apple crop in this vicinity is good.

PAID DEDUCTORY.

Norway Lake.

The dreary and foreboding look of the Walcott house has ended, for a short time at least, by the arrival of Mrs. M. E. Walcott.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith have gone to Fryeburg to visit relatives and attend the Fair to be held there this week.

School began this week with nineteen scholars and Frank Bartlett as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Saml. Stridger have gone to Newry on a short visit.

Wilson's Mills.

After an eight days' storm the sun has put in an appearance, but it looks somewhat pale and washed out.

The river is up to a driving pitch, a great inconvenience at this season of the year, and the inhabitants on the west side of the line feel greatly the need of a bridge.

Mrs. S. E. Bates, of West Sumner, is visiting old friends, who are very glad to meet her.

Prof. D. and Wilbur Walte, of Lynn, have been camping out, but the wet weather has disgusted them and they start for home this morning.

The late rains have injured the grain crop greatly in this section. Some fields are entirely spoiled and all in a bad condition.

Brownfield.

Messrs. Young and Milliken finished packing a few more barrels, Tuesday, having put up about 100,000 cases.

There has been two deaths from typhoid fever this week. Mrs. Andrew Thorne and Herbert L. Leavitt, both dying very suddenly.

Heavy rains for the last few days have greatly swollen the streams in this vicinity.

Porter.

Another heavy rain storm. It appears that this wet weather is going to finish what the cold weather has started.

It is very sickly in this vicinity at present.

Mr. John French is very sick and not expected to live.

Rev. Thomas Strout is having a very hard time. He is sick and three of his sons have been sick and one died on Monday.

His wife, Mrs. L. French, has the sole care of him now since the death of his wife.

Mrs. James French arrived at his 80th birthday on the 24th. He has always been a very rugged, healthy man, but now he is almost helpless and his mind is fast failing.

His son, L. French, has the sole care of him now since the death of his wife.

Potatoes and apples will be a good crop. Do not hear of any rot in this section.

East Hebron.

We are enjoying fine weather after the rain.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Lamb of N. Y. gave a sacred concert at the church, Friday evening, the 24th. Mr. Frank Lamb of Turner presided at the organ. There was a good audience and fine music which all enjoyed.

Wm. K. Kizz, while splitting wood, fell and cut his foot. It is quite a bad wound, although not serious.

Every one exclaims, "I never saw such damaging weather to farmers."

Potatoes not harvested and rotting considerably.

Do not feed good and stock buyers to prevent the birds from enjoying it.

Millard Mason is at home from Massachusetts on a vacation.

A. W. Grover has a horse side, caused by a horse's heels "on the fly."

Mrs. George E. Mills is improving since coming from the sea side a few weeks ago. Other sick ones previously reported are comfortable.

Many are intending to go to the County Fair if it don't rain all the time. Our good old town falls seem to be a thing of the past.

George W. Harden takes care of Bethel Railroad station while foreman Farrell is on a week's vacation.

Fall apples are coming, and are being sold for customers at $1.50. Winter fruit is dropping badly from the trees this wet weather.

Hartford.

Osgood's majority of two hundred and eighty-six in this Legislative District was one of the largest ever given.

A large crowd happened in this town on election day. One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

One of the leading Democratic politicians became so excited over the supposed vote of Osgood, that he fell to the ground, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

Oxford.

Ralph Beaumont, of New York, lectured at the school house, Sunday evening.

The Oxford Band serenaded Mrs. A. W. Wardwell, Monday evening. A supper was served to them and the occasion was much enjoyed by all.

James Davis and Henry Eaton have lately had an increase of pens.

James Davis has moved his family into Amos Smith's house.

A game between the Welchville line and the Blue score stood 12 to 6 in favor of the Welchville.

Mrs. Glosin received a dispatch informing her of the severe sickness of her husband and has gone to Old Town.

The dam progresses slowly. The mill probably will not start for five or six weeks.

Mrs. Hannah Chasely died at Welchville Sept. 22, aged 83 years.

Fryeburg.

Messrs. Calvin and Granville Austin, of Boston, spent Sunday evening at the school house.

Mrs. Pillsbury will move back to her home soon.

Lewis Walker went home to Boston on Saturday.

Mr. Beriah Warren, of St. Louis, has been visiting his friends in this vicinity.

John L. Shedd is teaching at Steep Falls.

Mr. Gerry has returned from Lewiston.

Allan Shirley has been honored for a week with a swollen face that prevented his going to Portland on Monday.

The W. O. Fair deferred the program for Wednesday on account of the rain and held over Friday.

The first year of the term was held on Thursday evening, and many of the old scholars visiting the Fair were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers are in town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Robinson, of Portland, have visited their son boarding at Miss H. C. Osgood's, this week.

Denmark.

The canning of corn at the core shop closed September 28th. About 32,000 cases were put up.

Miss Jay Keith, of North Bridgewater, Mass., is in town.

Dance at

