ANDOVER.

Mr. Elbridge Poor died very suddenly on the 18th inst. This is not intended for the funeral but is forced to say from personal knowledge that Mrs. Poor was truly an exemplary woman. No person ever possessed a more tender heart than the late Mrs. Poor. Being at times confined to the house for a long period, yet without a murmur she bore up under the chastisement of God and cheerfully ministered to all in her power. She was a true saint in all her life. She was a true saint in all her life. She was a true saint in all her life.

Mr. J. H. Bailey is very low. Her friends consider her case hopeless.

The Methodist Circle met with Mrs. W. H. Allen last week. The subject of the meeting was the organization of the Congregational Circle this week.

A number attended the conference of the Congregational Circle at Bethel at the same time.

At the request of sixty or more petitioners a meeting was called to consider the expediency of organizing an association to be called the Andover Public Library Association. The call was read by Stephen Cabot, Esq., who after a few minutes of discussion, the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. Lewis Osgood died last week at his daughter's, Mrs. Frank Wiley's.

John S. Barrows came home from Boston on Thursday and will be here for the summer.

The rain of Saturday interfered somewhat with the observance of Memorial Day.

The address was by Rev. H. H. Davis of North Conway at the Methodist church.

Mrs. E. C. Farrington of Augusta was at S. W. Fife's last week.

Mrs. Fife and her mother are visiting Francis Wilcox in Charlestown, Mass.

Mr. Fred R. Fife has an appointment in the assessor's office at Augusta.

Mr. Will Lougee, editor of one of the Rochester, N. H., papers, was at Mr. Morgan's over Sunday.

Miss Mabel Morgan has returned from the South much improved in health.

Mr. R. H. Barrows is at home from Boston.

Clayton W. Pike left home on Thursday, will sail soon for Liverpool with friends for a bicycling tour on the Continent.

Mr. Harry Hildebrand has come home to attend the graduating exercises, in which his daughter Ida has a part.

Miss Hannah Osgood is moving into Dr. Shedd's house and Dr. John Shedd will board with her.

Miss Ellen Tibbets is at home again after a winter in Portland taking lessons in music.

The Fryeburg House is well patronized. Messrs. W. W. Brown and Hooper were in London on Wednesday to meet her sister, Mrs. Rounds of Minneapolis, were at A. J. Jenness' on Thursday.

Mrs. Mary F. Barrows shipped sailed for London on Wednesday to meet her daughter Annie, an artist. They will probably spend the summer in Brittany.

Messrs. J. H. and N. W. Millett of Newry, and their wives were in town Tuesday.

A very interesting entertainment was given by the Woman's Club at the vestry on Thursday evening. Over thirty persons participated in some way in the title of some book to be guessed by others. R. F. Wormwood received the prize for making the greatest number of correct guesses.

The graduation of the class of '91 will take place at the Congregational church on Tuesday, the 9th. Concert in the evening by the Weber Quartette of Boston, assisted by other artists.

Rev. W. K. Matney's wife read a memorial address before Joseph E. Colby Post and the Sons of Veterans Decoration Day. Portland claims the honor of having the first lady who did this; not so, but we are willing to divide the honor. The Ellis River Brass Band kindly assisted the post. The sons and veterans are to be congratulated for their fine appearance. A dinner was served to them.

Mr. P. S. Frost has arrived home after passing several months away.

Children's Bazaar will be May 14th. Bring your children. Arrangements are being made to make it a very pleasant occasion.

Mr. H. Swain was married, May 31st, to Miss Jennie M. Parsons by Rev. Mr. Record of Bethel Hill.

Mr. T. H. Burgess is receiving large orders for his creamery butter.

BROWNFIELD.

The memorial sermon by Rev. E. Eastman at the Universalist church was listened to by a full house. Memorial Day was observed with appropriate ceremonies. An address by Rev. E. P. Eastman, assisted by Rev. Mr. Houghton. Dinner was served at the Peapack dining hall.

Mrs. Andrew Martin died Sunday morning. Funeral at the Universalist church Tuesday. The remains were carried to Kezar Falls for interment.

The Central House is undergoing thorough repairs.

The B. L. S. C. met at J. L. Frink's Tuesday evening.

Mr. Elbridge Poor is attending school in the village. She is boarding with Miss McDonald.

EAST BUCKFIELD.

The farmers here planting about done.

"John" and his mother have arrived and moved into the yellow house across the way. We find them very good neighbors. Welcome, John.

Mrs. Hodgson, a highly respected lady of East Buckfield, died May 25th, after a severe illness of about two weeks. She was kindly cared for by her sister, Mrs. Morrill, until the last.

Apple trees are beginning to look well.

Mr. Samuel Record very closely escaped severe injury a short time since. He was with his team near the railroad and got out to show his horse to some gentlemen, when the cars came along and frightened the horse, which started, throwing Mr. Record down, causing the wheel to pass over his leg, which was not much injured, only stunned for a while. The reins caught in the wheel stopped the horse before any damage was done.

Some good looking little colts are to be seen in Buckfield.

Perley Ripley was in town Saturday with a very good looking colt.

The memorial service was held in the Methodist church Saturday evening. Good speeches were made by George D. Bibeau and John Irish. There was also good music.

WEST BUCKFIELD.

Artie Ellwood is at work for his grandfather at Turner.

Mr. Newell of Turner is going to move from the Peapack to a new place.

Mr. C. P. Turner is at North Buckfield.

Miss S. Morse has lost her mare.

Born, May 25th, to the wife of C. A. Warren, a son, where he has been in the employ of John Lewis Childs, the florist.

Fred Bibeau is still at Auburn confined to his couch since the severe accident to his leg. His condition is thought to be quite critical. He fell from a building when he was at work, a distance of about 35 feet, and caused severe injury to the back so that his lower limbs are paralyzed. His mother is attending him.

As we were not present at the Memorial Day service, West Sumner, we are unable to give report.

SLOCOM.

EAST BROWNFIELD.

Fine weather for the crops and the farmers seem very hopeful.

Herbert Williams, who has been at Mrs. Jane Wood's so long, has bought the farm once owned by N. B. Weeks, but which W. C. Storer has occupied for some time. Mr. Storer has moved to another place on the road to the Cotton neighborhood.

N. Hill is building a large barn.

E. E. Rounds and friends from Boston caught some 300 trout in the small streams in the west part of the town the first of the week.

NEWRY.
