MONEY!

HOW TO MAKE IT.

DOLLAR OR TWO

To save a dollar is to make one. You earn it by being smart enough to know where to do your trading. Look out first for the store that keeps the largest stock and the best variety, for you can always buy cheaper, and get better quality for your money from the large dealer. Take it in House Furnishings, we buy the best in the market and buy so largely that the manufacturers have to give us better prices and we can afford to sell you better goods for less money.

We are now opening the Fall season with a determination to do more business than ever. We know no concern in the United States can undersell us. They may sell trashy goods at less prices, but what is the good of buying Parlor Suits and Chamber Sets that will only last a

CARPET

Bargains.

short time; better by far pay a dollar or two more for a good article that will give you satisfaction and last half a life time.

We offer a line of Parlor Suits at $35, $40, $45, $50 and $75, that can't be equalled for the price. The best material is used, and skilled workmen are employed.

In Chamber Sets we start in at $18 for a fine Ash Set, or $35 for Oak, and for $45 will give you a Set worth $60. It is only a waste of money to buy unless you get reliable goods. Our Oak Sets can't be equalled at our prices.

CARPETS

We lead the State on Carpets. The very best at the very lowest prices.

DRAPERY

Bargains.

We lead the State on Carpets. The very best at the very lowest prices.

PARLOR STOVE

Bargains.

Our stock includes the most economical styles and the most reliable stoves.
The "Quaker" is the best Range in the world. It is made of solid iron. Send for cups of the Quaker.

We keep a handsome line of Rockers in Plush and other goods. Our $5
Rockers please every one.

Do you want Bargains?
If so this is the time to get them

PARLOR SUIT

Bargains.

Every article of House Furnishings is marked to lowest prices and odd lots of Draperies and Chairs are being closed out at cost price.

MAINE GOOD TEMPLARS.

Thirty-Third Semi-Annual Session at Rockland.

Spirited Contest for the Office of Grand Counselor.

Reports of Officers and Usual Transaction of Business.

The thirty-third semi-annual session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Maine was held in Fawcett Hall, Rockland, last Wednesday. On account of the rain storm which prevailed all day the attendance was not so large as it otherwise would have been. On this account Knox County was not fully represented, but few delegates out side of the city and Thomaston put in appearance. The committee on credentials met at nine o'clock at the hall, but were not overburdened with their labors.

The meeting was called to order by the Grand Chief Templar at 10 o'clock and opened in due form.

OFFICERS PRESENT AND ABSENT.

The following officers of the Grand Lodge were present: G. C. T., A. S. Bangs, Augusta; G. V. T., Mrs. Josie R. Pollard, Biddeford;
G. S., Rev. Robert Scott, Monmouth; G. M.,
A. D. Cole, East Livermore Falls; G. D. M.,
Miss Lillian P. Robbins; Sentinel, S. W.
Woodbury, Portland; S. J. T., Miss Emily E.
Cain, Waterville; P. G. C. T., J. H. Hamilton, Mattawamkeag. The following were appointed to fill vacancies: Guard, Mrs. Zina Robbins, Union; G. C. F. H. Dexter, Springvale.

COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS.

The following were appointed to fill vacancies in committees: Finance, Ed. H. Emery; Credentials, O. H. Perkins, W. H. Littlefield;
Distribution, E. S. Vose, A. C. Hamilton, Mrs.
H. M. C. Estes; Juvenile Templar, Mrs. H.
Barstow, A. M. Barnham and Robert Scott.

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

U. A. Caine from the committee on credentials reported in part which was adopted. The duly credited delegates, 20 in number, were introduced and duly initiated.

SUBORDINATE DEGREE OPENING.

On motion of Rev. Robert Scott it was voted to close in Grand Lodge and open in Subordinate Lodge degree, also that all delegates presented themselves heretofore during the session be instructed in the ante-room by the Grand Counselor.

REPORT OF GRAND CHIEF TEMPLAR.

Grand Chief Templar Bangs then followed with his first semi-annual report which was an excellent document in every particular. We are only able to present brief abstracts of the same.

HIS TRIBUTE TO STORER'S KNIGHT.

"With feelings of deep regret, said Mr.
Bangs, I stand in place of him who but six months since, with high hopes and unbounded courage assumed the position to which your ranks had elevated him. Then followed a tender and eloquent tribute to Storer's Knight, who had been stricken down at the very threshold of his usefulness.

CONDITION OF THE ORDER.

In a few counties a healthy state of activity, throughout the State general conditions are sluggish. Average attendance is 20 per cent less than the paying membership. Ritualistic work good, entertainments taken a goodyear's peace. Little or no effort made by the lodges to enforce the prohibitory law.

THE ORDER NON-PARTISAN.

History of the order contemporary with prohibition and largely responsible for it, but we should know no party, sect or race in our brotherhood and work, our duty to assist in the enforcement of the law. As we are the largest body of temperance workers I suggest a committee consider what new legislation is necessary to the better enforcement of the law and present the result to the next Legislature.

PER CAPITA TAX.

Too low for the needs of our growing work.

DEBITES.

There should be a more careful selection of lodge deputies; should be selected not for influence in the community alone, but for devotion to and thorough knowledge of the work of the order.

ORGANIZERS.

Should be better instructed and qualified for their work. Lodges often formed too quickly and left to incompetent officers and ill-advised methods.

APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES.

Illustrated by "No Surrender Lodge," Bangor
--bitter controversy in that lodge. The late G.
C. T. Knight revoked its charter; council meeting subsequently called. Decided to allow reorganization of No Surrender Lodge protest against the new lodge. The matter is referred to the next session of the Grand Lodge for settlement.

JUVENILE TEMPLE.

This is most promising branch of our work, more than 150 juvenile temples. All honor to the many noble women engaged in this work with and for the children.

CONCLUSION.

Good Templary in Maine has a grand opportunity before it. We represent one twenty-fifth of the population of the State. Let us demand enforcement of laws both statutory and organic. Deep faith head the way and prayers will at last prevail.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT.

George E. Brackett then presented his 16th semi-annual report which was as follows: My 16th semi-annual report is herewith submitted in outline, showing in the briefest possible form the condition of our order. A full, exhaustive and itemized report will be submitted at the annual session in April 1891.
Number of lodges, 64; number on the books,
Grand Lodge tax, 230; number of lodges owing tax for July quarter, 52; for July and August quarters, 22; number lodges instituted since April session, 20; number lodges surrendered and died since April session, 42; whole number lodges, 310; total live paying membership about 17,000.

PAST GRAND CHIEF TEMPLAR'S REPORT.

Hon. J. H. Hamilton, P. G. C. T., submitted his report from which we produce the following abstract:

Organized 16 new lodges, reorganized 2 lodges, 1 Juvenile Temple, held 32 public meetings, visited 29 lodges and travelled over 3900 miles.

GRAND SUVE. JUVENILE TEMPLES.

The report of Mrs. Emily E. Cain, Grand Superintendent of Juvenile Temples was country has a membership of 140,000 children, the proper education and training of whom is as she regards it, the highest work of the order. Mrs. Cain has visited 31 temples, 10 lodges and 4 district lodges. She has written 1500 letters, organized 15 Juvenile Temples, suspended 12 temples and there are now 157 temples in the state. In addition to this work, she has commissioned 30 state deputies and 3 district deputies.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Mrs. H. M. C. Estes the following were appointed a committee on resolutions with special reference to memorial services; U. A. Caine, Mrs. H. M. C. Estes and

THOMASTON.

Charles W. Simpson went to Liberty yesterday.

William A. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell have gone to New York city.

E. E. Boynton of Rockland is the new clerk at the drug store of W. A. Erskine, and Thos. P. Brown is employed at the George L. Robinson drug store.

Charles P. Redman of Waldoboro, who has purchased the John O'Brien house, East Main street, has commenced repairs on the building, and will move into the same at an early date.

Capt. Wm. O. Masters, C. S. Smith and C. A. Creighton returned Saturday from Week's Mill, where they have been hunting the past week. They tagged a large number of gray squirrels and partridges.

Ship Snow & Burgess at Tacoma loading cargo of spars for Boston has been sold to San Francisco parties for fifty thousand dollars. This includes the freight money on cargo. The Snow & Burgess was built in Thomaston twelve years ago by Samuel Watts & Co.

Mrs. Maria Smith, Mrs. Sarah Wright, Mrs. Samuel Whitcomb and Miss Alida Mehan attended the state meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at Portland the past week. Miss Mehan was chosen a delegate to attend the National Temperance Union to be held a few months hence at Atlanta, Georgia.

WARREN.

A parrot has been flying about here from place to place, but no one was able to catch him. We would call for Clara.

Mrs. George Mallet, Mrs. John L. Stevens, Mrs. Wm. F. Teague and Mrs. Oliver Vinal were delegates to the Temperance Convention at Portland. All report a pleasant gathering.

Martin Stahl, B. H. Wetherbee and Harry Vinal were delegates from Mt. Willow lodge to the Grand Lodge of Good Templars at Rockland.

Rev. C. D. Crane of Newcastle delivered a lecture on his European Experiences at Glover hall, Friday evening last, assisted by Newcastle Mixed Quartet, in aid of the Congregational Church course of lectures. A good chance to laugh.

The lime kilns are out for a while.

A social dance was held at Glover hall Saturday evening last.

A dancing school is being talked up for winter amusement.

Mrs. Nellie Sherman of Union has bought out the stock and good will of Mrs. J. M. Chase, millinery goods, and will continue the business with dress making.

And now the painters are brushing over Warren hotel with a coat of yellow.

Mrs. Peleg Rollins left for the Eye Infirmary at Portland last week to have an operation on her eyes.

Mrs. J. R. Andrews left for the Eye Infirmary at Portland last week to see what could be done to aid her hearing.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawry Mathews are on a visit to Portland, being her native place....Mr. and Mrs. George Stone and Mrs. Maloney of Cushing were at Isaac E. Starrett's last week....Samuel Teague of Thibston visited his native place last week, calling on old friends....Bert Hodgman is on a short visit to his native place.

SOUTH WARREN.

W. L. Jordan has bought a nice driving horse of W. P. Gould of Camden.

Mrs. Mahala Oliver has moved to Warren and will do dressmaking there. Miss Cora Libby accompanied her.

Job and John Spear have bought out Sanford Delano of Thomaston and will keep a full line of meats and groceries. We recommend them to the citizens of Thomaston as accommodating gentlemen.

PERSONALS.—Oliver Counce and wife, and Miss Mary Counce spent the day at Pleasant Beach last Thursday....V. E. Taylor of Cushing was at Capt. E. Bradford's last week....Mrs. Bennett of Rockland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Bucklin.

SPRUCE HEAD.

Brig M. C. Mariner of Portland was in the harbor last week.

The County Commissioners and Selectmen were on the Island, Thursday.

Schooner Ohio discharged a load of lumber for the Bodwell Granite Co. last week.

School closes this week. Good work has been done this term and we would like to see Miss Willard again engaged next year.

A chicken dinner and supper was served in the chapel last Thursday for the benefit of the chapel. We understand about $35.00 was cleared.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Helen Henderson called on friends here last week....Mrs. M. D. Ames visited Mrs. W. W. Clarke last week....Mrs. Kate Waldron was on the Island last

CAMDEN.

Our coal merchants are stocking up for winter.

Rev. Mr. Evans has returned to Camden and occupies his pulpit again as usual.

Loomis Deewor broke his leg by the breaking of a balyard on his schooner last week.

Rev. Mr. Whitman, state secretary, preached as Universalist church last Sunday evening.

Our people are improving the opportunity of visiting Boston by the low fares on the steamboat line.

Mrs. Palmer of Cedercrest cottage has had a successful season and closed her house and returned to Boston.

Rev. Henry Jones, rector of St. Thomas church, is away and there will be no services Oct. 12th and 19th.

S. C. Tyler attended the dedication of G. A. R. hall in Belfast, contributing to the musical exercises of the occasion.

Johnson Knight is having his wharf extended out into the channel. Robert S. Davis is the master workman.

A committee of the Home for aged Women have made arrangements for a course of lectures for the benefit of the Association.

J. B. Stearns has received three deer, one old and two old kids from Alabama. He has them stalled in Noremega stable for the winter.

We understand that Rev. A. Church has sold his residence on High street to D. L. Alden and departed for Oakland, Cal., with his son A. R. Church.

Fred A. Swan, Boston's expert Electrician paid his parents a short visit last week, and was summoned to Boston very unexpectedly cutting short his visit.

Shipping at this port has been very lively for a number of weeks, vessels lying three deep at wharves waiting for a chance to load or unload merchandise.

Mr. Scott has a large crew of men at work on his new residence at the head of Mountain street with the intention of completing so as to occupy it this winter.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening at Megunticook Hall the "Zera Semons Novelty Co." will entertain the people of Camden with wonders of the Black Art.

Three weeks have passed since we laid down the pen, during which time a series of pictures have passed in panoramic order unrecorded, but, Ma Editor, please excuse—taking it up.

Elmer W. Sanford died at his late residence in Camden, Oct. 9, 1890, aged 56 years. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Evans. The remains were taken to West Camden cemetery for burial.

W. W. Currier Camden's veteran truckman, who retired from active business a number of years ago mounted the truck at the age of 78 years just to show the youngsters how it was done 50 years ago.

A number of summer boarders who came early with the intention of spending part of the season at Bar Harbor made a short stop there and returned to Camden to finish their vacation, it being far preferable.

Capt. E. H. Bramhall and skipper Lou have been to Portland in their steam yacht, since which they started for Rockport with a scow in tow ran on to stumps at the old Portland Steamboat wharf, and stove a hole in the yacht and had to abandon business and haul up for repairs.

The Knox County Fair at Megunticook hall last week passed off pleasantly and successfully notwithstanding unfavorable weather. The display at the hall was very good and the cattle show on Belmont Avenue of Jersey and native stock, horses and colts, sheep and swine was fair.

Our people are not going to allow their attention to be detracted from the one great object they have in view,—division of the town. The cry is raised, lo, here! lo, there! No matter if threats are made to shut us out from the rest of the world, they expect to have railroad and division too.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison said the "clumsy feet of legislation sometimes marks a pathway of woe," and we are reminded of it as we go into a store to purchase some goods. The merchant will say: such and such goods are advanced on account of McKinley and other bills of clumsy legislation. Such is life.

PERSONAL.—Miss Alice Lee returned home last week....Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Stone are visiting friends in Bangor....Mrs. Edna Smiley has returned from New York with a large stock of fall and winter millinery goods....Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gould left last week for a tour of recreation. They will take in the Mechanic's Fair in Boston visiting Washington see the White House and return the last of the month....Mrs. Mas. Mary L. Stevens has returned to Washington, D. C.

A significant event took place last week in which the Business Men's Club entertained the Directors of the Penobscot Shore Line R. R. which paid a visit to Camden with a view of ascertaining the feasibility of extending the road through Camden. A number of delegates from the club proceeded to Rockland station with two large bookboards and seven horses with which to convey the delegates of R. R. magnates to the Bay View hotel in Camden, where a banquet such as our landlord Capen knows how to prepare, awaited them. Hon. J. H. Montgomery presided. Arthur Sewall, esq., president of the road made some remarks stated what they expected of the town and the many advantages which would accrue. A committee consisting of P. D. Singh, H. L. Alden and J. W. Sherman presented resolutions in favor of raising $25000 by subscription in aid of the road. Speeches were made by other directors and members of the club; also many of our prominent citizens who were invited to attend the meeting and partake of the supper. The whole occasion was very interesting and important, and shadows an era of great prosperity to Camden in the near future. Our club is entitled to much credit for their thoughtful attentions and generous hospitality which was shown our distinguished visitors and proper arrangements for their entertainment.

WALDOBORO.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. Byron Orr went to Lawrence, Mass., last week where she is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Laura A. Brown....Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Reeves returned from Boston, Saturday....Byron Orr went to Gardiner last week.

BRIDGET: "I am going to love yer, mum." Mistress: "What for?" Bridget: "Because I'm going to be a mum."

ROCKPORT.

Schooner Joe Carleton, Perry, arrived from Baltimore with coal for Rockport railroad.

The directors of Penobscot Shore Line R. R. visited Rockport last week, and conferred with the citizens regarding the extension of the road to this place.

Prof. Harrington and his troupe, during the past week, have given a second course of instruction in vocal music; the opportunity was well improved by a class numbering over fifty.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. James Spear, Miss Gertrude Ambsbury and Miss Alice Carleton are visiting in Boston....Mrs. S. E. Shepherd went to Boston, Friday....Mrs. O. G. Lane of South Braintree, Mass., who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. N. Y. Talbot, returned home last week; she was accompanied by her niece, Miss Lois McCobb....Mrs. S. J. Newell has been in Sanford the past week, attending the Baptist State Convention....Miss Emma Ambsbury, who has been spending a few weeks in Boston, has returned home....Dr. H. B. Why Is It that the large trade we hold is all the time growing larger; that we retain popular patronage, and are adding to it continually?

SIMPLE QUESTION ENOUGH.

IT'S BECAUSE when a customer trades once at our store he comes and buys again, for the reason that he is satisfied with the price he pays.

IT'S BECAUSE the quality of our goods is never sacrificed for the sake of cheapness, as you will find it to be the case in many stores.

IT'S BECAUSE of adherence to the cardinal rules of business—

Reliable Goods, Correct Styles, Lowest Prices.

SIMONTON'

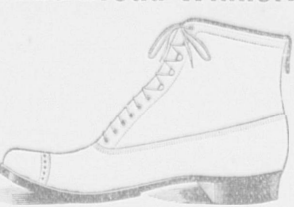

Sitting On Chance.

The average Maine boy, who never gets left, is well represented by one small kid who lives in Hancock county. Little Ed, was tormenting his big brother when the mother came to decide the case by telling the three-year-old gentleman that if he did not behave she would slap him, to which threat he exclaimed, "Where?" "Anywhere I can find a chance," replied the mother. A gleam of triumph shot into Little Ed's face as he retorted, "Well, I'm sitting right on the chance."

THE FASTEST TRACK.

The claim made by some reasoners that the slightly undulating track is faster than a dead level may be as erroneous as the claim for the alleged muscle-resting turns. It is argued that the slight up and down grades rest the muscles, and in support of the claim it is said that a horse can make a long journey easier and quicker over a slightly hilly country than over a dead level. But even if that be admitted, it does not prove that a one mile dash must necessarily be undulating to be the fastest. We believe that the fastest possible mile track that could be built would be perfectly straight, marble smooth course, of a slightly—very slightly—inclining grade from start to finish.

cafe, sat down at one of the tables and ordered a glass of absinthe.

"I thought I had time to catch her again before she reached Union square," he mused. "I wonder if she really walked that whole block. She couldn't have taken one of the green cross town cars, as I did not notice any pass there. Let's see, where could she have gone? Not to any of the places on the south side of the street, that's very sure. She might have entered Steiny hall. By jove she must have done it."

This idea impressed him as being very good, and he told the waiter to bring him some more absinthe. As he sipped the liquor his mind was active.

"Of course that old fool Steinmetz is bringing out a new fiddler, and she would naturally want to attend the concert. Supposing—no, it is not possible—yes, it is, though—she might have sought work there herself. I do not know but that she is the new Camilla Usher herself. I'll find out."

He did not dream of going to the hall himself and seeing his old friends Steinmetz and Neuberger. He left the cafe, and as a first move bought an Evening World from a newsboy and turned immediately to the amusement column, where he saw the announcement that Miss Louise Neville, a talented young artist, would make her first public appearance in the United States.

"Louise Neville may be Edna Lewis," he thought. "It is not probable that she would appear under her own name under the alias adopted by her father."

To settle the question to his own satisfaction he walked around to the nearest florist and bought a large bouquet. Then upon a blank card he wrote:

"With the sincere regards of an old St. Louis friend who has often enjoyed in private the accomplishments that the public are now given an opportunity to applaud,"

"Edna Lewis,"

He instructed a young man to deliver the flowers to Miss Neville of the stage, and to say that he had been sent by Mr. St. Leonard. Fifteen minutes later the messenger returned.

"When I handed her the flowers," he reported, "she said she was surprised to hear that Mr. St. Leonard was in New York, and she told me to thank him for her."

"I am glad to have that much settled. Now I can lay my hands on Edna," thought Dr. Watson. "Those informal managers have hold of her; that's the only trouble. I can't very well take her by force, and I'm afraid it is too late to get the gentleman down here before the concert. I'll wait, then."

Returning to the Morton house he wrote this letter:

"MY DEAR MR. CRAWFORD: My efforts have at last been crowned with success. I have discovered your daughter. She is now at Steiny hall, and if you will come down here without a moment's delay you may be able to see her to-night. In haste,"

G. L. WATSON."

He procured a messenger boy, and by aid of a liberal tip secured the promise that the note would be delivered in the shortest possible time at Kowenhan place, near Sixty-seventh street.

He then stationed himself near the door of Steiny hall to await developments.

Not long after this he saw his whilom assailant pass him and speak to a friend. Henshall had sat through two acts of "The Old Homestead" by the side of Miss Hartman, and believing that he had done his full duty to her, he pleaded the engagement he had mentioned when he met her and bade her good night. In front of Steiny hall he met a brother artist whom he had known for years.

"Come in here with me," said his friend. "A musician who heard the new violinist play in private yesterday says she is simply a marvel, and that she is bound to create an immense sensation. I bought tickets and intended to come here in time, but was delayed. I hope we have not missed her entirely."

Dr. Watson did not lose sight of Henshall until the swinging doors closed behind him.

A Woman's Business College.

Miss Mary F. Seymour, the energetic editor of The Business Woman's Journal, proposes soon to organize a woman's business college. She says it will be the outcome of the Union School of Stenography and Typewriting which she has so successfully conducted for ten years. In Miss Seymour's opinion girls will be more apt to enter a college with the prospect of a diploma than merely graduate from a "school" and have nothing to show for it in the end. Probably no business woman in the country has encountered incompetency oftener than Miss Seymour, and it is this fact that inspired the idea of a training school for business women. Notwithstanding the enormous supply there is a great demand still for stenographers and typewriters of skill and education. "Every woman, however," said Miss Seymour, "is not adapted for stenography and typewriting." No matter how well educated a woman may be, she certainly would not have a great success in stenography if her hearing was imperfect, but she might, if judiciously trained, become a first class proof reader or correspondent. This new college will be opened some time this fall—New York Press.

Queen Natalie's Physical Wreck.

Queen Natalie, of Serbia, troubles have told terribly upon her. In two years she has aged twenty. It is said she suffers from want of sleep and has recourse to opiates. Her beauty is gone and with it her youth, and the wreck of her former self is all that is left to tell the tale of her life. She is the personification of a political riddle, in the solving of which a nation is rendered wretched, a queen outraged and a mother disconsolate.—New York Telegram.

Worth Their Weight in Pound Notes.

Many parents are apt to consider their daughters worth their weight in gold, but a Scotch gentleman estimated his two daughters' value at even a higher rate than this, bequeathing to each her weight in £1 notes. The elder seems to have been slimmer than her sister, for she got only £51,300, while the younger received £55,344.

Capt. Colcord, of sch. Clara E. Colcord, was robbed by one of his seamen on a recent trip of the vessel to New York. The rascal took all the captain's clothes, his trunk, valise, and everything in the cabin he could lay his hands on.

The September Coast Survey report shows the correct position of the buoy off Inner Bay Ledges, Penobscot Bay. The H. S. bell-buoy to the northward of these ledges, and known as Fox Island Light, is in a position, as shown 8-10 of a mile S. by W. 3-4 W. from the spindle on Dunkard's Ledge. This effects Charis 311 a, 310, and 104. The front range light at the entrance of Newburyport Harbor has been discontinued. A H. S. nun buoy has been placed 75 yards S. W. of Pollock Rip blue bell-buoy, to mark the wreck of the schooner Weybosset. A recent examination in the vicinity shows the existence of a small ledge, off Parangage Point, 900 yards S. W. 7-8 S. from Forbes Rock. The ledge has 2 feet of water over it, with deep water on all sides.

SPOKEN.

FREIGHTS AND CHARTERS.

From the weekly circular of Snow & Burgess we take the following:

Business in connection with the more distant off-shore trades has made but slow progress during the week, and although freight rates in all directions are extremely low, and the available supply of medium and large carriers is quite moderate, the market still displays a lack of tone and strength. This untoward condition of the carrying trade, however, is but a reflex of the depression which prevails, more or less, in about all the prominent ports of the world, and is indicative of a relaxed condition of the international exchanges, which it is hoped will not be of protracted duration.

The charters of local interest are as follows:

Sch. T. W. Dunn and J. M. Haskell, from Windsor, N. S., to New York, Plaster, $1.75.

Sch. Stephen Bennett, from Kings Ferry to New York, Lumber, $6—free wharfage.

Bark Christina Redman, Ashpoco River, S. C., to New York, phosphate rock, $2.75.

Sch. Anna M. Dickinson, from South Amboy to Boston, Coal, 60 cents.

Sch. A. Heaton, from Kennebec to New York, Ice, 75.

This Man Means You.

Are you up with the times and do you get the best market affords for the money you pay out? How is it out in the kitchen? Have you the modern improvements there? If you have, then this is not written for you, because you are buying and using Brussels soap. If otherwise, be wise, and when next you order soap, try Brussels and you will gain a point over hard work. It's economical.

Cobb, Butler & Co's. New Vessel.

"That will be one of the best vessels hailing from this port," said Lewis Brewer, master builder in Cobb, Butler & Co's. ship yard one day last week to a representative of the COURIER-GAZETTE as the reporter eye gazed upon a fine specimen of maritime architecture nearing completion in the yard of the above named company. She has a Virginia white oak frame, the rest of the wood being hard pine. Three handsome masts will carry her best spreading canvases to catch the breeze to waft her over the seas. The dimensions of the vessel are as follows: 133 feet keel, 35 feet beam, and 12 1/2 feet depth of hold. She will measure a registered tonnage of about 625. The after cabin will be complete and spacious, being 10 feet square finished in quartered oak. Capt. Farwell's state room is 11 feet long and 6 feet wide, finished in pine; mate's room in after cabin, 6 by 7 with pine finishing. The vessel will accommodate two spare state rooms, one on each side. The pantry is 6 feet square and is finished in white wood. The other apartments have the following dimensions: water closet 6 by 7 feet, mid-ship house 9 by 10, forward house 16 by 17, forecastle 6 by 12 and after house 24 by 27. The vessel will be provided with one of Hyde's steam hoisting engines.

The small boats, three in number, are being built by Jacob B. Loring.

She will carry two anchors weighing respectively 2500 and 2500 pounds with 50 fathoms of chain to each anchor. Those who had to do with her construction are as follows: Master builder, Lewis Brewer; chief joiner, L. C. Hatch; spar maker, Arthur Wardwell; blockmaker, G. F. Kaler; rigger, John Longley; inside painter, Clifton & Carl; outside painter, Ezekiel Nash; manufacturer of water tanks, James Campbell, blacksmith, Noah Bridges of Owl's Head; caulker, James Ames.

The spars are of Oregon pine. The fore-mast is 90 1/2 feet long, 26 inches in diameter and one inch taper. The main mast is 91 feet and the mizen mast 91 1/2 feet long, each having a diameter of 25 inches. The topmasts are 50 feet each, jibboom 58 feet, being 16 inches on the cap. The whole cabin and state rooms are well lighted and ventilated making a cosy home for a life on the ocean wave.

UPS AND DOWNS OF VESSELS.

Sch. Moses Eddy, Ellwell, from Bangor for Boston, with lumber, arrived at Boothbay, Tuesday, looking badly. She discharged deck-load and hauled on the marine railway for repairs.

The Shenandoah, now building at the yard of A. Sewall & Co., will have a net tonnage estimated at 3500, her length will exceed 300 feet and she will carry four masts. This is pretty good size. In fact it compares pretty well with the largest sailing ships ever built. Probably the largest sailing ship afloat is of steel and was just launched at the Clyde yards. According to an exchange her dimensions are as follows: Length, 300 feet; breadth, 48 feet 9 inches; depth, 30 feet. The gross tonnage of the vessel is about 3750 tons. In the double bottom of the France there is a capacity for 3000 tons of water ballast, and 1200 tons additional can be accommodated in eight compartments amidships. These tanks can be used either for cargo or water as desired. Four of the five masts will be square-rigged, fore-and-aft sails being used on the mizen mast, and the aggregate area of the canvas spread will be about 49,000 square feet. "This is a little ahead of us," says the sprightly Bath Times, "but at the rate we are going we will beat this in about two years. Whether it be of wood or steel we don't know but Bath's isn't be long at any rate."

At Bath a barkentine of 1200 tons will be launched this week from the New England yard, for Capt. Wm. H. Besse of New Bedford.

Ship Tacoma of Bath has been out over 200 days from New York for San Francisco, and much anxiety is felt for her safety. She was last seen April 21, in lat. 1 S., lon. 26 W. Ship R. R. Thomas, Colson, now out 170 days from New York for San Francisco, was spoken July 9, lat. 33 1/2 S., lon. 37 1/2 W., by ship Fort James, at San Francisco Oct 1 from London.

FROM THE GREAT DEEP.

The Elsie M. Smith, from Grand Bank, arrived at Gloucester, one day last week, with 150,000 pounds cod.

The arrivals of fresh fish at Gloucester, Wednesday, were the heaviest for any day this fall, forty arrivals with an aggregate of 1,000,000 of fish, mainly from shore.

Nearly 13,000,000 shad have been placed in the open waters of Georgia during the last two years. Georgia rivers are said to be the best in the country for the propagation of fish.

The Dominion government has placed nearly five hundred million young lobsters in the various bays of Newfoundland this season. Wouldn't five hundred million young lobsters disposed along the coast of Maine make broad smiles on the faces of the fishermen, the summer boarders, the men who run canning factories and the legislators who study natural history by changing the lobster laws?

WEST CAMDEN TROT.

The races at the West Camden driving park Friday and Saturday were well contested, and considering the unfavorable weather well patronized. The free-for-all in which two of the gamiest and fastest horses in Maine, the chestnut stallion Joe Howe owned by H. J. Tibbetts of Rockport, and the bay gelding Romulus owned by Capt. H. M. Bean of Camden, took part, was a horse race from start to finish and it took five heats to decide which was the winner; Joe Howe winning the race, Romulus second, Gannymede third. Joe Howe was driven by Charles H. Dustin of Fairfield and Romulus by Billy Bean of Camden. Both men are considered generals in a sulky. The finish in the third heat, which was a dead heat between Joe Howe and Romulus, was one seldom seen on a race track—both horses coming to the wire under the whip. Owing to the unfavorable weather and heavy condition of the track the time was not fast, but those who attended saw the best race trotted over at Maine track this fall.

WALL PAPERS AT COST.

In order to reduce my stock before moving I shall offer the trade some extra fine bargains in paper hangings. Amusements and Announcements.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Friday at 3 p. m. in their room in Jones block.

The great Ariel-Thomas Combination is booked at the Opera House for Saturday and Monday, Oct. 25th and 27th.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary will meet in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Friday afternoon at 3.30.

Ivanhoe Commandery, United Order of the Golden Cross, will hold a sociable at their rooms Tuesday evening, Oct. 21.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting in their rooms Monday evening, Oct. 20. The honorary members are requested to be present.

Hattie A. Bishop gave a reading at the Methodist vestry last Thursday evening. Those present were well paid and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the entertainment. The ladies of this society served a harvest dinner to some more than 125 hungry men and women on Wednesday last.

All who signed the petition for organizing a Rebekah degree in connection with Knox Lodge, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at the lodge rooms at 7.45 Thursday evening for the purpose of nominating officers and transacting any business that may come before the meeting.

Mrs. Col. Springer, of Iowa, a lady of much culture and refinement, will speak at the Methodist vestry this (Tuesday) evening on the condition and needs of society in the South and in the new West. A rare opportunity is offered to all those who love our country.

The Opera House attraction for next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 20 and 21, is the great play "A Royal Pass." From all that we can gather, the German dialect comedian, Mr. George C. Staley, in "A Royal Pass" is one of the attractions which should not be greeted coldly because "we have never seen it." Local exchanges speak of Mr. Staley in a most laudatory manner. He is said to be a more than usually handsome and winning personage, and to be the equal of our best dialect comedians. His acting and singing are both said to be of a superior order. His play "A Royal Pass" is described as an interesting creation containing a well woven story, brightened by a great deal of music and comedy. It is correctly and picturesquely costumed and each part is interpreted by a competent artist. Mr. Harry Doel Parker, Mr. Staley's manager, guarantees a strictly first class and rarely enjoyable performance.

Farwell hall was comfortably filled last evening with an appreciative audience at the first entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. of this city. The attraction was the Lotus Glee Club assisted by Miss Minnie Marshall as elocutionist. The club fully sustained the reputation it has gained by their fine effort here, being in every respect artistic and pleasurable. The quartet is composed of young men who possess tuneful voices which harmonize delightfully. The club was enthusiastically received, and had to respond to repeated demands for encore. Miss Marshall pleased the audience with several charming efforts, which were both artistic and natural, and altogether pleasing. The encore after encore which she received proved how effectively she had captivated her audience. The entertainment was the success of the season. The second entertainment in the course comes off November 24th, which will consist of instrumental and vocal music with several elocutionary renditions. There are some good seats not taken for the balance of the course. Any one wishing it can obtain tickets with reserved seats for the next three entertainments at $1 each.

BIG SQUASHES.

Josiah Orbeton is the champion squash raiser when it comes to size. From two seeds raised into the mold last spring, were evolved three squashes, two of them weighing 400 pounds. S. W. Green of Green's Landing was in the city, Friday, and purchased the largest one in the lot and took it home with him to place on exhibition in his store. Mr. Green wants all the people in his region to drop in and look at his corpulent vegetable. It weighs 202 pounds. The twin to Mr. Green's squash was on exhibition at the Central House last week and was much admired for its beauty and avoirdupois. From four seeds, Mr. Orbeton raised five squashes which weigh 700 pounds. Who can beat this record?

THE WAR SHIPS.

The white ships of Uncle Sam need good men and for the purpose of stimulating enlistments the fleet are to make a trip along our shores. One or more of them will visit Rockland it is supposed. Of course it is to be deplored that our Yankee sailors persist in keeping out of the service but one can hardly see how they can do otherwise. According to "Pinafore" "a man's a man" and our New England seamen decidedly object to be domineered over by the petty officers on these ships, to be spoken to as if they were dogs rather than free born American citizens, is apt to make any man mad. It may do for a certain class of foreigners but we don't believe it will "go down" with Maine sailors.

Maynard Sumner, president of the Rockland National Bank, was suddenly stricken with an apoplectic shock this Tuesday forenoon. He was in the bank attending to his duties as usual when he suddenly fell over unconscious. He was placed on an improvised cot and medical attendance quickly obtained. Four hours later he had not regained consciousness and the worst is feared.
