

"ON THE HILL."

First Baptist Church. Rev. A. F. Wedge, Pastor. Prayer meetings Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Prayer meetings Tuesday evenings at 7:30. Universalist Church. Sunday School every Sunday at 11 a. m.

Read "Chickamauga." Miss Maud Douglass made a visit to relatives at Canton and Lewiston last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Augustus S. Thayer last week visited relatives at Paris last week.

If you like stories of love and war, "Chickamauga" will interest you. Read the opening chapters, the story will tell the rest.

Who is the man among us who will ever represent the live stock insurance Co., 120 Tremont St., Boston? Write to them.

John F. Stanley has been the Messenger Wilkes station "Dash" to Bishop, the New York buyer.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

There will be a "round party" and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katchell Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Katchell's birthday. All are invited.

The Baptist Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Sewing will be provided. Picnic supper will be provided by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

Fred Harding has been down out of the woods a few days on a vacation made necessary by a shelling log throw, which against accident. No serious injury, but enough to require a few days to mend. His family returned to Andover with him, and will remain for the present.

Albert A. Andrews, who has been in poor health for some time, passed away Saturday morning at his home in Paris at the age of forty-five years and five days. The funeral services will be attended on Tuesday by a short entertainment in the evening. All cordially invited.

THE OXFORD BEARS.

THE DEINGS OF THE WEEK IN ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTY.

WILSON'S MILLS. January has been a very pleasant month so far. There is not as much going on in the logging business as there has been in the lumber business.

John Olson and Henry Bourgette are hauling sugar for W. W. Linnell. E. S. Bean has gone to the lower town with his threshing machine.

N. K. Bennett is carrying the mail until a reliable man can be found to take it.

A party of young men from Colebrook have been up the river for a good time.

LOCKE'S MILLS. The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

The sleighing and sledging here is the best we have had this season.

FRYEBURG.

While Gilbert Lewis and E. G. Harlow were fooling with one another, one day recently, Harlow threw Lewis and he struck in such a manner that his collar bone was broken.

Geo. L. Merrill was confined to the house one last week by an ulcerated tooth. He is now out and at work again.

The Dramatic Club had an oyster supper, and otherwise passed an enjoyable evening last Thursday evening.

All members of Riverside Lodge, No. 315, I. O. G. T., are requested to be present at the lodge room on Wednesday evening, Jan. 20th, at 7 o'clock sharp as business of importance is to come before the lodge at that time.

Mr. E. J. Brackett and wife are in Massachusetts for seven weeks. B. W. McKenney spent Sunday with his family in Fryeburg.

The public schools closed Friday, Jan. 25.

Mrs. J. B. Abbott is out after several weeks in the house with a severe cold.

The K. of P. held a public installation with entertainment and supper Jan. 22.

At the annual meeting, on the evening of January 17, of the South Friendly Society of the South Congregational Church, Boston, Mrs. Judith W. Allen was elected president for the coming year.

The society is 62 years old, and in all that time it has had only five presidents, the longest being Mrs. Allen.

A school for instruction in vocal music is in progress under the instruction of Mr. Z. S. Parker of Hallowell.

Abel Irish of Buckfield loaded a car with apples on Monday. He purchased several lots of apples in this vicinity for a few days, for sale.

A large delegation from this place attended the installation of officers of Fryeburg Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Tuesday evening and reported a fine time.

Mr. Augustine Ingalls is hauling birch to the depot at Brownfield.

HARTFORD. Mrs. Helen DeCoster died Jan. 18, aged about 58 years.

Lillie Purkis is getting out lumber for a new barn.

Bert Hutchison has traded a cow for a new horse and carriage.

We are afflicted with a terrible lame horse.

EAST BROWNFIELD. The ladies' circle met with Mrs. A. F. Johnson Wednesday.

Found in the woods a fine specimen of a white pine, which was cut by Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. Jane Weeks is suffering from a cold and headache.

Mrs. John Perkins is coming better.

Mrs. John D. McKenney and Miss Jennie Colthwaite of Salem, Mass., are in town caring for their grandfather who is ill of pneumonia.

While Misses Cora and George Gatchell were out driving Wednesday, a bolt came out of their sleigh which let the shafts drop on the horse's heels and frightened the horse so badly that he became unmanageable and ran away.

The young ladies were thrown out, but fortunately not hurt. The horse ran a short distance and was stopped by men who kindly assisted the young ladies to start again.

HEBRON. The citizens had a very pleasant evening in the church Monday evening consisting of singing, the quartet, a solo by Harry Barrows, remarks by Rev. Dr. Crane, recitations by Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Dr. Doshman playing the organ as usual. After the exercises a book of prayer was held in the vestry. Master Vivian Bearce proved an expert at guessing.

The sides chosen were under Mrs. H. K. Green and Miss Grace Bumpus. The victory was on the side of the latter, 20 against 7, but as the other side "beat" at the charity party last week all comes out even.

Mr. Joseph Hibbs is in Boston this week with a car of apples for Rice & Holway.

Miss Grace Bumpus is in Turner visiting relatives.

Mrs. Greenwood was a little more comfortable last Saturday.

Mrs. Addison Maxim is very low.

H. M. Bearce is failing.

WELCHVILLE. The Welchville High School will have a social next Friday evening, Feb. 1st.

Miss Belle Lunt has returned from her visit at Portland.

Frank Murdoch of Mechanic Falls was calling on friends in this place one day last week.

Ed McKenney is hauling the pine timber from the Gage lot in Paris to Oxford for Dr. S. E. King.

Miss Mary Holmes is visiting at Portland for a few days.

There is to be a singing school at Welchville on Monday evening, Feb. 1st.

On Monday last week Mattie Cornell and Edna Stickle came into contact with an apple tree while coasting down the hill back of C. D. Cornell's house. They had gone to a severe gash in the forehead and was confined to the house until the latter part of the week.

Herbert Lyman of Helena, Montana, is visiting Fred J. Wood.

F. W. Sanborn of the Advertiser was here Tuesday looking for work.

John F. Wood of Boston spent two days with his son Fred J. Wood last week.

Charles Luck has had a turn for the worse, rheumatic fever having set in.

DIXFIELD.

While Gilbert Lewis and E. G. Harlow were fooling with one another, one day recently, Harlow threw Lewis and he struck in such a manner that his collar bone was broken.

Geo. L. Merrill was confined to the house one last week by an ulcerated tooth. He is now out and at work again.

The Dramatic Club had an oyster supper, and otherwise passed an enjoyable evening last Thursday evening.

All members of Riverside Lodge, No. 315, I. O. G. T., are requested to be present at the lodge room on Wednesday evening, Jan. 20th, at 7 o'clock sharp as business of importance is to come before the lodge at that time.

Mr. E. J. Brackett and wife are in Massachusetts for seven weeks. B. W. McKenney spent Sunday with his family in Fryeburg.

The public schools closed Friday, Jan. 25.

Mrs. J. B. Abbott is out after several weeks in the house with a severe cold.

The K. of P. held a public installation with entertainment and supper Jan. 22.

At the annual meeting, on the evening of January 17, of the South Friendly Society of the South Congregational Church, Boston, Mrs. Judith W. Allen was elected president for the coming year.

The society is 62 years old, and in all that time it has had only five presidents, the longest being Mrs. Allen.

A school for instruction in vocal music is in progress under the instruction of Mr. Z. S. Parker of Hallowell.

Abel Irish of Buckfield loaded a car with apples on Monday. He purchased several lots of apples in this vicinity for a few days, for sale.

A large delegation from this place attended the installation of officers of Fryeburg Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Tuesday evening and reported a fine time.

Mr. Augustine Ingalls is hauling birch to the depot at Brownfield.

HARTFORD. Mrs. Helen DeCoster died Jan. 18, aged about 58 years.

Lillie Purkis is getting out lumber for a new barn.

Bert Hutchison has traded a cow for a new horse and carriage.

We are afflicted with a terrible lame horse.

EAST BROWNFIELD. The ladies' circle met with Mrs. A. F. Johnson Wednesday.

Found in the woods a fine specimen of a white pine, which was cut by Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. Jane Weeks is suffering from a cold and headache.

Mrs. John Perkins is coming better.

Mrs. John D. McKenney and Miss Jennie Colthwaite of Salem, Mass., are in town caring for their grandfather who is ill of pneumonia.

While Misses Cora and George Gatchell were out driving Wednesday, a bolt came out of their sleigh which let the shafts drop on the horse's heels and frightened the horse so badly that he became unmanageable and ran away.

The young ladies were thrown out, but fortunately not hurt. The horse ran a short distance and was stopped by men who kindly assisted the young ladies to start again.

HEBRON. The citizens had a very pleasant evening in the church Monday evening consisting of singing, the quartet, a solo by Harry Barrows, remarks by Rev. Dr. Crane, recitations by Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Dr. Doshman playing the organ as usual. After the exercises a book of prayer was held in the vestry. Master Vivian Bearce proved an expert at guessing.

The sides chosen were under Mrs. H. K. Green and Miss Grace Bumpus. The victory was on the side of the latter, 20 against 7, but as the other side "beat" at the charity party last week all comes out even.

Mr. Joseph Hibbs is in Boston this week with a car of apples for Rice & Holway.

Miss Grace Bumpus is in Turner visiting relatives.

Mrs. Greenwood was a little more comfortable last Saturday.

Mrs. Addison Maxim is very low.

H. M. Bearce is failing.

WELCHVILLE. The Welchville High School will have a social next Friday evening, Feb. 1st.

Miss Belle Lunt has returned from her visit at Portland.

Frank Murdoch of Mechanic Falls was calling on friends in this place one day last week.

Ed McKenney is hauling the pine timber from the Gage lot in Paris to Oxford for Dr. S. E. King.

Miss Mary Holmes is visiting at Portland for a few days.

There is to be a singing school at Welchville on Monday evening, Feb. 1st.

On Monday last week Mattie Cornell and Edna Stickle came into contact with an apple tree while coasting down the hill back of C. D. Cornell's house. They had gone to a severe gash in the forehead and was confined to the house until the latter part of the week.

Herbert Lyman of Helena, Montana, is visiting Fred J. Wood.

F. W. Sanborn of the Advertiser was here Tuesday looking for work.

John F. Wood of Boston spent two days with his son Fred J. Wood last week.

Charles Luck has had a turn for the worse, rheumatic fever having set in.

BETHEL.

Sunday evening, Jan. 20, there was a very interesting gospel temperance meeting at the Congregational church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

The address by Rev. Mr. Barton was a fine effort in which Christian love and tenderness toward the weak and down-fallen were strikingly uttered. Something besides the law upon our statute books must be used to uplift the tempted. The ladies by Miss Jeanne Nelson added interest to the meeting. The ladies are to be congratulated upon the success of a happily arranged program.

Miss Gertrude Fullerton is visiting friends in Worcester, Mass.

Edwin Gehring is spending his vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chandler spent the Sabbath in Bethel.

Some of the magistrates have been taken from the reading room. It may not be generally understood that we are indebted to some of our kind people for the privilege we have of reading them. They have been taken from the reading room for the new year's owners desire to take them home for preservation. Often they are taken from the reading room for public benefit where the contributor has time to read them. Will any one having any magazines from the reading room please return them to the reading room.

Feb. 23rd there will be a "dollar party" for the Bethel library, when an opportunity will be given to read the book. Think of it. A dollar for the public benefit where the contributor has time to read them. Will any one having any magazines from the reading room please return them to the reading room.

Some of our young ladies are showing a good deal of enthusiasm in the new rule they are playing at the school of Technology, Boston.

Thursday John Brown, son of James Brown of East Bethel, was severely injured. He had just unloosed a load of lumber when he was struck by a load of lumber. He was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

Mr. Brown was struck and injured, and was thrown some distance, and was badly cut about the head, and also received a deep cut in the arm.

Friday afternoon Mr. Gilman Blake of Walker's Mills called at E. B. Goddard's to inquire for Mr. Brown, so recently injured. He was in the hospital in being hit by the train several years ago, and expressed the thought how much caution people should use.

