OUTLOOK

The vote of Maine, complete, gives Cleaves 12 512 plurality.

Waterville is to have free postal delivery. Waterville is smart and enterprising and we congratulate her.

Baron Fava has returned to Washington. Is this considered a favor to the United States on the part of Italy?

Mr. Blaine weighs 162 1/2 pounds. There are larger men than Mr. Blaine in Rockland, but no bigger man in the country.

Emperor William's offensive remarks have driven the Bismarcks out of the army service. King William's predecessors in time of war were noted for their ability on the offensive, while the present emperor is quite as noted for his offensive action in time of peace.

The Kennebec orchardists are now receiving offers of $1.75 and the barrel furnished for No. 1 winter apples, to be packed in October, with half price for No. 2. Quite a good figure for this season of the year, but most of them will hold until later.

The Biddeford Times assigns no reason for the delay in the arrival home of the Grand Army men from Washington the fact that the Posts were so loaded down with badges and relics that the trains were unable to contain their speed.

Buyers like to get the worth of their money, and advertisers should get the worth of the money they pay for advertising. THE C-G's $500 each week so completely covers the territory in this part of Maine that a dollar put into C-G advertising is a gilt-edged investment. Come in, friend advertiser, look over our list and our books, drop in Tuesday and see our big edition go to press, and don't say you didn't realize how big a circulation THE C-G. had.

The cholera scare is about over and Uncle Sam is evidently to escape the dreaded epidemic. There has been considerable criticism of the action of New York's health authorities, but the error in such cases had better be on the side of severity than laxity. The cholera has done one thing, certainly, and that is to give Gov. Flower an opportunity, and well he improved it. He showed himself equal to a great emergency.

One of our exchanges discusses the unfortunate lot of the poor newspaper man, and for the purpose of getting some little sympathy from our readers we reprint:

When a child is born into the world the physician is present and gets about $10 for officiating at the important event. The editor heralds the advent of the stranger and gets a few extra copies of his paper to send to some absent friends.

After a while the child becomes a man, the minister is called to perform the marriage ceremony and walks off with a $10 bill in his pocket for his trouble. The editor is again called upon to chronicle this event by drawing on his imagination to make the bride and groom the best and most respectable people in the county. His only pay is to be asked for a few extra copies of his paper to send to some absent friends.

In time the once happy groom, but now a man well advanced in years, is brought down by death. Again the physician is called in and makes his bill, the undertaker is present and officiates at the funeral, and in time wants $100 for performing the last sad rites, while the editor is expected to complete the drama by holding up the deeds of this a model gentleman, and one who at present is flying up the golden stairs. The probabilities are at the same time that the lady, the groom and the dead man have been so infernally stingy that he had stunted his wife and children and had never contributed one cent to the support of his last paper.

What does the editor get? He gets left.

We haven't said anything regarding THE C-G's circulation for as much as a week. Our regular edition is 3,500 weekly, never less and often more, an edition that is used up clean every week by bona fide subscribers and purchasers. This is the largest circulation attained by any paper in this section, being equal to the combined circulation of most any two of our contemporaries. Our list, our books and our press room are well open to visitors, and any of those who wish to investigate our claims will be welcome. Those of our contemporaries who wish to take issue with us, notably our neighbor the Opinion, will bear in mind that we have a $200 offer backing our claim. Statements that we lie and like soft impeachment are not regarded by us or the general public as accepting our offer or covering our $200.

Elizabeth Cynthia Barney in the current number of Harper's Bazar gives an interesting account of "A Girl's Four Years at Columbia," before the founding of Barnard College. Marion Harland begins a series of papers on social and domestic subjects entitled "Day in and Day Out," the first article being called "The Mute Angel." Antoinette Van Housen Wakeman tells of "The Woman's Dormitory Association of the Columbian Exposition." The autumn fashions—and especially autumn wedding-gowns and bridesmaids' dresses—are appropriately described and illustrated. The front-page picture is an illustration of evening toilettes by Worth. There is also a pattern-sheet supplement with illustrations and complete descriptions. The two serial stories by William Black and Walter Besant are continued.

OUR LETTER BOX.

A Correspondent Discusses the City Government Question.

Fourteen Aldermen, as the Frenchman would say, is a good many Aldermen. For 38 years we have had the present number, 28, in the City Council and do we need a change merely for the reason that there is a lack of quorum at the city meetings? Now the citizens haven't any too much representation in the City Council, and in my opinion the present representation is just about right and I have my opinion on my experience.

If there is to be any change perhaps we might get along with two members from each ward in the Common Council.

Now as to a quorum. Father Barron used to say that the tenderest place about an Irishman was his pocket, and I think this saying will also apply very easily to some others. But what I was going to say about a quorum is this—members of the City Council might have $1 each to pay them for their time in attending each meeting of either board, under rules such as each board might see fit to adopt, and they might be made subject to a fine of $2 for being absent from the meetings under the same rules, provided such action was legal, of course.

I think that under such an arrangement there wouldn't be very much difficulty in obtaining a quorum.

Let's try it! It too often happens that 10 members of the Common Council will meet and wait until nine and sometimes ten o'clock, when business is urgent, for enough members to make a quorum. Under our present arrangement the Board of Aldermen is nearer to the city treasury than the Common Council, and the Common Council is nearer to the people because of its greater numbers.

DEATH OF KNOX.

Exceptions Taken to an Item Regarding the Great General's Demise.

THOMASTON, Sept. 25, 1892.

Mr. Editor.

Your Warren correspondent says that it was at the old Jarvis house in that town where Gen'l Knox got the chicken bone in his throat which ultimately caused his death. What evidence can your correspondent give that this is a fact? The late Hon. William Singer was well acquainted, not only with Gen. Knox but with the well known Boston merchant, Benjamin Bozzy, who ultimately came into possession of a large part of the property owned by Gen. Knox, at the time of his decease.

Mr. Bozzy was present, sitting at the dinner table with the General in his own home, when the misfortune occurred; and from Mr. Singer's own lips I heard the details given as related to him by Mr. Bozzy.

Mr. Bozzy said that having a long and unsatisfied account with Gen. Knox he had come down to Thomaston with the special purpose of effecting a settlement. This he had been enabled to do by taking the General's individual notes secured by a mortgage on his real estate here in Thomaston. The whole forenoon had been occupied in effecting the settlement, and the dinner hour had arrived when they had concluded, and the General insisted upon Mr. Bozzy's remaining and taking dinner with him.

It was whilst eating their dinner that the General was noticed to put his hand up to his mouth, coughing slightly, then rising from his seat, asked to be excused and left the room. These are the simple facts as stated by Mr. Bozzy to Capt. Singer. All the known facts of the case seem to agree with his statement. Whilst it is barely possible that Mr. Bozzy and General Knox transacted their business up to Warren and took their dinner at the Jarvis house, it is very certain that Mr. Bozzy did not convey that idea to Capt. Singer in his relation of the transaction. Hence the inquiry: What evidence of the fact can your correspondent give us of the truth of his statement?

COLD COMFORT.

The Rockport Ice Co. has about 4000 tons of ice in its houses. Ice is now worth about $1 to $1.35 per ton.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The Street Railway Formally Transferred—The Company's Plans.

The directors of the Rockland, Camden & Thomaston Street Railway and representatives of the Edison Electric Co., inspected the road the 23d. All contracts having been fulfilled and the road completed, the power being several percent more than specified, the road was formally transferred to the Rockland, Camden & Thomaston Street Railway Co., and the construction money paid.

The company is well pleased with the road, and intend to give the public good service. Some changes through the village of Rockport are deemed necessary, owing to the numerous grades and curves which require a large per cent of the power at these points. The Superintendent, Mr. Weston, was in town the 25th, considering the advisability of having regular stations, to avoid stopping the cars on the grades and curves. Twelve stops between the bridge and Huse Avenue certainly seem unnecessary.

The company has in course of construction a combination car with electric locomotives, 120 horse power each. This will be used in connection with a mail, baggage and freight car, also snow plow when necessary.

The company is also preparing for two more cars, as the business of the road indicates a large travel for the coming year. Five Winter or closed cars are being shipped, and will be put on the road as soon as the change can be effected. The same body and motors of the Summer cars are to be used for the closed cars. The seating arrangement and tops of each car are so constructed as to be changeable from one to the other.

Rockport people can purchase tickets on the electric, twenty for $1, at the store of S. E. & H. L. Shepherd, while tickets are on sale at all the car stations. This will be quite a convenience to avoid making change.

The cars from Camden and Rockport will connect with the local car at Rockland for Maine Central steamboat wharf. Passengers for that point may change cars without extra fare, as the conductor will furnish transfer tickets to all desiring them.

The public are inquiring whether there will be any waiting rooms furnished in Rockport this coming Winter by the company, or will passengers be obliged to wait in the cold and snow, or on the stores and postoffice to be used as such? This question seems pertinent and will no doubt be considered by the Company.

TRAIN TIME.

Changes Announced Over the Maine Central—Railroad Notes.

The Maine Central and its busy branch, the Knox & Lincoln, entered yesterday upon its Fall schedule, and the time of departure and arrival, Rockland, is as follows: Hooper's train leaves at 8:15 a. m., instead of 7:50 a. m.; Rideout's train leaving at 1:35 p. m. and the Pullman at 5:20 p. m., there being no change in the time of departure of these two trains.

The morning Pullman arrives in here at 4:05 a. m., instead of 10:10 a. m.; Hooper arrives at 5:20 p. m. instead of 5, and there is no change in the express freight.

Frank Krizer is off on a ten days vacation, during which time Albert Berry takes charge of his baggage car on Hooper's train.

Ivan Leonard is to brake for Rideout, Frank Clark on the night, Pullman, as usual, and Albert Berry for Hooper.

A new scarecrow has been erected at Rockport to protect the yard. A scarecrow is a board or lantern, operated by a wire, which announces to incoming trains that they cannot enter the yard.

A crew is at work lengthening out the sidetracks to make more yard room. The southern sidetrack is having a switch put in at the upper end to facilitate the making up of trains.

GOOSE EGGS.

A farmer informs us that goose lay eggs only in the spring time, and at no other season of the year. If this be a fact William Coombs, who lives in the East District, Vinalhaven, owns a flock. He has a goose that during the month of September laid five eggs. How about it!

GRANITE CHIPS

The Sargent Granite Co. of Searsport is quite busy. The Belfast Journal says:

The laying of the corner stone of the 71st Regiment Army Building in New York city came off Monday. The stone, which weighed over 8,000 lbs., was cut at Mt. Hegan quarries by the Sargent Granite Co., who have the contract to furnish all the stone for the building, and was 5 1/2 x 2 1/2 x 6 with polished front, raised letters in panel. This, with other large contracts, insures work for the Sargent Co. for an indefinite time, and as they are continually enlarging and improving their works they will ere long take high rank among the biggest and best granite industries in New England.

Mr. F. T. Sargent, who is in charge of the works at Mt. Hegan, is a gentleman of large experience and abilities. The pay roll there last month amounted to $12,000 and notwithstanding there is a mile of track, steam power at the landing capable of raising a 32 ton stone and soon to be put into the quarries, 17 horses and 22 oxen are required. F. W. Gray in charge of the teams is the right man in the right place. He is a Searsporter, as are some twenty-five of the employees. Benefits from the industry extend to our village, though a dozen miles away, and it is to be regretted the beautiful granite within our own borders cannot be utilized and furnish employment for as many men as are working on neighboring quarries.

OLD BUILDING.

A Reference to the Knox House and Its Faithful Structure.

Mr. Livermore, of the old publishing firm of Livermore, Masters & Smith, of Hallowell, who carried on the business of publishing the Maine Farmer's Almanac half a century ago, is in the city, the guest of his son, Charles D. Livermore, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Co. Mr. Livermore is 88 years old, and fairly active. A gentleman was speaking to him of the old Knox mansion in Thomaston, of the enormous timbers that composed its frame, its wide shingles, and the fact that every nail used therein was of wrought iron and imported, when Mr. Livermore said that the old Congregational church in Hallowell was constructed in the same way—with great timbers and the same kind of nails. He recalled the time in the past when Hallowell and Gardiner did a vast wholesale business, extending back to Oxford county, and as far east as Rockland—Portland Press.

ARCTIC EXPLORERS.

A Letter of Gratitude from the Frigid, Frozen North.

As a result of the Julia Decker's trip to Labrador benevolent Portland ladies sent contributions of goods to the residents in that congealed region. Recently the following letter of acknowledgment was received:

MALABAWK, July 30, 1892.
T. Blake to Rupert H. Bazler:
Dear Sir:—With pleasure and gratitude I write you a few lines to let you know that I received that Package you sent by Cap. McConnell it was beyond my expectation to get such a Package. It is a great blessing to us, particularly as the times is so hard here up to this time I have not a letter from you I suppose it is through the mail. Mother desires to send her regards to you. The Sabbath school has been a failure about this day most of us were wishing every blessing that health and happiness can be bestowed from your grateful wisher.
THOMAS BLAKE

The barrels sent to the Moravian Mission station at Hopewell, Labrador, have not as yet been heard from, although Mr. Baxter expects a letter from the missionaries by the last mail steamer.

WASHINGTON FAIR.

The Management Prophesies an Unusually Fine Exhibit.

The Washington Town Fair opens its third annual session today, closing Thursday. The first day will be devoted to entries and arrangements, the second day to exhibition of stock, the third day to drawing, training, athletic sports, etc.

The fair is held in the new Grange hall, built to replace the one burned last Spring. The Washington Town fair has been on the up grade each year, is well managed and enthusiastically supported, and patrons can depend upon enjoying a fine exhibition.

AKOOSTOOK POTATOES.

Are being shipped to great quantities to Boston. The ship reports a potato train of 30 car loads, passing through there one day last week.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Concerning the Whereabouts of People Well Known to Our Readers.

Miss L. Etta Philbrook went to Boston, Tuesday.

Capt. I. H. Tolman and Capt. E. W. Cookson left Tuesday to rejoin their vessels.

A sister of Theodoros Roosen, from Denmark, is a guest at Mr. Roosen's home.

Sidney Nash of the Western Union Telegraph office, Bangor, has been visiting his home in this city, the past week.

The Misses Rice and Carleton Snow took the Tuesday morning train for their respective school destinations. A large number of their young friends assembled at the depot to see them off.

Chas. A. Coombs, formerly superintendent of the K. & L. Railroad, now superintendent of a road between Springfield and Washington, has been spending a few days with his family in Bath.

Attorney General Littlefield and Joseph Paladino have been in Portland the past week, called there by the trial of Gabriello De Rosa, the Italian who is charged with killing his brother. Mr. Littlefield assisted in the prosecution and Mr. Paladino officiated as interpreter. The papers say that Mr. Paladino gave the best of satisfaction and that he is a bright and talented young man.

GIFTED SINGER.

A Knox County Young Man Who Has Won Fame.

Willis E. Bacheller, a native of Union, was one of the singers at the great Worcester, Mass., festival last week, in company with such artists as Emma Juch, Myron W. Whitney, Belle Cole, Campanini, Antonio Giuliani and many others. Mr. Bacheller went to Kent's Hill from Union to pursue his literary studies, but his rich, natural voice soon attracted the attention of Prof. Morse of the Conservatory of Music who persuaded him to make public singing his life work.

Prof. Morse opened the doors of his home to this young man, and for five years directed his musical studies. Mr. Bacheller pursued his work with great energy and developed a manly character which has won the respect of all. He has a very sympathetic nature, yet a strong purpose. These traits, together with an excellent natural voice to which has been added the best of training, make him truly a great singer.

After his graduation from Kent's Hill he determined to pursue his musical studies in Europe. In the Fall of '89 he sailed for Florence, Italy, where he put himself under that renowned master, Vincenzo Vannini. He was very faithful and improved rapidly. So well and favorably was he known there that in response to invitations he sang several times in that city and was offered a most liberal salary to sing grand opera. After his three years course in Italy he continued his studies in Germany and London, reaching his native state last July.

Dr. Torrey, the late deceased ex-president of Kent's Hill, was deeply interested in this young man, and seemed to take personal pride in his success. At the special request of the doctor Mr. Bacheller sang to him and a few of his nearest friends. After the recital in a few well chosen words the doctor thanked him heartily for his kindness and ended his remarks which proved to be his very best public words by saying: "I have heard nearly all the great public singers since the days of Jenny Lind, and while perhaps some have appeared to the ear as well, I have never heard one who in his singing appealed to the heart as this old student of ours does."

KNOX COUNTY BOY.

Another Example of What This Section Can Produce.

Last week a reporter of THE C-G. had the pleasure of visiting the Summer studio of Charles Copeland, the well known Boston artist. The studio in question is a very cosy and comfortable retreat located on the premises of Capt. Harvey Mills' fine residence at Thomaston. Mrs. Copeland being Capt. Mills' only daughter. The studio is cosy from construction, with its open fire-place, its comfortable chairs, its broad windows, etc., and attractive because of the many beautiful things in water colors which abound and the partially finished sketches of scenes indoors and out that are scattered about.

Charles Copeland is a Thomaston boy, born and bred, and an exceptionally fine specimen, being a royal good fellow, and in every respect a gentleman. Mr. Copeland always had a taste for drawing, and gave his inclination full sway, so that when, as a young man he went to Boston in search of a livelihood he turned his attention to sign-painting, not as a profession but as a source of income. His artistic tastes were developed by a three years association with the artist, Abner Crossman, now of Chicago, but at that time residing in Boston.

But aside from this Mr. Copeland attended the Lowell Institute and the Zephos Club, Boston, and—well it's the usual story of Maine pluck, perseverance and talent achieving success, and at the present time Mr. Copeland certainly stands without a superior as an illustrator of nice publications, and the significant autograph, "Copeland" accounts for the great merit and beauty of the illustrations in such editions de luxe as the "Village Blacksmith," "Grandfather Gray," "Onward Christian Soldiers," and the like, while readers of the Youth's Companion are more than familiar with his skillful work. He is at work now on a half hundred illustrations for the Youth's Companion, some of which will be especially elaborate and effective.

The July Scribner contains an article illustrated by Mr. Copeland, "The Depths of the Sea," by S. N. Shaler.

Mr. Copeland is very happy and successful in his water color work, many of his sketches selling for gilt-edged prices. We were shown some very beautiful water colors on the occasion of our visit, the result of his Summer's work. Among them a sunset scene near Beechwoods, the Patterson Mills falls, and a sheep picture seemed especially charming.

Mr. Copeland is a gentleman with the true artist's love for his work. He works rapidly, but none the less faithfully, and the name and fame he has won have been honestly gained.

He and his family leave this week for Newton, Mass., where they reside. Mr. Copeland's studio is 49 Studio Building, Tremont street, Boston.

UNION COMMON.

The Surveyors in Town—A Big Orchard.

There was a dance in Town Hall, Wednesday evening.

The Burton House maintains its old time popularity. Mr. and Mrs. Burton have hosts of friends who always enjoy a visit to the hotel.

Mrs. C. I. Burrows and son Burton J., returned home from Rockland Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. C. F. Simmons and son Eaton of Oklahoma.

The surveying party of the G. V. R. R. crew are now at work on the Union half of the route, and are making their headquarters at the Burton House.

The railroad is steadily drawing nearer and nearer to Union. When the first locomotive comes steaming into the town, there'll be a celebration that can be heard way up to Kingdom. The boys should begin saving their money now to buy fireworks and cannon crackers for the event.

QUEER CRAFT.

A homely looking craft was "weighed in" (a term used for measuring tonnage of vessels) at the Sande, Vinalhaven, last week. She was named Devil Island, hailing from Devil Island, and looked like the—old Harry. She has a great advantage over other craft, though, as her cargo can be discharged at short notice. Machinery loosens certain chains, the bottom drops out and down goes the cargo quicker'n wink.

VINALHAVEN'S LOCAL EVENTS.

A Batch of Readable Notes from the Home of Granite.

Gossipy Bits of News Regarding Residents and Visitors—Occurrences Trivial and Important but None the Less of Great Interest.

It was a great fall when Billy went down. He shook the P. O. from foot to crown. There's no place like home—in V. H., home the caper. Just now is to take in and read, The home paper.

Several families moved into town last week.

The Selectmen have appointed F. B. Snowman constable.

The fare on both boats last week was 80 cents, round trip.

Emery Bray is having a new house built near the Carnes buildings.

Quite a number of fishing craft, steam and sail, were in the harbor Tuesday.

L. L. Howley has a fine span of horses, which he purchased recently on the N.H.

C. F. Noyes has contracted to cut quite a large monument for Rev. W. H. Littlefield.

Politics have taken root in the little caterer's cafe. You can get big doses of it there, betimes.

The Log Cabin at Round Pond was invaded again, Wednesday night. Verdict, bang-up time.

The representatives of Vinalhaven who were in Washington, Encampment week, have returned home and report a splendid time.

The Vinalhaven is now making one round trip each day between Greens Landing, Vinalhaven and Rockland. The Gov. Bodwell will make two trips a day until the last of this month.

We are beginning to take on a kind of metropolitan air. We have daily steamboat service with Rockland and Deer Isle, and we hope soon to see Isle-a-Haut and North Haven in the pool.

Sch. Wm. Flint loaded last week with cut stone and paving for Brooklyn, N. Y., from the Co-operative Companies. Schooner Annie B. Mitchell sailed Wednesday with a cargo of paving from J. P. Armbrust.

A very familiar figure in town is Capt. Tom Burgess, of sch. P. M. Bonnie. Capt. Burgess is a native of Vinalhaven, but a resident of Belfast, where he has lived for the past thirty-five years. For twenty-three years he has plied his business, (that of trade) between here and Belfast, and he very often makes a round trip inside of a week. It makes no difference what the article wanted, Capt. Tom either has it, or can get it for you, and always gives good satisfaction.

SHIPBUILDING.

Only Three Vessels Now Under Way in This County.

There are at present but three vessels building in Knox County—two in this city and one in Thomaston.

In the yard of L. L. Snow & Co., Rockland, a 250-ton schooner is rapidly nearing completion. Her masts and bowsprit are in place, her cables going in, and she is planked out to the turn of the bilge. The very best of North Carolina white oak is used for fore woods and all the rest is hard pine of the very best quality.

In the yard of George Gilchrist, this city a sizable schooner is in frame, but work is proceeding rather slowly. Mr. Gilchrist has a crew at work driving spikes to complete his timberdock. Mr. Gilchrist has sold his dry dock, which he bought some months ago in Boston.

Washburn Bros., Thomaston, have a 500-ton schooner in frame, but work is delayed by the detention of a cargo of hard-pine which is due from the South.

FOLKS AND THINGS

Washington Town Fair opens today.

Two of Dumbbell cottages, Park street, are boarded in.

Farwell Opera House is having its walls painted by Emery.

Steamer M. Devereux is on her three-trip, a-week arrangement.

Camden's new mill will be dedicated to night with a grand ball.

R. W. Messer is making extensive repairs to the residence.

The Shakespeare Society met last evening to make plans for the winter's work.

The Point Kangaroos were beaten in Thompson by the local team, one day last week.

Mrs. George Lancaster of Bangor has bought the Thomas McLoon house, Linerock street.

John Anderson is having a house erected on the lot where the Tilden house stood, Warren street.

A model and sample of the patent Miller chain saws are shown in the window of White & Case.

It is a little early to talk about Christmas, but Rockland merchants are already making plans for a big holiday trade.

The wind blew a gale Saturday evening, and the dust from the pavement formed a close acquaintance with the eyes and noses of pedestrians.

Jackson Weeks is recovering from his injuries, sustained by a fall from one of his fruit trees. He was more severely injured than at first supposed.

The postoffice force is now busy weighing mails, and have little spare time. When they strike the C. & G. a big edition on Tuesday the fingers show up big.

A little Rockland boy who is fond of "whipped" cream, forgot the exact name and by a very apparent logical deduction asked for some "spinked" cream.

How cluttered Rockland is of an evening! Sidewalks crowded, stores busy, streets constantly stirring with electric cars and other vehicles! We are deeply in it!

Ben, Blackington and crew of the W. H. Glover & Co. fared, at work on the U. S. life station at Brent, Rock, Maine, will be detained there about one month longer.

Gale & Atkins played at Damariscotta, Thursday evening, will play in Bristol tomorrow and in Pemaquid Saturday evening. Gale & Atkins are prime favorites over in Lincoln County.

The First Baptist Society is planning for a parsonage. The addition to the church is completed and is now in use. It cost about $1100, including the fitting up and furnishing of the parsonage.

The poplin gum advertisement in the window of Haskell & Hull, and the exhibition of the various stages of the making of a derby hat in the window of E. W. Berry & Co. attract considerable attention.

Pay day in the Loan & Building Association next Monday. All deposit books must be left with the secretary during this month for the annual settlement. Make a special effort to bring in your book!

In the window of H. H. Flint, Park street, are two mammoth squashes weighing 68 and 64 pounds, and girding 4 feet 5 inches, and four feet. They were raised by Wm. Thompson. These two squashes and another of like dimensions were raised from one seed.

A Rockland man arrived in the morning Pullman one day last week. He saw "two light and crawled out of his berth to see how far along the train was toward Rockland. He found the train in the depot, where it had been for two hours, and that he was the only one in the car.

A building belonging to Geo. H. Robinson, on the M. T. Junction place, Old Thompson Road containing painting stock and tools and several vehicles, was burned Thursday evening, a total loss. The insurance on the building and contents amounted to $450, with Cochrane, Baker & Cross, and was adjusted yesterday, allowing the total claim of $450. It is not known how the fire originated.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular bible reading Friday at 2:30 in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. Besides the reading which is always interesting, there will be a report of the works of the State Convention, also reports from the sisters who tried to gain new recruits on Crusade Day, which was Sept. 19. If any of the sisters forgot it on that day, they have until Friday to reduce their work. Let there be a full meeting on that day.

W. H. Glover & Co. have the lumber on ground for the new Friendship school house. The firm commenced work last week on a residence for Mrs. Sarah Outhouse, near the old depot. It will be 1-2 stories, house 22x28, ell 13x20. Messrs. Glover & Co. are the lowest bidders on the new Rockland Advent Chapel. It is to be a building costing some $1500, and the society contemplating putting it on a Willow street lot, but are having some little difficulty about getting a clear title to the land.

The building business continues brisk. One firm of contractors said the other day to Fair C. G. men: "We never had so much business in our history at this season of the year, and the business seems to constantly increase in volume. The buildings going up are of unusually good quality, and Rockland certainly is having the busiest building days in her history." Our masons and painters and joiners, etc., have had a busy year at good wages, and well stocked coal bins and provision receptacles are the result.

The Mather Greenery is in the pink of condition for the Fall and Winter campaign, and a trip through the sunny house this chilly weather is very refreshing. The middle house has been put down to roses entirely, and after this month will yield to cutting 100 to 150 roses a day. As many agate cuttings have been laid down as last year, and the prop roots will cut about 300 a day when they come in. One thousand chrysanthemums are shown. One thousand chrysanthemums are shown. One thousand chrysanthemums are shown.

Among the recent additions to the rare plants are five cacti from Curacao, an extremely odd variety, and some new and singular orchids. The greenery is looking its best.

Don't forget that the trains have changed time.

Rockland sent quite a delegation to the North Knox Fair.

Thornlike & Hix are cutting up hogs and grinding out sausages.

The Myrtle House, Myrtle street, has been connected with the Main street sewer.

The child sick with diphtheria in the Mitchell family, at the South-end has recovered, and there are no other cases resultant.

The Higham Electric Co. held a meeting in this city Tuesday, for reorganization, some changes in the style of the organization being thought desirable.

John Nielsen is to have handsome granite steps, two sets, built at his residence Holmes street. The granite is now on the ground—or rather on the sidewalk.

J. L. Breck has a miniature train of cars in his store window that view with the electric lights attracting and holding the public attention. The cars are run by alcohol.

Will Amersbach's new house, Jefferson street, is being clappedboard. John Tyler and Frank Richardson are at work, off Cedar street, on a cottage house for Capt. Frank Peterson.

George Vanderhill's yacht Lucile was at Tilden's wharf last night, en route for Bath, where she hauls up for the winter. She is a very speedy craft, being extremely narrow and sharp.

The party which went down to Isle au Haut last night last week Messrs James Donald, A. H. Jones and the rest, had royal good time, but didn't get enough birds to sink their ship.

The Thompson house is now on its new foundation, Summer street, and the ell is slowly getting there. It is to be fitted up in nice shape and we hear that a young couple, soon to be wedded, will occupy it.

A wall known Rockland lady, whilst in Thompson the other day, fell from a boat into deep water and would have drowned but for her perfect coolness and the timely assistance of her sister, who was equally calm.

Frank, 11 year-old son of Chas. M. Tibbets, two months ago on the Universalist excursion, fell and broke one of his arms. Thursday, while playing football, he received another fall, and broke the arm in the same place.

A special meeting of the Rockland Public Library Association will be held in the City Council rooms to-morrow, Wednesday evening, for the transaction of important business. All members are urged to be present.

The venerable Willard Robbins of Union lost his wallet Friday. It contained quite a large sum of money. Mrs. George I. Brackett residing on Lisle street found it and left it at Tux C. O. office, where it found its way to its owner.

George Sweetland and J. E. Hill, efficient employees on the Electric, have left the road to accept other positions. Mr. Sweetland, who is a resident of Camden, enters one of the mills there, and Mr. Hill enters the paint factory. Patrons of the road will miss them.

The electric railroad station at Oakland was completed, Saturday, and is a very attractive and ornamental structure. Collamore, the enterprising, will be found there, when Oakland is in session with his stock of fruits and confectionery, and next Summer will also dispense ice cream and sodas there.

An exciting episode occurred at the North-end last week, when a man on the shady side of city street with his housekeeper taking the key of the rented house in which he lived with him. A provoked landlord and an irate woman who claims she was affianced to the fleeing gentleman are the result.

The Library Staff of the First Baptist Sunday School will hold a book reception Wednesday evening of this week. The Ladies Social Circle will serve supper from six to seven and an elaborate entertainment will be given from eight to nine. The admission will be either a book for the library or 25 cents in cash. Everybody welcome.

Charles Farr, nineteen years of age, was arrested Saturday, for the theft of 8 T. Myrtle's yacht, the Yokohama. The yacht was taken Tuesday morning and after being gone several days was found tied up at the Simpson House, wharf. Farr's rap was found allowed. He was arrested in this city and had a partial hearing Saturday, and another yesterday, before Judge Hicks, who held him in $300 for the 8th J. Court.

The reunion of the reunion of the Sabbath School in the Union district was held on Sunday at Rockville. . . . L. Farrand and wife have returned from a trip over the country to Skowhegan. . . . The Rockland Creamery made 7000 pounds of butter in August, and paid the farmers 10 cents an inch for cream. Farmers intending to join the creamery next season should decide this Fall, so as to get ready for storing fat.

The late lunch man still does a good business on our M. H. street. The late lunch man is becoming a disliked way across. In a basket he has a pile of old rolls. In a kettle he has a mess of steaming sawdust, Frankfurters. A knife and a pot of French mustard complete the paraphernalia. For five cents, a half dime, the knife splits a roll, a but Frankfurter is put in the split, a smother of mustard finishes the operation, and there's your Coney Island sandwich. It's not bad in taste!

Rochester—John Saunders is at Sunset, Deer Isle, painting the Sunset house. . . . Heavy frost Sunday night. . . . Good apples retail at $1 a barrel. . . . W. G. Gile is marketing some nice celery. . . . The bridge on Franklin street being repaired. . . . George W. McKenney is making repairs to his buildings. . . . A. J. Small, Holmes street, is quite a poultry fancier. He has one of the most approved hen yards in this vicinity. . . . Daniel Carleton, Holmes street, has green peas just ripening off. . . . The view from the top of 85nd Street Lake is something grand.

Our West Rockport correspondent went on an exploring expedition. Friday and took some measurements of the depth of water in Mirror Lake. He finds the average depth sixty feet, and tells about it elsewhere. We are glad to learn this, not that we have ever had any fear of the supply of the C. & B. Water Co. giving out, but because our friend the Opinion has been so exceedingly about it, and we are glad to have it laid to rest.

An order requiring the Tax Collector to make monthly reports including amount of taxes collected was passed.

Officer L. Brown resigned his position as hall clerk of Ward 7.

Lawyer Agent Conant reported sales in September amounting to $289.67.

It is remarkable how many of the Councilmen were sick last evening.

One of the present City Council, Councilman Brewster of Ward 7, has not qualified yet.

President Shaw of the Lower Board treated the faithful last evening on sweet apples.

SIXTY FEET OF WATER.

The Depth of Mirror Lake According to Actual Measurement.

WEST ROCKPORT, Sept. 30, 1902.

TO THE COURIER-GAZETTE:

As some people have stated that the water in Mirror Lake was low or shallow with a possible liability of there not being sufficient to supply the water works. A party went out in a boat today and sounded in thirty different places, covering an area of more than three-quarters of the lake, and found an average depth of sixty feet of water, which at the present rate of using would last more than three years, provided there was not a drop of rain or other supply during that time.

There was a meeting of the teachers in the Grammar School building, Saturday afternoon, to make final arrangements for a celebration of Columbus Day, which will be observed by all the schools of this place.

Rev. W. O. Holman of Rockland occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday morning of last week. Mr. Newcomb being in New York, where he left the ship A. G. Hopson which he is on his way to take a voyage to San Francisco.

Helen Dudley Campbell, who is so well known to Thomaston people, will sing in the Rockland church, Portland, this winter, in company with William T. Wray, Portland, the violinist, and others.

A big crowd came on the annual Maine Central excursion from Portland, Saturday. The most of them visited the prison. Our enterprising lockmen did a good business, but the distance from the depot to the state penitentiary is hardly as long as many of the excursionists were given to understand.

Columbus Day will be fittingly observed by the several schools in this town on Oct. 21. A program is being arranged, and will soon be issued to the public. We hope to see all of our citizens take an interest in the observance of the day, and lend their aid and influence in furtherance of the same.

Capt. Thomas Fuller of Portland is in town. Miss Carrie J. Jordan has returned to Montpelier, Vt. Mrs. C. W. Stimpson, who has been visiting in Farmington, returned home Thursday. Charles Corbett of Lisbon, Me. has been in town a few days, on a visit to his uncle, J. E. Munro. Fred Andrews, Geo. Thomas Leonard, after being released by the court at Rockland, came home to his father's house and made things lively for a while. A constable was sent for, but before he arrived Leonard had skipped away.

"The cutest social event of the season" was the remark of one of our Old Fellows, as he came out of the lodge room, Friday evening about 10:30. You see, the wives of the members of Warren Lodge, No. 127, had purchased a set of beautiful dishes and other culinary articles for the use of the lodge and were desirous of presenting the same in due form. So Friday evening of last week the ladies were invited to walk into the lodge room. They were admitted on the pass-word, "Ladies." The noble friend called Mr. H. Mathews to the chair to preside and the entertainment began. Following is the program: King's March, Orchestra; "Welcome To-night," Male Quartet; Presentation of Dishes, Mrs. Emery; Readings, Geo. W. Brown; Folks, Orchestra; "Nightingale," Male Quartet; Mind Reading (An Illusion) Geo. W. Brown; Waltzes, Orchestra; "Over the River We Glide," Male Quartet; Address, Rev. S. H. Emery; Galop, Orchestra; Halliwell's Orchestra, which furnished excellent music, consisting of Geo. F. Halliwell, 1st violin; T. B. Copeland, clarinet; L. H. Burgess, cornet; A. M. Foster, bass; and P. F. Richmond, pianist. The male quartet rendered its songs charmingly, and was comprised of Alden Foyler, 1st tenor; P. F. Richmond, 2nd tenor; C. B. Jones, 1st bass; and A. A. Moody, 2nd bass. The address of Mr. Emery was a composition of witty anecdotes, original puns, local hits, and bright sayings generally and created a storm of merriment. At the conclusion ice-cream and cake were served amid enraptured sociability and good cheer.

APPLETON.

Sixteen miles N. W. of Rockland, on stage line from Warren to Seabrook. Settled about 1770. Incorporated Feb. 5, 1880, polls 487, estate $445,227. Postmaster, J. M. Newbert; North Appleton, J. M. Newbert; South Appleton, J. M. Newbert; West Appleton, J. M. Newbert; East Appleton, J. M. Newbert; Town Clerk, J. M. Newbert; Treasurer, J. M. Newbert.

Our farmers are all busy picking their apples and report a good crop.

George Clark is running a threshing machine in this part of the town, going from place to place.

V. O. Keller, U. N. Dyer, 2nd, and R. R. Keene, organized the estate of the late Lyman Hayward, Wednesday.

Mr. Hart, wife of Landlord Hart, has returned to the Appleton House from Hope where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Judson Gould.

All the sisters of Golden Rod Rebekah Degree Lodge are cordially invited to meet at Mrs. P. P. Conant's, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 12, to organize and arrange for an entertainment to be given after Oct. 1. A picnic supper will be served, to which all the brothers will be made welcome. After supper all are expected to attend the regular meeting at Odd Fellows Hall.

A fine entertainment was given at the church, Tuesday evening, consisting of music, recitations and remarks. Miss Del Perkins played some nice selections on the organ and received several enclosures, while Miss Mae Danton gave a violin solo. A large party of young people came from So. Hope and one young lady, Miss Mervie Carter, gave a recitation, the others assisting in the singing. Why not have an entertainment of this sort at least once a month and get the young people to go to church?

NORTH APPLETON.—William H. Hall has sold his share in the home place to Hiram Hall, consideration $900. Mr. Hall has not decided whether he will go yet. Warren Wentworth has his new shed completed and it is quite an ornament to the place. Gil Thompson did the job. Mrs. Julia Wardwell has returned from a six weeks visit to Chelsea, Mass. Meetings are being held at the church every evening by Elders Young and Wardworth. Quite an interesting scene to be taken in the services. Let all patronize our new blacksmith! Mr. Fuller is a fine workman and is worthy of your patronage. Mrs. Annie Jackson and two children of Spruce Head are stopping at Angus Melver's.

SOUTH LIBERTY.

Mrs. Helen Kallach of Rockland, who has been visiting her sister the past two weeks, returned home last week. John Moody of Portland visited his brother, Wm. Moody last week. Captain Charles Wyndham sailed for Denmark last week. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. Joseph Thurston, South Union, Thursday afternoon and evening, supper at 8 o'clock. All are invited. A church board meeting will be held after the supper.

NORTH UNION.—Many attended the fair at Union last week. School in the Stone District closed Friday. The afternoon was spent in reading and speaking. It was a very successful term of school. Able, grand daughter of Chandler Brackett, who has been quite sick, is now better. Mrs. Orilla Greenleaf is confined to the house with a very lame knee. Relative numbering about 25 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryant and gave them a surprise party in honor of their little daughter Abbie, it being her first birthday. A very nice cake, nicely frosted and prettily decorated with candles, was made and presented to the child by her grandmother, Mrs. S. C. Bryant. The presents were pretty and numerous. A picnic dinner was served on the lawn. After spending the day pleasantly they all returned to their homes wishing little Abbie many happy birthdays. Mrs. A. Fossitt was the guest of Mrs. Herbert Flint, last week. Henry Simmons will tear down his blacksmith shop and move it from this village out on his farm, where he will rebuild it.

HORSE STOCK.

Rockland trotters are showing up pretty well in the fall races. At Cherryfield C. A. Grackett's stallion, Arthur B., captured first money in the 240 class at the West Washington Fair, Wednesday, in 2:37 1/2. At the recent races W. N. Ulmer's Little Blackie took second money in a game race for 240, driving the winner closely in 24, 29, and 31. At the same place C. W. Stimpson's Abbott, Jr., took first money in the 240 class and M. W. Woodman's Pilot Boy got second in the 250 race.

E. P. Walker has been exhibiting some of his fancy stock at the Liberty Fair, taking first premium for yearling colt, two-year-old, brood mare, and first and second for trotting stallion.

Lincoln county fair closed at Danversport Friday. The three-year-old colt race was won by Powers' Aphrodite of Buxtonbury; best time 3:08. The free-for-all was won by Guild's Old Honesty of Augusta. Best time, 2:30 1/2. Last night's Young Watchmaker of Danversport was second. Four heats were trotted in this race, the latter heats taking the third in 2:37, and immediately after coming under the wire at the finish in the last heat he dropped dead. He was owned by E. G. Hastings, Danversport. His sire was Watchmaker, shuttled by Constellation. The animal was a valuable horse. Young Watchmaker was a half brother to Isaac A. the property of Isaac Adams of this city. It will be remembered that Isaac A. dropped dead on the Belmont track in a race.

At Machias last week, Dimont, the property of Burgess & Flowers of Rockport, won the 2:37 race, the fastest heat being in 2:31 1/4, lowering his record made at Machias by 2 1/2 seconds. Dimont has started in fifteen races this season, and won money in thirteen. He is by Olympia, he by Almont, and is a half brother to Schoolmaster and McCusick, both within the claimed circle.

Where

Shall I Go To Buy Clothing?

This is the question that thoughtful people are now considering. To know what one wants, and to get what one wants are two different propositions. This is as true of Clothing as anything else.

You Want Clothing

that is in style. You want Clothing that is properly made, and to make a long story short, you want Clothing that is reliable, that will wear well and look well after having seen service. The buy their stock from among the most reputable manufacturers in this country, from Houses that employ the best help to cut and make their Garments, and who use only serviceable materials in construction.

The N. E. Clothing Co.

believe that the best way to advertise is to give every customer full value for his money, and to refund money or exchange goods if a customer is dissatisfied with anything purchased at their store. Their large and constantly increasing business warrants extensive preparations. For the coming Fall and Winter trade they have made the largest and most elaborate display of Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's Clothing that Rockland has ever known.

SUITS

The handsomest stock that this house has ever shown. Worsteds, Woolen Casimere, Cheviots, Etc., in all the new and fashionable shades.

OVERCOATS AND ULSTERS

If you are thinking of buying an Overcoat or Ulster, a little of your time could profitably be spent in visiting the N. E. Clothing House. It is not necessary to pay a high price this season to get a very handsome, durable garment, as there never was a time when you could obtain as good an Overcoat or Ulster for so little money as now. The N. E. Clothing House have opened an enormous stock, and can meet every requirement.

MEN'S AND BOYS' REEFERS IN ALL GRADES CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

From 4 to 8 years (beautiful). Children's two and three-piece Suits, all ages, in Cassimere, Worsteds, Cheviots, Etc. Children's Cape Overcoats, Ulsters, Reefers, durable and cheap.

Mackintosh Coats

in new patterns, lower than ever. Complete stock of Underwear, Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods. A Five Cent Stamp of the Rockland Trust Co., or its equivalent in cash allowed on every dollar's worth purchased at this store.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

The Session Closes After a Brief and Uneventful Term.

The September term of R. J. Court closed Thursday noon, the members of the bar, as a fitting finale, dining at Oakland, the guest of C. M. Walker, esq. The doings of court, since our issue, were as below:

HUNDRED TIES.

The following divorces were decreed during the term:

Amelia N. Moody from Rhen P. Moody both of Camden. Custody of minor child decreed to the father to have the right to see him at reasonable times. Kalooh and Montgomery for libelant.

William C. Norton of Vinahaven from Sarah A. Norton of Milford, Mass., for three years utter desertion. Beaton for libelant.

Matilda B. Sanley from William Sanley, both of Thomaston, for three years utter desertion. Libelant ordered to pay $50 in lieu of alimony. Moore for libelant.

Lucy A. Oatland of Rockland from John R. Oatland of Union, for three years utter desertion. Moore for libelant.

Carrie E. Pelopont from Manly D. Pelopont, both of Washington, for cruel and abusive treatment. Libelant ordered to pay libelant $300 in lieu of alimony. Staples for libelant.

Eliza A. Harkness from Ephraim T. Harkness, both of Camden, for gross and confirmed habits of intoxication. Simonson and Robinson for libelant.

Henry U. Schwartz from Ella A. Schwartz, both of Rockland, for adultery. Custody of child to libelant. Walker for libelant.

William H. Fargent of Rockland from Adelle C. Fargent, whose whereabouts are unknown, for three years utter desertion. Prescott for libelant.

Annie Carlin of Vinahaven from Thomas P. Carlin of Joliet, Ill., for gross and confirmed habits of intoxication. Fogler for libelant.

Eliza C. Patterson of Rockport from Walter B. Patterson of Boston, for utter desertion. Custody of minor child decreed to the mother. Littlefield for libelant.

The marriage of Rosie A. Post with Fred L. Post, both of Rockland, was annulled and declared void on the ground that Post had a legal wife living at the time of the marriage. Beaton for Mrs. Post.

CRIMINAL CASES.

In State vs. Zealor W. Young for assaulting an officer, the respondent pleaded guilty and the case was continued for sentence. This matter, as also the indictment for common nuisance against Mr. Young found on the part of Mr. Young to shut out the highway at Owls Head. Mr. Young claimed that by the continual washing of the road had been paved back upon his land and that he had received no equivalent for his land thus taken by the town. It was when Sheriff Gray was removing the obstruction in the highway upon complaint of the Selectmen of South Thomaston that the assault was made.

State vs. Owen B. Long, common nuisance. The respondent pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. The search and seizure process against the same party was not passed on payment of $100 and costs.

State vs. Edward Lotbrop. Search and seizure. This action was not passed on payment of $100 and costs.

State vs. Michael Lawley. Search and seizure. In this case a denumer was filed which was returned and exceptions were taken which carries the matter to the Law Court. The exceptions were certified to be frivolous, which gives the matter a speedy hearing. Staples for respondent.

State vs. Laura Lawley. Search and seizure. In this case the same course was taken as in the previous one of Michael Lawley, and both parties were released on $500 bonds. These same parties were indicted for common nuisance and the same course taken as in these cases. Staples for respondent.

State vs. George A. Lynde, et al., search and seizure. There were two of these cases, in each of which the principals and sureties were retained and both cases continued.

State vs. Joseph Grover of St. George. This was an indictment for rape upon the daughter of Nathan Powell of St. George, a girl ten years of age. The respondent pleaded not guilty and the case was tried before the first jury, who rendered a verdict of 'guilty of an assault with intent to commit a rape.' Exceptions were filed and allowed, and the case goes to the Law Court. The respondent was released on giving bail for $2000. County Attorney Prescott for State; Staples for respondent.

State vs. Simon Truworthly of Rockland. The respondent was indicted for maintaining a common nuisance, to which he pleaded not guilty and the case was tried before the second jury. The respondent, Mr. Truworthly, owns a small place on Lincoln street, which from the accumulation of rubbish and animal and vegetable matter he had allowed to become filthy to such an extent that the Rockland Board of Health investigated the matter and had the premises somewhat cleaned. Mr. Truworthly, however, not keeping the place in suitable condition an indictment was found by the Grand Jury. A verdict of guilty was rendered at the trial, and the case was continued for sentence. The respondent was released on his own recognizance. County Attorney Prescott for State, L. R. Campbell for respondent.

A wise and prudent man considers his watch as a time-keeper, not an ornament. It must be accurate first of all. Yet it may be rich and elegant too. He wants that; but does not want to pay too much for it.

A coin-silver or 14-karat gold filled watch, with jeweled works; stem-wind and stem-wind—that is the new, quick-winding "Waterbury."

Best Jewellers will show it to you in various styles.

MEN AND WOMEN.

A large force will be put to work at once, the best of help being employed. The company will occupy these quarters until a permanent location, suited to the capacity of the business, can be found.

Help is now being engaged.

FREIGHTS AND CHARTERS.

Reported From Brown & Company's Weekly Freight Circular.

While a better condition of the freight market is hoped for, it must be confessed the prospect for any decided improvement in the immediate future is not promising. West India and other short foreign freights show little or no change, though the inquiry for small tonnage is picking up a little. Yellow pine lumber freights coastwise are about steady, with a moderate demand for handy size vessels. Coal freights are a trifle firmer, but not high, and all other coastwise business is very moderate for this period.

The Camden & Rockport Electric Light Co. has sold its plant, business and good will to the Rockland, Camden & Thomaston Street Railway Co., who took possession Oct. 1. They will eventually light Rockland, Rockport and Camden, operating the lights from their power house at Glen Cove. The Camden & Rockport Electric Light Co. commenced business about three years ago, putting in the Brush system, the plant being located on Knowlton Bros. property, the power being furnished by a water wheel supplemented by steam. The company operates 750 incandescent and 22 arc lights and has furnished excellent service. Johnson Knight of Camden and Mr. Storer of Brunswick were the principal owners.

A well known young lady, clerk in one of our business offices, on a certain hot day took advantage of a lull in business and crawled out of the office window on a sled and lay down to read. The warm sun had a soothing effect and the lady fell asleep. Passers-by saw the motionless form, and rumors of a terrible tragedy, a woman dead on top of a building and such like stories were breathed about. While some of the interested ones were gazing at the motionless form on the sloping roof, the lady awoke, yawned, arose, crawled into the window, and the excitement subsided.

George Wadsworth, Mountain street, has the frame up for a 1-2 storied house, 28 x 28 feet.

THAT SIDEWALK.

Rockport Has Had a Law Suit and an Injunction Over a Sidewalk.

When the Electric Railroad went into Rockport it displaced the sidewalk on the western side of Commercial street. When it was proposed to rebuild the walk a question arose as to certain legal rights in the matter, and there has been considerable discussion thereupon. Last week Geo. H. M. Barrett, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and Road Commissioner Carey, commenced relaying the walk on land in front of the Congregational chapel and the houses of Jonas Merriam, Mrs. Nancy Piper and Capt. Geo. Harkness, the same side of the street where the walk was originally placed. E. H. Bowers, who resides on that side of the street, immediately applied for an injunction, which was granted, and work was stopped. Littlefield appeared for Messrs. Barrett and Carey, and Fogler and Moore for Bowers.

Commercial street now has a few lengths of excellent sidewalk, and an injunction, and still the people are not satisfied.

EDITORIAL MENTION.

The Rockland Charitable Association has begun to receive calls for assistance, thus early in the season. Parties having garments which can be used by the association should care for them until the association's headquarters are established for the winter. The C. G. would like to have all our pastors to preach on the subject of giving some time the coming month.

Dr. Parkhurst of New York has a stunning contemporary in Rev. Dr. Lorrimer of Chicago who takes his Sunday text from actual visits witnessed by him during the previous week's stunning trips. The day of theoretical preaching against vice is over.
