CITY CHAT.

Here and There About our Rapidly Growing City.

FRER repeated walling on the part of the C. G. Supervisor Dutton has been provided with better quarters. The old room bears on its door this agreeable legend: "Moved to Spofford Block." Mr. Dutton now occupies the north west room in Spofford Block, at one time occupied by E. K. Gould, and, more recently by Alfred Murray. It is in every way most admirably adapted for the purpose for which it is chosen, being large, well lighted, and easily accessible, being but one flight. Mr. Dutton is now well settled there, and is receiving congratulations on his attractive headquarters.

Our schools are now under weigh and proceeding smoothly, and at this early day of the term the C. G. wishes to urge upon citizens generally and parents particularly the importance of showing an interest in the schools. Such an interest can be manifested by talking with the sons and daughters who attend school, urging them on to their best endeavors and on encouraging them in their efforts to learn. Again interest in our schools can be manifested by a visit thereto. Such a visit impels scholars and teachers to their most faithful work. If you don't take any interest in the schools yourself, fathers and mothers, how can you expect the children to be interested?

Visit the schools and show a little interest in them!

Those of our citizens who attended the sessions of the W. C. T. U. last week had opportunity of seeing that women can conduct business meetings in a business like manner. This was a convention of any town in Maine, and as a result we are getting some of the best features on the road. Last Fall Sousa's Band, backed by the big Blakeley Syndicate, gave Rockland one of the four evenings it put into Maine, and did here its best business. This Fall we have the prospect of hearing Sousa again, in November. Last week came the famous "Span of Life." This company gives four performances in the state and Rockland is honored with one of them. Clara Morris is also to appear here.

It's worth something to a place to have a reputation of this sort, and it is only in line with our city's general reputation of being the smartest burrough in Maine.

Our milliners are now attracting attention with their openings, and people from far and near come into our city to see the Fall styles and get fitted out with something positively killing for the Fall campaign. Our milliners put in big stocks and fine ones, and there is no need for people in want of bonnets and hats to go out of the country to get the latest and most desirable things. Rockland, as in all other departments of business, has first-class milliners and fine millinery stores.

We have the promise of a cold coming Winter to lighten the long evenings, and reorganization of the old uncomparable H. M. B.'s is well met with great approval, but we should like to see a foot-ball eleven also organized to give us some sport during these bracing Fall days. Rockland has always been able to put up a strong eleven and we hope to see the "rush line and tackle" to the front again this Fall.

Some of the important pieces of permanent improvement for next year are brick and granite sidewalks for Pleasant and South Main streets and a sewer for South Main, Orange and Purchase streets.

We should have horse, horse-carriage service in our fire department the coming Winter.

LOCAL LAONICS.

Newsy Notes and Brief Mention of Home Happenings.

The High street sewer is completed.

Garden thieves are getting in their work. Tarn loose the dogs.

Councilman Adams is making repairs on his house, Berkeley street.

Laboring men are now looking forward to work on the Rockland Water Works.

The opening address at the Y. M. C. A. Convention in Auburn, Friday evening, was delivered by Rev. J. H. Partridge, of this city, subject "Gift Edged Investments."

Samuel Gray is having repairs made to his stable—Charles P. Gupilli is having improvements made to his house—The tramp will be set to work in the stone yard as soon as they arrive at our nice new jail—The Pleasant street people are connecting their homes with the new sewer—The arbor on Dr. Estabrook's lawn, Pleasant street, is looking very lovely in its rich coat of autumn leaves—Flour has an upward tendency—Francis Tighe has some exceptionally fine celery. We have received a nice sample.

Our description of the new place of business of W. O. Hewett was incomplete, inasmuch as we failed to mention the personnel of the force. Mr. Hewett, Mrs. Probeck and J. S. W. Burpee came in for their share of the notice, but the following is the corps of capable assistants employed there, with the date of their connection with the establishment: Elizabeth M. Perry, May 1, 1893; Florence B. Wilson, June, 9, 1893; 8. Flo Perry, Sept. 5, 1892; Anne W. Perry, June 22, 1893; Lizzie Parmlee, Oct. 1, 1887; Vesper A. Leach, May 6, 1887; C. F. Jones, Sept. 6, 1893. Mr. Burpee has been with the firm since April 9, 1876.

COUNTY COMMENT.

Random References to Events in Neighboring Towns.

The various county organizations which have public objects in view are now getting ready for a brisk campaign. In Camden the Soldier's Monument Association and the Old Ladies Home Association are getting in line for brisk work. The burning of Megunticook Hall deprived them of the only suitable place for public gatherings and so handicapped them, but as the new and fine Opera House nears completion these wide-awake organizations brighten up correspondingly, and we prophesy that the new Opera House will be a busy place the first year. Residents of Camden who patronize these various events had better be saving their pocket money, for soon the Philistines will be upon 'em.

That was a mean trick they played, as described by our Warren correspondent, almost as mean as they treated the Waldoboro sportsmen when they filled his powder flask with coal dust. Doubtless these two sportsmen never in their lives felt so much like shooting something as when they found how they had been fooled.

From what we are able to learn about Camden's new Opera House we should judge that they intend setting forth the best of the sort in Eastern Maine. We admire their pluck.

And we in open houses again difficult to imagine a prettier theatre than that found in Rockport. It's a gem, with the accent on the last syllable.

WATERBURY CENTRE, Vt.—This is a small town, but often interesting happenings take place, even in a small town. This will be found interesting news.

Mrs. C. G. Town, a well-known resident of this place, tells the following story:

"I was suffering terribly from nervousness," she says, caused by female weakness, kidney troubles and backache, and was so weak I could not walk across the room without help. The nerves of my eyes were so affected that I feared that I would lose my sight.

"I saw Dr. Greene's Nervina blood and nerve remedy recommended so highly that I thought I would try it. I had not taken but one bottle of this wonderful medicine before my eyes were cleared of their dull aching, and all other pains and aches left me.

"I grew stronger every day until I am now well and able to do my own work. I cannot do half justice in the praise of this medicine, and I give these facts for the benefit of others who are ailing.

Nineteenth Annual Convention of Maine's W. C. T. U.

LAST week was a notable one for Rockland, the great event being the nineteenth annual session of the Maine W. C. T. U. in the First Baptist church, this city.

The session opened Tuesday morning, with Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, President, in the chair. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Lucy A. Snow of Windham Center. Then came the routine work of organization, followed by the report of the Juvenile Department by the superintendent, Miss Annie C. Bagley of Springvale. Miss Mary L. French of Auburn presented a report on "Influencing the Press."

In the afternoon Miss Jennie E. Seaman of Carey conducted the religious services, Mrs. F. L. Cram of Biddeford, corresponding secretary, reviewed the work in the state, Mrs. F. S. Wentworth of Dexter reported on Narcotics, and Mrs. Lucy A. Snow on Evangelistic Work.

The evening exercises were opened by scripture reading, prayer and music, and then came very able addresses of welcome by Mrs. R. C. Hall and Rev. J. H. Parshley, with responses by Mrs. Elizabeth A. Robbins of Deering and Miss Labele Patrick of Groverville, both in happy lines. W. O. Fuller, Jr., of the Tribune, was then introduced and read a poem prepared for the occasion, which was most enthusiastically received and which gave great pleasure to the convention. Mrs. Stevens then gave her annual address, a most capable effort.

WEDNESDAY'S EXERCISES.

Wednesday was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Johnston of Fort Fairfield. The credential committee reported 201 delegates present.

The report of Mrs. Blanchard, treasurer, showed about $1200 received and disbursed in the year. The Star in the East, the state organ, had scored a financial success, and the treasury stands about $140 ahead.

At the memorial service the names of about forty members of the order who died during the year were read and tributes were pronounced by Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Abbie Shapleigh. The names of the late Mrs. Sleeper of Rockland of today than it did during the year of any New England state, was hung on the wall mid applause.

Delegates were elected as follows: World's Convention, at Chicago Oct. 16-17—Delegates: Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Fort Fairfield; Mrs. Susie A. Winslow, Waldoboro; Mrs. Sarah J. McEllen, St. Windham; Mrs. Robert Lord, Kennebunk.

Alternates—Mrs. J. J. Spaulding, Cambridge.

dent, presented a report on Scientific Temperance Instruction.

Reports were also made by the following superintendents: Mrs. L. C. Lamb, Livermore Falls, "Legislation and Petition"; Miss Alice M. Douglas, Bath, "Peace and Arbitration"; Mrs. E. A. G. Stickney, East Brownfield, "Sunday School Work"; Mrs. Hannah S. Bailey, Windthorpe Centre, "Sabbath Observance"; Mrs. Susan French, Auburn, "Fairs."

The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Portland.

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Sarah L. Cram, of Biddeford.

Recording Secretary—Miss Clara M. Farwell, of Rockland.

Asst. Recording Secretary—Mrs. Adelaide C. Johnston, of Fort Fairfield.

Treasurer—Mrs. E. B. Blanchard, of Lewiston.

This is Mrs. Stevens' seventeenth term, Mrs. Cram's 12th year, Miss Farwell's 13th, and the other officers have served several years each.

The closing hour of the afternoon was devoted to the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Miss Labele Patrick, superintendent, presiding and making her annual report. Remarks were also made by Mrs. Gertrude Stevens Leavitt and Miss Carrie McCann.

In the evening, the house being packed, Mrs. J. R. Nichols, national lecturer, delivered an eloquent address on "The Home versus the Saloon."

THURSDAY'S WORK.

Thursday morning's devotions were led by Mrs. Ella M. Getchell president of the Foxcroft Union.

Lady Henry Somerset had sent from Switzerland, where she is at present sojourning with Miss Willard, a beautiful pin set with a diamond and two other precious stones and entwined with a white ribbon, a gift for Mrs. Stevens, and Mrs. Blanchard presented it to that lady in a neat little speech, to which Mrs. Stevens appropriately responded.

A six year old child was presented and sang a song very prettily, being soon after adopted by a lady present. The national prize banner, the third time awarded Maine for during the year of any New England state, was hung on the wall mid applause.

Delegates were elected as follows: World's Convention, at Chicago Oct. 16-17—Delegates: Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Fort Fairfield; Mrs. Susie A. Winslow, Waldoboro; Mrs. Sarah J. McEllen, St. Windham; Mrs. Robert Lord, Kennebunk.

Alternates—Mrs. J. J. Spaulding, Cambridge.

nish; Miss Alice Summaby, Bar Harbor.

In the evening the house and chapel were packed solid full to hear Mrs. Mary A. Livermore lecture on "The Dangers to the Republic." It was a scene to be remembered, as the venerable lady of 73 held the large audience spell-bound by the magnitude of her presence and the eloquence of her utterances.

TEMPERANCE TOPICS.

The resolutions adopted will be found elsewhere.

The convention was invited to meet with Houlton next year.

Our state has 4,000 members of the Loyal Legion, a gain of 400.

There were 201 delegates present. Rockland maintained her old-time reputation for hospitality.

The "best convention yet," said the delegates, and that this was so is largely due to the able efforts of our local committee.

Among those presented to the convention were Rev. J. Pettengill, Rev. C. W. Bradley, Mrs. A. B. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Williams of San Francisco.

The church was very prettily decorated by the following: Misses Carrie M. Brainerd, Adelle L. Maynard, Mrs. F. B. Adams, L. G. March and Ralph Wiggins.

The music was led by L. G. March of this city and Miss Jessie Bartlett of Fort Fairfield, Wednesday evening Mrs. F. M. Shaw and Mr. March sang a pleasing duet and on Thursday evening the Congregational choir furnished the music.

THE SILENT MAJORITY.

Death of a Well Known Camden Young Man—An 1812 Veteran.

Millard E. son of Capt. H. M. Dean of Camden, died Monday of last week at his home in Camden, aged 30 years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henry Jones.

The floral offerings were very beautiful. Deceased was a gentle, companionable young man, universally liked.

A six year old child was presented and sang a song very prettily, being soon after adopted by a lady present. The national prize banner, the third time awarded Maine for during the year of any New England state, was hung on the wall mid applause.

Delegates were elected as follows: World's Convention, at Chicago Oct. 16-17—Delegates: Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Fort Fairfield; Mrs. Susie A. Winslow, Waldoboro; Mrs. Sarah J. McEllen, St. Windham; Mrs. Robert Lord, Kennebunk.

OLD ALMANACS.

A Couple of Old Settlers

West Rockport.

U. E. Leach of West Rockport

store on exhibition quite a curious shape of an almanac. The title reads as follows:

"Bickerstaff's Genuine Boston Almanac, or Federal Calendar for 1793."

There is an engraving representing an astronomer with a telescope at his eye, and a ship running through all the pages, and written somewhat in the old style, using "f" for "s." It was printed just 100 years ago.

Amrose Lamson, also of West Rockport, has another almanac, and it has in it a page which reads as follows:

"The Farmers' Almanac, calculated for the new and improved plan, for the year of the Lord, 1793, being the first Leap year since the Independence of the United States."

The usual big griet of divorces is being ground out by the S. J. Court. The marriages business in this county must be booming to furnish so much material for divorce suits.

The building business is unusually good all over the county, and every town in its limits reports an unusual activity in this line of work.

Warren with its many good horses and interest in horse flesh should get up a horse fair for this Fall.

The various secret fraternities over the county are getting around to business again. The C. G. is always glad to devote its space to secret society news, and secretaries and clerks of the various fraternities should see that we are provided with the facts.

Rockport's new school-house is quite a model structure of its kind. A number of people from other portions of the state have visited Rockport to examine the building.

Union to the west

unning east or west.

This order was introduced because on that short section of Union street are five systems

of wires—Western Union Telegraph, Commercial Union Telegraph, New England Telephone, electric light, and City Fire Alarm.

Several years ago the city officials induced the phone companies having systems of wires on

Union to remove them to Union, promising to protect them in that position if they would relieve Main street of their poles and wires. It was planned to put all these wires

on one side of Union, but as this would necessitate the mutilation of the trees the people along the street objected so that the wires now run criss-cross from the trees, from one side to the other. Under the existing condition of things to move a building along this section of Union street cuts off these five systems. To cut off our fire alarm is of itself a serious thing. The order should have had a passage, but the Board of Aldermen didn't think so and it was tabled.

STEAMBOAT SPARKS.

Steamer Emmeline now runs between Rockland and Bucksport, connecting at the latter place with the Maine Central Railroad for Bangor and the east. The Emmeline leaves Rockland at 11 a. m., Tuesday, Thurs days
and Saturdays, touching at Camden, Belfast and Searsport. Lincolnville is a flag station and is touched when necessary. The return trips Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The city in time to connect with the train.

Season of low fare excursions
on the Bangor and Bucksport steamers commences today and continues until the 21st, and the tickets are good for fourteen days.

seems, unconscious that any advantage was being taken of her presence on the scales, or that she had been sold with the coal. Not only pussy was unconscious of the weighing,
but we think the weigher was in the same condition.

There should be some organization in town to provide for worthy cases of property. The Rockport Charitable Association should be organized.

It's about time for Rockport's reading room
to be opened again. Long evenings approach, and the boys should be kept out of the streets.

We hope readers of THE C.-G. will see that our local representative is provided with personals, locals and the like.

Please, Mr. Selectmen, give us something in the way of street lights, if it's nothing more than a candle, stuck into a hole in a soap box.

What has become of Rockport's public library movement?

GREEN'S LANDING.

Little Daisy Sawyer, who has been so dangerously sick, is getting well.

A very handsome red granite monument has lately been set on the Russ lot.

Capt. Fred Weed arrived last week with a load of coal which he is to store for sale.

John Saunders has been in town painting Edward Grindle's new house, which is just finished.

Joseph Brimbleton has just put up a large stable, and E. E. Spofford has nearly finished another adjoining his house.

Dr. Frink has laid a very nice hard wood floor over his other one which was also hard wood. The doctor always means to outdo his neighbors and we must acknowledge that he has the finest set of lights in the place.

We noticed the article in THE C.-G. regarding St. Clair Bros. & Co., and are glad to know they are so successful. A. A. St. Clair is well known in this place. He comes regularly every month, and keeps his customers.

He surprised us all last week by bringing with him a fine span of grays and a

NOVEL SUICIDE.

He was a little fellow, and his parents had told him if he ate green pears and apples they would kill him. The lesson evidently was learned for he said one day:
"If my papa should die, I'd eat a green
pear and die too."

BURYING AND BERRYING.

He was one of our county undertakers, and one day last Summer he started off with his team and a pail to get a mess of raspberries.
"Where you going?" asked an acquaintance as the undertaker drove by.
"Berrying!" answered the undertaker.
"Who's dead?" queried the friend.

THOMASTON TOPICS.

At the granite works of Burton & Williams
may be seen a very large and elaborate sarco-phagus monument which they are building for the Eastman family of Warren. The size of this job is as follows: Bottom base, 6-0x4-0x1-8; plinth, 5-0x3-0x1-2; die, 4-3x2-3x2-1; cap, 4-8x2-8x1-6. This monument is made from the best So. Thomaston gray granite and is all very highly polished except the lower base which has a dull finish. It is a beautiful piece of work and reflects credit on the builders.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Having Special Reference to People
Well Known Hereabouts.

Mayor Knight attended the races at Mystic
last week.

Mrs. S. A. Burpee, who is in Boston for treatment, is improving, a fact many friends
will be pleased to note.

Miss Adelaide M. Crocker will return to Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, next week.

GLEN COVE.

The Fall term of school began yesterday
with Miss Leona E. Ross of Glen Cove, teacher.

There are now two mails a day, arriving at about 11:10 a. m., and 5:30 p. m., leaving about 6:50 a. m. and 12:40 p. m. No mails on Sundays.

VINALHAVEN.

Schooner Esperanza landed a fare of 24,000
pounds of fish to Lane & Libby, last week.

The alley between A. A. Mahoney's and W. F. Osborn's store has been closed up. A good job!

The Harvest Supper Thursday evening was a success, and in consequence more shakels are added to the memorial fund.

Capt. Tom Burgess arrived Thursday with a cargo of hay that was piled in Belfast the day previous. Pretty quick work that!

A lamp exploded in the Stinson House, last week, and made quite a lively blaze, but it was quenched before much damage was done.

Phillips & Wiley's new drug store is open to the public. The lester has been entirely re-arranged, new fixtures, etc., so that now it is as attractive an apothecary shop as can be found anywhere.

G. Boardman Smith of Mass. gave a very interesting lecture on free hand drawing Tuesday afternoon, at the High School house.
The schools in 3 and 4 were closed so that al-
could have an opportunity to attend.

Rev. W. B. Gaskin tendered a reception to his parishoners in the vestry, Tuesday evening.
The room was tastefully decorated with flowers, etc., and there was an excellent entertainment of musical and literary numbers. Refreshments were served and the whole was a very pleasant occasion.

CAMDEN CULLINGS.

G. A. Babb is at the World's Fair.

Col. Baker has returned to Montclair, N. J.

Miss Fannie C. Berry returned to Boston
Tuesday.

Dr. Strawbridge and family have returned to Philadelphia.

The Fenwick contact, Lake City, is closed
for the season.

Bk. Vannie Swan is loading in New York
for Portsmouth.

The Old Ladies Home Association has some sort of an entertainment in view.

I. A. Fountain and wife and Mrs. W. H.
Bickmore have returned to their home in Waterville.

J. H. Curtis retires from the firm of J. H.
Curtis & Son. The son, J. C. Curtis, continues
the business.

Hello, Mr. Wholesale Druggist! Send me ten gross of ALLEN'S Sarsaparilla by express, at once.
That's a pretty big order, Mr. Retailer. You never sent us anything like this before.
Retailer. Good reason why I never handled any medicine that there was such a demand for. The people in my town are just wild over ALLEN'S Sarsaparilla.
Wholesaler. Is that so? What is the cause of the big rush?
Retailer. Cause enough, I should say. It cured old Deacon Perkins of his rheumatism that's kept him bedridden for the last six years. Then Mrs. Thompson says it cured her daughter's life. She had suffered from female weakness for a long time. It has made a great record too, in cases of Scrophulism and Liver Troubles, Skin Diseases, and all diseases of the Blood and System. It's guaranteed to cure and does it too.
Wholesaler. I'll send you a sample, but could you send me some other kind of Sarsaparilla.

ROCKLAND IN DAYS OF LONG AGO

A Correspondent Recalls People and Things of the Past.

The Old Yellow School-House and
Some of its Pupils and Teachers—
Over Union to Rankin—Up Middle—
The Cross Streets Running from Union.

Doubtless this was the first two-storied school-house built at the shore village if not in the town.

Now let's see, in our mind, who were some of the teachers employed here, say 40 years ago
or more, and where they are today.

The first one the writer recalls is Sophia
Spofford. Others were Ann Jameson, Miss
Lane, W. E. Tolman, Colonel Meserve, a Mr.
Eaton, a Mr. Huntress, Nathan and Eliza
Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lovejoy and Charles Farwell. There were others doubtless whose names I have forgotten. Of the above all are dead except three.

Now let's see who they were and where some of the scholars are who once attended school
in the old yellow school-house on the corner
in years before 1847.

They were, as the names occur to me, Charles
and Emeline Holmes, Isaac and Ann Case, Jim Prior, John Seavey, Pierce, Samuel, Mary
and Sarah Tate, Charles, Joseph, Bertha, Nancy, Angeline, Eliza, Hannah and Emma Thorndike, Albion, Frank and Augusta Hunt,

It Makes Even the Medical Fraternity
Open Its Eyes.

It This Is Not a Wonder Worker We Should Like to Know What Is.

Doctors are surprised at any cure of paralysis, but there is one form of paralysis which has been pronounced absolutely incurable—locomotor ataxia. This is indeed, the most serious and dreaded of all nervous difficulties.

Having so long pronounced this disease incurable, the astonishment, not to say amazement,
of the doctors can be imagined when they learn from Mr. John H. Golding who resides at 166 Christopher St., New York City, the following wonderful facts:

"I was taken six months ago with locomotor ataxia, or creeping paralysis. The numbness of limbs and dizziness rapidly increased until I could not walk nor stand without assistance; could not button my clothes or dress myself without help.

"On the sixth day of October I commenced taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and have taken four bottles and can now walk without a cane, and am rapidly gaining every day.

"The numbness has almost completely left my limbs and I feel first rate. I eat and sleep well, and I can recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, since I know that it has saved my life.

"I was refused admittance into St. John's Hospital because they said my case was incurable.

"But Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done its work well. It is the wonder of my friends that I am alive
today, and when I tell them that this medicine
cured me when the doctors had pronounced my case as incurable, they say it

Cobb, Wight & Co. have bought over 1000 barrels of potatoes in Boston this fall, and must have more to supply their trade, and they can't get turnips at any price. What's the matter with Knox county farmers raising these things? Potatoes are bringing 65 cents a bushel wholesale on the streets.

The Tillson Light Infantry boys are arranging to give an unique public entertainment in the opera house. The stage will be transformed into a camp, which the soldiers
will occupy, performing, their various duties, drills, etc., with lots of incidental fun, and supplementary to this will be a literary and musical program rendered by local favorites.

Capt. Timothy Murphy and Miss Annie
McDonald were married at St. Bernard's Catholic church, Monday, Rev. Fr. Phelan officiating. Capt. Murphy's ship is at San Francisco, and his bride will accompany him
thither, making a sea voyage on the ship directly thereafter.

The foot-ball season in this city begins shortly and the various ball grounds about town have given way to its practice. The commercial college will probably put in a team, while this is talent composing the High school eleven: George T. Stewart, centre; Walter Weeks and Alan Bird, guards;
Charles Morey and Theo. Bunker, tackle;
Harry Miller and Frank Welch, ends; Edw.
I. Hellier, quarter-back; Leroy Benner, full back.

A quiet wedding occurred Wednesday evening in our city, when Fred E. Bickmore and Miss Fannie E. Lamb were united in marriage, Rev. C. W. Bradlee of the Pratt Memorial church officiating. A short bridal tour is being enjoyed at Boston, and on their return
Mr. and Mrs. Bickmore will occupy their new home at corner of Union and Grove streets.
Mrs. Bickmore is one of our city's nice young ladies, while Fred is a popular druggist, of the firm of F. E. Bickmore & Co., and a member of the common council from Ward 2. Con-lignant type of constitutional disease originating from external cause in the spring or early summer of 1887, suffering from pain in his left foot and swelling and slight tenderness of the rheumatism. Despite skillful treatment he grew worse; and, in the winter, a suspicious looking swelling upon his left temple. He finally came to the Massachusetts General Hospital, undergoing an examination by the surgeons of that institution. They pronounced his disease constitutional tuberculosis, stating that the affected foot and the opening in the head of the other
