China is being smashed, this time by the ships and not by the servant girl. Even Pekin is threatened.

The Boston Journal furnishes an excellent motto for a foot ball eleven: "Start early and avoid the rush."

Lovers of the beautiful are now worrying over the threatened destruction of the Palaces on the Hudson. A company is blasting out the granite for street work.

Senator Wm. P. Frye has been speaking in New Hampshire and the papers up that way are giving him great eulogies. Senator

Frye deserves all the good words they can give him.

The W. C. T. U. article on the work of providing homes for homeless children, promised for this issue, is unavoidably crowded out. It will be published in the next issue and will be found very interesting.

The Maine Central railroad is more than pleasing the people this season. Their latest fad is an excursion to St. John and Halifax, on Thursday, Oct. 19th, leaving Portland at 7 p. m., Bangor at 6:30 p. m. When you hear how low the rates are, you will desire to go.

This excursion goes from all stations, and will be personally conducted by their excursion agent, Col. W. A. Kimball. They also have made arrangements to stop at the Queen's Hotel in Halifax, at a low rate. It is the cheapest rate ever offered for an all rail ride. No sea-sickness—for you will not sail and the cars are first-class.

Remember the date, Thursday, October 19th.

Wallace R. Farrington, the talented editor of the Star, has accepted the managing editorship of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, a prominent Honolulu daily, and expects to sail from San Francisco Nov. 15 for Hawaii.

He will leave Rockland the last week in October. Mr. Farrington has won many friends here by his gentlemanly ways, and he will be followed to his new field of labor

by the good wishes of all, including THE C. G.

Charles E. Harrison, who is now serving the Star so acceptably as night editor, will fill

Mr. Farrington's place. Our contemporary is very fortunate in having so thoroughly capable a journalist as Mr. Harrison at hand in the emergency.

HAND OF DEATH.

Sketch of the Life of a Faithful Correspondent—

Well Known Camden Man Passed Away.

Thomas A. Gushee of Appleton died in Hope, Oct. 7, aged 69 years, 2 months and 2 days. He was born Aug. 5, 1825, being the youngest of a large family of 15 children. He was educated in the common and high schools with one term at Waterville College, being obliged to leave that institution on account of ill health. He taught many terms of school, and served several terms as superintendent of schools, and was always interested in school work. He was well known to readers of the Maine Farmer's Almanac, writing under the name of "Adrian." In 1851 he married Miss

Lucy Ann Hill of Hope who survives him, together with four children viz, G. W. Gushee of Appleton, T. J. Gushee of Hope, Daniel A.

Gushee of Dakota and Mrs. A. C. Gushee of Appleton. His burial occurred just 43 years from the day of his marriage.

He was a farmer, but engaged in lumbering

some years ago, owning the mill at one time on the east side at McLean's Mills.

Mr. Gushee was for many years the able

Appleton representative of THE COURIER-

GAZETTE and in this way he became very intimate with him. He was an honest, earnest man of high christian character and highly respected. He had a thoughtful mind and was possessed of a dry, kindly humor that was rare.

His faithful services to this paper will always be remembered and it is with the knowledge that THE C. G. has lost a valued friend that we pen these lines. The family has our sincerest sympathies.

Isaac G. Decrow, of Camden, nearly 85 years of age, died at the residence of his son,

William O. Decrow on Lincolnville road,

Thursday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Snow, widow of the late

Robert Snow of South Thomaston, died at the family home in that town, Thursday morning, after a long and tedious illness of many months. For several years Mrs. Snow's health has been delicate, but the tender care lavished upon her by affectionate children, combined with fine medical skill, prolonged her life far beyond the expectations of her many and devoted friends. Although for many years a sufferer, her cheerful disposition and pleasant manners failed to convey the fact to any but those in the most intimate relations to her. In her home she will be greatly missed and to her children and grandchildren much heartfelt sympathy is extended. The funeral occurred Saturday at 10 o'clock, Rev. Martiff of the South Thomaston Methodist church officiating.

William G. Adams died in Hyde Park

Mass., at the residence of his son, George F.

Adams, Oct. 6. The remains were brought to Camden for interment. For many years he was clerk for D. Knowlton & Co., and afterward for Knox Woolen Mill. He took up his residence with his son in Hyde Park about two years ago. He was a most exemplary man and highly esteemed.

CASE OF CRUEL DESERTION

Bogus Theatrical Agent Deceives

a Confiding Woman

The Wife of a Day—Involved Into a

Marriage, Drugged and Then Robbed

—Unhappy Experience of a Well Known Rockland Teacher—Description of the Man in the Case.

The following account of a cruel case of deceit and fraud is taken from the Worcester

Mass., Sp. of Oct. 5. Mrs. Vezzie, the lady in the case, is well known in this city as a successful school teacher and a woman of high character. Many friends sympathize with her in her trouble.

Shortly before midnight a clerk from the United States Hotel called at the police station and told Captain Matthews of a case of wife desertion and theft and requested police assistance. Sergt. Johnson was detailed to investigate the case, and at 1.15 told the following story:

Last Saturday morning a man giving the name of Charles Wesley Taylor registered at the United States Hotel. He claimed that he was an agent acting in the interest of a theatrical concern, and intimated that before the week was out he would probably want rooms for 15 or 20 girls, as he had advertised for chorus girls.

At the same time a woman came to the

Two cows and a man got seriously tangled up together on the corner of Main and Myrtle streets, Saturday.

Miss Edith Besse, the talented violinist and pianist, is contemplating forming a class in this city. She is in every way qualified to teach the violin and piano.

The Sunday Globe had an interesting biog-raphical sketch of S. H. Burpee, Rockland's oldest business man, who notwithstanding ad-vancing years is one of the city's smartest merchants today.

The Gray Nuns, Sisters of Charity, have been in the city since Saturday for the purpose of obtaining funds or other offerings for the charitable institution erected in Lewiston for orphan children.

Three children arrived yesterday for the House of the Good Shepherd from Mt. Desert Ferry to be cared for in the Home. Special donations of flour, coal and vegetables are earnestly solicited from Rockland and adjoin-ing towns.

J. M. Blackington carried a lot of salmon to Alford's Lake last week and looked over the ground preparatory to the construction of a fish hatchery. A gentleman in Lincolnville will probably get the contract for put-ting up the buildings and the fish hatchery will soon become an assured fact.

The joke is on a South end truckman who played with a pair of handcuffs belonging to a friend. The handcuffs snapped on and to help out the joke the owner refused to yield up the key. The victim drove immediately to the Livingston machine works and had them filed off and now the joke is a little more evenly divided.

The House of the Good Shepherd acknowl-edges with thanks the following donations: barrel of apples, F. A. Blackington, Rockland; barrel of green tomatoes and bag of apples, a friend, South Thomaston; cakes, pies, etc., Berry Lodge, K. of P.; 2 underwets and wais, Mrs. Berry, Rockland; barrel apples, C. W. Curtis, Dexter; basket apples, J. W. Oxtun, So. Hope; 3 cabbages, a friend, Rockland; two dozen jelly glasses, A. Ross Weeks; two dozen glasses jelly, a friend, Rockland; squashes, pumpkin, bushel turnips and apples, Wm. Butler; bag of apples, cab-bages and squash, a friend, South Thomaston; apples and a dozen jelly glasses, Mrs. E. S. Farwell; six glasses jelly, a friend, Rockland.

Bird being made at Mugridge's sail loft.—Steam-er Frank Jones handling big freights these days.—Baths are expected to play foot ball here next Saturday.—W. W. ## CALLED HOME.

Those who attended the Sunday School State Convention last week will remember the treasurer, H. H. Nevins of Portland, whose faithful services have been so indis-pensable to the state Association, and none will forget his earnest talk of Thursday after-noon. Mr. Nevins left here Friday noon in the best of health and spirits. Saturday morning A. W. Butler of this city received the following telegram from Mr. Archibald, who left here in company with Mr. Nevins: PORTLAND, Oct. 13, 1894.

A. W. BUTLER.—Nevins, the innocent he reached home, was stricken with paralysis, and died this morning.

The ladies are selling the tickets, which is a guarantee that the social will be a success. Cake and coffee will be served, and the ladies of the Auxiliary are requested to furnish the cake.

The Bohemian Glass Blowers are now in the city and opened last evening in the store, Main street, just vacated by Huston. Ad-mission is to cents and each ticket holder is given a present and a coupon or vote on a beautiful glass shade to be given away Sat-urday evening. The beautiful glass dress, so admired at the World's Fair, is also on ex-hibition. The exhibition will be here this week only.

Katherine Rober and the Living Pictures played audiences at the Farwell Opera House Friday and Saturday nights. Fanchon the Cricket was exceedingly well rendered by Miss Rober and her company and the audience, small on account of the storm, enjoyed every act. The most flattering thing that can be said about it was that the audience remained seated until the curtain fell, per-haps the first case of that sort in the history of the building.

Stetson company, under the management of Mr. L. W. Washburn, present "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Opera House Wed-nesday evening Oct. 24. The cast is a strong one. In the third act the landing the boat, "R. E. Lee," and happy darkies working on the levee and the child Eva's fearful precipi-tation into the river and her rescue by Tom is a life picture. Between the acts Stetson's un-formed band, which is mostly composed of colored men, enliven the audience by dis-cussing southern pastimes. Previous to the performance the company give a street parade. Tickets can be obtained at the box office.

THE MILLINERY OPENINGS.

There was rain enough last week to have spoiled a ball game or horse trot but not so with the millinery openings. The feminine gender was well represented along the street through it all and the exceedingly pretty display windows were viewed to the heart's content of the fair sex.

The opening was a much greater success than any of the milliners anticipated, and one lady proprietor reports that of 72 opening hats only about 30 were left yesterday. Pretty styles and very reasonable prices were two undoubted reasons which led to this con-dition of things.

There are a number of new and charming shades this fall, among them being the fol-lowing: Bourgeoisille, Ophelia, Kana, Sans Gene, Pervanche, Bleu, Tilleul, Mandarin, Mousou and Alabaster. Black roses and artificial flowers in the above shades are very natural as well as stylish.

One pretty styled hat is the Holly, which has a long loop of ribbon on each side of the front. Another stylish hat for young ladies is the Gainsborough trimmed with a gilt band and black feathers, roses at the side and under the rim. Nearly all of the milliners se-cured their goods in Boston and New York and the excellent taste which they showed in their selections is easily apparent.

THE RAILROADS.

The Wiscasset & Quebec Railroad is now laying 1 1/4 miles of track each day, and trains now run from Wiscasset to Alna and in the near future will reach Weeks' Mills. Rumor has it that the Somerset Railroad will be changed from Oakland to Waterville to connect with the Waterville & Wiscasset rail-road, then the two companies are to join issues and complete the 18-mile link now unfinished from Bingham to the Bangor and Aronstook road.

DUNHAM'S CASE.

Hope of a New Trial—Feeling in Favor of the Prisoners—Arrest of Judgment.

As known to our readers Joseph Dunham of this city and one Thomas Gregg were ar-rested July last charged with attempted train wrecking at Detroit, on Maine Central line, in Somerset county. They were jailed and tried at the recent term of court in Skowhe-gan. Forrest Goodwin, one of the ablest members of Somerset Bar, was assigned for the defence, and notwithstanding his very strong fight for the prisoners, they were found guilty by the jury. After the verdict was an-nounced Mr. Goodwin moved for an arrest of judgment on the ground that the papers were defective. If possible a hearing will be had for a new trial before the next judge in De-cember. Dunham and Gregg are now in Norridgewock jail.

The principal evidence upon which they were convicted was the finding of their foot-prints in the mud near the place where the obstructions were put on the track. It is hoped by Mr. Goodwin to secure additional evidence to prove an alibi.

A gentleman who was present at the trial, writes TIE C. G. as follows: "To my mind the defence proved almost conclusively that Dunham and Gregg were in Newport all night long during that night on which the attempted train wrecking took place. I feel thoroughly that the men are in-nocent and that it is an unrighteous verdict. I wish the men had some money so that some-body could be employed to work up the case for them. If a new trial is secured I am con-vinced that the verdict will be a different one. Everybody in the court house thought the men would be cleared."

THE PHILOPADIAN.

Rockland Young Folks Form a Musical Society With a Very Long Name.

The young folks have caught the spirit of musical revival which seems to be having a reign in our city at present, the latest addi-tion to the ranks being an organization with the title of "Philopadian Club." This club meets bi-weekly, the last session having been held with Miss Faith Greenhalgh at the Lindsey House, Friday evening.

Upon this occasion the following interest-ing program was carried out: Edith Perkins Vocal Duets, Margaret Mitchell, Faith Greenhalgh Vocal Solo, Faith Greenhalgh Vocal Solo, Faith Greenhalgh Vocal Solo.

One week from next Friday evening the club will meet with Winnie Spear when, we are confidentially informed, "chorus singing" will be taken up."

The Philopadian Club was organized three weeks ago and has the following officers and members:

Hazel Spear, President; Margaret Mitchell, Vice-President; Fannie Tibbels, Treasurer; Nellie Winslow, Secretary; Jennie Allen, Cathie Mugridge, Freda Hicknell, Edith Conant, Lucy Peck, Faith Greenhalgh, Edith Perkins, Florence Clark and Winnie Spear.

THOMASTON WON.

The Thomaston football eleven elected by A. C. McLoum of this city defeated the Rockland High School eleven Saturday on the Broad-way grounds, this city. The Rocklands were weakened by the absence of Capt. Crockett and Glover. The visitors put up a rattling game and won by a score of 8 to 4.

The Rockland and Bath High School eleven will play on the Broadway grounds, this city, next Saturday. The Bath team is one of the finest in the state.

THE MANLY ART.

Wolcott defeated Gibbons in four rounds at Coney Island last night.

Dick O'Brien fights ten rounds with "My-sterious" Billy Smith at the Lafayette Club, Boston, next Tuesday evening.

STARTLING PHENOMENON.

A correspondent writes us from Owl's Head as follows, referring to a phenomenon described in our West Rockport correspon-dence:

"Have you received any mention relative to seeing a cross over the moon last Friday even-ing. It could be seen very distinctly at 8 o'clock, p. m. And has it ever been seen be-fore? Friday evening just previous to closing my curtains for the night, my little boy aged four years, looked out and said: "Mamma, see! God is building a bay window on the moon!"

"I was quite surprised to see the sight. It represented a cross with the moon in the exact center."

Can any of our readers give an explanation of the phenomenon?

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

State Association Meets in Annual Session in This City.

Unpropitious Opening But Delightful Ending—Addresses of Great Power and Ability and Exercises of Profit—Large Audiences Enjoy the Gatherings—Election of Officers.

The 26th annual convention of the Maine State Sunday School Association began its sessions Wednesday evening, at seven o'clock, in Pratt Memorial Church, Methodist, this city.

Notwithstanding the terrible storm some 200 people were present at the opening service which opened with an anthem by the First Baptist Chorus of Rockland, "Nunc Demittis" by Danks. Rev. John Pettengill of this city led the devotional service which lasted fifteen minutes.

The convention proper was then formally opened by the president, E. S. Everett of Portland. A very fitting address of welcome was delivered by Rev. C. W. Bradlee of the M. E. church this city.

He welcomed the convention to the city, to the church and to the hearts of the people. Rev. J. H. Pashley was to have made the welcoming address, but was unable, owing to a severe horse cold, to be present. Mr. Bradlee, at very short notice, or rather without notice, was drafted into service. But he's always equal to an emergency.

President Everett presided very heartily and prettily. He said that only once before was the convention greeted with such forbidding weather, and that was in Bangor when they were treated to both snow and rain, but notwithstanding the unpleasant reception of the elements the welcome of the people was just as hearty.

Rev. George M. Boynton, D. D., of Boston, National Secretary of the Cong'l Sunday School & Publication Society, was introduced and delivered an exceptionally forcible address on "Things that Cannot be Shaken." It was an able, earnest plea for holding to the essentials in religious things.

The devotional service Thursday morning, at nine, was led by Rev. Frank W. Smith of Peaks Island. The work of the convention proper began with the "Superintendent's Hour," led by Rev. T. E. Brastow of Rockport.

Mr. Brastow, although thrown into a gap without chance for previous preparation, put a world of life and energy into this exercise and a most profitable season was enjoyed. Among those who participated were Mr. Reynolds of Peoria, Ill., Mr. Humphrey of Glen Cove, Dr. Hoyt of Boston, Increase Robinson of Waterville, Mr. Reynolds in his remarks cited the common method of "Lacking a Sunday School onto the tail-end of a long sermon." His idea of a proper Sunday service was preaching service in the morning, Sunday school in the afternoon and gospel service in the evening.

Rev. T. F. Millett, State Field Worker, then made his report, reviewing the work in the various counties by means of a map. He stated that in the eight months that he had been engaged in the work he had travelled more than 12,000 miles, spoken more than 500 times, and had received from friends of the cause enough to pay all travelling expenses. He gave interesting statistics, among which were the following: "Children in the state outside the churches, 63,000; non church-going families, 13,000; church members, 24,315; number of Sunday Schools, 1500. Mr. Millett recommended special attention to primary work, urged a house to house canvass, the co-operation of the various young people's societies; special attention to normal class work and uniformity in town and county association constitutions. These recommendations were referred to the committee on resolutions.

William Reynolds, National Field Secretary, Peoria, Ill., was the next speaker and proved very entertaining. In an interesting and forcible manner he reviewed the work of the International Association. Every province in Canada, every state of the United States and every territory except Oklahoma is organized. He outlined the objects and methods of work of the International Society in a graphic manner. He presented with special emphasis the need of house to house work, and closed with an impassioned appeal for better work.

Thursday afternoon's devotional exercises were led by Rev. M. O. Patten of Houlthay. The "County Secretary's" hour, led by Secretary Burroughs of Wiscasset, proved a valuable session. Mr. Burroughs wanted co-operation in the various counties, co-operation in all classes of work, the town associations to work hand in hand with each other and the county association, and the county associations to co-operate with each other and the state association. Rev. T. E. Brastow was then called upon, and he described in detail the manner in which the house to house canvass in Rockport was made. Great interest was manifested in this, and the cards used were in demand. Rev. Mr. Millett and Rev. H. P. Snow spoke in behalf of uniformity of constitutions in various associations.

The treasurer, H. H. Nevins of Woodfords, then made his report. The total receipts were $108.85, disbursements $973.10, leaving a balance of $117.75. To add to this were available assets to the amount of $595.75. And again there were debts to the amount of $775, leaving a deficit. Mr. Nevins asked for better financial support and gave place to President Everett who made an earnest appeal for funds. Rev. W. H. Littlefield of Vinalhaven very powerfully presented the need of giving on the part of all the schools. Then Mr. Reynolds took the floor and by some very expert pleading raised some $250 then and there.

The remainder of the afternoon session was occupied, and most profitably occupied, by George H. Archibald of Montreal, a member of the International Executive Committee. He devoted his attention to "Practical Work," very ingeniously and effectively using the blackboard and symbols. He was listened to very attentively and warmly applauded.

Thursday evening's devotional service was led by Rev. W. W. Ogier, presiding elder of the Rockland M. E. District.

The first speaker was Mr. Archibald, his subject being "Difficulties of the Work." It was a bright, practical talk that did good.

He was followed by Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, D. D., of New York, who held the closest attention of the immense audience that packed the church. His theme was "The Average Sunday School and What It Accomplishes." Plain, practical talk was sandwiched between flashes of keen wit and flights of thrilling eloquence. Dr. Hurlbut magnetizes an audience.

The evening services were interspersed with selections by the First Baptist Chorus Choir.

Rev. T. F. Millett led the devotional service Friday morning. At its close Charles H. Palmer, Missionary of Sunday School Union, read a paper on "The Highways and Hedges." It was a carefully prepared, thoughtful production and attentively listened to.

A duet "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" by a Lutheran, was then very prettily sung by Misses Jennie Ingraham and Sallie Hall of the choir.

Mrs. W. J. Knowlton, teacher of the intermediate department in the Chestnut street M. E. Sunday school, Portland, explained her methods of interesting the little ones, using maps, figures, puzzles, etc. If she makes her lessons as interesting to her pupils as she made it to her audience the 120 scholars in her department, from seven to eleven years of age, are to be congratulated.

Mr. Archibald then gave a blackboard exercise, showing how he would teach the next Sunday's lesson to very little ones. He did it very simply and yet very ingeniously, emphasizing the importance of not attempting to teach the little ones too much.

Dr. Hurlbut then talked for an hour on the "Preparation of the Sunday School Teacher" and not a word was wasted.

On motion of Rev. B. P. Snow, a message of condolence was sent Mrs. W. F. Crafts of New York, who was kept away from the convention by the sudden and serious sickness of her husband.

The committee on resolutions, Rev. L. D. Evans of Camden, Rev. S. L. Hanson of Belfast and Deacon Tving of Farmington then reported. The resolutions affirmed the joy of the convention in the advance being made along the lines of interdenominational comity, recommended that the financial matters be left in the hands of the executive committee and the financial committee be abolished, and included the usual votes of thanks to Pratt Memorial Church, to the chorister of the convention, H. M. Lord, to the organist, Mrs. Lord, to the choir, entertainment committee, railroads, steamboats, press, etc. They were adopted as presented.

The committee on nominations, Rev. George Lewis of South Berwick, Rev. C. W. Bradlee of Rockland, and E. Owen reported the following list: President, A. W. Butler of Rockland; Vice Presidents, C. I. Bailey of Winthrop, Rev. George Lewis of South Berwick, Rev. T. H. Stacey of Saco; Secretary, Rev. B. P. Snow of Yarmouth; Associate Secretary, C. F. Morse of Portland; Treasurer, H. H. Nevins of Woodfords; Executive Committee, Andruscoggin, Rev. G. M. Howe, Lewiston; Atwood, Rev. R. L. Dutton, Houlthay; Cumberland, Thomas P. Varney, Wintham; Franklin, Dr. Q. A. D. Blake, Wilton; Hancock, Alfred F. Adams, Castine; Kennebec, Rev. C. S. Cummings, Augusta; Knox, Rev. T. E. Brastow, Rockport; Oxford, Rev. Newton Clough, Brownfield; Penobscot, Rev. W. H. Bentrin, Bangor; Piscataquis, Rev. W. E. Mann, Dexter; Sagadahoc, J. L. Douglas, Bath; Somerset, Rev. N. T. Dutton, Fairfield; Waldo, Rev. S. L. Hanson, Belfast; Washington, Rev. C. D. Crane, Machias; York, Rev. H. S. Emery, Saco.

The report of the committee was accepted and the officers elected as nominated. The president-elect, Mr. Butler, was introduced. In an appropriate and modest address he accepted the position. Mr. Butler is superintendent of the Rockland Cong'l. Sunday School, and a very interesting Sunday School worker. He is a member of the executive committee of the International Sunday School Association, and wide awake to the needs of the hour. He has served the past year as chairman of the executive committee, and has carried out the immense amount of detail work attendant upon such a convention in a masterly manner that speaks of great executive ability. The Maine Association has made a happy choice.

The committee on credentials, E. W. Porter of Rockland, Rev. M. O. Patten of Houlthay and Rev. E. C. Brown, reported 167 delegates present with credentials, appointed as follows: Congregational, 58; Baptist, 56; Methodist, 51; Free Will Baptist, 12; Friends; Union Schools, 6; Presbyterian, 3; Advent; Christian, 2; Unitarian, 1. The committee explained that they were unable to get the credentials of all the delegates, that whereas only 167 reported there were 238 accredited delegates, while nearly 400 were furnished credentials.

A rising vote of thanks was then given the retiring president, Mr. Everett, and the convention was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Frank W. Smith.

CONVENTION CRUISES.
E. S. Everett, the retiring president, is a member of the well known firm of Cook, Everett & Fenwick of Portland. For some years he was superintendent of the Chestnut street M. E. Sunday school, Portland. He is a most thorough gentleman, and presided with great ease and ability. Mr. Everett and wife were guests at Mr. A. W. Butler's during their stay.

Four hundred delegates were a good many to entertain, but they were all entertained. All the delegates voted this convention one of the best if not the best in the history of the association.

H. F. Day of the Lewiston Journal was in town Thursday reporting the convention.

Among the Penobscot County delegates was A. G. Ray of Bangor, the well known tenor.

The entertainment committee had a very trying and difficult job, but they did their work and it did well. The committee consisted of D. A. Packard chairman, W. A. Holman and Frank Chapman, and they were furnished material aid by L. S. Robinson.

To the janitor of the M. E. church, Mr. Mank, thanks are due for care and faithfulness.

Miss Eleanor Moody of Portland was the convention stenographer.

Lewiston county has its Sunday School Convention this week.

C. E. Kendrick, the bright and wide-awake editor of the Bathing Register, was a delegate, but was obliged to return home Thursday noon.

THOMASTON TOPICS.

What the Ladies Are Doing in a Social Way to Make Themselves Lively—Matters of Interest.

C. Prince will go to Florida this week to pass the Winter. Miss Kathie Gilchrist contemplates passing the winter in Cambridgeport, the guest of Mrs. Harriet Culley.

Fred Hewitt, the genial and suave correspondent of the Rockland Star, is devoting a large share of his time to piscatorial sport and is meeting with wonderful success securing large numbers of the succulent smelt.

A young lady calling at the door of a house at Mill River wore a fine artificial honey-suckle on her bonnet. The person who answered her call was amused to see a humming bird light on the lady's headgear, and thrust his long bill into the flowers, evidently in search of sweets, remaining there some little time, and left only when he found he was wild.

The summer visitor has departed, but social amenities still linger with us. Recently Mrs. Dr. Levesque gave an afternoon social whist party to her lady friends, and Mrs. E. P. Gregory gave a like entertainment to her lady friends. In this line the ladies lead, and do more for social life than their male friends. As an apt, James McEllan, of San Antonio, Texas, put it, "the ladies in Thomaston, including lady visitors, appear to have all the good times. The male bipeds are left to be counted out in these social gatherings."

The following lines are very appropriate to the "Old Church on the Hill":

We can spare it. Let the old church stand At the head of its quiet street; Let us build the new, and the new be sung, And bring to it blossoms anew.

Make it fair and pleasant to old and young And fill it with light and cheer; Let the page be read and the song be sung, That gladden the wintry year.

HOPE.

Master Lou Gould is the champion pumpkin raiser in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. Gould is quite ill, has been threatened with pneumonia—Chris Woster of Camden visited his sister, Mrs. John Wright, recently.

Mr. True has closed his corn canning and has been canning apples. He commenced with string beans. Little Miss Olive Clough earned 40 cents one afternoon husking.

There was a dance in True's Hall, Friday night.

Mr. True's output of corn was between 30,000 and 35,000. Would have canned more but lacked cans.

ST. GEORGE.

WILEY'S CORNER.—D. A. Hathorn has finished his cellar—Augustus Long is having his house at Hart's Neck repaired—W. I. O. Seavey is working for Jerome Jones hauling rock to stone his cellar—Mrs. Effie Fountain is quite sick at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. G. Wiley.

CLARK'S ISLAND.—Constable James McConchie arrested two Finns, Sunday morning—A game of baseball was played between Clark's Island and Tenant's Harbor, Saturday, in which the Harbor was defeated. The Harbor boys were very anxious to play, but the Clark's Island boys have quitted them now.
