CAMDEN, Nov. 1, 1896. O. R. Hooper and family of Madison have moved to Camden. Mr. Hooper is making preparations to open a laundry in the Gill building.

William C. Chapman, an old and respected Methodist, has made the Methodist church a present of a valuable bible which was given him in 1875 by the North Elm Sunday school of which school he was superintendent.

Mrs. Theodore Harris of Watertown, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Stearns at Norumbega. Mrs. Rice of Portland is the guest for the winter of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Wheeler. Mrs. Pettigrew of Ludlow, Vt., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Preble.

Hanson Mero has moved into the Robinson house on Chestnut street. Mrs. E. M. Duffie is visiting in Boston and vicinity. At the meeting of the Rukin Literary Club, Wednesday evening, quotations will be read from the works of Daniel Webster, America's great statesman. This club, which is doing much good to its members, was organized several years ago with the following charter members: Misses Teresa F. Arns, Lella M. Bucklin, Lena F. Cleveland, Myrtle L. French, Mary Hopkins, Inez Manroe, Nellie Simonton. From this beginning the club has grown to goodly proportions. The present officers are: President, Elizabeth M. Hosmer; vice president, Lella M. Bucklin; secretary, Teresa F. Arns; treasurer, Myrtle L. French.

Business keeps booming at J. A. Brewster's manufactory. He has as much work as he can do and could do more if he had the room. Last week he received a big order for shirts from a big Boston house. It is indeed gratifying to know that there is one place that don't know anything about hard times.

There will be a meeting of the Soldiers' Monument Association, Wednesday evening, at Lane's studio. It is a regular business meeting and every member is requested to be present. That monument is surely coming.

W. V. Lane, photographer, has returned from a week at his Vinalhaven studio. As might have been expected he did a very gratifying business.

The reading public of Camden, and this means everybody in town except the youngest of children, will be pleased to learn that the long anticipated event, the opening of the public library will be celebrated with fitting ceremonies, Tuesday, December 1. Miss Harding, the young lady librarian, has labored most zealously and the preparatory work is about completed. No catalogue will be issued for a year or so beyond its publication in the local paper. Miss Harding has got up a system of card cataloging of which there will be two sets, one for herself and the other for the use of the public. This system will answer very nicely until the printed catalogues are issued. Last week 120 new books, comprising the works of fiction by the best living authors, were received and have been classified. Miss Annie Simonton will be assistant librarian and to those who know this popular young lady it will be unnecessary to state that it would indeed be hard to make a more fitting selection. The reading room floor has been newly varnished and now shines with the brilliancy of a French plate-mirror.

Tum Chung, the Chinese laundryman, has returned to Camden and will open a laundry in the store occupied by George Houston.

A stable on the Hope road, owned by the late Joseph Hall was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The fire was discovered at about nine o'clock but too late to be saved. The building was about 1 1/2 miles from the village. Part of the contents was owned by Willis Pitcher. The cause is unknown but was undoubtedly the work of incendiaries or the carelessness of tramps.

Mrs. Sarah Haskell has returned from Cambridgeport, where she has been since April with her daughter, Mrs. Harry J. Osborne. Frank Graves' house on Cedar street is being painted. The Baptist ladies circle met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. C. Hall. Mrs. B. H. B. Adams is visiting in Boston. Miss Blanche Hopkins of Vinalhaven is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Hosmer. O. R. Hooper has moved into Mrs. Willis Williams' house on Elm street. J. T. Howes and family who make their summer home in this town left Saturday for New Orleans where they will spend the winter. Rev. G. W. Hinckley of the Good Will Farm was the guest last week of Johnson Knight. Willis Williams took the yacht Owene, owned by J. T. Howes of Chicago, to Boston, Wednesday. Mr. Williams had charge of the vessel. Summer. Mrs. W. V. Lane is visiting in Vinalhaven.

The foundation is being laid for a cottage on Dillingham's farm. Mero for Mr. Dillingham.

Adam's hall was the scene of a very sociable and supper party Thursday evening. The hall was employed in the woolen mill. A few invited.

SPORTING MATTERS.

Interest in polo is growing and not lessening. Manager O'Connor was with us all last week and succeeded without much effort in getting all the backing necessary. He thinks that the season will open in this city, Nov. 23 and he will try to have two games played here on Thanksgiving with the Bath team. This would make a splendid starter and we hope he may be able to succeed. Manager O'Connor is going to have a great team.

Black who pitched on the Warren team two seasons ago made his friends in Warren a visit last week.

Efforts are being made to organize a candlepin league in this city. Rockland has some pretty rapid bowlers and there are some who make just as good scores at the "cracks" in the big league. This was illustrated one night last week when a member of one of the leading teams in Boston dropped into Healey's and rolled several games against some of our men. He didn't make the largest score by any means although he demonstrated that he was no "slouch."

The Rockland High School will not be represented on the gridiron this Fall, due largely to the fact that the majority of the young men are lightweights. From present indications neither will Tilton Light Infantry have a team as anticipated early in the season.

DR. HORN AND HIS GUN.

Creates Havoc Among Sea Fowl—Leads All Other Gunners by a Big Margin.

The gunners of South Thomaston were out in full force Thursday, the occasion being the annual gunning match. All day long the deciples of Nimrod roamed the fields and forest or hid behind the ledges for sea fowl. George Green captained one side and John W. Woodbury the other. Some of the gunners were very successful, others were not so much so but all had a thorough day's sport and the festivities were kept up during the evening when the losing side, Mr. Woodbury's, paid for a nice chicken supper, served by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiggin. Then after supper there was dancing to music by Meservey & Rackliff. Dr. George C. Horn was high line. He brought down 8 ducks and drakes, 2 coots, 2 loons and 18 gulls, his total count being 3000. The other counts were as follows: Capt. George Green, 100; Bert Blethen, 970; J. P. Spaulding, 675; Charles Crowley, 900; George Hurd, 100; Ed. Brown, Chas. Smith, 1630; J. Merrill Bartlett, 25; James Stamp, 000; Dr. George C. Horn, 3000; Henry Warren, 1100; Chas. John Woodard, 000; Herbert Snow, 000; Walter Sweetland, 100; Feeney, 750; Butler, 125; T. E. Wiley, 300; C. M. May, 300; Fred Allen, 545; Henry Cross, 000; Charlie Simmons, 450; Fred Allen, 000; Drake, 900; Ed. Hopkins, 000; Kay, 000.

ROUND ABOUT THE STATE

Gleaned From Exchanges and of Interest to Our Readers.

Our Over Production of Tramps—Should be Made to Break; Stone—Force of Example Strong in Human Nature—'Tis Never to Old to Marry and Enjoy Love's Young Dream.

Potatoes have taken a big jump in Aroostook county and are now selling for 75 cents a barrel and consequently the farmers are happy.

About 8000 bushels of blueberries were canned in Washington county this season. The harvest was more than plentiful and the pickers realized snug sums of pocket money.

Damariscotta will soon be enjoying the benefits of public water works. The work of trenching goes merrily on and the sons of Italy who are doing the digging don't seem to mind the wet, disagreeable weather.

A Biddeford woman who had her husband arraigned for beating her said that he had earned only $1.50 since April and when the court asked her how they lived she replied that they had good neighbors.

Oldtown is progressive and up-to-date. A contract has been signed for a $1000 fire alarm system. The city is also considering a petition for a new iron bridge between the city proper and Treat and Webster islands.

Science has disclosed a method of making artificial silk from wood pulp and the question of what town in Maine will be the first to get a mill is being generally discussed. It is hard to distinguish this silk from the original.

Matinicus gunners keep their families supplied with sea fowl when the weather is favorable. The cooks take as much pains in preparing them for the table as they do a Thanksgiving turkey, and a great many think they are just as good.

Machias is another Maine community that will soon be enjoying the blessings of water works. The system is about completed, the water is of excellent quality and there will be a good head for fighting fires.

Ladies who live on from year to year expecting that some man will come along and relieve them from a life of single blessedness, should never get discouraged. The marriage has just been reported of a Topsham man 91 years old to a lady of 66. They are enjoying their honeymoon too.

Legro & Spaulding will start their new shoe factory in Belfast in a few days. The machinery is about set up. They will start with a small crew and increase as orders come in. A goodly part of the stock has been subscribed by local capitalists. The city of Sarsaparilla is one of the boom cities of Maine.

Tramps are again becoming a nuisance throughout the state and in some places a reign of terror has been established. Knox county is freer perhaps from these fellows who would not work if they could, than any county in the state. Rockland is given a wide berth for tramps have a wholesome fear of the stone yard.

The people of Green's Landing are having a battle of ballots by themselves. It is to decide whether the town will retain its name or be changed to Rockland. The contest is being conducted by the Graniteville, Allerton, Rockland, Oceansville, Graniteville, and the Isle Gazette and wax.

you need Pearline. And more than ever in house-cleaning. Just look over the list of things that you might use—soaps and powders and fluids and what not. Some of them don't pretend to help you as much as Pearline; some will injure paint, or surfaces, or fabrics; some are only meant to wash or clean certain things.

But with Pearline, you will save time and labor in cleaning anything that pure water won't hurt. Not only can it do no harm, but it saves useless and harmful rubbing.

OVERCOATS!

How many people know a really good thing when they see it? Do you? Have you seen our Overcoats? Provided they fit and look well, can you tell without testing that they will wear well?
