The Last Word before Election.

"Line upon line, and precept upon precept," is required in every good cause, and our last word, before election, to the republicans of Oxford County is, don't forget the importance of your vote as Election day rolls around. Every election is important, and this year we have Members of Congress to elect, and hence a National interest attaches to the result. What though our cause is safe and there is an appearance of sympathy in the ranks of the opposition, the duty is the same, to attend the polls and vote. The democracy will come out, anxious to obtain a little success somewhere, and especially in some close representative District. And here, in this very direction is where they are turning their attention all over the State.

Look out for the Representative Districts! No matter what the feeling has been in your town, relative to the United States Senator question, or in favor of this or that man for your Representative—where a nomination has been made, support it—it is the only defensible course—that is to say, where there has been a fair expression of the republicans in the caucuses. Let not personal feeling, growing out of disappointment, in the result, affect your action. Every one should rise above such motives, and acquiesce in the doings of the majority, fairly expressed.

Our ticket is one which every Republican can support without a blush—nay, with pride—let us then have the old fashioned majority of Oxford County and Maine will be safe.

A trick of the opposition will be this year to play upon the real or imaginary injuries which the Republican aspirants for nominal candidates as Representatives, may have and where they can prevail upon one whose ambition magnifies his wrongs to such an extent as to induce him to take a nomination from them, they will seize upon the opportunity to breed dissension in our ranks, even though some worthy member of their party is sacrificed by so doing.

This course is entirely devoid of principle on both sides, and only defensible on the idea that to win in an election, or spite those unfriendly to you, is the great end of the election. Be not deceived by any such specious devices. No "level-headed" man can be lured by such false lights. Remember that principles are above men.

The Republican Nominees to the Legislature.

The republicans in the different districts in our County, have been unusually careful and judicious in their selection of candidates to the Legislature this Fall. We have spoken of some individually, as their names have been reported, and we give our unqualified commendation to all, and we have reports from every District but one.

PINCKNEY BURNHAM, Esq. in the Bethel District, is too favorably known to need special notice.

Now let us unite and elect them and preserve the united republican delegation in both branches of the Legislature which this Oxford is wont to do.

The Oxford Register, the democratic organ in this County, if it fails to subscribe the interests of its political friends, seems to be ready for any use disaffected republicans, or democratic relatives of republican candidates, or liberals, may put it to. For instance, in its issue of Aug. 28th, it had a scurrilous communication, made up of a tissue of falsehoods, asserting that a back-parlor caucus had been held by the candidate for County Commissioner and others in Sumner and "Jo. Fields" had been agreed on for representative, and because he was right on the Senatorial question, and prophesying that another man would be nominated.

There was not the least foundation for such a story, but the prophecy proved true. The U. S. Senatorial question did not enter into the canvass—for both of the candidates are avowed friends of Mr. Perham. But the object of a democrat to make trouble in the republican family was accomplished—though it was a mean, dastardly affair, that reflects no credit upon the originator, because the statements and insinuations were entirely false.

The Liberals.

We understand that the Liberals of Oxford County, through their County Committee, propose getting up a ticket as follows:

For Governor, T. S. Lang, or J. H. Williams, of Augusta; for Rep. to Congress, D. R. Hastings, of Eryeburg. For Senators, Alvarado Hayford, Canton, A. S. Kimball, Waterford; for Sheriff, Silas Shaw, Buckfield; for County Commissioner, Andrew Bennett, Paris; for County Treasurer, A. Oscar Noyes, Norway.

They intend, instead of being swallowed up by the Democratic party, to allow that party, it would seem. The truth is, most of the men, in the County, who went out from the republican party, have returned, and few could be persuaded to swallow such a democratic dose as the above. They only propose candidates for the Legislature in two Districts in the County, and we believe the party has no existence or nomination outside of our County, and no followers outside of the towns of Norway and Buckfield, and but few there.

Our Nominee for the Legislature.

The unanimity and good feeling manifested at the Republican Caucus on Saturday, augurs well for a united republican vote for the nominee, SAMUEL B. LOCKE, Esq., and an election by at least a hundred majority.

Mr. Locke is a son of the late Saml B. Locke, Esq., well known in our County. He is an energetic, active business man, of excellent character and judgment, who will ably represent us in the Legislature. He has the confidence of the business men and the hearty good will and esteem of the whole community.

It is only necessary for the republicans of the District to do their duty, and the District will be redeemed.

Norway District.

At a full caucus in Norway the Republicans agreed upon GRANVILLE L. REED, Esq., of that town for a candidate for Representative. Other worthy men were supported by their friends, and there are two other nominees in the field. Mr. Reed is a well-to-do mechanic, of intelligence and character, and can be elected if the republicans of the District will resolve to redeem the District, as they should.

Sumner District.

We hear of some trouble in this District, it being alleged that democrats voted for the successful nominee. While this is a just cause for complaint, ordinarily, and the only argument in favor of regular nominations is based upon fairness in the caucus—still, in this case, where the friends of each party had a committee of three to guard the ballot, and all who voted were allowed to do so after such a scrutiny, we don't see why the causes nominee should not be supported. Both candidates were honorable, well minded men, whom the party could heartily support, and we hope the District will not be thrown away.

Oxford District.

The Republican nominee, CHARLES F. DURELL, Esq., is commended to the District as a worthy young man. He is a merchant of affable, agreeable ways, who ought to be elected, as we doubt not he will be.

MEXICO.—The republicans of Mexico met on Saturday, August 19th, to nominate a candidate for Representative to the Legislature. The meeting was a large one—42 being present. Henry W. Park, Esq., was nominated by acclamation, and there was the best of feeling, as Mr. Park is deservedly popular, and will undoubtedly be elected.

SWEDEN.—At a Republican Caucus in Sweden, on Monday, Aug. 31st, Lewis Frost, Esq., was nominated as the Republican candidate for the Legislature from the District composed of Sweden, Lovell, Denmark and Hiram.

The Town Committee are Marcus Stuart, Dean Andrews, and John W. Clute.

Mr. Frost is highly spoken of, and his friends are confident of his election.

Card from Mr. Lane.

Mr. Editor.—Having seen a statement in the last issue of the Oxford Register that I favored Mr. Hamilton's election as United States Senator, I hereby state that I have never given any expression by any words of mine, either expressed or implied, of any such favoritism over other candidates that are in the field, but am unpiged to say and all men on this question.

Yours truly,
J. M. Lane.

West Sumner, Sept. 7th, 1874.

The Oxford Register is informed that the three republican nominees for the Legislature from Bethel, Mexico and Sumner are all for Hamilton!

This, coming from a democratic paper, is so in keeping with the style of the Hamilton men throughout the State—of claiming everything—that we print it to show the allies that are relied upon, and the perfect accord between them, in the mode of warfare, which is downright deception and fraud. It is an attempt, by open and unblushing misrepresentation of facts, to deceive the people, and influence districts in their nominations about to be made. If the Senatorial campaign is to be waged in this desperate, unprincipled manner, it will do more to demoralize the party than the leaders can undo in the next decade. Let them beware!

The Industrial School building at Hallowell is approaching completion, and will be a fine structure for the purpose to which it is designed. The slaters are just finishing the roof, and the plasterers have begun their work. A large cistern is being constructed of brick in the cellar. The contractors, (Messrs. Foster and Dutton) will probably be able to finish their work within a few weeks. The building is admirably planned, and will make an excellent and pleasant home for whom it is designed.

Republican Rally at Norway.

The only public speaking during the present campaign, in our County, will be at NORWAY, next Thursday, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and with such distinguished speakers as Hon. J. G. BLAINE and Senator HAMLIN, the occasion will be improved, far and wide, we don't doubt.

As Speaker Blaine has never spoken in our County before, many will desire to hear him, and see the next President of the United States.

Ex Gov. PERHAM will preside on the occasion, and it is expected the Band will be present and a good old fashioned Republican Rally be witnessed, should the weather be favorable. It is possible that Hon. W. P. FRYE will also be present.

Give one day, Republican friends, to the cause, and let all, without distinction of party, come and hear the political issues of the day discussed by our talented Maine orators.

Prompt Action.

The course of the Kennebec republicans in relation to one of their nominees for the Senate, is highly commendable, and shows a sensitiveness to suspicion of wrong doing on the part of one selected for their suffrages which is truly refreshing in these times of official delinquencies.

The facts are as follows: Moses S. Mayhew, Esq., a trader in Mt. Vernon, received the nomination for State Senator by the Republican County Convention. On the 25th of August, Mr. Nathaniel Gilman complained of him before the Municipal Court of Augusta, for maintaining a liquor nuisance. The charge, it is stated, was for furnishing wine in bottles to individuals, among whom was a hotel keeper. Mr. Mayhew waived an examination, and was bound over to the S. J. Court.

Thereupon the Republicans called on Mr. M. to resign the nomination for Senator, and he does so in the following card:

John W. Chase, Chairman County Republican Committee.

An attempt, originating in malicious motives, has been made to impugn and to impugn the confidence of the republican voters of Kennebec, and through me, to strike at the party that nominated me as candidate for Senator.

While I am conscious of doing no intentional wrong, I am aware that a verdict must not, in the first instance, be asked at the polls. It would be an unsatisfactory form of vindication in any event, and under a small of prejudice with an opportunity to defend it, the verdict would probably be unjust to myself and party.

Under these circumstances I am unwilling to remain longer in candidacy in which the County Convention placed me, and accordingly withdraw my name, leaving your Committee to take such steps as may seem proper to nominate a successor.

I shall, in the simplest faith, await my own personal vindication, and shall, I assure you, give my full weight of the confidence and regard of my fellow republicans.

Yours very respectfully,
MOSES S. MAYHEW.

Mt. Vernon, August 28, 1874.

Mr. Mayhew has sustained a good reputation heretofore, and his course in promptly resigning is wise. The motive of the complainant may have been bad, in prosecuting at the particular time he did. Mr. Mayhew was a prominent candidate for the nomination for weeks before the Convention. If the matter had been made public earlier, the nomination would not have been made. Who Mr. Gilman is we do not know—but there is a suspicious appearance in the transaction, and it may possibly be attributable to political opposition to secure the election of one on the other ticket. However this may be, and whatever Mr. Mayhew's culpability is, the action of the republicans has a healthy tone in it which indicates life, vitality and honesty in the Kennebec republicans worthy of the highest approval and copying. When any party is regardless of the character of their nominees for office, there is evidence of decay and moral obliquity that should cause apprehension on the part of worthy citizens everywhere.

It Mr. Mayhew is only guilty of a technical violation of the law, it is a warning to him and all others which must have a salutary effect.

Oxford County Agricultural Society.

A meeting of the Society was held last Saturday, at the Fair grounds, to consider the question of buying the piece of land adjoining on the southerly side, owned by Mr. Tacker. The piece comprises about five acres and is held at $500. It is desired to enlarge the trotting course. The Secretary reported that the balance in the Treasury was $74.79. The opinion was expressed that the strip on the easterly side, where the trees are, and which is used for the cattle, owned by J. B. Brown, of Portland, now enclosed in the Society's grounds, was also much needed. After some remarks by H. C. Reed, Mr. Bartlett, E. C. Jackson, and Freeland Howe of Norway, Alden Chase of Woodstock, and others, it was voted to purchase the Tacker lot, and a committee consisting of Freeland Howe and A. S. Bartlett of Norway and Jere H. Winslow, of Paris, was raised to effect the purchase, and consider the question of procuring the Brown lot, and also the expense of enlarging the track, and report at the annual business meeting in Oct.

The sense of the meeting was that the track could not be altered in season for the Fair this fall, but that a much improved track might be made for another season.

—On our 4th page will be found an interesting article on "Finishing Her Education, in Germany." How much better, for our daughters, if they could be brought up under some such system. In place of the pale, sallow faces indicative of invalidism, which now appear in our High Schools and Seminaries of learning, we should see the glow of health and youth which gives promise of future usefulness, as wives and mothers. The parent who allows his daughter to graduate at 16, will find in her absolute lack of development, (for even her mind has been cramped, not developed) the inevitable penalty of that neglect of physical culture for which American girls are famous. The wands and dumb bells of school callisthenics cannot wholly obviate the effects of the severe requirements and restraints imposed on our ambitious school girls at 13 and 14. There are more lessons than one to be learned from "Dar Faterland" and its blooming Saxon daughters.

Parliamentary Law.

Republican Caucus—Paris.

At the republican Caucus, called to nominate a candidate for the legislature, last Saturday, Capt. H. N. Bolster called the meeting to order, G. A. Wilson, Esq., was chosen Chairman, and Elmer Marble Secretary.

Samuel B. Locke, Esq., of West Paris, received the full vote cast, to wit—63.

Wm. K. Kimball of Paris Hill, W. J. Wheeler, South Paris, and Geo. H. Briggs of West Paris were elected Town Committee.

The caucus adjourned with three hearty cheers for the nominee.

The subscribers of the Farmington Chronicle are in the same condition as some of our subscribers, and the editor says: We have written several letters to the publishers of this Magazine to ascertain the cause of the delay in mailing it to subscribers, and Monday night received the following, which we trust will prove satisfactory to all interested:

Newman, N. Y. Aug. 28, 1874.

Dear Sir:—By a great effort and no little sacrifice we have succeeded in ending the delay in our late issues.

July will be mailed to-morrow; August next week, and September directly afterward. After that date, the publication will appear regularly, and all subscribers will receive their full dues.

We shall give such an explanation as will relieve other publishers from censure.

Respectfully yours,

—The State Muster at Bangor, last week, was a success. Good weather was enjoyed, the military display was very fine and witnessed by a large crowd of visitors each day. The discipline and drill in Camp was fully up to the mark, thanks to the superior military genius of Maj. Gen. Chamberlain, the commanding officer, who enforces order and gives character and dignity to such an occasion. So long as our State Musters are well conducted they will be sustained by the people, but when the discipline becomes lax, and intemperance and rowdiness are fostered by such gatherings, they will be suppressed.

Gov. Dingley and Staff reviewed the troops, and many distinguished citizens visited the Camp. The Norway Company made a good appearance, as usual, and the boys all had a grand time.

The first prize to the best drilled company was awarded to the Jameson Guards, (Co. G.) of Bangor, and the prize was presented to Capt. E. E. Small of that company by Gen. Chamberlain.

The second prize was awarded to the Montgomery Guards of Portland, (not reached) and Capt. McMahon received the second prize from the hands of the General.

The competition for the individual prize was close and the announcement by Major Sanger of the U. S. Army that Sgt. McCaffum of the Montgomery's was entitled to the first and Corporal H. Thorne of the Jameson's to the second, was received with bursts of applause and the cheers of their comrades in arms.

—The Lewiston Journal says that Messrs. Prince and Dill have made a tour through some of the towns in Androscoggin county with an eye to the fruit interests of the coming Fall, and were agreeably surprised at the favorable outlook for the apple crop.

Noticeable among the fine orchards visited was that of J. R. Pulsifer, Esq., of Poland, who is a thorough and practical orchardist. Many of his trees were so heavily loaded with fruit that the limbs were propped up to prevent breaking. Mr. P. has also two acres of cucumbers, one-half acre of tomatos, besides peppers, cauliflower and cabbage, which he manufactures into pickles, making annually six hundred barrels. They also inspected the farm of J. M. Rogers, who first propagated the Rogers Blood Seedling grape in Maine.

Mr. R. probably has one of the largest lots of grapes of any one in the State, and they are bearing bountifully. He markets large numbers in our cities each season. Throughout New Gloucester they find fruit promising finely and were assured by the farmers throughout all the section which they traversed, that they would make large contributions to the fruit department of the Fair.

The Chase Heirs.

Alden Chase, Esq., of Bryant's Pond, wrote us that he declined the trust of Agent for the Chase Heirs to attend to their interests in England, and that G. L. Henderson, of New York City, was subsequently chosen in his stead. Dr. Lyman, of the Maine Farmer, who seems familiar with the genealogy of everybody in Oxford County, in referring to Mr. Chase's appointment as agent, gives the following:

"Mr. Chase is the youngest son of the late Merrill and Lucy (Spofford) Chase of Woodstock, grandson of Edmund and Esther (Merrill) Chase, who came from Newbury to Minot, Maine, and is the sixth in descent from Apollia Chase, one of the three Chase brothers whose descendants claim the immense Towshe property in England. Mr. Chase has served two terms in the Maine Legislature, and for nearly twelve years was register of deeds for the county of Oxford. He is honest and capable, though perhaps a little sanguine, and if he finds that in the pursuit of this property the heirs are following a mere ignis fatuus, which we believe to be the case, he will promptly dispel the illusion. In such a very doubtful cause, it is of no little importance to have an honest agent."

Fryeburg Items.

Hay is about all secured, in good condition, with generally a shrinkage in bulk from last year of about one-fourth, though I think the quality enough better to make it nearly equal in value. Grain, too, is nearly all secured in equally good condition. The yield is unusually heavy, especially oats, the principal grain sown in town. What little wheat I have seen, I think promises well, and rye and barley do not abound. Corn, which is narrow in breadth and light, under the influence of these warm, sunny days, does really begin to give promise of going to seed, being nearly all in milk, with occasionally a few glazed. Potato tops have a large growth, but, being backward, I fear from present indications, the rust will overtake them before the tubers are well grown and ripe.

Camp-Meeting closed Monday morning, Aug. 31, after a week of as beautiful weather for such an occasion as could be desired, with the single exception of a light shower Sunday P. M. which came during the delivery of a temperance address by Francis Murphy to the largest audience of the occasion (2500 more or less), causing an interruption of the address and driving many of the people to their tents for shelter. But the shower proving lighter than was apprehended, many remained on the ground and the address was resumed and completed before an audience, which would have been a large one for any ordinary occasion. The address Mr. M. gave was the one he calls "My Real Life." It was listened to with great attention and interest. Since Mr. M. came into town some six weeks ago, over 450 residents of the town have taken the pledge, and the most cheering feature of the movement is the fact that the very men whom every lover of temperance, of sobriety and morality, in short every lover of his kind would most desire to have take the pledge and keep it, have done so, and I have yet to learn of a single instance of backsliding. Let me say in this connection, to friends of temperance; you cannot do a better thing for the cause in your vicinities than to secure the services of Mr. Murphy.

The bridge at Weston's is taken up for repairs and travel that way will be suspended for several weeks. The cheese factory will close for the season the last of this week, having done a better business than most people anticipated. The quality of the cheese so far as tested has proved excellent, and if farmers who have furnished the milk realize more for it than others, I think its success will be assured.

Sad Accident in Norway.

We learn that a young man named Skillings, from Bolster's Mills, while driving by Pennesswasse Pond in Norway on Saturday last, was accidentally shot in the bowels and instantly killed. He saw a Muskrat, and having his gun with him, reached for it and in drawing it from under the seat the trigger was hit and the gun went off. He was about 17. His father is in the Insane Asylum.

T. R. Giles is removing his store from Eaton, to this village, placing it upon the lot recently purchased of Bradford Cole. The building is over fifty feet in length, two stories in height, is to be finished in good style and will be quite an addition to the business portion of the village, and no doubt will be paying property as this is one of the best locations for retail trade in the county. Who the parties are that will occupy the building is not made public yet.

Mr. Tyler is still manifesting his interest for his native town, having painted the church, and thoroughly repaired and painted the parsonage, has this week set men at work repairing and fitting for a High School room, Union Hall, which he presented to the town last spring. It is to be hoped that the unselfish generosity of Mr. Tyler will stimulate the citizens of the town to take immediate steps towards having a Free High School, for which the village is so well fitted, as nine-tenths of the scholars in town are within a radius of two miles of the village.

The colts in this town mentioned in your paper some months ago, sired by James Edgcomb's horse Pequawket and Coupou are beginning to show their royal blood. Jacob Hurdle owns a colt by Pequawket, five years old, made her mile on Cornish track in 2:52, the last half at the rate of 2:50. Seiden Boynton, a three-year-old by same horse, one-half mile in 1:33. He has been offered a round sum for him, but refused it. Both of the above are wholly untrained. E. B. Bean has sold his three-year-old colt by Pequawket for $650. Chas. Bickford has a stallion, four years old, by Pequawket, which shows a fast gait. A. Appleby owns thirteen colts—three 3-year-old by Pequawket, three same age by Coupou, remainder one and two years old. Good judges say they never saw so large a number of promising colts together in one pasture. Blood will tell.

We have been having fine weather for corn, which is very backward. Apple crop will be light. Grain very good.

Bethel Items.

Sunday noon a heavy shower of rain and hail passed over Bethel Hill, beating down the grain and making ribbons of the leaves of corn. In some places considerable glass was broken. Monday morning Mr. S. B. Twitchell gathered several quarts of hail stones near his house.

The cool, crisp mornings are causing an exodus of summer visitors, and soon we shall relapse to our normal condition. The fall term of Gould's Academy will commence September 8th, under the charge of Mr. Lowell, a recent graduate of Bowdoin College.

Last Friday Mrs. James Walker passed away, aged seventy-three years. It may be truly said of her, "Her children rise up and call her blessed." Naturally of a timid and shrinking disposition, she was a faithful wife, a kind and tender mother and a wise counsellor.

Farmers are busy picking their hops this week. We hear an excellent report from all the cheese which has been sold from our factory, which reflects much credit on Mr. Talbot. About 250 pounds have been made, which sells readily at fifteen cents per pound.

Edwin R. Abbott Esq. has sold his fine farm to Mr. Whiteley of N. Y. and H. F. Brickett of this town. Mr. Abbott intends to move to Lawrence, Mass. We regret to lose him as he is one of our best citizens, and a kind hearted and obliging neighbor.

Rev. Wm. V. Jordan, former pastor of the Congregational Church, preached a very interesting and eloquent sermon last Sunday evening. Mr. Jordan is seventy years of age, but still preaches with all the vigor of his younger days. May a crown of righteousness be the reward of his faithful labors.

I understand that during the thunder storm last Sunday evening, the buildings of Frederick Chidwell, on Farmer's Hill were struck twice by lightning.

I saw an article in your last issue denying me to prove certain statements which I had made. Allow me to say to that gentleman, that I can and shall prove any and all statements which I have made, and shall not back down nor retract one iota, but the facts of the case are so plain and self evident, that there is no need of any further proof.

LONG STAIR.

—The School Meeting in this District, called to consider the question of having a Fall term of school, was well attended and quite animated. Upon suggestions of A. Black, Esq., that such a term of school would interfere with the Academy, it was voted by 26 to 21 not to open the school. The District has money enough, it is true, and small scholars would, no doubt be better accommodated by a Fall term of the District school, but the fear that it would injure the Academy led many to vote against it at present. We hope there will be no feeling engendered in the District, as there should not be.

Mr. Sanborn of Norway, is expected to commence the manufacture of shovel handles at our steam mill this week.

Messrs. A. C. Curtis & Co. have bought this season over five thousand pounds of wool. George H. Briggs and Roscoe Tuel have purchased a new two-horse power threshing machine (Whitman's patent), and moved it into the large stable of Solomon Buck, at what is known as Trap Corner, about a mile from this place, where they are busily engaged threshing out the grain for our farmers.

Our shoemaker, as well as hunter, D. C. Churchill, has recently employed a good shoemaker to assist him in his shop. Our people will fully appreciate the services of a mechanic of this kind, as we have long been sadly in need of more shoemakers.

Editorial and Selected Items.

—Hebron Academy commences its fall term with over sixty, which number will be increased to seventy five or eighty by the first of the week.

—Information from Tennessee is to the effect that Andrew Johnson will most probably be returned to the senate in place of Parson Brownlow.

—The New England Temperance Camp Meeting at Old Orchard, this week, will be addressed by distinguished speakers, and bids fair to be a success.

—The fall term of Fryburg Academy opened with seventy-two scholars, Wednesday, under the charge of F. A. Wilson as Principal, assisted by Miss Wade.

—Hiram Jackson has been drawn as a Grand Juror and Ichabod M. Thomas and John B. Porter as traverse jurors, of Paris, for the September T. S. J. Court.

—Goddard & Garcelon, Lewiston, call attention to their new Stock of Fall Dry Goods. Those who visit Lewiston should call on them, as they have a splendid line of goods.

—Subscribers in arrears will do us a favor to send their subscriptions to us by mail or come to Court. They can see by the yellow slips the time to which they have paid.

—Messrs. Burnham & Morrill commenced work at the Corn Factory last week. The corn grown on light, sandy soil, is ready, while it will be coming in within the next three weeks from all sections. The crop is light.

—BRYANT'S POND.—The "Oxfords" of Bryant's Pond, played a match game of Base Ball on the 26th of August with the "Actives" of Bean's Corner, which resulted in the defeat of the latter by a score of 25 to 24.

—We shall go to Press a day later next week, to give the result of the Election. We hope our friends will get the names of the Representatives elect into the nearest telegraph station, on Monday night, that we may get them in the morning papers.

—Mr. A. Hersey, Freight Agent of the Maine Central R. R., son of Alvah Hersey, Esq., of South Paris, has been discharged the duties of Superintendent Lincoln, during the absence of the latter on a vacation. Mr. Hersey is reported to be an excellent Railroad man.

—Messrs. Andrews, Waldron & Co., will get out about 5000 dozen shovels in our village this season. They have had a crew of eight at work for about seven weeks and will finish up here this week. They then go to Canton where they have a good stock of ash. The demand for handles is not so brisk just now, as the market is supplied.

—A better place to buy Dry Goods—both as to quality and price, cannot be found than at HORATIO STAPLES, 78 Middle Street, Portland. Mr. Staples is well and favorably known to our Paris people, and we commend him to all in our County as a most agreeable and honest man to trade with. With the reduced rates on the Grand Trunk to Portland, our County trade with that city must again be resumed with advantage to all parties.

—We had the pleasure of attending the County Lodge of Good Templars at East Buckfield last Thursday. Crystal Wave, which entertained the visiting lodges, was on hand as usual, and a very pleasant and profitable session was enjoyed. Over a hundred were present,—all the lodges in the County, excepting one, were represented. Sharon Robinson, Jr., of Sumner, was elected W. C. T.; Mr. Bonney of Sore Haven Lodge, Hebron, Sec'y, and James Irish, of Forest Lake, Hartford, Treasurer. Moses Alley, Esq., District Deputy, installed the officers. The music, resolutions and remarks were highly entertaining.

A public meeting was held at the church in the evening. The next session will be with Nesqueot Lodge at Buckfield on the 16th of September.
