His Desperate Hour

By BENTLY PHILLIPS

A new stage is opening in the world's interest in the great literary figure, Miss Margaret Mitchell, who has just released her new novel, "Gone with the Wind." This novel has already become a sensation and is expected to be a major bestseller.

HARD TO ANALYZE FRIENDS

With untold understanding Charles T. Needham tells his story of how to make friends and lose friends.

SHOULDN'T THEY BE TAKEN MORE SERIOUSLY?

A letter from a concerned citizen who feels that the government should be more vigilant in its oversight of certain issues.

Grant How They Got Him.

Big Jim Williams is in a jam. His old cronies have caught him out of his element in a new and exciting way.

WHEN THINGS OF GREATER Moment Than Old Country Life

Do you ever feel sad when you think of the old country life? Pensive thoughts may overwhelm you when you are far from home. But take heart, for there is also much joy in the present life.

When the success or failure of any day depends on whether the bowlines function properly or not

WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS SEASON!

As everybody knows, Christmas is the season of hospitable entertainments. The Elsworth American will not be behind the times in this respect.

We have had time credit to employ the entertainers here.

A successful entertainment is a combination of several elements. The first is a good program, which should be carefully planned. The second is a capable management, which should see to it that the program runs smoothly. The third is a capable audience, which should be well informed and interested. The fourth is a capable promotion, which should see to it that the entertainment is well advertised. The fifth is a capable public, which should be well informed and interested.

As a result of all these elements, a successful entertainment will be a great success.

The Elsworth American will not be behind the times in this respect.

DONE WITH LEVER

Refined to See Anything More-Natural.

One of the most original and exciting theories of pyramid construction is that of the late Mr. George W. Lever, of New York City. In a paper read before the American Institute of Architects in 1891, Mr. Lever expressed the belief that the pyramid was originally designed for the purpose of泄

MANY FEAR BANKS
Large Class Prefers to Hear Its Sides.

Foreigners Especially Afflicted of Great Britain.

A contributor on the Ohio river was heard to say, "Bank failures are not of the same order of magnitude as in the states. A number of prosperous farmers lost their money in the banks, but they all recovered it. The Ohio river farmers have never been in such a plight. They are all in the same boat, and the failure of one bank means the failure of all."

The writer did not dare to tell the story of the Ohio river farmers to the farmers of his own state, for he knew that the story would only precipitate a run on the banks. He was not sure that the Ohio river farmers would not be in the same plight as their neighbors."
