TO BE REINSTATED

But Prison Officials Have Suffered Financial Loss.—Contributions.

Gov. Brewster has issued a statement regarding the receipt of contributions for the 17 guards discharged from the State Prison at the beginning of the investigation. It says:
"Contributions from individuals and clubs in all parts of the State have already begun to come in. The reinstatement of the guards in accordance with the announcement of the new warden will be very gratefully received by all citizens appreciative of their stand, but will not repair the loss that they have suffered during the past month of their suspension which they can ill afford to bear."
"No names of contributors or amounts will be made public unless specific permission for this is given by the one making the gift. Interested citizens in various sections may unite in sending in contributions if they so desire. One dollar apiece from all of the citizens who have manifested their sympathy in the past few weeks for these guards will compensate them for their loss."

False clues were followed before the meat of the cow and bull were finally located at the Jackson farm. The house was searched on suspicion, after Warden Smallwood had examined Mr. Jackson's motor truck and found moose hairs clinging to it. To the trained nostrils of Mr. Smallwood the scent of moose meat was unmistakable the moment the house was entered. The warden went to the basement where Deputy Sheriff Orbeton examined the upper rooms. The latter located the moose meat in the attic over the kitchen where it had been carefully hidden behind the bed.

SLAUGHTERED MOOSE

Warden Smallwood's Investigation Leads To Two Arrests.

The slaughter of a bull moose weighing about 1200 pounds, a cow moose weighing about 1300 pounds and a calf moose of approximately 500 pounds led yesterday to the arrest of Charles F. Jackson and Floyd Watson of South Waldoboro. Watson is alleged to have admitted to the officers that he shot the bull moose, but stoutly denied that he killed more than one of the animals. He also denies that Mr. Jackson, who has been arrested for illegal possession of moose meat, had anything to do with the affair.

The complete carcass of the calf was brought to this city, and about half of the moose meat was also recovered. It is hinted that there will be another arrest tomorrow.

The case was worked up by Game Warden Fred Smallwood with the assistance of Deputy Warden Ralph W. Brown, and when yesterday's seizure and arrests were made these officials were accompanied by Deputy Sheriff E. Stuart Orbeton of Rockport and Deputy Sheriff William Keene of Waldoboro.

Hint of this wholesale and illegal slaughter reached Warden Smallwood Thanksgiving night. Accompanied by Deputy Brown he went to Waldoboro and in Friday's rain and snow storm the two officials finally located the carcass of the bull moose in some underbrush. The head, entrails and hoofs of the cow were discovered nearby, and about 150 feet away the carcass of the calf, with only its tongue missing, was found lying on the ground.

Mr. Jackson disclaimed any knowledge of how the moose meat came onto his premises.
The Watson boys came out of the woods, soon after the seizure had been made and was at once placed under arrest. He, too, said that Mr. Jackson had nothing to do with the matter.

The officers were unconvinced, however, particularly after they had found remnants of cooked moose meat on the premises.
Messrs. Jackson and Watson were taken to have been tried in the selectmen's office, Waldoboro, before Justice Singer, at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

Commissioner Parsons of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game was notified of the arrests and recovery of the moose meat and praised the work of Warden Smallwood and his assistants very highly. Mr. Smallwood's efforts were all the more commendable in view of the fact that he made his investigation in stormy weather while suffering badly from rheumatism.

Violation of the moose law is punishable by heavy fines and imprisonment.
The Pekingese Association of New England held a specialty show in Boston last week for the benefit of the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children in Newton. Katherine O. Studley's Hot Tot Sing won second honors in the class of American Bred over eight pounds.

"Ninety-two" would almost seem to be a class of destiny, for of the four boys who were members of it one—Albert C. McLoon—has already served the city as mayor, while Carlton F. Snow, the present mayor was with the class until he was appointed to Annapolis Naval Academy. It is something of a coincidence that Mr. Carver in his class prophecy should also place that honor upon another member—Ernest Singer.

Mr. Carver's prophecy concerning himself was that he would be a Western farmer with 20 years' residence. "It requiring that length of time to earn money enough to get back East."
Mr. Carver's more serious thoughts, however, were of entering business, and after leaving High School he took the complete course at Rockland Commercial College.

His first wage-earning efforts, or rather his first appearance on a payroll, were as an employee in the office of Thorndike & Hix.

Belonging to a family which had been among the pioneers in the local restaurant business, Mr. Carver's thoughts naturally strayed in that direction, and for 10 or 12 years he was proprietor of an eating establishment. Sixteen years ago he engaged in the book and stationery business, at which he has continued ever since, developing one of the largest stores of this kind in Knox County.

He has always been interested in municipal affairs and found his first opportunity to become a participant in 1908, when he was elected to the

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Life Story of James F. Carver, Business Man, Spanish War Veteran, and Former President of Rockland's Common Council.

The Republican party offers as its candidate for mayor in next Monday's election a native born lifelong citizen, who has contributed to the city's commercial aspect for a long period of years, and who has successfully withstood the test of time.
Mr. Carver became a candidate for the nomination many weeks ago, when it was very generally understood that the present incumbent

Common Council from Ward 4, and served with Mayor Rodney I. Thompson. He was re-elected in 1909 and again in 1910, serving under Mayor Albert C. McLoon, and for those two years as president of the Council.

Serving on important committees he gained an insight into city affairs which will prove valuable equipment in case of his election next Monday. The next call for his services in a municipal character was as member of the Registration Board. He served eight years on it, half of that time as chairman, in which capacity his absolute fairness appealed to both political parties. He has also served two years as assessor.

Perhaps the most interesting experience in Mr. Carver's career was during the Spanish War when he went to Chickamauga with Co. H, 1st Maine Regiment. During that campaign he was detailed for recruiting duty. The First Maine did not get to Cuba, tremendously to its disappointment, and did not achieve glory with Roosevelt at San Juan, but it faced another grim enemy in a Southern training camp and lost several men from disease. Mr. Carver is a member of Ralph Ulmer Camp, Spanish War Veterans, the organization being named for Major Ralph R. Ulmer, one of the men who offered up his life on his country's altar. He has served six terms as commander of the organization.

Mr. Carver is a 32nd degree Mason, intensely devoted to the fraternity, and for a year past has been eminent commander of Claremont Commandery. In addition to giving that organization the benefit of his acknowledged skill as a drill master he will be able to show the second largest year's growth that the Commandery has ever had. He belongs to Kora Temple, Mystic Shrine.

He is a member of the Rockland Country Club, and any pleasant summer days when his business affairs will permit it may be seen on the golf links indulging in what is now his favorite recreation.

He was a member of Rockland's first High School football team in 1891 and also played on the High School baseball team. Years afterward he reappeared on the diamond as captain of a team in the famous Alderbrush League which is believed to have furnished more real diversion than any other outdoor sport that has ever been devised in this locality. While Jimmy did not qualify for the regulars he proved conclusively that he had not forgotten all that he learned in the days of his prime.

Mr. Carver's platform appeared in last Thursday's issue of The Courier-Gazette—a clean-cut, straightforward statement, disavowing affiliation with any faction or clique, and outlining the policy which he should pursue if elected mayor.

The candidate is married, his wife being formerly Emma Knowlton of Camden, prominently identified with the Business & Professional Women's Club.

LIGHTS ON VEHICLES

A Strict Enforcement of the New Law Will Begin Today.

The laws regarding lights on vehicles at night will be enforced commencing today, and the following order has been issued by Arthur H. Field, chief of the State Highway Police:

1. Section 69 provides that all vehicles must display lights, except hand propelled vehicles and vehicles parked where artificial lights make such vehicles clearly visible not less than 100 feet in each direction.

A vehicle being operated over our highways without light of any kind becomes a positive danger to the traveling public and should be driven off the road until suitable lights may be procured. While the operator of such vehicle may be delayed, the operator must realize that the light must be safeguarded for the operator who may be proceeding in a legal manner.

Officers will arrest the operator of any vehicle which is being operated without any lights.

2. Headlights must be so adjusted that no portion of the beam of light shall rise higher than 42 inches at a distance of 75 feet, test to be made on level surface. A very bright sparkling light is not properly adjusted.

Officers will stop operators of vehicles when lights appear improperly adjusted, ascertaining when same were adjusted and if not of recent date will instruct operator to have lights adjusted immediately. Officers will check later, ascertaining if lights have been adjusted. If it is apparent that lights have not been adjusted because of negligence operator shall be arrested.

3. Every motor vehicle must be equipped with a pair of lamps mounted on the right and left sides of front.

If the vehicle is controlled so that same will not exceed 15 miles per hour, lamp must show a substantial object on a level way, 50 feet directly ahead and at least 7 feet to the right of the axis of such vehicle for a distance of 25 feet.

If the vehicle can exceed 15 miles per hour lamp must show a substantial object on a level way at least 200 feet ahead and at least 7 feet to right of the axis of such vehicle for a distance of 100 feet.

In case of a vehicle traveling with only one light in front, the officer will stop driver, examine lamp and if it is apparent that trouble has been caused by negligence the operator shall be arrested, otherwise shall be told to go to the nearest garage and have the trouble corrected.

No electric bulb of more than 32 candle power shall be used.

4. Every motor vehicle shall have a red light on rear at left of axle of vehicle which can be seen at least 100 feet behind such vehicle, together with white light which will illuminate registration plate so that characters shall be visible for a distance of at least 50 feet.

In case of vehicle traveling without rear light, officer will stop driver, examine light and if it is apparent that trouble has been caused by negligence, the operator shall be arrested, otherwise shall be told to go to the nearest garage and have the trouble corrected.

5. When a spot light is used the rays must not shine more than two feet above the road at a distance of 30 feet ahead of vehicle, except that spot light may be used for the purpose of reading signs, and as an auxiliary light in cases where other lights required by law fail to operate.

6. Officers will enforce above order during period from 30 minutes after sunset to 30 minutes before sunrise, working actively each night.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

THE EVE OF WATERLOO

There was a sound of revelry by night,
And Belgium's capital had gathered then
Her beauty and her chivalry; and bright
The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men.
A thousand hearts beat happily; and when
Music arose with voices sweet,
Soft eyes looked love to eyes which spoke
Of sweetest love, and of the joy to come.

And all went merry as a marriage bell;
But hush! hark! a deep sound strikes like a rising bell!

Did ye not hear it? No; 'twas but the wind,
Or the car rattling o'er the stony street;
On with the dance! let joy be unconfined!
No step till morn, when Youth and Pleasure meet in dreams, to waken the waking feet!

To chase the glowing hours with flying feet!
But hark!—that heavy sound breaks like a voice from heaven,
As if the clouds its echo would repeat;
And nearer, clearer, closer beat the feet.
Arm! arm!—it is the cannon's opening fire!

Ah! then and there was hurrying to and fro,
And gathering tears, and tremblings of distress,
And cheeks all pale, which, but an hour ago,
Flushed at the praise of their own loveliness;
And there were sudden partings, such as press
The life from out young hearts, and choking sighs
Which ne'er might be repeated: who could guess
If ever more should meet those mutual eyes,
Since upon sight so sweet such awful words
Could rise?

And there was mounting in hot haste: the steed,
The whinnying squadrons, and the clattering car,
Went pouring forward with impetuous speed,
And swiftly forming in the ranks of war;
And the deep thrum of the drum on steel afar;
And near, the beat of the alarming drum:
Roused up the soldier ere the morning star;
While thronged the citizens with terror dumb,
Or whispering with white lips, "The foe! They come! They come!"

And Ardennes waves above them her green leaves,
Dewy with nature's tear-drops, as they pass,
Grieving, if aught inanimate e'er grieves,
Over the unreturning brave—alas!
Ere evening is to be trodden like the grass
Which, now beneath them, but above shall grow:
In its next verdure, when this fiery mass
Of living valor, rolling on the foe,
And burning with high hope, shall moulder
Cold and low.

Last noon behind them full of luxury life,
Last eve in Beauty's circle proudly gay,
The midnight brought the signal-sound of strife;
The morn the marshalling in arms—the day,
Bartle's magnificently storm array!
The thunder-cannon close o'er it, which, when rent,
The earth is covered thick with other clay,
Which her own clay shall cover, heaped and pent,
Rider and horse—friend, foe—in one red burial shroud.

—George Gordon Byron.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
Rockland, Maine, Dec. 1, 1925.
Personally appeared Frank S. Laddie, who on oath declares that he is pressman in the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of Nov. 28, 1925, there was printed a total of 6,430 copies. Before me, FRANK B. MILLER, Notary Public.

Guard your thoughts:—Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.—Philippians 4:8.

CANDIDATE CARVER

The last week of the municipal campaign opened yesterday with a growing conviction that there will be a substantial majority for James F. Carver and his associates on the Republican ticket. On another page will be found a faithful biographical sketch of the Republican mayoralty candidate, and a careful perusal of it is recommended. Here we have a home boy who has grown up amongst us, earning his livelihood here and spending his earnings here; beginning business in a humble way, and successfully maintaining his position on the Street as a merchant for 28 years. He did his bit in the Spanish War and has never failed to heed the call of public duty when it has since arisen. The voters will find his life story to their liking, and it will serve to confirm the excellent impression which his recent public statement created. If he is successful in next Monday's voting the citizens of Rockland will have elected a man who will uphold the banner of progress, and who will administer the city's affairs on a safe and sane basis the next two years.

Statistics compiled by the motion picture trade show that the weekly attendance at the 20,000 theatres in the United States is 55,000,000 and that the annual paid admissions exceed $700,000,000. There will be some persons rise to pronounce this a reckless extravagance, but, as usual, there are arguments to be presented on both sides. It is undoubtedly true that many persons go to the pictures more frequently than they can afford, but isn't it equally true that they buy articles of merchandise which they cannot afford—not necessities, but luxuries. On the other side of the ledger is found the recompensing fact that poor people are being afforded diversion at the minimum cost, and it would be a very undesirable world if the poor as well as the rich did not have some variation from life's ceaseless grind. Another element is found in this seven hundred million dollar outlay and that is the support which it gives to one of the country's largest industries, in which thousands upon thousands of persons are at present dependent for a livelihood.

Reliable estimates indicate that 12,000,000 persons saw the college football games this fall—an astonishing attendance when the brevity of the season is taken into account. To accommodate these big crowds—84,295 in one instance—it has been necessary to erect new and gigantic stadiums, and the name of "Red" Grange is today as well known throughout the nation as though he had been a candidate for the Presidency. It is figured that 371,000 spectators saw this famous athlete in action during the fall months. The football casualty list has been larger than for any previous year, with 20 players fatally injured and 43 seriously hurt. This covers the entire country, and when it is taken into consideration that half as many persons are killed in Maine alone, while hunting, the tragic feature of the college sport loses somewhat its significance.

Elsewhere in this issue is republished an interview which the Lewiston Journal had last week with Henry Alperin, member of a former well known Rockland family which has achieved such notable success in New England and New York State with its chain of self-service shoe stores. Mr. Alperin says that Maine's new publicity movement is bearing good results, and he offers a suggestion which could not fail to give it additional impetus if faithfully followed. In substance he advises the people of Maine to regard their State in the light of a great retail store, with every citizen a clerk, interested in selling the State's wares—her scenery, her industrial advantages and her recreational opportunities. Mr. Alperin has exactly the right idea, the moral of which would be to create a citizenry of boosters, and oblivion for knackers.

The Navy had contemplated maneuvers on a large scale off the west coast of South America next year, but the tentative plans have been abandoned because of the necessity for fuel conservation. Of even greater local interest is the announcement that in the late spring or early summer of 1927 there will be army and naval maneuvers to test the defense of New England.

After tomorrow night it will be too late to register for next Monday's election. Why wait for tomorrow night? Do it now!

EMPIRE THEATRE

"Traffic in Hearts," with Robert Fraser and Mildred Harris and a remarkable supporting cast, is the attraction at the Empire today. The latest chapter of "Play Ball" and a Pathe News will also be shown.

Every Wednesday and Thursday the Empire offers its patrons a double feature program and this week it includes two of the latest and best productions of the year—Reginald Denny in "California Straight Ahead" the picture selected for the opening attraction of the new Keith Theatre of Boston; and Blanche Sweet in "Why Women Love," adapted from Willard Robertson's famous play "The Sea Woman."

Crazy airplane flights, wild ambulance chases, a misplaced wedding, an animal circus running everybody ragged, a mad auto race with the car in flames, are just a hint of the drama and merriment in "California Straight Ahead." Do not miss the big $25,000 special built bus used in this picture.

Like the great "Anna Christie" "Why Women Love" is another big drama of sails and sacrifice. And the sea that lashes at the faith of the girl who waits and the man who wanders. Adapted from Willard Robertson's famous play "The Sea Woman."

PARK THEATRE

Meet His Merry Majesty, "The King On Main Street," with Adolphe Menjou at Park Theatre today. A love comedy of a King who lost his heart on Main street and almost lost his throne. The Mighty Monarch of Mirth is Adolphe Menjou in "The King On Main Street." "Baltic's Race to Rome" and the International News will be presented on the same program.

What happens when heiresses fall in love with their chauffeurs? And young millionaires fall in love with chorus girls? "The Best People" at the Park on Wednesday and Thursday will give the answer, told with laughs, flashy scenes of New York night life, fashionable country clubs and society homes, back-stage theatrical episodes and rapid-fire complications. "The Best People" with Warner Baxter, Esther Ralston and Kathlyn Williams, was adapted from the play of the same name.

Battery H, 240th Coast Artillery, organized in Bath last July, is planning itself on holding the State regatta for attendance at National Guard drills. This company is in Major Ralph W. Brown's battalion, and is proving a credit to it.

Counterfeit $20 Federal Reserve notes are in circulation in Bangor, and it is not improbable that quite a number of them may have been turned loose on unsuspecting Rockland folks. For having's sake, examine your twenties!

Yesterday morning's zero weather made some people read those alluring Florida advertisements and scan the schedules of the "Orange Blossom Special." It was a tragic farewell for a month that has been having in such exemplary manner.

The annual memorial exercises of Rockland Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, to be held this year at the Home, are to be for Lodge members only, and will be simply the ritual form. The ceremony will be held next Sunday late in the afternoon and will be followed by a supper.

Friends of Ralph W. E. Thorndike will regret to learn that he is obliged to cancel his annual trip to Maine this season. He sends his best regards to all of them, however, and assures them that there are no banana peels under his heels and that he is not "slipping."

The American Legion Auxiliary will open a rest room Wednesday, in the Legion building. This room will be available for shoppers from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. week days; under the supervision of a member of the Auxiliary. A parcel room will be maintained in connection with the rest room.

The business of the McLain shoe store is being continued by the widow of the late W. A. McLain and the son of the deceased, William A. McLain, Jr. The younger Mr. McLain was in the shoe business with his father before becoming an automobile salesman, and will continue to handle cars in connection with the shoe business.

Nearly all of the local radio fans are exclaiming over the wonderful reception of Saturday afternoon when they were listening in on the Army and Navy game. Announcer McNamee was at his best, and a Courier-Gazette reporter who was getting the story through John Watts' set at 5 Adams street could distinctly hear every syllable. Not so satisfactory was the announcing of the Boston College-Holy Cross game. There's only one McNamee.

Tickets are on sale for the open forum supper of the Rockland Chamber of Commerce which will take place at the Copper Kettle one week from tonight. The committee in charge of this event comprises A. F. McAlary, Fred T. Veazie, Lloyd Benner, A. B. Higgs, E. R. Veazie, Frank S. Rhodes, C. S. Beverage and Edward Gonia. All of the members will have an opportunity to take part in a discussion on the Southern trail. At the Thorndike Hotel Sunday evening Mr. Donohue entertained a small gathering of friends with an account of the actual conditions in Florida, based on a careful four years' study of them. He advises nobody to go to Florida looking for a job, because Florida during the winter season is over-run with applicants who expect that somebody will hand them a fortune for the asking. Prices in the big boom centers, especially on the East Coast are naturally exorbitant, but within a radius of 50 miles of such places one can live as cheaply as at home. Florida, according to Mr. Donohue is capitalizing its sunshine and climate which are far superior to those found in the famous watering places of France and Italy, and which are bringing to Florida pleasure and health seekers from all parts of the world. Florida is also "finding itself" as an agricultural State and all of the values are by no means fictitious. "If you go to Florida," said Mr. Donohue, "take plenty of money, the same as you would if you were going to New York."

A sale of aprons, towels, fancy and utility articles will be held by Mrs. A. E. Keyes and Mrs. R. U. Collins at 564 Talbot avenue, beginning at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, Dec. 4 and continuing through the evening.

According to C. M. Lawry's weather statistics the warmest November morning was Nov. 8 (62 above) and the coldest November morning was yesterday morning (4 above). The average morning temperature of the month was 34 above. Rain fell on eight days and snow on three days. Mr. Lawry makes a record at 8 a. m. each day from an accurate thermometer.

The funeral services of the late Roy L. Knowlton, held Sunday afternoon at the family residence on Lime-rock street, were marked by a very large attendance and a wonderful display of floral tributes. The Episcopal service was read by Rev. B. P. Browne of the First Baptist church. The bearers were E. K. Leighton, Ensign Otis, Walter H. Spear, Elmer C. Davis, George W. Buchelder and Adriel U. Bird. The interment was in Achorn cemetery.

On their way to Portland Sunday Mrs. Chester Richardson and daughter Barbara of Rockland and Miss Louise Curtis of Camden had a very narrow escape. The car in which they were riding—a Ford coupe—crashed through the Muddy Bridge fence, near Bath, and catapulted onto the mud flats far out on the river bottom. Fortunately for the occupants the tide was low. Crawling from the ruins of the car the two women and child walked ashore unharmed. Mrs. Richardson's mother, Mrs. Minnie Crozier, went to Bath for them.

Each patron of Park Theatre was dealt a royal flush at Saturday night's performances, and looking the hand over found that it referred to the coming week's attractions. Today it is the "season's smartest comedy," "The King on Main Street," starring Adolphe Menjou. This picture was selected for the opening attraction at the new Metropolitan Theatre in Boston, and Rockland folks yesterday found it altogether to their liking. A "spry and roaring" comedy is billed for Wednesday and Thursday under the title of "The Best People." Heading the cast are Warner Baxter, Esther Halston and Kathryn Williams. A week of laughter will have a roaring finish Friday and Saturday with Madsu Bellamy, Leslie Fenton and Zasu Pitts in "Thunder Mountain" and Larry Semon in "The Wizard of Oz." Park patrons will agree that this royal flush is unbeatable.

The 1926 Christmas Club is open for membership and is calling forth unprecedented interest. This is heightened by the fact that $2500 in cash prizes will be awarded those writing the best story on thrift induced by the Christmas Club idea. Details of the contest may be secured at the Security Trust Co. The Christmas Club checks for 1925 are being made out.

Sunday night while on his way to work Officer Harold Phillips met and recognized two young men running at considerable speed and laughing gleefully. Because of the high wind he heard no other sound, but presently saw Box 38 open and unattended and discovered, the fire apparatus whirling up the street. The officer put two and two together with the result that the two young men were running away from the fire. Daniel Howard, 19, spent the night at the police station and the next morning they paid $50 and costs of court. Both men seemed to realize the seriousness of the situation and their mothers were present in their behalf.

KNOX-FREEMAN

Miss Inez Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, and James P. Knox of Metuchen, N. J., were married Friday evening at the home of the bride, 14 Willow street. The bride was attired in a gown of oak-wood satin crepe, trimmed with fur. The ceremony was performed by Judge Frank E. Miller and the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thompson. After a brief visit at the bride's home, the young couple will reside in Metuchen, N. J. Ice cream and cake were served. After the ceremony the young couple settled for a quiet evening at home, but much to their surprise 40 friends walked in, and in the course of a very pleasant evening presented them with many useful gifts. The young newlyweds have the best wishes of many friends.

THE SEED-SCATTERERS

An Ever-Growing Army That It Is Worth Belonging To.

"Down the Cape," not long ago, I learned of an organization, entirely new to me, and which I wish to tell you of. Perhaps I should not call it an organization—it really is not, in the strictest sense of the word, since it has no officers, no record of members, and exacts no dues. We can all join it—yes, I, everyone—even though we never may have the pleasure of hearing the voice of its founder, or seeing her cheery face. All we need do, in order to become members, is to promise ourselves that we will scatter one package of flower-seeds—which may be grown in our own home-garden, or purchased—every year, along the roadside, or in any neglected spot. As long as we faithfully fulfil this obligation, we are members, fulfilled and in good-standing, of the association named "Seed Scatterers."

The founder is a poet, lecturer and above all, a flower-lover. Her old-fashioned garden at her summer home, within sight of the Atlantic and the sound of its waves, is a dream of beauty. All her life, she says, she has loved flowers, and that as a very little girl, it pained her to see the wildings of field and wood ruthlessly destroyed by careless, unthinking people. And so, even then she began scattering seeds of other flowers wherever there was the slightest chance for them to grow.

Growing older—in years, since her smile and loving interest in this work of hers between her still the child at heart—she became a traveler of note, and she scattered seeds in barren places everywhere as she went. Her fellow travelers took the cue, and so the association grew with here a friend and there a friend added to its numbers. Then—some three years ago—the idea came to this kindly, earnest woman that she would broadcast her plan of seed-sowing. A big radio-station gave her the opportunity, and now she feels sure that there are not less than a half million people who have pledged themselves to help replace the natural wild blossoms so rapidly disappearing with the perennials we are wont to see growing in our gardens. One member, she says, is scattering seeds on the Mount of Olives, and she has letters from noted personages in France, China, Java, and other places and countries far and near, who are almost as interested and enthusiastic about the work of this unique association as its founder herself. Of course, it is best to sow in any certain locality must be determined by the good sense and judgment of the sower. A little study of the natural flower-habits will be of great assistance here. But she sees no reason why the barren spots, the scars of earth, which have been made to blossom with a profusion of many colors, poppies, pinks, larkspur, all sorts of lovely things, which will, in time, take their places among the real wild flowers.

Let us join the ever-growing army of seed-scatterers—shall we? And let us not forget, too, that there are other seeds to scatter, right at home, among our friends and the people with whom we come in contact day by day—seeds of kindness, charity, patience, good-will, which will rejoice, as well, the "barren places" which need them.—A. G. F. in Needlecraft.

RHEUMATISM

The Buxton Rheumatic Medicine Co. Albion Village, Maine.

Dear Sirs:—In the Spring of 1923, I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my hips and legs, and was so lame that I was unable to get about. I commenced taking Buxton's Rheumatic Specific. After the first bottle was taken I commenced to feel better and after taking six bottles I was entirely free from Rheumatism and have been ever since. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one who is troubled with rheumatism.

Very truly yours,
H. A. ELLIOT.

GUESTS SAWED WOOD

How They "Settled" Thanksgiving Dinner In South Hope.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—The family of Ralph P. Conant spent Thanksgiving Day with the family of his son, Earl R. Conant, at the farm, South Hope. Among the guests was Henry E. Ulmer, a student at Gordon College, who motored from Boston to be present at the family gathering. At high noon the company of 12 sat down to eat an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner. Almost at the last moment word was received from the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Long, of North Waldoboro, that they were unexpectedly delayed and could not be present. This was a great disappointment to all.

At the table were gathered four generations—Mrs. Ellen Conant, her son, Ralph P.; his son, Earl R., and Earl's baby daughter, Beverly Elaine Conant, aged six months. The invited guests not before mentioned, were Joseph Long, youngest brother of the hostess, and F. S. Philbrick—"Uncle Fernando," aged 82.

One thing that gave the occasion more of "ye olden days" flavor, was the blazing, roaring fire of logs, built in the old fashioned fire frame in the chimney corner of the dining room. Another, an exact duplicate, was giving heat and cheer in the sitting room. The plum pudding, concocted by Grandma Conant, came in for its share of praise.

After dinner Earl brought out his combination tractor and wood-sawing rig, and gave a demonstration of modern power fire-wood fitting, six of the dinner party taking an active part. Prominent among them was Earl's cousin, aged 15, an athlete of the High School student, doing a full stunt with the best of the workers. Even Uncle Fernando was making believe. Some two or three cords of long wood were soon made into stove wood.

In due time the guests departed for their homes, hoping for a like pleasant meeting one year hence.

Uncle Fernando.

Mrs. Vaughn Johnson will enter- tain the Mothers' Club this week.

L. B. Dyer left Saturday for Port- land, where he has employment with H. L. Sanborn in the insur- ance business.

Mrs. Reuben Carver entertained the Washington Club Saturday eve- ning at her home.

At the concert given at Union church, Dec. 11, under the auspices of the Sunday school, there will be a fairy drill, sketches, dialogues, recitations, songs and orchestra se- lections. The proceeds will go to- ward paying for the new furnace which has recently been installed in the church by W. Adelbert Smith.

A family gathering was held Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Webster. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sewell E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Web- ster, Kenneth Smith, Miss Helen Staples, Algie Smith, Maurice Brown, Flora Smith and John Thompson. A bountiful dinner was served, followed by radio and piano music much enjoyed. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Albert Hamilton and Miss Josephine Mills joined the merry party. In the evening cards and radio selections were enjoyed. On the whole it was a very happy occasion.

Miss Helen Staples returned Fri- day morning to her work in Rock- land.

Billings-Smith

Davis Billings, formerly of Vinal- haven, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Wil- bur E. Billings, was united in mar- riage to Miss Esther Smith, of 1830 Hyde Park Avenue, Readville, Mass., Nov. 21. The wedding took place at the bride's home at 5 in the after- noon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Buckingham.

The bride was very becomingly at- tired in a gown of white satin and real lace, with long bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in be- coming pale pink silk and carried pink roses. The groom wore a traveling suit of navy blue, and was attended by Robert Brownell of Bath as best man. A large number of guests were present, among them Mrs. Wilbur E. Billings, the groom's mother, Mrs. Robert Brownell of Bath and Grace M. Roberts.

The bridal couple were recipients of many beautiful presents. They left shortly after the ceremony for Buffalo, N. Y., where the groom has been sent for a three months' period by his firm for the extensive study of marine engines.

For the past six years Mr. Billings has been employed by the Walter H. Moreton & Co., of Boston, which firm is well known at Vinalhaven, and with whom through hard work he has secured a fine position.

After completing his study of mar- ine engines in Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Billings will make their home at Wat- ertown, Mass.

Children love the pleasant taste of "California Fig Syrup" and gladly take it even when bilious, feverish, sick, or constipated. No other laxa- tive regulates the tender little bowels so nicely. It sweetens the stomach and starts the liver and bowels with- out cramping or overacting. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Rheumatism,

Neuritis, Pain

"Heet" Relieves Instantly

With applicator attached to cork, just brush "Heet" over the pain area, whether in hands, elbows, shoulders, neck, knees, legs, back, neck or body. In- stantly, you feel this harmless, glori- ous, penetrating heat draw the pain, soreness and stiffness right out of the aching or swollen joint, muscle or nerve. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a cure.

"Heet" contains two soothing, pen- etrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or anal- gesics. "Heet" is a clean, pleasant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irri- tate the skin and costs only 60 cents at any drug store.

BASKETBALL CODE

Outstanding Changes In the Rules For the Coming Sea- son.

The edition for the season of 1925-1926 of Spalding's Official Baseball Guide, containing the revised rules for the coming season, has just been issued. Outstanding among the changes in the playing code are those abolishing the hand-behind- the-back on the jump ball and the goal zone. The rule makers felt that these changes could be made safely under present conditions and that they would meet with the approval of the majority of those interested in the game.

Under the new jump rule it is a personal foul for a player to inter- fere in any way with his opponent, and this has special reference to the hand not used in tapping the ball. To avoid this foul, players should try to keep this hand in the plane of the body.

The detailed changes in the rules follow:

The goal zones are abolished. The free throw lines are the parts of the old zone lines within the circles.

The face of the backboard must be painted white.

Players of the same team shall not wear duplicate numbers.

The referee shall not permit any player to wear braces, etc., which are dangerous to others.

The referee may disqualify players for flagrant unsportsmanship.

The umpire shall keep the scorers informed upon decisions made by the referee and the umpire.

The score book of the home team shall be the official book unless the referee rules otherwise.

The edges of the backboard are in bounds; that is, if the ball strikes the edge of the backboard and rebounds to the court it continues in play.

Jump ball at free throw line in- stead of at center.

A player may pivot after a legal dribble.

After a free throw following a technical foul the ball shall be thrown up at center, whether the free throw is made or missed.

The hand-behind-the-back require- ment on jump ball is abolished; if a player leaves the circle before the ball is tapped a technical foul shall be called. A new section is inserted under Rule 15B, making it a per- sonal foul for a player to interfere in any way with an opponent when the ball is tossed up between them.

On a jump ball the official is to blow his whistle when the ball leaves his hand, but the ball must not be tapped before it has reached its highest point.

When the game is played in eight minute or in six minute quarters each over-time period shall be three minutes.

Rule 10, Section 1, has been re- written and a suggestion to officials added stressing the importance of clear decisions of out-of-bounds plays.

If on a jump ball both players tap the ball simultaneously to out of bounds it shall be tossed up again at the same point instead of at a point near the boundary line.

Time is to be taken out during the free throw following a technical foul. The referee is to take the ball dur- ing "time-out" periods and not per- mit practice shooting.

Rule 14, Section 6-A note is added, following the penalty govern- ing Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 stating that if the offending player had the ball he shall give it immediately to the proper official or the player en- titled to it.

A player who changes his number during a game without reporting the change shall be disqualified.

Rule 15B (Penalty)—This is changed to provide that two free throws are awarded only when the offending player is in the act of throwing for goal.

when you buy "L.F.'s"

"L. F." ATWOOD Medicine.

First, because it's such a big bottle (almost 8 ounces) and such a small dose (usually a tea- spoonful) of the concentrated extract of the best and purest medicines and the price is only 50 cents.

Next, because when you use it, you ward off sickness in the form of headaches, biliousness, nausea or constipation, and are able to attend to your work regularly, without losing your pay.

Finally, when you are feeling fine as a result of the "L. F." treatment, with better diges- tion, you do it quicker, better, and easier, and with that feeling of satisfaction which money can not buy.

for the 8th consecutive year... at the National Automobile Shows

Again Buick has won first place in the motor car industry. This year, as in every one of the preceding seven, the public has invested more dollars in Buick automobiles than in other cars built by any member of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

This entitles Buick to first choice of display space at the National Automobile Shows in New York and Chicago.

For eight years Buick has dominated quality motor car sales, enjoying nearly a decade of leadership, while a host of other fine cars were striving for the place of honor held by Buick.

A better idea of the magnitude of this Buick achievement may be obtained when you con- sider that to duplicate it, a motor car would need to capture first place now, then hold it continuously until 1934.

To have won the lion's share of public prefer- ence, year after year, for so long, conclusively shows superior merit in the Buick product.

Buick has built a better motor car, and public recognition has followed—has singled it out as the one car among all—which contains in the greatest measure the essentials of dependable, economical and luxurious motoring.

Because of the Universalist fair the ladies of the Women's Association of the Congregational church have postponed their circle supper one week, the committee for Dec. 2 to serve Dec. 9. The regular business meeting of the Association will be held Wednesday, Dec. 9 at 4.30 p. m. in the vestry.

Miss Pearl Borgerson returned last week from a vacation trip to Quinsigamond, Worcester and Boston, and here resumed her duties at the clerk of court's office.

Mrs. Harold Hart and daughter of Swan's Island are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joyce.

Mrs. Lella F. Benner and Miss Lenore Benner were weekend guests of Miss Nellie Hiehorn in Stockton Springs.

Miss Dorothy Breen was home from Gorham, Maine, where she spent Thanksgiving. Miss Breen is out for the basketball team, with every prospect that she will shine at Gorham as she did on Rockland High.

Frank F. Trafton and family have returned from Calais where they spent National Turkey Day.

Frank Childs, clerk at Carr's Market is confined to his home by illness.

George Adams has returned to Bowdoin after spending Thanksgiving at home.

Mrs. A. J. Huston has returned to Portland, after having been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brown Thanksgiving week. Several little informal supper parties were given in Mrs. Huston's honor during her stay here, Thursday, by Mrs. Elonia Tuttle, Friday, by Mrs. A. J. Bird and Saturday Mrs. Leola Rose.

Dr. Mary Reuter returned Saturday from Boston and Providence where she spent Thanksgiving with Dr. Ralph Sweet and family. Dr. Reuter has reopened her office for general practice of osteopathy, after a year's rest from practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wham of Nobleboro were in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. Addie Anderson of Boston are guests of their mother, Mrs. J. R. Smith, Park street.

Charles W. Gale of Fryeburg is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Merrill Kallouch, Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Sweet and Miss Hawkes of Portland spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. May, High street.

Mrs. Frank Keizer is in Sarasota, Fla., for the winter.

Earl Perry was home from Burdett's Business College, Boston, for the holiday recess.

Governor Cobb has returned from his Western trip in the course of which he visited his brother, C. W. S. Cobb in St. Louis.

Edward Kennison of Portland visited his former Rockland home last week.

A meeting of the board of managers of the Home for Aged Women will be held Thursday afternoon at 2.30 at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Rhodes, Talbot avenue.

Mrs. Raymond L. Anderson is improving after a week of very severe illness from tonsillitis and complications. She is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sidney Brown, Talbot avenue.

Miss Esther Stevenson has returned to her teaching in Westbrook after a pleasant holiday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Stevenson.

Members of the "Old Fashioned Garden" committee enjoyed a picnic lunch at the church vestry on Monday. They are working morning, afternoon and evening this week at the church in order to give the public something to talk about on Wednesday next.

Mrs. Joan Newbert is employed as clerk at the Knox Book Store.

There will be a benefit supper and dance at Owl's Head town hall, Dec. 9.

Dr. E. W. Peaslee read an excellent paper on "Teeth" at the Forty Club dinner yesterday. The scallops for the appetizing meal were provided by R. W. Hanscom of the J. A. Young Co. L. W. Fickett of the Maine Music Co. provided several selections on the new Orthophonic Victrola which were roundly applauded. Mr. Fickett was prevailed upon to give a tabloid explanation of the new machine. Plans were completed for the first beauty match of 1925-26 which will come off Friday night at the Star alleys. L. B. Cook heads a Directors' team and Herman Rosenbloom a Club team. Proprietor Joseph Dondis of Strand Theatre put a pleasant end to a very satisfactory hour by inviting the entire club to his guests any night during the run of "Drusilla with a Million" which concludes tomorrow night.

On a December day, we hope you'll stray To our Garden of Flowers blooming wild.

It will take you once more to the dear days of yore There will be sunflowers, tall, hollyhocks, violets, perfume the air.

And a spot that you loved as a child. Blue bachelor buttons, shy morning glories and marigolds everywhere.

It is an Old Fashioned Garden, just an Old Fashioned Garden.

But it will carry you back To that dear little shack, In the land of Long Ago.

You'll see an old fashioned missus, serving tea and candy kisses. In that Old Fashioned Garden, so don't forget to go To the Universalist Church Fair on December Second.

B. & P. W. NOTES

The regular monthly business meeting of the club will be held Wednesday evening at 7.30, when it is expected all members to be present, as important business is to be presented.

Hostesses for the auction party next Friday evening are to be Miss Carrie Fields, Mrs. Margaret Perry and Mrs. Beth Otis.

Next Thursday evening is to be a charter night with the Augusta club when the impressive service will be observed, supplemented by a banquet. An invitation has been extended the president and three other members of the Rockland club to be present, which will no doubt be accepted if possible.

Miss Payson, the club president is in correspondence, through the Maine Publicity Bureau, with Mrs. Fred S. Marsh, who at some future date may give a talk before the club, her subject, "Maine Development."

A MEMORIAL WINDOW

Visitors to St. Peter's Episcopal church are attracted by the handsome new memorial window made for Miss Louise Geddes Fiske in memory of her mother, the late Ellen Geddes Fiske, who for many years was one of the most devoted workers for that church. As Miss Fiske is not able to come here at present there will be a simple dedicatory service at Easter time, in April.

The window was made by the George W. Spence Co. of Boston and is of the 13th century. It is made entirely of the very finest quality of imported English antique glass, painted in enamels and burned. The subject of the design is very simple, a mother and child, in lovely shades of blues and golds and deep reds. The surrounding window is in soft tans and yellows.
