THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION FOR THE COUNTY OF HANCOCK.

for the purpose of nominating candidates for two senators, sheriff, register of probate, one county commissioner, county attorney and county treasurer.

- List of delegates from various towns including Amherst, Aurora, Bluehill, Brookline, Bucksport, Castine, Cranberry Isles, Deer Isle, Eastbrook, Eden, Ellsworth, Franklin, Goussoboro, Hancock, Isle au Haut, Lamaine, Mariaville, Mount Desert.

The county committee will be in session at Hancock hall on Thursday, June 2, at 9 o'clock a. m.

A Republican State Convention WILL BE HELD IN City Hall, Bangor.

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor to be supported at the September election, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

STATE ELECTION, SEPT. 12, 1904. STATE TICKET. For Representative to Congress, (Third District) EDWIN C. BURLEIGH.

twelve Dr. A. C. Hagerthy and Arno W. King for the republican nomination for representative to the legislature, and which ended last Saturday night with Dr. Hagerthy the victor.

Dr. Hagerthy has been a life-long republican, but until two years ago had not taken a conspicuous part in politics.

He applied to that campaign the executive ability which he possesses in such large measure, infused unbounded enthusiasm into the campaign, and utterly routed the democrats, carrying every ward in the city, and making a clean sweep from the top to the bottom of the ticket.

With this prestige Mayor Hagerthy entered the field for the nomination for representative, and has won. The contest was a friendly one throughout, and the result leaves no ill-feeling.

The President is busy receiving the calls of politicians and arranging the details of the coming campaign. It is admitted on all sides that in selecting Mr. Cortelyou for chairman of the National republican committee he has dexterously solved a perplexing problem.

And now the postoffice inspectors themselves are to be inspected, and their methods brought to the light of publicity. The President has designated Assistant Attorney-General Robb to do this delicate job.

Penobscot republicans have elected F. H. Cushman and W. H. Clement delegates to the State convention at Bangor.

FROM BAR HARBOR.

BAR HARBOR, May 24 (special)—The preparations for the concert of the Bar Harbor choral society, which will be given at the Casino Wednesday evening, are about completed.

The solo parts in Brock's "Fair Ellen" will be sung by Miss Monaghan and Mr. Bowdoin, and each will be heard in a solo group.

From the best orchestral talent in Maine has been secured a fine concert orchestra as follows: First violins, Francis J. Welch, Portland; H. C. Sawyer, Bangor; second violin, J. Dexter, Bar Harbor; Vaughn Hamilton, Bangor; viola, Robert Drummond, Bangor; cello, Roland J. Sawyer, Bangor; bass, E. A. Haley, Bangor; clarinet, L. E. M. Cooney, Bangor; Benjamin France, Bar Harbor; bassoon, K. A. Ringwall, Bangor; horns, H. F. Sawyer, Bangor; C. E. Marcy, Bar Harbor; trumpets, S. A. Frost and Herbert Jewett, Bar Harbor; trombone, Lee Sanford, Bar Harbor.

Among those at the recent republican caucus was Sumner P. Mills, of Stonington, who is a candidate for the senatorial nomination from the western part of the county to succeed Hon. Albert R. Buck.

Two baseball games were played at Athletic park Saturday afternoon. The Bar Harbor grammar school boys defeated the Ellsworth grammar school nine in an exciting contest, by a score of 8 to 7.

Friday afternoon the business men's nine will play against the professional men's team at Athletic park. The proceeds of the game will be for the benefit of the new athletic field.

It was recently announced that Capt. Bryant would retire from the command of the steamer Frank Jones, to be succeeded by Capt. E. P. Dickson.

Dr. D. Wellington Bunker has purchased of Dr. Morris Longstreth, of Philadelphia, the house on Cottage street which the latter has occupied for many summers.

It is understood that Dr. and Mrs. Longstreth will not come to Bar Harbor as usual this season, but will spend the summer abroad.

The San Blas Indians. ON BOARD U. S. S. "PRAIRIE," GUANTANAMO BAY, CUBA, May 5, 1904.

While in Colon some three months ago I gathered a few facts about the new republic and its people which may be of interest to my friends and the readers of THE AMERICAN.

The San Blas Indians are perhaps the most interesting race on the Isthmus. They live a short distance east of Porto Bello, their customs are ancient, and toward strangers they are haughty and very dignified.

From the time of their marriage until the first child is born they are under the parents' rule, but afterwards they are free to go and do as they please. They are allowed to build their bamboo huts anywhere in the San Blas country.

and nearer until at one spot his men could hear the Federals talking to each other in their tents as they woke from sleep. A few bluecoats were stirring about and rebuilding the campfires when there was a sudden crash of musketry all along the front, and next moment the Confederate lines were sweeping through the camps.

HISTORIC ARLINGTON.

Largest of the National Cemeteries Maintained by the Government.

Arlington is the foremost among the national cemeteries of the country. On the 1st of July, 1902, there were buried there the bodies of 18,962 soldiers of the civil war. Of these graves 14,351 were marked with the names of their occupants, while 4,611 were unknown.

It is toward the gates of beautiful Arlington, then, that the old boys in blue bend their steps to assist once again in the deeply touching ceremony of strewing with flowers the graves of those who fell on the battlefields of Virginia, some of which are almost within view of this lovely spot.

Two hundred of the 1,200 acres have been set aside as a national cemetery, the grounds being surrounded by a low wall with entrances through four gates, the McClellan, the Fort Myer, the Ord and Wetzel, and the main (Sheridan) gates.

Heroes at Arlington.

Bring them home, the nation's dead; Bring them home to Arlington! Softly through the green aisles tread, There mute sorrow's tribute shed, There let low voiced prayers be said, There in sunny Arlington!

Lavish there a nation's pride, Still and sacred Arlington! There, enshrouded side by side, Fateless forms forever abide, Brave men who for country died, Neath the sod of Arlington!

PAINTED UNDER FIRE.

"When we reached the foot of Look-out mountain the Confederates bombarded the train from their batteries situated on the summit of that mountain, and for a time shells whistled through the air thick and fast, dropping, exploding and tearing up the ground on every side, although, fortunately, none of them struck the train, the marksmanship of the gunners being faulty."

Andersonville Prison Today. The old prison guard forts are in a fine state of preservation and are overgrown by a sturdy growth of young forest trees. Above the entrance to the park an iron arch has been erected, dedicated to the unknown dead of Andersonville by W. R. C. corps No. 9 of Kansas and Corps No. 172 of Massachusetts. A handsome marble pavilion, which the W. R. C. had erected over Providence Spring, was dedicated with suitable ceremonies in 1901.

Fred R. Pennell, Pianist, Grand Opera House, Hot Springs, Ark., writes: "Two years ago I came to Hot Springs to take the baths and be treated for bladder and kidney trouble. After spending two months here under the care of one of the most prominent physicians and receiving little or no benefit, I was persuaded to try Peruna. I had little faith in it, but after using one bottle I noticed a marked improvement. Three bottles entirely cured me. I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to any one afflicted as I was."

inflamed with poison, my stomach became entirely demoralized, a bad odor emanated from my urine, and I realized I was a sick man. The doctors dosed me to their heart's content, but I kept growing worse. Then fortune brought Peruna to my notice and I at once began to mend. I kept taking it for five months before I was completely cured. I feel now that I owe my life to Peruna and will never cease to be grateful."

DOLLY.

Dr. Johnson's Wedding. Dr. Samuel Johnson married a Mrs. Porter of Birmingham. That lady's laughter thus described the doctor's wooing: "His appearance was very forbidding. He was then lean and lank, so that his immense structure of bones was hideously striking to the eye, and the scars of the scrofula were deeply visible. He also wore his hair, which was straight and stiff, and separated behind, and he often had, seemingly, convulsive starts and odd gesticulations, which tended to excite at once surprise and ridicule."
