The first street to receive crushed rock this spring is Bridge hill. Workmen began on it Monday morning. The road machine has been put into commission on the out-of-town roads. Considering the amount of snow that was on the ground, the roads are in exceptionally good condition.

A committee of three from the senior class of the high school met the school board Tuesday evening and asked that the graduates be allowed more than five tickets for the commencement exercises in the afternoon. The request was refused, but a graduate may have more than five tickets after the superintendent of schools, school board, mayor and aldermen, with their families and friends, and the taxpayers of Ellsworth are given seats.

Tuesday morning fire destroyed the buildings on the Surry road owned by the Robert Falls estate and occupied by James Dorgan. The fire caught in the stable, and owing to the intense heat, soon set the house on fire. The firemen responded to an alarm, but the buildings were out of the hydrant line. The high wind which was blowing at the time carried burning cinders for half a mile, and set fire to the grass, but fortunately no more buildings were damaged.

Back From the South.
Ex-Register of Probate Charles P. Dorr arrived in town last Sunday morning after an absence of four months, spent mostly in North Carolina. Mrs. Dorr and their daughter Bernice, who have been in Mansfield with Mrs. W. C. Lovell, returned yesterday, and the family have opened their house on Pine street.

Capt. Dorr spent some six weeks in Wilkes county, North Carolina, in the western part of the state, making his headquarters at Rodna. It is in this vicinity that quail-shooting is at its best, and the captain, who is an expert shot, in spite of the lack of a right arm which he lost in the Civil war, enjoyed it to the full.

The rest of the time in the South was spent on the coast in Hyde county, on Palmico sound, where Capt. Dorr has a cottage at Ocracoke. Here fishing was the chief sport.

Capt. Dorr speaks in the highest terms of the geniality and hospitality of the people in the Tarheel state. He thoroughly enjoyed the outing, and returns in the best of health and spirits.

He—The DeStuffles evidently married for love. She—Why do you think so? He—Because the wedding was a simple home affair, instead of a grand spectacular church performance.

Patient—Look here, doctor you said if I took a bottle of your tonic I would have a remarkable appetite. Why, I eat only one soda cracker each week. Doctor—Well, don't you call that a remarkable appetite?

CITY MEETING.

REGULAR MEETING HELD MONDAY EVENING.

LITTLE BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS—ALDERMEN PRESENT—ROLLS OF ACCOUNTS.

The regular monthly meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen was held Monday evening. Mayor Hagerthy called the meeting to order at 8:05 with Ald. Tripp, Moore, McCarthy and Patten present. After reading the minutes of the last regular and all subsequent meetings the rolls of accounts were read and approved.

Bond of D. L. Fields as constable at large was presented and accepted.

The city clerk read a communication from George B. Stuart, attorney, asking for $2,000 for Miss Minnie Laffin, $1,000 for Mrs. John C. Higgins, and $200 for John C. Higgins, as damages received by a carriage overturning and injuring its occupants.

A letter was also read from Mr. West, manager of the Bar Harbor & Union River Power Co., giving figures on the proposed change in the lighting contract.

ELLSWORTH FALLS.

H. A. Ash is in Portland this week.

Arden Cook is home from Massachusetts, where he has been for several weeks.

J. O. Whitney, who has been in New York for ten days on business, is expected home to-day.

Mrs. Florence Russell, of Newburyport, Mass., is visiting her parents here, John Cook and wife.

S. S. Jordan and family, who have been at Branch pond mills through the winter, moved home last week.

R. F. Bemick and wife, who have been in Massachusetts through the winter, are visiting here with Mrs. Bemick's parents, Moses Cottle and wife.

The embroidery club to the number of fifteen met with Mrs. A. E. Foster at Camp Ellis last Saturday. The day was an ideal one, and a pleasant time was reported.

Rev. C. D. Crane, field worker for Maine society of Christian Endeavor, is holding meetings each evening this week at the church. Mr. Crane is an interesting speaker, and the meetings should be well attended.

The many friends here of J. A. Scheuerle are sorry to learn of his sister's sudden death at her home at Ritzville, Wash., on April 14. It is feared that Miss Scheuerle's death may prevent Mr. Scheuerle's coming to Ellsworth Falls this summer, although it is hoped that it will not. He has a host of friends here who deeply sympathize with him and his family.

LAKEWOOD.

James S. Garland and wife visited relatives at Orono a few days last week.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Outrage at Alamoosook.

BUCKSPORT, May 2 (special)—Some time during the day Sunday, April 30, some one at present unknown, exploded a dynamite cartridge under the dam at the outlet of Lake Alamoosook in Orland, tearing up a section sixteen feet long and several feet deep, lowering the pitch of water in the pond from two to three feet.

It is said that the act was the outcome of the long-existing trouble about the allowances which go up the stream to spawn, but have been prevented by the failure of the owners of the dam to provide a fishway, or rather repair the present one, which is said to be ineffective.

The affair has created considerable excitement in the neighborhood. The dam is the property of the Lock & Stacey Co., of which A. C. Swazey, of Bucksport, is the principal stockholder.

Softleigh—We—aw—have a lawge apyari at ouah summah place, donchernoow. Miss Cutting—Indeed? And are the other apes in it anything like you?

Tomkins—So, all your children are married and settled, are they? Simkins—Well, they are all married, but I'm not so sure about their being settled. None of them is divorced.

Pension Agent—So you want a pension, eh? On what grounds do you think you are entitled to one? Applicant—Why, sir, when the first shot was fired at San Juan hill I lost my head.

COMING EVENTS.

Friday, May 12, Hancock hall—Minstrel show by members of St. Joseph's Catholic society. Particulars later.

Wednesday, May 17, at Odd Fellows hall Dance by junior order of American Mechanics.

Several safety switches have lately been devised. One tested by the "Big Four" railroad has a double switchbar, united in the middle of the track, and this can be worked by a trip on an engine pilot, operated by the engineer if he sees the switch is left open. Another switch, invented by a young New York insurance clerk, Roy V. Collins, is especially for electric roads, and is worked by the motorman of a car from the platform, simply by shutting off the power. This is being tested by several electric roads, including the Metropolitan, of New York.

How New Dairy Law Works.

The commissioner of agriculture at Augusta wishes to call the attention of producers, manufacturers and dealers in dairy products and their imitations to the laws passed by the last legislature, in which he or his agents are charged with the enforcement of the laws relating to the production, manufacture and sale of dairy products and their imitations.

He wishes to announce that S. C. Thompson has been appointed agent to make a rigid enforcement which will begin at once. Special attention is called to the act which provides that no person shall furnish oleomargarine in any hotel, restaurant, boarding-house or lunch counter, without notifying their patrons, also to the act which provides that all packages of renovated butter shall be plainly marked on the top and sides of every package and that the wrapper shall be so marked when it is sold at retail.

Chapter 39 provides that he or his agents shall have access to all places of business, buildings, carriages, cars, cans, and vessels used in the production, manufacture and sale of dairy products and their imitations. A penalty of $100 is imposed on any person who hinders, interferes or obstructs him or his agent in the performance of his duty.

The full text of the dairy laws may be had on application to the department of agriculture, Augusta.

HANCOCK S. J. COURT.

APRIL TERM CLOSED LAST FRIDAY EVENING.

A LONG AND BUSY TERM—TWENTY-NINE JUDGMENTS RENDERED—DIVORCES DECREED.

THE COURT. Presiding Justice—HENRY C. PEABODY, Portland. Clerks—JOHN F. KNOWLTON, Ellsworth. County Attorney—CHARLES H. WOOD, Bar Harbor.

The April term of the supreme judicial court for Hancock county finally adjourned at 9:30 Friday evening after one of the longest and busiest sessions for years.

It was expected that an indictment would be found in the Deer Isle murder case, and interest ran high. When the grand jury failed in this matter the interest was transferred to the Herlihy liquor case and the Williams assault case.

The Williams assault case came from the Western Hancock municipal court with an army of witnesses for both State and respondent.

This was a case of assault and battery in which Arthur Williams was the respondent, and Miss Josie M. Snow was the complainant, both of Millvale, in the town of Bucksport.

The respondent asked for a drawn jury, and the following panel was obtained: Henry L. Moor (foreman), O. W. Tripp, E. E. Doyle, Charles A. Joy, Ellsworth; R. L. Allen, Brooklin; T. S. Liscomb, Frank Collins, Eden; H. A. Butler, Hancock; A. J. Gerrish, Winter Harbor; H. R. Eldridge, Bucksport; William F. Deslaines, Lamaine; E. A. Byard, Sedgwick.

In the opening of the case Mr. Wood explained the case and told what he expected to show. He said that the complainant left her home after the work was done at noon, made one or two calls and went to a Mrs. Tewksbury's, who lives a mile or more from her home; that she left this house at 3 o'clock and went to a store where she made some purchases, and then started across the field for a short cut for home; that when she arrived at a certain place in the road the respondent appeared and forced her through a pair of bars and about 100 feet from the main road, where he committed the alleged assault.

The first witness for the State was Charles J. Joslyn, a surveyor, of Bucksport, who had made the plan which was in the case. He testified that the assault was committed about three-eighths of a mile from the claimant's house and about 100 feet from the main thoroughfare. The alleged assault was committed in the woods and that the growth was so thick a man could not be seen two rods away.

JOSEF MAY SNOW the claimant, took the stand. She testified as follows: Nineteen years old in July. Was living at home Monday, Dec. 5, the day the assault is alleged to have taken place; was home all forenoon and had dinner at noon. After dinner did her chores and got through at 1 o'clock. About 2 started out for her uncle Hiram Harriman's; went alone and went directly to his home; left there at 3:05 o'clock, left for Mr. Tewksbury's, stayed there awhile, and then went to the store with Grace Bridges; made some purchases, and left the store alone at 4:15 and started for home; went down across the field to the main road; was just dusk; saw respondent just south of the culvert for the first time. Did not speak to him, but kept right on going towards home. Respondent made several remarks and turned to walk home with the claimant.

When she got to the bars in question respondent pushed her through and forced her into the woods for a distance of 100 feet, more or less, where he took bundles away from her, and committed the alleged assault.

Cross-examination: Claimant has always lived in this vicinity and attended school about a mile from home; testified in same manner as she did in the direct examination; has known respondent ever since she was eight years old; but had never had any conversation with him at any time.

HESTER A. SNOW, mother of the claimant, testified Miss Josie was always in poor health; respondent had not been to the Snow house for years. Girl returned home about 5 o'clock; came home crying; condition bad, and girl told her what had happened; went with the team to get her husband, and both returned home; asked the girl some questions and then father left for Bucksport and made a complaint against the respondent. Next day examined girl's clothing and found blood-stains and dirt; clothing was torn; clothing exhibited in court and witness swore it was the same claimant wore on the day of the alleged assault except it had been washed.

Continuing witness said her daughter had been in a worse condition since the alleged assault and was in an extremely nervous condition now.

Cross-examination: Attorney for the respondent tried to make witness say she testified to there being no blood-stains on the garments when she was in the lower court. She had never had a physician on account of the alleged assault; never had examined the girl.

FORREST E. SNOW, farmer and day laborer, and father of the claimant; came home about 5:40 o'clock, met his wife coming for him with the news of the alleged assault; then went home and asked his daughter some questions, and then went to Bucksport and made the complaint. Witness also testified as to his daughter's health as did his wife.

Mrs. Alfred Smith testified that respondent was living with her on Dec. 5. Cross-examination: Has known Williams ever since he was a little boy, didn't know anything against his character; was a good man to work; was home when respondent came home, and he appeared as usual.

Mrs. Mattie Tewksbury testified as did Miss Snow in regard to Miss Snow coming to her house and leaving it.

Ernest B. Simpson saw respondent about 4:30 at his home, left there at 4:35 and went towards his home, was the last seen of him.

Cross-examination: Have known respondent for eighteen years and his reputation has always been good.

THE DEFENSE was a general denial. Counsel for the respondent claimed that he would show that no force or violence was used in getting the claimant into the woods, but rather that the girl was rather glad to go. The respondent was put on the stand and testified on practically these lines: That there was no act of violence from the time he met the girl until he left her in the woods, and that, contrary to her testimony, they had more or less conversation.

Known respondent for number of years, reputation good, went out with respondent that evening, did not notice anything unusual in his behavior; is acquainted with the locality; was present when Williams was arrested; visited place where alleged assault was committed; ground was covered with snow at place in question; was a path leading from road to place of alleged assault; no marks showing a struggle; snow went beyond fence about ten or twelve feet; did not examine ground till four days afterwards.

ent made several remarks and turned to walk home with the claimant. When she got to the bars in question respondent pushed her through and forced her into the woods for a distance of 100 feet, more or less, where he took bundles away from her, and committed the alleged assault.

Cross-examination: Claimant has always lived in this vicinity and attended school about a mile from home; testified in same manner as she did in the direct examination; has known respondent ever since she was eight years old; but had never had any conversation with him at any time.

Cross-examination: Witness was a friend of respondent; snow fell after alleged assault was committed.

LYNAM C. CLAY, Known Williams from a small boy, has lived with witness for last twelve years; his reputation was good, never knew anything against him; visited place in question, and saw path through snow about a foot wide; no signs of a struggle.

HARVEY SIMPSON, Known respondent ever since he was born; reputation good.

WALTER SNOWMAN, ex-deputy sheriff; complaint delivered to him for arrest of Williams; respondent arrested according to warrant, next day after alleged assault was committed. Was present at hearing and heard testimony in the lower court about blood stains on the clothing and that Miss Snow's mother said there were no stains on the clothing.

REBUTTAL. In the rebuttal the State denied all points raised by the respondent, both in the matter of consent and in regard to the testimony in the lower court about blood stains on the clothing.

W. A. REMICK, recorder of Western Hancock municipal court, question was not asked about blood stains on clothing, would take oath to the same.

County-Attorney Wood and Mr. Hutchins each took about forty minutes in arguing the case, which, after the judge's charge, was given to the jury. A verdict of guilty was returned. The respondent was immediately arraigned and sentenced to two years' hard labor in State prison. Exceptions have been filed, and the case will go to the law court.

Friday afternoon Daniel H. Herlihy was arraigned and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs and sixty days in jail for liquor-selling. The case will be taken to the law court on exceptions.

HEARING HELD. A hearing was held before Justice Peabody Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stover petitioned to have the court reconsider its ruling in the case, a case in which Newell A. Stover was the plaintiff and Mrs. Elizabeth Stover was the defendant. The ruling was that the defendant be defaulted for her non-appearance when the court was called.

The petitioner claimed that at her husband's death she was appointed administratrix of his estate, and that her son, Newell A. Stover, presented a bill for compensation on account of services rendered his father's estate.

The plaintiff finally came to his mother and said that he did not want the matter taken into court and that he would let it drop, as the petitioner states it. Mrs. Stover says that she believed the matter to be settled and therefore secured no attorney to appear for her when the docket was read at the opening of this term of court, and so when the case was called it was defaulted.

She now claims that she did not know that her son was to press this case and asks that judgment entered against her be reconsidered and that she be allowed to prove to the court that Newell A. Stover is not entitled to $1,247.27 as a compensation for services performed by him on the estate of his father.

The hearing was continued to Friday evening. Justice Peabody reserved his decision.

Following this case came a contested divorce case in which Ada A. Stafford was libellant and Andrew L. Stafford was libellee, after which court finally adjourned.

THE FOLLOWING DIVORCES WERE DECREED AT THE APRIL TERM OF COURT. William H. Alley, libellant, vs. Elmira L. Alley, for adultery. C. H. Wood for libellant.

Lydia P. Bowden, libellant, vs. Horatio Bowden, for utter desertion. Littlefield for libellant.

Mary E. Gray, libellant, vs. David W. Gray, for cruel and abusive treatment. George M. Warren for libellant.

Ada A. Stafford, libellant, vs. Andrew L. Stafford, for cruel and abusive treatment. E. N. Benson for libellant, E. S. Clark, H. L. Graham for libellee.

Harry M. Higgins, libellant, vs. Ida B. Higgins, for utter desertion. A. W. King for libellant, O. F. Fellows for libellee.

Alice B. Moore, libellant, vs. Samuel V. Moore, for utter desertion. L. F. Giles for libellant.

William H. Rankin, libellant, vs. Angie G. Rankin, for adultery. L. F. Giles for libellant.

George W. Gould, libellant, vs. Lucy E. Gould, for cruel and abusive treatment. A. W. Weatherbee for libellant.

At this term of court just closed twenty-nine judgments were rendered; twenty-eight cases entered neither party; eight divorces decreed and forty-eight new entries made, the smallest number of new entries for years.
