THE LEACH FAMILY

It was a very pleasant occasion when several of the descendants of the family of Leach met recently at the home of Mrs. Sarah Russell in Warren. A picnic lunch was served. The Pilgrim Leaches are direct descendants of Capt. Miles Standish. Penelope Standish, the great-great-granddaughter of Captain Miles, was great-great-grandmother to Mrs. Sarah Russell of Warren, who is now 82 years of age, and in good health, very active and of keen mind. Recently she got a dinner for eight people. She is the proud possessor of a table, which was the property of Penelope Standish. These persons helped to make the occasion a happy event: Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Leach of Tenants Harbor; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leach and daughters Pearl and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. George St. Clair; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stoddard, son Richard and daughter Arvilla, Rockland; Laura Starrett and daughter Helen, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moody and son Norman, Augusta; and Mr. and Mrs. John Starrett of Somerville, Mass. Later in the day the company visited the farm on the shore of Crawford Lake, formerly owned by Jeremiah Leach, who was the son of Penelope Standish and Ichabod Leach, and a great-grandfather to Dr. C. H. Leach, Fred Leach and John Starrett, and a great-great-grandfather to George St. Clair, Mrs. Eugene Stoddard and Miss Helen Starrett. The farm is now owned by William Sanson of Rockland.

RESCUED THE SHEEP

Marshall's Island, Owned by Rockport Man, Had a Big Fire.

Hundreds of sheep and some cattle were taken off Marshall's Island, 10 miles from Sedgewick, where a great fire raged in old growth timber for several days.

The island, on which there are a few fishermen's huts, has been used as a pasturing ground for about 2000 sheep, and it is reported that most of these animals had been rescued, as they were in great danger of being burned to death.

At night the flames which were sweeping through the valuable forest lighted up the sky for miles around, and the clouds of dense smoke rolled over Frenchman's Bay.

The fire, origin of which is unknown, was discovered by residents of the town of Brooklin, and as it had gained such headway that it would have been impossible to check it, steps were at once taken to rescue the live stock.

At one time several families lived on Marshall's Island and conducted farms there, but they have either died or moved away. The island is owned by George Long of Rockport.

THE SHIBLES FAMILY MEET

Aug. 18 was a perfect day for the Shibles family reunion, which had gathered for 39 consecutive years, to renew old acquaintance and welcome new ones and to climb the family tree whose history dates back to 1728 and whose first settlers in Maine owned the tract of land where Portland now stands and whose descendants are now stretched from coast to coast in all walks of life—and it is with no little pride that the absent ones are mentioned. The grounds of Edgar S. Bohndell's residence on Camden Road, Rockport, made an ideal place to spread the tables beneath the trees and the garage decorated with pines and evergreen provided a fine stage for the program and business meeting, which opened with prayer and singing.

The following officers were elected: President, Edgar Shibles, Rockport; secretary and treasurer, Miss Mary Carter, Thomaston; committee of arrangements, Edgar Bohndell, Rockport, Mrs. Ada Clough, Mrs. Jessie Shibles, Harry Shibles, Needham, Mass., Miss Marietta Shibles, Rockport; entertainment, Mrs. A. Belle Skinner, New Rochelle, N. Y., Mrs. Gertrude Hahn, Thomaston, Mrs. Ellen Shibles, Rockport, Mrs. Edith Overlock, Rockport, Mrs. Abbie Sylvester, Quincy, Mass. The following program caused much merriment: A sketch, "The Crystal Gazer," by Mrs. Skinner and "The Dark Town Minstrels" by the musical talent of the family—but being a modest people we will refrain from having their praise broadcasted. The next reunion will be held the second or third Wednesday of August, the exact date and place to be left to the committee of arrangements. Late in the afternoon with many a hearty handclasp the family and their guests parted, saying that each reunion is a little better than the last.

A great movie star, Jack C'Brien, of "The Iron Horse" fame, will appear in person at Strand Theatre Monday and Tuesday and tell intimate stories of moviedom.—adv.

THE UNIVERSALIST STATE CONVENTION

of which William D. Talbot is vice president, will be held in Pittsfield Sept. 29-31. One of the principal items of business will be the consideration of an amendment to the constitution, making the heads of the auxiliary organizations of the convention members of its executive committee. These are the State Sunday School Association, of which Rev. W. H. Gould of Turner is president; the Women's Missionary Society, headed by Miss Helen L. Varnney of Brunswick; and the Young People's Christian Union, whose president is George U. Scudder of Bath.

Emerson Ziebler of Portland is at the Thorndike.

A FINE YACHT

Rockland Harbor Had a Visit From the Palatial "Miramachi".

Many eyes looked enviously out upon the waters of Rockland harbor Wednesday when the big yacht Miramachi lay at anchor there. This palatial craft, now under charter by Walter E. Reid of Portland, has been cruising along the coast for some days.

The Miramachi was built at Newport News nine years ago from designs of Cox & Stevens for Edward W. Scripps, the well known newspaper publisher of Cincinnati, with newspapers in many of the large western cities, including Detroit and Cleveland. Mr. Scripps also controlled the United Press and his family had large interests in the Scripps, McRae & Howard newspaper properties. He died suddenly last March at Mourouvia bay while cruising in African waters in the yacht and in April it came to New York. Lord Beaverbrook, the great English publisher and successor in many ways to the late Northcliffe, chartered the yacht for a trip to Newfoundland and the St. Lawrence this summer and left it in Portland a few days ago. The yacht when launched was named Ohio and had that name until Lord Beaverbrook renamed it for Miramachi.

The Miramachi has Diesel-type engines and fuel tanks, which permit a 9000 mile cruise without sighting land. It is fitted with every convenience, with a dozen or more luxurious staterooms, many of them with private bath in addition to the owner's quarters. Furnished in handsome carved teak and oak it resembles a foreign castle, and its library was large enough for a small city. The larger quarters are heated with hot water, while the staterooms and bathroom are heated by electricity.

If the weather is too warm a special ventilating system connected with the huge Frigidaire outfit keeps the temperature comfortable.

The Miramachi has a big wireless outfit and on land and sea Mr. Reid keeps in close touch with Wall Street where he is one of the biggest operators in several well known stocks. In fact it is said his profits in the last few years during the sensational bull market can be counted by the millions.

Mr. Reid was one of the three bidders for the plant of the Bath Iron Works at the auction sale.

THE ROBBINS FAMILY

A pleasant gathering of the Robbins family was held Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryant in Union. Owing to the inclement weather there was not a large attendance as usual, but the meeting was a most enjoyable one. The excellent music furnished by Jeruel Hart and W. J. Bryant added much to the pleasure of the occasion. At the noon hour the tables were spread and all partook of a bountiful repast. After dinner a business meeting was called to order by the president James Dorman and all joined in singing "My State of Maine," after which these officers were elected: President, J. L. Dorman; vice president, H. L. Robbins; Clemmie Robbins and E. M. Stubbs; obituary, Mrs. Bertha Bryant; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mary Robbins; entertainment committee, W. J. Bryant, Clemmie Robbins and Mrs. Marcia Robbins; and committee on arrangements, Mrs. Ethel Dorman, Hampton Robbins and Jeruel Hart. The literary program included the following numbers: Music; reading, Mrs. Geneva Robbins; play, Jeruel Hart; reading, Gertrude Robbins; vocal solo, Mrs. Ethel Griffin; Mrs. Myrtle Judkins read an appropriate selection from Holman Day; music; humorous reading, Mrs. Ethel Dorman; piano duet, Eleanor and Billy Bailey; by request Rev. Mr. Ufford kindly sang "Throw Out the Life Line;" recitation, Eleanor Bailey. After remarks by the president and others a vote of thanks was given Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryant for their kind and generous hospitality. Closing song, "The Star Spangled Banner."

VIN TESTA

Funeral services for the late Vin Testa were held at St. Bernard's Church Tuesday morning. Rev. Father J. A. Flynn officiating. The burial was in Thomaston. Mr. Testa is survived by his wife, a sister, Frances Testa of Italy; and two brothers, Victoria Testa of Milford, Mass., and Robert Testa of East Boston. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful, testifying to the high regard in which the deceased was held.

Director Chapman conducted the final rehearsal of Wight Philharmonic Society Thursday night and had the satisfaction of seeing a large attendance, which included the chorus from Damariscotta and singers from Camden and Thomaston. "I can never recall doing so much work in a single night," remarked Mr. Chapman after the entire program had been rehearsed. He was especially delighted with the manner in which Mrs. Faith Berry is directing the Rockland Chorus and with Mrs. Albert Averill at the piano.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

WHEN YOU ARE OLD

When you are old and gray and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep;

How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true;
But one man loved the pilgrim soul in you,
And loved the sorrows of your changing face;

And bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur, a little sadly, how love fled
And paced upon the mountains overhead
And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.

—William Butler Yeats.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
 Rockland, Maine, Aug. 28, 1926.
 Personally appeared Frank S. Lydell, who on oath declares that he is publisher in the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of Aug. 28, 1926 there was printed a total of 6588 copies.
 Before me, FRANK B. MILLER,
 Notary Public.

O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.—Psalm 34:8.

Multipled difficulties with its typesetting machines is the explanation offered by The Courier-Gazette today for failure to get into type for this issue of the paper numerous communications from its regular news correspondents and others. The omission is greatly regretted and the indulgence of contributors is requested.

Word has been received from State Chairman Field by Mrs. Mary Perry Rich, Knox County Republican State Committee—woman that her request for Col. Theodore Roosevelt for chief speaker for Knox County's big rally is granted and that Col. Roosevelt, who is greatly in demand, is tentatively scheduled for Rockland Wednesday, Sept. 8. Every citizen will be interested in this news as this speaker is sure to draw an audience from remote corners of the county.

To locate the origin of the poor gas service was a problem which brought gray hairs to the heads of the Central Maine officials, but finally they found the trouble—a crystal formation in the main on Tillson avenue. The pipe there is laid at a depth of nine feet and the temperature was not sufficient to clear the obstruction. So the crew dug down to its bed, cut out three feet of the pipe's appendix, and filled the main with denatured alcohol. After allowing the liquid to remain 24 hours, which is the longest that denatured alcohol ever stayed on Tillson avenue, it was pumped out, and the main was flushed with water. The men worked night and day until the job was completed. The result was miraculous. Housewives can take a bath of biscuits the same day they start, and everybody else dependent upon the gas system is convinced that this is a happy, prosperous and Christian world.

Judge Frank B. Miller has returned from a vacation visit in Columbia Falls, where he was the guest of relatives of his late wife. There also he had the pleasure of meeting many who were his pupils when he taught in the Columbia Falls High School. He found the streets of the town practically deserted for the reason that the blueberry picking season is at its height, and the majority of the townspeople find employment at it. There are two factories in the town, and last Saturday one of them packed 8000 gallons of blueberries. The pickers receive a bushel for raking the berries, and Judge Miller was told of a man and his wife who picked, or rather raked, 18 bushels in one day, owing to the drought, which was much worse in Washington County than it was here, and the backward season, the berries are unusually small this summer.

A unique advertisement in this paper shows the genius of Edward O'R. Gonia, one of the Brock's successful merchants. The picture in the ad shows piled up in front of the Gonia store in the Bicknell part of an 8,000 roll shipment of wall paper. There are 5,016 rolls shown to be exact, probably the largest single shipment of wall paper ever to enter this city. The most interesting part of the story is that Mr. Gonia opened his wall paper department four years ago in a little 10x12 corner. Last season he disposed of well over 25,000 rolls and this year will exceed that quota by a considerable margin.

A real live movie star, Jack O'Brien, the famous "Dinny" of "The Iron Horse" will be in this city Monday and Tuesday and will speak from the Strand Theatre stage on both days at all performances. He will discuss the making of motion pictures and give intimate touches of the life of Hollywood. Mr. O'Brien is a Vermont boy and has been greatly impressed with the Maine scenery and believes the State will be a great center for making of motion pictures in the future.

From a Boston subscriber of this paper comes a touching plea for the paper's assistance in locating a lady's gold wrist watch lost at or in the vicinity of Oakland Park on the evening of Aug. 14. The watch was a Waltham 15 jewel is valued chiefly because of its association and because it contained the only existing picture of the loser's father, now deceased. A very liberal reward will be paid for its recovery. Address Miss Ella C. Allison, 114 State street, Boston.

A leaders' course is being conducted for all interested in Girl Scout work. Next week's meetings will be held Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ellingwood, 67 Talbot avenue, at 7:30 p. m. All interested in training for leaders are invited to be present.

The Board of Registration will be in session at City Hall Sept. 1 to 4 and 7 to 8 in public session for the purpose of revising and correcting the voting lists. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 3 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. on each of the six days specified.

Those who have been drawn for traverse jury service at the September term of Knox County Supreme Court are not to present themselves until Wednesday. The grand jurors will be present on the opening day, as usual.

Ex-Gov. Percival P. Baxter has announced his candidacy for U. S. Senator, and ex-Congressman Frank E. Guernsey is expected to follow suit. Patton J. Redman will be a Democratic candidate.

NORTH HAVEN

"Why Is There So Much Trouble?" will be the subject of Radio M. G. Perry's address at the North Haven Baptist Church on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. A special service will be held in the Baptist Church at the village at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at which time special musical features will be given by Vinalhaven people. An address will also be given by the pastor on "The Universality of Worship." The regular 8 o'clock service in the evening will be omitted. An important business meeting of the church will be held on Wednesday evening, Sept. 1, at 8 o'clock. The question of a parsonage at the village will be discussed, with other important matters to be considered.

"ON MY SET"

It is the consensus of opinion on the part of all radio fans with whom I have talked that Thursday night's reception was the best of the summer. The Royal Typewriter Hour and Fire-side Boys on WJZ have never held forth to a more appreciative audience. "Has Anybody Seen Keller?"—Harold L. Karl is confessedly a radio fan, as becomes any man in the business, but there is just one station to which he will listen for some time to come, and that is BABY. It's a daughter, and arrived Wednesday.

The severe electrical storm greatly handicapped last night's radio service, but I caught WGHP of Detroit putting across a test program in good style and also heard that familiar orchestra at WTAM.

The Elden Davis house at the Head of the Bay was burned Thursday morning. Mr. Davis came home from California several weeks ago to superintend the repairs on it and found undoubted evidence that somebody had been occupying it at intervals. The careless disposals of a cigarette under those circumstances may have accounted for the fire. The property was insured by the McDougall-Ladd Co.

Thursday, Sept. 9, is the tentative date of the Old Timers' baseball game at Vinalhaven. Those who played on the Rockland team last season, and helped entertain the Vinalhaven visitors will consider this a notification. The biennial invasion of the hospitable island town is awaited with most pleasurable anticipations.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Waller who have been visiting their cousin, Miss Annie Hahn and Mrs. Ed O'Neill, have returned to their home in Pittsfield.

STRAND THEATRE

Your last chance is today to see Fred Thompson and his wonderful horse Silver King in "The Tough Guy," and on the same bill, "The Great Jewel Robbery."

For Monday and Tuesday comes another of those Warner Bros. classics of the screen, one of the most brilliant casts of any recent screen production has been assembled for "The Glided Highway."

Dorothy Devore and John Harron head the list of players. Miss Devore plays the young daughter of middle-class parents, whose head is completely turned by an unexpected legacy, and Harron plays her brother who forgets his poor sweetheart when his uncle's death makes him wealthy.—adv.

Using our Topeco Paint Food on a sickly looking hydrangea brought out 23 good lace buds.—adv.

EMPIRE THEATRE

The feature picture for today is "The Pay Off," in conjunction with a chapter of "The Radio Detective." Thrills and action! Scenery and thrills! This is the exciting border of "Senior Daredevil," the "Innovation Western" which will be shown Monday-Tuesday.

With this picture the Western has come into its own and can now reel into the very "best circles" of screendom. With a star as handsome as—well, that's dangerous ground, but you can fill in with Colman, Gilbert or Barthelmess, according to your preference—and a very Centurion of horsemanship, with a wagon train movement through the mountains that seems to have been done regardless of anything but breath-taking effect; with fights and wild rides, and snow-capped peaks for "beauty relief"—the "Senior" has everything, and that goes for man and picture.—adv.

BELFAST CLIMBING

Maine Coast League, Close From the Start, Having a Dramatic Finish.

Next Week's Games

Monday—Belfast at Camden.

 Wednesday—Rockland at Camden.
 Thursday—Camden at Belfast.
 Friday—Camden at Rockland.
 Saturday—Rockland at Belfast.

The League Standing

With only eight more days to go Belfast has a lead of 1½ games in the Maine Coast League. This is a very slim margin, to be sure, but the Frenchies show no sign of cracking under the strain and with three good pitchers on their staff they appear to be sitting very pretty. This is how the percentages now figure:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Belfast	17	15	.531
Rockland	15	16	.484
Camden	15	16	.484

Belfast 4, Rockland 2

The Texan hit the old apple for 12 bases at Belfast Thursday, and the Frenchies made only four singles, but the Frenchies won because of Rockland's five large errors on the other side of the ledger. And in the minds of many spectators, not alone from Rockland, is lodged the firm belief that Masclardi's fly left field was fair, although Umpire Albert declared it a foul. This incident meant a difference of at least two runs, for the next ball that Captain Masclardi hit went into the hands of Palemont for a double play.

The break came in the eighth inning, when Rockland made three errors in a cluster, to the accompaniment of singles by Palemont and pinch hitter Campbell.

Masclardi's triple and Wotton's double enlivened the ninth, but Davenport held the other batters helpless.

There were several plays so good as to be almost startling and the heroes were Murphy, Palemont, Auble, Foley and Reed. The score:

ROGERS THE WINNER

Receives Silver Cup In the Country Club Golf Tournament

Inclement weather marked the beginning and close of the Country Club's annual golf tournament, which was a decided success, nevertheless. The winner of the silver cup was Arnold Rogers, whose name will also be inscribed on the Cole trophy.

He won the tournament by steady, consistent play.

Raymond C. Duff, winner of the beaten eight, received a leather cigarette case and Harry A. Buffum, winner of the second sixteen, was awarded a leather pocketbook.

This afternoon's handicap match is open to all members.

PARK THEATRE

"Somebody's Mother," featuring Mary Carr, and "The Pride of the Forces" will be the double feature program today.

Corinne Griffith bids for new honors in "Into Her Kingdom," which comes Monday and Tuesday, according to previews of her most recent effort. Generally regarded as the screen's reigning beauty and having been acclaimed a comedienne of no mean talent, the popular star has accepted her most dramatic role in transferring the Ruth Comfort Mitchell narrative to the screen, and in doing so, her critics aver, has reached emotional heights seldom attained on stage or silver sheet.—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Leroy D. Perry of the money order department is having his annual vacation from the Postoffice.

There's one crop of which the Maine coast will have no shortage this season, and that's fog.

There will be a special meeting of Winslow-Holbrook Auxiliary Monday evening, with initiation.

H. M. de Rochemont and family are spending the weekend with his parents in Portsmouth, N. H.

Rev. John Dunstan will hold services at Ingraham Hill Chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Lynn has returned from Chelsea, Mass., where she has been the guest of her brother, Joseph Lynn.

Carlyle U. Brown is acting as substitute clerk in the Postoffice for several weeks, while the other employees are having their vacations.

Rotary's Ladies' Night at the Country Club last evening was so huge a success that more definite allusion to it is reserved to another issue.

Great things are expected of the football team which will be produced this season by the Willow Street A-C. Samuel Smalley is manager and Herbert Staples is the boss of the eleven.

Mrs. Carolyn Sherer Swett finds herself in much the same position that Mark Twain did after his death had been erroneously reported. She is not dead, as she is quite ready to prove to anybody who desires to discuss a real estate deed.

Masonic hall has been renovated by John A. Karl & Co.'s brush artists. The lodge room and tile's room have been redecorated, the ceilings being done in sky blue, the walls in buff and the woodwork and moldings in pure white. Looks slick.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund G. Mills and Mrs. Lucy Bentley have returned to their home in Newton, Mass., after visiting with Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Bickford, Beech street. J. A. Sylvester of New York has joined his family at the Bickford home for the remainder of the season.

If the present arrangements materialize the annual ball game between the Rockland and Vinalhaven Old Timers will be played in Vinalhaven immediately after Labor Day—probably on Tuesday or Thursday of that week. Those who figured in last year's game at Community Park are asked to lay in their annual supply of liniment, crutches and alibis.

Topeco Plant Food will put pep into your plants.—adv. 77-11

Bicknell Block FIRESTONE TIRES Rockland

The Millinocket team of the Maine State League plays in Togus Sunday.

Tomorrow is the last Sunday of the Adventist camping meeting in Washington.

John McLaughlin of Stockton Springs was in the city yesterday and, discussed the Labor Day meet at Knox Trotting Park. "I'll have a horse here if I have to buy one, and it will be a winner," he said.

All baseball games in the Maine Coast League will hereafter commence at 4.30 p. m., except the Saturday afternoon games, and the postponed contests which are run as extras. This is very necessary on account of the decided shortening of the days.

George B. Wood of Rockland and J. H. Hobbs of Camden have been drawn for grand jury duty at the September term of U. S. district court, which convenes on the 21st. Carl Snow of South Thomaston and Joshua N. Southard of Rockland have been drawn as trial jurors.

Deputy Sheriff's Rokes and Orbeton Thursday detained a man named Helstrom, who was wanted in Bangor for the larceny of a hired automobile. The register showed that the taxi had traveled 1890 miles while Helstrom was at the wheel, which computed at the rate of 15 cents per mile made rather an expensive joy ride.

The sparring exhibition to be staged by the Elks Club at the Arcade next Tuesday night will not exactly be a three-ring circus, but there will be three feature bouts and Capt. Francis Saville, who will act as ringmaster, will scarcely need to snap the whip. "Bud" Bridges who appears in one of the bouts is a former Swan's Island boy.

Alan L. Bird has been appointed receiver of the Union Manufacturing Corporation by Associate Justice Norman L. Bassett. The action was taken upon petition of James Lund of Medford, Mass., owner of 92 shares who declares in the bill that the concern has unsalable stock on hand, that it has insufficient capital and credit and that there is a general depression in this line of business. He desires that the assets be conserved.

Wednesday may have dawned foggy, but the merry crowd of American Legion Auxiliary members either forgot the weather or there was no fog on Kilm Hill. Everyone voted a perfect day of food and sunshine. The occasion was a picnic at West Meadow. The picnic was a success. The kind you've heard your grandmothers tell about. Such a supper! The tables "fairly groaned" with their load of New England goodies. Presto, change! In a short time the picknickers were groaning under their heavy load, especially the two who ate two suppers. The chapel was a bower of flowers. It seemed that each dahlia and sweet pea fancier tried to rival the other in the beautiful specimens. Those who left early missed the last and very pleasing act entitled, "Waiting at the Church" and those who were not present certainly missed a wonderful outing.

In staging the sparring exhibition at the Arcade next Tuesday night the Elks Club feels that it is offering an exceptional card. The main bout will present Ted Cossett of Lewiston, who has held the lightweight championship of Canada, and Sam Lucel of Portland, who feels that he has a right to New England honors. Both are fast boys, and their records show that they have met and vanquished some of the best men in their class. The semi-final bout sounds like a corker. Bud Fisher of the State Highway crew, who has been having things pretty much his own way in the squared circle, will face another bud—Bud Bridges of Portland, who used to live down this way. If Bud Fisher gets away with this bout in one round he can qualify in the "white hope" class. "Sailor Bill" Curtin is scheduled to stage a comeback in the preliminaries when he meets young Wotton of South Thomaston. The latter is new to the ring, but is said to pack a big wallop. There will be the usual sideights for entertainment.

A great movie star, Jack O'Brien, of "The Iron Horse" fame, will appear in person at Strand Theatre Monday and Tuesday and tell intimate stories of moviedom.—adv.

THE REALM OF MUSIC

Gladys St. Clair Morgan

An item of interest to music teachers, both piano and voice, is the approaching visit of Mrs. Ella Ellis Perfield of New York City, a musician and pedagogical note. She will arrive in Rockland the morning of Aug. 31, to be the guest of Miss Mabel Lamb. In the afternoon of that day she will meet at Miss Lamb's home all music teachers of the city and vicinity who care to come, to whom she will explain her courses, her methods of teaching, etc., and enlist for lessons during her stay here any teachers who desire to enroll. In the evening at the Universalist Church vestry she will give a free musical Chautauk. Music teachers, mothers, school teachers and students are urged to come. Mrs. Perfield is a magnetic speaker. Her chalk talk is unique of its kind and will entertain everyone. Sept. 1 at 9 o'clock she will begin lessons in the Universalist vestry, and will remain for the three successive days for lessons to be given to classes. Anyone can, as I understand it, make private appointments by communicating with Miss Lamb, who is prepared to answer all sorts of questions concerning the visitor. Having been a student herself of Mrs. Perfield's methods, she is an enthusiastic disciple. Three other Rockland students have been Mrs. Perfield's pupils: Mrs. Sadie Leach and Miss Margaret Stahl. Mrs. I. E. Luce of Thomaston also studied this method, and her daughter, Miss Bertha Luce, studied for some time at the New York school, where she made wonderful strides in her music.

The courses in Rockland will be five in number:

Musicianship and Pedagogy.

How To Teach the Beginner To Play.

Mother's Creative Music Course (for the child under seven years of age).

Rhythmic, Melodic and Harmonic Ear Training for Students.

Public School Music.

The courses applying to young children naturally interest me most. The Mother's Creative Music Course is based on music of birds, animals and things. It is creative because it is self-expression. Reflective because the first appeal is made through the ear by means of music—that the child loves—which recalls and enlarges impressions made by association with pets, pictures, birds, stories, colors and flowers. In this course, through music, pictures and touch expression, the three educational senses (ear, eye and touch) are unfolded and applied to other branches of education. There are bird calls, bird stories, bird pictures, poetry, songs and dances, staff notation, tonal memory and tonal transposition, etc. I saw the bird pictures which accompany this course—they are really beautiful—the colors are natural and exquisite, the figures are life sized.

In the Creative Piano Playing Course for public schools and private studios, emphasis is laid on rote piano pieces, which include a large number of folk melodies for the beginning, standard pieces and original pieces by Mrs. Perfield herself. They are presented in a way that unfolds a musical stimulus, creates a physical freedom and a spontaneous response.

Miss Lamb tells me she is an extremely fascinating woman, brimming with magnetism and energy; keenly alert and very witty; very good looking, too, with light hair and fine hazel eyes. Undoubtedly there will be several Rockland teachers who will desire to enroll in Mrs. Perfield's classes. Testimony to her success appears in the teachers' I have mentioned who have studied her courses—we know them all to be among our best piano teachers, and I am sure each feels she owes a great part of this success to the instruction they have received from Mrs. Perfield. Miss Stahl is also prepared to supply information regarding these courses. Miss Caro Littlefield is studying one of these courses which she finds intensely interesting.

Appropos the foregoing, Mrs. Carrie Burpee Shaw, who is at her summer home at Cooper's Beach, writes to The Courier-Gazette:

"Having learned that Mrs. Perfield of New York City is to be in Rockland for the purpose of giving a demonstration of her system of music study, I desire to send to your columns an appreciation of her method of instruction.

In the first place, the Perfield system is remarkably interesting, and appeals to both young and old. Having taken two of the courses and having used them in my own teaching, I can recommend them not only as furnishing a systematic method for the use of the music teacher, but also as producing remarkable results for the pupil. Even children five years of age become enthusiastic over their music study when taught 'the Perfield way,' while teachers are unanimous in their praise of this method of instruction. It develops concentration and teaches the children to think more intelligently both their music lessons and their public school work.

As for Mrs. Perfield herself, she possesses not only a winning personality but also an unusual facility for presenting and explaining principles, and a well-earned reputation as a developer of music teachers as well as music students.

All those who are interested in music in any way, whether singers, players, teachers, or supervisors of music in the public schools, should attend Mrs. Perfield's 'Musical Chalk Talk' at the Universalist Church on the evening of Sept. 1. This lecture is free to the public and I feel assured that all who attend will find it interesting.

Carrie B. Shaw, Cooper's Beach, Aug. 26.

I have a program of a concert given in the Christ M. E. Church, Vineyard Haven, Mass., in which Harris Shaw was a participant, acting as organist and accompanist. Mr. Shaw's numbers were:

Prelude..... Pierre

Shepherd's Pipe..... Harris

Minuet..... Pansy

Tocata..... Robert

Andante..... Widor

The second group of three numbers sound especially interesting. Each year I have the wish that Mr. Shaw could be heard here in organ recital, but it seems to be one of those wishes that doesn't come true.
