Vote MONDAY NOVEMBER 1st

for Arthur R. Gould
of PRESQUE ISLE

Hon. Arthur R. Gould was asked to be a candidate for the office of United States Senator to succeed the late Bert M. Fernald.

It was in response to these urgings from all sections of the State that he consented to become a candidate.

He is a business man—an outstanding business man—whose counsel is sought daily in matters of business, for he has gained his knowledge by experience.

Five members of our Congressional delegation in Washington are lawyers.

Don't you think it would be wise for Maine to have a business man in Congress?

In all fairness, do you believe that Portland is entitled to two United States Senators?

It has been 15 years since the Eastern section of Maine has had a United States Senator.

Maine could take pride in having Arthur R. Gould for United States Senator—a man with a career typical of what it is possible to accomplish by hard work, ability and courage.

He is a firm believer in Maine as a State and in its industrial development; he is opposed to the United States entering the World Court; he is an advocate of a fine highway system for Maine; if elected declares that he will follow the traditional policy of the State of Maine in upholding National prohibition; he believes in the safe policy of preparedness against possible foes, and is an advocate of the economy policies of President Coolidge in the great effort to lessen the burdens of taxation.

GOULD BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB,
Frank P. Morison, Secretary.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all of the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster without the burn. You feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, croup, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frostbitten feet, colds
of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu."

THE SENATORSHIP CONTEST

Baxter, Buzzell, Jack and Gould, Named In Alphabetical Order Are Much In the Public Eye.

Bangor has formed a Gould club,
a man who thinks straight says what he thinks and holds the respect of his opponents as well as his supporters. He is loyal to his party and friends and his energy and square dealings have brought him
from a little farm in Monroe, Maine, where he was born June 17, 1878, to the Presidency of the Maine Senate.

Through all these years he has kept membership in Morning Light Grange. It was at grange meeting that he met the refined and delightful Nellie Ryder, who became Mrs. Buzzell on June 17, 1900. He has always known and given his support to the farmers who have time and again sent him to the Maine Legislature as their champion.

"Hod"—and this is another of his familiar names—is a family man. He has a devoted wife and four stalwart sons. Hillard, the eldest son, is studying law; Charles, the second son, is a student at Boston University; George and Bennie are students at Crosby High School in their home city. Here is a family where the father is a hero and the mother an idol. The boys keep "Hod" young and interested in the life of the community. As a legislator he

Hodgdon C. Buzzell

has interested himself in the laws
concerned with public health, education and the well-being of the younger generation. He has learned from actual experience the needs and still feels the urge that grips the youngster. "Hod" is the family's candidate.

As an attorney, Buzzell stands in the front rank of Maine's trial lawyers. His advice and services are sought wherever honesty and ability are needed. "He's square," they say, and that's the secret of his success as a lawyer.

Perhaps "Buz" or "Judge" or whatever name you wish to call him,
is a prominent member of the Universalist Church; thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner; Grand-
Odd Fellow and K. of P. and Past
Chancellor Commander of K. of P.
He is and always has been a Republican, yet is not dominated by any ring, interest or faction, but is the representative of 80 percent of the voters.

Ex-Gov. Percival P. Baxter, candidate for the U. S. Senatorial nomination, has sent out the following appeal.

"To My Fellow Citizens: I am writing you this letter as a final reminder of the primary election for United States Senator to be held on Monday, Nov. 1st, at which I am a candidate to succeed our late Senator Bert M. Fernald.

"If you consider me qualified to represent Maine in the United States Senate, I ask you to vote for me and to interest your friends and neighbors in my behalf. You can help a great deal during the next few days.

"In this campaign I have no paid workers except the clerks in my office, and no expenses except those incident to my correspondence, travel and a small amount of printing. Moreover, I am obeying the letter and spirit of the law limiting political expenses.

"I was born and educated in Maine, am 49 years of age, and was Governor for four years, 1921-1924.
Although I have had legal training
as a part of my general education,
I never have practiced law, but have devoted myself to business and the public service.

"If nominated and elected senator,
as I expect to be and which will be due to the voluntary efforts of friends like yourself, I shall devote my entire time to the duties of the office, shall serve my fellow citizens faithfully and to the best of my ability, and shall have at heart the welfare of the whole State of Maine.
I shall be grateful for your assistance."

There's a lot of pleasure in food properly sold, properly cooked and properly served.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A Connecticut car with two fine
deer lashed to its running board,
sailed through Main street yesterday,
with a contented looking chauffeur
at the helm.

The school week is a short one,
owing to the State teachers convention in Bangor. In the words of the song the boys and girls are "lonesome and sorry." Maybe.

The motor boat Sunbeam, which was formerly used by the Seacoast Mission, is being taken to Stonington,
where it will be used by the Deer Isle Granite Co. in transporting men to and from Crotch Island.

Austin M. Titus of East Union was in the city yesterday, and made the interesting announcement that he is going into the fur-buying business
this winter, following in the footsteps of his brother, the late Glover M. Titus, who bought furs in Knox and neighboring counties for more than 20 years. Mr. Titus doesn't look for a large quantity of furs this season, but is of the opinion that prices are going to run high. His are nearly ready and coons are fairly good.

Prof. O. M. Wilbur, poultry specialist of the University of Maine, is one of the prominent speakers who will be heard at the Jefferson Poultry Show in Willow Grange hall, Jefferson next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Tuesday afternoon he will speak on "Poultry Management" and Wednesday night he will give an illustrated lecture on poultry diseases, with colored lantern slides. Wednesday evening a hot roast chicken supper will be served.

Rockland was substantially represented at the Cushing supper Tuesday night, and the patronage was so large that second tables were necessary. This is nowise surprising in view of the splendid spread which is always set forth by the Cushing women. It was almost necessary to ring in a fire alarm in one of the Rockland cars, where a well known clothing store clerk was found to be on the verge of exhaustion. Grave fears were also manifested as to what might be the fate of the vociferous barber.

In Boston Sunday George W. Snow hired a Chrysler sedan from the Nutter System and drove out to church in Newton. When he emerged from the service his car was to be found, and missing also were a satchel and brief case which belonged to Mr. Snow. Yesterday City Marshal Webster received a telegram stating that a Chrysler car
had been abandoned in Groveton, N. H., and that the service crew was the name of George W. Snow of Rockland, Me., found on some papers. Marshal Webster moved so promptly in the matter that the restoration of the car and documents was underway at less time than he has taken to pen this paragraph.

Rodney E. Brazier, agent of the American Railway Express was in Bangor Saturday night to attend a testimonial banquet for Charles H.
Drinkwater who had retired from the service on account of having reached the age limit. Mr. Drinkwater had been with the company 43
years, and at the time of his retirement was division claim agent. The banquet was attended by 28 men and women, among whom besides Mr.
Brazier were Harry Tozier and W. L.
McNamara, former agents of the Rockland office; and A. H. Benner, agent of the Bangor office who began his long career as expressman in the Rockland office.

Ground was broken in the rear of Everett L. Spear's block this morning for a two story structure which will be built for the People's Laundry, B. C. and L. C. Perry proprietors, and which will serve as an annex
to that establishment at M. B. & C. O. Perry's market. The building will be about 20x60 feet, two stories high, with concrete basement. The basement and first floor will be occupied by M. B. & C. O. Perry, who will install there a refrigerating plant, vegetable cooler, etc. The upper story will be used by the People's Laundry, which will thus be enabled to establish a branch of the industry new to this section, a modern, well equipped carpet cleaning department. At the present time there is no such establishment this side of Portland. This will be in operation in the early spring. Lewis Rokes has the contract for erecting the building.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week.
The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

A COWBOY'S PRAYER

O Lord, I've never lived where churches grow,
I love creation better as it stood
That day you finished it so long ago.
And looked upon your work and called it good.

I know that others find you in the light
That's sifted through the tinted window
—panes,
And yet I seem to feel you near tonight
In this dim, quiet starlight on the plains.

I thank you, Lord, that I am placed so well,
That you have made my freedom so complete,
That I'm no slave of whistle, clock, or bell,
No weak-eyed prisoner of wall and street.
Just let me live my life as I've begun,
And give me work that's open to the sky;
Make me a partner in the wind and sun,
And I won't ask a life that's soft or high.

Let me be easy on the man that's down;
Let me be square and generous with all.
I'm careless sometimes, Lord, when I'm in trouble.

But never let 'em say I'm mean or small!
Make me as big and open as the plains.
As honest as the horse between my knees,
Clean as the wind that blows behind the rains.
Free as the hawk that circles down the breeze!

Forgive me, Lord, if sometimes I forget,
You know about the reasons that are hid,
You understand the things that gall and fret;
You know me better than my mother did.
Just keep an eye on all that's done and said,
And right me, sometimes, when I turn aside,
And guide me on the long, dim trail ahead
That stretches upward toward the Great Beyond.

—Charles Badger Clark.

The Courier-Gazette

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
 Rockland, Maine, Oct. 26, 1926.
 Personally appeared Frank S. Lydell, who on oath declares that he is pressman in the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of Oct. 23, 1926, there was printed a total of 6,434 copies.
 Before me, FRANK B. MILLER,
 Notary Public.

Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near.—Isaiah 55:6.

The languid interest locally manifested in the primary election of next Monday we think is symptomatic of the condition prevailing throughout the State. Theoretically every man and woman voter should be expected to have a voice in selecting the man for the exalted honor of representing Maine in the United States Senate. As a matter of fact we don't believe one in ten is giving more than a glancing thought to it. The cumbersome machinery of the primary, the restrictions with which it surrounds the candidates, are responsible in large measure for the creation of this general state of apathy. We should be the last to undervalue the potentialities of newspaper advertising, indeed we heartily recommend that form of campaign publicity, but a candidate's expenditures are so restricted by law that he can at the best make only a feeble gesture through the columns of the press. The old-time arousing personal contact of campaigning is gone.

Yet it remains no less the voter's obligation to have connection with Monday's balloting. We assume that the more part of our readers have at least heard that an election is set for that day. We have sought through these columns to convey to them a knowledge of the fact, laying stress upon the merits and claims of no single candidate but fairly presenting for the reader's consideration the record and abilities of each. Of the four Republican candidates we are able to perceive in this part of the State no evidence that any one has a preponderance of support. Mr. Baxter has an advantage in his closeness to recent political life which has retained more or less of an organization; and there is value to him in the fact that his name stands first on the official ballot. Both Mr. Gould and Mr. Buzzell attach strength upon the ground that the candidate should be selected from the eastern part of the State. One of these three candidates is certain to be selected. Whichever it is will be sent to the Senate in the election of Nov. 23.

It will be recalled in connection with last winter's investigation of State Prison matters how the name of Thomas Mott Osborne, the famous Sing Sing warden, was prominent as a suggested successor to Warden Eaton. If we are not mistaken Mr. Osborne, after declining the appointment, later telegraphed an acceptance, but meantime Mr. Fish had been drafted for the position. The sudden death of Mr. Osborne occurring at this time when prison affairs have again come into prominence gives occasion for query in one's mind as to whether, had he come to the Maine institution, he would have added to his reputation as one of the foremost penologists of his time. Following the funeral services in the church at Auburn his body was taken to the prison and viewed by the 1200 convicts, many of whom wept as they filed past. He was the friend of that unfortunate class and they recognized it.

Driving over those wonderful stretches of cement road already completed give a suggestion of what it is to mean to the modern traveler when the work becomes a completed unit between Portland and Kittery. The impression it will make upon the visitor as an introduction to the State is bound to be profound and worth every dollar of its cost. That the initial cost is large, one is ready to admit, but there should be a permanence to the form of construction that really brings it into the classification of economy. Ultimately we look to see that kind of highway everywhere permeating Maine. Nothing will more stimulate the glow hither of people and wealth from regions outside of us.

Illustrating the fact that there can be too much of a good thing is the situation existing among our friends of the South, the vastness of whose cotton crops has so sent down the price of that commodity as to leave many a farmer with a huge yield worse off than in seasons when his yield had been relatively a scant one. While largely increased acreage is chiefly responsible for this state of things, is it true that womenfolk are not using so much cotton as formerly? Mostly they appear to be clad in silk, and not much of that.

We are glad to note on the part of Boston papers a continued agitation of the street-sign question. Of all the cities we have visited—no inconsiderable number, let us airily observe—the metropolis of New England in respect of its unmarked streets is the worst of offenders.

EMPIRE THEATRE

Leatrice Joy in "The Clinging Vine" and William Fairbanks in "The Winning Wall" are the attraction today.

Lovers of railroad stories, and who is not, will be thrilled to within an inch of their lives when "The Runaway Express," a Universal-Jewel, comes Monday-Tuesday. In this stirring tale, which was adapted to the screen from Frank Spearman's "The Nerve of Foley," Director Edward Sedgwick has captured and immortalized on the screen, all the romance and heroism of the railroad. In addition to realistic scenes, showing the inside workings of the tasks of trainmen and the dispatching of the great, iron monsters on their swift and irresistible journeys, Curtis Benton, the scenerist, has interwoven a beautiful love story in "The Runaway Express," between Joe Foley, the brawny, good-looking engineer, played by Jack Dougherty and Nora Kelly, the sweet, Irish waitress, portrayed by Blanche Mehaffey.

PARK THEATRE

The feature picture today is "Blaze of Glory" featuring Benno Adoree and Ralph Graves. In addition there is a two-act comedy, Fables and News. Two excellent feature pictures will prevail Friday and Saturday. "Kosher Kitty" featuring Viola Dana, Vera Gordon and Nat Carr, is an Irish-Jewish epic. It is a realistic and genuine portrayal of that bit of the earth which the world has laughed and wept over since its very beginning. It is a revelation of life and the living of it in a place where one exists through sharp struggles because they can see the beauty of humanity and its joy even here. East side! West side! All the world around.

The other feature is "West of Broadway" with Priscilla Dean. It opens a new field for the display of the star's ability. She is seen as a golf "pro" and one who swings a wicked niblick. Harold Shumate adapted this production from Wallace Smith's Red Book Magazine story, "New York West."—adv.

STRAND THEATRE

Cecil B. De Mille's great production "Eve's Leaves" starring Leatrice Joy will be shown the last time today. On Friday and Saturday comes the popular "Sea Beast" which was so well received on its first showing. It is an epic of the golden age of American sea-faring adventure. It deals with the 1840 whalers. It has been aptly called the story of an unconquerable soul.

The Harold Lloyd Comedy "Count Your Change" will also be shown. "Old Songs vs New" is the title of O'Hara's organ novelty that features a singing contest to prove which songs are the most popular as the title implies. This contest will take place at the Strand on Monday and Tuesday. O'Hara's organ gems take a prominent place in the program of the Strand which are presented at the early part of each week.—adv.

Local Boys To Act as official Junior Salesmen

OCT. 25 - NOV. 6

Within a few days one of our Junior Lamp Salesmen, recruited from local boys, will call and show you the New Standard Line of Edison Mazda Lamps.

This will be an opportunity for you to replace burned out lamps and to fill empty sockets. Also it will be an excellent opportunity to buy a few extra lamps to keep on hand.

The boys will carry only a few of the New Lamps with them but they will take your order for any type of lamp

you desire. All orders of a carton or over will be delivered free of charge. There are six lamps in a carton which makes a very convenient and safe way to keep spare lamps.

The boys selling lamps are all local boys. Besides getting paid for each lamp they sell they are also competing for prizes. They will call on you between Oct. 25 and Nov. 6.

They are selling these lamps at the same price you would pay for them at our stores.

Buy your Lamps from these Junior Salesmen and help them and help yourself!

TALK OF THE TOWN

George W. Bachelder is building a concrete wall along the eastern end of his Masonic street premises where the brook runs.

Eugene Clark for the past two years with the carpet department of Fuller-Cobb-Davis, has resigned his position and entered the sales department of W. M. Little Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Foster (Miss Lucy Fuller) are soon to occupy their apartments in the F. W. Fuller house, Talbot avenue, the remodeling operations being nearly completed.

Edwin Libby Relief Corps has a supper Thursday at 6 o'clock at G. A. R. hall. Housekeepers, Mrs. Elizabeth Libby and Rita Knight. Inspection of Edwin Libby Corps will be Nov. 4.

The trustees of the Masonic Temple Association voted last night to hold a Food Fair the coming winter. A special meeting to arrange preliminary details will be held next week.

Continued favorable comments continue to be heard about the admirable manner in which Chief Havens and his department handled the McLean fire Monday night. Hoseman Adelbert M. Clark of the James F. Sears Hose Co. who was knocked from a ladder at a second story window is still confined to his bed though much improved.

Main street had a strangely barren appearance this morning due to the activities of the Rockland Awning Co. crews which yesterday removed 70 sun shades. The company makes another sortie around Nov. 15 and a few of the hard-boiled awnings brave the wintry blasts until Christmas. This company stores around 150 awnings in its Main street loft and they make quite a sight with their tagged arms in the air. These are repaired or renewed through the winter preparatory to re-changing next spring.

The funeral services of the late Capt. Charles L. Philbrook, who received fatal injuries while attempting to remove the steamer Southport, during the fire on Commercial wharf Tuesday night, will be held at his late home, 211 Limerock street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Winslow-Holbrook Post will meet at its hall at 1 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral. Because of Capt. Philbrook's death the installation of the American Legion Auxiliary has been postponed until further notice.

"Somebody has stolen my car," cried an excited voice to Patrolman Stelson who was on traffic duty during Monday night's fire. The loser conducted the officer through a maze of parked cars to the back of Bird block and said "She stood right there, and here's the key." The officer looked at the crowded space before and beside the vacant spot, found the car was not equipped with planes and quickly located the missing Ford with his flashlight down the adjacent embankment and not three feet from the fragrant waters of Limerock's Cove. It takes a lot to phase a telegraph operator but that one had Bert guessing.

Judge Frank B. Miller and Charles T. Smalley attended the opening of Lincoln County Supreme Court in Vinalhaven Tuesday. Judge Miller was attorney for the defendant in the case of Waldoboro Garage Co. vs. George W. Gove of Washington, in which the contract for a radio set was involved. Entry of "neither party" was made. Many court cases were assigned the first being between the towns of Smithfield and Somerville involving pauper settlement. Tons of tax records brought by truck from Augusta, figure in the evidence. Weston M. Hilton is serving his last term as county attorney, as he will be succeeded Jan. 1st by Harvey R. Pease, formerly of Rockland.

Roberts & Veazie, Inc., is the new name of the insurance concern at 10 Limerock street, established a quarter century ago by the late George Roberts, and more recently known as George Roberts & Co., Inc. Edward R. Veazie, who has been in the employ of the firm the past four years as salesman, is now a partner in the corporation and becomes active manager of the business. George W. Roberts, who has been officiating in that capacity since the retirement of his grandfather, has just joined the staff of the Union Indemnity Co. as special agent for Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, a type of work he has long desired and for which he is so well qualified. Mr. Veazie's active work in the insurance field, coupled with his widespread popularity, assures the continued success of the new corporation, the officers of which are: George W. Roberts president, E. R. Veazie treasurer and Helena B. Roberts clerk.

WANTED, A SLOGAN

And If You Write the Best One Your Reward Will Be a Prize of $10,000

An Episcopal bishop and a penitentiary lifer, a French countess and an inmate of a home for aged women—these contrasting types, and scores of others, are matching their wits against all America trying to win the $10,000 prize offered for a slogan for the new Jewett four-door sedan.

The Jones Motor Company, Paige and Jewett dealer here, has received from Detroit preliminary reports on the progress of the contest. Although only half the period is past, the Paige company has received enough ballots to indicate that the contest undoubtedly is one of the most popular ever held.

The large capital prize offered, and the fact that the second and third best suggestions will be rewarded with a Jewett four-door sedan, have brought in a flood of suggestions. The Episcopal bishop's entry blank indicated that he was just about as eager to win a car as to get the $10,000; on the other hand it is believed the penitentiary lifer would rather get the cash than win the automobile.

The contest, which is open to everyone, runs till midnight of Oct. 31, so there is still plenty of time to enter. Official ballots for the contest are to be had from any Paige and Jewett dealer. The competitors are being informed by the dealers that what the Paige company seeks is a good expressive slogan, in preference to a mere name for the car, though both classes of suggestions are eligible to win the prize. The Paige slogan—"The Most Beautiful Car in America"—is well established, and a slogan as good, descriptive of the New Jewett, is deemed worth the $10,000 to be awarded to the winner. Ballots already received show that the contestants have searched far and wide for inspiration, ranging from the Bible to slang, from mythology to biology, from ancient history to professional sports. It's going to be a difficult job for the judges to pick the winner.

"ON MY SET"

After a prolonged period of reception Tuesday night's radio entertainment was like an oasis in an arid desert, particularly the early part of the evening. WGBS of New York was celebrating the second anniversary of its opening and was talking "right out loud"—I logged two distant stations, WADC of Akron and WORD of Chicago, and heard some very satisfactory programs over WCWS, WJZ, WBZ, WMCA, WGY, and WPG.

A more popular entertainment than WJZ gave last night would be difficult to find. And it came in superbly—I have had so little luck with Philadelphia stations lately that I was pleased to hear from WCAU last night—Lieut. Ellberg's graphic story of the raising of the S-51 came in with the Navy Day program, and was one of the most interesting talks I have ever heard over the radio. I added another to my long list of New York stations last night. The newsmen were WEBJ.

Henry Ulmer, who has been teaching school in South Hope this fall, has been appointed State Sunday School missionary for Southern Maine, and will succeed to the territory so long and ably cared for by the late Willard E. Overlook. Mr. Ulmer begins his new duties Nov. 1, and will make Rockland his headquarters, residing temporarily with his father-in-law Ralph P. Conant of Camden street. Mr. Ulmer has been a student of the Boston Bible School, and possesses the qualifications which point to success in his new calling.

A STONINGTON CASE

The case of Timothy Robbins against Eugene F. Merrill, both of Stonington, was on trial in Hancock County Supreme Court Friday and Saturday, this being an action brought for injuries sustained by plaintiff, when a German police dog owned by the defendant, bit Robbins on his medical attention being necessary. Action was brought to recover doctor's bills and amount of money equivalent to four weeks' work which was lost by plaintiff, resulting from injuries. The jury rendered a verdict for plaintiff for sum of $85.75.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Rufus E. B. Shibles, who died Oct. 27, 1925.

Do not ask us if we miss him, Oh, there's such a vacant place; Oft we think we hear his footsteps; And we see his smiling face; Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears of silence often flow. Memory keeps him ever near us Since he left us, one year ago.

Mrs. Ida Shibles, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McChesney, Ruth Humphrey.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and kindness extended to us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father; also for the many beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Herman T. Aray, Mr. and Mrs. Alston Vinalhaven, Oct. 28.

Postmaster Freeman L. Roberts of Vinalhaven was among the well known Knox County men in the city yesterday.

Schooner Wavenock, Capt. Trainor, finished loading piling this week at Cheverie, N. S., and will sail for New York.

Reports from Lincoln County are to the effect that the majority of the votes cast there next Monday will be for Senator Buzzell.

George Ball, who has charge of a Waterville clothing store, and who is also well known to the local trade as a traveling salesman was in the city Tuesday.

The remains of Norman Torrey, who died suddenly in Hartford, Conn., Tuesday night, will arrive in this city today and will be conveyed to Stonington on a tugboat. The deceased was a son of Fred A. Torrey, a prominent Stonington business man.

With the approach of chilly evenings interest in radio is becoming augmented.

Schooner Lavinia M. Snow, Capt. Stout, is about due at Stonington with a load of coal from New York for the Deer Isle Granite Co.

Schooner Helvetia, Pettigrow, was at Southwest Harbor Tuesday, with piling from a Nova Scotia port for New York. The schooner had been "crew-bound" as one of the owners expressed it, but is now in passage.

Frank Orbeton, who makes his home near the Head of the Bay and who is well known in hand circles, was thrown from a Ford truck the other day, and dragged a number of feet before he could extricate himself. The result was a dislocated left shoulder and a badly scarred face.

The Knox County Fish and Game Association will have its next meeting in Union Wednesday evening, Nov. 3. The Union "Stars" will furnish another of those suppers which made the last meeting so popular, and moving pictures will be shown in connection with the meeting.

The Registration Board, which has been in session for the Senatorial primary, closed its doors last night after one of the most uneventful sessions on record. Up to yesterday noon only five new names had been added—Eva L. Toner, Ernest L. Toner, John W. Thompson, Vasker L. Naum and Theodore W. Sylvester. Quite a number of women who have been married since the last session of the Board, have not re-registered under their new name, as required. This can be done on election day, next Monday.

Bath Times: Work on the Bath site of the Kennebec bridge approach has started with one form already erected, giving the people an idea of the height of the road that will lead over the railroad yard, allowing the regular freight yard traffic to continue. The wooden form is funnel shaped at both ends, resembling two massive pillars with a narrow wall connecting them. This form will be poured with concrete and one of the piers for the approach will be finished. It has taken shape just to the southeast of the former Bath Garage which is fast being demolished.

Edwin S. Mullen, executive officer of Ellie Simmons' fruit store, is having his annual vacation, which he will stretch into two weeks if he doesn't get homesick meantime.

Horace E. Lamb saw the Harvard-Dartmouth game last Saturday, and was greatly impressed by the power of the Cambridge eleven. The Harvard and Yale game is beginning to look like a pretty stiff proposition.

Samuel Rubenstein's car was side-swiped while riding at anchor near the Narragansett Hotel the other day, the assailant being a Belfast Ford. Considerable damage was sustained by Mr. Rubenstein's car.

The damaged foremast of the barkentine Cecil P. Stewart has been removed at the South Railways where a new one will replace the square rized spar. When this has been done the Stewart will have been converted into a fore and after, in other words a schooner. The craft was recently on the South Portland Railway to be recaulked and have bottom painted. It is now at this port for other necessary repairs and classing.

SOUTH THOMASTON

Allard, young son of Arthur Pierce, proved himself to be true to the old stock business man Saturday when he loaded up his father's milk cart with small pumpkins and peddled them through the village at 5c each and did such a rushing business that he had to bring down a second load. At times he had such a following of children he was a veritable "Pied Piper." Any housewife that people in the town could have made an effort to get to the hall. At 1.30 the meeting was transferred to the home of Mrs. C. L. Sleeper where the Red Cross Nurse Miss Sawyer and Miss Nettie Simmons, Home Demonstration Agent conducted a very interesting and instructive meeting on home nursing. It seemed to be a day for State officials to visit the Keag as J. E. Dority, Dist. Supervisor of Roads, also visited the village that day. Several noted the four Ford coupes leaving within a few minutes of each other about 4 o'clock. Miss Spalding enroute for Orono; The Rockland Red Cross Nurse, Miss Simmons for Warren and Mr. Dority for Damariscotta.

Tomorrow night (Friday) everyone should make an effort to get out to the supper which is to be held by the Wessaweskeag Grange and will fully bear out the enviable reputation the Grange suppers have made for the town years ago. The dance in the evening will be a Halloween Ball with music by Kirk's Orchestra and the whole proceeds will go toward paying for some repairs to be made upon the Grange hall.

Miss Helen Lester, Donald Lester and Helen, Master Malcolm Lester and Miss Hazel Hopkins motored here from Portland Saturday and spent the weekend with relatives returning Sunday afternoon.

Village schools are closed until Monday on account of the teachers attending the State Convention for teachers held in Bangor.

Ford trucks owned by La Von Godfrey and Chester Grierson are resurfacing with gravel the road from the Keag bridge to the Owl's Head town line. The work is under the direction of State Patrolman A. F. Sleeper who also has a crew of men building a piece of State aid road near Jack Snowdon's place which when completed will make a continuous piece of State road from the Owl's Head line to the Pleasant Beach turn. A piece of 3d class road has also been built on the Pleasant Beach road this fall.

MT. PLEASANT VALLEY

W. F. Davis, Harvey Lunden and Nils Loffman returned from the big woods Thursday night, bringing two fine bucks with them.

Arthur Clark, W. C. Wellman, and the Heath boys of South Hope returned home Saturday with two deer.

Mrs. E. H. Davis and son William called on friends in Burketville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davis and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Young in Owl's Head Sunday evening. They also called on Mrs. Davis' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Chester.

Mrs. McCormick Reveals Secret of Good Health

Victim of Heart Trouble, Nervousness and Weak Stomach, Mother of 7 Children Finds Relief. Strength Restored. Praises Tanlac

"Words cannot express the agony I went through," says Mrs. John McCormick, a popular matron whose seven beautiful children are the pride of Taft Avenue, Portland, Me.

"My strength had vanished. I was afraid to go out on the street alone, my heart caused me so much trouble. It would skip a beat and palpitate. And my stomach was so upset that the sight of food nauseated me. And when I managed to force down a little food I would suffer for hours.

"My plight shattered my nerves. And many nights I would hear the clock strike every hour, counting the minutes that seemed like years, tossing and turning, waiting for dawn to come. Then I would be so weary and worn that I could hardly drag one foot after the other. Life and the care of my children was a burden. In vain I sought relief.

"A neighbor told me about Tanlac. And three bottles of this tonic relieved me of all my troubles. Quickly my old strength returned. I began to have an appetite for food. And now I can eat everything without a sign of indigestion. My heart never bothers me. And even the noise of seven children playing does not rattle my nerves. Tanlac was a god-send."

Tanlac relieves pain that ravages health. It often conquers serious troubles and builds up strength in famished bodies. It is Nature's own remedy made from roots, herbs and herbs. Enjoy good health and strength. Begin taking Tanlac. The first bottle brings amazing results. Ask your druggist for Tanlac—today. Over 40 million bottles sold.

MOTHER OF SEVEN CHILDREN

Helped in Caring for them by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Glasgow, Ky.—"I am the mother of seven children, the eldest being only 12 years, and I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me through the roughest places of my married life. At one time I was so downhearted that life was a misery. A friend in Indianapolis, Indiana, told me of the Vegetable Compound, and after taking a few bottles of it I became myself again and it was a pleasure to do my housework and gardening. Since then I always use your medicine when I feel weak from overwork and it straightens me out."

Mrs. MARISSA BAUMANN, Route 2, care of O. F. Steenberg, Glasgow, Ky.

New Orleans, La.—"I could not do a thing after my first boy was born. I was so weak, I had no appetite, lost weight and was not able to do my work. I was this way for seven weeks, then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got wonderful results from it."

Mrs. C. FAURIE, 4014 Dauphine St., New Orleans, La.

AVOID DIZZY SPELLS

Never well. Always tired and fagged out. Beauty tossed away by neglect. To be beautiful and to keep youth the system must be free from poisonous backwash of constipation which often causes dizzy spells. For 20 years, Dr. F. M. Edwards gave his patients, in place of calomel, a compound of vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Known by their olive color. They free the system of poisons that ravage health, energy, beauty.

You need never have sallow complexion, dulley eyes, throbbing headaches—all signs that your bowels are clogged, liver is torpid. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly. They act smoothly and without griping. How much better you'll feel and look! Everywhere wise men and women who know the value of good health take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. ## Sick Children Love "Cascarets" For the Bowels

Give "Candy Cathartic" for a bad cold, sour stomach, constipation

Get a 10-cent box now.
Most of the ills of childhood are caused by a sour, disordered stomach, sluggish liver and constipated bowels. They catch cold easily, become cross, listless, irritable, fidgety, restless, tongue coated, don't eat or sleep well and need a gentle cleansing of the bowels—but don't try to force a nauseating dose of oil into the little one's already sick stomach—it is cruel, needless and old-fashioned.
Any child will gladly take Cascarets Candy Cathartic which act gently—never gripe or produce the slightest uneasiness—though they cleanse the little one's system, sweeten the stomach and put the liver and bowels in a pure, healthy condition.
Full directions for children and grown-ups in each package.
Mothers can rest easy after giving this gentle, thorough laxative which costs only 10 cents a box at any drug store.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

Rockland High Working On New Wrinkles For the Morse High Game.

There are still 28 candidates for the R. H. S. football team. This is a good showing, for at the beginning of the season there were about 35. Only four have dropped off and two, Henry Marsh and Steve Accordi were forced to leave on account of injuries. An hour and a half scrimmage constituted Tuesday night's practice. Many changes were tried, the first team backfield and the second string line attacking the first string line and vice versa. Knights, Huntley and Frye got off with long game even against the first team line. Tuesday night Wiggin was shifted from the second team backfield to tackle on the second team.

Practice was held Wednesday morning and consisted of another long scrimmage in which new plays were tried. All preparations are being made for the Morse game and the team is in good physical condition.

Concerning the Rockland High-Morse High game which will be played in Bath Saturday, the Bath Times sporting editor says:

"Following the drastic wreck at Westbrook the Morse High football squad will devote their entire week to prepping for the Rockland High game which takes place Saturday at Kelley field at 2.30. Rockland will invade Bath with the finest team the Lime City has turned forth in years and there are few sport followers that are not aware of the powers of the over East eleven.

Among other impressive wins is the 6-0 defeat it handed Waterville and Waterville has taken such teams into camp as Gardiner and Skowhegan, tied Bangor and put up a great game against Lewiston. According to the dope Rockland is ranking with the fastest high school teams in Maine. Last week it came within an ace of defeating the Helikon Academy second team, losing by a 2-0 margin.

"It was a bone crushing attack with two halfbacks starring and a great aerial game that gave Rockland its sensational victory over Waterville, and once more Morse will take the field in an attempt to stop a hard running attack. Stinging under the 29-0 beating suffered at Westbrook, no stone will be left unturned to fling off the jinx and smash its way into the win column.

A victory over Rockland with the fine record that team has rolled up would put Morse back on the map and give them a big boost toward their pending games with Biddeford and Deering, two of the State's best."

Mrs. Lovejoy leaves two daughters, Annie E. wife of H. A. Simmons, and Ross, wife of H. E. Copeland, who has so lovingly cared for her and guided those feeble steps, considering no sacrifice too great to make if she could but lighten the burden and make the few months left to her mother comfortable and pleasant.

There are also three grandchildren, Arthur and Evelyn Simmons, Mrs. Harry Levenseller, and one great-grandson, Albert Levenseller; and a sister, Mrs. Eva Rose of Camden. The storm of Monday kept few away from the funeral service. Mrs.

Lovejoy was laid to rest beneath the beautiful flowers sent by loving friends. The bearers were W. N. Benner, Jr., W. S. Benner, Austin Gardner and W. L. Benner. Rev. C. A. Knickerbocker officiated.

MRS. GEORGIA LOVEJOY

By the death of Georgia Lovejoy a sadness has settled over the community at West Meadows and those who knew her best, know that a place is left vacant that will be hard to fill.

Mrs. Lovejoy was a neighbor who was always ready to do a kind deed whenever opportunity permitted and no one was ever turned from her door cold or hungry. She was the happiest when doing for others to make their lives bright.

The house now owned by Mrs. Elks was built and owned by Mrs. Lovejoy's father, the late Isaac Ames, and in that house Mrs. Lovejoy was born April 23, 1846.

Fifty-seven years ago she went to the Meadows to live, as the bride of the late Albion W. Lovejoy, and in that little home she was faithful in the discharge of every duty until health failed and two years ago she was compelled to drop her labor of love, and went to live with her youngest daughter Rosa. For about 18 months she was totally blind, and during all those dark days she never complained, but the same pleasant greeting for all.

Mrs. Lovejoy leaves two daughters, Annie E. wife of H. A. Simmons, and Ross, wife of H. E. Copeland, who has so lovingly cared for her and guided those feeble steps, considering no sacrifice too great to make if she could but lighten the burden and make the few months left to her mother comfortable and pleasant.

Earl Maloney, a Rockland High School graduate who left the city 17 years ago, and has revisited it but once since that time, was here for a brief visit this week, and one of the first friends he looked up was Supt. Knott C. Rankin, one of his old schoolmates, whom he ran into by chance in a Vermont town a few days ago. Mr. Maloney is prosper ing in the City of Brotherly Love, is married and is the fond parent of six children.

Monday evening Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton entertained the Westerners Club at a picnic supper at 6.30. The evening was spent with games and sewing.

Miss Kitty S. Coburn is the guest of Mrs. Frances Carr in Bangor.

The ELIZABETH ARDEN method— which keeps your skin healthy— will keep it lovely too

No CREAM transforms the skin. But scientific care, which encourages swift circulation through the tissues and keeps the skin cells vividly healthy, will make your skin clear, soft and firm. This is the foundation of the Elizabeth Arden method. Cleansing the skin—with Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Cleansing Cream—removes impurities which clog the pores and cause blackheads. Brisk patting—with Ardena Skin Tonic and Special Astringent—tones the skin and firms the contours. Nourishing—with Orange Skin Food or the delicate Velva Cream—fills out the skin cells and so corrects lines and wrinkles. Follow this same method in the care of your skin at home.

The annual Halloween Social of the Senior Class, R. H. S. was held with success in the gymnasium Tuesday evening. The decorations were in keeping with the occasion. A pro gram at intermission was received with applause. The contributors were Misses Madeline Bubier and Grace Curtis, dances; Miss Hazel Williamson, vocal solos and Miss Evelyn Perry, piano novelties.

The Halloween dance to be given by the B. P. W. Club at Temple Hall tomorrow night promises to be a very pleasing event. Music by the Jazz monious Orchestra, and light refresh ments will be served at intermission. An efficient committee, with Mrs. Edith Jones as chairman, is in charge.

Tuesday the Grace street Kinder garden celebrated its true Halloween style upon the occasion of the birthday of little Jack Brubaker Jr. About 10.30 a. m. a fascinating birth day cake appeared to take the place of the regular morning snack of cookies. Under the direction of Miss Phyllis Wylie all shades were drawn and the 25 children lighted the Jack O'Lanterns they had pre viously made and initiated Jack into his fifth year with weird and fantastic rites.

The Broad street home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morse was the scene of a happy gathering Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Ernest P. Jones entertained 24 youngsters for Master Sterling Morse and little Miss Arlene Jones. Due to the near ness of Halloween, the decorations and games were in keeping with that day dear to all kiddies. The table was unusually lovely. A huge horn made the centerpiece, filled with frilled orange and black paper, over which was suspended a big balloon with a pumpkin face. Halloween fa vours were at each plate. The great est attraction to the children was the enormous chocolate cake with dec orations of Halloween lollipops. Ice cream and fancy crackers were also served. As the party came very near the date of Master Sterling's birthday he was the recipient of many lovely gifts and remem brances. The kiddies present were Marie McPhee, Vernet Morgan, Winifred Pinkham, Clara Dennison, Dorothy Smith, Virginia Wood, Arlene and Mary Havenner, Helen McDonald, Marguerite Tibbetts, June Chatto, Maude Johnson, Eleanor Har per, Julia Molway, Kenneth Morgan, Stuart MacAlman, Junior Sukeforth, David Curtis, Robert Hills, Robert Miles, Gordon Burgess, Winifred Chatto, Neil Little and John Howard. Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Jones were as sisted in serving and caring for the little ones by Mrs. Albra Perry, Mrs. Ivy Chatto and Mrs. J. F. Burgess.

THE CHAPIN CLASS

Musical Was a Striking Event In the Early Social Season.

One of the most delightful social events of the fall season was the mu sical given under the auspices of the Chapin Class at the home of Mrs. David Talbot, Tuesday evening, with Mrs. C. A. Knickerbocker in charge. The beautiful and spacious home, a picture with its blaze of lights, housed with ease the estimated 200 guests who came to listen to the en joyable program prepared under the direction of Mrs. Gladys St. C. Mor gan, chairman, with Mrs. Katherine Veazie, Miss Alice Fuller and Miss Ellen Cochran assisting.

Piano Solo—Witches Dance... MacDowell
Song—1 Once Had a Little White Rose... Mrs. Joyce L. Jones
Musical Reading—The Child Next Door... Douglas
Miss Thelma Littlefield

Male Quartet—Jolly Blacksmith's Lay
There are Women
There was a Tree
Chester Wylie, first tenor; Charles Wil son, second tenor; John Robinson, first bass; Ward Seaton, second bass.
Monologue—Keeping a Seat at the Benefit, Miss Ethel Thomas
Mandolin Solo—La Veu Schottische, DeLang
Miss Doris Huyler

Songs—His Favorite Flower... Lowitz
The Bells of St. Mary's... Adams
Kid—A story poem... Phyllis Fergus
Miss Mary Bird

Universalist Quartet—Pale Moon F. K. Logan
Mrs. Katherine Veazie, soprano; Mrs. Gladys Morgan, contralto; Chester Wylie, tenor; John Robinson, bass
Reading—Selection from Pickwick Papers... Dickens
Ret. C. A. Knickerbocker

Whistling Solos—O Sole Mio... Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffman
Miss Annie Dunn
Male Quartet—Kentucky Babe
Tender Solo—Anchored... Watson
Charles Wilson

Universalist Quartet—Just a Cottage Small Hanley
Miss Mabel Lamb, Mrs. Alta Dim ick and Miss Margaret Stahl acted as accompanists in their usual able manner.

Everyone was lavish with com pliments for the fine program. Each number was worth while, and the hearty applause bespoke the appre ciation of the listeners. The male quartet from Warren lived entirely up to and beyond all expectations. They made a real hit with their fine singing and clever interpretations. Four voices that blend as well as these are seldom found. The Univers alist quartet also lived up to the enviable reputation they have won, in the two numbers they gave, responding with an encore, "In the Garden of To-Morrow."

The "Witches Dance" by Mac Dowell, an exceedingly difficult com position, was played by Mrs. Joyce Jones with ease and smoothness, demonstrating her skill as a pianist. It is hoped Mrs. Jones will be heard more frequently in public in the future.

Two of Rockland's younger singers made interesting vocalists, Miss Thelma Littlefield and Miss Mary Bird. Miss Littlefield's voice, a dainty lyric soprano, contains much promise; the freshness and sweet ness of it now is entrancing, and she charmed everyone by her winning personality. The little musical read ing "The Child Next Door" was given with even more style than the song, and left a desire for more with all who heard her. Miss Bird is fast taking her place as one of the foremost younger vocalists in the city. Her voice, a mezzo-soprano, is of much beauty in its rich quality and smoothness, and her enunciation is particularly good. Her songs were a delight.

Miss Huyler's mandolin solo was given with much style and expres sion. The monologue given by Miss Thomas was one of the out standing features of the program. Naturalness marks her work in this line, and her delivery of "Keeping a Seat at the Benefit" was a veritable joy. It was deeply regretted that her sister, Miss Clara Thomas, could not appear in a group of songs, owing to a severe cold and house re ness. These sisters are unusually talented and extremely winning in personality, and their few appear ances in public since coming to make Rockland their home have made a distinct impression.

Mr. Knickerbocker's reading from Pickwick Papers was thoroughly enjoyable. His manner of reading from his favorite author is inimit able, the expression of his face and voice bringing the characters to life before one's eyes. Mr. Wilson's solo was finely given. His voice is a tenor of lyric quality, which he handles with ease and finish.

A unique feature of the program was the whistling solos by Miss Annie Dunn, who has been a resident of Rockland for about a year and is attracting attention by her skill in this unusual art, and beginning to be quite in demand. Her tone is sweet and full and really very lovely.

All the participants were generous in responding to encores which were greatly in demand. At the end of the program punch and small cakes were served, with Miss Ellen Cochran and Mrs. Knickerbocker presiding over the punch bowls, and Mrs. Katherine Veazie, Miss Alice Fuller, Mrs. Nora Cooper and others serving the cakes.

Words are small things in express ing to Mrs. Talbot the appreciation felt by the committee of which Mrs. Knickerbocker is chairman, for making her beautiful home to the public and giving so graciously of her hospitality, which with the thoroughly enjoyable program are certain to leave happy and lasting memories with all who were present.

Nearly 100 persons patronized the excellent supper furnished by the Congregational ladies last night.
