"ON MY SET"

If there was ever a better night for radio reception than Sunday night it was not in the 10 months' period that I have been tuning in. Such power and such tone! It was little short of marvelous. Political speeches punctuated the evening's programs. I was about to say that the wires fairly sizzled with them, but that would have been a clip of the pen. And nearly all of the sermons were tinged with advice to the voter.—Saturday night I heard Senator Wadsworth of New York on WJZ, who is striving for re-election on a wet platform, and turned from that station to WNAAC where former Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes was getting such a wonderful reception in a Boston address. I could not help feeling that politics must be piping hot all over the country, and also I could not help feeling glad that we voters of Maine are sitting in the grandstand, with all our troubles behind us.—The Boston Symphony Orchestra concert on WBZ Saturday night was a notable addition to the evening's entertainment.

"On My Set" is indebted to Herbert K. Washburn of Portland for a copy of the fall edition of Andrews Radio Directory and Log-Book, the most complete booklet of the kind that the writer has seen. Mr. Washburn is of the firm of Colcord & Washburn pharmacists.

The regular meeting of Aurora Lodge, F. and A. M., will be held Wednesday night with work on the Entered Apprentice degree.

GOULD WINS NOMINATION

Yesterday's Primary Election Furnished An Upset, As Baxter Was Generally Scheduled To Win.

The current belief that former Governor Percival P. Baxter would be nominated for United States Senator to succeed the late Senator Bert M. Fernald proves to be an erroneous one, as latest reports give Arthur R. Gould of Presque Isle a lead of approximately 3000, with more than two-thirds of the voting precincts heard from. At midnight the figures were:

Arthur R. Gould, 19,913
Percival P. Baxter, 16,914
Hodgdon C. Buzzell, 9,295
Louis A. Jack, 1,006

The towns which had not reported at that hour are believed to have cast a small vote, which could not possibly affect the result.

Some of the high lights of yesterday's election were seen in Aroostook County, where Mr. Gould's neighbors gave him a majority of nearly 5000; in Waldo County, where almost everybody voted for Senator Buzzell, and in Cumberland County where Gould carried the metropolis by 119, and lost the county by less than 1000.

Rockland went for Buzzell, but with Gould only 11 votes behind in the race. Knox County also went for Buzzell, the totals being: Buzzell, 470; Baxter, 378; Gould, 328; Jack, 12.

Appleton: Baxter 16, Buzzell 3, Gould 1.
Camden: Baxter 39, Buzzell 89, Gould 39, Jack 2.

CYRUS CURTIS GIVES $50,000

General Knox Memorial Is To Be Built—Campaign Headed By Charles R. Flint of New York.

The Memorial to Gen. Henry Knox is to be built. A check of $50,000 from Cyrus H. K. Curtis opens the campaign.

The assurance of this welcome fact, which was lately hinted at in The Courier-Gazette, is made certain today by an official announcement which this paper is privileged to lay before its readers in the following statement, which is to receive country-wide publicity:

For some years an effort has been made by General Knox Chapter of has finally been consummated in the organization of Gen. Knox Memorial Association to raise the funds required for this patriotic purpose. This project has the indorsement of President Coolidge, Vice President Dawes, all New England Governors and other prominent men throughout the country, including General Pershing, Secretary of War Davis, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Otis H. Kahn, of New York, Newton D. Baker of Cleveland, Ohio, General H. M. Lord, Director of the United States Budget. It also has the indorsement of Mrs. Alfred J. Broseau, President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and of various other patriotic associations. Mrs. Ann Waldo Lord is President of the Association. Mrs. Lord is a member of Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, and is Corresponding Secretary General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

At a conference held in Washington, D. C., Oct. 27, attended by Cyrus H. K. Curtis, the well-known publisher and philanthropist, of Philadelphia, Hon. Charles R. Flint of New York City, who is nationally known as an organizer of industrial consolidation, and General and Mrs. Lord, Mr. Curtis signified his interest in the project by agreeing to lead the movement and certified to his great interest in the project with a payment of $50,000. This contribution of Mr. Curtis is but one of many donations he has made for patriotic and public purposes in which Maine, his native State, has been especially favored. Mr. Flint has agreed to perfect the organization and direct the campaign, which should assure its complete success.

Daughters of the American Revolution of Thomaston, to raise funds for an appropriate memorial to Major General Henry Knox, Washington's Chief of Artillery and the first Secretary of the War and Navy, these two military defense departments being one organization in the early days of the Republic. General Knox, after retiring from the post of Secretary of War, made his home in Thomaston, where he erected a stately mansion which he called Montpelier. Here he spent the balance of his life and is buried there in an humble grave.

A NEW FIRE WHISTLE

City Council Bought One Last Night—Talked of Wharves and Stations.

Rockland is to have her new fire whistle in connection with its complete new outside wire system. This was decided at last night's City Council meeting and brings a sense of relief to all tax payers. The immediate cause was the failure of the ancient bell system to get out sufficient call men at the early stages of the recent disastrous McLoon fire. It was necessary to dispatch automobiles to pick up the men and throw an extremely heavy burden on the few available shoulders. The installation will probably be the very generally used Gamewell Diaphone which has proven its reliability all over the country. The work will be begun at once.

In order to make its proposed improvements on the corner of Park and Union streets the Standard Oil Co. asked the removal of the existing waiting station of the street railway. The original order allowing the building to occupy a part of the public highway was read as passed in 1905 and stated that the structure should be moved when ordered by the city. The building was ordered moved and a committee appointed by the Mayor to confer with the Street Railway relative to a new location.

Some discussion developed over the matter of the extension to the Edward Bryant Co. wharf at the North-end. A hearing has already been held on the premises. The permit was finally granted to carry the dock out 250 feet instead of the desired 500. This carries the dock to the line of existing wharves.

Tax Collector Collins presented a very pleasing report on collections, showing a total of $26,777 for this month including back taxes on every year to 1914. Mayor Carver continued this cheering story with the word that there is $44,000 in the city till with all bills paid and moneys due from the State. City Marshal Webster reported but eight arrests the past month, six of these for intoxication and asked the appointment of Alden Ulmer, Jr., as special officer for Park Theatre, which was granted.

These jurors were chosen: Merwyn Plummer, W. H. Glendinning, Carol Boardman, Arthur Gray, Mrs. Gertrude Wooster, Harold L. Karl and S. W. Lawry.

The rooms were artistically decorated in the true Halloween spirit under the direction of Miss Ethel Jones, producing a truly eerie effect. This was heightened by the presence of a realistic and very efficient Mistress of the Cauldron who told fortunes so keenly that many of her patrons are still shivering. She was Mrs. Alice Babbidge. Music was furnished through the kindness of Miss Alcada Hall of Thomaston and an Orthophonic Victrola of the Maine Music Co. Vocal solos were rendered by Misses Arlene Kossuth and Pauline Hennigar of the Probationers. A solo dance was contributed by Little Ruth Russell.

The pleasure did not end with the dancing and program for a group of typical Halloween games had been arranged by Mrs. Molly Russell. The class in dietetics provided a delicious luncheon which it must be confessed was consumed with a total disregard for the ever threatening calorie. The entire successful affair was under the general chairmanship of Miss Gertrude Mathews, Superintendent of the Training School.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

RECESSIONAL
God of our fathers, known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle line—
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over pain and plague,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
The Captains and the Kings depart—
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

Far-called, our country marches on—
Our destinies and hopes are in its eyes—
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the Nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—
Such boasting as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the Law—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

For heathen hearts that put their trust
In rocking tube and iron shards,
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on thy people, Lord!
—Rudyard Kipling.

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
 Rockland, Maine, Nov. 2, 1926.
 Personally appeared Raymond Anderson, who on oath declares that he is pressman in the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of Oct. 30, 1926, there was printed a total of 6128 copies.
 Before me,
FRANK B. MILLER,
 Notary Public.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men.—Psalms 107:21.

It was inevitable that the Republicans of Maine would select a strong man for the U. S. Senatorial nomination yesterday. There were no others on the list to be voted for. Hon. Arthur R. Gould, who becomes the party's standard bearer, had the disadvantage of being not so well known as Gov. Baxter, his chief opponent, but all who did know him broadcast his success as a business man and the staunchness of his character. Another element which undoubtedly contributed to his nomination was the geographical character of the campaign. A great many voters were averse to having both senators come from Portland. Mr. Gould, as we read his biography, comes from the ranks, working upward to a commanding position in the business world by sheer determination and rugged ability.

When we behold in the local avenues of trade the activity surrounding that lowly article of domestic consumption the doughnut, our confidence is fortified in the conviction that the old New England spirit is in little danger of obliteration. We would not dare say that Rockland's daily output of doughnuts represents in figures, but with the bakeries producing them by machinery and expert cooks in many homes turning them out for commercial purposes the total must attain prodigious proportions. Our forbears knew the value of the doughnut. What a doughnut contained in calories they had no knowledge of, for calories hadn't yet been invented, but beginning with the times of Plymouth Rock the thrifty housewives learned to fortify the inner man with well-compounded doughnuts—fried in deep fat—and so contributed to the laying of those national foundations which it is not exaggeration to declare, so long as the doughnut persists in its full integrity, shall never be shaken. If we here seem to glance at a possible source of danger it is because in these days we have come to observe here and there a tendency on the part of economical hands to circumscribe its capabilities. There must be no withholding of well-balanced ingredients. A doughnut—and here we speak not without emotion—a doughnut, if it is to yield its last full measure of efficiency, must be sweet.

We do not designate our business neighbor as "Methodist" or "Congregationalist." Nor should we allude to him as "Jew." If we are to make proper use of the term as outlined by the anti-defamation league of E. N. Britch, which points out that the word "Jew" is a noun and never should be used as an adjective or a verb; that attention should not be called to the religion of a person committing a crime, or doing a praiseworthy act, because in neither case has his religion any bearing on the case; that the word "Jew" and the adjective "Jewish" are used properly in reference to the whole body of Israel, or to classes within the body; that there can be no objection to the use of either "Jew" or "Jewish" when contrast is being made with other religions; that the word "Hebrew" should not be used for "Jew." But it is going to be difficult for the world to observe the distinction. The "Jew" himself declines to do so.

Governor Fuller—he's made one of the best governors that Massachusetts ever had and we look to see him next week handsomely re-elected—declares it to be his ambition, when he retires from public office, to run a newspaper and teach a class in Sunday school. "In a newspaper," he declares, "I would show how we reap what we sow, in taxes, in the great conflicts between labor and capital. What a job you can do with a newspaper that is absolutely uncontrolled by advertising and led by a man of vision." And then he adds: "Then I would like to teach a Sunday school class of boys so that they could run for public office and take the place of those I exposed in my newspaper." Ambition could scarcely soar higher and it is characteristic of the man who has so ably directed the affairs of the great commonwealth.

Everything that modern astronomy makes possible was utilized in an attempt to get some word from Mars, which this week was so fortunate as to find herself at her nearest point of approach to the Earth, but nothing came of it. The scientists are able to assure us that if life does exist on the red planet it must differ widely from life with us, and with that conclusion we must content ourselves until later progress of science opens more definitely those remote and now impenetrable regions of space.

ONE TOUCHDOWN ENOUGH

Rockland High Boys Again Cover Themselves With Glory, This Time At the Expense of Bath.

Rockland High School defeated Morse High at Bath Saturday by a score of 6 to 0. The game was a very interesting one to watch, with clever plays being made on both sides. Trafton was the outstanding star of the game, thrilling the crowd with many runs, ranging from 8 to 25 yards. Morse never got beyond Rockland's 30-yard line.

Several times Rockland was within scoring distance, but the Morse line held. There were not as many forward passes as were expected. Rockland trying five and completing two and had one intercepted, while Morse tried four, completed one and had one intercepted. The longest run of the day was made by Jud Flanagan, who intercepted a Morse forward pass on the 50-yard line, and ran it back to Morse's 19-yard strip.

The game started with Morse receiving, but after making one first down it was forced to punt to Rockland's 25-yard line. Rockland made one first down and kicked to Morse's 30-yard line. Morse was unable to gain and kicked. Rockland now started an advance which resulted in a touchdown. Trafton went around right end for 11 yards, to Rockland's 40-yard line. Knights and Frye made another first down on line plunges, then Knights and Trafton made 15 yards between them on an end run and an off tackle smash, which brought the ball to Morse's 30-yard line and the period ended.

At the beginning of the second period Rockland began its relentless attack. A pass from Trafton to Knights netted 15 yards and Frye and Knights brought the ball to the 3-yard line by powerful line bucks. Trafton took the ball over for the only touchdown of the game. Trafton missed the try for the extra point. Morse again received, but after making two first downs Rockland held and Morse punted. Most of this period was played in Morse territory with the Morse defense working good. The half ended with the ball in Morse's possession on her own 35-yard line.

The last half opened with Rockland receiving. Rockland made a first down and then kicked to Morse's 40-yard line. Here Morse showed her best work. Line plunges by Doyle and Oliver and short end runs by Hagan netted Morse three first downs, but she was held for downs on Rockland's 30-yard line. That was the nearest Morse came to scoring. Rockland then on line plunges and a long end run by Trafton carried the ball to midfield but was held there and Rockland kicked to Morse's 15-yard line. The period ended with the ball in Morse's possession.

The last period was the best of all. Morse tried line plunges and end runs and succeeded in pushing the ball to her 35-yard line, where a long pass was tried. This was intercepted by Jud Flanagan on the 50-yard line and he was not downed until he reached Morse's 19-yard line. On several line plunges by Knights and Frye the ball was carried to Morse's 3-yard line but someone fumbled and Morse recovered. Morse kicked to midfield and the game ended when Rockland was beginning another advance.

The outstanding players on the offense for Rockland were Trafton and Knights, and for Morse, Doyle and Hagan. Doyle was quite badly hurt in the third period, but insisted on playing. Bird, Pease and Hoxie played well on the defense for Rockland while Mitchell, Decker and Leyden played well for Morse. The summary:

This will be the hardest week of practice of the year in preparation for the big game Friday, when Winslow High opposes Rockland High. Winslow High, it must be remembered, has not had its goal line crossed by a High School team for three years, and its schedule has included some of the best teams in the State, such as Biddeford, Cony High of Augusta, Skowhegan, Saco, etc. The first of this year Winslow beat Camden H., 8, 24 to 0, and at that they played with a great many second stringers.

Yesterday's practice was a light one, consisting of signal practice and kicking. Coach Jones pointed out some of the faults made in the Morse game. The team was very fortunate in not receiving any injuries. Tonight's practice will be a scrimmage and new plays will be tried out.

Maine Football Championship To Be Decided In Brunswick Saturday.

The Maine football championship rests upon next Saturday's result at Brunswick where the two undefeated leaders will lock horns. Maine looms a conspicuous favorite on account of its 32 to 0 victory over Bates; on the other hand Bowdoin made a slightly better showing against Colby than Maine did. An attendance of close to 10,000 is expected.

Bowdoin won from Bates in Lewiston Saturday, 13 to 7. In the presence of one of the biggest football crowds that ever saw a game in Lewiston, Bowdoin's victory was largely due to the work of one man, Farrington, who scored its only touchdown. Kicked the goal following it, and also scored two goals from the field. Bates did not fully wake up until the last few moments when it started a march for the goal line and with forward passes from White to Erickson and good running by Erickson

Oliver F. Hills of The Courier-Gazette staff is now domiciled in his handsome new Dutch Colonial residence which is numbered 119 Summer street. The residence was built by Ervin Curtis, and while it still lacks many of the finishing touches, is already proving itself an ideal home. The flat at the corner of Masonic and High streets, which Mr. Hills vacates is to be occupied by F. L. Newbert, now a tenant of the flat on the second floor of the same building.

In passing the community store on James street, one's attention is called to the bulletin board which stands outside the door. It is unique in that the drawings are different nearly every day. One day a house may be seen in the distance, with a woman nearby calling to a young son, "Be sure and go to Hall's." Another day, two small youngsters standing in the foreground, after scanning the enumerated articles to be found inside, exclaim in aggrieved tones, "Don't see no candy here." The drawings are the work of the proprietors, Victor Hall, and displays the artistic skill of which he is capable and they are very realistic, too.

LANGILL—TWADELL

Miss Maymie Twaddell and Frank Langill, both of Dorchester, Mass., were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. John Dunstan. The single ring ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family. Mrs. Langill is the daughter of Mrs. Isabel Twaddell, Limebrook street. For the past year she has been residing in Dorchester. The couple left soon after the ceremony, by motor, for Boston where they will spend their honeymoon. They leave soon for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will make their home this winter.

Armstrong and North averted fatal results, but it will be a matter of days before Miss Callahan can be considered out of danger. She was resting comfortably last night.

THE SEASON'S SMOKERS AT AMERICAN

Legion hall have their beginning Thursday night, when Winslow-Holbrook Post is so fortunate as to have for a speaker, the new national vice commander, Dr. John G. Towne of Waterville. The Central Maine Power Co.'s orchestra will furnish music, and there will be a number of banjo specialties. The boys will serve clam chowder.

Miss Frances Patricia Flanagan of this city and Eugene C. Rich of New York were married Saturday noon at the New Weston Hotel, New York city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few close friends and relatives, simplicity being the keynote. Both of the young people are well known here. Mrs. Rich is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Flanagan, Willow street, and is one of Rockland's most popular girls.

Programs for Children's Book Week for the last few years have included at least one entertainment, by the children from which have been used for purchasing new books for the children's room. This year it has not seemed feasible to devote the time necessary to staging a children's book play, yet the constant increase in the use of the library by the children makes it necessary to secure larger book funds at once. Therefore on Monday and Tuesday of next week through the courtesy of Manager Dondis of Strand Theatre the Public Library will sponsor the moving picture "Rocking Moon," a dramatization of the well known Alaskan novel of this same name, written in 1925 by Barrett C. Houghty. Although this is not primarily a juvenile picture it is one which it is believed will prove interesting to children and adults. The book from which the story was taken has received highly commendable reviews, and has been in constant demand at the library. The picture has been selected book films issued by the National Better Films Council Board of Review in co-operating with the National Association of Book Publishers for Book Week. The tickets are to be sold by the children and the entire library profits will go toward purchasing the much needed new books for the children's library. Attention is called to the fact that the library benefits only on those tickets sold by the children and not on those purchased at the box office.

A public supper will be served in the parish room of St. Peter's Church Tuesday night; price 35 cents.—adv. 130-131

CANNED FOODS WEEK IS COMING

In the United States there are between 300,000 and 400,000 retail stores selling groceries and other foods—the exact number is not known because there has never been a retail census. Surveys made by newspapers in co-operation with other agencies in 81 large cities, have shown that there are about five stores selling groceries and other foods to every one thousand of population. The Retail Research Association is authority for the statement that the amount spent every year in this country on retail purchases is about $35,000,000,000 and of this about 44 percent or $15,300,000,000 goes for food.

Because food figures so largely in the country's purchases and because food retailers so far outnumber other classes of dealers, there is bound to be unusual interest in the country-wide observance of Canned Foods Week, which begins on November 10. Months have been spent in preparation for the event. Five hundred local committees representing the brokers, jobbers, retailers, and others connected with the food trade, are working under the direction of a National Committee on which are representatives of six national trade associations, formed by canned food producers, supply firms and distributors. The movement is unique in that it brings together every element in the production and merchandising of products that have become an every-day necessity in millions of America's homes.

Six hundred thousand posters in grocery windows, from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Northern border to the Gulf, will appear on November 10 to announce that Canned Foods Week is here, and that it is time to return to the custom of earlier years and "Stock Your Pantry."

Changes in habits and customs come about so easily and often so quietly that few people of the present generation realize the difference between "now" and "then" in the way the nation is supplied with food. Improvement in transportation facilities, plus advances in the methods of food preservation have completely altered both production and distribution methods. As a result, a greater variety of foods are available, and most of them can be had the year round.

PLEASANT POINT

Leslie O. Young of this place has in his possession a newspaper called the "Eastport Sentinel" which was printed 104 years ago, and contains the following items:

"Married at Fort Nelson on the 19th day of October, 1822—Jesse Berrie of the United States Army, to Miss Susan Rose.

A blushing Rose as sweet and fair,
In all its beauty caught my eye,
And in its place a berry grew.
On the marriage of Mr. Mudd:
Let's wife we read of in days of old,
For one rebellious hair,
Was changed as we at playfully told,
Into a lump of salt.
The same propensity for change,
Still runs in female blood,
For here you find a case as strange
A maiden turned to Mudd."

The following verses were composed by Mrs. Grace Maloney and read by her at the meeting of Pleasant Point Improvement Society Friday evening of last week:

Pleasant Point is a very small place,
Yet on the map you will find it,
The prettiest place in all the town,
And no one can deny it.
The lower end of the town
Years ago was called "The Gut."
The one that gave it such a name
Must surely have been a nut.
We've a good view of the islands,
The nearest of which is Gay's,
And many times we're wondered
Why to there is such a craze.
The scenery is most delightful,
Our harbors are of the best,
And here the summer people
Love to come for joyous rest.

When the sun sets in the Western sky
We watch the vessels sailing by,
Their white sails filling, ready for sea,
And we wonder what their end will be.
Often we're asked the question
What in winter we find to do,
To which I give the answer,
There's plenty of work to do!

The people here are honest,
Sunny, ambitious and kind;
They tend to their daily labors
And their own business mind!
We have no moving pictures,
No church, nor even a hall,
Yet we have one little schoolhouse
Which we can use for all.

Sometimes we're apt to envy
Those who live in the city,
And think if we could live there
Most anything we'd give.
Yet if we knew their struggles,
The hard work of each day,
To keep their home a going
And all their bills to pay,
We never more would murmur,
Or from here want to roam.
We would all be more contented,
And love Pleasant Point—our home!

WHEELER'S BAY

Wednesday night marked the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rackliffe. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rackliffe (Susan Elwell) were born and brought up and have always lived within a short distance of their present home. Being people held in high esteem friends and relatives felt that such an occasion should be observed so Wednesday night 32 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rackliffe's oldest son, Eugene and gave them the most delightful surprise party. Four of their children and 11 of their 14 grandchildren were present. Four kinds of ice cream and cake were served. Relatives presented them with a beautiful leather upholstered easy chair, a smoking set, a dozen linen napkins and other pleasing gifts. Melzer Studley of Thomaston gave them a genuine buffalo robe, a gift as pleasing as it was rare. The fortunate couple have the good wishes of a host of friends also who hope that their remaining years may be filled only with golden light and happy memories of their golden wedding day.

Colds are quite the vogue at this time and persons not being thus afflicted are in luck.

Looks very much like old winter would soon howl. Not a cheerful thought.

Radio conditions up to Wednesday were all one could ask for, something good whenever one tuned in often and at all hours.

No school last Wednesday afternoon, just an old time rural district complaint—the stove fell down in the night.

A jolly good time was recently received at this station from Albin B. Crocker, "Boze" of Boston, and was read and enjoyed by the crowd. We search the Courier-Gazette for his letters and read them with interest. Letter writing is a hard task for some and very easy for others. We enjoy reading letters and those finding time dragging on their hands, just sit down and write us a line. We're always glad to get a word.

LADIES!

Don't wave your hair daily—or even every week. Here's a way to keep it away for days at a time. BEFORE you use your iron, or curlers, DAMPEN the hair with DANDERINE. Just a few DROPS on comb or towel. Your locks will then behave for a MONTH! Of course, you know what Danderine does to dandruff; dissolves every speck, within five minutes of rubbing into the scalp. But as a wave-preserver on the hair itself, Danderine is a JOY. The best dressing in the world because it doesn't show. Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

Cross, Feverish Child is Bilious or Constipated

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Fig Syrup," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless, "Fruity Laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

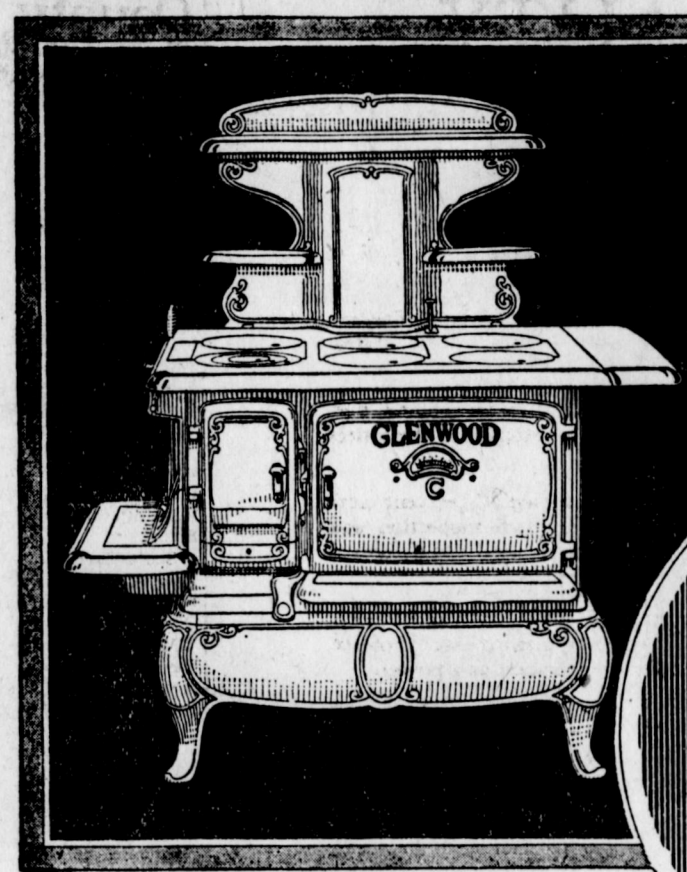

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, sold by "California Fig Syrup Company."

The Famous Model "C" Glenwood

"It's a Glenwood" that's all the guarantee you need

THE one word "Glenwood" on the oven door of any range you may buy is a guarantee in itself. You don't need any further assurance of its worth. One of the oldest range manufacturers in New England stands back of that name to see that the range gives you the kind of service you have the right to expect. You can take that for granted, always.

The "C" model coal range shown here is just the right size for the average family. Its big, square oven bakes food exactly right—top, bottom and all through. It has six covers in the cooking top and is finished in either black and nickel or in pearl gray porcelain enamel that you can wipe clean in a jiffy with a damp cloth. Here's to the State of Maine,
With bearing salt-sea air;
Her rugged rock-bound coast,
And good harbors here and there.

Dear old State of Maine
Has many a pleasant Isle;
Where city folks in the summer time
Make their homes for a while.

Three cheers for the State of Maine,
Hip! hip! hurrah!
With bearing salt-sea air;
For her snugly sheltered cove,
Her sand beach and her bar.

Welcome to State of Maine,
With pine trees stately and tall;
You'll find the lighthouse always out,
A greeting for one and all.

Come to the State of Maine,
Oh! do not longer roam;
In a shady nook by the river side,
There make your summer home.

Mrs. Lillian Wentworth died Friday, Oct. 29, at the home of her son, Charles D. Wentworth, in Augusta, where she had come one or two weeks ago to spend the winter. Her death followed, a few days' illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Wentworth was born in Rockport and was the daughter of the late Capt. Edmund and Hannah Robinson. She has always resided in her native town, where she was well known and her sudden death was a great shock to her many friends in this vicinity. She is survived by her husband, Reuben Wentworth, of Sullivan, Snug Harbor, Staten Island, N. Y.; a son, Charles D. Wentworth, of Augusta; and a granddaughter, Miss Florence Wentworth; a brother, Walter Robinson of Rockport also survives her. Remains were brought here and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late residence on Pleasant street, Rev. B. P. Browne of the First Baptist Church, Rockland, officiating. Interment was in Sea View cemetery. The bearers were Chester P. Wentworth, William Crockett, Enoch E. Ingraham and Edwin H. Bowers.

There are the usual short subjects. "If you knew the mystery ending of 'You'd Be Surprised,' which will be shown at the Park Theatre on Wednesday-Thursday you'd be very much surprised! However, the management is requesting all patrons who see this rattling good comedy-mystery, starring Raymond Griffith, not to divulge its end to their friends. This is being done because the story is so thrilling, and the mystery so perfect, that it adds greatly to the interest of theatre-goers not to know what the final outcome will be. As a favor to your friends, when you see 'You'd Be Surprised,' keep the solution a secret. Incidentally, never has the high-rated comedian, who already has such successes as 'Forty Winks,' 'A Regular Fellow,' and 'Hands Up' to his credit, been as funny as he is in this Paramount picture, marking, as it does, a new departure for him. Griffith calls 'You'd Be Surprised' a comedy-mystery—adv.

PARK THEATRE

Today will be the last opportunity to see "Young April" with all its star cast. In addition there is the eighth chapter of "Snowed In." The double feature program for Wednesday and Thursday, is "Pals in Paradise," Marguerite De La Motte and John Bowers and "When The Wife's Away" with George Arthur and Dorothy Revier.

Peter B. Kyne has given a new twist to the story of a mining camp in "Pals in Paradise." The locale is in California and has to do with a 1926 gold rush. Automobiles take the place of the traditional donkeys heretofore part of every screen play dealing with a gold mining community. The town of Paradise is modern in every respect. Telephones, electric lights and high-powered automobiles are conspicuous in this up-to-date boom hamlet.

"When The Wife's Away," shows George K. Arthur, as the young husband who tumbles into a heap of trouble, seems to have been there in reality, so naturally does he grieve over his celluloid woes. This is equally true of Dorothy Revier, who plays the part of the wife—adv.

Adolphe Menjou, that ace of actors, is at this theatre in a film version of Michael Arlen's "The Ace of Cads." Menjou portrays "Beau" Maturin as no other player could possibly do it. The dissolute young Guards lieutenant who reforms for love of a woman, is betrayed by a false friend, loses her and comes back twenty years later only to kill a second love so that the first may live—becomes an intensely real person in Menjou's skillful hands.

There are the usual short subjects. "If you knew the mystery ending of 'You'd Be Surprised,' which will be shown at the Park Theatre on Wednesday-Thursday you'd be very much surprised! However, the management is requesting all patrons who see this rattling good comedy-mystery, starring Raymond Griffith, not to divulge its end to their friends. STRAND THEATRE

"The Honey-moon Express" with an all star cast headed by Irene Rich and Virginia Lee Corbin is now showing.

Dainty Elinor Fair, a new Cecil B. DeMille star, who achieved national screen prominence by her portrayal of the role of Princess Vera in "The Volga Boatman," plays opposite Rod La Roque in "Bachelor Brides," which will be here Wednesday and Thursday. This is a mystery comedy drama, the scenes of which are laid in a Scottish castle on a stormy night. Percy Ashfield, a young English lord, is wed Mary Bowing, daughter of an American butler and egg millionaire, the role portrayed by Miss Fair. A number of crooks seek to steal the wedding presents as well as a pearl necklace of great value destined for the bride. Percy gets into hot water when Pansy, a young woman (Julia Faye) forces her way into the castle and announces that he is her husband and the father of her child. But when Percy's languid wife is brought into play, interesting things occur. How he proves himself worthy of the girl he loves, is delightfully pictured in a series of thrilling and humorous scenes.

Philbrook, John Welch and Elmer Smallwood have returned from a successful trip into the woods in spite of very hard hunting conditions. Their efforts were rewarded with six animals, each of which would have become a 10-point buck could he have had his growth.

John G. Snow, Frank Trafton and Harold Coombs have returned from a week's hunting trip with some wild tales and what is more important, a deer apiece.

There will be an auction party at the G. A. R. hall this Tuesday night, given by the Sons of the Union Veterans Auxiliary. Mrs. Evie Perry hostess.

Miss Marian Starrett motored to Kents Hill Sunday.

Mrs. Willard Fales of Brewer is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Seavey, while Mr. Fales is on a gunning trip in the northern woods.

Mrs. Ella Grimes sailed Saturday from New York on the Cunard Line steamer Carmania for London, where she will remain for a month or so before going to Southern France for the winter. She will probably select Mentone as her winter's abiding place.

Bernice, Mertie, Hugh and Lois Lindsay gave a Halloween party Saturday afternoon at 15 Laurel street. There were present Dorothy and Ruth Witham, Madeline Coffey, Elizabeth Moon, Vivian Crockett, Dorothy and Herman Peavey, Winona Frost, Irene Louridine, Ruth Backhoff, Marion Marshall, Barbara Orr, Harbath, Griffin, Doris and Donald Borgerson, Hazel Vasso, Mrs. Florence Crockett assisted Mrs. Fred C. Lindsay, Jr., entertaining the little folks who spent a very delightful afternoon.

Saturday evening Mary and Edward Sullivan at 32 Berkley street gave a Halloween party which proved a very enjoyable affair for the 14 youngsters. It was started by a peanut hunt, and the prize went to Louise Moulaison, who found 49 peanuts. The youngsters then lighted their jack-o-lanterns and went to visit neighbors. On returning to the house they took their places at the table, which was decorated very prettily in orange and black crepe paper. The refreshments consisted of a large cake decorated with assorted lollipops, peanuts, jelly beans and candy kisses and lemonade. Apple bobbing was followed by an enjoyable game of darts. The grab bag, to the kiddies' surprise was a huge pie made from orange and black crepe paper. Spin the cover closed the evening's fun. Costumes and hats were very pretty in orange and black, with "jacks" to match. Those present were Frances and Hester Hatch, Louise Moulaison, Louise Smith, Marion Harvey, Ruth McLellan, Rosey Malburg, Alfred Chapman, Norman Johnson, George McKenney, Mary, Edward and Richard Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swett of Portland are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. May, High street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. MacWilliams of 27 Court street have returned from a very pleasant two months' visit in Easton, Penn., the home of Mrs. MacWilliams. They visited the Sesqui-Centennial in Philadelphia, and many other points of interest in the surrounding territory. They were accompanied home by Miss Florence Ashmore of Easton, who will remain with them two weeks.

Members of the Wight Philharmonic Society are reminded to take both Elijah and the Creation to rehearsal Thursday evening.

The Methuen Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Mattie Little, Broadway. Mrs. E. M. Lawrence favored the club with an extremely interesting talk. Her charming manner and ease of delivery added greatly to her chosen topic, the "American Tropics." Florida was the "American Tropics." Florida was a tropic, nevertheless, because of its climate and produce. The Gulf Stream was the reason. She spoke of the terrible hurricane which recently swept across Florida at the rate of 120 miles an hour and lasted about 17 hours, but that above Ft. Lauderdale the appearance was no worse than here at the present time with the foliage gone. Trees that were so easily uprooted due to the coral formation of soil, have been reinstated. She spoke of the 21 varieties of luxuriant fruit; among them she mentioned the Sapodilla, the fruit of which is like custard. The wood is the hardest known, and of this she would endeavor to have made a gavel for the President, which she could guarantee would never wear out. It is from this sap the chicle is obtained used for the chicle gum. The alligator pear, richest in protein, and equal to a pound of beefsteak, retails in Florida for 25 cents, but in New York for 75 cents and $1. All the fruits have a peculiar taste, due to oil, to which one must become accustomed. Then there is the real banana plant that thrives on dishwater. She spoke of constant family strife arising from her great desire to plant everything given her. The climax came with a flat refusal for her to plant more, consequently the beloved tuber slip was thrown out when they left Florida in April. Thanksgiving Day, when they returned, three sides of their house were enveloped in vines, that came from no one knew where. It developed that it was the discarded tuber-slip, and it was removed at once, due to dampness, though it was later admitted had it been left it would have protected their house during the recent storm. What was once a tangle wood has developed into a beautiful country. With its hundred varieties of palms, 2600 varieties of plants, of which more than half grow nowhere else in the United States, she summed it up as a great out-of-door conservatory. The program was very interesting. "Necaragua—Past, Present, Future," Mrs. Lenora Cooper; "Costa Rica—The Gem of the American Republic," prepared by Mrs. Emma Shaw, but delivered by Mrs. Blodgett in the absence of Mrs. Shaw; "The Republic of Haiti," by Mrs. Harriet Knowles. This was especially interesting as a great deal of it was first-hand information and accompanied by numerous souvenirs of Haiti. The next meeting will be with Miss Caroline Stanley, North Main street, Nov. 12.

JUICE TURNED ON

Power From Gulf Island Plant 12 Weeks Ahead of Schedule.

The first power to be generated at Central Maine Power Company's hydro-electric development at Gulf Island, Lewiston, was transmitted over the lines, Oct. 25, 12 weeks ahead of schedule, it was stated by W. S. Wymah, president of the company. Only one of the three 9,000 h. p. units are completely installed, but it is expected that the remaining two will be in operation shortly.

The initial output was approximately 4,000 horsepower and was obtained through taking advantage of the water that has already been stored in the artificial lake now being created above the dam. This lake when completely filled will extend back about ten miles and will be about a mile wide at its widest point. The upper five feet of the pond will hold about one billion cubic feet of water, which means that the plant can run nearly all day although no water were running in. This is a big advantage as compared with the plants that have mill ponds. At times of low water the flow of the river is apt to vary a good deal due to unequal use that is made of it by the plants above, so a storage sufficient to tide over a few hours shortage of water is of immense value in maintaining continuous service.

Work at Gulf Island in general is speedily nearing completion. Practically all flowage has been cleared, grading around the site is being done and the preliminary work on erecting a house for operatives has commenced. The sound of the drill and the hoist, the chug, chug, chug of the concrete-laden trains and the hustle and bustle that goes with a big construction job of this kind is now giving way to the ripping and tearing of forms, long since served their purpose, as time goes, on a well-manuevered job.

Within the next month or two the job will be pronounced finished for the winter and another Maine water power will have been put to work, where but yesterday, it seems, the water had flowed idly to the sea, of no particular use to anyone. In the early summer of 1927 the grading and landscape work will be completed and the finishing touches put on the work.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Rev. Mr. Leigh Suggests Brewster For That Office and Endorses Buzzell.

Gov. Brewster should be the next Vice President of the United States, so Rev. A. F. Leigh of Randolph declared in an address at a public meeting of the Ku Klux Klan in Skowhegan Monday night.

Mr. Leigh, who substituted for DeForest H. Perkins of Portland, Grand Dragon, unable to attend because of an agreement elsewhere, spoke enthusiastically of the achievements of Gov. Brewster, and in referring to the contest for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, he expressed a preference for Hodgdon C. Buzzell of Belfast, although he asserted that Klan members would vote as individuals and to suit themselves.

The speaker said that he would discuss the political situation at the request of the Grand Dragon, and he praised former Gov. Baxter's fine qualities, calling him the father of the proposed sectarian amendment to the State Constitution. He said, however, that he objected to sending another millionaire to the Senate, and added that Mr. Baxter favored the World Court.

Mr. Leigh was opposed to Arthur R. Gould of Presque Isle as a candidate, asserting he was another millionaire, and said he thought Louis A. Jack of Lisbon had no show of winning the nomination, although he was an "idealistic, clean, and fine and a working man."

Discussing the Klan in general Mr. Leigh declared that it is the instrument of Jesus to bring a revival of Protestantism, but he praised the fidelity of the Catholics to their church.

Rev. Mr. Leigh will be remembered in Knox County as a former Rockport pastor.

THE APPLE MARKET

Macintosh Red The Only Apple That Cleans Up From Day To Day.

Boston, Oct. 28. — There is nothing new and fresh in the apple market this last week. Trade is very dull and it is about impossible to keep cleaned up from day to day, except on Macintosh. They will sell at a fair price, although the average is lower than a week ago, and still a few fancy exceed quotations. Baldwins are coming a lot more freely, and most of the hand picked are only medium size. The general price is 75c to $1 a box, a few exceptionally large Baldwins $1.10 to $1.25. Drops sell hard, mostly at 50c to 75c. Barrels, hand picked, mostly $2.25 to $2.75, a few A grade up to $3. Wolf Rives mostly $2.25 to $3.50 with very few higher.

Turnips are steady, and potatoes still strong.

DECLARED DIVIDENDS

Preferred and Common Stockholders Get a "Drag" From Maine Central

The directors of the Maine Central Railroad Company at their meeting in Portland Friday declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1.25 a share on the preferred stock of the company, payable Dec. 1, 1926, to holders of preferred stock of record Nov. 15, 1926, and also a dividend of one dollar a share on the common stock of the company, payable Dec. 15, 1926, to holders of common stock of record Dec. 1, 1926.

The dividends declared during 1926 on the common stock of the company amount to $2 a share. President McDonald stated that knowing definitely the result of operations for the first nine months of the year and having a forecast of the result for October, November and December, the payment of a dividend at this time is warranted by the cash position of the company and that further dividends would be paid as when conditions make such payments possible.

Friday's action of the Maine Central directors in declaring another dividend of $1 had been expected, due to the road's remarkable earning power the last few months. Earnings of more than $8 a share on the common stock in 1926 will be approximated, if not surpassed this year, it is believed.

MUCH AT STAKE

Today's Elections Will Have Vital Affect On Presidential Aspirations.

The bearing or influence today's elections will have on the next Presidential campaign may be very considerable, writes Charles S. Groves, Washington correspondent of the Boston Globe. In New York, Maryland, Ohio, Missouri and elsewhere the returns on Tuesday may spell oblivion to Presidential aspirations or bring into the political limelight two or three potential candidates for the nomination of either party two years hence. The national election of 1928 is in the immediate background in several States.

Senator Wadsworth in New York has been frequently mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for President when the time comes. His defeat for reelection to the United States Senate would probably injure his chance for the great prize irrevocably. Wadsworth is a relatively young man who has made a place for himself in the Senate and who is recognized as one of the leaders of the Republican party in his own State. He might go far if reelected; if he is defeated a promising political career will, in all likelihood, be brought to a close.

Gov. "Al" Smith, a central figure in the stormy Madison Square Garden convention two years ago, and still the idol of a large element in his party, is playing for as great a stake running for Governor of New York this year as Senator Wadsworth. If defeated, Gov. Smith drops back in the race for the grand prize. If again elected to the Governorship of the Empire State he cannot be overlooked as a possible Presidential nominee in 1928.

In Ohio Senator Pomerene is struggling for the Senate with the Presidency as his objective. If he wins he will at once regain the place he held as a national figure in the Democracy and his past record in the Senate, and his activity as special counsel in the famous oil lease cases would reestablish his political prestige. He is geographically right.

The Republicans in Ohio also are grooming a Presidential candidate. Representative Longworth, Speaker of the House, is not without an ambition to follow in the footsteps of his distinguished father-in-law, the late Theodore Roosevelt. Unlike Senator Pomerene, the Speaker has no fight on his hands for reelection. He will be returned as a matter of course and from the presiding officer's desk in the lower branch of Congress will be able to survey at close range the trend of politics during the next 18 months.

In a glance at the Ohio politics of the moment the observer cannot well overlook Gov. Vic Donahey as a possible selection for the leadership of the Democratic party in 1928. He has twice carried Ohio for Governor and there seems to be little doubt that he will do it again. In fact, he may win by so large a majority that he will carry Pomerene with him.

Across the line in Indiana Presidential politics are discernable in the contest for the two Senatorial seats. Senator "Jim" Watson and his colleague, Senator Robinson, are the Republican candidates. How hard the Republican party in the State has been hit by the Klan exposures no one can accurately estimate. It is believed Watson will be reelected and that Robinson also will pull through, although the latter has the harder fight on account of the character of his opponent.

The Democrats have nominated Evans Woolen for the short term against Senator Robinson and Mr. Woolen is regarded as a much stronger candidate than the Democratic nominee running against Watson.

"Jim" Watson may still have aspirations for the Presidency. His main purpose, however, is to be reelected to the Senate and, this accomplished, he can sit tight and wait whatever fate the future may hold.

Senator Reed of Missouri stands pretty much on his own feet, but the election of Harry Hawes, the Democratic Senatorial candidate against Senator Williams, would greatly strengthen Senator Reed with the rank and file of the Democracy.

Senator Reed has developed into a powerful figure in the Senate, chiefly because of his quick wit and skill in debate and his great oratorical ability. The political future of Gov. Ritchie of Maryland is tied up with this election. He is again a candidate for Governor and his success seems assured. In the Democratic convention two years ago he was one of the "favorite sons" for whom various State delegations, from Alabama down the alphabetical list, voted with monotonous regularity.

HOUDINI IS DEAD

World Famous Magician Was a Victim of Appendicitis.

Harry Houdini, the magician, died Saturday. The noted escape artist, whose adeptness at freeing himself from straight-jackets, chains and cells, mystified audiences in all parts of the world, died after a second surgical attempt had been made to save his life from the effects of peritonitis.

Houdini was operated upon a week ago for appendicitis.

Although it was known the magician was ill when he arrived in Detroit, the seriousness of his condition was not learned until he collapsed at the end of his opening performance.

Houdini was born in Appleton, Wis., April 6, 1874, the son of Rabbi Mayer Samuel Weiss.

Houdini came before the American public as an exposé of frauds perpetrated by so-called spirit mediums. He held that the phenomena produced by professed mediums of various kinds, hypnotists, mesmerists and fakirs were all spurious. He exposed hundreds of professional mediums and offered $10,000 to any medium who could produce phenomena which he could not reproduce by relying solely upon his muscular strength and agility, his physical endurance and his knowledge of mechanics. He never was called to pay the reward.

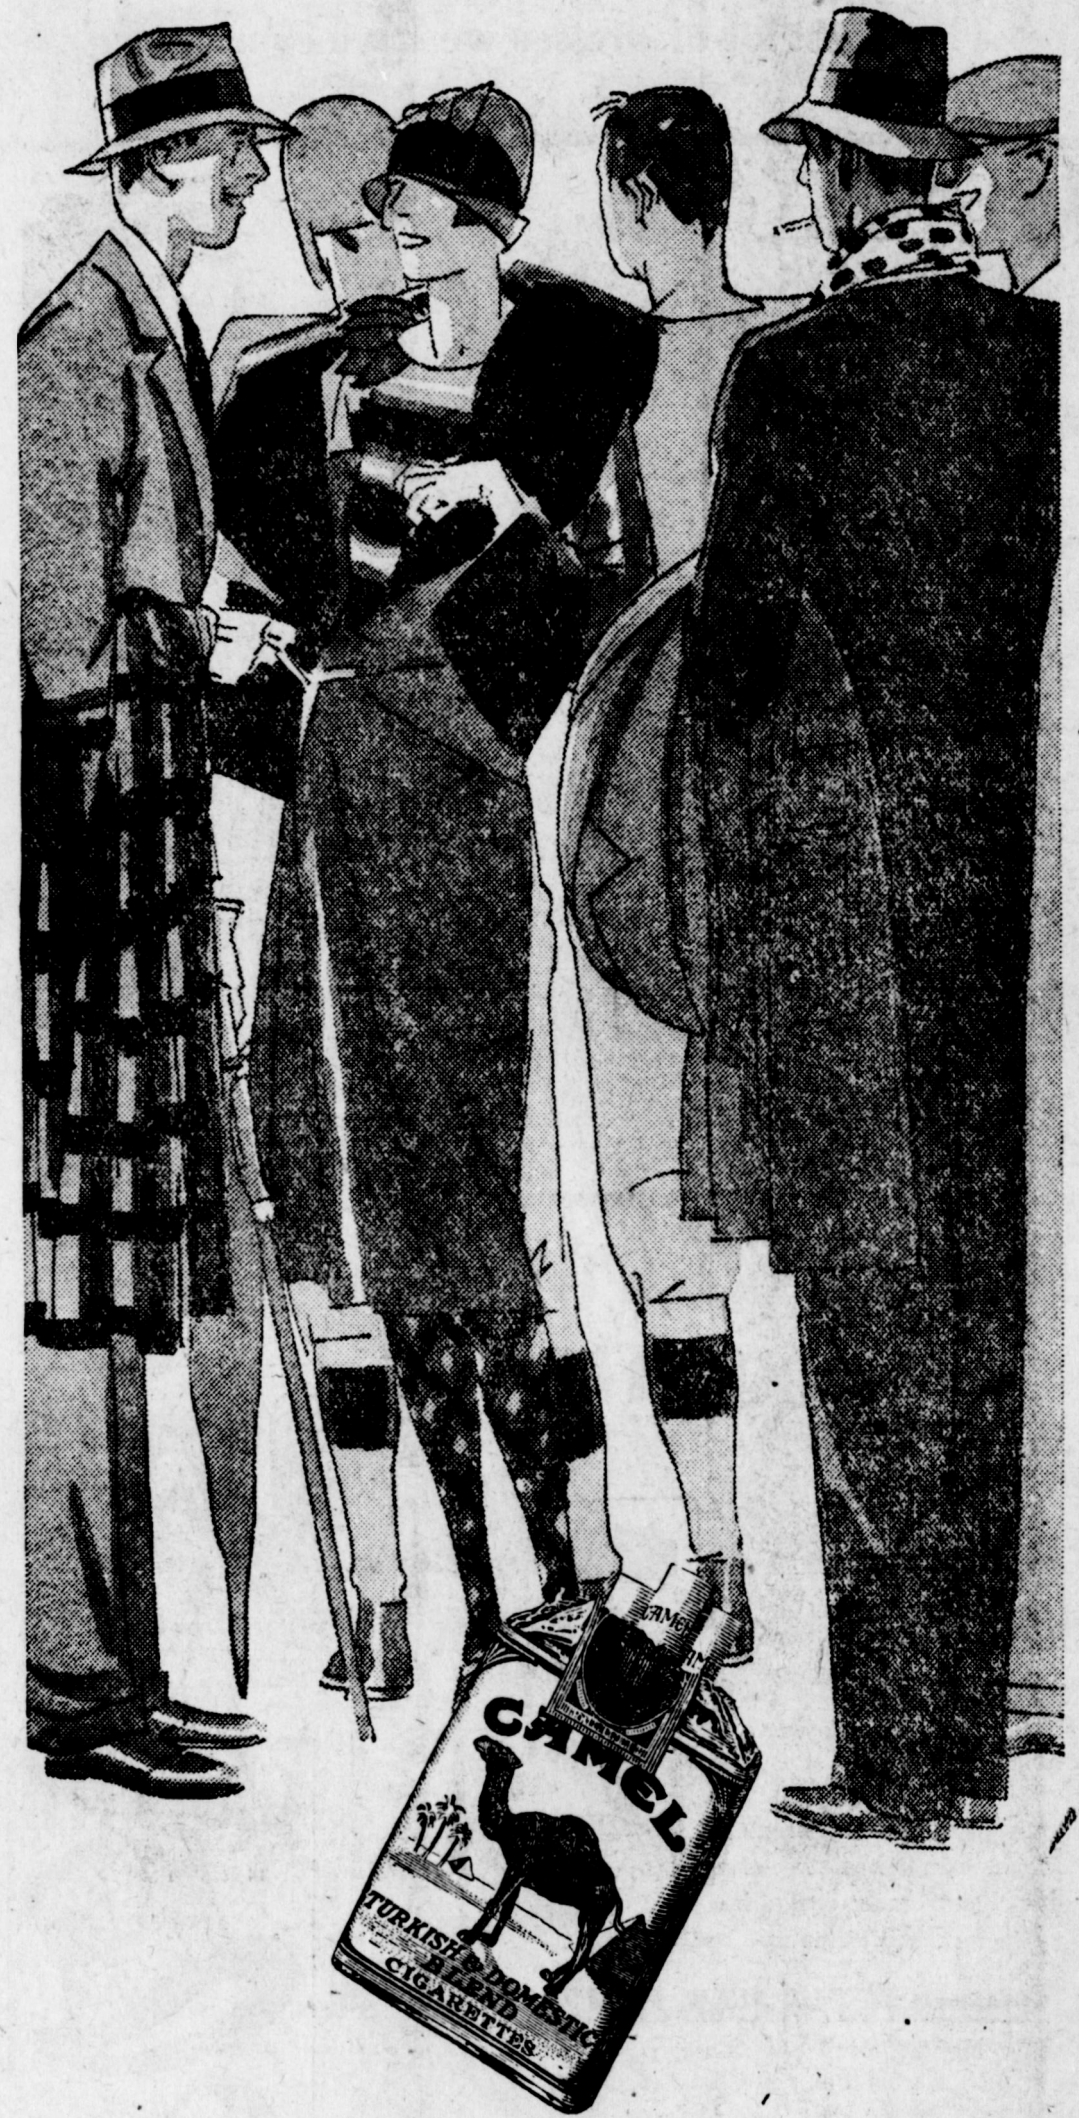

TO SELL AT AUCTION

Sale of the three-masted schooner Cherie and destruction of her cargo of 330 cases of choice liquors seized off Swan's Island July 21, 1925, were ordered Thursday by Judge Clarence

Dale. The seizure was the first of that nature made off the Maine coast. The schooner will be sold at auction Nov. 10 at Wintport where she has been tied up with a keeper in charge. The orders for the destruction of the cargo which is stored at Belfast allow any government agency to apply for an allotment. It is probable that some of it will go to the National Soldier's Home at Togus for medicinal purposes.
