

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 26.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE. Topic—The snare of worldliness.—John xv, 17; Matt. vi, 19-24.

As the result of the coming of sin into the world we live in a world of two kingdoms—the kingdom of God, to which the people of God belong, and the kingdom of the devil belong.

Worldliness promises what it cannot pay. To His disciples Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you."

The Christian who refuses to be ensnared by the world will be hated by it. But that matters nothing. The world hated Christ and crucified Him.

Life in this world is but temporary; that beyond is eternal. How foolish in any one to sacrifice eternity for a few years of this world.

True peace is when the soul revolves around its center, Almighty God, craving for nothing but what God continually supplies.

Broad Enough to Embrace All. The Lutheran Evangelist declares that it "is for the unifying of all young people's church organizations under the banner of Christian Endeavor."

A Lookout Committee Acrostic. Yoke together for a pull together. Persuade the indifferent to come to the meetings.

Mutual Benefit Column.

EDITED BY "AUNT MADGE" Its Motto: "Helpful and Hopeful"

The purpose of this column are succinctly stated in the title and motto—it is for the mutual benefit, and also to be helpful and hopeful.

Let's dream, like the child in its playing; Let's make us asky and a sea; Let's change the things round us by saying "They're things that we wish them to be."

Let's play that the world's full of beauty; Let's play there are roses in bloom; Let's play there is pleasure in duty.

Let's play that we'll find out to-morrow The joys that we never have had. Let's play that regret with its rueing Is banished forever and aye;

There are none of us but have, at some time or other, seen children "make believe" in play. It must needs be an inherent fancy, for very early in years they enjoy "acting a part".

The poem referred to in the following letter you will remember, as M. A. B.'s letter was not inserted as soon as received—it is now two or three weeks since the poem which she mentions was printed.

Joan very kindly inquired for Uncle Dudley. I am pleased to tell her that I am still here, and quite well.

Of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters."

ences in common. He has been on life's journey more than eighty years, and like you spent many years in "life on the ocean wave".

Dear Aunt Madge and M. B. Sisters: I must tell my experience with the fireless cooking. Last Saturday I tried it with beans and brown bread.

Now Saturday afternoon can become a day of enjoyment, blessings on the head of the discoverer of fireless cooking! Edison is a dwarf with his telephone! Oh, that was not he! Well, all the past inventions are not "in it", at any rate.

I hear Grandma G. is quite feeble. By the way, she sent me two books—records of the Free Baptist missionary society of the Ellsworth M. O. organized in 1832.

UNITARIAN CONFERENCE. Officers Elected and Resolutions Adopted—An Interesting Session.

At the closing business session of the Unitarian conference last Wednesday afternoon, officers were elected as follows: President, James A. Hill, of Gouldsboro;

The conference closed with the afternoon session Wednesday. It was pronounced by all who attended one of the most successful sessions in the history of the conference.

Willie Banefield and Mr. Atkinson, of Ipswich, are spending a few days at John Oble's.

Friday about a dozen of the neighbors of Wash. Leland met and got and partly housed his hay. Mr. Leland has been unable to work for more than a year. He is very grateful for the kindness of his neighbors.

The Co-ed System

[Original.] Miss Rose Harding was trying to beat the three R's into the heads of the ignorant in a small schoolhouse located in the midst of a sheep raising country in the far west.

The teacher looked at him scrutinizingly. He did not look at all stupid, though he might not even know his letters.

There was a smile on the teacher's face. Although her new scholar was evidently more unteachable than any of her other scholars the lines of his face were entirely unlike theirs.

The herder looked at her scrutinizingly, as if he suspected some covert meaning in her remark.

Miss Isabelle Hamor, of Bar Harbor, is visiting relatives here.

William Night, of North Newburyport, Mass., who has been at Alden Hamor's, returned home last Friday.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh fall from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up as an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis.

STRATTON REUNION.

Large Gathering at Georges Pond, Franklin—Business Meeting.

Early in the day teams began to arrive at the grove at the western end of the pond, and by noon a good number was assembled. All the surrounding towns were represented.

Death has removed from the family a number of members, the most prominent of whom was William French, who for four consecutive years was president of the association.

Resolved, That we extend our sincerest sympathy to his immediate relatives and friends.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered on our records and a copy be sent to the papers for publication.

Miss Mabelle Sweet returned to her home in Holden Sunday, after a visit with relatives here.

Rev. Dr. Wellman, of Tokio, Japan, was with Rev. Mr. Lee in the church Sunday night. His talk of his work as a missionary in Japan was very interesting.

UNION PICNIC.

Story of Trip as Told by One of the Excursionists.

(Special to THE AMERICAN.)

The long-looked-for, much-hoped-for and gladly-welcomed day of the Baptist-Methodist picnic has come and gone, and pleasant memories are lingering still. The picnic was advertised for Wednesday, but because no vessel was available at that time, it was put over to Friday, and we would not have had it then had it not been for the kindness of the firm of Whitcomb, Haynes & Co., who went to a great deal of pains to get the vessel in port in time for the excursion. It was a great accommodation for the Sunday schools, and they are grateful to the firm for its kindness in the matter.

The vessel was the Storm Petrel, and it is safe to say that Capt. Alexander Boney never had a jollier crew than on that occasion. It is estimated that over 300 made the trip. The day was custom-made for the excursion; it was simply perfect. The tug Little Round Top, Capt. Holt, was the motive power, and the sail down the river took just two hours, landing at Newbury Neck in ample time to get the chowder ready for dinner. Refreshments were for sale on board by Charles H. Leonard.

The stellar event of the day was the ball game. It was the Solid Muldoons versus the Clawhammers, and the game was fast and furious from the start. H. W. Dunn, Jr., captained the Solid Muldoons, and he with Herman Jordan, formed the battery for his team. Rev. P. A. A. Killam was the pitcher for the Clawhammers, with George Higgins as catcher until the last inning, when his place was taken by Harold Sinclair, whose plucky playing won the admiration of the "bleachers".

The batteries covered themselves all over with glory and perspiration. Like produces like, it is said, and as there were so many star players it was only natural that there was some star playing. Many men came to the bat that day with a "now-watch-me-line-out-a-three-bagger" air, only to retire with solemnly countenance. Milton Beckwith umpired acceptably, "roasting" both teams about evenly. It was a great game, and at the end the score stood 15 to 14 in favor of the Clawhammers.

On the trip home some of the singers got together, with Charles Pearson as musical director, and the result was a potpourri of melody varied at times with antiphonal effects. No accidents occurred, and it was a tired but well-satisfied crowd that climbed ashore.

N. B.—If the fellow that fished that box of sardines from the writer's lunch-box had been more careful, he would have discovered the can-opener in the box also. Such mistakes will occur, however, and if he will call at the house he can have the can-opener too.

MT. DESERT FERRY.

F. L. Colby and wife visited friends in Manse Wednesday.

Mrs. Annie Howe, of Malden, Mass., is at F. L. Colby's for a short time.

Mrs. Joseph Blanchard, of Portland, spent a few days at W. P. Clarke's last week.

The schooner Mary B. Pennell is discharging coal for the Maine Central.

Walter Rideout, who has employment in Bar Harbor, was the guest of Arthur Jellison Saturday.

Little Hattie Spratt, of Bar Harbor, who has been visiting her grandparents, I. L. Crabtree and wife, returned home last week.

Hudson Kingman and wife, of Newport, R. I., are visiting his sisters, Mrs. Lewis Jordan and Miss Arvilla Kingman.

Lewis Jordan and wife, Hudson Kingman and wife, W. W. Jellison and family, Luther Colby and wife, Frank Colby and wife, and E. S. Jellison, enjoyed a picnic dinner at E. S. Jellison's camp Thursday, Aug. 20. C.

LAMOINE BEACH.

One of the pleasant social affairs of the season took place Friday evening, when the Lamoine band was invited to play at Festus F. Merrill's cabin La Val. About 200 people gathered to enjoy the music, which was rendered acceptably by the boys. Cake and coffee were served on the lawn by Mrs. Merrill and her daughters Harriette and Hortense, after which the band was invited to visit the unique and daintily-furnished log cabin. Much credit is due both leader and band, which was appreciated by the citizens of Lamoine. Aug. 20. SPEC.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Summer is Best Season to Cure Catarrh. Hyomei Sold Under Guarantee.

Summer is the best time in the whole year for the treatment of catarrhal troubles, and G. A. Pareher urges every reader of the AMERICAN to use Hyomei now and be permanently cured.

Unlike the ordinary treatment for catarrh, there is no stomach dosing when using Hyomei. The remedy is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes in every outfit, and its balsamic, healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, searches out and kills the catarrh germs in all parts of the respiratory organs and soothes and heals any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane.

Hyomei is not alone the only natural treatment for catarrh, but it is the only one sold under an absolute guarantee to refund the money unless it gives satisfaction. It kills all disease germs and restores the mucous membrane of the throat, nose and lungs to perfectly healthy condition.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, 50c. G. A. Pareher sells Hyomei under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. You run no risk at all in buying this guaranteed remedy.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Candidate Davis and W. R. Pattangall the Speakers.

The first public meeting in Ellsworth in this fall's campaign was held at Hancock hall last Monday evening. It was under the auspices of the democrats. Hon. Cyrus W. Davis, candidate for governor, and W. R. Pattangall, of Machias, were the speakers.

Lynch's band played in postoffice square and then marched to the hall and into it. The hall was comfortably filled, the gallery having a liberal sprinkling of ladies.

On the stage with the speakers of the evening were W. H. Dresser, who presided and introduced the speakers; Capt. Joseph M. Higgins, democratic candidate for representative to the legislature, ex-Mayor A. W. Greely, Sheriff B. H. May, Dr. Otis Littlefield, of Bluehill, Reginald Ingalls and Deputy-Sheriff Higgins, of Bar Harbor, George E. Davis, E. B. Wyman and H. Fremont Maddocks, of Ellsworth.

Mr. Pattangall was the first speaker. He spoke for nearly three-quarters of an hour, holding closely the attention of the audience. The taxation of wild lands, railroads and other corporations and the position of the two parties on the liquor question were his leading themes.

Mr. Davis followed, speaking for a little over an hour. His "pretude" was a humorous reference to an editorial in last week's AMERICAN which alluded to him and his attitude on certain issues. He then passed to a general discussion of the issues of the campaign, taking the democratic State platform as his text, and commenting on each plank as he went along.

The address was largely a repetition of the speeches he has made elsewhere in the State, and included criticisms of the management of public affairs by the republicans, and appeals to voters to take matters into their own hands, and no longer submit to the rule of rings, the lobby and the corporations.

In spite of the extreme heat, the audience remained to the close, giving strict attention to what the speakers had to offer. Three cheers were proposed as Mr. Davis took his seat, and they were given with a will. The band played as the audience left the hall.

SOUTHWEST HARBOR.

The ladies' aid of the Methodist church held its midsummer sale Tuesday, Aug. 14, in Masonic hall. The floor which held the fancy articles was fragrant and woody, and was well cared for by Mrs. Simeon Mayo and Mrs. A. I. Holmes. A postal card and toy table, prettily arranged, was presided over by Emma Holmes and Nellie Smallidge. The candy table, attended by Mrs. Lunt, was soon stripped of its loads of sweetness, and had to be replenished. Miss Susie Houston, who had charge of the cake table, was soon out of business. The ice-cream corner did a thriving business. Several generous donations from outside friends helped to swell the treasury and are gratefully acknowledged. The receipts were nearly $90. Aug. 18. BUCKSPORT.

Mrs. Harry E. Simpson died Saturday evening after a short illness with typhoid fever. Mrs. Simpson was the daughter of Otis Snowman, and besides her husband she leaves a father and mother.

A report is in circulation that a controlling interest in the Bucksport Light & Power Co. has changed hands, and it is now owned by parties outside of the town. Rumor has it that a dam is to be built on the water-power at the outlet of Lake Alamosook, to furnish power to run the Bucksport plant as well as others.
