Do their work Right!

The 7,000 Maine Central railroad men did their work so RIGHT in 1927 that nearly 2,000,000 passengers were carried to their destinations, comfortably, conveniently, cheaply and SAFELY — without the loss of a life or a single serious accident — and over 7,800,000 tons of freight were handled with accuracy and dispatch. The permanent prosperity of Maine is dependent upon the continued well-being of this essential public servant.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Merchants' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce recommend the observance of the following holidays by closing of the stores: New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Patriot's Day, April 19th, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day. Notice of the closing of business establishments on these dates will, in the future, be published through these columns, far enough in advance to cause no inconvenience to the buying public.

The firms of Roberts & Veazie, Inc., and the Eastern Real Estate Company have recently been elected to membership. They are represented by E. R. Veazie and H. H. Stover, respectively.

Mayor J. F. Carver and F. C. Black were chosen to represent the Chamber at the New England Building Conference to be held at the Hotel Statler, Boston, this week.

"MODERN ROBIN HOOD"

New Name For Stephen Hoppe Who Escaped From Thomaston Prison.

Stephen Hoppe, alias George F. Berge, alleged habitual criminal and "ought by Quincy, Mass., police in connection with the slaying of a patrolman, has been characterized as "A Modern Robin Hood" by his counsel.

Frank Covello, defense attorney, said Hoppe had always stolen from the rich and aided the poor.

"More than a few persons have expressed a willingness to testify at his trial," Covello said, "that Hoppe is a kind and generous man and that his word is as good as a gold bond."

New entries at Rockland Commercial College are Miss Lois Ross and Lerley Prackett, both of this city. The highest rank in arithmetic for the past two weeks was won by Marion Upham and Wesley Morton of Rockport and Gertrude Pinkerton of Thomaston, these three pupils attaining 100%. The work at the college at the present time is being given from the old Greenleaf Arithmetic which has always been considered very formidable.

"THE MERRYMAKERS"

Al. Coleman's Tip-Top Revue At Strand Theatre All Next Week.

One solid week of fun is in store for Strand theatre goers where Al. Coleman's Tip Top Musical Comedy Company "The Merry-makers" will outdo anything in the amusement line that has been seen in Rockland for some time. A Lynn Mass., newspaper review says: "The capacity houses saw and heard Al. Lemons, celebrated French

Miss Virginia Wallace of Auburn, who has been conducting classes in this city during the winter season, brought to the capacity audience a period of keen enjoyment, and demonstrated in an effective manner the fine work this gifted young teacher has accomplished with her pupils.

Miss Wallace was assisted by four pupils from Heth's Dancing Academy, Lewiston—Norma Hodgins, Helen Goshen, Phyllis and Jeanette Brackett. The program was well arranged, the ballroom dancing numbers being interspersed in a way that lent variation and interest.

Ruth Dondis who opened the recital was a picturesque little figure attired in a gay chintz dress of "ye olden time." With a demure manner she gave "When Grandma Was a Girl," which she surprisingly ended by divesting herself of the quaint little gown and appearing clad in a real "show-girl" rig, of black silk and white ruffs, which was quite in keeping with the clever modern dance she did for contrast. In this dance little Miss Dondis did exceptionally good acrobatic work which won her much applause.

"Misses, Maidens and their Partners" was a colorful number, the gowns of the dancers being ballet style of varicolored tulle, ranging from palest orchid to flaming rose, and each girl bearing a daintily decorated parasol.

The waltz combination by Ruth Richards and Crosby Ludwick in the ball room features deserves special mention for its grace and assurance. Mr. Ludwick's participation in all of the ball room dances won much praise for him.

Miss Hodgins was the first Lewiston artist presented. A picture in shimmering white satin and rhinestones, she gave "Waltz Arabesque," with grace and poise, and was enthusiastically received.

"In A Parisian Toy Shop" was an interesting feature. With Miss Wallace as the stockkeeper, on the advent of three customers interested in the purchase of toys, the scene was carried out in pantomime, the dancers representing the toys being shown for approval. Little Alfred Chapman, seven years of age, dressed as a "Sailor Doll" made one of the hits of the evening in the "Sailor's Hornpipe." The dance was given with an assurance and precision that belied his tender years. Miss Wallace herself in black satin garb with a natty green hat and carrying a cane did a clever soft shoe dance.

The ball dance was very well done, the girls in dresses of dotted muslin and ruffled hats looked exactly like the dainty dolls that are seen at the toy counters at Christmas-time. The stiff jerky movements of the dance were very cute. The toy finally purchased proved to be the French Doll impersonated by Miss Goshen of Lewiston. Gowned in a beautiful ballet dress of orchid and green tulle with silver bodice, she introduced her very lovely toe dance by a little song about Jack and his kiewpie doll.

PRETTY DANCE RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Virginia Wallace Delight a Large Audience With Their Terpsichorean Skill.

The dance recital at Strand Theatre Monday evening by the pupils of Miss Virginia Wallace of Auburn, who has been conducting classes in this city during the winter season, brought to the capacity audience a period of keen enjoyment, and demonstrated in an effective manner the fine work this gifted young teacher has accomplished with her pupils.

AND STILL THEY COME!

Option Taken By Munsey Motor Company Forecasts Another Important Business Deal.

The latest important move on Rockland's business checkerboard came yesterday with the announcement that the Munsey Motor Company has taken an option on the Robbins stable property, Limerock street. At the office of the corporation on School street it was stated that the deal would be completed speedily and that the new owners will take early possession.

It is planned to continue the establishment in its present capacity, but so commodious is the plant that it will furnish ample opportunity for the expansion of the lines of business now conducted by the Munsey Motor Company.

The property in question has been well known under three names—first Berry's stable, then Ulmer's stable and lastly the Robbins Stable and Garage, the present proprietor being Arthur L. Rokes, who bought it soon after the death of the late Charles S. Robbins. Two years ago it was under consideration as a possible site for the new Famous Players theatre.

The deal was negotiated through the brokerage of Freeman S. Young, who is now devoting his entire time to real estate matters.

YOUNG PLEADS GUILTY

To the Charge of Bigamy and Gets Four Months' Sentence—First Wife To Be Divorced.

James L. Young, High School teacher in Darien, Conn., recently suspended from his classes after arrest charged with bigamy pleaded guilty Tuesday, and was sentenced to four months in jail.

Young was married in Darien Nov. 22 last to Miss Winifred Benshoen, another teacher. Later Helena Brennick Young of Rumford, Me., claimed that she and Young were married at Portsmouth, N. H., Oct. 28, 1921, and there had been no divorce. Young said he could explain why the latter ceremony was not legal or binding but he has not done so.

Mrs. Young of Darien was in court Tuesday and Mrs. Young of Rumford was to have been there, but she was notified at the last minute by the State Attorney's office that her testimony would not be needed as Young was to plead guilty.

In presenting the case to Judge Jennings, State's Attorney Comley termed it a "deliberate breach of the laws and planned by Young without any feeling of consideration for his wife in Maine."

Continuing, the State's attorney said: "A State's prison sentence is what this man placed himself in position to receive and is what he justly deserves and should get. His crime is one of the most despicable that we are faced with. He had the effrontery to attempt to hoodwink the people of Darien and superiors in the high school there by claiming that he was never legally married to his first wife. That was quickly shattered by documentary proof."

Counsel for Young, Matthew Kennedy, in making his plea, said that Young "and his second wife are very much in love with each other, and are both decidedly anxious that this tangle be straightened out."

The attorney informed the court that the first Mrs. Young has filed divorce suit against her husband, naming the second Mrs. Young as co-respondent.

Mrs. Young's unfortunate affair has been followed by Knox County readers with a great deal of interest for the reason that he taught school in Union and played semi-professional baseball on the Rockland and Camden teams, being in fact captain of the Camden team two seasons. While not always the successful player that the followers of the team could wish they readily conceded that he was one of its hardest workers, and that he always played the game on the square. He has many friends here.

MUST WIN THIS ONE

If Rockland High Is To Figure In the Bates Tournament.

Westbrook High comes here Saturday night for the final basketball game of the season, and on this game, in all probability, hangs Rockland's chances of being chosen for the Bates Tournament. A decisive win for the home team would make it a difficult task for the committee selecting the teams to overlook the locals. A defeat for the home team would practically mean elimination.

A monster rally is being planned for Friday night to which the friends of the school are urged to attend. Fred C. Black will preside. Among the speakers are Miss Anna Coughlin, Willis I. Ayer, Mayor Carver, Fred Rhodes, Coach Macomber and Captain Jim Flanagan. A liberal dose of the real old Rockland spirit will be given to everyone free of charge.

The Rockland boys' team, facing the strongest schedule ever undertaken by a local team has acquitted itself nobly. It hasn't won every game, but it has won the majority of them. It has beaten every school in this section decisively, and many schools of importance in other parts of the State. And when the team has lost, it has lost fighting. After defeat it has always come back to play a stronger game than ever.

Every effort is being made to get the biggest crowd of the season to that game. You can aid them in winning that game with your presence and cheers.

A CAMDEN DEAL

The rapidly growing and progressive Camden firm of Haskell & Corthell have taken another forward step in acquiring the stock, fixtures and good will of the clothing business conducted for many years by the late E. B. Clark. The store is well located, the stock large and in excellent condition, giving the new owners a fine additional sales plant.

A few years ago the Haskell & Corthell organization took over a second large store, adjoining the original store and consistent growth since has made the present move necessary. The firm deals in men's shoes and furnishings and a ladies' specialty shop of wide scope. S. B. Haskell of Camden and Harold Corthell of Rockport and Camden make up the team putting on this progressive business program.

BATH GETS ONE

A new bath for Bath, the Kennebec Canneries, is expected to get underway this week on the wharf of the Eastern Steamship Co. This industry is headed by E. S. Noyes, president of the cannery factories in Livermore Falls and Wilton, and by Sewall S. Webster of Gardiner. E. S. Noyes, Jr., of Bluehill, will manage the new project, which will start with 24 employees and will be engaged in canning clams from Sept. 15 to May 15 and from May 15 to Sept. 15 will can blueberries. There is an excellent field for this new business in Bath, as in a radius of 12 miles there are untold numbers of clamming beds and blueberry farms.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

RETURNING
Never sings a city-robin on the grey-stone window ledges
But I dream the long, cool meadows where the yellow cowslips be;
To his call I guess an answer from the grass and tangled hedges—
There's a thrill of other springtimes in the country soul of me!

Never falls light rain above me but I hear its gentle patter
On a lonely roof at even, as I heard it years ago
Through the music, warmth, and fragrance, first the sound of carolous chatter
Thrills the silence of far places where the pines and birches grow.

I shall see a few more springtimes, then shall heed no answer lifted
To that first fall-thrilled robin, hear no rain above my head
Give me, God, the meadow-blossoms when my former wishes have faded,
Let me be still time own springtime with the pines beside my bed!

—Ruth Guthrie Harding.

The Courier-Gazette

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Rockland, Me., March 8, 1928.
 Personally appeared Frank S. Lydell, who on oath declares that he is President of the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of March 6, 1928 there was printed a total of 420 copies.
 Before me, FRANK R. MILLER, Notary Public.

Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord.—Deuteronomy 6:4.

A Portland Sunday newspaper published an appreciative article concerning Fabius M. Ray, who, it appears was at some time a dignified judge of the Westbrook Municipal Court, and who at odd moments was "a wooer of the muses"—wrote poetry, and published several volumes. All these facts were set forth interestingly and at length in Sunday's paper, and all would have gone well but for the compositor who set the heading which was to direct attention to the article concerning the jurist and the "Wooer of the Muses." In large black type this is how it appeared in the newspaper: "Prominent Maine Judge (Was Successful Wooer of the Muses)." Unfortunately for Judge Ray and those who loved him so well, but fortunately for the Portland newspaper, the man about whom Sunday's article is concerned has been dead 13 years.

When we were a boy it used to be our ambition (perhaps dream would be a better word) to some day become the possessor of a dollar. Not one of the ordinary "cartwheels" nor yet a "greenback," but a real honest to goodness silver dollar which was minted in 1804. We forget just how many were supposed to be in circulation—not more than a handful, anyhow, but because of their scarcity great financial value was attached to them. From Waycross, Ga., comes the story that one has just made its appearance in the ill of a motion picture theatre, its value undreamed of whoever tendered it as a movie fan. It has been offered to the highest bidder, and the last mentioned quotation was $1250.

Some shoe factories are birds of passage. Let's hope that the one about to fly from Farmington, N. H., to Freeport, Me., will build a permanent nest and settle down.

Rev. Benjamin P. Browne, former pastor of the First Baptist Church, was installed as pastor of the First Baptist church in Winchester, Mass., last Sunday evening. The program follows: Organ Prelude—"Rhapsody" Paulk; song service (organ and piano); Benediction; Reading; Anthem by Chorus Choir—"As Christ Upon the Cross"; Bullard; Prayer; Offertory—"Thorn Song" by Charles English, Aleppo Temple; Hymn 362; Sermon—"Old and New Loyalties," Pres. E. C. Herrick, D. D.; Duet—Mrs. E. C. Herrick and Mrs. E. P. Browne; Charge to the Church—"The Responsibility of the Church," Pres. Nathan R. Wood, D. D.; Hymn 244; Charge to the Pastor—"The Work of the Ministry," Rev. R. G. Schell, D. D.; The Installation Prayer; Hymn 244; Benediction; Organ Postlude—"Finale" Guilman. The attractive calendar issued by the Winchester Church bears on its front cover the name of Miss Eda Knowlton of Rockland as director of young people's work.

The March meeting of the Knox County Fish & Game Association will be held at the American Legion hall next Wednesday evening, and this time it will be "ladies' night" with the tax $1.50 per couple. Supper will be served at 6.30, followed by a short business session, an address on "Water Pollution" by Hon. William Tudor Gardner, and four reels of moving pictures from the Georgian Bay Tourist Bureau. A ladies' night is an innovation in our club," says Secretary Hewitt, and more or less of an experiment. Make a special effort to bring your wife, daughter, sister, aunt or sweetheart. The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion promises us a bounteous supper and there will be ample opportunity for fellowship both before and after the program.

The meeting of the Miriam Robb Lodge Tuesday evening was one of the most successful in its history. More than 130 people sat down to the bounteous supper. In the evening the degree was conferred on Mrs. Lena Merrill and Mrs. Ida Shibles. The degree staff composed of past noble grands was made up thus: Noble grand, Mrs. Helen Clark; vice grand Mrs. Mabel Harding; chaplain, Mrs. Ned Smith; past noble grand, Mrs. Winnie Horton. A program followed the work, featuring readings by Mrs. Grace Rollins, Mrs. Rose Sawyer and Mrs. Nettie Stewart; vocal solos by Mrs. Thelma Stanley and Mrs. Ida Hunter; and a piano solo by Miss Marian Clark. At the close of the program buffet lunch was served in the banquet hall.

The diaphone has had a busy time lately with box alarms from 33 and 54 and a still alarm thrown in for good measure. An early morning run to Winter street provided the first grass fire for March. Later came a call to Maverick street for a closet fire in Sarah Hall's house. The quick wit of the home owner in closing the blaze into a confined space eliminated damage. The apparatus was hardly in use when a second alarm from 33 sent the ballroom down Tillson avenue where sparks from a chimney had started a lively roof blaze at Shapiro's. One large chemical tank sufficed to settle it, however.

The Evening Independent of St. Petersburg, Fla., recently gave away its entire edition because it was a rainy day, this being a standing offer, due to the fact that it so seldom rains in "The Sunshine City." The offer went into effect 17 1/2 years (an aggregate of 4390 days) but the Independent has been called upon to "make good" only 92 times.

MRS. HERBERT WILLIAMS

Grace Margaret Williams, wife of Herbert Williams of Rockland, died March 1. She was born in Cushing Oct. 8, 1901, the only child of Oscar and Ada (Moore) Williams. Her parents moved when she was only four weeks old to Thomaston where she made her home until her marriage to Mr. Williams Dec. 1, 1920, when they went to housekeeping in Rockland. The deceased attended the public schools in Thomaston, until ill health made it impossible for her to continue.

She was of a gentle and lovable disposition and from childhood of a strong religious turn of mind, preferring the church and prayer meeting to places of amusement. She was a lover of music and even in childhood was able to play accurately on the piano or organ any selection which she had once heard. She was a member of the Methodist Church in Rockland, and was greatly devoted to her home and family. She had been in very poor health the past year, but seemed so much better that her friends were shocked to hear of her death. Five weeks ago on her way to church she fell and broke one of her legs, but was expected to leave the hospital in a few days when she developed a very serious case of influenza and lived only three days. A premonition of death had come to her even before the accident. She told her mother that she expected to live only a short time, that she was prepared and ready to go when the call came.

Mrs. Williams is survived by her husband, parents, and two little daughters, Eloise, aged 6 years, and Eleanor, aged 2 years; two aunts, Mrs. Margaret Jones of Martinsville, and Mrs. Grace Maloney of Pleasant Point; and two uncles, Herbert Moore of Rockland and Albion Williams of Tenant's Harbor.

Funeral services were held from the home of her parents, 3 Georges street, Thomaston, Sunday at 1.30 p. m., conducted by her pastor, Rev. John Dunstan. Surrounding the casket were many beautiful floral messages of love and esteem. The bearers were her four cousins, Ernest Maloney, Stanley Miller, Lloyd Miller and Eddie Johnson. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb.

"Like a ship that's left its moorings
 And sails bravely out to sea,
 So some one dear has sailed away
 In calm serenity.
 But there's promise of a greater joy,
 Than earth could have in store,
 For God has planned a richer life,
 Beyond the unseen shore."

MISS J. W. PEARSON

The Bay Point summer colony at Rockland Breakwater loses one of its highly esteemed members through the death of Miss Jennie Pearson, who for many years has been one of the earliest of the summer arrivals in this city and one of the last to leave. The Sunday Brooklyn Eagle had the following obituary mention: "Miss Jennie W. Pearson, a member of an old Brooklyn family and a prominent member of the Brooklyn Woman's Club with which she had been associated for the last 17 years, died yesterday at noon at her home, 33 7th avenue after a protracted illness."

"Miss Pearson was born in Brooklyn, the daughter of the late Alexander and Sarah Pearson. Her father was a prominent furniture merchant. She had studied law and was deeply interested in literary work. While a member of the Brooklyn Woman's Club she had been chairman of the board of directors, chairman of the finance committee and assistant corresponding secretary. She was also a member of Mrs. Fields' Literary Club and she and her family were old members of the Memorial Presbyterian Church."

"Miss Pearson is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Louis Roundtree and the Misses Letitia and Frances C. Pearson, and four brothers, John F. Alexander, William and Harold Pearson."

In the second game the scores did not run so high the largest total being 284, by Beach. Douglas had the largest string (124). The summary: Buick (3 Pts.)—Douglas, 283; Parker, 236; Backliffe, 254; Beach, 284; Rogers, 274; total, 1331.

Tigers (1 Pt.)—Cohen, 263; Richardson, 256; Pettengill, 263; Naum, 259; Rose, 255; total, 1286.

CAMDEN GIRLS ARE "CHAMPS"

Winning Point Made On a Thomaston Foul—Game Played In the Rockland Gym.

With one victory and one defeat, but the deciding break came when some Thomaston girl fouled Miss Milliken and that young Miss calmly tossed the winning point from the foul line.

Barry and Keller were the bright lights of the Thomaston team while Milliken, Thomas and Plaisted all played a heads up game. Miss Barry was the high scorer of the evening with 16 points and Milliken ran her a close second with 14.

Camden—Leonard, 17; Milliken, 14; Whitehouse, 13; Thomas, 12; Waterman, 12; Plaisted, 12.

Thomaston—Felt, Morse, 17; Barry, 17; Sukerforth, 17; Keller, 17; Williams, 17; Henry, Robinson, 12.

Field goals, Barry 8, Milliken 5, Leonard 2, Felt 1, Fouts, Milliken 4, Leonard 1. Referee, Spear. Time, four 8s.

In a one-sided exhibition game the Rockland High Orange Streaks ran away from Thomaston 19 to 4 in two 5-minute periods and at the end of two sides they were leading Camden High 20 to 4. The locals went in hard against Thomaston and although they slowed up at times they scored at will and allowed the visitors to register but two goals.

In the last half Emery "Runt" Traflet, who has been out of the game for the last six weeks because of an infected finger, came in at a forward position and flashed up and down the floor for 11 points before he was relieved late in the fourth period.

Evidently the lead that the Orange Streaks had piled upon Thomaston before they were too much for the Camden cohorts to think about, and as a result they didn't score a field goal till the last minute of play when Bennett drove one home three-quarters of the length of the floor after the Rockland regulars had left the floor.

The last period was the fastest. The Orange Streaks led 19 to 4 at the end of the game.

Stockings prepared by a new special process so the silk will resist water—the water rolls off leaving the stockings dry. Unless you are caught in a perfect deluge, rain will not penetrate to the skin. Mud spots may be brushed off as soon as dry and leave no stain. You may wash them just as any other stockings—in fact, easier—for the dirt stays on the surface. Not till after a great many washings is the water proof quality lost.

She also spoke of the great courage and love for the work which prompted Miss Harris to return recently to China during the troublous times in that country.

If it so happens that Rockland High School gets placed in the Bates tournament, somebody will have to get the smelling salts for the sporting editor of the Bath Times. Here is his latest effusion: "Rockland High is being boosted by Rocklandites for a chance to go to the Bates tournament. Rockland points to its decline in one over Morse at Rockland and six point defeat at Bath. They also point to a win over Brunswick at Brunswick, which Morse could not accomplish, nevertheless, these three games are all that Rockland has to base its tournament hopes on."

To A Million Boys and Girls Between 17 and 70

The Automobile That Talks The Language That Only They Can Understand

FOR a million boys and girls, between seventeen and seventy, Reo builds the Wolverine.

For them, especially, because Reo knows that they want to swing up to country club porches with the dash of cavalry captains.

For them, especially, because Reo knows how they must be growing tired of seeing and driving just nickel-plate—just fancy headlights—just two-tone color jobs.

So Reo builds the Wolverine to talk the language that all true boys and girls can understand—language dealing with the important business of getting somewhere.

The Reo Wolverine steals its way into your heart as a star halfback steals his way into the heart of the coach. It starts fast—goes fast—has a wonderful change of pace—and it gets somewhere.

Yes, Reo builds the Wolverine to be the automobile all boys and girls have wished for.

Builds it to be an automobile such as no one ever expected to drive into his or her own garage for so low an F. O. B. price as $1195 or $1295.

Try it out—over any roads—in any company. You'll be very much surprised.

Ordinary Remedies Did

Cough Worse Nights
Or When Indoors

"My husband months ago saw a doctor and was told there was nothing wrong with him but that cough clung to him night and day. He would come from outdoors into a theatre or the house and soon he'd be hacking and barking terrible. I thought in the midst of a movie he'd have to leave his seat. Neighbors commented on it. He even took Cod Liver Oil, although he hated it, and quit before it did him any good. I finally told our doctor and he said: 'Men are all alike and you can't blame them much, so go get him a big bottle of Linonine. It is a nice tasting Flaxseed, Eucalyptus, etc., mixture far better than Cod Liver Oil and works quick. RESULTS WONDERFUL. 'He liked Linonine' so well he took it before meals until the whole bottle was gone. It not only stopped his cough—it built him up fine. I never saw medicine work such wonders before. Anybody with a cold or cough should use Linonine—and children love it.' A cough is dangerous this time of year. Well stocked druggists have Linonine, 50c or $1.00 sizes—or send dollar bill for large bottle parcel post. Kerr Chemical Co., Brentwood, Md.

Herbert Spear's daughter who has been critically ill with whooping cough and other complications is thought to be out of danger now.

The Pomona meeting at East Union Saturday was well attended and profitable to all. The address by Harry Richards attracted a large crowd.

The discussion on the Game Laws of our State certainly gave us food for thought.

Good Will Grange met last Thursday evening and enjoyed a very pleasant session. A knot tying contest for the ladies resulted in only five being able to tie a square knot.

Jesse Mills and L. R. Bucklin were the judges. Mr. Mills gave some points on the tying of different knots.

Home made corn balls were served by Mrs. Edie Fernald.

O. A. Copeland installed the officers of Acorn Grange Saturday night. Nine members of Good Will Grange braved the rough traveling and were guests of the evening. A clam chowder was served with quantities of other good things. This grange may be small in numbers but it certainly is large in hospitality.

We read of a novelist whose hobby is forestry. Few literary people have extended their practical acquaintance with this subject beyond log-cabinning—Punch.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches rub on good old Musterole.

Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

WAS OLDEST MEMBER

Tribute To A. M. Connon, Granite Cutter, Who Died Here.

The Granite Cutters' Journal, under the caption "The Passing of An Old Timer" pays the following tribute to a late union member—father of Mrs. Maynard Crockett of Lake avenue.

In the death of A. M. Connon at Rockland, Me., Jan. 17, North Jay branch loses its oldest member in point of age, and the I. A. O. of the three surviving charter members. A. M. Connon lived to a remarkable age for a granite cutter, having passed his 85th birthday something over two months previous to his demise, but still more remarkable was the length of time he had worked at the trade. "Three score and ten years" is given as the span of life of man, but "old Sandy" had worked longer than that at the trade. He started to serve his time when 12 years old with his father, who was a small building contractor around Peterhead, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and served four years cutting and building, as was customary there, and followed granite cutting all through his life, working as late as last season. I understand, so that from the cutting of his first to his last stone a period of over 72 years elapsed, a record which I don't think can be approached, far less equaled by any granite cutter I know of.

A. M. Connon came to this country after the close of the Civil War and had been on this side of the Atlantic ever since. About the first job he struck was working on bank vaults that had to be rebuilt in some of the cities of the South after the war. He worked on bridge work along the railroad in Missouri when Jesse James was making a name for himself in his special line. He was employed in St. Paul, Minn., for some time. When the Union was formed he was at work on Clark Island, and became a charter member in 1871. He came to North Jay on the Grant job 34 years ago, when I first met him, and he has been a member of this branch most of the time since.

For a number of years he had worked in a granite yard in Houlton, Me., but still retained membership in North Jay. Sandy was an all-around man, and handy to have around a granite cutting yard. One of our young members who worked with him in Houlton in 1922, remarked that "Old Sandy" could do quite a day's work yet, though he was then 80, and the best part of him was that he could do anything. This was truly so of "Old Sandy." He could cut, sharpen or go out and set up work, in fact, in his long career there was nothing that went on in a granite yard but he had a hand at.

Brother Connon was left a widower 45 years ago. He had seen three of his family laid away since he came to North Jay. Two of his sons, granite cutters, were killed in the early manhood of the dread disease; a daughter died here some years ago. Recently he has made his home with his oldest daughter, his only survivor, in Rockland, Me., and did a little work in the trade line on his own hook, working as late as last season. I am told.

He took to his bed but a week before passing out, although he had been sick about a month. The cause of his death was given as general breaking up due to old age, there being no disease present.

We regret the passing of "Old Sandy." He was a clever workman, and of an even, kindly disposition.

A. W. Pratt.

North Jay, Jan. 28.

DRUGGISTS DECLARE PILE

REMEDY WORKS WONDERS

Piles and Hemorrhoids Are Relieved Quick By Simple Method

ONE DRUGGIST SAYS REMEDY CURED HIM

I'm a druggist myself and when I say this new internal way of getting rid of Piles is best I know for I suffered myself for twelve years and during that time tried everything on the shelf," declares Robert Higgins, Ph. G.

"One of the clerks in the store told me how wonderfully these Colace Pile Pills had helped his wife, so I took a bottle home because I was suffering terribly at that time and I want to say they are the finest remedy for this painful affliction I ever heard of, and I often recommend them to customers," continued Mr. Higgins, Druggist in Corbin, N. Y. Local Druggists here are featuring Colace Pile Pills. Thousands of tests prove this new internal treatment most effective for relief and lasting results.

A GREAT DISCOVERY

A famous chemist asked himself one day: Why can't I eat a pill with a substance innocuous to gastric juices so it will pass through the stomach into the bowels and then dissolve and release a combination of healing, soothing herbs that reach the real seat of all the trouble—remove the cause—and permanently banish piles and hemorrhoids? Colace Pile Pills are the final result of his research and it certainly is nice to know that at last no matter how long or severely one has suffered, they can forgo nasty salves, suppositories, etc., and enjoy the benefits of this simple, harmless, scientific method. Even delicate old men and women troubled with piles, sit, walk and sleep in comfort without pain in a few hours in many instances and report complete relief in a few days. Colace Pile Pills are made in the world's largest laboratory of finest ingredients. Several local druggists offer to gladly refund the sixty cents a regular bottle costs if they fail to relieve completely, even the worst or chronic case. Certainly no one, young or old, should suffer this painful affliction I ever heard of, and I often recommend them to customers," continued Mr. Higgins, Druggist in Corbin, N. Y. Local Druggists here are featuring Colace

Pile Pills, each 60 cents to Colace Chemical Co., Brentwood, Md., with name and address for full 60c bottle, 40 tablets, plain wrapper, full directions, return mail.

Mothers:

Next to the natural laxative from a mother's breast, a plain, old-fashioned preparation is always best for keeping baby's little digestive tract clean and sweet. When your little one doesn't eat, or can't sleep, give him a few drops of plain Castoria. It is purely vegetable, you know. Any doctor will tell you that it is utterly harmless to the youngest infant. It is sweet to the taste, and sweet in the little stomach. Yet its gentle influence is soon felt all through the tiny system. Not even castor oil can compete with Castoria and how much better it is to use this milder means of regulating a baby! Never give baby paregoric or similar opiates, because, a few drops of Castoria are just as soothing, and no harm. That's the beauty of using pure Castoria; you can give it just as often as you discover any sign of colic, constipation, or diarrhea—or those times when you don't know just what it is that has caused an upset. Only get the genuine Castoria—bearing Fletcher's signature. It isn't expensive, and with every bottle comes the book, "Care and Feeding of Babies"—worth its weight in gold to every mother or prospective mother.

OWL'S HEAD

In so far as the weather is concerned March is doing very well. The sun shines, snow all gone, dust flying and roads in fairly good condition. What more can be asked for?

Our town warrant of 43 articles is up and the annual meeting will be held March 12. Let all who can forget their own personal troubles for that day and go to the meeting and listen to the joys and sorrows of town affairs. Surely if these questions are discussed in a fair impartial manner, it need not be such a long tedious meeting as sometimes has resulted in years past.

The first two contestants were ladies who were not especially thin but they made the sawdust fly and beat the men all to nothing. Those taking part in the play were Marjory Philbrook, Camilla Emery, Mary Foster, Billy Foster, Sammy Poppello, Raymond Winslow, Lillian Maddocks, Olive Farrell, Candy, popcorn and ice cream were on sale which with a small admission fee netted $13.50, adding that much more to our monthly payment on the debt of the library building.

A STEP AHEAD IN STOREKEEPING

The Vision of Today

Times and conditions change. When we first opened our doors only 22 years ago, the automobile was a curiosity, the airplane an impossible dream, the radio unheard of.

Storekeeping must keep up with changing conditions or become as out of date as the horse and buggy. Our new store—this step ahead—reflects the vision of today in every detail of its storekeeping.

The vision of today is:

—a store that provides merchandise of style, beauty and attractiveness gathered from all over the world in sufficient variety and assortment to satisfy the tastes and requirements of our Northern New England people.

—a store of unusual shopping convenience where you may supply your needs with the fewest steps and without delay or where you can spend delightful hours lingering over your shopping.

—a store whose name alone is a complete assurance of fairness and dependability in every transaction.

—a store which combines all of these services with prices always as low and often lower than those quoted for equal quality elsewhere.

—a store where the most thrifty, or those to whom price is no object, may shop to equal advantage.

But while our new store reflects the vision of today, it's good to know that the best of the old remains.

—that the old time spirit of cordiality and hospitality always identified with this store remains unchanged—that the friendly atmosphere you have always known, that the little courtesies and pleasant smiles that go so far to make you welcome and at home are still here to greet you whenever you enter our doors.

Women With Bobbed Hair Very Easily Get Rid of Gray Hairs

With Color Glands Normal Nature Keeps Hair Natural Shade

SENSIBLE ADVICE TO WOMEN TURNING GRAY

Everyone knows if their color glands and hair roots are active and normal they will continue indefinitely to have rich, natural colored hair entirely free of gray, or off-colored locks, so why use dyes or tints? A doctor several years ago asked himself this question: "If with certain medicines I can stimulate my patient's other organs, why not rub a stimulating tonic into the scalp that will revive, strengthen and tone up in her own inimitable way will resume putting plenty of pigment into the hair tubes? Surely the hair will then again resume its original shade and color regardless of the users' age or previous condition of their hair."

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY He didn't want an artificial dye or tint and it of course must be harmless and something that could be used for years and years without the slightest injury to hair or scalp. Just like a tonic that builds up a person's strength after some long wasting illness, he wanted a tonic that would revive and stimulate the inactive, weak, or dormant hair roots and color glands.

Under the name of Lea's Hair Tonic anyone may now purchase the scalp food and tonic he finally perfected. For several years hair dressers and specialists have been using it. Results are so natural, gradual and nice that men as well as women use it.

It doesn't stain the scalp. One's friends seldom notice the gradual change and to test what it will do one need only apply it to some small spot for a week or two and watch results.

Men and women in all walks of life have been amazed at the younger appearance that comes with the disappearance of gray hairs from their head. Evidently one need never become gray if they keep the scalp and roots toned up with an occasional massage with Lea's Hair Tonic.

If any reader desires to try a bottle of Lea's Hair Tonic on the maker's absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back, they should purchase a bottle at the drug store or pin a dollar bill to this advertisement and send with name and address plainly written to Lea's Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md. $1 bottles parcels post anywhere with full directions.

No one need have gray or off-colored hair any more.

Steamships arriving from Paris last week brought hundreds of dress designers and buyers from all over the United States, who had been attending the spring dress shows of famous Paris houses. There were fashion shows by day on the decks of both ships and the dinners and balls revealed the latest ideas from Rue de la Paix. Not a knee showed beneath any of the late models displayed. Skirts are decidedly longer, and the evening gowns have skirts which are several inches longer. All the buyers had crystal jewelry. Necklaces of all sizes, bracelets, brooches and rings of crystal made the ballroom of the Olympic scintillate. There were also ornaments in imitation rubies and emeralds, but the white stones were clearly the most favored. Hats continue small in spite of the efforts of designers to steer the public away from the cloche. Furs are chiefly in browns and reds, and the suits worn by the buyers were largely in various brown shades.

THE MILD WINTER

Miss Corbett Tells How It
Has Helped Offset Lack of Employment.

It is doubtful if there is another person in Rockland so familiar with conditions among the poor as is Miss Helen Corbett, city matron. Asked by a Courier-Gazette reporter as to the effect of the comparatively mild winter she furnished, as might be expected, a very interesting statement.

"There has certainly been less work for the working man just when he needs work most and more men out of work than usual," said Miss Corbett, "but there have been two outstanding elements or causes, which have out-balanced the others.

"For one thing, it has been a very mild winter in Rockland. Men, who might otherwise have been compelled to call upon the city have been clamoring, or fishing and managing to scrape through.

"The other thing is, and perhaps it is the most important, certain women of Rockland are taking a personal interest in their own city and their interest has stirred up other women so that in a quiet, splendid way—hands are held out to help, and sympathy given where needed.

This responsibility is not thrown upon the city matron's shoulders, but these women assume the responsibility—go to the homes, see for themselves, sit down and talk over the mother's difficulties, whether it is Tommy's lack of pants so that he can't go to school, or the baby's new tooth or its colic. Its a heart to heart talk, and one realizes more than ever the truth of Kipling's words.

"For the Colonel's lady, and Judy O'Grady are sisters under their skins."

It's this one big element which has made this winter much easier for a number of families.

"There have been a great number of 'outsiders' appealing for help, mostly from Massachusetts. They claim they were promised work in this vicinity. Perhaps they did get a few days work, but were eventually laid off. To families, especially, were brought to pathetic straits, and although no returns can be made to this city from another State for help given, these families had to be assisted immediately. One family is returning to Boston; the head of the other family is getting work next week.

"There is less 'pauperism' this winter than any winter for a number of years. By pauperism one does not include those who are compelled to call for aid upon the city, but the 'casuals' those who would feel that their birthright was taken from them, were they prohibited from coming. For this reason, or cause one can thank Mayor Carver.

"There is an extraordinary non-appearance of children at the city store, or at the overseers' office with notes from their mothers, asking for shoes, clothing, food, etc.

"The ruling of the Mayor made when first in office, that no child was to come for aid; only their parent or parents, has been of wise moral benefit both to the city and family. The idea that a child coming for help and getting what it wanted, naturally created within the child's mind and heart, a habit of 'cading'—getting something easy, something for nothing, which when fully developed as the child grew—would cause it to become lazy, indolent, shiftless and indifferent to the real value of life and work and would end up like its forebears an H. P. (habitual pauper).

"One can recognize the type any sunny day, lounging and leaning up against the buildings, on the street corners, or loitering around pool-rooms. Young men these, who work one day, loaf three—using their wits to 'get by'.

These same young men used to come with notes from their parents when they were children. Yes, it was a good thing Mayor Carver, to prohibit children coming to the City Store."

SAVINGS BANKS BROADCAST

New Departure in Publicity Is Being Tried Out By State Organization.

Commencing Friday evening, March 9, a new contribution is to be offered to radio fans, a musical treat supplied by courtesy of the Mutual Savings Banks of Maine and the Eastern States. The hour selected, 6 to 7 o'clock, has been termed the "family hour," and it is presumed to be the time when for the most part, families are together, and follows the popular idea of having music with the meals. The broadcast is from WEAP and by means of the Red Net Work of the National Broadcasting Association combines several prominent stations, including WCHS of Portland.

The orchestra furnishing the entertainment is a high grade organization of some 20 talented musicians, and the programs promised will be versatile and pleasing. The mutual savings banks of the country are and they have about eight billion of deposits, and an army of not less than 10,000,000 depositors, and they are the first of any financial type of institution to attempt in any large way a radio plan of contact with the families and homes. The mutual savings banks of Maine cordially invite their depositors and friends to "tune in" every Friday evening from 6 to 7 o'clock and enjoy the family hour.

Whiter wash—less work

Says Miss Clara Aldrich of Portland

"It does my eyes good to see how much whiter and fresher this new laundry soap gets my clothes," says this woman who is one of the thousands of happy Rinso users in this section.

"I must say that Rinso has made washing very easy for me, too. I like the way it makes the water rich and sudsy. About all I have to do is soak the clothes and the dirt comes right out by itself. You don't have to scrub your things or even boil them. My hands like Rinso, and so do my clothes—they wear ever so much longer now. Rinso is grand for dishes, floors, woodwork and bathtubs, too."

Millions use Rinso, and thousands write us letters like this. For whiter clothes with less work get Rinso from your grocer to-day. It's all you need—no bar-soaps, chips or powders. For best results follow the easy directions on package. Two sizes. Most women prefer the big package.

"Everyone admires my hair, now that I'm doing it the new way that nearly every really smart girl I know is using," says Miss Agnes Trane, popular dancer, now appearing in the Broadway hit, "Rio Rita." My hair doesn't need shampooing more than once a month, now. My scalp feels better than it ever has felt. I have gotten rid of all my dandruff. My hair is much easier to arrange, and it stays that way. All I do to keep it like this is put a few dashes of Danderine on my brush every time I use it. It's wonderful how Danderine adds to the beauty of your hair, makes it look so silky and lustrous.

Danderine is not oily. It removes the oily film from each strand of hair and restores the natural color and lustre. It dissolves dandruff, cleanses and invigorates the scalp. It is delightfully fragrant. The big bottles are just 35c at all drug stores. Beautiful, smooth, gleaming hair and a healthy scalp for a few cents.

REPUBLICANS ARE PLEASED

With Results In Seven City Elections—Lose Waterville, Gain Eastport and Ellsworth.

Upsets in two of the seven Maine cities holding municipal elections Monday had apparently placed Republican mayors in chairs occupied by Democrats, while a third, Waterville, elected a Democratic mayor to head a Republican city government.

Bath and Lewiston remained Democratic, Eastport and Ellsworth Republicans swept into control while South Portland continued Republican as did Saco.

Waterville Democrats by a margin of four votes placed their mayoral candidate in office, while Republicans had to be content with control of the city government.

The expected close triangular contest for the mayoralty in Lewiston proved a walkaway for the Democrats who retained control of the city's affairs and re-elected Mayor Robert J. Wiseman to his fourth term.

The Republican boom in Ellsworth swept a clean swathe through a Democratic regime of four years' standing to put G. O. P. candidates in all important offices.

An upset occurred in Eastport where Roscoe C. Emery, Republican, elected to the mayoralty over Mayor Frank A. Havey, Democrat, holds the ship land over a split board of aldermen composed of four Republicans and an equal number of Democrats. A strong attempt in Saco to swing the city back into the Democratic column was unavailing. Judge Willis T. Emmons, Republican candidate for Mayor, Judge Wallace Harmon, his Democratic opponent. The victor will again assume the chair he filled 41 years ago as the youngest man ever to hold the mayoralty in the city.

Mayor Charles H. Cahill, Democrat, of Bath, was re-elected to his fifth term on the endorsement of both Republicans and Democrats.

The South Portland election seethed with ward battles, in which G. O. P. regulars focussed their efforts to defeat candidates said to have the support of the South Portland Men's Club, an alleged secret organization. Mayor George H. Minott, Republican, was re-elected by the largest vote ever cast in the city.

EASTPORT—Former State Senator Roscoe C. Emery, Republican, succeeded in his third attempt in as many years to wrest the mayor's chair from Frank A. Havey, Democrat, by a margin of 52 votes. Emery received 815 votes, Havey 763. As in the previous two contests party lines were to a great extent disregarded, supporters of both candidates worked to bring out an unusually large vote. The Democrats lost control of the City Government by the election of two Republicans, the complexion of the Aldermanic body becoming divided, with four Republicans and four Democrats.

LEWISTON—For the first time when opposition was presented by one or more parties, the Democrats swept all seven wards and re-elected Mayor Robert J. Wiseman to his fourth term by a majority of 2,351. Mayor Wiseman polled 4,400 votes to 1,565 for Mrs. Florence H. Pendleton, Republican, and 484 for Albert B. Morneau, citizen candidate.

ELLSWORTH—For the first time in four years Republicans carried the city in a clean sweep election that brought out the largest vote ever cast in the city. The total vote was 1,688. Monroe Y. McGowan, Republican, defeated Frank L. Heath, Democratic incumbent, by a margin of 126 votes. The Aldermanic body entirely reversed itself from last year, with Republicans effectively putting to rout their respective Democratic opponents with the exception of one ward which resulted in a tie vote.

BATH—Mayor Charles Cahill, Democrat, who received both Republican and Democratic nominations, was re-elected to his fifth term. He received a plurality of 668 votes over Harold P. Small, Citizen candidate. As a result of the election the Aldermanic board in joint convention will consist of 13 Democrats, 11 Republicans, two running as Republican-citizen and one as a Republican-Democrat.

SACO—Judge Willis T. Emmons, Republican candidate for Mayor, was elected over Judge C. Wallace Harmon, Democrat. The Republicans carried four of the seven wards, giving them control of the city government and the election of all subordinate officers. Judge Emmons was first elected Mayor of Saco 41 years ago this month, and was the youngest man to ever hold the office being 27 years of age at that time.

SOUTH PORTLAND—George H. Minott, Republican, unopposed, was re-elected to the mayoralty of South Portland by the largest vote ever cast in the city. He received 1,677. Charles H. Sawyer, making a bid for the mayor's chair, as a dark horse, polled 14 votes.

WATERVILLE—F. Harold DuBord, Democrat, was elected mayor by a narrow margin of four votes over the Republican candidate, Chester W. Getchell. Five wards of the city went Republican, giving the city government the substantial Republican majority.

TENANT'S HARBOR

A. J. Hawley has returned from a few weeks' visit in Massachusetts. Mrs. Charles Murphy of Willardham Quarry boarding house who underwent an operation at Knox Hospital, necessitating the amputation of the leg above the knee, is resting comfortably and the stitches have been removed from the wound.

Mrs. William Gillis is visiting relatives in Massachusetts. Mrs. John Wood left Tuesday in company with Mrs. Gillis to be a guest of Mrs. Nanette Wheeler of Cambridge, Mass.

The Senior Class wishes through this column to express their appreciation and thanks for the patronage given them at their play last Thursday evening. Also to thank all who aided in any way, but were unable to be present, and especially do they express gratitude to those who displayed special interest by rendering assistance in any way in the performance of the play, making it a financial success.

Exceptionally Good Entertainment

Many favorable comments are being passed on the Senior class play which was presented in J. O. O. P. hall last Thursday evening. "Fickle Fortune" was its title and some regarded it as the best play yet given by the Seniors, each character taking his part in an exceptionally able manner and winning much applause from the audience. The Senior class comprises Elizabeth Pickering, Alvertie Morris, Ruth Proctor, Edith Murray, Howard Monaghan and Philip Murphy. They were assisted by a few of the Juniors and Sophomores and by Everett Torrey, a former graduate, whose help was considered of much value. A great deal of credit is due Principal Erskine and Assistant Miss Kirk who coached the play; also Mr. Torrey for the success in every way.

Smalley's orchestra furnished the music between the acts and for the dance following. A generous amount of home-made candy was donated by the townfolk and helped to enlarge the proceeds which are to be used for graduation expenses.

CONDEMNS POLICY

Farmers Not Too Spineless To Raise Objection, Says Rockland Correspondent.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:— Congress has cut down the Navy appropriation to about 40% of the amount that Secretary Wilbur has declared is necessary and instead, is going to spend $300,000,000 on the useless Columbia river irrigation project, despite the protests of National Master Tabor head of the National Grange, and of the State Master of the Washington State Grange, who declares that the project will ruin the farmers in the rest of the State of Washington, who are even now suffering from over-production.

Both of these men appeared before Congress, favoring the Naval appropriation and in objection to further extension of irrigation projects. The National Grange in its 1926 (Nov.) session at Portland unanimously voted against further irrigation and called for a subsidized merchant marine supplemented by a strong navy.

Does Congress expect the eastern farmers to be satisfied with such a program, or does it consider them too spineless and inert to raise an objection? Here are a few lines from Theodore Roosevelt's "Winning of the West" Vol. 5 pp. 226 and 227.

Wayne had brought peace by the sword. It was the first time the border had been quiet for over a generation; and for 15 years the quiet lasted unbroken. The credit belongs to Wayne and his army, and to the Government which stood behind both. Because it thus finally stood behind them (British) we can forgive its manifold shortcomings and vacillations, its futile efforts to beg a peace, and its reluctance to go to war. We can forgive all this; but we should not forget it. Americans need to keep in mind the fact that as a nation they have erred far more often in not being willing enough to fight than in being too willing. Once roused, they have always been dangerous and hard-fighting foes; but they have been over-forgiving. Their educated classes, in particular, need to be perpetually reminded that, though it is an evil thing to brave a conflict needlessly, or to bully and bluster, it is an even worse thing to flinch from a fight for which there is legitimate provocation, or to live in supine, slothful, unprepared ease helpless to avert an injury.

American historians, for example, usually condemn them (British) without stint because in 1814 the army of Ross and Cockburn burned and looted the public buildings of Washington; but by rights they should keep all their condemnation for their own country, so far as the taking of Washington is concerned; for the sin of burning a few public buildings is as nothing compared with the cowardly infamy of which the politicians of the stripe of Jefferson and Madison, and the people whom they represented, were guilty in not making ready, by sea and land, to protect their Capital and in not exacting full revenge for its destruction.

No blame for this is attached to the Maine delegation in this (or any other) Congress. Congressman White and Senator Hale have rendered able and distinguished service, in this, and all other matters.

P.A. and a pipe—that's all I ask

I DON'T mean that I am easily satisfied. As a matter of fact, I'm as critical as they come about smoking-tobacco. There are certain things I demand in a smoke, and I declare here and now that P.A. has 'em. Has 'em and to spare, if you ask me.

Fragrant as spring blossoms. Cool as "The boss wants to see you." Sweet as "I'm going to raise your pay." Mild and mellow and long-burning, with full satisfaction in every wonderful puff. It seems that there are not enough hours in a day to suit your Prince Albert program. You'll start in early and stay with it far into the night.

But all this conversation won't do you any good, unless you try out the tobacco itself. When it comes to speaking for itself, P.A. is the best little talker you ever listened to. Go get yourself a tidy red tin and get some of this pipe-joy I've been picturing.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

More in quality, more in quantity—TWO full ounces in every tin.
