Irene chapter, O. E. S., has accepted an invitation to visit Jephthah chapter, Southwest Harbor, next Tuesday evening.

Frank M. Gaynor and wife, Mrs. Mary J. Mullan and Miss Annie F. Mullan have gone to Northeast Harbor for the summer.

Mrs. Hoyt A. Moore and son, of New York, are expected to arrive to-day for the summer vacation. Mr. Moore will come later.

Mrs. Herman E. Hill, who has spent the winter in Boston, is here for the summer. Mr. Hill expects to join her here the first of July.

Thirty-two Ellsworth people went to Jacksonville to-day, for the annual reunion and campfire of the Eastern Maine Veterans association.

Miss Evelyn Atkins is spending a vacation of two weeks at her home in Dexter. Mrs. Guy Raymond has been her guest there for a few days.

The S. L. C.'s will meet on Thursday evening with Mrs. E. M. Dodge. The principal feature of the evening will be the guessing contest.

Stetson Foster and wife, of Boston, were here over Sunday. The family expects to come later and occupy the Foster bungalow on the Surry road.

City Marshal John A. Stuart calls attention of boys to the city ordinance which reads: "No person shall, unless properly clothed, bathe in any waters within the city, in view of any lane, street or house." The penalty for violation of this ordinance is a fine not exceeding $20.

Mrs. Charlotte Clement and her sister, Mrs. Susan Murch, are home from Bucksport, where they have been visiting their cousin, Mrs. Carrie Hagarthy.

George S. Foster, who has been traveling in the middle West, is home for a short visit. Mrs. Foster, who has been visiting in Massachusetts, returned with him.

Dr. Lewis Hodgkins has been appointed pension surgeon at Ellsworth, in place of Dr. F. F. Simonton, who resigned on account of removal from Ellsworth.

Miss Nora Doyle, of Lewiston, is here to attend the graduation exercises of the high school, her niece, Miss Hannah Frances Malone, being among the graduates.

Frank D. Rowe and wife, of Warren, are the guests for a few weeks of Mr. Rowe's parents, Elmer E. Rowe and wife. Mr. Rowe is principal of the Warren high school.

The summer schedule on the railroad will go into effect next Monday. Readers will observe that the time-table as printed in this week's issue is not in effect until that date.

Patrick E. Kearns, formerly of the firm of Kearns & Cottle, who recently returned from Spokane, has leased one of the stores in the Odd Fellows block, and will shortly open a grocery store.

Mrs. Charles A. Hanscom will give an afternoon bridge party for ladies at her home on Franklin street Thursday afternoon, June 29, for the benefit of the Village Improvement society.

Uriah N. Look died last Wednesday at his home on the Bayside road, aged seventy-six years. He leaves a widow and one son. The funeral was held Saturday at the home, Rev. P. A. A. Killam officiating.

The unusual spectacle of a flurry of snow in June was seen this morning—June 21. A strong northwest wind was blowing, the atmosphere cool, and the flakes came from a cloud which passed over the city about 7:30.

Mr. Chief-Justice Emery is to-day attending the fiftieth anniversary reunion of his class—Bowdoin 1861—at Brunswick. Of the seventeen surviving members of this class, twelve are expected to be present at the reunion to-day.

Acadia chapter, Royal Arch, had afternoon and evening sessions yesterday, working the P. and M. E. degrees on one candidate in the afternoon, and the R. A. degree on three candidates in the evening. Supper was served at 6:30.

Arthur Parcher, who has completed his junior year in Bowdoin college, arrived home Friday for the summer. He is carrying his right arm in a sling, the result of a broken forearm sustained last Wednesday at Lewiston, while cranking an automobile.

A good-sized congregation had gathered at the Methodist church Sunday morning to hear the new minister, when, just before time for service to begin, a telegram arrived which should have been delivered Saturday night, stating that he could not get here until June 21 or 22.

The schooner yacht Lorelei is welcomed back to Union river. Frank S. Lord, who owned the yacht several years, sold her a few years ago to Dr. Montgomery, of Boston, who has a summer home on Bluehill bay. The yacht has now been purchased by Frank S. Lord, Joseph W. Nealley and E. G. Moore, of Ellsworth, and Fred W. Joy, of New York.

Miss Teresa K. McClure, of Cherryfield, and Harry H. Willey, of Milbridge, were married last Wednesday evening at St. Joseph's rectory, Ellsworth, by Rev. P. J. Flanagan. The bride is the youngest daughter of George W. McClure, and one of Washington county's successful school teachers. Mr. Willey is a young Bar Harbor business man.

K. M. Cameron, of Sherbrooke, Quebec, is expected to arrive to-morrow to join his family, who are spending the summer with Mrs. Cameron's parents, John F. Knowlton and wife. Mr. Cameron is district engineer of public works of Canada for the district of Sherbrooke, a new district which has recently been established.

A steel ceiling has been put in the banking rooms of the Union Trust Co. Frank R. Moore and his crew, who put up the ceiling, made a record for time. They began work at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after the bank closed, and finished the work Sunday, thus causing no interruption or inconvenience to the business of the bank and its customers.

The Ellsworth High School Alumni association will have its annual banquet some time during Old Home week, the day not yet being determined. The by-laws of the association provide that the annual meeting shall be held before July 15, but the officers of the association believed it would please a greater number of the alumni away from home to have a reunion and banquet during Old Home week. The annual meeting will be held before July 15.

Samuel P. Jordan died Friday at his home on Water street, aged nearly seventy-four years. Mr. Jordan was a native of Waltham, but most of his life he had lived in Ellsworth. He leaves a widow, two sons—Capt. John W., of Ellsworth, and Samuel, of Caribou, and one daughter—Mrs. Luella J. Pedersen, of Ellsworth. The funeral was held at the home Sunday. Rev. P. A. A. Killam officiating. The body was taken to Waltham for interment.

The thirty-first annual reunion of the Sixth Maine Veteran association will be held in Ellsworth, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 13, 14 and 15. The fiftieth is the fiftieth anniversary of the regiment's muster into the service. Reduced rates will be allowed on the Maine Central and Bangor & Aroostook railroads; tickets good from July 12 to July 17. The executive committee consists of Arthur I. Saunders, A. W. Curtis and Edmund Bonsey, of Ellsworth.

Rev. K. B. Mathews, of the Congregational church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Ellsworth high school at a union meeting at Hancock hall Sunday evening. The class, led by its marshal, Miss Ruth G. Maddocks, marched into the hall. Mr. Mathews delivered a sermon that was eloquent and uplifting. Rev. P. A. A. Killam, of the Baptist church, assisted in the service and led the congregational singing. Miss Erva Giles presided at the piano.

The regular meeting of the Ellsworth Merchants' association was held Monday evening. Reports were received from Old Home week and the Fourth of July committees, and plans discussed. John P. Eldridge, of the committee appointed to see the Hancock County Fair association, reported that favorable arrangements could be made for the use of Wyman park if it was decided to have a fair this fall. A special meeting will be called soon to consider the fair proposition. Soon after the Fourth a general mass meeting of citizens will be called, at which all general committees for Old Home week will be appointed.

Echoes of Coombs Block Fire. With the exception of insurance on the building, all the losses in the Coombs block fire of June 10 have been adjusted. Pending adjustment of loss on the building, the disposition that will be made of the lot is uncertain.

The tenants of the building have all found new locations except P. H. Bonsey, the baker, who has not yet decided what he will do.

R. M. Campbell has leased the store in the Hagerthy building, known as Lord's hall, on Main street, and will open a job printing office as soon as material arrives. The publication of the Enterprise, Mr. Campbell says, will not be resumed immediately.

P. H. Shea has rented the store on Franklin street, adjoining Osgood's photograph studio, and is already established there.

David Linnehan has moved his billiard hall to the Gaynor building on Water street.

NORTH ELLSWORTH.

Miss Frances Malone, of Ellsworth, was the guest of Miss Ruth Maddocks recently.

Miss Gertrude Maddocks is at home from Bar Harbor, where she has been employed.

Mrs. H. F. Maddocks and son Dana came home Saturday, after a week's visit in Bar Harbor.

Charles D. Rea and Howard Richardson are spending a short time at Frank Moore's camp at Branch pond.

C. A. Dews while making an inspection of the machines on the North Ellsworth Farmers' telephone line last week discovered that some person or persons, unknown, had entered Agricultural hall at the fair grounds and destroyed the telephone machine there. The locks of two doors were forced, the front of the machine ripped open, all the wire connections cut, and the batteries taken out. The most plausible explanation of the theft so far suggested is that some automobile driver, caught on the road with weak batteries, took this means of renewing them.

NEW PAINT SHOP.

I have leased the Gould building at West end of bridge, and am prepared to do PAINTING, PAPER-HANGING, CALSOMINING and FURNITURE PAINTING.

WOULD-BE BANDITS.

Two Boys Work Destruction at Phillips Lake Cottages. The Bangor police were notified Friday that several cottages at Phillips lake, owned by Bangor men, had been broken into, and that two boys were still occupying one of the cottages, having been discovered by caretakers of the cottage.

Two Bangor officers made a quick trip to Phillips lake in an auto. The boys had taken the alarm, and when the officers arrived were far down the lake in a canoe. The officers gave chase, the boys landed and took to the woods, where they were captured.

They gave their names as Charles Forbes, aged fifteen, of Woburn, Mass., who lately has been living in Eastport, and Harry Homan, aged eighteen, of Eastport. When captured they were fitted out with guns and revolvers taken from the cottages, and wore stolen clothing as near to Wild West costumes as they could select.

The boys said they had walked or beaten their way on freight trains from Eastport, bound for Bangor, looking for work. They reached the vicinity of Phillips lake during one of the heavy rains early in the week, and the cottages offered a tempting invitation. They broke into one and found food and shelter.

They liked the place and decided to stop awhile, and put in nearly a week there. Out of pure vandalism they broke into nearly all the cottages on the lake, shooting off locks, breaking in doors and windows with axes, breaking up furniture, and using mirrors, clocks and lamps as targets for their rifles and revolvers.

The cottages entered were those of George W. Parker, Walter Stewart, John L. Parker, Charles S. Pearl, Fred Eddy, Henry Peakes, Langdon S. Chilcott, George W. Mansur, J. W. McClure and M. S. Cates.

As the depredations occurred in Hancock county, Sheriff Webster was notified, and with Deputy Sheriff Finn went to Bangor and brought the boys to Ellsworth. They were arraigned before Judge Hall in the Ellsworth municipal court Saturday morning, pleaded guilty, and were committed to jail to await action of the grand jury in October, in default of $500 bail each.

EXERCISES AT MORRISON SCHOOL.

The graduation exercises of the Morrison school, Miss Ruby J. Gurney, teacher, were held Friday afternoon. There was a good attendance of parents and friends.

Ellsworth Falls—Robert Haynes, Bessie Lake, Louise Young, Isabel Falvey, Bernice Garland, Viola Goggin. No. 2, Lakewood—Mabel Salisbury.

FOURTH OF JULY. ELLSWORTH WILL ENTERTAIN A BIG CROWD.

HUNDREDS OF REDMEN WILL BE IN LINE—LIST OF PRIZES—REDUCED RAILROAD RATES. Ellsworth will entertain a big crowd on the Fourth. The committee of the Merchants' association having the celebration in hand has worked hard, and deserves the undivided support and encouragement of the business men and citizens of Ellsworth.

Ellsworth will offer to visitors on the Fourth a full day's program of interesting events, all to take place in the business section, and all to be free except the big ball at Hancock hall in the evening. The Maccabee band, of Milltown, and the Bar Harbor band have been engaged for the day.

RED MEN COMING. There will be a big crowd of Red Men here. At least fourteen tribes will be represented, some with large delegations. The visiting Red Men are requested on arrival to report at Hancock hall and register with Omaha tribe, of Hancock, which will act as host tribe. There all the Red Men will be presented with souvenir Ellsworth Fourth of July buttons.

The Red Men and the bands will assemble at Hancock hall at 12 o'clock and march to Odd Fellows hall, where a complimentary dinner will be served. They will assemble again at Hancock hall at 2 o'clock to prepare for the afternoon parade.

The Merchants' association room at Hancock hall will be their headquarters during the day, and here refreshments will be served. The program for the day follows: Sunrise—Ringing of bells; salute.

8-9—Band concert postoffice square. 9—Arrival of Washington County special, with band, Red Men, etc. 9-10—Parade of horrors, Main and Water streets.

10-11—Minor sports, all down town. 10.30—Greased pole, postoffice square. 11-12—Fat men's race, Water street. 11.30-12—Coin scramble, near Hancock hall. 11.40-12—Pie contest.

12—Dinner to Red Men and K. P. at Odd Fellows hall. 1-2—Band concert, Hancock hall and postoffice square. 2-3—Greased pig contest, Main street.

3-4—Grand prize parade, mounted guard, escort, Red Men, U.R.K. of P. fire department, horribles, floats, automobiles, etc. 3-4—Hand-tub contest.

4-5—Girls' basket ball game, west side of bridge, Bar Harbor vs Ellsworth. 5-5.15—Log race, Union river rapids. 5.15-5.30—Canoe race, Union river. 7-8—Band concert. 8—Fourth of July ball.

LIST OF PRIZES. Prizes are offered for all events, the conditions being that there shall be at least three starters. Following is the list of prizes: Horribles, cash prizes aggregating $25.

Minor sports, special cash prizes. Fat men's race, $10 in cash prizes. Manned B. Young, whose title to State championship for men weighing over 200 pounds, is the challenger to all comers.

Pie-eating contest, $2 and $1. Greased pig, winner takes the pig. Greased pole contest, $5. Red Men, for tribe making best appearance in parade, handsome copper cup with pewter trimmings, given by Burrill national bank. Second prize, $5.

For most attractive float in parade, other than Red Men, $10 in gold, given by Union Trust Co. Second prize, $5. Most handsomely decorated automobile in parade, $5.

Most unique business team in parade, $5. Best appearing R. F. D. team and private team, $5 each. Basketball game, $10 in gold. Log race, cash prizes aggregating $30. Entries must be sent to Roy C. Haines, secretary, on or before June 30.

Canoe race, prizes $1 and $2. Entries to close as in log race. ATTRACTIVE FLOATS PLANNED. An unusually attractive display of floats for the parade is assured. The Knights of Columbus, Eastern Stars and Rebekahs have already voted to put floats in the parade, and the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows will doubtless do the same. Two girls' clubs are also preparing to have floats.

CHALLENGE TO OLD HUNNEMAN. L. H. Cushman, as foreman of Dirigo engine, has issued the following challenge: ELLSWORTH, ME., June 20, 1911. To M. J. Drummer, Foreman Hunneman Engine Company.

Be it known to all men and more especially your venerable self and colleagues, that I, L. H. Cushman, in behalf of the Dirigo engine company do hereby challenge you and your crowd to a matched play-out at Ellsworth, county of Hancock, State of Maine, on July 4, in the year of our Lord 1911.

Knees Became Stiff Five Years of Severe Rheumatism. The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." Get it today in usual liquid form, or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabl.
