No. 3

Waste Not, Want Not

There's a little saying to the effect that you can't eat your cake and still have it.

It is the same way with your health. You can't abuse it continuously and expect some hidden reservoir of strength to keep it going indefinitely.

"Waste not, want not" applies as much to health and strength as any other thing you can name.

Just how we shall live is for us to decide—but when medical assistance is needed there's only one logical course to pursue.

A BUSHEL OF FREAKS

Crockett Didn't Have Much Luck With Idaho Spuds—A Belated Strawberry.

I am sending you a wild strawberry picked on my land Oct. 21. Who says the good old State of Maine can't compete with Florida?

I am also sending a freak potato which you can see, looks very much like a young duck. The seed that this potato was grown from came from Idaho. I planted four potatoes last spring and they were smooth and handsome. The result was that I got a bushel of freaks for potatoes. I think the change from Idaho to North Haven must have given them a severe jolt, as my potatoes look.

MENTIONS OLD FRIENDS

Eubertus Clark Sends Back a Friendly Hail From California.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—It is like seeing someone from home when your paper comes to my house three times a week, bringing the home news from all over Knox County and many other places. I come upon news that I never would hear of in any other way, of old friends who visit there from all over the United States. Some of it pleasing and some is sad news.

I was sorry to hear of the dreadful death of my old playmate at Clark Island, James H. Barnes. We played together, worked together and lived close together for over 40 years; he was a good, faithful, honest man, and his willing hands always found him employment. I sent that copy of the paper to another old playmate, Clyde Graves, who lives 550 miles north of here in Saratoga, Calif. Clyde wrote me of how sorry he was to get the sad news.

Clyde's mother, Mrs. Graves, died last November at the age of 90. His sister Annie died last July. His brother Leland Graves has been confined to a hospital bed for two years with no hope of being any better.

I read in the July 5 issue of your paper the story of the Glover family as told by Edward F. Glover. It was very interesting to me, as I worked for W. H. Glover Co. for two summers. We all worked hard, but just the same we used to have lots of fun around that lumber yard. I never knew where the Glover family came from until I read this article. Noticing that they came from Pembroke, Mass., reminded me of when I lived in Duxbury, the town adjoining Pembroke and of the Glover men I met there in the Odd Fellows lodge every Saturday night. There were three brothers each over 60 years of age and all Past Noble Grand of that lodge. They were carpenters, men who reminded me of "Kent" Glover. I think they were some of the old Glover stock. When I went through the Panama Canal two years ago and saw the big steamers passing through loaded with lumber from the western coast I wondered if any of it ever reached the W. H. Glover Co. and I think it did.

I like to read "Tenants Harbor Days," by our friend Boze. He speaks of digging clams. It makes me feel as if I would like to be down at Wheeler's Bay, digging "em myself. That is one thing we don't get in San Diego Bay. Neither do we get such good fish as are back there on the coast of Maine. Plenty of fish here, but not like those. But we have all kinds of fruit and sunshine and climate. Today is the first time we have had a drop of rain since last January. It rained hard for 15 minutes. At Mount Wilson at Pasadena, 150 miles north of here, they got 2 1/2 inches of snow.

We have had a very cool summer, but good weather. I took charge of the City Park Dec. 27, 1927, and have worked every day since. The climate is the best part of California for a working man if he can get anything to do, but there are many out of work and have been for a long time. They work a day, sometimes two days, some a week, and maybe not get another day's work for a month.

With best wishes to old friends of Knox County.

THE LIONS ROARED

Steps Taken To Launch Popular Organization In Rockland.

The nucleus of a Lions International Club was formed in this city last night, after a small but enthusiastic gathering had listened to a series of speeches by visiting Lions and local "prospects." The meeting was held at the Copper Kettle, being preceded by a chicken supper served in that institution's finest style.

Gus Tapley, Sturtevant of Portland, field director of Lions International, presided over the session, introducing the first speaker, Walter W. Morse, a past president of the Portland Club, who feels a particularly strong interest in having a Rockland Club by reason of the fact that he started in the insurance business here 20 years ago. He referred gracefully to Rockland's "two wonderful clubs," and sketched briefly the history of the service club movement which resulted in the foundation of Rotary in 1905, Kiwanis in 1915 and Lions in 1917. The last named fraternity, according to Mr. Morse, has grown faster than any other service organization. He cited some of the Portland activities which have been responsible for its present prosperity and high standing.

"Don't be afraid to start with a small club, but build it up and build carefully." This was the message brought all the way from Auburn, by Sam E. Conner, Maine's best known newspaper man. "A Lion is just a good fellow all the time," said he.

Andrew Jackson, who is a representative to Legislature from Portland, was bold enough to claim that the Lions International is head and shoulders above any other service club.

Fred Gabbi of Portland, first district governor of Maine, is one of the reasons for the Lions' success in this State. He is always glad of a business excuse to come down this way, as his wife is a former Rockland girl, and he has many friends down this way. He said that the Portland club started with a membership of five and the list is closed with 100. There are undoubtedly 50 on the outside waiting to get in. Never a town in the United States but has been benefited by a Lions club, he said.

The local speakers were Frank H. Ingraham, Charles T. Smalley, Ensign Otis, Dr. R. J. Waggatt and Earle C. Dow, who presented interesting views on the subject.

GOULD RESIGNS

Rockland Boy Leaves Auburn Faculty For a Government Position.

Stephen Gould, chemistry instructor at Edward Little high school, Auburn, has announced his resignation to accept a position with the Department of Chemistry at Washington, D. C. He will be employed doing research work, and it is expected his resignation will take effect Nov. 19.

Mr. Gould went to Edward Little high school in 1923 succeeding Harold A. Strout as instructor of chemistry. He was graduated from Rockland high school in 1915 and Bates College in 1919. He also graduated from Columbia University, receiving the degree of M.A.

During his senior year at Bates he was instructor of industrial chemistry. After graduating from college he was principal of Bowdoinham and Franklin High Schools. He was also employed as a chemist for East Coast Fisheries Co. at Rockland and the Miller Rubber Co. at Akron, Ohio.

The Lewiston Sun, commenting upon Mr. Gould's resignation said: "Mr. Gould was well liked and proved himself a good instructor. He gave himself over to his work entirely. No one has been selected to succeed him."

FOOTBALL NOTES

M. C. I. and Higgins Classical Institute played a 6 to 0 tie at Pittsfield Saturday. "Gabi" Fowler, former Rockland High star, is playing left end for Higgins and giving a good account of himself.

Crosby High which has met both Rockland and Camden this season, played a 13 to 13 tie with Newport High Saturday.

Cony High School of Augusta plays here next Saturday and it will be the big game in Rockland High's schedule. The State Capital, as usual, has a strong team, and the Orange and Black will do very well to hold it to a low score.

A VANISHED INDUSTRY

Property of the Defunct Bodwell Granite Company At Vinalhaven Is Sold At Receivers' Auction

The Bodwell Granite Company, which ceased active operations in Vinalhaven about 10 years ago, faded from the picture utterly when the remaining properties were sold at auction by Receivers Paine and Hudson last Thursday. The total receipts were a few thousand dollars—certainly in sharp contrast to the great influence and extent which once marked this concern.

There were three bidders for the real estate, Isidor Gordon of Rockland, Joseph Black, granite manufacturer of Vinalhaven and C. F. Grimes, wholesale fish dealer of Vinalhaven. Mr. Gordon who has figured extensively in such deals in this part of the State, outbid his competitors and became the possessor of about 600 acres of land, which includes the Wharf Quarry of 40 acres, the Brown quarry of 200 acres, the City Point quarry of 175 acres, the Granite Island quarry of 75 acres, the Dyer's Island Quarry of 60 acres, the Harbor Quarry of 15 acres and four acres of the Sands Quarry.

Mr. Gordon also bought seven or eight small parcels of real estate. The quarry properties which he bought include stone shed and machine shops, and some of the quarry lands are also heavily timbered. Mr. Gordon foresees a possible return of the granite boom, and will await an opportunity to dispose of the properties to advantage.

The Portland Machinery Exchange bought all of the machinery and the railroad property, paying therefore the sum of $930 and will proceed at once to junk or resell.

A few small lots of machinery were disposed of at private sale before the auction began.

PROVED NEARLY FATAL

Fred Hartford Fell From Hayrack In Glencove Barn Saturday and Is Still In State of Coma

Fred Hartford of Rockport was still unconscious this morning at Knox Hospital whither he was taken Sunday afternoon after an accidental fall in Arthur B. Packard's hayrack at Glencove. It was believed, however, that if no complications set in within the next 24 hours that he would recover.

Mr. Hartford went to the barn with a large horse-drawn rick to load on hay from the loft for delivery to a customer. The vehicle was loaded without mishap. Mr. Hartford being assisted by Mr. Packard's son-in-law, Gifford Caldwell.

Mr. Hartford decided to make the load more secure by tying it lengthwise with a rope. So he mounted the rick, Mr. Caldwell meantime holding the rope taut from the floor.

All went well until the rope snapped. The effect was to cause Mr. Hartford to somersault backward. He struck Mr. Caldwell on the head, and both men fell to the floor. Mr. Hartford struck on a pile of lumber. The frightened horse plunged forward, damaging the barn and breaking the axle of the rick.

Mr. Caldwell was only stunned. He awoke to find his companion unconscious, and shouted for help. Mr. Packard and Douglas Bisbee responded.

Mr. Hartford partly revived, and proceeded to his home at Highland Square, accompanied by Mr. Caldwell, who had suffered only minor injuries. That night Mr. Hartford sank into a coma from which he has not since aroused.

WE LOSE ANOTHER SNUG ONE

Rockland High Beaten By a Single Touchdown In Bath—Other Football Matters

After a series of remarkable football battles Saturday featured by unusually widespread and effective use of the forward pass—a scoring weapon a handful of teams stand out as likely contenders for the unofficial "championship" honors of the East.

Yale, Army, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, New York University, Carnegie Tech and Georgetown were the major teams that emerged not only victorious on Saturday, but undefeated and untied as yet this season.

Yale and the Army, which meet next Saturday at New Haven in a game that may go far to settle the question of eastern or even nationwide supremacy, buttressed their claims to recognition by clear-cut victories over teams which previously were undefeated. The Elis' 32 to 14 triumph over Brown Saturday, and the Cadets' 15 to 0 shutout of Harvard, indicated that again there is little to choose between these old rivals and that their forthcoming battle in the bowl will be as hard fought as last year when Yale won by the narrow margin of 10 to 6.

That Dartmouth cannot be counted out of the title race was shown when the Big Green rushed an unbeaten and promising Columbia team off its feet to win by 21 to 7 without the services of its star back, Al Marsters.

Pennsylvania lived up to expectations by beating off the challenge of a crippled but hard-fighting and dangerous Penn State, eleven and winning by a 14 to 0 score, while N. Y. U., Carnegie and Georgetown sliced their way through less formidable opposition to keep their records clean.

New York University and Carnegie, which meet on Nov. 4, won shutouts by 48 to 0 and 19 to 0 over Rutgers and Washington and Jefferson, respectively. Georgetown's goal line was crossed for the first time in a 34 to 7 win over West Virginia Wesleyan.

Morse 7, Rockland 0
Rockland High was defeated by the above score in Bath Saturday. The Bath Times gave the following report of the game:

A touchdown march in the third quarter in which the Morse back carried the leather from their own 40 to the goal line gave the Bath leads their victory.

Rockland staged a game fight against Cutts' boys who got the jump and could not be licked. Wiggins, star halfback of the visitors, was forced out of the game in the second half with injuries while Accardi, the Lime City fullback assumed the offensive burden for Rockland. Twice the visiting backs reached the Morse 10 yard line and made gallant bids for touchdowns—but twice the Morse line rose to the occasion and repulsed the visitors' offense.

In backs slashed their way to the Rockland 20 yard stripe after taking the kick off. But a fumble marred a possible score here and Rockland opened up with a deceptive off tackle style of play from kick formation. Wiggins and Accardi did the bulk of the carrying and ran hard. But other than a pair of first downs Rockland was powerless and the first half consisted mainly of exchanging kicks with a few passes mixed in.

The Morse score came late in the third quarter. Hall, visiting quarterback, punted from his own 10 yard mark to Morse 45 line and Snipe came back with it five yards. Whitehouse circled right end-wide and was pulled down until he had planted the oval on the Rockland 30 yard stripe. Gaudet and Snipe slashed through for a first down and with the ball on the visitors' 15 yard marker a cross buck was employed. Hart received the leather and swung wide to out-sprint the Rockland secondary defense for a touchdown. Snipe crashed through left tackle for the extra point.

With Accardi picking up five yards off tackle here and there, Rockland advanced the ball to Morse's 10 yard stripe in the last quarter but the Morse line hurried the Rockland offense back for no gain.

Winslow High which defeated Rockland High 10 to 1 a week ago out-pointed Brewer High Saturday, when a single touchdown was made.

The Maine Freshmen held Cobscook Classical Institute in a scoreless game Saturday. "Runt" Trafton played quarterback for the Frosh part of the game.

Tufts defeated Bowdoin 10 to 0 in Brunswick Saturday, but Mal Morrill's team was within striking distance of a touchdown when the final whistle sounded. The Bowdoin line held well, and Bowdoin uncorked some good forward passes, but less is to be said for the team's generalship. The game was witnessed by about a score of Rockland fans.

The Bangor second team played in Camden Saturday and was defeated 14 to 6 by Camden High. Touchdowns were made by Alexander, Weaver and Shean, Camden scoring an added point on each of its touchdowns.

The State college series begins next Saturday, with Bowdoin playing Colby in Waterville, and Bates playing Maine in Orono. The Orono game was within striking distance of a clutch for U. of M., but if Bowdoin is to beat Colby, a decided improvement must be shown in tactics.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Ralph Thorndike drives a new Ford coupe.

Frank Trafton is at Moosehead on business for the Maine Central Railroad.

Manager Carl H. Benson of Park Theatre has been spending a few days at his former home in Worcester, Mass.

The Rockland & Rockport Lime Corporation furnishes 275 carloads of crushed stone for the Thomaston highway job Saturday.

Commander Stanley V. Parker, former commander of the Coast Guard Cutter Ossipee, has been ordered to the turbo-electric Coast Guard Cutter Champlain.

The first arrest in 20 days was made by the police Sunday, and bay rum was the cause of this man's downfall. Either booze is scarcer or one is not so thirsty in autumn.

There will be a meeting of the Alumni of Knox Hospital Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Louis Hanley, 3 Fluker street, Thomaston.

A. E. Orr, Dr. B. E. Flanders, Thomas Chisholm, Albert Orr, H. P. Eickman, Harry Payson, Harold Marshall and Fred Sherman left Sunday for a hunting trip to Snow Shoe Lake, Patten.

Mayor Carver, who is also a commodore in his leisure hours, is said to be in the market for a pilot who is familiar with the channel between the Public Landing and Rockland Breakwater.

Em. Sir Walter P. Ordway, grand generalissimo of the Grand Com-mandery of Maine will make his official inspection of Claremont Com-mandery next Monday night. Chicken supper at 6 p. m. at $1 a plate.

The American Legion has engaged Temple hall for Halloween night (Oct. 31), and will give a dance which will mark the beginning of a winter series of entertainments. There will be novelties, favors, refreshments and everything that goes to make a holiday dance popular.

The Parent Teacher Association will tender a reception to the new members on Monday evening, Oct. 29, at the R.H.S. gymnasium. All adults are cordially invited, this way being taken to extend the invitation to all interested in the work the association is undertaking.

There was some warm competition at Carr's alleys last week, the occasion of it being the cash prizes offered by the proprietor. The winners were: Men, Capt. Speed, $5, score 359; "Ty" Cobb, $3, score 338; Vance Norton, $2, score 328; women, Marie Chadwick, $2, score 225; Myrtle Thomas, $1, score 196.

About 20 members of the local Y.P.C.U. of the Universalist church are planning to attend the annual "Tep" banquet to be held in Brunswick Friday evening. Many of these young people desire transportation, and those who are able to help out are asked to communicate with either Wilbur Senter, president of the Y.P.C.U., or Mrs. C. A. Knickerbocker.

It was the writer's privilege Sunday afternoon to stand for a few moments on the premises of Frank Payson who lives about a mile from Gore Corner on the East Union road, and view what he believes to be the handsomest scenery in Knox County. Because of the recent frosty weather the autumn foliage was no longer at its best, but the great valley was alive with color. At the base of the ridge was picturesque Hobbs' Pond, and the background was Hatched Mountain. Far off in the distance could be seen the foot of Mt. Katahdin and the summit of Bluehill.

The statement in the Portland Evening News that H. C. Buzzell of Belfast might be named as the successor to Associate Justice Philbrook was read with interest here, but those who are closest in touch with the situation consider it very unlikely, for two reasons. One is that Senator Buzzell is pledged to Judge E. K. Gould of Rockland as a candidate for the Supreme Bench; the other reason is that Senator Buzzell is known to have important political aspirations which would of necessity be sidetracked if he went on the Bench. Waldo and Knox Counties are understood to be a unit for Judge Gould.

Readings by Mrs. Clara B. Emery from the book of poems of the late Beulah Sylvester Oxtown, her sister, were enjoyed at Penobscot View Grange last Thursday evening and Fernando S. Philbrick spoke interestingly of his experiences in the Rocky Mountains, this being the first installment of the story of his recent Western trip. Because the patrons are preparing for the fair to be held Friday of this week there will be no program this Thursday evening, but Horatia D. Crie will give a talk on sheep and sheep raising Nov. 1 and the second installment of Mr. Philbrick's narrative will be given.

DUNA

When I was a little lad
With folly on my lips,
All to ships and salt
All the seas in ships.
But now across the southern swell,
The little streams of Duna
Running clear.
When I was a young man,
Before my beard was gray,
All to ships and salt
I gave my heart away.
But I'm weary of the sea-wind,
I'm weary of the foam,
And the little stars of Duna
Call me home.

Are You Allowing for Depreciation on Yourself?

Age comes on by almost imperceptible degrees. The inevitableness of it is hateful to most of us. The thought is put aside as long as possible.

But it is well to bear in mind that twice in our lives we are helpless. At the beginning and again at the end. The one is provided for, the other can be provided against. A definite plan for counting off the depreciation after fifty should be well under way at thirty.

Teach economy. That is one of the first and highest virtues. It begins with saving money.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
Rockland, Me., Oct. 23, 1928.
I, the undersigned, Frank S. Lytle, who is duly sworn, declare that the number of copies of this paper of Oct. 23, 1928, was printed a total of 301 copies.
Before me,
FRANK R. MILLER,
Notary Public.

Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God.—Matthew 5:8.

Amid the increasing general looseness of his platform utterances it is not unnatural that Gov. Smith should regard every prominent Republican holding official position as calling for attack. In his recent speech at Sedalia, he dwelt sarcastically upon one of the "petty" economies of the Bureau of the Budget that has been mentioned in the campaign, the elimination of the blue stripe from the mailbags, referring to it as one of those minor irritations that make but negligible saving, and quoting Director Lord as stating that it meant $2,000 a year instead of $30,000 a year, as claimed by Republican speakers. Representative Shattuck, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Massachusetts legislature, telegraphing for information, received this as General Lord's reply:

"Gov. Smith is mistaken in his figures regarding the saving on the blue stripe. The elimination of the stripe saves one cent a yard on canvas. The postoffice department uses approximately 3,000,000 yards annually. No statement was ever made by me at Poland Spring or elsewhere to the effect that the saving was only $2,000 a year."

Gov. Smith's life-long training under Tammany supplies sufficient reason why he should regard the Budget economies as fair object of ridicule, but the tax-payers of the country favor these bureau savings, the minor as well as the great ones. "The United States Government," says Gen. Lord in a recent statement, "faces a $100,000,000 deficit by June, 1929. The Treasury had a prospective surplus of $252,000,000 for next June, the end of the fiscal year, but this surplus has melted away as the result of new legislation and the revision of the tax laws." Here are involved financial problems of magnitude, to be dealt with by the present administration and that which is immediately to follow. Shall it be an administration headed by Mr. Hoover, with his proved ability and knowledge of national affairs, or by Gov. Smith with his wild and unadjusted views on the tariff?

Kind words, the old song encouragingly assures the world, can never die. Certainly such friendly acknowledgments are not without their influence in "brightening the corner" where their recipients "are." For example, this from the chairman, Mrs. Maude Blodgett:

"The executive board of the American Red Cross, Knox County Chapter, hereby extends to The Courier-Gazette their sincere thanks for its kindness in receiving and recording donations contributed toward the Florida-Porto Rico disaster relief fund."

And this from Frank D. Rowe, superintendent of schools of the Warren, Union and Matineus school union:

"I must acknowledge how much the fine spirit shown by The Courier-Gazette helps in our work—so much more than I can tell you. In talking with students in a class in publicity at Columbia University I found that many of the men received little courtesy from their local papers, and I was awakened to the fact of the finest of help and interest that our local paper has always shown in our every activity."

Scallops disappeared from the Monroe Island beds, and mackerel practically disappeared from the Maine coast, but not yet has the whaling industry passed into the realms of romance. From Seattle comes the word that 1400 crustaceans were taken by the associated companies during the season which began May 1st, and this is one of the best seasons ever known in Alaskan waters. The largest whale harpooned measured 56 feet which is only 12 feet under the world's record. For many years whaling will continue an annual industry in the North Pacific, it is stated.

We do not profess to know President Coolidge's plans in connection with the campaign climax, but in view of the bitter attacks made upon his administration by candidate Smith and other Democrats, and his loyalty to Herbert Hoover it does not seem fitting that he should remain "Silent Cal" much longer. The country sympathized with his position when he uttered those fateful words: "I do not choose to run," but will the Republican party be equally sympathetic if that statement is paraphrased into: "I do not choose to speak?"

Miss Alice White of Gardiner, chairman of the Smith Club of Maine, has evidently not been having a pleasant time of it, trying to arouse enthusiasm for the Democratic nominee. "I have found three kinds of Democrats in Maine," she says: "the real Democrat who can be depended upon to do the most for his party, and the near Democrat who on election day scratches all over the ballot, and a grasshopper Democrat, who jumps all around and never seems to get anywhere except on the front page of a newspaper."

At the CAPITAL

Special to The Courier-Gazette

Augusta, Oct. 22.—Gov. Brewster has taken the stump for Hoover and Curtis. He will spend the first three days of the week in Virginia and will then swing back toward home, spending the last week of the campaign in New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts.

The marketing of farm products is a subject which is receiving much attention nowadays, and quite properly. All industrial and manufacturing business have extensive selling organizations which are made up of experts and which function at top speed all the time.

The New England States, having devised for themselves by legislative enactment a distinctive label of quality, now seek to set up a plan for better advertising and display of the farm products which are authorized to bear the label. To this end the commissioners of agriculture and marketing officials of the several states are holding meetings from time to time.

According to Charles M. White, chief of the marketing division in the Maine department of agriculture, the plan is to create an advertising fund and pro-rate the advertising according to the number of labels used by each producer or shipper.

The task of collecting data on which to base prospective old age pension legislation is proving to be a tremendous job.

The 1927 legislature passed an order directing the State labor commissioner and the secretary of the department of public welfare to collect information relative to the number of persons resident in Maine of the age of 70 years or more, together with certain data on their financial condition and such other conditions as would make them eligible for State aid, should an old age pension law be passed by a subsequent legislature.

The first step in the collecting of this information was to send two young women to Washington for a month late last winter where they listed over 80,000 names of persons 70 years old from the U. S. census report of 1920. During the entire summer and at the present time a force of three girls has been at work classifying and tabulating the data obtained and preparing for a check-up of these names in the respective towns and cities where the persons were listed as residing.

Recently questionnaires were sent out to the selectmen of towns and overseers of the poor in cities, asking that proper notations be made opposite the names, to indicate whether the persons named have died or moved away since they were listed. These questionnaires are now being returned, and the replies received will be the basis for the final report of the legislative committee.

The order creating the committee directs them to report to the Governor and Council prior to the opening of the legislature in January, and further directs that the report shall be submitted to the legislature during the opening week.

Twenty new game wardens for the fish and game department during the hunting season have been authorized by order of the Governor and Council, and the present force of wardens has been ordered to remain in force, in spite of the strained financial situation in the department, which has been a matter of deep concern to Commissioner Willis E. Parsons. The Council admitted the seriousness of the situation but agreed that the more vital factor in the problem is the effectiveness of the warden service.

The Republican State Committee has decided that no speaking campaign is necessary in preparation for the November election. When they met here Tuesday the county members presented reports and estimates from which the committee made the prediction that Maine will go Republican in November by about the same majority as was returned in September—80,000. Some members reported probable slight decreases owing to the lack of local contests which stimulated the September vote in some places.

The chief business now to be done in Maine in connection with the campaign is the raising of $10,000 which the National Committee has asked of Joseph W. Simpson of York, one of its two Maine members. Mr. Simpson told the State committee he wishes not only to raise the amount, but to exceed it as an indication of Maine's interest. Gifts from $1 up are to be accepted.

Senator J. Edward Drake of Bath, chairman of the legislative recess committee appointed to "make full investigation of the facts and phases of the operation during the last 11 years of the Workmen's Compensation Law of the State, and all elements and phases of the cost of workmen's compensation insurance," has reported to Governor Brewster that such an investigation would probably cost the State $60,000.

Under the terms of the legislative order creating the committee, it was stipulated that a preliminary report on the probable cost should be made to the Governor and Council, and that if that body approved, the committee could then go ahead.

The order was presented by Senator Clyde H. Smith of Skowhegan who later became chairman of the State Highway Commission. When he resigned from the committee Senator Drake was chosen to succeed him. The personnel of the entire group is Senator Drake and Senator Benedict F. Maher of Augusta and Representatives Stanley M. Wheeler of Paris, William H. Deering of Saco and George S. Foster of Ellsworth.

There is no open season for hunting moose this year, although some of the foreign sporting magazines have so reported. Furthermore, there is every indication that moose hunting in Maine will not be permitted for several years to come by reason of the heavy slaughter of this game animal during the six days open season in eight counties last year.

FARM BUREAU ANNUAL

Busy Program Arranged For Thursday's Meeting In Damariscotta.

Six reels of moving pictures on farming subjects will open the meeting of the Knox-Lincoln Farm Bureau at Lincoln hall, Damariscotta, Thursday at 10:30. President Dodge of North Edgecomb will open the meeting. There will be a report of the secretary and treasurer, Ralph Conant of Rockland.

During the noon hour a committee will meet to nominate an executive committee for the coming year. This committee is selected each year from different communities. There are three men and three women. This year the men are from Appleton, Friendship and Whiteside; women from Camden, Bunker Hill and Nobleboro.

In the afternoon there will be reports of work done during the year by the project leaders: Organization, George Cameron, Union; Clubs, Mrs. Harriet MacDonald, Damariscotta; Crops, Clarence Walker, Alma; Clothing, Mrs. Norris Walz, Damariscotta; Dairy, H. H. Nash, Camden; Poultry, Mrs. H. H. Nash, Camden; Farm Management, Luther Carney, Sheepscot; Forestry, Clarence Walker, Alma; Household Management, Mrs. Charles Webb, Warren; Orchard, E. N. Hobbs, Hope; Poultry, Project leader, Philip Lee, Walboro.

The plan for honoring outstanding Farmers and Home Makers will be explained. Reports will be received from the various communities on the membership campaign.

Under new business there will be the presentation of the county extension program for 1929 by County Agent Wentworth and the Home Demonstration Agent, Nettie Simmons of the Extension Service.

A financial budget for 1929 will be given by the treasurer. This will be followed by election of officers.

A KEATS DISCOVERY

The finding, by Professor Caroline Spurgeon in the George Armour Collection of London University, of a seven-volume edition of Shakespeare which was once the personal property of John Keats and is annotated by him, is of the greatest interest to all lovers of Keats. Professor Spurgeon will publish next month a volume entitled "Keats' Shakespeare: A Descriptive Study, Based on New Material" in which she tells how a chance remark made in Professor Henry Fairfield Osborn's drawing room when she was visiting in New York led to the discovery. The volume will show to what an extent Keats was indebted to Shakespeare for his line of thought, and also how widely he differed from Dr. Samuel Johnson, against one of whose notes in the book he had written "Fool!"

The movie "Peter Pan" has been postponed, date to be announced, because of the prevalence of scarlet fever. Tickets will hold good when it is shown. It benefits McLean School Orchestra.—adv.

THE NEXT CHAMPION

It Will Be Jack Dempsey, In the Opinion of Tex Rickard, the Promoter.

The next heavyweight champion of the world probably will be none other than William Harrison Dempsey. "Tex" Rickard expressed this opinion Monday. Rickard made the prophecy that Dempsey would fight again next summer providing the winter produces an outstanding fighter, and that the Manassa Mauler would undoubtedly win the fight.

"Dempsey can lick any of the big fellows today with the exception of Tunney," Rickard said.

"During the winter, Rickard declared, a series of fights will be arranged which are to determine the best heavyweight in the field. The name of the best man is to be engraved, along with the names of the former champion, on the $5,000 championship cup recently donated to the game by Gene Tunney."

If Jack succeeds in regaining the championship, his will be the only name appearing twice on the cup. No fighter yet has regained the championship once he lost or abandoned it.

"As soon as one man emerges from the ranks who will really draw a gate, Dempsey will come back, and in my opinion, regain the belt," Rickard said.

SEEK LA FOLLETTE'S FAVOR
Both Parties Flirting With the Progressive Senator in Wisconsin

Endorsement of the candidacy of Senator La Follette, Republican Progressive, who has said nothing yet about the Hoover-Curtis national ticket, was given Tuesday in a speech by Senator Curtis of that ticket.

He declared for "the election of that brilliant young man who has succeeded his father in the Senate, Robert M. La Follette."

While Senator La Follette won the Republican Senatorial nomination he has been silent on the Republican national ticket. Monday his Democratic opponent, M. K. Reilly, withdrew with the statement that Senator La Follette "is just as much in favor of the legislative program for which Governor Smith stands as I am."

This bid for support of Gov. Smith from the La Follette Progressives was countered Tuesday by the Curtis declaration.

"In the summer the oyster has a long vacation," remarks an exchange. Much longer than he deserves, brother, considering that he never gets out of his bed if he can help it.

Most people in most positions are as interchangeable as spare parts.—J. L. Garvin.

This Week's Weather

Weather outlook for week in North and Middle Atlantic States: A period of showers Tuesday or Wednesday and again at the end of the week. Temperatures slightly below normal first part of week, moderating somewhat Tuesday with colder Thursday or Friday.

The dances of Odd Fellows hall begin Friday night. Kirk's Orchestra will furnish music.

The Carpenter's Union 1065 will have a special meeting tonight, followed by a supper at Trainer's.

Raymond Cross who has been on the Yacht Adventure during the winter arrived home Friday for the winter.

Mrs. Ella C. Newman, clerk in Judge E. K. Gould's law office, is in Massachusetts spending her fortnight's vacation.

The Daughters of Veterans will hold a whist party in G.A.R. hall Tuesday evening, with Mrs. H. W. French in charge.

Jasper Rawley of The Courier-Gazette force was back on the forms yesterday, after a week's vacation, part of which was spent in Fairfield.

The Women's Association of the Congregational Church will meet at the vestry Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for relief sewing. Circle supper will be served at 6.30.

A special meeting of the teachers and officers of the Universalist Sunday School will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Rev. C. A. Knickerbocker.

The Past Noble Grands Association is to meet in conjunction with the Past Grands Association at Tenants Harbor Thursday evening instead of Waldoboro as previously announced. Supper will be served on arrival.

The dances at Odd Fellows hall will be resumed Friday night, with Kirk's Orchestra furnishing the music.—adv.
127-128

Mrs. Marguerite McRae Thorndike has entered the employ of Dr. Linwood T. Rogers as office assistant.

Miss Ellen Buttomer, who has been spending her vacation at Andrews Island has resumed her duties at the Western Union.

The Baraca Class of Pratt Memorial Church will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday at the parsonage on Beech street.

The funeral services of Mrs. William D. Holbrook, who died yesterday will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the residence on Camden street.

St. Bernard's Church has a new curate, Fr. J. O'Garra, who comes to the local parish from Providence. Fr. E. Faucher has been transferred to Waterville.

Contributions are still coming to The Courier-Gazette office for the southern hurricane relief. The fund will remain open for those who still wish to get in their gifts.

The regular meeting of the Edwin Libby Relief Corps will be held Thursday, with a tacking in the afternoon, supper at 6 o'clock and business session in the evening.

The apron committee of the Universalist Fair will meet at the home of Mrs. C. A. Knickerbocker, 232 Broadway, Friday evening as guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer. Go prepared to sew.

Representatives from the municipalities of Rockland, Camden, Hockport and Thomaston hold a consultation at the mayor's office tonight to discuss the proposed increase in water rates.

The Rockland Syndicate Store in Chisholm's block was sold at receivers' auction Friday to Worcester Mass., clothiers, the price paid being $2,510. (A Filene representative was among the bidders.)

Ervin Curtis has been awarded the contract for building the Rockland Yacht Club's clubhouse at the Public Landing. He was the lowest bidder and will furnish the foundation, house and plumbing for $3,900. Work begins very soon.

Considerable favorable comment is heard on the improvement effected by changing the one-time billboard north of the Frojoly plant into a dignified "Build in Rockland, Bank in Rockland" sign. The work was finished by local bays and done by E. H. Cris.

Workmen excavating in front of W. H. Thorndike's residence on Masonic street yesterday were not a little puzzled to find the ground steaming, and one of them finally pulled out a rock which was so hot he could scarcely hold it. For a few minutes the laborers thought they were enroute for the hot place, until the mystery was explained when it was found that an electric wire attached to an underground pipe had short circuited.

"ON MY SET"

Those who tuned in on the great Hoover meeting in Madison Square Garden last night heard the most remarkable demonstration that has marked the present campaign. The cheering lasted more than 20 minutes after the candidate had been introduced. His speech came in very distinctly.

The roar of Niagara Falls is to be broadcast over a 20-station hook-up next Saturday afternoon from 5.45 to 6.

The Editor of "On My Set" is in receipt of a communication regarding interference on the part of regenerative sets. It will receive more attention in the next issue.

Notable among the Saturday programs was that which was broadcast in connection with the presentation of a Congressional gold medal to Thomas A. Edison. President Coolidge's introductory remarks and Mr. Edison's speech of acceptance came in very distinctly, as did the other program features.

Maine farmers are to have a radio market news service, broadcast from Boston, starting Nov. 1. The service is experimental. Daily market reports will be given, market reviews, U. S. crop statistics, economic information and material from the various state departments of agriculture.

The Dartmouth-Harvard game will be broadcast next Saturday from WEEI, WWSH, WBZ and WEAF. The Yale-Army game, in which there will be extraordinary interest, will be broadcast by WJZ.

William Daggett of Fuller-Cobb-Davis force is on his annual vacation and has gone to Island Falls deer hunting with Clarence Johnson and son Robert.

Howard Johnson who has been yachting on the great lakes the past summer, goes soon to New York with the intention of becoming "one of the finest."

Ansel Saunders has bought the George Roberts house on Orange street, and will reside there. The deal was made through Freeman Young's agency.

Charles A. Morton who has been in the employ of J. Kersley Mitchell of Philadelphia and Islesboro the past 12 years, has resigned, and will probably again become a resident of Rockland.

The first gym class for women under direction of Miss Glenn Stevens will be held in the high school gymnasium tomorrow night at 7.30, lasting one hour. All interested women are invited to attend and should come prepared. Information may be obtained at Miss Stevens' phone 162W.

The discovery of several more cases of scarlet fever yesterday in addition to those existing and a known case of infantile paralysis led Supt. Toner of the city schools to postpone the production of "Peter Pan" which was to have been given this afternoon in a local theatre for the benefit of the McLean School Orchestra. This bit of precaution against these two dread diseases of children with their lifelong after effects is applauded by an alarmed parenthod. "Peter Pan" will be presented when the situation improves, the tickets still holding good.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer E. Longley, formerly of the O.W.'s Head Church, figured in a very serious accident in Portland, Sunday, when the automobile in which they were riding was in collision with a fire engine. The sedan hit the pump with its front end, just behind the driver's seat. Two wheels of the lighter vehicle were crushed and glass from windows showered the five occupants of the Strickland car, who stayed in their seats. Rev. Mr. Longley had two ribs broken and was severely shaken. Mrs. Longley also had two ribs broken. Mr. Longley was in an automobile accident about a year ago and had hardly recovered from injuries of that time.

THE NEW ROTARY LIFT

The new rotary lift installed at Thurston's Service Station is meeting with immediate public approval. This hydraulically operated hoist brings the car to any level desired by station mechanics. The advantage of this feature is that the mechanic is in close contact with every part of the car requiring lubricating service. This lift is of the latest free-wheel type giving the motor mechanic a chance to inspect every moving part of car such as steering gear, wheels, etc.

The greasing system is most comprehensive, with special attention given to draining crank case and cleaning with oil applied under pressure. Every part of the car that requires lubrication for best performance can be given attention. The system includes spring cleaning and oiling, examination of transmission and differential, universal joints, steering gear, shackles and spindle bolts. All small parts under the hood are given attention and all moving parts of the car can be carefully inspected. Men employed in this class of service are thoroughly experienced auto mechanics and there is a flat rate price for each make of car so that the car owner can save money by having a complete greasing job done.

FISHERIES BOAT LOST

The patrol boat Catherine, owned by the Sea and Shore Fisheries Commission caught fire in Bluehill bay when the engine backfired yesterday, and the local headquarters learns that she is a total loss at Seal Cove. Forrest Albee, warden, and Chester Savage, skipper, were quite badly burned.

MRS. MARY E. SACKER

Although expected, the death of Mary E. Sacker was nevertheless a decided shock to her many relatives and friends. The deceased was the last of her line of the Ulmer family being a daughter of Ephraim and Mary (Rankin) Ulmer, and had lived the greater part of the 79 years of life in or near the old family homestead in which she was born. In 1877, after her marriage to Frank Sacker, now deceased, she went to Providence to reside, but had been a resident of Rockland the past 30 years, coming back to the Meadows after the death of her husband. There she was surrounded by her relatives and friends who loved her and whom she loved so well.

She will long be remembered by her tireless efforts to make happy the lives of all of those who were fortunate enough to be numbered among her host of friends, and by her love of flowers evidenced by her beautiful garden which called forth so many expressions of admiration in the summer. Her works of charity were unnumbered, but there are still living many persons who had benefited by her generosity and self sacrifice.

Funeral services were held at her late residence on Old County road, Rev. J. Kenderdine, pastor of the Methodist Church, was the officiating minister. The flowers were numerous and beautiful, including exquisite pieces from relatives and friends in Rockland and in Providence. She was laid to her final rest in the old family burial lot on Pleasant street, the site of which was given for that purpose by her father many years ago. Ralph Smith, Roy Ulmer, Charles Maki and Timothy McNamara acted as bearers. The deceased is survived by her two sons Charles S. and Fred J., who both reside in New York.

Freeman Young, real estate dealer and ex-skilled navigator, wished he was back on the briny when he got tangled up with one way streets and the majesty of the law in the person of Patrolman Philbrook yesterday morning. He finally negotiated the turn of his car on Spruce street but only to the accompaniment of much volunteered advice from the City Hall regulars.

Rev. J. Charles MacDonald addressed the Forty Club yesterday noon in serious vein along the lines of personal responsibilities and duties. It was Mr. MacDonald's first appearance before the club and his masterly delivery was very pleasing. An evening session is scheduled for Nov. 6 to be held in the Thorndike dining room with Commander MacMillan, a distinguished honorary member of the club as speaker. Admittance will be by ticket because of the limited seating capacity.

TWO APPLES A DAY

An apple a day may keep the doctor away, but two apples per diem would suit fruit growers, with 100,000,000 bushels ready to market, a great deal better, says a Chicago dispatch. The government bureau of agricultural economics pointed out that bumper crops of fruit have resulted in consequent price drop. In West Virginia, for example, the average price to farmers is 80 cents a bushel, compared with $1.50 last year. Record-breaking crops of peaches, pears and grapes are given as the chief reason for apples being bargains this fall.

DODGE BROTHERS New Senior

The Victoria Brougham

Beauty. Style. Luxury and Performance

A Larger as well as a Smarter Six

In the outward beauty of Dodge Brothers New Senior Six there is the promise of rare interior luxury and charm—a promise that is overwhelmingly fulfilled.

Discriminating taste will have no reservations in approving the lounge-like comfort of the wide, deep Senior cushions, the richness of the specially designed Senior hardware and the completeness of Senior appointments.

Senior buyers are afforded an enchanting choice of hues, weaves and patterns in upholstery—every one bespeaking flawless quality and exquisite style.

The influence of Walter P. Chrysler is revealed in the rakish New Senior lines, varied and vivid New Senior colors and the smartness of every detail of Senior equipment.

The New Senior is not only roomier, but a faster and smoother Six. Flexibility has been improved, and power range increased.

Underlying and supporting all these qualities is the vital advantage of Dodge-built dependability. Structural fineness goes through and through the rugged Senior chassis, and from end to end of Senior custom-type coachwork.

It will give you genuine pride and pleasure to place one of these great cars at your disposal.

An interesting and instructive pageant, "Working Together as God's Family" was given in the Methodist Church Sunday evening. The occasion was a Rally Day service for the Sunday School and the theme dealt with the children of all nations being united by the spirits of learning, brotherhood, health and peace. The leading parts in the pageant were finely depicted by Rev. H. O. Megert, Philip Lee, Arthur Chute, Mrs. Julia Burgess and Miss Dorothy Stevens.

Dr. George H. Coombs of the State Department of Health gave an enlightening talk on community diseases. The children of the Sunday School added much to the program as did the choir with the group of songs interspersed through the pageant. It was a union service with the Baptist Church and there was a large attendance.

Style Keeps You Young By MAE MARTIN

Nothing keeps you looking fresh and youthful like stylish clothes. And with little money and no ability to sew, thousands of women are keeping abreast of the shifting tide of style. Their secret is the art of home tinting and dyeing, which is made so simple by true, fadeless Diamond Dyes. Dresses, blouses, stockings, and even coats, that are out of style or faded in color, are made fresh and new looking with a few cents worth of Diamond Dyes. Anyone can do it. Diamond Dyes are so easy to use. They never fail. Gorgeous new colors appear like magic, right over the old, dull or faded ones. Tinting with Diamond Dyes is as easy as bluing, and it takes just a little longer to set the colors in dyeing. They are true dyes, the kind used when the cloth was made. See that you get Diamond Dyes and save disappointment.

My new 64 page illustrated book, "Color Craft," gives hundreds of suggestions for brightening and freshening your home and wardrobe at little cost. Send for your copy, NOW. It's FREE. Just write Mae Martin, Home Service Dept., Diamond Dyes, Burlington, Vermont.

NORTH HAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Brown enjoyed an automobile trip from Plainfield, N. J., to Tennessee with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dyer. When homebound they visited Mr. Brown's sister Mrs. Doris Bean at Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. H. T. Crockett and daughter Dorothy who have been visiting relatives and friends at Lynn, Reading, and Lawrence, Mass., for nearly two weeks have returned home.

Dr. Wood of Boston who spent his vacation in town has returned home. Dorothy Stone is at home for a few days.

ATLANTIC AERIAL SERVICE

The dream of a regular trans-Atlantic aerial service for the transportation of passengers, mail and freight may soon become a reality as a result of the voyage of the Graf Zeppelin to the United States. It is proposed to establish a $14,000,000 corporation to build and operate airships similar to the Graf Zeppelin in a year-round, 50-hour service between the United States and Germany.

UNION

Misses Laura Robbins and Anne Pickett, who have been motoring through the West for the past five and one-half months, have arrived at Union for a visit with Miss Robbins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Robbins. The trip included a visit to Yellowstone Park, Wyoming, Glacier National Park, Montana, Washington State, Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., Crater Lake, Oregon, Yosemite Park, Lake Tahoe and Sequoia Park, Calif., Tia Juana, Mexico, across the desert to Zion National Park and Bryce Canyon in Southern Utah, Grand Canyon, Ariz., Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico and San Antonio, Texas, returning via Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, into Canada, New York State, Massachusetts and Maine. Miss Robbins who did the driving of this 17,000 mile trip claims the ease with which the new Ford sport coupe took the steep and rocky mountain roads added greatly to the comfort and pleasure of this adventure.

Union Lodge, I.O.O.F. will hold a joint installation with Mt. Horeb Encampment, great Saturday evening. Supper will be served after the work and all members who have not been solicited are requested to bring pastry. All widows of Odd Fellows have a special invitation also Bethel Rebekah Lodge and all sojourning Odd Fellows are invited.

There will be a benefit public supper at the Odd Fellow dining room Monday, Nov. 5. This is a very worthy cause and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

U. H. S. Notes

U. H. S. opened its school year with an enrollment of 62 pupils and two fine teachers, Miss Duncan as assistant and Mr. Douglas as principal.

The Juniors have received their new class rings.

Alvin Heald had the misfortune to be hit in the eye with a speeding baseball at the game held at Union with Waldoboro. The score was Waldoboro 8, Union 1.

The school has had some additional seats for the freshmen.

Winona Gould, Belle Jones, Allen Leach and Perry Gould were recent visitors at U.H.S.

A magazine contest was on last week sponsored by the Crowell Publishing Co. It is hoped to receive enough to put the new Athletic Association on its feet. The Blue Streaks won by four subscriptions.

Plans are now being made for a senior drama.

Great interest has been shown by the boys' baseball team by Mr. Douglas. They won their first game last Friday when they played Warren, score was Union 1, Warren 4.

A girls' basketball team has been started with Miss Duncan as coach. The school is planning a speaking contest to be held sometime during the week of Nov. 11.

DR. HERMAN'S ASTHMA & HAY FEVER MEDICINE CONQUERS ASTHMA-HAY FEVER

It is (EMPHATICALLY) the medicine that should be in the possession of every person afflicted with Asthma-Hay Fever; it relieves at once, often as if by magic—INSTANTANEOUSLY—the difficulty of breathing and sense of suffocation that constitute the characteristic symptoms of that disease. And by continuing its use daily, between the paroxysms, it removes, by its alternatives influence, that morbid condition upon which the disease depends. All druggists. Full month's treatment $5.00. Claude A. Bell, Lowell, Mass.

APPLES AND SPUDS

Former Crop Is the Smallest Since 1922—Potatoes.

The commercial apple crop in New England this year is the lightest since 1922. The crop this season is estimated at 1,476,000 barrels, compared with 1,635,000 last year. Reports from growers throughout New England indicated that the McIntosh crop would be very light, while the yield of other varieties would be about the same as last year except in Maine, where all varieties are scarce.

The New England potato crop is now expected to total 46,508,000 bushels, an increase of almost 200,000 bushels over the estimate made a month ago. It added that yields on crops dug to date largely justify the comparatively low yields forecast earlier in the growing season on the basis of weather data on rainfall.

In Maine the outlook is for 35,046,000 compared with 37,616,000 expected a month ago. In Aroostook county well cared for early planted crops have made good yields. Late planted crops have a good set in most instances but many of the potatoes are secondaries because of size.

THE CLOVERDALE CO. BETTER GROCERIES AT LOW PRICES

WARREN

Benjamin Davis spent Friday in Rockland visiting his sister, Mrs. Schwartz.

"Tongues" is the topic for the mid-week service at the Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spear have lately had a modern bathroom installed at their home, South Warren road.

Miss M. Grace Walker went today to Waterville where she will visit her niece, Mrs. Earle Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Rokes with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wall of Rockland motored to Bath recently where they visited their daughters, Mrs. Lester Young and family over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Rokes especially enjoyed the trip, their first together for 21 years. In addition to these Mr. and Mrs. Young had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Levi Kelzer and son Edwin of Rockland and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Overlock and daughter of Brunswick.

Miss M. Grace Walker entertained Misses Sue and Harriet Stevens at dinner last Wednesday.

Miss Sue Stevens left Saturday for Washington, D. C., where she will spend the winter, going somewhat earlier than usual as Mrs. Mary Louie is confined to her home there at present by a slight illness.

Ralph Spear and Leroy Harding who have lately finished painting the buildings of Charles McCallum are now at work on those of Miss Clara Anderson.

The O.E.S. circle will give a public Halloween party Monday evening. Tickets may be obtained from the members.

Miss Carrie Baker and Miss Marjorie Dunstan of Rockport were weekend guests of Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Paul.

A public supper will be served Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in the Congregational Church. This supper will be served by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church. The proceeds of the supper will be used to send delegates to the State Christian Endeavor Convention which meets at Bangor next Friday.

Warren-Union teachers had an unusual privilege Saturday afternoon, when Miss Lou M. Baker, primary supervisor of Augusta, gave a most helpful demonstration of reading in the fifth grade which was followed by a talk on reading. The fifth grade pupils who gave up their Saturday afternoon for the work were: Katherine Peabody, Olga Grotton, Katherine Starrett, Harland Spear, Almo Lank and David Oxtom. At this meeting plans were also made for a speaking contest to be held at each school during Education Week, Nov. 11 to 17, also for a spelling contest to be held in the spring. All schools will be closed for the last three days of this week while the teachers are attending the State Teachers' Convention at Bangor.

PORT CLYDE

Edward Seavey of Thomaston has been a guest of Lewis Marshall.

Miss Jane Hyde leaves this week for her home in New York after the summer spent at Hydeaway cottage at Lands End.

Several from here attended the special meetings held in the Glenmere Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. S. E. Packard and Rev. H. E. Holt of Thomaston.

Miss Rosamond Wilson has gone to Boston where she has employment.

Mrs. William Poase and Mrs. Gladys Wiley of Tenants Harbor were guests of Mrs. Norma Morris Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Trussell have returned from a visit in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Charles Hupper is visiting relatives in Middleboro, Mass.

A truck driven by Fred Hooper and a car driven by Ernest Reed were in collision at the schoolhouse turn Thursday. No one injured.

Edwin Webber has moved his family into the William Robbins house.

Frank Hopkins is at home after spending the summer yachting.

Mrs. Kate Hooper and Mrs. Clara Clark were in Warren Friday visiting friends.

PORTLAND NOT DULL

Although the valuation of new construction and alteration to buildings in Portland during September of this year is lower, greater activity prevailed. A total of 132 permits with a valuation of $154,818 were issued for last month as compared with 123 permits with a valuation of $161,719 issued in September 1927.

"What are you rummaging for?" "Some old love letters I used to write to my wife before we were married."

OLD AGE SURVEY

Is the Object of the Questionnaire Just Sent Out.

In order to obtain information necessary for the completion of the Old Age Survey in Maine, ordered by the last Legislature, Secretary Cornish of the State Department of Public Welfare, and Commissioner Beals of the State Labor Department, the directors of the survey, are sending out questionnaire cards to the chairmen of boards of selectmen in towns and to the overseers of the poor in cities all over the State.

The cards sent to the officials in each town or city contain the names of persons reported by the United States Census Bureau to be residents of the respective town in 1920. "Undoubtedly many of these persons are deceased or have moved to other communities," Messrs. Cornish and Beals state in their letter, asking that in such cases the proper notations be made on the cards.

Secretary Cornish and Commissioner Beals by Legislative order are making this survey of the State of Maine with reference to the number of persons resident therein, who on July 1, 1928, have attained the age of 70 years. The order also called for the collection of such data as is feasible and proper regarding the financial conditions of and such other conditions relative to them as would properly make them eligible for State assistance should a law relative thereto be enacted. The directors are ordered to make their report to the Governor and Council prior to the 54th Legislature which convenes next January, and the report is to be transmitted to the Legislature during its first week.

As the first step, the directors have listed and filed the names of over 80,000 persons over 70 years of age the list as reported by the United States Census Bureau in 1920. To bring this information up to date and to gather the necessary statistics relative to their financial condition, the questionnaire cards are now being mailed out.

In a letter accompanying the questionnaire cards the two directors of the survey point out that in order to tabulate the facts the cards should be returned not later than the 15th of this month.

CHICAGO STATIONS

WJJD, the Loyal Order of Moose station, no longer shares time and programs with WEBH, the Edgewater Beach Hotel. The former now is sharing time with WCFL, owned and operated by the Illinois Federation of Labor.

Although WEBH has consolidated with KYW, owned by the Westinghouse Electric Company, it is believed the hotel will dismantle the station. WEBH and WJJD formerly drew their programs from "The Chicago Herald and Examiner." The paper now operates KYW. The broadcasting of the hotel's music, the chief reason for maintaining the station, now is on the "Herald and Examiner" programs broadcast over KYW.

An attempt has been made by a State street hotel manager to interest retailers of the Loop district in a program to be broadcast by WJJD and WCFL to be known as the "Voice of State Street."

The four years' ownership and operation of WJJD, terminated on Oct. 1 when the station became the property of the "Prairie Farmer," agricultural magazine. The old staff was retained and the policy, giving farm programs precedence, will be maintained.

Millions of Families Depend on Dr. Caldwell's Prescription

J. B. Caldwell, M.D. AT AGE 83

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their systems. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used a year proves that it has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for elderly people. All drug stores have the generous bottles. Or, to prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours, use this special coupon:

MORE RADIO SALES

Seem Likely With the Re-Allocation of the Country's Broadcasting Stations.

That the re-allocation of broadcasting stations will increase interest in radio reception and stimulate set sales is the opinion expressed by Gordon C. Sleeper, president of the Sleeper Radio Mfg. Corp.

In spite of the fact that there are almost always good programs from all of the big cities, it cannot be denied that the picking up of distant stations is far more interesting and thrilling than tunings in on the home-town station that is sure to be on the same spot of the dial every night," said Mr. Sleeper.

"I have always believed that the radio listener was entitled to hear what was desired without interference and the action of the radio commission is going to give it to him. With a good, reasonably priced set there should be no reason why radio fans on the Atlantic Coast can not hear the powerful Western and Pacific Coast stations if the radio commission's plans work out as expected."

"The chaotic air conditions in the big cities will be remedied and different frequencies with no other stations on these frequencies to cause trouble it should be possible to tune in on distant stations with selective receivers at almost any time of the night. It seems to me that the listeners are at last going to be able to get their programs without an assortment of howls and squeals which has been the case at least in areas where there are many stations jammed together on a narrow band of wave lengths."

Chapter of the Zeta Psi Fraternity at Bowdoin college has been awarded.
The new house, which will cost approximately $70,000 will be erected on a lot immediately in the rear of the present chapter house on College street. After it is completed, the present wooden building will be removed. The new house will be 67 by 40 feet, three stories high, of common brick with limestone trimmings.
The first floor being entirely fireproof. The interior will be finished in oak and birch, many of the rooms being paneled. Actual work on its construction will start immediately.

States Sept. 30 was reported by the Treasury at $8,213,615,127 or $40.82 per capita for the estimated 118,720,000 population on that day. Of the total money stock, $6,415,083,402 was in circulation outside of the Treasury. The actual per capita stock of money showed a decline from the $42.19 figure reported one year ago.

MEMORY OF CASSIS
Do you recall how we sat by the smoky-burning
Twisted trunk of the olive-tree,
In the inn on the cliff, and skinned the ripe
green figs
And heard the white straws driving in the sea?
The thunder and the smother there where like a ship's prow
The light-house breathed the wave; how wauily through the wild spray
Under our peering eyes the eye of the light looked out
Disheveled, but without dismay?
Do you recall the sweet-lyssum over the ledges
Crawling and the tall heather and the mushrooms under the pines,
And the deep white dust of the broad road leading outward
To a world forgotten, between the dusty almonds and the dusty vines?

the Snow and Other Poems."

Less crowded environments for your factory in

Maine's smaller centers of population

An unhurried, uncongested atmosphere has a beneficial effect on production. Employees can own their own homes, be responsible citizens in the community and more interested producers in the factory, with expensive turnover reduced to a minimum.

Wise manufacturers are considering these and other advantages which the less crowded environments of the smaller centers of population offer:

lower living costs and therefore lower labor costs, lower taxes, cheaper land, ample room for expansion, and in many cases less crowded shipping conditions and closer proximity to raw materials and markets.

Widespread distribution of continuous, adequate power, such as is afforded through the interconnection of power resources of the Central Maine Power Company system gives the smaller centers of population an industrial status comparable with the big city.

Whether for main or branch points, any industry considering the importance and strategy of its location will be interested in the information available on the two hundred odd communities served by the interconnected lines of this Company. Correspondence is invited. Address INDUS-

AFTER MANY YEARS

Mrs. Cora Pomroy of Texas
Comes North To Visit Relatives.

A year ago last Christmas while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Stonington were getting Christmas cards ready to mail to relatives and friends they decided to send one to Mr. Jones' sister, Cora Pomroy, who moved to Galveston, Texas, 40 years before to make her home with her brother Henry, following the death of their parents while Robert was an infant.

Imagine his joy and surprise when he received an answer by letter telling him she was living there with her family of two sons and two daughters, and that Henry now past 70, was still alive, a retired bar pilot.
It was his duty to pilot ships from Galveston out by the dangerous sand bars.

A short time ago the laundry owners held a convention in Boston and Mrs. Pomroy and daughter attended. This afforded her an opportunity to come to Maine. Leaving Boston Friday morning by train she came to Rockland and found her brother Aaron, and stopped all night with him. Taking the Eastern Steamship boat Saturday morning to Stonington they visited Robert for the day, returning Saturday afternoon to Rockland, via North Haven, where she met her brother David and cousin, S. L. Jones. Sunday morning Mrs. Pomroy and daughter, and her brother Aaron and his family motored to Tenant's Harbor to visit the last resting place of her parents. Returning to Boston Sunday afternoon she took the train to the South, again resolving to return again to Maine in the near future to get better acquainted with those who she had visited after 40 years absence.

NOT FOR SMITH

Berger Wouldn't Be Socialist Long If He Was, Writes a Correspondent.

Thomaston, Oct. 22.
Under Election Briefs you published the following: "Representative Victor Berger, the well known Socialist member of Congress, himself in favor of Smith thinks that Hoover is gaining in Wisconsin, and the betting in that State has gone to even."
The statement that Representative Victor Berger is in favor of Smith is misleading, as he would not remain in the Socialist party long if it was true that he favors Smith and furthermore no honest person can believe it to be true.
It would be interesting to know where such statements originate.

Troop 19 recently did a good turn in contributing $10 to the Red Cross disaster fund.

Robert Gregory who has served the past year as senior patrol leader of Troop 2, Methodist Church, has been elected junior assistant scoutmaster.
Linwood Aylward who is nearly to the grade of Eagle Scout has been elected senior patrol leader.

Troops 1 and 9 will meet Thursday evening in the Baptist Church. Plans for fall hiking and overnight trips are to be discussed; also the troop projects in handicraft work.

The Seascouts of Ship No. 8 will meet Wednesday evening of this week at the Central Maine building at 7.15. It is hoped that the 24-foot whale-boat which has been made available at the Boston Navy Yard for the Rockland Seascouts can be put to use before the weather gets too cold. The crew is going to build a 15 foot Bucaconer model sailing skiff as part of its requirements. The plan is by Alton of Boston and has become very popular with Seascout units all over the country.

A request has been made for examination date for the marksmanship merit badge. As this is only available to first class scouts, those who desire to take this should apply at Council headquarters.

Scouts who desire information regarding the outline of a winter project such as leathercraft, pack basket making and plaster cast work should communicate with their scoutmasters before seeking this information at the Council office.

NOW FOR THE BIG WOODS

Hunters Have Begun the Annual Invasion—Summary of the General Maine Game Laws

The hunting season is now fully on, except that it is not lawful to hunt deer in Hancock and Washington until Nov. 1, those counties having been added to the list where deer hunting is permissible in November only. Guns are being polished and in many a Knox County home plans are being made for the annual trip to the "big woods." The law allows one deer buck or doe to each hunter.

Following is a brief summary of general Maine game laws, as amended by the 1927 legislature, and which became effective July 16, 1927.

Big Game

Caribou and moose protected at all times.

Bear

No close season—in territory open to hunting.

Deer

In eight southern counties, Androscoggin, Kennebec, Waldo, Lincoln, Knox, Sagadahoc, Cumberland and York, open season November only.

In the northern counties, Aroostook, Penobscot, Piscataquis, Somerset, Franklin, Oxford, open season, Oct. 1 to Nov. 30. Washington and Hancock counties, open season Nov. 1 to Dec. 15 inclusive but a non-resident hunter must have $15 non-resident hunting license in order to hunt birds after Oct. 16 in these two counties.

Limit on Deer

Yearly limit one deer only to one person (no restriction as to sex). Consult latest law book for list of territory closed to hunting, transportation law, etc.

Deer cannot be sold or given away, bought or accepted as a gift to be taken or shipped out of Maine.

A resident of Maine cannot carry or transport any deer out of the State.

Fur-Bearing Animals

No closed season on the following fur-bearing animals—beavers, bobcats, loupervier, Canada lynx and weasels—(except in territory closed to all hunting).

Beaver: No open season except when declared by Commissioner upon complaint of land owners of actual damage done to their property. Trappers, however, must procure $25 beaver trapping license, in addition to regular hunting license, to trap on territory thus opened. Beaver skins must be sealed by Commissioner or his agent before transportation or traffic is legal.

Muskat: Open season in Androcoggin, Cumberland, York, Sagadahoc, Kennebec, Lincoln, Waldo and Knox, Dec. 1 to Apr. 30 inclusive.

Open season on muskrat in Washington, Hancock, Aroostook, Penobscot, Piscataquis, Franklin, Somerset and Oxford, Nov. 1 to May 14 inclusive.

Fox: Open season Oct. 16 to Feb. 14 inclusive, in Aroostook, Penobscot, Washington, Hancock, Piscataquis, Somerset, Franklin and Oxford. Open season on foxes in eight southern counties, Androscoggin, Cumberland, York, Sagadahoc, Kennebec, Lincoln, Waldo and Knox, Nov. 1 to Feb. 14 inclusive.

Nov. 1 to Feb. 14 inclusive, is open season on all other fur-bearing animals, (which includes among others, raccoons and skunks) in all counties (in territory open to hunting trapping and governed by the general trapping laws).

(Consult 1927-28 edition of Inland Fisheries and Game Laws for Special Laws on Fur-Bearing Animals).

Rabbits: Open season, October, November, December, January and February, in Androscoggin, Sagadahoc and York counties, open season in the remaining counties, October, November, December, January, February and March.

Dead rabbits cannot be shipped or taken out of state, except a licensed non-resident who has legally killed rabbits in open season may transport same to his home under his hunting license.

Gray Squirrels: Open season, October; perpetual closed season, however, in all public and private parks, and within the limits of the compact or built-up portions of any city or village.

Sunday and Night Hunting

All Sunday and night hunting prohibited (except night hunting for skunks and raccoons with dog and gun is legal from Oct. 1st of each year to Dec. 15th following, both days inclusive, in certain counties).

Hunting with automobile or jack light illegal. Unlawful to carry loaded rifle or shotgun in an automobile, or cartridge in magazine thereof.

Game Birds

Partridge and woodcock: Open season during October and November but Federal law, open season on Woodcock during October only.

Ducks, Brant and Geese, Coots, Gallinules, and Jacksnipe or Wilson Snipe: Open season Sept. 16 to Dec. 31 inclusive. Rails, except Coots and Gallinules, open season Sept. 16 to Nov. 30, inclusive.

Note—Black-breasted and Golden

MOTHER!

Baby's Best Laxative is "California Fig Syrup"

When baby is constipated, has wind-colic, feverish breath, coated-tongue, or diarrhea, a half-teaspoonful of genuine "California Fig Syrup" promptly moves the poisons, gases, bile, souring food and waste right out. Never cramps or overacts. Babies love its delicious taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has full directions for infants in arms, and children of all ages, plainly printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Plover and Yellowlegs protected by Federal regulation.

Daily Limit on Game Birds.

Partridge, 5 (season limit 25). Woodcock, 4.

Duck, 10.

Snipe, 10.

Birds Protected At All Times

All wild birds, other than game birds: The law provides, however, that the English or European House Sparrow, crows, hawks, owls, and kingfishers, may be killed at any time. The law specially provides that eagles, Hungarian partridge, capercaillie, cock of the woods, black game, curlew, woodcock, swans and all shore birds, except Wilson or Jacksnipe and woodcock, and all species of pheasants (except ruffed grouse) are protected at all times.

Mr. boats cannot be used for hunting sea birds, ducks, or water fowl in any inland or tidal waters of Maine.

Stationary blinds unlawful in Merrymeeting Bay waters.

Dogs must not be used in hunting deer.

Unlawful to use silencers on firearms.

Unlawful to buy or sell game birds at any time.

STRAND THEATRE

Now showing, Richard Arlen, star of "Wings of Life."

Magnificent scenes of splendor in the care free Vienna of pre-war days; tender moments of love beneath the crossing branches of apple blossoms and wild scenes of hate and uncontrolled passions; these are the elements blended in "The Wedding March," a Paramount presentation.

In which the author and star, Von Stroheim, and Fay Wray play the leading roles Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The theme is based on the lines: "O Love, without thee, marriage is a sacrifice and mockery." Prince Nicki, an aristocratic nobleman, has agreed to a marriage of convenience which links his titled name with that of a penniless girl.

As time passes, Nicki pays ardent attention to Mitzl, whose refreshing charm and innocence, steals into his heart. But Nicki's coming marriage looms up ominously before his eyes. Torn between honest love and duty, Nicki allows fate to play his hand. "The Wedding March," is supplied with a moving and compelling climax.—adv.

PARK THEATRE

Buster Keaton is "The Cameraman" will have it's last showing today.

Another of Anne Nichols' plays has come to the screen! The famous author of "Able's Irish Rose," which ran for more than five years in New York City, shattering all world records, has contributed another of her sparkling plays to the silversheet, "Just Married." It will be shown at the Park Wednesday, a rollicking farce with most of its action taking place on board a trans-Atlantic liner. Eight principals figure in the plot and they become enmeshed in a net of complications from which there seems to be no possibility of extricating them. It is without question one of the most amusing films to be shown in many months, and one which, in addition to its humor, has suspense that rivets one's attention on the screen throughout the length of the picture.—adv.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Singer observed the 25th anniversary of their marriage at their home on Glidden street, Newcastle, Saturday evening, but the guests were not aware until their arrival that the occasion was a silver wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Singer were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Singer's cousins, Mrs. William H. Parsons and Mrs. Grace A. B. Glidden. The house was decorated with vines and flowers. Mrs. June Strong, Miss Vera Walden, Miss Marion Kennedy and Miss Merle Rines of the Baptist choir of which Mrs. Singer long has been a member, served refreshments in the dining room. The young women also sang several solos, assisted by Mrs. Howard E. Hall at the piano and Mrs. Reginald Martin with the violin.

It isn't where you sleep at night. It is what you do in the daytime.—Robert M. Leach.
