AUGUSTA, MAINE.

Dear Sir; Included in the Alien Registrations in this list, is the paper of Stanley Servisky.

Mr Servisky tells me that a local exemption board in Bangor, sometime in 1917 or 1918 told him that they found that his father, one Tunney Servisky of Chelsea Mass., had been Naturalized before he ('Stanley) became of age thus making the children all citizens.

I am told by his neighbors that his stepmother has his father's papers somewhere in Mass.

The fact that Stanley can not read or write made it impossible to secure the correct spelling of his father's given name, so I spelled it as it sounded to me.

Very truly yours,

Harvard E. Harriman
