

Augusta May 28. 1829.

Sir Pay this my only draft of this tenor & date to George Crosby on order for seven hundred and fifty dollars, value received, and charge to acc^t of the appropriation to the erection of the Public Buildings, I send to you

Humble Servant

To. Elias Thomas Esq
Treasurer of the State of Maine

W. Wing. C. P. B.

by consulting with Mr. Crosby, if the drafts are payable right, they will of course be paid to my Co. when handed to him, if therefore we conclude to draw in this way, and that the drafts should not exceed one thousand dollars, there will be no necessity for receiving the money before it is wanted to make the payments; if however you prefer the other mode there will be no inconvenience to me. Yours Sir Respectfully Your Obedt. Servant.

Sir,

or in the ac
like to draw

Augusta April 22. 1829.

Sir, I have conversed with Mr. Crosby and find there is to your br. in the Augusta Bank over 750. $. Presuming that you would like to draw for the money deposited here I now forward you my receipt for twelve hundred and fifty dollars, for which you can return to me at this place your receipt for 500. Recd. of Thomas W. Davis son Cashr. B. B. and your check on the Augusta Bank for 750.

I find there will be no difficulty as the money is counted in passing my draft on you in favour of the Cashr. of the Augusta Bank; you observed that there would be a conve-nience in having the drafts payable at short sight; I find by conversing with Mr. Crosby, if the drafts are payable at sight, they will of course be paid to my br. when handed to him, if therefore we conclude to draw in this way, and that the drafts should not exceed one thousand dollars, there will be no necessity for having the money before it is wanted to make the
convenience to me. Your Sir Respectfully Your Obedt. Servant.
