An accident in which three teams were mixed up, and which resulted in the fatal injury of one horse, occurred just west of the Main street bridge this forenoon. A pair of horses from the farm of A. E. Clement, being exercised by one of his drivers, became frightened at an automobile, and plunged forward, taking one rear wheel from George Watson's public carriage. The pair then swerved across the street, the pole striking the groin of a horse owned by Henry Hatch, of Ellsworth Falls, and tearing a great hole in its side, from which the intestines protruded. The injured horse was a young and valuable animal. It was neccessary to kill the horse.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For Week Beginning April 21, 1912, Topic.-The Christian virtues.-IV. Per-teverance.-Gai, vi. 1-9. Edited by Sher-man H. Doyle, D. D. Our great need is undoubtedly staying power. We begin well, but we lack the grace of continuance. One of the bad signs of our times is the multitude of the things we begin which are never carried to a successful conclusion. Lincoln said of Grant, "When once he gets his teeth in nothing can shake him off." That is what is needed in the Christian soldier-putting in the teeth of an invincible purpose and The test of a man is the light he makes, refusing to let go until the task is done and the conquest is complete. In every sphere it is the condition of any worthy attainment. It is lesson after lesson for the student, scale after scale for the musician, picture after picture for the artist, mile after mile for the traveler, and there is no less call for perseverance in the sphere of religion. The angel will go if you acquiesce. It was because Jacob said, "I will not let thee go unless thou bless me" that he compelled the blessing. Look at what dulls the edge perseverance. We grow weary. We believe in Bible study, but we grow weary of it. We resolve that we will read the Bible through. that we will study the topics and the suggested readings week by week. We begin, but gradually the reading lags and becomes irksome. We have grown weary. We believe in prayers, and we seek to form habits of place, of time and of petitions in prayer. We begin, but soon the pressure of other things intrudes and we miss times and places and cut down our petitions. We have grown weary. We believe in service, in doing definite things for God and man. We seek out opportunities. We accept tasks in the church, in the society, but by and by our interest lags. Our attendance becomes less frequent, and at last we give it all up, and this not because we do not believe in the worth of these or in the ultimate victory and reward of the worker, but it simply means that we have grown The work was difficult and weary. unfruitful. Those for whom we labored were unappreciative and unthankful. The task was greater than our competency and, like Moses, we say, "Send another." Let Aaron be thy mouthpiece.

There never was a time when wearlness was so besetting, because there never was a time when work in the kingdom was so difficult and worldly interests so pressing and inviting. This is peculiarly a time which calls for perseverance, for girding the loins and setting one's purpose perfectly on spiritual ends. Consider the incentives to perseverance. First, our work is needed. Our labor is not in vain in the Lord. We have a mission to fulfill which is peculiarly our own and which is also an essential part of God's great campaign of grace. Our failures cause irreparable loss elsewhere. Second, our time is short. Opportunities are few and fleeting. Like sailors, we must take advantage of wind and tide. Like merchants, we must buy up the opportunities to finish the work given us to Third, the certainty of reward. We shall reap if we faint not. Our labor will not be fruitless. We may not see the harvest. We may be of those who go forth weeping, bearing precious seed, but there will be a har-We shall come again rejoicing. vest. bringing our sheaves with us. It is assured that all who have a part in the sowing and the tillage will have a share in the joy of the harvest home. We STEAMED BREAD PODLING-Two cups bread-crumbs, one-quarter cup molasses, one cup sour milk, one egg, one teaspoon soda, one cup chopped raisins; spice if you like. Soak bread and milk together a little while. Steam one hour, serve with any kind of pudding sauce. The weather here in New Bedford, on this morning, July 3, is a little warm and sticky. I have sauntered now for an hour and looked at old houses and shops on narrow streets near shore, and have walked out on three of the city's piers. I leaned upon a fence rail SNICKERDODLES-One cup sugar, two table-spoonfuls butter, one egg, little sait, one-half cup chopped raisins, one-half cup milk, two and one-half cups flour which has sifted through it, one tenspoon cream tartar, one-half tenspoon soda. A Blackboard Talk.

HRIST NERGY NTHUSIASM HURCH OURAGE NTERPRISE JONQUEST TERNITY

The blackboard shows our "C. E." ideals. Christ is the beginning of it all and the power of it all. Next comes the church of Christ, which we love and for which we work. We need courage in our work for Christ, but He will give it to us, and courage means conquest of all our difficulties. The E stands for energy-no sloth, no putting off. It stands for enthusiasm, being happy and zealous in our work, singing over it. It stands for enterprise, reaching out for new work to w fields to conquer.

And it all extends through eternity, for every deed done for Christ has endless blessed results .- Amos R. Wells.

AMERICAN ADS

Two decades before DeSoto saw the Mis sissippi river, huts for the use of fisher men were constructed in Newfoundland. When Drake-set sail in 1577 on hi memorable voyage around the world, 315 fishing vessels sailed out of European ports to fish in American waters. Before the pioneer voyages of Gosnold and Pring and DeMonts had been made and recorded. the hardy fishermen of western Europe had made thousands of voyages across the Atlantic with scarce a thought of the hardships encountered, and scarce a word written to chronicle their deeds.

A sail is entering the harbor - the clipper-schooner of the deep-sea fisherman, loaded with the harvest of the sea. He it is who with infinite pains and effort restored the fisheries after the ruin of the Revolution had driven every sail from the sea; he it is who developed and expanded this time-honored industry until it received fresh honors on land as well as at sea: he it is who has lured the succulent cod from his lair in the deep recesses of Georges and Grand Banks; he has captured the great halibut in Davis strait and around iceland; he has followed the trail of the mysterious mackerel from Hatteras to Mount Desert Rock and away to the isles of St. Lawrence's gulf.

By his daring and fortitude the deep-see fisherman has won the sympathy of an American Congress which legislated generously in his behalf in the early part of our national history; by standing up for his rights when in foreign waters he has made the American flag respected, whether flying from the steel mast of a battleship or from the gaff of a Gloucester schooner; and by his generous spirit and fair-mindedness he has brought respect to himself and his calling in Canada and Newfoundland beyond that held by any other class of Americans or type of American industry.

No industry on the land has so early an origin as that of the fisheries, none has been more honored and honorable in our history. No calling has had so few de-

-THE ECONOMY OF ADVERTISING-

(1) Manufacture on the large scale is economical, if the product can be easily and quickly disposed of. Advertising insures that easy and quick disposal.

(2) A reputation to maintain insures high quality. Advertising makes that reputation, and the goods must maintain it.

(3) Small profits are good if the turn-over is quick." It is the turn-over that counts.

Advertised goods are quickly disposed of.

(4) A steady demand is better than an occasional demand at much bigger profit per sale. Good advertising creates a steady demand.

It costs something to sell any article. The Gilmore Case.

Another political case has been settled. Flippantly charged with 'iembezzlement", ex-State Treasurer P. P. Gilmore, of Bucksport, was haled into court. It turns out that while treasurer, he did temporarily substitute personal collateral for State funds, thereby violating a statute which forbids "loaning or using in his own business or for his own benefit, any such money".

Technically he violated this statute, and he frankly admitted it. The facts being brought to the attention of the attorney-general, that officer had no alternative under the statute but to bring the matter before the court by means of an indictment. Settlement was promptly made.

Mr. Gilmore's friends feel that gross injustice has been done him by the careless use of an ugly word. There was no "embezzlement"; the funds of the State while in his charge were at all times kept good, and were never even in danger of sustaining a loss, and in no sense was the transaction criminal.

Mr. Gilmore himself admits his indiscretion, and has settled for it. If his political opponents think that they or their party have acquired capital out of this transaction, they are doubtless welcome to it.

Interest is added to the contest for the nomination of United States senator by the announcement of Hon. Herbert M. Heath, of Augusta, that he is a candidate. Ex-Representative Edwin C. Burleigh, also of Augusta, and ex Judge F. A. Powers, of Houlton, are already in the field. Mr. Heath is an able lawyer, a brilliant orator, a profound scholar; he gives his reasons for wanting to be senator, but excellent as they are, they fail to contain one which suggests why he should be chosen instead of Gov. Burleigh, whose canvass has so far progressed that his nomination seems already practically assured.

The amenities of politics are being softened this week here in Ellsworth, where Col. H. E. Hamlin, of this city, and Hon. Forrest Goodwin, of Skowhegan, are associated as counsel in a case in the supreme court, the latter also being Col. Hamlin's guest at his home on Main street. Both distinguished gentlemen are candidates for the nomination of representative to Congress from the third district.

The frightful sea tragedy, the loss of the Titanic, the largest steamship ever built, and some 1,500 lives, has sent a shock over the civilized world. The loss of the ship itself and the treasure it bore is as nothing to the awful sacrifice of human life. No such disaster has ever before been recorded. Let us pray God another like it will never have to be recorded.

STATE CONVENTION.

DELEGATES TO NATIONAL CON-VENTION ELECTED.

ALL FOUR DISTRICTS AND STATE FOR ROOSEVELT-THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republican State convention in Bangor last Wednesday was one of the largest and most exciting in the history of the party in Maine. The contest was between Taft and Roosevelt adherents, and Roosevelt won a sweeping victory.

The four delegates-at-large elected by the State convention are for Roosevelt, and the second, third and fourth districts each ted two Roosevelt delegates. As the first district had previously elected Roosevelt delegates, this gives Roosevelt the solid delegation of twelve delegates from Maine.

Hon. Warren C. Philbrook, of Watervilie, who presided at the convention, made a ringing address, in which he scored heavily on the democratic administration in Maine, concerning which he

Time forbids any extended review of past achievements by either party. In the State, during the last fifteen months, public measures have been framed and public policies have been formulated by those who have claimed the right to criticize our management of public affairs in former years

We may have made mistakes, and we prob ably did, for we were human, and, as such, liable to err. But while we may have incurred some debts in crecting necessary pub-lic buildings and supplying the needs of orthy public institutions, we have never atd to mortgage the credit of the State r half a century by proposing a two-milliondollar bond issue, nor incurred the expense of a special session of the legislature for no worthy of mention. We have never ubated a mountain and hatched out a mole ay have failed sometimes to uphold the dignity of law by impartial enforcement, out we have never openly persisted in saying that the will of the people cannot be en-orced, or in telling a majority of the voters orced, or in telling a majority of the voters hat the minority was right, and that no pestion was correctly settled until the deciminority.

Some town clerks may have made errors in gislative office in Fort Kent or Kezar Falls, ray to Augusta; nor have we, remembering the days of 1850, believed it to be wise to place the ballots themselves in the hands of those open the door for a gross fraud as the State whose privilege it is to adjudicate upon re- steal of 1879.

The vote for delegates in the State and and district conventions were as follows: State convention-Roosevelt, 739; Taft,

Second district - Roosevelt, 180; Taft,

Third district-Roosevelt, 157; Taft, 95 Fourth district-Roosevelt, 184; Taft, 75. Charles L. Morang, of Elisworth, was of the Roosevelt alternate delegates at-large elected.

Hon. John A. Peters, of Ellsworth, was the Hancock county member of the committee on resolutions, and J. D. Phillips, of Southwest Harbor, was the honarary vice-president from Hancock county.

In connection with the State conven tion, county and district conventions were held.

Hon. Elmer P. Spottord, of Deer Isle, was elected the Hancock county member of the State committee, and Roy C. Haines, of Ellsworth, the Hancock county mber of the district committee.

The Hancock county committee elected as follows: H. Wakefield, Bar Harbor; T. M. Nicholson, Bucksport; E. E. Chas-Bluehill; A. C. Hagerthy, Ellsworth; W O. Emery, Sullivan; J. D. Phillips, Southwest Harbor; H. W. Sargent, Sargentville; W. A. Ricker, Castine; O. W. Foss, Hancock.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform adopted is as follows: Resolved. That the republicans of the State his personal choice for Presid President. grammar, Miss Violet Gott the Tremont We arraign the present democratic adschool ministration as false to the promises of its platform of 1910 and guilty of intentionally April 8.

deceiving the people. It promised "to enforce the laws by means of regular ly-elected officers". The alliances between its regularly-elected office rs and the violators of law are notorious and confessed e is disgraced by corrupt nullifica-The St

It promised a corrupt practices act. It passed a sham law. When some of its leaders were prosecuted under its provisions, they sought the frivolous delays of the law to pre-vent a hearing. In elections under it, democratic officials grossly violate its provisions and nullify the law as they do all others that stand in the way of partisan success.

It promised a direct primary law. It passed an unusable statute and the people were forced to the use of the referendum to get an onest law.

It accused the republican party of "saddling an unnecessary annual expense of $4,000,000 upon the people". Its appropriation bill for 1912 is $6,044,139.95, a confession of the dishonesty of its platform.

It accused the republican party of "en trenching an army of office-holders". It abolished one office, the assistant attorneygeneral, costing the State many thousands through the loss of efficiency in that depart-meut. It abolished the office of auditor of State printing and created a clerkship in its place by an illegal order of the governor and council. It abolished * other offices, and reated substitutes under new names. It has increased the number of officer-holders and reduced the salaries of none

It promised "to reduce the State tax". Under republican rule in 1909 and 1910 the State tax was eight mills; under democrat rule in 1911 and 1912, the State tax is ten mills.

It promised fair treatment of our charitable institutions. The veto of the resolve in favor of the children's hospital was cruel and coldoded.

It promised "wise legislation". It's dodging at the regular session and blundering at the special session were characteristic of the democratic party, always rich in promises, bankrupt in achievement. det

It promised economy. It repudiated the just cialms of the towns that in good faith contracted pauper bills upon the credit of the

Its It faon was in harmony with the views of a unority. With the views of a prohibition, although promising in 1910 to abide by the will of the people. When a re-publican county-attorney accused a democonting ballots or in compiling returns, but publican county-attorney accused a demo-te have never put forth the monstrous cratic sheriff of corruption, it acquitted the sition that a candidate for county or ative office in Fort Kent or Kezar Falls, removed the county-attorney solely because case of a disputed election, may have be was a republican. Both trials were a farce and a blot upon the good name of the State. 11. We favor a referendum upon the ballot

HANCOCK S. J. COURT.

ONLY ONE JURY TRIAL SO FAR THIS TERM.

RODICK VS. MAINE CENTRAL GOES TO JURY THIS AFTERNOON-THE CRIMINAL DOCKET.

THE COURT. Presiding Justice - GRONGE M. HANSON.

Calais. Clerk-JOHN E. BUNKER, Bar Harbor. County Attorney - HERBERT L. GRAHAM, Bar Harbor. Sheriff-OTHA H. JELLISON, Elisworth. Crier-BION E. WHITNEY, Bar Harbor.

Deputies - WILLIAM G. GREENE, Bluehill; JOHN A. STUART, Ellsworth; FARD P. SAR-OENT, Gouldsboro; FREEMAN N. STOVER, Cas-tine. stenographer-Oscil CLAY, Portland. Messenger-EMMONS SHEA, Ellsworth.

The traverse juries were organized Wednesday. A. J. Babbidge, of Eden, was elected foreman of the first jury, and A. il. Sawyer, of Eden, foreman of the second jury.

There was little doing in the way of trial of cases last week. All the cases as-signed for the week flushed out by Friday afternoon, and the juries were excused until Monday noon

Some evidence in the case of Alvarado Gray, executor for Lewis F. Gray, of Brooksville, against Mrs. Etta F. Gray, widow of Lewis, was taken out, but case was then withdrawn from the jury and settled. The suit was brought to recover for the estate a bond for $1,000 which defendant alleged had been given her by her husband before his death.

Trial was also opened in the land case of A. R. Buck, of Orland, vs. John A. Harriman, plaintiff claiming title by tax deed. The case was non suited.

RODICK VS. MAINE CENTRAL.

The case of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Rodick, of Bar Harbor, against the Maine Central railroad, went on trial Monday afternoon. This case was tried at the last October term, jury reporting a disagreement. It is an action for $15,000 damages for personal injuries resulting, from a fali on the defendant company's wharf at Bar Harbor on Feb. 8, 1911, plaintiff's leg being broken.

Deasy & Lynam appear for plaintiff and Hale & Hamlin and Forrest Goodwin, of Skowhegan, for defendant. The question of liability of the defendant hinges on the point whether the plaintiff fell on Pray. that portion of the walk which it was defendant's daty to keep clear of snow or ice, or on that portion of the wharf used by sleighs, and which the company was not required to keep clear of snow and ice. The trial of the case has occupied all the time of the court so far this week, and will go to the jury about 4 o'clock this after-

ADMITTED TO BAR.

James N. Emery, of Bar Harbor, was admitted to the bar last week. He has opened an office in Bar Harbor.

Thinks His Boils Beat the Record

"I believe I had the most painful boils that ever afflicted a human being. They were big, came one after another, and held on a long time. I had read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla for the blood that I was ready to try it. Inside of a month it seemed to me I had jumped from torture to bliss. I realized to the utmost the good of the best medicine, and I think the only medicine that would cure me. I recommend Hood's for the blood." Geo. N. The Danger After Grip

The Danger After Grip lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite. energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys, often follow an attack of this wretched dis-case. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonder-fully strengthen the nerves, build up the sys-tem and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satis-faction guaranteed by all druggists.

The Proof Is In Elisworth Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of an Elisworth citizen is in itself strong proof for Ellsworth people, but configmation strength ens the evidence.

Here is an Ellsworth citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at hom

A. M. Franks, carpenter, High St., Ells-worth, Me., says: "About two years ago I noticed my back growing lame. As time passed, the trouble became constant, Finally my condition was so bad that 1 had to lay off from work for several days When suffering in that way I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills at Moore's Drug Store, and the first few doses helped me. After 1 had used two boxes of this reme I was entirely cured. Last fall I caught cold and it settled on my kidneys, causing another attack. I had not forgotten what Doan's Kidney Pills had previously done for me, and I began using the remedy. I was quickly cured." (Statement given February 7, 1906.)

AFTER SIX YEARS.

On August 7, 1911, Mr. Franks was in-terviewed, and he said: "I confirm all I said in my previous endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills and authorize its continned publication for the benefit of other kidney sufferers. I have never had any serious recurrence of my former complaint."

How much would it be worth, in case your child were taken suddenly ill at night, to be able to summon the doctor at once, and, perhaps, by special instructions from him by wire, to be able to give temporary relief pending his arrival or even to save its life?

The expense of a telephone is not figured by what it costs for a whole year, but by how much it saves each time it is used. Therefore with all these things in mind ask yourself:

Can I Afford to be Without

High Pressure Days

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society more numerous. The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the ner-vous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostra-tion. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. t Eva Nevells is visiting her parents.
