EVELGISM IN ELLSWORTH.

The Test of Merit.

Ellsworth People are Given Con-vinning Proof.

It is better to be a good service man for more than the test of time, and this is patently true of a majority of the city's acme. Nearly all the Pines have stood this test and stood well. What better proof of the merits of this nurse is that you demand it, and that the statement of an Ellsworth real estate man who said "people come naturally and like merit updating.

Read the following.

E. F. Lord, Ellsworth Pines, M.D., says:
"I may add to the commendation already made, but I still consider them the best men I have tested for. We have called them on several occasions, and in each case they came with an excellent report. The last report I received was perfect, and that is the result of their efforts. I have been using them for the last, say, six months, and all my patients have been much benefited by their services." "I have never heard of any complaints of these men," adds Mr. Lord.

FOOD FAIR.

Now is full swing at the Ellsworth fair. The large and well-stocked exhibits of vegetables, fruits and flowers are of the best quality. The fair is open every day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the exhibits are supervised by a corps of experienced judges.

The food fair is one of the most popular features of the fair, and is open to all visitors. The exhibits are judged on the basis of quality and freshness, and the winners are awarded ribbons and prizes. The fair is open to all visitors, and there is no charge for admission.
