New Adventures This Week

William P. Johnson, one of the old Ellsworth bakers, has decided to go into the clothing business this spring. He has bought a shop on Main Street, and will open for business in a few days.

The Thursday night of the Congregational Church of Ellsworth will be devoted to a New Era evening. In addition to the fine vocal talent which has been bidden into the last few weeks—first, the last Monday—her next regular meeting is to be held at 2:30. A full attendance is expected.

Mrs. Titus F. Pickering, of Ellsworth, was called suddenly Saturday morning from the same to which she is so long a sufferer. She was 65 years of age.

The annual roll-call of ladies chapter, A. O. U. W., will be held at the home of Miss Sara Cleaveland Monday evening. Harper will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

The building known as the corner of Main street and Ellsworth Square, occupied for over thirty years by Mrs. P. J. Moore, is to be sold to a Mrs. H. Smith, for treatment.

The building at the corner of Main St. and Church St. is to be sold to the Founders Home for Women and Children.

Officers of the H. F. Chapter, A. O. U. W., have taken over the old Glee Club building for their regular meeting place.

The first annual meeting of the Eastern Trust Company was held Thursday evening. A large attendance was present.

There will be a reception of the Ellsworth Opera Association at twenty mint. This is an important event, as it is to be followed by the opening of the season. The association is under the direction of the Glee Club, and is expected to be a great success.

The young ladies' class of the Methodist Church will have a singing party Friday evening, meeting the high school building at 7 o'clock, and moving to Miss Horton's house on the Baptist road. The rally will be held in the same school building.

One of the Gloucester school events of the week was the music festival held in the high school building, Tuesday evening by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. W. W. White. The beautiful orchestra of the school was instrumental in rendering this festival a success. The choruses were well conducted by Miss Horton, and the soloists were given in full voice. They included Miss Alice A. Stimson, Miss Mary W. White, Miss Lillian A. Stimson, and Miss Mabel A. Stimson.

The band was under the direction of Mr. W. W. White, who was assisted by Mr. E. L. White. The music for the concert included a number of songs and solos, and a number of instrumental numbers, including a quadrille in three parts, and a polka in four parts.

On Saturday night, the band was again in evidence, playing a number of solos and instrumental pieces.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Tests For the Whole
Beginning March 5, 1915.

The prayer meeting, which begins on March 5, may be a human endeavor, but it has the sanction of the Supreme Creator for a study of the subject, with the purpose of growing closer to God in our religious experiences. It is the ideal model for the establishment of religious and moral character among young people. The prayer meeting will be a wonderful opportunity for the young people to express their thoughts and feelings, and to improve their thought and behavior. It will be a great blessing to the young people, and will be a great help in their development of character and understanding of religion.

For Cleansing the Blood

I have never seen anything equal to Blood's Saraparilla. In our house it is regarded our medicine chest. It is used in every illness where we are ill or on down, or have lameness, bite or have any complaint of the stomach, and it is a most wonderful remedy. In my own case, I have suffered from severe pains in the stomach for years. Blood's Saraparilla has cured me completely, and I am proud to have the confidence of my friends and family in its efficacy.
