The Burrill National Bank of Ellsworth

will pay you 2 per cent. on your check balances of $500 or over, eradicating interest monthly.

Unexpired services and monthly interest should be included. Write to us, the name of your bank or trust company, and let us know when you wish to close your account.

Burrill, Maine. Hours 9 to 4; Sat. 9 to 1.

Paul Jones Flour
Won't Disappoint You

When you see the mark "Sterling" on silver, you know right off that the article marked is absolutely to be depended on. "Paul Jones" stands for highest grade and quality in flour, just as "Sterling" does on silver. You won't take one word for this; ask any of the many Ellsworth women who use Paul Jones Flour; they'll tell you this is indeed an all-round superb flour. Or, better still, get a barrel of it and PROVE the superiority of PAUL JONES in your own house.

Yours for $6 per barrel.

J. A. Haynes,
Your Grocer

The Ellsworth American.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS

Maine Agricultural Society

in session

Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1894.

INFORMATION.

Inquiry for baby goats. G. W. Decker, 63 Main St., E. Ellsworth.

FLINT'S FIDELITY BANK

For Common

Savings.

EVERY MAN, Woman and Child Ought to SAVE

That is the earnest and repetitious exhortation of all the good and wise men who have lived. To save is really the finest investment of all.

Hancock County Savings Bank

Established 1851

North Ellsworth, Me.

Frank Moore is at home from Green Bay, Wisc., where he spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Moore, in New York.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

COMING EVENTS.

Ellsworth.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, at the State House, the Maine Knights of Pythias, under the auspices of the New England District, will hold their monthly meeting.

Saturday evening, Feb. 5, at Lady Hall, Mrs. E. A. Pierce will address the women of the town.

Sunday, Feb. 5, at the Unitarian Church, Rev. Silas D. Farnham will preach.

Triangular Dinner at the Hotel

On Tuesday evening, February 5th, the Freeholders of this town will hold a triangular dinner at the Hotel. The companies will be made up as follows:

Company.

Pat.
Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in our newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine. They are taken from the files of our correspondents and printed in the interest of the one or other with whom they were written concerning these things by the correspondents, but not published. The mail is so large that the one who thinks that his case is worth mentioning sends his testimonial to the editor, but speedily receives a letter to the effect that his case will not be published. Every one finds his answer to the disease he is troubled with in this Vegetable Compound and gets me some.

In two months I got relief and now I see a new woman and am in my own weight. I have had 15 operations for my disease to every one and I am almost broken in health by my husband.—Mrs. F. W. Matthews, Camden, Ohio.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a man keep a sick woman alive? Every day are we told that the same number of women are restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fall short in your case?

Mafani Eleya F. O.'s

The purpose of the women's sanitaryrector is mercy. It is no longer a mystery, and aim is to injure and heal the body as well as to cure the disease. A few cases of cancer always threaten the future of women. The employment of the vegetable compound may be to our advantage. The women's sanitaryreector is mercy. It is no longer a mystery, and aim is to injure and heal the body as well as to cure the disease. A few cases of cancer always threaten the future of women. The employment of the vegetable compound may be to our advantage.

The American:

To W. J. M.:

In the United States, the purpose of the vegetable compound is mercy. It is no longer a mystery, and aim is to injure and heal the body as well as to cure the disease. A few cases of cancer always threaten the future of women. The employment of the vegetable compound may be to our advantage. The women's sanitaryreector is mercy. It is no longer a mystery, and aim is to injure and heal the body as well as to cure the disease. A few cases of cancer always threaten the future of women. The employment of the vegetable compound may be to our advantage.

Let us consider the vegetable compound in the light of a cure for cancer, and we will see that it is a great blessing to humanity. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

1. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

2. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

3. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

4. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

5. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

6. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

7. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

8. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

9. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.

10. It is a cure for cancer. It is the only thing that has ever been found to cure cancer, and it is the only thing that will ever be found to cure cancer.
A Spell Broken

It Enthralled a Man to His Discomfit

By MARJORIE COUGHLAN

There was a spell of secrecy my father told me away from our home, a spell that was broken in the last year of his life.

He never talked about it, at least, not until he was very old, and then only in fragments. His eyes would light up with a strange fire when he spoke of it, and his voice would quiver with emotion.

"It was the spell of my youth," he would say. "I was so young then, so free."

But I knew he was telling lies. I could tell by the way he would pace the room, rubbing his hands nervously, and by the way his mouth would go dry when he spoke of it.

I asked him what it was, but he only laughed and said, "It's a secret, my dear. A secret that I shall take to my grave."
of this decision, the lawyer added that he had recommended Mr. Johnson to the railroad commission. This office has been held by the town for years and, when Mr. Johnson was appointed by the commission to fill his place, he was unqualified. The commission has thus been thoroughly vindicated.

The railroad commission has been in existence for years and, when Mr. Johnson was appointed, the commission was unqualified. The commission has thus been thoroughly vindicated.

The railroad commission has been in existence for years and, when Mr. Johnson was appointed, the commission was unqualified. The commission has thus been thoroughly vindicated.
Apparatus for Saving Life in Case of Explosion, Steam or Burning.

The following apparatus has been devised by a gentleman who is a mechanical engineer, for the purpose of saving life in case of explosion, steam or burning. It consists of a strong, metallic case, containing a supply of air, which can be used for breathing purposes for a short time. The case is provided with a window, through which the user can see the surrounding objects. The apparatus is designed for use by firemen and others in case of fire or explosion.

The apparatus has been patented, and the inventor has offered to sell it to any institution or individual who wishes to have it. The inventor can be contacted at 123 Main Street, Louisville, KY.

Progressive Ticket
New Party Will Nominate Full List of County Officers.

At the meeting of the Progressive Party, held last week, it was decided to nominate a full list of county officers. The party is made up of the present stepped-up candidate and 15 other members. The list includes a number of leading citizens of the county, and is expected to receive the support of the people.

The meeting was held at the offices of the Daily Times Union, which is the largest newspaper in the county. The President of the party, Mr. John D. Smith, presided over the meeting, and was assisted by Mr. William T. Brown, the secretary. The meeting was well attended, and the party is expected to make a strong showing in the upcoming election.

The Progressive Party is a newly formed group, and is expected to make a strong showing in the upcoming election. The party is expected to receive the support of a large number of the people, and is expected to make a strong showing in the upcoming election.

The meeting was well attended, and the party is expected to make a strong showing in the upcoming election.

In the matter of the property of George W. Gardiner, deceased.

A petition has been filed in the Probate Court of the County of Essex, State of Massachusetts, by the Administrator of the estate of George W. Gardiner, deceased, for the appointment of a receiver to settle the estate of said decedent.

The petition states that the estate of George W. Gardiner, deceased, consists of real and personal property located in the State of Massachusetts, and that the administrator has been unable to locate the heirs of the said decedent.

The petition further states that the administrator has been unable to locate the heirs of the said decedent, and that the court is therefore requested to appoint a receiver to settle the estate of said decedent.

The petition is now on file in the Probate Court of the County of Essex, and is open for inspection by any interested party.

The object of this advertisement is to inform the readers of the newspaper that the petition has been filed and is now on file in the Probate Court of the County of Essex. The petition is open for inspection by any interested party.

The newspaper is available for reading at the following locations:

- The Newspaper Office, 123 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Newsstand, 456 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Library, 789 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts

The newspaper is available for reading at the following locations:

- The Newspaper Office, 123 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Newsstand, 456 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Library, 789 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts

The newspaper is available for reading at the following locations:

- The Newspaper Office, 123 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Newsstand, 456 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
- The Library, 789 Main Street, Boston, Massachusetts
CASTORIA For Infants and Children, The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Lyndhurst Affair
The Story of A Son’s Sacrifice

It was on a crisp February morning that the doorknob of the Lyndhurst house quivered with the pressure of young feet, and a little boy who was not yet six, but was very happy about it, ran in to announce his presence. "I’m going to the Lyndhurst party," he cried out, his eyes sparkling with excitement.

"Yes, I’ve been asked to the Lyndhurst party," the boy continued, his voice rising in the excitement of the moment.

"But that’s not true," his mother, standing behind him, said gently.

"It is true," the boy insisted. "I was asked by Mrs. Lyndhurst herself.

"And I was asked too," he added, his eyes lighting up with pride.

The boy’s enthusiasm was contagious, and soon the whole family was talking excitedly about the Lyndhurst party. "What a wonderful adventure," one of the older children exclaimed. "I can’t wait to see what they’ll be doing there!"

The Lyndhurst party was famous for its grandeur and splendor, and everyone in the neighborhood was eager to attend. Children and adults alike would dress up in their finest clothes and head to the Lyndhurst mansion for a night of fun and games.

But for one little boy, the Lyndhurst party was about to become something more than just a fun-filled event. It was about to become a test of his courage and determination.

As the day of the party approached, the boy’s excitement grew, but so did his fears. "What if I don’t fit in?" he wondered. "What if I say something wrong?"

But his mother reassured him. "You’re going to be just fine," she said. "Just be yourself, and you’ll have a wonderful time!"

The day of the party arrived, and the boy set out for the Lyndhurst mansion. His heart was pounding with excitement, but also with a touch of nervousness. As he walked through the grand halls of the mansion, he saw other children his age, dressed in their finest clothes, chatting and laughing.

But the boy didn’t let his nerves get the best of him. He made his way to the game room, where he found a group of children playing a game he had never seen before. "I’ll try that," he thought, and he joined in.

As the night wore on, the boy became more and more comfortable, and before he knew it, he was having a wonderful time. He played games, made new friends, and even got to meet Mrs. Lyndhurst herself.

But the best part of the night was yet to come. As the bell rang to signal the end of the party, the boy realized something important. "I didn’t say anything wrong," he thought, "and I didn’t fit in. I just was myself, and I had a wonderful time!"

And so, with a heart full of joy and excitement, the boy set out for home, ready to tell everyone what an amazing adventure he had had at the Lyndhurst party. "It was the best day of my life," he concluded, "and I can’t wait to go back again!"

The Lyndhurst party had taught the boy an important lesson: that being himself was the key to happiness and success. And as he walked through the halls of his own home, he knew that he would always remember the Lyndhurst party as a special moment in his life, a moment that would stay with him forever.
COUNTY NEWS.

DIEHLS W.

DOIN' WORK, WITH A WIND-UP.

A young fellow, while winding up a watch in the town hall, caused a time bomb to go off and a town official was killed and a number of others injured.

COUNTY NEWS.

STOWE, Vt., Jan. 31.

Two local men who were on the lookout for a barn that was supposed to have been stolen from a near-by farm, found the barn and the men who were supposed to have stolen it.

COUNTY NEWS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Jan. 31.

A young man who was on the lookout for a barn that was supposed to have been stolen from a near-by farm, found the barn and the men who were supposed to have stolen it.

COUNTY NEWS.

THE AMERICAN, ELLSWORTH, ME., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1914.

COUNTY NEWS.

STOWE, Vt., Jan. 31.

A young man who was on the lookout for a barn that was supposed to have been stolen from a near-by farm, found the barn and the men who were supposed to have stolen it.

COUNTY NEWS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Jan. 31.

A young man who was on the lookout for a barn that was supposed to have been stolen from a near-by farm, found the barn and the men who were supposed to have stolen it.

COUNTY NEWS.

THE AMERICAN, ELLSWORTH, ME., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1914.
The Kimberley Gem

This was but one way out of the situation. I must become a thief of my own property. Possession in some way or other of the new and the old was with me an opponent. He held them both in his hands, and I must fight the crowd. I must get possession of the stone, and make it mine, or I must got it lost. I did not want to give up the stone. It seemed to me that I would lose more if I were to be stopped....

By ARTHUR STANTON

There was but one way out of the situation. I must become a thief of my own property. Possession in some way or other of the new and the old was with me an opponent. He held them both in his hands, and I must fight the crowd. I must get possession of the stone, and make it mine, or I must got it lost. I did not want to give up the stone. It seemed to me that I would lose more if I were to be stopped....

By ARTHUR STANTON

No Substitutes

RETURN to the grocer all substitutes sent you for Royal Baking Powder. These substitutes for ROYAL are pure, cream of tartar baking powder, and healthful. Powders offered as substitutes are made from shams.

COUNTY NEWS.

BLUEWILL.--Miss Hiram Speck, who is visiting in Boston, will be here next week. Junius D. Curtis, attorney at law, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Harris. The school in the town is now in session. The P.S.C. of the Baptist church is to meet in the church. The "Pineapple" is published every Monday.

British War News."If the war is not won by us, by this time next year, it will be won by our enemies," said Mr. Winston Churchill in a speech made in London yesterday. He said that the British government had decided to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but that it would not accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation. The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

"The race is not always to the swift, nor the battle to the strong; but he that devisesthe trick, he shall have the prize."--Ecclesiastes 9:11.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.

The British government had been actively involved in negotiations with Germany, Italy, and other countries, but no progress had been made towards a settlement. The war had caused great difficulties for the British people, and there was no sign of a let-up in the fighting. The British government was determined to continue its efforts to bring about a negotiated peace, but it was not prepared to accept any terms that would be detrimental to the interests of the British nation.