Lesson IX.—First Quarter, For March 1, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.
Text of the Lesson, Luke xi. 54-60.

Commentary Preparatory by Dr. Martin, St. Louis.

In the last verse of the previous lesson, we closed the book on the last part that left us with a sense of loss. Dr. Martin said, "I am so sorry that the story ends. The contest of the great men comes to a close. We must now turn our attention to the next chapter. We have seen the great men of the past, and now we must look to the great men of the future."

He added, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He said, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He continued, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He ended, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He concluded, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He finished, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He ended, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He finished, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He ended, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

He finished, "The contest of the great men of the past is over. The contest of the great men of the future is about to begin. We must look to the future, and we must look to the great men of the future."

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and other ailments. We urge you to try it at our store. If it doesn't suit you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us, your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it is better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove your faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no ju- gular or vague assumptions, no forged or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the offic- ials of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture in its highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.
