MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS
Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind., May 9th.—"I suffered for fourteen years from intestinal disease. In spite of many medicines I was not cured until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I Cannot expound too highly the merits of this medicine. I carry a bottle always and have had no nausea or gas for four years. My appetite is much improved, my bowels regular, and the tonic effects are wonderful. You owe it to yourself to try it. I only wish I had known of it before."

TOM T. STEWART.

The Portland Press, May 11th.—"I have tried many medicines, but have found none that was of any use to me. I have now been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for over two years, and I can say that it has done more for me than any medicine that I have ever used. I am able to work without pain, and have no nausea or gas."

A. STEWART.

Mrs. Williams, an elderly lady, has for years suffered from chronic bowel troubles, and was brought to a hospital in a very critical condition. She had been tried on a score of medicines with no success, and was the subject of despair. She was put on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and in a few weeks was so much improved that she could be discharged from the hospital. She has now been on the medicine for five years, and has no symptoms of bowel trouble at all. She says she feels as well as ever she has in her life.

H. E. R.

We shall be very glad to read the experiences of persons as you promise to write us, and we shall be glad to hear from other persons who have been cured of bowel troubles by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

A Story of the War Between the States

By F. A. Mitchell

"A Study of the War Between the States"

In the vast expanse of American history, particularly during the Civil War, love often was a source of strength and solace amidst the destruction and turmoil. The ongoing conflict, which had already been raging for some time, seemed to have taken a personal toll on the characters in this particular account. The narrative begins with a description of the setting and introduces the main characters, setting the stage for the ensuing events.

As the story unfolds, the reader is immersed in the lives of these individuals, witnessing the trials and tribulations they faced. The descriptions are vivid, painting a picture of the time and place, bringing the past to life for modern-day readers.

The story follows the protagonist as they navigate the challenges of the war, both on the battlefield and in the personal realms of love and relationships. The narrative style is engaging, capturing the essence of the era and the human experiences that defined it.

The themes of love, war, and identity are skillfully woven together, creating a compelling and evocative tale that resonates with the struggles and triumphs experienced by those who lived through this transformative period in American history.

Conclusion

As the tale reaches its conclusion, the reader is left with a sense of the profound impact that the Civil War had on the individuals depicted. The story ends with a final reflection on the significance of the events portrayed, serving as a reminder of the enduring legacy of this pivotal period in American history.

A Diabolic Plot

By MARGARET C. DEVERAUX

A lady and gentleman stood on the porch of one of our nearer dwellings, before whom I was visiting, reading the papers. "What's news, sir?" asked the gentleman. "Only the usual stuff," replied the lady. "What about the weather?" "It's been very erratic, sir," said the lady. "And the markets?" "They've been quite volatile, sir," said the lady. "What about the elections?" "They've been quite lackluster, sir," said the lady. "And the economy?" "It's been quite sluggish, sir," said the lady. "And the sports?" "They've been quite lackluster, sir," said the lady. "And the arts?" "They've been quite lackluster, sir," said the lady. "And the weather?" "It's been quite erratic, sir," said the lady. The sooner you order the sooner you'll ride your 1914 Indian Motocycle

Those who ordered at this time last received their machines promptly—and the owners were ready at the opening of the season.

Therefore, we suggest the man who wants his Indian early that he consult with us now—that he study the 1914 Indian Catalog—that he arrange for an Indian demonstration at our store.

We want to give our patrons good service promptly. We are more than willing to help us to do so by coming to see us now rather than later.
