WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1915.

At Portland to-day Secretary of State John E. Bunker, of Bar Harbor, will receive new honors by election to the highest office in Odd Fellowship in Maine.

Perhaps, in the national policy of preparedness the government coalging station at Lamaine will gain come into its own, with an aerial base as an adjunct.

Diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico were formally renewed yesterday, after a lapse of two years and eight months, by the formal recognition of Venustiano Carranza as the chief executive of the defacto government of Mexico.

The result of the vote on woman suffrage in the state of New Jersey yesterday was a severe disappointment for the suffragists. Confident of victory, and predicting a majority of 25,000 in favor of giving them the ballot, the suffragists were surprised by a majority of more than 50,000 against them.

THE AMERICAN this week publishes the announcement of another candidate for the republican nomination for representative from class 6—Reuben Devereux, of Penobscot. Milton Beckwith announces that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination for representative from the Ellsworth class.

The campaign for national preparedness, confined to no political party, is bearing fruit. The estimated appropriation for the army and navy for the next Congress is $400,000,000, an increase of $140,000,000 over last year. It is understood that this estimate has the approval of the administration.

All records for automobile registration in Maine have been broken, according to a statement compiled by the secretary of state's office made public recently. The total receipts from registrations and operators' licenses to date are $266,506. When the new law regarding the bond issue went into effect, it was estimated that the revenue would be in the neighborhood of $100,000 to $125,000. So great has been the increase in the number of automobiles used that on October 1, the income from this source for three-fourths of a year only, has more than doubled the original estimate.

Two county commissioners will be elected next year, one for a term of six years and the other for four years. The members of the present board whose terms expire are W. H. Sherman, of Bar Harbor, who has served a full term of six years, and who is the only democratic member of the board, and Howard B. Moor, of Ellsworth, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Capt. Henry J. Joy, of Ellsworth, the appointment being until the January following the next election. Mr. Moor will be a candidate for renomination by the republicans. State Senator S. S. Scammon, of Franklin, announced some weeks ago that he would be a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner. It is understood that of the two candidates elected, the one receiving the largest number of votes will have the long term and the other the short term.

Dad's Paper. My father says the paper that he reads ain't put up right. He finds a lot of fault, he does, perusin' it at night. He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read, and that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need. He tosses it aside and says it's strictly "on the bum."

ON THE STATE HIGHWAY. Ellsworth and Bar Harbor Ask Further Work on Bangor Road. State Highway Commissioner Frank Peabody, delegated by Governor Curtis to investigate the matter of further improvement of the Bangor-Ellsworth road in North Ellsworth, from Haines' hill to McGown's hill, gave a hearing on the spot Monday afternoon to committees from Ellsworth and Bar Harbor, and several Bangor men who are interested in the improvement of this road.

COMMISSIONER PEABODY CAME DOWN from Bangor with Col. J. P. Bass, accompanied by Hon. J. Clark Soates, of the governor's council, who had been waylaid at Bangor. Strickland, Dr. E. B. Hanger, Hon. Taber D. Bailey, Harry Chapman and M. E. Harrigan. The Bar Harbor delegation included Dr. George A. Phillips and John Stalford, of the special committee appointed on this road matter, H. D. Wakefield, Charles Keucher, John Butterfield, T. L. Roberts, Martin Roberts, H. F. Emery and Reginald Ingalls. The Ellsworth party included J. A. Cunningham, of the governor's council; C. H. Leland and Roy C. Haines, of the special committee appointed at the Ellsworth road meeting; Aldermen Small, Weecott and Stuart and Street Commissioner Newman, Arthur B. Mitchell and W. H. Titus.

CRANBERRY ISLES BUSY on Its New Neighborhood House. The old Rosebrooks house on Cranberry Isles was the scene of busy activity last Wednesday afternoon. The men and women of the town gathered to begin the transformation of the old house into the Cranberry Isles Neighborhood House. Saturday the premises had been cleared up and the house fumigated. Wednesday the ladies stripped the walls of their old coverings, and made ready for the new interior decorations. At the same time the men were transforming the exterior with a coat of white paint and old-fashioned green trimmings. Another group of the good wives were preparing a supper for the laborers.

MILLIONS FOR WARSHIPS.

Naval Estimates in New Policy of Preparedness. WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson to-day approved Secretary Daniels' recommendation for a five-year construction programme for the navy to cost $500,000,000. The exact amount to be appropriated for each of the five years has not been decided, but the first year's programme calls for two dreadnaughts and two battle cruisers. The five-year programme would call for sixteen capital ships—ten dreadnaughts and six battle cruisers. In order to get the best advantage of improvements in construction and not to overtax the capacity of American navy yards, the first year's construction will include two dreadnaughts and two battle cruisers, and about twenty-five submarines, sixteen destroyers and probably five scout cruisers.

The total amount to be appropriated for construction this year will be in the neighborhood of $100,000,000, but since about $28,000,000 of this sum is for the three battleships authorized last year, the total increase in the naval appropriation bill is more likely to be about $72,000,000. This, together with army increase of $72,000,000, will make the increase for national defence about $145,000,000, or a total appropriation for the two branches of the service about $402,000,000. The national defence plans of the administration, calling for an expenditure in the next fiscal year of more than $400,000,000 for army, navy and fortifications, were completed to-day. Secretary Garrison has forwarded his estimates, already approved by President Wilson, to the secretary of the treasury, and Secretary Daniels submitted his estimates this afternoon, after going over the final details with President Wilson this morning. Reports from Secretaries Garrison and Daniels will be made public within the next few days.

SECRETARY DANIELS SAID HE WANTED TO increase the capacity of the various government navy yards and do much of the new warship construction in those yards. Some contracts will continue, however, to be given to private concerns. Secretary Daniels said he expected there would be sufficient work to keep busy both government and private ship yards. It is planned also to have some aeroplanes for the navy built by the government. The secretary conferred in Orange, N. J., last night with Thomas A. Edison, chairman of the naval consulting committee, regarding the committee's recommendations for a large research laboratory. The navy estimates will include a recommendation for an appropriation for research work, but Secretary Daniels has not asked for $5,000,000, the sum the committee thought should be spent for a laboratory because such a large sum for a laboratory for this purpose is believed unnecessary for the first year.

Very truly yours, REUBEN DEVEREUX.

OBITUARY.

PETER STARKEY. Peter Starkey, one of Ellsworth's oldest citizens, died Saturday, after an illness of only a few hours. Mr. Starkey, though nearing eighty-two years of age, had enjoyed good health for his years. He seemed as well as usual Saturday. Shortly after dinner he was taken suddenly ill, and fell unconscious, the result of a shock. He died at 10 o'clock that night, without having regained consciousness.

MR. STARKEY WAS BORN IN BELFAST, Ireland, Nov. 12, 1833. He came to St. Andrews, N. B., with his parents when he was three years of age. While a boy he went to Boston, where he learned the harness-makers' trade, after which he returned to New Brunswick. For two years he followed the sea, making foreign voyages. For a few years he worked at the harness-makers' trade in Bangor, and about 1854 he came to Ellsworth to work for Mr. Illey, later for Henry Rollins, Lewis A. Joy and James A. McGown. About 1878 he started in business for himself, which he continued until his death.

LAUNDERING. (Marion W. Borden, Instructor in Home Economics, U. of M., in Farmers' Week Course, 1915.) To most housekeepers, the weekly laundry work is the most formidable task of all in the household routine. The process often extends over two or three days, is anticipated with dread, and seems to be completed only to be begun again. The place where the work is carried on with its equipment has much to do with making the work easier or more difficult. If it is a separate room on the first floor, so that there need be no going up and down stairs, light, airy, and with running water, much labor is saved.
