SERVICE FLAGS—AMERICAN FLAGS

Wool hunting flags advanced 15 per cent twice in April. The government—the most critical buyer—recommends the use of cotton bunting. Every official building in Washington displays cotton bunting flags—Invincible bunting, all fast color, same weave and appearance as wool, double warp and filling, and much cheaper. See them before you buy.

Mrs. John F. Whitcomb is visiting Mrs.
A. I. Saunders in Machias.

Mrs. John F. Hill of Augusta is the guest of Mrs. A. P. Wiswell.

Mrs. Catherine Laffin of Frankfort is visiting her son, Dr. F. P. Laffin.

Carroll Grindal and Fred Shea left Saturday for Bath, where they will have employment.

Miss Helen Eldridge of Bangor was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eldridge over Sunday.

Charles Vose, who has been employed for the past few months in Boston, is visiting his father, H. E. Vose.

E. A. Lermund, now employed in Bath, is spending a vacation of two weeks in Ellsworth and vicinity.

There will be a meeting of Wm. H. H.
Rice relief corps to-morrow afternoon. A large attendance is desired.

Wendell M. Osgood, who has been employed in Bar Harbor for the past few weeks, is visiting in Ellsworth.

Basil Robbins and Harry L. Stratton left last week for Portsmouth, N. H., where they have employment.

Mrs. Ann Carroll who has been in Norway with her son Lawrence since last fall, is at her home here for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Russell and son John of Beverly, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Russell's parents, K. B. Holmes and wife.

Mrs. Quintan of Reading, Mass., and her son Joseph and daughters Helen and Catherine are the guests of Mrs. James T.
Harriman.

Mrs. Eudora Hopkins of Bangor is spending a few weeks in Ellsworth, receiving a cordial welcome from her many friends here.

There will be a dance for the benefit of the Red Cross at Rural hall, East Surry,
this evening. Music by Higgins' orchestra. Refreshments will be served.

A complimentary dance was given at Hancock hall last Wednesday evening in honor of the draftees who left Thursday.
Music was furnished by an orchestra of three pieces.

Maynard Strout, who has been spending a furlough at his home here, left last Wednesday night for Boothbay Harbor, where he is stationed. He is a telegraph operator in the naval reserve.

Charles H. Votey of Meriden, Conn., has joined his wife and little son here at the home of her parents. They will leave for home Friday, by automobile, making short visits to friends en route.

Guy H. Plummer of Harrington pleaded guilty in the Ellsworth municipal court last week to a charge of reckless driving of an automobile, on complaint of City Marshal Silvy. He was fined $25 and costs, $10.65.

Clarence Alley, U. S. N., chief commissary, now stationed at Newport, R. I., is spending a short furlough with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. G. W. Alley. He enlisted in the naval reserve, but was later transferred to the regular navy.

The sugar card system will be adopted in Ellsworth beginning to-morrow. No one can obtain sugar without a card,
which may be obtained from any dealer.
The dealers may obtain the cards, printed under the direction of the local food administrator, at THE AMERICAN OFFICE.

Mrs. Matzka, wife of Jos. Matzka, the well-known New York sculptor, is spending three weeks' vacation with her friend, Mrs. Mary Jordan Leighton, on the farm of the late Isaac Jordan, on the old La-moine road. Mrs. Matzka will return to her home in New York, about August 10.

J. S. Donovan of Ellsworth has been named by the democratic county committee as the candidate for county commissioner. This nomination is made to fill the vacancy on the democratic ticket caused by the death of Hyron H. Mayo of Southwest Harbor, which occurred a few days before the primary.

Mrs. Sarah Webb of Washington, D.
C., is the guest of Mrs. Anne McDonald this week. Mrs. Webb is a native of Ellsworth, a daughter of the late Jonathan H. Hsley, who at one time conducted a harness business here. Although Mrs. Webb left here when a child she has always retained a warm interest in her birthplace.

Miss Sarah Fairbrother of the Ellsworth telephone exchange, who enlisted some time ago for overseas service, received her call last week, and left Saturday for New York, expecting to sail soon. Miss Fair-brother is an English girl, who came here about three years ago to make her home with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Tickle. She has made many friends in Ellsworth, who wish her good luck in her patriotic service.

Mrs. Peters last week received a telegram announcing the safe arrival at England of the battleship on which Congressman Peters, with a party of other members of the House committee on naval affairs, sailed recently for a tour of inspection on the passage. The committee was met by representatives of the British admiralty and other officials, and before proceeding to London, visited the naval bases and witnessed the joint activities of the British and American navies in those waters.
The members of the committee Monday visited Vice-Admiral Sims, Ambassador Page and the first lord of the admiralty,
and were the guests of the American club.
The committee will remain in England
several days, and will then go to Queenstown and afterward to France and Italy.

Grace M., wife of Walter C. White, all since the birth of an infant five weeks ago,
early Monday morning took the infant,
and with it in her arms threw herself from the Card's brook bridge on Water street, near her home. Both were dead when found a few hours later. The child's head was crushed, and Mrs. White's body was badly bruised. There is but little water in the brook at this point, and the fall upon the rocks probably rendered her unconscious. Dr. Lewis Hodgkins, medical examiner, deemed an inquest unnecessary. Mrs. White was thirty years old, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter of Ellsworth Falls. She leaves, besides her husband and parents, three young children—Lawrence, Shirley and Margaret—four brothers and three sisters. The family has the sympathy of all.

Benjamin Hadley Dead.

Benjamin Hadley, a respected resident of Bar Harbor, was stricken by apoplexy
while driving his public carriage yesterday noon. He was taken to the hospital, and died about 4 o'clock. He was sixty-four years of age last Saturday.

Since 1880 he had lived in Bar Harbor,
and for twenty one years was the caretaker for the Shannon estate. Since that time he had been engaged in driving a public carriage. He leaves, besides a wife, one son, Lieut. Benjamin Hadley, of Little Rock, Ark.; two daughters, Mrs. Frank
H. Cutler and Mrs. Laura Cleaves.

He was a prominent Mason and had been secretary of the Bar Harbor lodge about twenty-five years. He was a thirty-second degree Mason.

Castine Normal Reunion.

The summer reunion of the Castine Normal Alumni Association will be held in Richardson hall, Castine, from Aug. 5 to Aug. 21. There will be interesting and enjoyable lectures and musicals for entertainment. A large attendance is expected. This is a departure from the usual encampment at Sandy Point, the buildings there having been leased to a shipbuilding corporation.

Wood Dealers Warned.

State fuel administrators have been advised by the United States fuel administration that they have authority to prohibit, except under special order, the sale of coal to consumers in localities where a plentiful supply of wood is available. They also were advised that wood dealers who raise the price under the present demand will be dealt with according to law.

Fourth Liberty Loan.

The treasury virtually has decided to hold the fourth liberty loan campaign in the three weeks between Saturday, Sept.
28 and Saturday, Oct. 19. The length of the drive will be reduced from the usual four weeks, as recommended by many liberty loan workers, with the hope of averting the usual slump of interest in the middle of the campaign.

Unitarian Conference.

The annual session of the Hancock County Conference of Unitarian churches will be held at West Gouldsboro Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 13 and 14. The conference will open Tuesday evening, with sessions Wednesday forenoon and afternoon. The program cannot yet be announced.

Sugar Rations Reduced.

Beginning Aug. 1, the sugar rations
will be two pounds per capita monthly, and public eating places will be restricted to two pounds of sugar for every ninety meals served, or less than one-third of an ounce per meal—about two cubes, or one teaspoonful.

UNITARIAN FAIR.

Mid-Summer Festival at Hancock
Hall Next Week.

The Unitarian fair to be held at Hancock hall, Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 7 and 8, promises to be one of the most attractive events of the summer.
The decorations of the hall, although simple, will be effective, the colors of the allies being used on the booths.

Wednesday will be observed as "Old Home Day," and as there will be no other public observance of old home week in town, it is hoped that many former residents and those who have formed associations here through visits will be present to meet old friends. There will be an informal reunion from 2 to 5 o'clock. Miss Erva Giles, who has charge of the afternoon entertainment, has arranged a program of vocal and instrumental music to be given at intervals from each booth.

In the evening there will be a concert given by Miss Erva Giles, soprano, Joseph Fuchs, of New York violinist, and Miss Alice O. Hersey of East Corinth, reader.
After the concert, there will be informal dancing.

Thursday's program will appeal especially to the younger set. In the afternoon the Camp Fire girls will repeat their flag drill, at the request of some who have not seen it on former occasions,
and others who wished to see it again.
There will be vocal solos by Louise Alexander and Marion Young of L. moine, and a junior dance from 4 to 5 o'clock.
Thursday evening an English play, "The Princess and the Monster," will be given by fifteen young misses, under the direction of Rev. J. W. Tickle.

It promises to be as attractive as the production of "Cinderella" arranged by Mr. Tickle last year.

The fair will end with a confetti dancing party. Higgins' orchestra will be in attendance both days, and refreshments, including ice-cream and iced drinks, will be served.

INSUICIDE PACT.

Bodies of Bride and Groom Washed Ashore at Bar Harbor.

The bodies of a man and woman, lashed together, were picked up just outside the breakwater at Bar Harbor Saturday afternoon. Later they were identified as Mr.
and Mrs. Harry Havelock Morse of Lynn, Mass., who are believed to have jumped overboard from the steamer J. T. Morse on the night of July 9. They had tied themselves together with a clothesline.

It develops that the couple was secretly married last Christmas eve. He was a member of one of the wealthiest families of Nova Scotia, but had lived in the family of his brother, Rev. William Ingalls Morse, pastor of the Church of the Incorporation at Lynn, until his marriage. The bride was a servant in this brother's home,
and the marriage caused an estrangement
from the groom's family.

Two days before the suicide the bride wrote to her only sister telling of her desire to die, rather than be separated by war from her husband, who, at her request, had deserted from Camp Devens.
She expressed fear of his being captured and forced into a guard house, or taken from her and sent at once into the activities of the western front. She could not stand the separation, she added, so she had begged and pleaded with her husband until he had consented to her final plans.

ELLSWORTH FALLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Shea are receiving congratulations on the recent arrival of a little daughter.

Samuel Candage, wife and baby, of Seal Harbor, were here Sunday, guests of Mr.
and Mrs. A. W. Ellis.

Leon H. Brown and wife are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son,
born Monday morning.

Mrs. Richard Richardson of Elizabeth, N. J., and daughter Constance are visiting Mrs. Richardson's parents.

Fred E. Grace, who has spent his month's vacation here with his wife, will return to his work at the Green Lake hatchery to-day.

Master Ernest Franklin of Beverly, Mass., is spending his vacation with his grandparents, E. L. Franklin and wife.
Llewellyn Franklin of Beverly, Mass., was here from Monday until Thursday of last week.

Chautauqua at Bar Harbor.

The Chautauqua will open at Bar Harbor athletic field next Tuesday, and continue until August 12. A patriotic program is promised, with speakers recently from the war front in France.

Moore Family Reunion.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Moore family will be held at the Casino,
Ellsworth Falls, Wednesday, Aug. 21.
There will be a dance as usual in the evening.

USE FAT CARDS IN SWITZERLAND

They Have Been Added to a Long List of Food-Saving Measures.

MANY COMPLAINTS MADE

People Urged to Use Peanuts and Fruit Stones as Substitutes—
Planting of Sunflowers Along Roads Recommended.

Zurich.—Neutral countries are now feeling the scarcity of articles of food and are compelled to adopt rationing measures, thus following the footsteps of belligerent countries. Switzerland is adding to the bread card, meat card, coal card, etc., a new saving device—the fat card. Commenting on the impending innovation the Neue Zürcher Zeitung says:

"Of course the coming of the fat card is greeted with a general chorus of howling and cursing. The bread card received the same sort of welcome. However, systematic rationing of all our food is only to be welcomed when you consider the necessity of justly and equally feeding a whole people."

"It is the only way to make possible a fair distribution and it is the only way to suppress mean egotism. The fat portion prescribed by our government is sufficient for these extraordinary times of general food shortage. But even in peace times the housewife could hardly use 500 grammes a month for each person."

Wholesome Lesson.

"It does no harm at all if we are somewhat restrained in the use of fats. It will be a wholesome lesson to many of us. Some people were in the habit of wasting fat in shameful manner. It belonged to the requirements of an elegant kitchen to soak everything in fat. It became customary to trim the fat off boiled and roasted meat and even off ham and leave it on the plate. And then fat such as butter was added to meat and eggs, which contain enough fat of their own. Here the cooks squander a lot of fat because it is the easiest way."

"Some restriction and a little more thoughtfulness in preparing dishes will harm nobody. Overanxious people are howling about starving. They forget that the poor who form a very numerous part of our population always had to economize in the use of fats. Besides, man can get along without fat for a time. For most of our foods contain fat in another form. A shortage of fat might become serious if we had no substitutes, such as cornstarch and sugar. Every ounce of fat can be replaced by two ounces of starch."

"Of course weather and climate affect the amount of fats required by the human body. A person working hard during cold weather needs more fats than otherwise. As a whole, though, man is able to adapt himself, and his craving for fats is more a matter of habit than of necessity. In the kitchen butter should be displaced by oils. Oil is cheaper and well answers all purposes in frying and baking."

Peanuts as Substitutes.

"Peanuts may be used as a substitute for fat in the preparation of many dishes. All kernels and stones of fruit should be collected for the production of oil. A kilogram of cherry stones will yield 720 grammes of shells and 280 grammes of inner kernels. The latter will yield 67 grammes of oil."

"Peach and plum stones may be treated similarly and will give the same results. Even the pits of apples, pears and oranges can be made to produce oil. Pumpkins, too, contain a wealth of oil. Mostly all of these oil-yielding particles are thrown away as useless."

"Children should be taught to pick them up and collect them. Depots should be established where the children—and others too—can turn in their collections. The rising generation must become imbued with the desire to serve their country. Planting of sunflowers along roads, walks and railroad tracks must be encouraged."

"If all this is done systematically and faithfully the present shortage of fat will mean nothing to our people. It may be felt as an annoyance in the kitchen and the palate may miss something, but it will not cause any malnutrition of the people."

GRUNTS AND CACKLES BRING HAM AND EGGS

Connellsville, Pa. — Private Scott Lysinger, writing home of his tribulations in making himself understood in France, says that when he and several of his comrades entered a restaurant and tried to make the waiter understand they wanted ham and eggs, one of them grunted and another cackled. A quick nod of the head by the waiter indicated the order would come.

German Is Banned.

LOADS OF TROUBLE.

Loads of trouble everywhere—
Let us try to bear our share!
Loads of sorrow all around—
Let us try to hold our ground!
Loads of worry all through life—
Let us hurl our fist at strife!
Let us meet with smile and cheer
Every shadow, care and fear!

Always been a lot of woe—
Let us meet ours as we go!
Always will be grief and guile—
Let us try to wear a smile!
Maybe foolish, maybe not,
Seems that smiling helps a lot.
Singing, too, and simple trust—
Let's sing on, and face the dust!

Loads of trouble 'mid the glad—
Let's believe it's not so bad!
Not so easy, so they cry,
To laugh it off and pass it by.
Not so easy, no, that's true,
But everything life asks of you
That is noble and worth while
Has its hardships—let us smile!

Dear M. B. Friends:

The poem was sent by Aunt Martha some time ago and I am using it at this time. Aunt Martha, because of the personal letter I have just received from you in which you said, in referring to another grandson going to the war, "We shall send him away with a brave smile." I am reminded of one of Ethelbert Nevins' songs:

"So fare thee well awhile, my love,
So fare thee well awhile;
We have no parting sign to give,
So part we with a smile."

What an amount of courage has been summoned "to the front," in the many homes from which "the boys" have been called to the colors! I suppose different conditions in life develop different virtues. There are times when patience is the principal need of the hour; those are the times when we are called to "labor and wait." But war calls for courage, not only to face the enemy but to endure the breaking of so many home ties. There are many "spartan mothers" to-day.

John Russell, now in London, writes: "Sacrifice is the spirit of England to-day. The women of England are the source and the force of it. Before the world's great struggle for freedom can be won, it must become the spirit of America as well." So, to courage must be added sacrifice and to sacrifice, loyalty, or should the last be first?

Rev. John E. Wickham of New York says: "There is an unswerving loyalty demanded from every citizen of America."

Dear Sister Madge:

I see by the papers that Aunt Madge is on deck again, to use one of my father's nautical expressions, and am very glad. I saw a man just before the Fourth of July snoring around (shall I coin a new word or is it an old one?) after lamb which are sold, not for their weight in gold but nearly their weight in silver. Looking over on the neighboring hills I can see a large flock of sheep; they are not kept for food but for their wool, which sells for a big price these war times.

In the olden times people did not depend on a market, for there were no markets. Every family raised its own meat supply. They raised large flocks of sheep, and pigs, for in the fall they salted down mutton and pork for winter use. The wool was sheared off and carded by hand (no machines in those far-off days) spun into yarn to knit socks and mittens for the family or woven into cloth, the white for blankets and the colored for family clothing.

Let some of the school girls of to-day carry their imagination back more than seventy-five years ago to a little girl nine or ten years old, wearing a dress made of wool, carded, spun and woven, and dyed a dark red, made high in the neck, long sleeves, the skirt made to the tops of the boots, buttoned up in the back with round black buttons such as were worn later on boots, with a white or pink ruffled pinafore. It looked very neat and comfortable.

I was not a robust child, so my wise mother, in cold weather, would dress me in woollens and send me out to slide on the pond or coast down hill with Billy, on his home-made hand-sled, and so laid the foundation for a long life. I wore a woolen dress, stockings, mittens and (now, girls, don't laugh and say, Oh, My!) a hood! That hood was made of brown silk, with a ribbon bow on the back of it and strings to tie under the chin. It protected my ears and throat. I do not know its end, but if any Jew peddlers were around, probably they got the remains.

The school that Billy and I attended was nearly a mile from our home. We would eat our breakfast by candle light, do the chores, and then scamper for school, taking a lunch with us for our dinner. But at night when we returned home our mother invariably had a kettle of hot soup—vegetable, stewed peas, clam chowder or something palatable, for we were as hungry as bears. A large piece of mutton which was cooked in the soup was not eaten with it, but was taken out and cooled and sliced up the next morning for breakfast. O, those old, happy days before care or sorrow came!

We all find these reminiscences very interesting, Sadie, and thank you for them all. Your mother practiced the fresh-air treatment even in those days. Those were called "pumpkin noods," weren't they? I have one of them, made for a baby, more than seventy-eight years ago, and which I, no doubt, wore myself in infancy. It was made of soft brocade silk, something the color of "crushed strawberry," with ribbons of pale pink, for which blue was substituted later.

AUNT MADGE.

We Suppose This Is So.

In place of most of our troubles we might easily have much worse ones.—Albany Journal.

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JAS. ROHRBERG, 620 Knapp St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Rohrborg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Among the Grangers.

This column is devoted to the Grange, especially to the granges of Hancock county. The column is open to all grangers for the discussion of topics of general interest, and for reports of grange meetings. Make letters short and concise. All communications must be signed, but names will not be printed except by permission of the writer. All communications will be subject to approval by the editor, but none will be rejected without good reason.

NEW CENTURY, 256, DEDHAM.

Final degrees were conferred on a class of nine in New Century grange July 27. The program, of a patriotic nature, included a tableau, "The Red Cross"; a reading by Maurice Miller; recitation, Gertrude Wakefield; vocal solos, Marcia Penney, Alta Black and Clifford Burrill; reading, Hazel Cowing; singing, "America." Ice-cream and cake were served.

Soldier's Cough Is Cured

Private Harold Hamel, 46th Regiment, Ft. Adams, R. I., writes: "I was troubled with a bad cough for three months. I tried a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar and felt greatly relieved. I have since used two bottles and I recommend Foley's Honey and Tar and will always keep it on hand. Foley's Honey and Tar cures inflamed, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing coating and relieves coughs, colds, croup and bronchial affections."—Moore's Drug Store.

After Eleven Years

This Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is an Ellsworth Falls story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Frank E. Fernald, Waltham St., says: "I had a severe spell with my back and could hardly stand the pain. It was hard for me to stoop over or straighten up. I had read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. It took only one box to benefit me. I have since had return symptoms of the trouble, but Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. G. Moore's Drug Store, again gave me immediate relief." (Statement given February 7, 1905.)

On December 4, 1916, Mr. Fernald said: "Colds sometimes disorder my kidneys, but I can rely on Doan's Kidney Pills to relieve me. The satisfactory experience I have had with Doan's Kidney Pills strengthens my faith in them and I recommend them more highly than ever." 60c, at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. SPRAY GREEN PEAS.

Reason Why Pods are not Well Filled. [University of Maine News Letter.] Did you ever wonder why you get more peas in a pod of the early varieties than in the late-grown peas in some years? If you look carefully you will find the peas are all there, but that some of them failed to develop; in other words you failed to get all that was originally coming to you. It is the purpose of this letter to explain one of the reasons why this happened and how it may be prevented.

The material out of which the pea vine makes peas is brought to the pod in a liquid state from the roots and leaves, as you would see by breaking open a live stock or leaf. Therefore, any injury that occurs to the vine which may prevent or lessen the flow of sap to the pod will result in the reduction of food that will be drawn up to the pods, and fewer mature seed will be formed. If one desires well-filled pods, the vines must be protected from those agencies which are injurious to the vines.

One of the most important of these agencies is the pea louse. If you will examine your vines you may find numerous colonies of tiny green bugs on the stalks and on the under side of the leaves. Watch them for a minute, and you will see that they do not move about very much, but are stationary at one point, and that they are of different sizes, ranging up to nearly half the size of a pea. What you can't very well see is that they are busily sucking the sap out of the vines. They accomplish this by means of a beak which is thrust into the leaf or stalk so carefully that the leaf is never torn or ragged as if chewed, and it seldom loses its natural color. Thus we are often deceived into assuming that the lice are doing no harm while they are actually sucking sap out of the vine. In some years they are so numerous and they work so diligently that the vines turn dark and die before the crop can be picked, and many years they reduce the late crop without being abundant enough to kill the vines.

One naturally wonders why the earlier varieties are usually not attacked. The reason lies in the fact that lice pass the spring on clover, which becomes tough and dry in July, and then they migrate to the pod. In the fall the lice migrate back to the clover again and pass the winter in the clover fields. This year there have been great numbers develop on the clover because their natural enemies have been kept down by the cold weather in June, and they are now passing over to the pea vines.

The colonies which you find on the stalks and leaves contain generally an old female which is giving birth to many small ones which will grow very rapidly and will soon produce another generation. They should be killed as soon as they are observed in order to stop as many as possible from producing others and getting into enclosed leaves where it is hard to reach them. (Since these tiny insects suck the sap instead of chewing the leaf they must be wet with something which kills them on contact with their bodies. In order to do this, it is frequently necessary to spray the under side of the leaves.)

One should look for them often, and when found spray at once with a tobacco extract solution, such as Black Leaf 40. This is the best remedy that can be applied, being prompt, penetrating, inexpensive, and it does not harm the leaves. To one gallon of water use one teaspoonful of the tobacco extract and dissolve in the spray solution an inch cube of soap. For larger quantities, use six ounces (1/2 of a pint) of tobacco extract in fifty gallons of water to which two pounds of soap (dissolved first in a gallon of water) has been added. The soap makes the solution stick to the lice until it has killed them. The spray should be applied with as much pressure as the pump will develop.

This spray is easy to mix, is easily applied, and is economically productive of more peas in any size garden. If you are raising peas you cannot afford to permit the lice to stay on the vines a day. Your vines cannot raise lice and well-filled pods at the same time. Do not forget that the productivity of your pea patch depends directly on the number of mature peas in the pods.

FRANKLIN.

Norman Dyer went to Bar Harbor Wednesday, and has enlisted in the naval reserve.

Walter Donnell and family spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Donnell.

Misses Geneva and Marjorie Bragdon and Thomas Macomber motored to Northeast Harbor Sunday.

Miss Nellie Phillips, a trained nurse of Boston, has been visiting her parents, Edward Phillips and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parsons of Presque Isle are visiting relatives here, having taken the trip in their car.

Mrs. Carrie Bragdon and Mrs. Della Bonker were called to Sullivan Wednesday by the serious illness of little Kermit Robertson.

Boyd Blaisdell and wife were in Bangor last week with their young daughter Beryl, who was operated upon for adenoids and removal of tonsils.

Francis Morse and Maynard Fernald are home from Whitinsville, Mass., for their vacation. Willie Morse returned to his work in Bangor Thursday, after a few days with his parents.

A patriotic buffet lunch and reception was given at the home of Mrs. C. E. Dyer last Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Martin, Jr., of Cleveland, O., Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Hanson of Boston and Harold Perkins of Bethel, Vt. There were seventeen guests. The veranda was tastefully decorated with bunting and flags. The good time was emphasized by the laughter which rang out over the fields.

It is interesting to note that the Liberty bell in Independence hall, Philadelphia, was rung Tuesday to celebrate the recent victory of American forces overseas. It is the first time the bell has rung since declaration of war. That the church and school bells were rung hilariously here Friday, July 18, was inadvertently omitted in last week's chronicles. Surely Franklin's jubilant demonstration was one of the country's echoes over the splendid achievement of our brave American boys "over there."

PERRY-HITCHCOCK.

One pretty wedding this season was that of Miss Cassiella Marguerite Perry to Rev. Henry A. Hitchcock Thursday forenoon, July 25, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Perry. Fair skies prevailed as the guests gathered in response to the many invitations. Flowers and potted plants bloomed a welcome everywhere. In the front parlor the bay window was particularly pleasing in its decorations of oak leaves, and there the bride party met the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. W. Lowell. The groom was attended by Mrs. Perry, and the bride-elect by her father. The wedding march was played by Miss Florence Dunn.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white crepe de chine, with bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden-hair fern.

After the ceremony, felicitations and refreshments were in order. The gifts, largely of silver and linen and beautiful needle work, were all expressive of the good will of many friends. A snapshot on the lawn of the bridal party was the occasion for several "bombs" of confetti to be thrown.

The wedded pair left in the afternoon in their car for a tour of Washington and Aroostook counties and a trip to the White Mountains.

Mr. Hitchcock is a graduate of Bangor theological seminary. The bride is a Colby graduate and a girl of fine character. She has been teaching in Sanford high school for some time, and there they will be at home to their friends after September 1, when the groom will resume his pastoral duties at the Congregational church.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Danforth Manchester, Mrs. Ansel Manchester and Mrs. Benjamin C. Graves of Northeast Harbor, Mrs. C. C. Ladd, Miss Mary and Master Charles Ladd, with Miss Kathleen Morris, of Bar Harbor. The worthy couple have the good wishes of a host of friends.

HOW TO GROW FAT

A Lazy Stomach the Cause of Thinness Nine Times in Ten.

If you are thin, or lean, have scrawny arms and neck, you can't grow fat unless your food properly digests. People take on flesh in proportion to the nutritious matter which the organs of digestion absorb and pass into the blood. Just as long as the nutritious matter passes along without being absorbed, just so long will you remain thin.

Perhaps your stomach, bowels and liver need a tonic. If your digestion is not perfect, Mi-o-na tablets will put it right at once. Mi-o-na will relieve indigestion and every conceivable ailment of the stomach promptly. It strengthens digestion by building and toning up and not by encouraging a tired stomach to continue its shiftless and listless devouring habits. It promptly drives away sour stomach, belching of gas, heaviness after eating.

Chas. E. Alexander sells Mi-o-na and guarantees it to relieve indigestion, sour and sickening vomiting of pregnancy and all stomach diseases and distress, or money back. Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists.

BLUEHILL FAIR.

PLANS FOR THE EXHIBITION AT MOUNTAIN PARK.PREMIUM LIST AND INFORMATION FOR EXHIBITORS, ISSUED BY HANCOCK COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The annual fair and cattle show of the Hancock county agricultural society will be held at Mountain park, Bluehill, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 3, 4 and 5. The society has issued its premium list and circular of general information for exhibitors, a copy of which will be sent to anyone in Hancock county on request to the secretary, N. L. Grindell of South Penobscot.

The officers of the association are: F. P. Merrill, president; A. S. Witham, vice-president; Max R. Hinckley, treasurer; N. L. Grindell, secretary; W. S. Hinckley, E. L. Osgood, J. M. Snow, F. H. Allen and H. S. Leach, directors.

Entry book for exhibitors will be opened with the secretary after Sept. 1, 1918.

All entries for the trotting races must be made on or before August 26, 1918, as the entries for those classes will positively close on that date, at 11 p. m.

Entries for the draft contests must be made at least one hour before the time for such contests to take place.

Entries for all articles, stock, manufactures, produce, etc., must be made before 12 m. Tuesday, Sept. 3, and all persons contemplating making an exhibition of any kind are requested to give notice of such intention as early as possible, naming article, etc., to be exhibited, space required, etc.

Promptness on the part of the exhibitors will save much annoyance and delay, and will be greatly appreciated by the managers.

No entrance fee will be charged on exhibits of any kind made by residents of Hancock county. A limited amount of space will be reserved for exhibitors outside of the county, at reasonable rates, but no premium will be awarded to such exhibitors.

Plenty of stalls and pens will be furnished for horses, cattle, sheep and swine, but exhibitors will please notify the secretary early of space required, so that ample accommodations may be furnished in time.

Plenty of water on the grounds to supply the stock in the driest time and for all other purposes for which water is needed.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Entries for articles and stock should be made on Monday, Sept. 2, and positively not later than 12 m. Tuesday, Sept. 3. Entries should be made with the secretary, N. L. Grindell, South Penobscot, Maine.

Cattle not drawing premiums, driven over five miles, will be entitled to a mileage of five cents per mile, distance to be reckoned one way.

Stock to be on the grounds by 9 a. m. the first day.

Stock will be judged at 9 o'clock on the second day. Each person owning stock must be on hand to bring his animal out in judges' ring.

Specimens of agricultural products must be thoroughly cleaned and in boxes, tubs or baskets, and have a suitable place, to be numbered by the secretary or superintendent of the department.

No two members of the same family can enter vegetables, farm crops, dairy products, canned goods, etc., and fruit, in the same class.

No premiums will be paid except on articles raised or manufactured and animals owned and kept within the limits of Hancock county.

Judges examining animals and articles are requested to report their awards to the secretary before 11 a. m. of the second day, and to him only until after the award of premiums is published.

Any driver exercising cruelty or using profanity while driving his team shall be immediately ruled off the grounds by the judges.

No person who is an exhibitor can act as judge on the class in which he exhibits.

No premiums or mileage will be paid on articles or performances unless adjudged worthy by the judges, although there is no competition.

Premiums will not be paid to exhibitors until two weeks after the fair.

If the society should not receive money enough to pay premiums to exhibitors in full, they will be paid proportionately, according to what the society may receive.

Premiums will be forfeited if not called for before January 1, 1919.

Every animal or article entered for premium must be owned by the person entering it, or his family, and all products of the farm, dairy, orchard, garden, house or shop must be entered by the producer or his special agent, and must be finished and complete.

All farm and garden products must have been produced or harvested the present year, and only one exhibit of every variety from the same planting or crop can be entered for premiums in its class.

Exhibitors, when requested by the secretary or by superintendents of departments, are expected to make verbal or written statements concerning their contributions; refusal to comply with such request may bar the exhibit from premium.

Awards will in no case be made when the exhibit is deemed (by the judges) to be unworthy of the premium.

When there is but one competitor in a class, the judges may award the first premium, if meritorious, but if not worthy of receiving the first premium, and if, in the opinion of the judges, the animal or article may be worthy of the second premium, then the judges must award only the second premium.

The managers will take every precaution for the safe keeping of animals and articles after arrival and arrangement for exhibition, but the association will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. Exhibitors must give personal attention to their animals and articles, and at the close of the fair attend to their removal.

The association offers a liberal reward for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons apprehended in committing any malicious mischief or removing or purloining any articles left with the association for exhibition or otherwise.

No person shall be permitted in the judging ring except the judges, groomers or persons in charge of the animals, officers of the association and members of the press.

Stock, etc., will be marked with tags furnished by the secretary, designating the number of entry, and during the entire fair they must be placed entirely under the control of the officers of the association, and must in no case be removed before the close of the fair without special permission.

Gambling devices of all kinds, and all selling of liquor upon the grounds, are strictly prohibited, and any person observing any infraction of the above rule will confer a favor by reporting the same to the secretary or general superintendent at once.

No intoxicated person or persons shall be allowed upon the grounds, and any person or persons guilty of any disorderly conduct shall be immediately expelled therefrom.

Authentic pedigrees of blood stock of all kinds will be required, which must be filed with the secretary at time of entry. No animal will be allowed a premium unless sound.

GRATUITIES.

Owing to the lack of time, and other causes, doubtless many articles of value and interest manufactured and grown in this county have been overlooked in the enumeration of the following premium list.

It is earnestly hoped that all persons having such articles of any kind will kindly bring them in, and they will be awarded space for exhibition, the same as listed articles, and if, in the opinion of the judges and directors, such articles are entitled to a premium, gratuities will be awarded.

Any person having novelties of any kind that would prove instructive or interesting will confer a favor on the society by presenting them for exhibition.

CAMPING.

Parties furnished tenting grounds free. Good spring water inside the grounds.

The management desires to make this one grand picnic, and will do all in its power to give those attending a good time.

SPORTING EVENTS.

The management has made arrangements for a ball game each day. Dance in town hall each night. A band will furnish music each day and for dances.

A merry-go-round will be on the ground each day.

Special attractions each day.

DEPARTMENT SUPERINTENDENTS.

N. L. Grindell, trotting horses.

F. H. Allen, horses and colts.

George Morse, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry.

George Morse, drawing contest.

A. T. Gillis, superintendent of exhibition hall and agricultural products.

Hebron Academy

HEBRON, MAINE

THE future holds countless opportunities for the wide-awake boys and far-sighted girls of today. How can your boy or girl meet the needs and responsibilities of that great time?

Hebron, through its proper environment, close contact with students from many parts of the country, courses of study and plan of play, is moulding body, mind and soul for the tasks of this golden future.

It is an ideal school for college preparation and also offers practical courses for those not preparing for college.

Buildings and dormitories are of the most beautiful type in New England.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1918.

It is your patriotic duty to report Maine complaints of disloyal acts, seditious utterances and any information relative to attempts to hinder the United States in the prosecution of the war to Clarence D. McKean, special agent in charge, United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Investigation, Federal building, Portland Maine.

"When rogues fall out, honest men get their dues." Here's hoping that the rumor of a break between Germany and Turkey may prove true. And they are quarreling over spoils of war not theirs to divide.

No deaths from smallpox, but one hundred forty-seven deaths from measles is Maine's record for 1917 according to the State Department of Health. These figures point to an interesting moral in that they show the lessening of the smallpox peril under definite restrictive measures and also show the seriousness of a disease that is usually treated as of small consequence.

"Having accomplished our object, we retired to new positions." So, officially, Germany describes a retreat that is but little short of rout. That is sop for the German people, but the German soldier knows better, and the folks back home will soon know, too. Not the least important feature of the allied drive is the affect on German morale at home and in the ranks. The German high command knows this, too, and so puts the camouflage on official reports.

Conserve Kerosene Now.

The supply of kerosene will run short next winter, and the government is urging every user to do his part toward making every gallon do full war duty by giving forth its full measure of light or heat. Saving can be accomplished, it is said, only if care is given lamps, lanterns, heaters and stoves.

The director of oil conservation of the United States fuel administration issues these rules for fuel-oil saving:

Keep all lamps and lanterns clean. Let the light out; don't confine it behind smoked and dirty chimneys.

See that burners and wicks of all oil-burning devices are clean. Clean burners require less oil and give better lights.

Don't allow a lamp, lantern, heater or stove to burn a minute longer than is necessary. Don't light one you can do without.

Don't use coal oil for cleaning purposes. Hot water will do the work.

KITTELY TO CARIBOU.

Herbert W. Noyes, aged 65, of Freeport, whose wife and grandson, Herbert W. Haley, were killed, when his automobile was struck by a Maine Central locomotive at Brunswick, Sunday night, July 21, died Wednesday from injuries received in the accident.

Ex-President Roosevelt and wife are spending a fortnight in Maine, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Richard Derby, at Dark Harbor.

The four-masted auxiliary schooner David Cohen was launched at Dennyville last Thursday by Pushee Bros. The Cohen is a craft of about 800 tons gross, with two oil-burning engines as auxiliary power. She is owned in New York. The keel for a duplicate craft will be laid at once.

Chief Warden Bela T. Wass of Washington county reports that the humpback salmon are appearing in Denny's river considerably earlier than last year. At Bangor a United States warden took a six-pound humpback salmon, which has been sent to Supt. DeRoche of the East Orland fish hatchery.

The American casualty lists from France during the past week contain the names of the following Maine men: Died of wounds, Bert M. St. Clair, Fryeburg; Wilfred Albert, Augusta. Severely wounded: Herbert R. Bean, Lewiston; Allen J. Fitzmorris, Skowhegan; Ralph M. Merrow, Hartland; Lester E. Walker, Skowhegan; Joseph J. Couillard, Presque Isle; Francis X. Callahan, Portland; Donald H. Haskell, Lincoln.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, etc.

1. This office is in receipt of the enclosed telegram addressed to Secretary Lane from Mr. J. P. Bass of Bangor, Maine. Please inform Mr. Bass that the action of Governor Milliken in ordering Class IV dependency cases appealed to the district boards is in accordance with an order issued by this office to the adjutant general of your state, and in accordance with the third paragraph of section 104, Selective Service Regulations.

2. Military necessity, as evidence by the large calls which are now being made upon the country for men should indicate to all who have joined in this protest that Class I should be recruited in strength in every legitimate way. Orders similar to that issued through the adjutant general to you are going forth to every state in the Union. We are proposing no new rules of classification, but are searching out errors in the application of the existing rules. To this end we have directed certain classes of cases to be re-examined and appealed.

3. I do not doubt that the action of the district board on appeal will be a wise one and corrective of irregularity and non-uniformity and that the registrants will have the fullest measure of protection extended to them.

Very truly yours,
E. H. CROWDER,
Provost Marshal General.

4. What are the facts regarding the failure to provide an armory at the University of Maine?

The attorney general rules that money from the war funds could only be used for war purposes and that the University of Maine armory could not come within the meaning of the phrase "war purposes." Governor Milliken was bound by the findings of his legal adviser that he had no right to use money except for purposes specified.

Regarding State Aid.

5. Can you tell me what relation Governor Milliken and the representatives from Maine at Washington (Senate and House) have had with the rule regarding State-aid being included in the schedule of income to a wife whose husband should be called in the draft? Has the original rule ever been changed, interpreted, or re-interpreted, by General Crowder, because of conditions in Maine? Governor Milliken's connection with State-aid question was to urge the Maine delegation at Washington to a protest to General Crowder against the order to Maine district and local boards that State-aid should be considered. As a result of this protest, in which all members of the Maine delegation joined, the following telegram was received:

June 26, 1918.

Telegram No. B-1711.

Instruct local and district boards that in considering claims for deferred classification on dependency grounds, they will disregard income provided by the State or municipalities for the maintenance of dependents while the registrants upon whose labors these persons are dependent for support are in the military service of the United States.

(Signed) CROWDER.

The adjutant general immediately communicated the same to all boards. A conference of local board members and appeal agents was called by the governor and work of reclassification began under the new conditions.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE MCL. PLESSON,
The Adjutant General.

THE DRAFT LAW.

Adj. Gen. Plesson Explains State's Attitude on Reclassification.

Rev. A. E. Morris, of Bangor, recently sent a letter to Adjutant General Plesson asking certain pointed questions relative to the attitude of the State administration to the selective draft law. General Plesson Friday sent the following reply to Mr. Morris:

July 25, 1918.

Rev. A. E. Morris, 160 Essex Street, Bangor, Maine.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your communication of July 15, referring to the Ministers' Conference at Bangor to act as a committee seeking certain information which you feel sure I can supply, I beg to state in answer to your questions as follows:

1. Has Governor Milliken issued, or caused to be issued, any rule or rules, contrary to orders of General Crowder, in relation to the selective draft?

Most emphatically no.

2. Who was responsible for the order to refer men in Class Four to the district board, with the intention of reclassification?

Verbal orders by Major Kramer, executive officer of the provost marshal general's office, subsequently confirmed in writing by the provost marshal general, E. H. Crowder.

3. Has General Crowder ever written anything to remove blame or responsibility from Governor Milliken, after more or less public condemnation was put upon the governor because of the above-mentioned order? If so, may I know what he wrote?

Yes. Copy of letter and telegram inclosed.

The telegram and letter, the copies of which were enclosed in Mr. Morris' letter, are as follows:

In Accord with Instructions.

Replying your telegram June 2nd to secretary of treasury you are advised that action of governor and adjutant general of Maine in ordering appeal to district board from classification by local boards was in accordance with explicit instructions of this office.

CROWDER.

War Department.

The Men Who Carry the Flag.

(A Song, by J. J. Stewart.)

Cheer for the men who carry the flag
And go far over the seas;
On the men who risk their lives I'll brag—
That fight for our country.

CHORUS:

Cheer, cheer, cheer
For the men gone over the sea,
For the men who carry our country's flag
To fight for our country.

Cheer for the men who leave their home
And friends and kindred dear,
To carry the flag o'er the ocean foam.
For them my heart will cheer.

The men who came at our country's call
And over the waters go,
Unselfishly forsaking all,
To meet our country's foe.

The men who will not fail to heed
Our kinsmen call to save;
The men who help the weak in need,
Whom tyrants would enslave.

The men who go to win the fight
And keep our country free;
The men who will defend our right
And fight for liberty.

They are the pride of all our land—
The strong, the brave, the true;
They'll carry the flag with fearless hand,
The red, the white and blue.

FARM BORROWERS.

Progress of the Federal Farm Loan System.

The Federal Land Bank of Springfield has issued a statement summarizing the results accomplished by the operation of the Farm Loan act in the district served by the Springfield institution, namely, the New England States, New York and New Jersey.

That the benefit of the system appeals strongly to the agricultural interest is confirmed by the statistics embodied in the report, and justifies the conviction that this legislation will afford an excellent stabilizing influence to the field of rural credits generally.

One hundred and twenty National Farm Loan associations, through which loans are granted, have been organized with 3,500 members, whose loan applications total nearly $12,000,000. Of this number nearly 3,000 loans have been approved by the bank for a total of $7,000,000. The number of applications and the amounts approved by states are as follows:

Maine	305	$568,150
New Hampshire	51	88,100
Vermont	208	618,300
Massachusetts	904	1,279,105
Rhode Island	61	99,850
Connecticut	336	842,975
New York	1,078	2,683,565
New Jersey	292	713,350

Loans are made on one-half the value of farm land and one-fifth the value on farm buildings, on from five years to thirty-four years' time; at five and one-half per cent. interest, payable December 1, with 1 per cent. of principal paid then.

Persons desirous of obtaining information as to the farm loan system and the methods used in granting loans should communicate with the Federal Land Bank of Springfield, or with H. Fremont Macdocks, North Ellsworth, secretary of the Hancock National Farm Loan association of Ellsworth, which operates in the county of Hancock.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND PEPTIRON

Conditions that are both scrofulous and anemic are very common. Many persons whose faces are "broken out," cheeks are pale, and nerves are weak, suffer from them.

There is an effective, economical remedy in the combination of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron, one taken before eating and the other after.

In these medicines taken in this way the best substances for the blood and nerves are brought together.

PEAT IN MAINE.

Fuel Situation Directs New Attention to Valuable Deposits.

For years occasional references have been made to the supply of peat in Maine, but not a great deal of attention has been paid, owing largely to the ease with which a plentiful supply of coal was obtained and the comparative low cost and availability of wood.

Now a vastly different condition exists. This year, and probably for some years to come, our supply of coal will be limited, and owing to scarcity of labor, wood will not only be high, but in many localities extremely difficult to get.

For these reasons peat becomes a more important subject for consideration. The peat deposits are ample; the people need only be educated in the preparation and use of peat.

Under test conditions in Europe, in comparison with steam coal of good quality, peat, when fired under boilers, has been found to be worth about five-ninths of a ton of good coal. Under the usual methods of firing, however, there is likely to be a greater loss of heat units from the coal than from the peat, especially if the latter is in the form of air-dried machine peat.

The machine-dried peat does not clinker or give off any volatile matter in the form of black smoke. It burns up completely, leaving only a powdery-like ash which is small in bulk compared with the usual fuel. It makes a good fuel bed in the furnace, and burns with a long, bright, clear flame, without smoke or sulphurous gases so that neither dusts, grates nor boiler plates are corroded or clogged.

In burning peat, it is of advantage not to stir the fire, which causes the fuel to break up and drop through the grates, or to give it too much draft, for then it burns with too great intensity.

As a domestic fuel, peat is clean, can be made to burn slowly or rapidly as desired by regulating the drafts, is easily handled, and is so efficient that it commands a ready sale at good prices to all who have had an opportunity to try it.

Hand Plow Built From Bicycle.

A farmer in California had no hand plow, so he proceeded to improvise one, says the Popular Science Monthly. The body of the plow he made from an old bicycle frame. The bicycle handle-bar was taken off, turned backward and set solidly in the frame. The wheel was taken from a large gate valve. The plowshare is attached to the frame by a U-bolt.

What Friendship Is.

Friendship is the transfiguration of service; the creation of a new motive; redeeming life from its drudgery, and sending the pulse-beat of joy into the most trivial task.—Donald Sage Mackay.

RUSH FOR BRITISH GUARDS

All Classes of English People Eager to Enlist in Crack Regiments.

London.—The glamour of the Guards has appealed to men of all classes of society, and a vacancy in these regiments either of commission or in the ranks seldom needed hours to fill.

At present these regiments are open to recruiting, with the result that there is a positive rush among young men to enlist. The hundreds of young miners who have been released under the coming out order, especially men from the northern districts, are coming to London for the purpose of enlisting in these crack regiments, and the recruiting authorities are working night and day.

The men are all of splendid physique and show, by their action that they have not got over the good old-fashioned English dislike of waiting until they are fetched.

The majority of the men are enlisting for the full army period of service and not for the duration of the war.

VICTIM OF U-BOAT BELITTLES MENACE

Spencertown, N. Y.—Joseph Satriale, radio operator on the President Lincoln, recently sunk by a German U-boat, survived the hardships of being adrift many hours only to come home here on furlough and be taken seriously ill, due to reaction.

Satriale, with several shipmates, was adrift 18 hours before being picked up by an American destroyer. He says the U-boats will have no great effect on shipping as long as the American destroyers and chasers are turned loose. Every time a piece of floatwood appears on the water's surface there is a swarm of small boats making for it.

Said Wife Needed Shave.

Milwaukee, Wis.—"He told me I needed a shave," was the plea of Mrs. Clara Nitz, aged fifty-four, who is suing her husband, Arthur R. Nitz, aged fifty-eight, for divorce. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment.

Etiquette.

There is an ancient saying that "One should never speak of a rope to a man whose father was hanged," and there is a great deal implied in those few words. In effect, it is meant that subjects of conversation should be carefully introduced where persons present are not known to a certain extent; that is, that nothing untoward has happened, publicly, at least, that would make any unusual subject apply too openly to anyone especially.

Mrs. Ida Roberts of Bangor, a former resident of Otis, is here on a visit with old neighbors and friends. Her son Cyrus, with his wife, accompanied her for the day last Friday. They have the sympathy of their friends here in their recent sudden bereavement, the death of their four-year-old son Roland, by an accident.

Elmer Rouillard, son of Mrs. Millie Rouillard of Boston and Eden, who was honorably discharged from the service on account of his failing health, came here last Saturday, his physician advising his removal from the salt water. His mother and brother are with him at the home of her sister, Mrs. Eben Salisbury. Their many friends hope the change of air may benefit the brave soldier boy.

An interesting guest in town this summer is Joseph Lyman, eighty-four years old. He is smart and active, and may be seen every day watching for the mail man to bring his daily paper, which he reads without glasses. He can give one more information regarding all matters past, present and future than a history, and he is very progressive and patriotic. He expects to visit Otis many years, long after the war is ended and the Germans are crushed.

SHAVING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

A French Poilu, who contracted tuberculosis during an 18 months' stay in a German prison camp, shaving under difficulties. The American Red Cross, which is working with the French in the fight against tuberculosis, has recently shipped thousands of safety razors to France and other European countries.

ATTACKS VICTIM OF U-BOAT

French Vessel Captain Mistakes Wreck for Submarine and Opens Fire.

San Francisco.—Capt. Abel Chevalier, commander of the French bark Bretagne, holds the unique distinction of being the only officer to attack what he thought was a German submarine and then find that the object of his attack was itself the victim of a submarine.

After a tortuous journey through submarine-infested seas, the Bretagne came upon what was believed to be a German U-boat off the Spanish coast. Captain Chevalier turned loose with all guns and after sending several shells through the supposed diver discovered that it was the bulk of an American ship that had been torpedoed.

"We fired eleven shots at a distance of three miles before we discovered our mistake," said Captain Chevalier. "When we ran alongside we found no sign of life aboard. The lifeboats were gone and the crew probably had made for the Spanish coast. The only letters we could make out on the name plate were 'R-essy'."

The Bretagne sank the old hulk before continuing her voyage.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD WOULD JOIN NAVY

Philadelphia.—Perhaps the most disappointed boy in the Philadelphia district is eleven-year-old Rollo Jacobson of Lansdowne. He made a round of all the recruiting offices in this city and failed to enlist. "I want to go to France," he pleaded. "I am certain you want a drummer boy to go along with the troops." The young patriot made a splendid impression and at the Naval Reserve recruiting office he was permitted to fill out an application blank. He stated that he was in the sixth grade at school and that his "nearest of kin" was his baby brother, Marcus, three years old.

FRENCH CURRENCY FOR YANKS

Men Going Overseas Receive Army Checks in France in Exchange for American Money.

New York.—United States army service checks, issued in denominations of French currency, have made their appearance at a National army cantonment in the East. They will be accepted as legal tender on the entire western battle front, including the allied lines in Italy, military officers stated.

The checks bear valuations of 5, 10c and 200 francs. They will be issued in exchange for American money to troops going overseas, eliminating the former practice of providing the soldiers with gold.

The check system, it is said, has been approved by the war department. French clearing houses of American banks are expected to co-operate in handling it abroad.

MANACLED; HELPS RED CROSS

Prisoner on Way to Penitentiary Empies Pockets into Contribution Box.

San Francisco.—With his hands manacled, a prisoner being taken to San Quentin penitentiary was confronted by a woman dressed in white and with a crimson cross on her arm. "Just a minute, sheriff," the criminal said. "I want to give the lady something for the Red Cross."

Thrusting his manacled hands deep into his pockets, he brought them out filled with silver and emptied them into the contribution box.

Offers Walnut to Uncle Sam.

Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Lucy B. Reid of De Kalb county, owner of several hundred acres of land on which are growing a number of walnut groves, has offered the government all the walnut timber to make gunstocks, asserting her willingness to let the government set its own price.

Pure Blood

An impure condition of the blood cannot be overcome unless the bowels are made to move freely, once a day, at least. To build up the system, so permanent benefit will result, it is necessary to improve the digestion. We strongly recommend the true "L. F." Atwood Medicine, for its ingredients act upon the stomach, liver and bowels. It tones those organs to new activity so that they perform their functions naturally, and throw off all impure and unclean matter. Take a teaspoonful morning and night,—your skin will clear, appetite return, strength and spirits revive;—you'll be glad you bought this genuine "L. F." remedy, price 50 cents, made by the L. F. Medicine Co., Portland, Maine.

Why the Scotch Highlanders Wear Kilts

BECAUSE the Highland Scot, wading through the wet weather of the mountains, found kilts kept drier. Before the Roman soldier, himself a Kiltie, came, Lowland and Highland folk wore Kilts. When modern life turned the Lowlands to trousers, the wet mountain heather held the Highlands to Kilts. But his wet weather, had GOODRICH been founded, wouldn't have worried the Highlander.

GOODRICH SERVICE VALUE TIRES

Goodrich would have met his needs with Hipress boots and waterproof garments, just as Goodrich met the need of the automobile for the right rubber tire. Twenty-two years Goodrich has shaped the destiny of automobile tires, bringing them from crude, clumsy affairs, to the graceful GOODRICH SERVICE VALUE TIRES. And all Goodrich inventions were directed toward one end, SERVICE VALUE to the user. For Goodrich recognizes but one tire value; what a tire is worth to the motorist on his car and on the road, in comfort, economy, and long mileage. Goodrich manufacture puts SERVICE VALUE in Goodrich Tires, both SILVERTOWN CORDS, and BLACK SAFETY TREADS, and Goodrich Test Car Fleets prove it is there. Demand the SERVICE VALUE TIRES.

SUMMER HOTELS AGREE FOLLOW ALL FOOD REGULATIONS

Over 200 Public Eating Places in Maine Abolish Use of Wheat Until Next Harvest.

NAVY ON HONOR SYSTEM TO SAVE SUGAR

Orono, Maine, July.—Practically every summer resort hotel in this state has lined up with the Food Administration and is now strictly observing all regulations. Recently all the hotels in York County discussed the food situation with representatives of the Maine Division of the Food Administration and agreed to follow all rules. Then the hotel men at Bar Harbor and Mount Desert Island adopted resolutions offering their support in food saving and to assist the Food Administration so far as possible.

About 250 hotels, restaurants and public eating places have signed the Pledge Card agreeing to abolish the use of wheat flour and wheat products in any form until the next harvest.

Operators of lumber camps have endorsed the work of the Food Administration and recently the members of the Eastern Maine Lumbermen's Association, employing at least 15,000 men, pledged themselves to support the Food Conservation program and to urge upon the whole industry, hearty co-operation with the Food Administration as a patriotic duty.

All public eating places are urged to display the following cards:

"SUGAR IS SCARCE"

You can help win the war by making one lump of sugar do the work of two.

Use it sparingly. Use none if you can do without.

Limit yourself to a maximum of three pounds a month. The restaurants and public eating places are on a strict sugar ration. If you use more than your share, others will be deprived of their share.

United States Food Administration for Maine.

SAVE THE GARBAGE

Sufficient garbage was recovered from the household garbage collected during the month of May from eleven American cities to make the explosive charge for more than half a million 75 mm. shells, besides millions of pounds of soap and other products, according to the figures just issued by the United States Food Administration. The garbage grease was sufficient to produce 129,040 pounds of glycerine from which nitroglycerine is made and for which there is a big demand at this time.

The figures show an increase in the amount of grease recovered over the same period last year, particularly Chicago, which showed an increase well over 200 per cent. The entire amount of grease recovered is an increase of 43 per cent over May, 1917. The returns are from eleven cities having a population of over 6,000,000.

NAVY ON HONOR SYSTEM

Naval officers and their families who buy at commissary stores have gone on the same honor ration of sugar purchase established by the Food Administration for civilians throughout the country. A recent order from Rear Admiral Samuel McGowan, Paymaster General, calls attention of commanding officers of shore stations to the fact that three pounds per capita per month is the maximum ration and that not more than two pounds can be sold at a time to city customers and five pounds to dwellers in the country.

FOOD IN CANADA

Shortage of labor in Canada, particularly on farms; tightening food regulations; convictions in court for hoarding and other unfair practices; a drive to cut down sugar consumption; a quickened appreciation of the value of garbage as a source of war materials; development of the use of substitutes for meal and wheat, and the resolution to lay up as large food reserves as possible on both sides of the Atlantic; this is the picture of the food situation drawn by the Canadian Food Bulletin, just received by the Food Administration. Canada needs 64,000 laborers for her farms. Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island are provided for, but all the other provinces must have 2000 to 20,000 men each to get in the crops. In Nova Scotia, where 25 to 50 per cent greater acreage is planted to foodstuffs this year than last, the Soldiers of the Soil enrolled 2100 boys, 1800 of whom are at work on the farms. The S. O. S. movement general throughout the Dominion, has placed nearly 12,000 boys.

ABOUT BROWN SUGAR

Brown sugar is not a substitute for granulated sugar in the sense that it may be bought in addition to purchases of the granulated. If brown sugar is bought, the amount must be deducted from the three pounds a month a person allowance.

Maple sugar, corn sugar and grape sugar, however, may be bought in addition to purchases of the granulated and need not be figured in the three pounds a month allowance.

WORTHY OF MORE MENTION

Brakeman Seldom Properly Appreciated in Life or Appropriately Honored in Death.

Following a railway accident recently, there was great relief in official circles when the report was made that only a brakeman had been killed. Only a brakeman! And there were hundreds of others waiting to fill his shoes.

Only a brakeman! His name was not given in the telegraphic report of the accident. He had not made a name to which the world would pay tribute. There were only a few friends who knew him in the railway Y. M. C. A. and a brother and sister in Russia. Home, family, friends he had left in the land of oppression to come to America, the country of opportunity. Alone, ignorant, untrained in American ways, he was only a brakeman in the official report telling of his death.

Only a brakeman! Yet it is such as he who are moving our freight, trucking the meat that supplies our tables, hauling the coal that heats our homes, bringing the milk with which we feed our babies. Standing on top of their freight cars, leaning against the wind, with the dust of the deserts in their faces, and the grime of the nations on their hands, wherever you find cars, engines, freight, soot, danger, there you will find the brakeman, toiling sleeplessly, hopefully, uncomplainingly, with death stalking ever at his side, to give us comforts and make our homes happy. Yet when the car couplers pinch him within their giant jaws or the wrecked train crushes out his life beside the railway track, the reports that the public reads record the death of only a brakeman.—Milwaukee Journal.

ONE OF WORLD'S CURIOSITIES

Fir Tree in Belgium Has Characteristics Unlike Any of Its Kind So Far as Known.

What is claimed to be one of the most curious trees in the world was found in Belgium by M. Louis Pire, president of the Royal Botanical Society of Belgium. It is a fir tree, still standing at last account, in the forests of Allaz, Canton of Vaud.

"This particular tree," reports Professor Pire, "stands 4,500 feet above the sea and is surrounded by a forest of firs, which it exceeds in height by 30 to 40 feet."

"The trunk of this tree is ten meters, or a little more than thirty feet, in circumference at the base. At about a yard from the ground it puts out, on the south side, seven offshoots, which have grown into trunks as strong and vigorous as those of the other trees in the forest. Bent and gnarled at the bottom, these side-trunks soon straighten themselves up and rise perpendicularly and parallel to the main stem."

"Another most curious fact is that the two largest side-trunks are connected with the principal stem by sub-quadrangular braces resembling girders. These beams have probably been formed by an anastomosing of branches, which, common enough among the angiosperms, is extremely rare among conifers."

Ben Franklin's Simple Diet.

It is amusing to read how Ben Franklin thrived on a biscuit, or a slice of bread, a handful of raisins, or a tart from the pastry cook and a glass of water, varied at times by boiled rice or a potato, or a hasty pudding of his own making. Upon this fare grew America's greatest statesman and the world's greatest philosopher. The rich and ambitious youth of these days would scorn such a diet, holding that it was the eating that made the man. But Benjamin not only saved time and money by his new diet, but as he says: "I made greater progress from that greater clearness of head and quicker apprehension which generally attended temperance in eating and drinking." This abstemious life did not seem to detract from his health, but rather contributed to his longevity, for he lived to be eighty-four years old.

Formation and Color.

The iridescence of nautilus, or mother-of-pearl, is a matter of form and not actual color. In fact, all "changeable" colors are more or less the result of form even where there is pigmentation beneath, such as in certain ribbed silks. When sunlight bears directly upon finely ribbed metal, as a file, there is the same play of colors.

In the case of mother-of-pearl an interesting experiment has been made. An impression of the pearl was taken upon pure white wax. It was then found that the apparently smooth surface of the pearl had still sufficient irregularities to impress upon the wax a surface that resulted in similar color manifestations.—Edwin Tarrisse.

Regret Interference With Nature.

Australia is regretting the laws passed some years ago ordering the slaughter of hawks, owls, carrion crows or other birds that prey on young animals and birds, says a Sydney dispatch to the Cleveland Press.

These have now been almost wiped out, with the result, as described by a recent writer, that decaying bodies, numerous on sheep farms, have been left to be demolished by the larvae of blowflies, which have now increased to such an appalling extent as to threaten the sheep on the runs with destruction, the animals becoming "flyblown" and eaten up alive by this dangerous pest.

FARM STOCK

WATERING STOCK IN SUMMER

As Springs and Streams Dry Up It Is Highly Essential to Furnish Abundant Water Supply.

Animals need more water during hot weather than they do during the winter. There is a greater loss of water from their bodies in the processes of heat regulation, digestion, etc., consequently they drink more if they have it. As the natural sources, such as streams and springs dry up in the summer, it is highly essential that particular attention be given to furnishing a plentiful supply of fresh water during the heated period.

Fresh and cool water supplied in ample amounts will serve the very useful purposes of eliminating many of the digestive disturbances often complained of by feeders. Unless the digestive agencies are properly functioned the best results can be by no means realized. And since water, which is one of the most abundant elements we have, serves such a useful purpose it should be given serious consideration particularly at this time of the year, when the dry, hot weather will soon come. The man who has a never-failing spring in his pasture is indeed lucky, but with a good deep well equipped with a wind pump or better still a pump run by a gasoline engine one need have little worry over the needs of his stock for water, so long as he sees that their drinking troughs are always full.

COLT ATTENTION IN SUMMER

Young Animal Should Be Placed in Dark Stall During Day—Encourage It to Eat Grain.

The colt should be left in a cool, dark stall during the day if the mare is worked, asserts Dr. C. W. McCampbell, associate professor of animal husbandry in the Kansas state agricultural college.

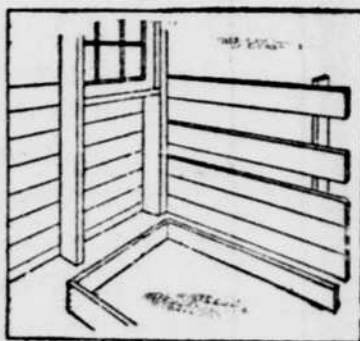

For the first few weeks the mare should be brought to the barn in the middle of the forenoon and the middle of the afternoon and the colt allowed to suckle. The colt should be left with the mare at night. Encourage it to eat as soon as possible—preferably crushed oats with bran. If oats are not available a ration consisting of four parts of corn, three of bran, and one of linseed meal by weight may be substituted.

Let the colt have clover or alfalfa hay as soon as he will eat it. See to it that he has access to clean, pure water at all times. If the mare and foal are running in the pasture a creep should be made where the colt can have access to grain.

PROTECTION FOR YOUNG PIGS

the floor, or just high enough so that in case a sow lies down while her young are between her and the wall they can slip under the fender and avoid being crushed by the weight of the sow.—Orange Judd Farmer.

WORLD SHORTAGE OF STOCK

Speedy Ending of War Would Not Change Present Basis of Prices—Tax Is Protection.

There is every reason to believe that the present level of prices for live stock will continue for some time. Because there is a world shortage of stock, a speedy ending of the present war should not change the basis of prices until a normal supply of stock is raised. The 10 per cent import duty on stock, meats, hides and wool will serve as protection against shipments from other countries where labor is cheaper.

ENGLAND'S CAST-IRON SHEEP

Herdswicks Are Noted for Their Mutton and Wool—Able to Stand Exposure and Hardships.

A writer in The Shepherd's Journal refers to the Herdwick as England's cast-iron sheep. The Herdwick are famed for their mutton and thick, soft fleeces. They stand the hardships and exposures of an inclement climate better than most other breeds.

SUMMER SCHOOL NOTES.

The track and field meet held on Fort George on Saturday afternoon, was a pronounced social and athletic success.

The students and faculty of the summer school were divided into three teams, the Reds, coached by Mr. Hall, the Whites, coached by Mr. Milan, and the Blues, coached by Miss Mantor. The meet was won by the Whites with a score of 37 points. The Blues finished a close second, with 30 points, and the Reds took third place with 23 points. The list of events was as follows:

Arch ball, Blue, 1; Red, 2; White, 3. Throwing basket-ball, Webster, Blue, 1; M. Smith, White, 2; Hattie Clark, White, 3.

Circle dodge ball, White 1; Red and Blue tie for second place.

Potato race, Red, 1; Blue, 2; White, 3. Preliminaries 50-yard dash, Bailey, Chase, Plummer, Red; Smith, Tufts, White; Webster, Blue, qualified.

Throwing baseball, Thompson, Blue, 1; Ridley, White, 2; Drew, White, 3.

Pass and run, White, 1; Red, 2; Blue, 3.

Circle club bowls, White and Blue tie for first place; Red, 3.

Fifty-yard dash, finals, M. Smith, White, 1; Plummer, Red, 2; Tufts, White, 3.

All-up relay, Blue and White tie for first place; Red, 3.

Relay race—Red team, Rankin, Bailey, Chase, Plummer; White team, Ridley, Hattie Clark, Walls, M. Smith; Blue team, Barnes, Holmes, Webster, Crane, Red, 1; White, 2; Blue, 3.

The cheerleaders were Izah Hutchinson, Red; Margaret McQuade, White; Hazel Crane, Blue. Judges at finish, Agnes Mantor, W. O. Chase, W. L. Powers. Starter, Frank L. Milan. Scorer, Nellie W. Jordan. Referee and announcer, W. D. Hall.

Prin. William L. Powers of the Machias normal school, who is teaching in the Castine summer school, gave an interesting lecture on nature study in the assembly hall Thursday evening.

The summer school faculty was entertained at the Richardson bungalow Saturday, July 27. The picnic supper was under the able management of Mrs. Alfred F. Richardson, Mrs. Myra A. Ferguson, Mrs. W. D. Hall, Miss Nellie F. Harvey and Mrs. E. E. Philbrook.

The large dining-room at Richardson hall was filled to overflowing with summer school students, members of the faculty and a few friends, last Friday evening. The program, which consisted of readings, games and dancing, was arranged by the following social committee, who served as such for the entire week: Mrs. Vesta Williams, Miss Nellie F. Harvey, Frank L. Milan, Miss Linnie Lanpher and Miss Lucile F. Smith.

Little Miss Margaret Elizabeth Hall, costumed in flaming red, took an active part in the field meet Saturday as mascot for the Reds.

Roland Salisbury, one of the limited service men, was called Monday to leave for Syracuse, N. Y., where he will train for guard and fire duty. All wish him good luck and an early return when the war is over.

Caroline Sisby of Amherst, union superintendent, was in town last Friday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Salisbury.

Dr. Marshall of Bangor held an interesting meeting in the town building Sunday afternoon. He is a pleasant and learned preacher, and his message was clear and convincing. An impressive feature of the service was Mr. Marshall playing the cornet, in accompaniment to Mrs. Marshall's singing most beautifully the hymn "God is my Gold." Mr. Marshall and wife were accompanied in their automobile by Mrs. Hattie Frazier of Lakewood and Mrs. Hamilton of Ellsworth Falls, who came to attend the meeting.

Mrs. George Black, with daughter and son, Agnes and Clarence, and their friends of Bangor, came by automobile last Saturday to visit friends and relatives. Mrs. Black remained over for a week to visit the scenes and places dear to her as her girlhood home.

Frank Parker's double poppies in his garden are the great white while these days, and are attracting many flower-lovers. They are a spectacle, in their white glory, and may be seen at a distance, morning, noon and night, a sight at which to marvel.

Water Powers in Maine

In a former article on heating by electricity attention was called to the fact that should all the undeveloped water power in the State be utilized for heating houses, there would not be sufficient power to heat one-fourth of the houses in the State.

The Literary Digest, in its issue of June 15, contains a quotation from an article on "Industrial Canada" by Mr. Arthur V. White, consulting engineer to the Canadian Conservation Commission.

Mr. White says: "In the City of Toronto there are about 80,000 homes which during the winter months consume on an average about ten tons per home, making a total consumption of 800,000 tons of anthracite."

Now, to supply from electrical energy the heat equivalent of the 800,000 tons of anthracite, at the time of maximum rate of consumption and on a basis of 50 per cent. recovery, there would have to be available, at a conservative estimate, 1,500,000 electrical horse power.

For the purpose of further illustration, it may be assumed that a low maximum demand of electrical energy to heat an eight or nine-roomed house in Ontario such as would ordinarily use nine or ten tons of anthracite coal for the winter season, would be from fifteen to twenty horse power; it would probably be nearer thirty horse power, and under certain conditions, would be a still greater quantity. Considering, then, the 80,000 homes on the basis of approximately twenty horse power, we derive, again, about 1,500,000 h. p. as the estimated electrical requirement for simply heating the homes of Toronto. This takes no account of lighting, other heating or power demands. It should be noted that the figures here presented are conservative, and doubtless the quantities required might be substantially greater."

Mr. White's estimate of the amount of power needed to heat the houses of Toronto is that of 1,500,000 h. p., which is the amount claimed to be running to waste by advocates of State ownership, but which amount is available for six months of the year only, as is stated by the Water Storage Commission in their report of 1910, page 69.

Unfortunately the maximum flow of our rivers is not in the cold weather months, but quite the opposite, so that all the unused power in Maine available for heating purposes in winter would, even if the cost was not prohibitive, be insufficient to heat more than one-fourth of our dwellings if so used.

This statement showing the futility of the scheme to use water powers for heating purposes, is simply repeating what every scientific electrical engineer in this or other countries has stated and which has been proven by actual test.

BUCKSPORT.

Mrs. Foster Newcomb has received word of the safe arrival of her husband overseas.

Prof. Carl Buck of Chicago has joined his family at their summer home at Lake Algonquook.

Among the University of Maine students at Plattsburg for the two months intensive training is Reginald M. Jocelyn of Bucksport.

At the annual meeting of the trustees of the E. M. C. seminary held July 26, the following members of the faculty were chosen for the coming year: President, Elmer R. Verrill, history and science; Rev. David M. Angell, English bible; Miss Mary Russell, house-hold arts and mathematics; Miss Celia F. Smith, vocal and instrumental music; Miss Frances M. Chandler, English and elocution; Miss Anna Perkins, Latin and French. The teachers for the commercial branches will be appointed later.

The following resolutions were passed at a meeting of the officials of the Elm street Congregational church held at the vestry July 23: "Whereas, on account of the receipt by our pastor, Rev. Henry W. Webb, of a call to become the pastor of another church, we are here to express the high esteem in which we hold him, and our appreciation of the faithful and untiring work which he and his noble wife have done among us for the past six years. Resolved, that we strongly urge him to continue the pastoral relations with us, promising him our continued and hearty support."
